
CHOIR BOYS IN CAMP.

The Holy Cross Singers Having a Jolly Good Time, Under Strict Military Discipline.

DAILY PRESS TENT,
CAMP SAUNDERS,
MERWIN'S POINT, CONN.

JULY 1—Our first day in camp is over, and things in general have settled down to a routine nature. Yesterday morning we got our breakfast at 8, and such a hungry lot of persons you never saw. The entire company was astir at 5 a. m., and you can perhaps imagine three hours of waiting for our first meal in the day, but when the good cook called us we responded most readily, and quickly devoured our portion, which was served in excellent style, and was exceptionally well cooked.

After breakfast, the boys attended morning prayer, and then amused themselves in various ways. Some went in bathing, some boating, and others wandered around. The bathing was very good, though the water was a little cold; those who went in enjoyed themselves hugely.

Mr. Miner keeps a watchful eye on the boys, and all dangers are avoided.

At 12 we had a good lunch, which was refreshing in the middle of the day.

We are divided into two sets, for meals, the tent not being large enough to accommodate all at once.

It was quite warm in the sun during the day, but a cool breeze was felt almost all the time.

After lunch, several of the boys had a game of ball, in one of the fields near camp, which was participated in heartily, and was quite warming.

The latter part of the day was spent in playing various games.

Mr. Miner was obliged to go to New Haven in the afternoon, and the camp is in charge of the older boys.

The officers of the day from yesterday till the close of camp are as follows:

Friday June 30—E. J. Waring.
Saturday July 1—E. D. Mackey.
Sunday July 2—Robert Clark.
Monday July 3—Herbert Schutt.
Tuesday July 4—Thomas Parks, George Westervelt.
Wednesday July 5—R. D. Clark.
Thursday July 6—Frank Perry.
Friday July 7—Frank Hoadley.

Following is the daily routine as made out by Mr. Miner:

6:30 a. m—Morning Call.
7 a. m—Breakfast.
7:30 a. m—Morning Prayers.
8 a. m—Orders for Day.
11:30 a. m—Lunch Call.
12 m—Lunch.
2:30 p. m—Dinner Call.
4 p. m—Dinner.
8:45 p. m—Retiring Call.
9 p. m—Evening Prayers.
9:30 p. m—Lights.

With the above followed out, one can readily see that with pleasure the boys have good discipline, though not too strict.

Most of our company were very glad to hear that Yale had won the famous boat race. Mr. Miner brought us the news when he came back from New Haven at 5:30.

On the Fourth we expect a very large time. Mr. Miner is arranging for some athletic games, and the choir will give a concert here at the camp. There will be lots of visitors here from the surrounding places, and everybody will enjoy themselves.

Last night after dinner another game of ball was played.

Everybody is well; no sickness is reported, and it is to be hoped that none will be. DOBBINS.

The Youngest Manager from Plainfield.

Harry A. Thorne of Plainfield made a flying visit to New York for a few days, in response to a call from the president of the Adirondack League club to accept the management of their new club-house, which was opened June 20. In accepting this management he was compelled to give up a position at Lake View House, Placid, where he had been engaged the coming year. Mr. Thorne is the youngest manager in the Adirondacks, and has had considerable experience in hotel management. This club-house, of which the league has three, is the largest in the Adirondacks, and has a big membership, many Plainfielders being members. Among them are Henry C. Squires, Harry Squires, ...

THE NAHANT TOURNAMENT.

Tennis Team Contest in Full Progress on the Hillside Courts.

Lured by the combined attractions of a regular tea and the prospect of seeing the preliminary games of the Nahant tournament, a large number of people gathered on the grounds of the Hillside Tennis club, Saturday afternoon.

Mrs. Clifton Wharton, jr., assisted by a number of young ladies from the reception committee, did the honors for the club, and served iced tea and lemonade under the shade of the trees.

Only three of the teams that have entered for the tournament were present, and only three matches were played. Nine teams have entered, so there will be 36 matches played, as in a Nahant tournament every team plays every other team, the prize going to the team that wins the most matches.

The entries are:

J. P. Murray and W. P. Brandegee.
F. W. Walz and E. L. Walz, jr.
Albert Simmonds and C. F. Walz.
J. H. P. Wharton and ——.
C. B. Morgan and Wesley Abbott.
Sherwood West and Harry West.
A. F. Jennings and C. S. Brown.
H. V. Ryder and Fred Fish, jr.
August Huntington and G. F. Schoonmaker.

The results of Saturday's play were:

Walz brothers beat West brothers, 6—3, 4—6, 6—1.

Walz brothers beat Murray and Brandegee, 6—0, 6—1.

West brothers beat Murray and Brandegee, 6—4, 6—0.

Play was resumed to-day, and will be finished to-morrow.

Among those present Saturday were:

Mr. and Mrs. Charles E. Brooks, Mr. and Mrs. Robert L. Burnett, Miss Lawrence, Miss Butler, Miss Maud Lord, Mrs. Saunders, Mrs. Hart, Miss Hart, Miss Musgrave, Miss Wilson, Mrs. Fox, Mr. and Mrs. DeWitt C. Ivins, Miss Tweedy, Dexter O. Tiffany, Miss Kenyon, Mrs. Huntington, Miss Halsey, Miss Gertrude Walz, the Misses Depew, Miss Annie Ellis, Miss Minnie Wood, Mr. and Mrs. Daniel Ginas, Mrs. Dorsey Hyde, Mr. and Mrs. W. S. Brown, Miss Carrie Streuli, Mr. Streuli, Mr. and Mrs. George Mellick, Mrs. Schuyler, Miss Minnie Sprague, the Misses Tracy, the Misses Erskine, Mr. and Mrs. J. L. Anthony, Miss Anthony, Mr. and Mrs. Constantine P. Ralli, C. W. Opdyke, Ralph Opdyke, Miss Opdyke, Messrs. Walter Stewart, J. P. Murray, H. D. West, Sherwood West, W. P. Brandegee, J. H. P. Wharton, Fred. Fish, jr., E. L. Walz, E. L. Walz, jr., J. S. Anthony, Carl Walz, and VanBeuseelaer Schuyler.

THIS MORNING'S SCORES.

Henry Ryder and Fred Fish, jr., beat August Huntington and George F. Schoonmaker, 6-4, 6-4.

Albert Simmonds and Carl Walz beat C. Morgan and Wesley Abbott, 6-2, 6-1.

George Schoonmaker and August Huntington beat C. Morgan and Wesley Abbott, 7-5, 6-1.

The prizes are solid silver shoe horns, to be given to each member of the winning team.

MR. BRETT'S SONS SUCCEED HIM.

William G., of Plainfield, and Pierre, of Brooklyn, to Carry On the Business of the Late Gustave of This City, Established in 1793.

In a great city like New York, co-partnership changes are so numerous that it is impossible for any newspaper to keep a complete record of them as they occur. That great and highly influential paper, the "Journal of Commerce", endeavored to do so a few years ago, but the plan had to be given up for lack of space. But, every now and again there will be a change in some concern that is too old and important and widely known to be passed by. The announcement that has suggested these reflections, says the Mercantile and Financial Times, of New York, is that just made in regard to the business of the house of G. A. Brett, Son & Co., shipping and commission merchants, at 41 South street, New York city.

This is the oldest and best known concern in New York—if not in the United States—in this line of business, having been established in 1793—over a century ago—under the style of Peter H. Schenck. There have been, of course, in such a long period of time, various firm changes. About a dozen years ago the present firm style was taken on, the partners being G. A. Brett and his two sons, Wm. G. Brett of this city and Pierre V. A. Brett, the first of these two brothers having been connected with the house since 1865, and the second since 1870. G. A. Brett died in Plainfield on May 25, ult., at the age of seventy-three, after spending a life time with the house. He had entered it as a boy and in all his life was never connected, either as employe or partner, with any other concern.

It is now announced that the business will be continued under the old firm style of G. A. Brett, Son & Co., by the two sons. Messrs. G. A. Brett, Son & Co. stand very high in business circles. They own and charter vessels to South American and West Indian ports, and run a packet line of twelve vessels to Haytian ports. The business relationships of the house are of a most important character, and many of them date back forty, fifty and even seventy years.

THAT HOUSE NUMBERING AGAIN.

Difficulties in Following Out the Letter of the Law.

Policemen Gless and Flynn, while on their rounds to discover houses that have not yet complied with the numbering ordinance, have been in some puzzling situations. On Saturday their course was through some of the parts of the town where it is not very thickly built up, and where many of the houses stand back from the street and fences are scarce.

The policemen say that in many of the side streets of town the smaller houses that are near the street have no old numbers, and that the inmates not finding any record of the old are in no hurry to put up new ones.

An amusing interview took place between the policemen and a citizen whose house stands some 600 feet back from the street. The owner of the house says he does not know where he can obtain figures that can be seen from the street, and would not care to disfigure his house with such huge things if he could. The policemen saw the force of the objection, but still naturally wished to obey orders and insisted that numbers be put up or the owner be fined.

DR. BARNES IN THE SOUTH.

Chautauquans Accept Him as a Typical Instructor.

Assembly Notes, the official organ of the C. L. S. C. convention now in session at Lexington, Ky., says of the Rev. Dr. C. R. Barnes of Plainfield:

Normal Hall was filled to its utmost limits, and many were unable to find room inside the building long before the ten o'clock bell rang this morning, every one being alive with interest to hear Dr. C. R. Barnes begin his series of lectures on the Jewish Tabernacle.

Dr. Barnes is a new factor in our Lexington Chautauqua work, and we wish it were possible to introduce him to the general public of our Chautauqua community with something of the pleasant effect the Doctor himself left on his audience. He holds a place on the programme which has been filled in the history of our assembly by men who did some of the best work its annual gatherings have known. Our excellent Superintendent of Instruction said last night that help for Sunday-school workers was the inspiration of the great Chautauqua movement, and the foundation on which its permanance rests. Persons who have given attention to this phase of our Assembly work heretofore know how large a place it has occupied on the programmes, and how ably its interests have been maintained. It is moderate praise of Dr. Barnes to say that he is a worthy successor of the men he follows in this department, and that his selection does eminent credit to our educational management.

The topic this year is a peculiarly happy one for the improvement of the Sunday-school teacher. Few Bible themes can attract and influence the young mind better than the Jewish Tabernacle with its vivid pictural setting and symbolism. Yet it may perhaps be safely said that no equally large portion of the Scripture contents is as little known and understood.

No Sunday-school teacher, nor anyone else with whom rests the opportunity and responsibility of developing the spiritual nature of a child, should neglect this opportunity of enlarging his power.

The first thing which attracted attention at the hall was a tent-like structure representing the tabernacle, which serves as an object lesson to illustrate the lectures.

The lecture was an explanation of the structure of the tabernacle and its court and furniture, all made delightfully plain and instructive by models of the parts as they were described, as well as by the lucid, entertaining style of the Doctor.

We have no idea of reporting the substance of this lecture. For one reason, because it was all substance, pleasantly enlivened with quiet humor; and then we hesitate to intrude upon people a good thing when they can get so much better for themselves. Everybody come to hear Dr. Barnes at 10 o'clock to-morrow. He is unquestionably a typical Chautauqua scholar.

Her Daughter to Take Care of Her.

Mrs. Doty, the crazy woman who laid siege to the electric car house, Saturday, seemed this morning more in her right mind than she had been for a long time. Her daughter will take her home to-day. If no further disturbance takes place, Mrs. Doty will be permitted to remain at large.

MARCHING ON MONTREAL

Christian Endeavor Army Will Soon be in Possession.

25,000 DELEGATES ARE EXPECTED

Great Preparations Have Been Made for the Reception and Entertainment of the Visitors—Big Delegations from New York and Brooklyn—The Convention to Open Wednesday.

MONTREAL, July 3.—The preparations for the twelfth international Christian Endeavor convention, to be held in this city, are completed. The delegates will begin to arrive to-morrow and those from the United States will celebrate Independence Day on British soil.

A hearty welcome is in store for the visiting delegates. Each contingent, as it arrives, will be met by special reception committees at the railway stations and steamboat landings. Some of the larger delegations, however, will be met at points outside the city by scouts appointed for that purpose.

The delegates will forthwith be conducted to their different headquarters, where their billets will be assigned them. There will be, if present expectations are realised, fully 25,000 delegates attending the convention and accommodation has been found for every one of them at moderate rates. Mayor Das Jardins, the Rev. Father Quinlivan, of St. Patrick's Church, and other prominent Roman Catholic citizens are taking an active part in the arrangements.

The meteorological staff at Ottawa has, at the request of the committee, made a special report of the weather probabilities for convention week. Fine and moderately warm weather is predicted.

Montreal's citizen soldiers have given up their drill for the use of the greater army of Christian Endeavorers. Just across Craig street, on the Champ de Mars, the parade ground of the volunteers, an enormous tent will shelter other delegates, while overflow meetings will be conducted in many of the Protestant churches of the city, and in the Y. M. C. A. building, on Dominion Square. The drill hall itself will accommodate 10,000 people, while on the platform a thousand of the leading delegates will be seated.

For the needs of the hungry and thirsty a monster pavilion has been erected by a New York caterer adjacent to the tent on the Champ de Mars, where 250 waiters will dispense viands at all hours.

The most important meeting will be that of the trustees of the United Society, which convenes at the Windsor Hotel on Wednesday, July 5. This is the first item on the programme and will be exclusively devoted to the transaction of business relative to the work of the United Society in all parts of the world where the Christian Endeavor movement is known.

The most important matter of general interest to be dealt with by this meeting will be the selection of the convention city for 1895; that for 1894 was selected a year ago and will be Cleveland, Ohio. San Francisco is an aspirant for the 1895 convention, and a strong delegation will appear before the United Society from that State to press their claims.

The convention proper does not open until the evening of July 5.

Between two and three thousand Endeavorers will arrive from New York, Brooklyn and other cities in the Empire State. The New York city delegation will include a special representation of the Naval Christian Endeavor Union. Brooklyn's delegation will occupy two special trains, and that there may be no mistakes about it the delegates will be distinguished by wearing special convention badges inscribed "Brooklyn" in addition to the International badge. The New York delegation arrive on the 4th and 5th, and besides these the other States already enumerated send delegations varying in strength from fifty to five hundred. Canada's representation will be a large one.

THREE LADS DROWNED

Seized With Cramps While Bathing in the Delaware.

PHILADELPHIA, July 3.—Three lads were drowned in the Delaware River while bathing last evening. The victims are Jerry Triddle, aged 16, Milton Hammel, of the same age, and Arthur Gentz, aged 14.

The latter two were together. All were diving from boats and were seized with cramps.

Gentz's body has not been recovered.

The Caravels Leave Detroit.

DETROIT, Mich., July 3.—At an early hour this morning the Spanish caravels hoisted their anchors and proceeded on the way to Chicago. During their stay in the Detroit river many thousands of people visited the strange craft.

President O'Meally Congratulated.

CHICAGO, July 3.—Interest in the Corbett-Mitchell fight was shown when President D. C. O'Meally received scores of telegrams congratulating him upon the success of the Columbian Athletic Club in securing the great match.

Two Were Drowned.

TROY, July 3.—A foot bridge over the canal at Cohoes collapsed yesterday while William Fryer, John Whittaker and two companions were crossing. Fryer and Whittaker were drowned.

LABOR NOTES

The Retail Clerks' National Protective Union will hold its third annual convention in Nashville, Tenn., on July 11.

Last month seventeen deaths and total disability claims were allowed by the Grand Board of Directors of the Switchmen's Mutual Aid Association.

Stonecutters in Germany are collecting funds for their fellow craftsmen at Bordeaux, France, 4,000 of whom are on strike against a reduction of wages.

The United Garment Workers have determined to carry their suit against the two contractors for conspiracy, which was dismissed by Justice Koch in Essex Market Court, New York, on Thursday, to the Supreme Court of the United States if necessary. It will be made a test case.

Delegates to the convention of Journeymen Tailors, which will be held in a few days, have been instructed by the Custom Tailors' Union to vote for a proposition prohibiting John B. Lennon from holding the offices of treasurer of the American Federation of Labor and secretary of the Journeymen Tailors' National Union, on the ground that he cannot properly attend to the duties of both positions.

Oh, What a Cough!

Will you heed the warning. The signal perhaps of the sure approach of that more terrible disease, Consumption. Ask yourselves if you can afford for the sake of saving 50c., to run the risk and do nothing for it. We know from experience that Shiloh's Cure will cure your cough. It never fails. This explains why more than a Million Bottles were sold the past year. It relieves croup and whooping cough at once. Mothers, do not be without it. For lame back, side or chest, use Shiloh's Porous Plaster. Sold by A. D. Mallinson, 46 North Ave., opposite railroad station. 5-16-y

GEN. LEW WALLACE.

The Most Distinguished Literary Man of the Hoosier State.

Gen. Lew Wallace, whose new novel, "A Prince of India," has just appeared, was born in Brookville, Ind., on the 10th day of April, 1827, and with James Whitcomb Riley and Maurice Thompson makes up the trio of distinguished literary names which the Hoosier state is proud to claim as her own. His father, David Wallace, was well-known as a lawyer and a speaker. A graduate of West Point and afterwards mathematical professor there, he resigned from the army to practice law in Indiana, and became influential there as lieutenant governor, governor and judge. His son Lewis, inheriting from his father his military and judicial qualities, has joined to these the talent of a writer. As a soldier and as a novelist Lew Wallace has achieved a noteworthy record. He was lieutenant in the Mexican war, serving as a volunteer. He afterward resumed the practice of law in Covington, Ky., and then in Crawfordsville, Ind. He was four years in the state legislature, and at the beginning of the civil war was appointed adjutant general of Indiana, soon afterward becoming colonel of the Eleventh Indiana volunteers, whom he commanded in West Virginia. He displayed such ability that he was promoted to the rank of major general in 1862. One of the most useful of his military exploits was the defense of Cincinnati, which he saved from capture by the late Gen. E. Kirby Smith. In 1865 he returned to the practice of the law in Crawfordsville. He was governor of Utah in 1878-81, at the end of which term he was appointed United States minister to Turkey. There he gathered material for the Oriental coloring and detail which have enriched his writings. "The Fair God," which appeared in 1873, is a story of the conquest of Mexico, the inspiration for which may be traced to his Mexican experiences as a young man. His masterpiece is generally acknowledged to be "Ben Hur; a Tale of the Christ." Opinions differ upon the greatness of this book, some intelligent critics pronouncing it in execution and interest far inferior to its scope and conception. Popular opinion, however, has rendered a verdict in the more than 200,000 copies sold. He has also written a life of Benjamin Harrison, and "The Boyhood of Christ."

GEN. LEW WALLACE.

It is said that "Ben Hur" is one of the four novels that have attained the widest sale in these times. The other three are "Robert Elsmere," "Tess" and "The Little Minister." It appealed to people of all kinds, to the uncultivated as well as to the cultivated; in fact, its success was essentially popular. The chariot race is the most famous scene in the book, and is a favorite one with elocutionists. If it were not for that and "Aux Italiens" the professional reader would feel her repertoire quite scanty.

His wife has proved a congenial companion to him in literary matters. She was a Miss Elston, and was born and brought up in Crawfordsville.

HAS A HARD TIME.

Some of the Trials and Tribulations of Russia's Czar.

His imperial majesty the czar of all the Russias appears to have more difficulty in crossing his realm by rail than the average tramp has in going from San Francisco to New York. To avoid the watchful nihilist, armed to the teeth and equipped with bombs, the imperial train of shell-proof cars travels in three sections, which has proven as bewildering to the sanguinary subject as three-card monte to the average rustic. Still, this is not the only precaution. An army division is spread out along the line, and the ground is carefully paced by soldiers stationed twenty-five feet apart. From the last report we are informed that in spite of shell-proof cars and a vigilant soldiery, the imperial party narrowly escaped death by falling into a stream, the cars having jumped the track. In view of this, who can say the American tramp, beating his way from ocean to ocean, does not travel with less anxiety of mind than the autocrat of all the Russias?

Baby Statistics.

If all the babies born in one year were laid in a line, head to foot, they would stretch from New York to Hong Kong. If they could walk past a corner at the rate of twenty per minute it would take them six years to pass.

"ALL FEET TREAD
"Not in one shoe," goes the old saying. In other words it takes an infinite variety of styles, sizes, qualities, makes and prices to suit all. We endeavor to meet that demand and meet it thoroughly. We can give you what you want, and at reasonable prices. This is the season for Russet Leather Shoes!
A good supply at the popular store of
DOANE & EDSALL,
The LARGEST Boot and Shoe House in Central New Jersey.

"And the nights shall be filled with music
And the cares that infest the day
Will fold up their tents like the Arabs,
And as silently steal away."

Longfellow knew the soothing power of music. Melody banishes care—smooths out the wrinkles on one's forehead—gives rest.
A piano in the house is better than medicine, helps more than a vacation.
A Gabler Piano
Doesn't cost any more than a summer trip. It lasts longer. Ten years hence and your piano is as good as new. A piano is furniture, it is entertainment, it is investment. We sell them for cash or easy payments. We also rent, but its better to buy.

HELEN KELLER'S GENIUS.

Blind and Deaf, Yet She Talks and Writes to Perfection.

There is now in Washington, the temporary guest of Prof. Alexander Graham Bell, a beautiful little girl who was born blind, deaf and dumb. Her name is Helen Keller, and, though handicapped by the loss of the two most important senses and as yet but thirteen years old, she already shows a brightness of intellect that promises to make her famous as a writer.

Prof. Bell, who told the thrilling and pathetic story of this second Laura Bridgeman at the recent annual meeting of the national academy of sciences in Washington, considers the case of Helen Keller as incomparably more remarkable than that of her sister unfortunate. He regards her as a wonder, both relatively and absolutely. He declares that, handicapped as she is, she need not fear to be measured intellectually with other girls who have had every advantage.

HELEN KELLER.

Helen Keller has not only learned to read by the raised letters and to communicate swiftly by means of the touch, but has actually gained the power of oral speech and can understand what anyone says by merely placing her finger delicately on the lips and under the chin. Prof. Bell spoke of finding Helen one day in one of the institutions for the blind in Boston, sitting in the midst of a group of blind girls who could hear and reading aloud to them.

Since she has learned to speak one of her delights is to tell stories to her little sister Mildred, and she fills these with the most quaint and beautiful fancies, weaving in all that she has learned in her lessons, or heard from other people, or remembered from past reading, for she never forgets anything. Helen has already read more books, including the classics, than most grown men and women.

It is touching to see the eager gropings of this prisoned intellect after the knowledge that the best of us, with all our eyes, are often as far away from as she. During her early years, on account of some peculiar notions of her parents, religious questions were not obtruded upon her. The child at the age of nine knew nothing of God or of Christian teaching. She had attributed everything in her fanciful way to mother nature. One day, however, some over-zealous woman told Helen a lot of things which she believed were necessary for the child's well-being. The result was that Helen was thrown into a state of great mental distress and wrote in her diary that night a thoroughly agnostic view of the subject of her origin, which indicated reasoning powers, considering the untaught condition of her mind, of a high order.

Helen Keller is to be Prof. Bell's guest for some time in Washington. He has known the little girl ever since she was six years old and loves her dearly. Helen is a fine French scholar and has recently received a large price for a magazine article.

A ROYAL OCULIST.

The Grand Work Done by Duke Carl Theodor of Bavaria.

Duke Carl Theodor of Bavaria now has three hospitals in active service for persons suffering from diseases of the eyes. One is at Meran, another at Munich, and a third at Tegernsee. At this last he passes most of his time. Poor patients are treated without cost, and all payments by those who can afford to make them are employed for the good of the poor of the district. The duke is a general in the Bavarian army, and is the brother of the empress of Austria. In 1874 he married as his second wife Princess Maria Josepha of Braganza, who assists him in his charitable work. His eldest daughter by this second marriage is Princess Sophie, born in 1875. She has inherited her father's skill, and is his principal assistant in many ways. Every day enters an oculist. The duke always begins his consulting room by seeing the poor in the morning; and the young princess takes her share in soothing the sufferers and enters with enthusiasm into the charitable work. As an example of the duke's skill, it may be mentioned that he recently removed a splinter of iron from the eye of an iron turner, an operation which had defied the skill of several other oculists. The duke is the heir presumptive to the throne of the palatinate of Bavaria, as his elder brother, Ludwig, who married a commoner, has renounced his right.

PARIS IN AN UPROAR

Riotous Students Set All Law at Defiance.

THE MILITARY ORDERED OUT

Citizens Maltreated and Much Property Destroyed—Bloody Conflicts Between Rioters and Police—Workingmen Take a Hand—The Garrison Prepared for the Worst.

PARIS, July 5.—Riotous demonstrations were made by students yesterday at St. Germain des Pres and in the Rue Jacob near the Hospital de la Charite. The police were unable to disperse the mobs. Eventually a large detachment of cavalry charged and scattered the students.

The municipal councillors have decided to send a deputation to the funeral of M. Nuger, the clerk who was killed in the encounter between the police and the students in the Latin quarter on Saturday.

They have issued a proclamation, however, urging all persons who attend the funeral to act calmly and pacifically.

Last night the whole district bounded by the Boulevard St. Germain, the river and the Rue de Seine was in an uproar. Students with crowds of roughs filled the open spaces. Omnibuses and tram cars were stopped by the mobs, the passengers turned out, and the vehicles upset.

On the Boulevard St. Germain, Quai Voltaire and the Rue St. Peres traffic was suspended.

The Rue St. Peres has been barricaded. Pedestrians were stopped and maltreated. The Charity hospital was surrounded with cuirassiers to keep off the students who threatened to attack the building.

The Ministry of Public Works, the Marine Department and the Ecoledes Beaux Arts are guarded by military.

A mob assembled at the Place St. Michel and tried to rush over the bridge to the Boulevard du Palaise, which runs between the two buildings. They were met and driven back by a body of cavalry. They retreated fighting down the Boulevard St. Michel.

Many students were trampled or cut and several cavalrymen were wounded by flying stones.

The night was one of terror, and the situation this morning is not much improved. Troops of cavalry and squads of police are stationed in every street. The students hold their ground. They are stopping and upsetting all vehicles. Scores of carts and carriages have been set on fire. Many students are using revolvers.

The mob in front of the Charity Hospital have been charged repeatedly by the police, but fight back and will not disperse. Their allies in windows of buildings near the hospital have been pelting the police with crockery, furniture and cotton-wool saturated with carbolic acid.

Many policemen have been injured. Although holding the mob at the hospital in check the police have been unsuccessful in taking the offensive.

The critical situation is complicated by the demonstration of the workingmen. Three thousand of them met last evening in the Labor Exchange and decided to remain in the building all night to prevent the authorities from executing their threat to close it.

The keenest anxiety is everywhere apparent. General Saussier, Military Governor of Paris, has prepared the garrison for the worst.

PRAGUE, July 5.—The Socialists have risen in surrection at Liben, a small town near here, and the riot has assumed such serious proportions that a force of infantry and cavalry was sent to assist the gendarmes in restoring order. About ninety of the rioters have been arrested.

TWENTY WERE KILLED

Finlanders on the Canadian Pacific Meet Death by a Landslide.

MONTREAL, July 5.—A morning paper publishes a letter from one of the French Canadian tourists who accompanied Abbe Morin to the Northwest for the purpose of inquiring into land values. The letter is dated Schrieber, a small town at the head of Lake Superior and says that on June 20, 20 Finlanders working on the line of the Canadian Pacific railway were killed 20 miles west of Schrieber by a landslide.

Had Part of His Head Blown Off.

BROOKLYN, N. Y., July 5.—Edward Osbrug, aged 19, of 231 Stuyvesant avenue, had the top of his skull blown off by the explosion of a toy cannon last evening. He had lighted the fuse of the cannon and, having waited about a minute without there being a report, picked up the cannon to examine it. He was looking in the muzzle when it exploded. He died soon afterward.

The Fatal Trolley Again.

BROOKLYN, N. Y., June 5.—A collision between two electric trolley cars of the Brooklyn City Railroad company at Third avenue and Sixty-fifth street, shortly after 9 o'clock last night resulted in the killing of Patrick McHugh, the motor man of one of the cars, and the more or less serious injury of eight others.

Maine Hotel Burned.

PORTLAND, Me., July 5.—Hotel Waldo, on Little Chebeague Island, was burned to the ground yesterday, none of the furniture being saved. The fire caught from a fire cracker. There were many guests but all escaped without injury, though many lost their clothes, except what they had on. The hotel cost $35,000 and is a total loss.

Cement Works Burned.

ROCHESTER, N. Y., July 5.—A special from Wayland, N. Y., says the Portland Cement Works owned by Thomas Miller & Sons of Syracuse, were burned yesterday. Loss, estimated at $30,000; insured. The works will be rebuilt at once.

BEHRING ARBITRATION

Mr. Phelps' Closing Argument Before the Tribunal.

PARIS, July 5.—Notwithstanding the fact that yesterday was the great American holiday counsel for the United States appeared before the Behring Sea tribunal of arbitration as usual, and the Hon. E. J. Phelps continued his closing address in behalf of the American contention. He examined the diplomatic correspondence that had been exchanged by Russia and England prior to the ratification of the treaty of 1826, and showed from it that great Britain had proposed a passage to the treaty that would have included Behring sea in the limits of the Pacific ocean, but Russia had refused to assent to the proposition.

Replying to a question asked by Lord Hannen, one of the British arbitrators, Mr. Phelps stated that the one-hundred mile limit had been maintained until 1867, as far as it related to the protection of the sealing industry. The limit had never been interfered with until pelagic sealing began.

Mr. Phelps discussed maritime law to prove that the freedom of the seas was relative and not absolute. Formerly, he said, the mare clausum doctrine had prevailed, and nations asserted jurisdiction over all such portions of the sea as they chose. Grotius, the Dutch statesman and jurist, was the first person to propound the theory of mare liberum, in his work "Mare Liberum."

THE WORK OF NIHILISTS.

Attempt to Wreck the Train of the Czarowitz.

Said That the Rails Were Removed Near Warsaw and That the Engine of the Train Left the Track.

BERLIN, July 5.—No particulars can be learned of the reported attempt to wreck the train in which the Czarowitz traveled from St. Petersburg while on his way to London to attend the wedding of the Duke of York.

It is stated that at Dunaburg, between St. Petersburg and Warsaw, the rails were removed and the engine of the special train left the track.

The carriage in which the Prince was traveling did not go off the track.

The attempt is believed to have been the work of Nihilists.

The officials here deny all knowledge of the attempt.

RAINMAKER JEWELL

He is Asked to Turn His Batteries Against the World's Fair.

TOPEKA, KAS., July 5.—Clinton Jewell, the Rock Island rainmaker, left last night on his special car for Liberal, in southwestern Kansas, where a drought of ten months has prevailed.

Jewell will go to Chicago in September for operations at the World's Fair during Kansas week.

The rainmaker has many letters from religious cranks, appealing to him to set up his machine near the gates of the Fair and make it rain every Sunday, so that the ungodly cannot attend the Fair on that day. He was told by one that this would insure him a crown at the throne of grace.

Road Race of Red Bank Cyclers.

RED BANK, N. J., July 5.—A 25 mile road race by the Red Bank cyclers took place yesterday. There were eight starters. Haviland and Goff were scratchmen and other riders had ten minutes start. The course was from Red Bank to Sea Bright, four times over. Haviland won; time, 1:33:55; Ford second, 1:39:19.

Fatally Injured.

ASTORIA, L. I., July 5.—August Zeiner, 17 years old, of 30 Grand street, Williamsburgh, was fatally wounded by the accidental discharge of a 22 calibre revolver with which he was playing yesterday afternoon at North Beach.

Want the Silver Measure Retrospective.

SIMLA, July 5.—A meeting of Civil Servants called to thank the Government for its action toward silver resolved last evening that the new measure ought to be made retrospective.

PETROLIA'S BIG BLAZE

The Loss by Yesterday's Fire Will Reach $300,000.

More Than Twenty Buildings Were Burned—Town Saved by the Efforts of the Bucket Brigade.

PETROLIA, Pa., July 5.—The loss by yesterday's fire will reach $300,000. The insurance is almost half that amount. The fire broke out yesterday morning in the Kilroy block and burned the entire block. Then it burned up the boiler house above the railroad track, to the Oriental hotel and Pittsburg & Western railroad depot and on Main street from the corner above Mrs. Lenhan's store to the corner on Argyle street, including these places:

Mrs. Foote's drug store, Starr's Grocery, Central House, Campwell's meat market, Donholm's grocery, Milchenstein's merchant tailor shop, Mrs. Ervin's news stand and postoffice, Campbell and Byer's Livery Stable, Toronski Brothers' dry goods and clothing, Foster's drug store, English and Vanset hardware; Masonic Hall, Mrs. Lenhan's grocery and dwelling and the entire Kilroy block, Hawe, grocery and cheese; Cross' drygoods store; Argyle Savings Bank building, Wm. Aveman's building, Campbell's grocery, Root's hardware and tin shop and several private dwellings.

Owing to the water plug being open near where the fire started it was impossible to utilize the water works. The fire was got under control wholly by the efforts of the bucket brigade.

Montreal Firm Assigns.

TORONTO, July 5.—J. E. Thompson & Co., of Prescott, who for eight years past have been doing a business on nearly every cheese market between this city and Montreal, have assigned, and a large number of dealers will lose heavily.

Bimetallic League Convention Called.

WASHINGTON, July 5.—A. J. Warner, president of the American Bimetallic League, has issued a call for a national convention of the League to be held in Chicago beginning Aug. 1, next.

Kelley Won on a Foul.

STAMFORD, Conn., July 5.—Billy Forsyth, the well-known fighter of Danbury, and Sammy Kelley, the clever lightweight of New York, met in a finish fight yesterday. It took 28 rounds to decide the battle and then it was won by Kelley on a foul. The fight took place over in New York State, a few miles from one of the little stations on the Harlem road and it was witnessed by about 150 sporting men from New York, Danbury, Bridgeport and other places.

Valkyrie Wins Again.

GLASGOW, July 5.—The regatta of the Western Yacht Club was held yesterday in Wemyss Bay, an opening of the Firth of Forth. The course covered a distance of 48 miles. The race was uninteresting, owing to the fact that the Britannia sprung her mast and was compelled to withdraw from the race. The Calluna and Tatanita also gave up, and this left the contest between Lord Dunraven's Valkyrie and Mr. J. Jameson's Iverna. The Valkyrie won easily.

The President's Movements.

BUZZARD'S BAY, Mass., July 5.—That the people may not become alarmed at the non-arrival of President Cleveland at Gray Gables, Mrs. Cleveland announces that she has received advices from the President saying that he was well and in good health, and may not reach here for two or three days, yet he may arrive at any time.

Did She Smother Her Child?

BROOKLYN, July 5.—Coroner Kene was notified to-day of the death of Joseph Brady, the five-weeks-old son of Mary Brady, of 353 Furman street. Mother and son slept together, and when she awoke she found the child dead. The police think she rolled on the child while asleep and smothered him.

Peck Won the Poorman Road Race.

CINCINNATI, July 5.—The Poorman handicap road bicycle race was won by C. H. Peck, the Chicago cyclist, who entered the race with a 4 1-2 minute handicap. C. O. Updike of Lexington, Ky., was second, despite a handicap of eight minutes placed on his record.

LABOR NOTES

Farmers' Alliance men in Kansas are collecting funds to assist the striking miners in the southwestern portion of that State.

The nine-hour work day will be demanded by the members of the Lasters' Protective Union throughout the United States and Canada Oct. 1.

About 120 delegates have been elected to the annual convention of the American Flint Glass Workers' Union, which will be held in Marion, Ind., on July 10.

Six cents damages have been awarded by a Pittsburg jury to a boss builder against John Brow, Walking Delegate of the union hod-carriers, for ordering a strike.

The roofers' strike in St. Louis has been declared off, and the men resumed work at the terms of the bosses, who agreed to henceforth recognize the union.

SPECIAL SESSION'S WORK

Matters Other Than Finance to Be Considered.

ANNUAL APPROPRIATION BILLS

Those May Be Put Out of the Way Before the Financial Bills Are Taken Up—Call for a Convention of the Bi-metallic League—Gen. Warner Talks.

WASHINGTON, July 5.—Although the special session of Congress which will begin Aug. 7, is called for the specific purpose of dealing with the financial question, it is apparent that the Executive apprehends that it may undertake other work, for within a short time the various departments of the Government service will begin the preparation of the annual estimates. With a complete equipment of committees there is no reason why those charged with the construction of the appropriation bills should not take some steps in their work while the financial committees are dealing with the subjects that have caused the special session.

It may be a part of the programme that the appropriation bills shall be gotten out of the way before the financial bills are taken up, so that there may be no subjects of importance to divert attention from these important measures. At any rate, the estimates will be hurried along so that Congress may be prepared to deal with the appropriation bills, if it sees fit, soon after the session begins and the committees are appointed.

Although the fiscal year has expired, it will not be possible for the heads of the various departments to submit their annual reports to Congress at the beginning of the special session.

The new Cabinet officers will scarcely have been long enough in their places to make recommendations touching the future conduct of these departments and there is no requirement that the reports shall be presented before the regular session of Congress begins on Dec. 4, next. There will, however, be a message from the President to Congress when it convenes, but it is expected that the document will deal almost exclusively with the financial questions that have assumed a phase requiring Congressional treatment and its general scope has been roughly indicated in the President's proclamation.

MUST APPEASE SILVERITES

Gen. Warner on the Proposed Appeal of the Sherman Law.

WASHINGTON, July 5.—Gen. A. J. Warner makes the following statement:

"A thorough poll of the silver forces establishes the fact that the Sherman law cannot be repealed without a substitute which will be satisfactory to the silverites.

"This canvass of strength has been in progress since the day after the issuance of the President's proclamation. It has been pushed actively by means of personal consultation and telegraphic communication. When the canvass was begun the first effect of the anti-silver blow was still felt, and there was a manifest fear on the part of the silver men that the Sherman law would be repealed. Gradually this fear gave way to hope, and in turn this has been succeeded by defiance."

Cholera Record.

CAIRO, July 5.—In Mecca 260 persons died of cholera yesterday; in Jeddah 490.

NEWS OF THE DAY

The attendance at the World's Fair exceeded 250,000 yesterday.

The P. T. Barnum statue at Seaside Park, Bridgeport Conn., was unveiled yesterday before a throng of fully 11,000.

Fire yesterday in the four-story building, 86 to 92 West Randolph street, Chicago, caused a loss of $50,000.

The Liberty Bell in Troy, N. Y., was connected by electricity with the World's Fair mechanism yesterday and tolled.

The first annual athletic carnival of the Saratoga Athletic Association was held yesterday afternoon on the Woodlawn Oval.

Word has been received at Pittsburg, that the Findley Rolling mill of Findley, O., had signed the union scale. This company employs 200 men.

The machine and wood working shops of the North American Mill Co.'s works at Stratford, Ont., were destroyed by fire yesterday. Loss, $30,000.

The five daily papers in Denver have asked compositors to accept a reduction from 50 to 40 cents a thousand ems. The printers say they will not accept.

There were 20,000 people at Lake Quinsigamond yesterday afternoon when the citizen's regatta and annual races of the New England Amateur Rowing Association were held over the old intercollegiate course, at the north end of the lake.

Nearly every city in the Union celebrated the glorious Fourth yesterday. In New York the Tammany organization outdid itself. Speaker Crisp delivered the "big talk" at the Wigwam. At the World's Fair grounds the occasion was a notable one, Vice-President Stevenson delivering the principal address. Ex-President Harrison spoke at Cape May.

President Saenz-rena, of Argentina, has informed the Vatican that he will send a special representative to settle with the Pope all subjects at issue between the Government and Rome concerning the Church in the Republic.

General Meredith Read gave a Fourth of July dinner in Paris last evening. Among the guests were Prince Roland Bonaparte, the Marquis of Rasano and J. F. Loubet, who recently founded a prize in the French Institute for the best work on American history.

TO GO BACK TO ROMA

Satolli Says the Greek Church Is to Return.

TACOMA, July 5.—Mgr. Satolli, Abiegate of Pope Leo, states through Dr. O'Gorman that there are pending diplomatic negotiations to bring the Greek church of all Russia, now under personal control of the Czar, into the keeping of the Vatican.

Father O'Gorman was asked to reduce this statement to writing and have Mgr. Satolli sign it in order that there might be no question as to its authenticity. He said: "That is unnecessary, I spoke for Mgr. Satolli. I have talked the whole matter over with him, and you may say that he says it through me, his interpreter."

Father O'Gorman is professor of ecclesiastical history in the Catholic university at Washington, and here and elsewhere during the tour of Mgr. Satolli and party has been the spokesman of the Pope's ablegate.

Churchmen take it for granted that if the Czar is to place his state church under the control of Rome, it is the interest of Leo's hope to effect the disarmament of the great nations of the world and secure ultimate universal peace and the arbitration of international quarrels.

PINKHAM'S VEGETABLE COMPOUND

Is a positive cure for all those painful

Ailments of Women.

It will entirely cure the worst forms of Female Complaints, all Ovarian troubles, Inflammation and Ulceration, Falling and Displacements, of the Womb, and consequent Spinal Weakness, and is peculiarly adapted to the Change of Life. Every time it will cure

Backache.

It has cured more cases of Leucorrhœa than any remedy the world has ever known. It is almost infallible in such cases. It dissolves and expels Tumors from the Uterus in an early stage of development, and checks any tendency to cancerous humors. That causing pain, weight, and backache, is instantly relieved, and permanently cured by its use. Under all circumstances it acts in harmony with the laws that govern the female system, and is as harmless as water. It removes

Irregularity,

Suppressed or Painful Menstruations, Weakness of the Stomach, Indigestion, Bloating, Flooding, Nervous Prostration, Headache, General Debility. Also

Dizziness, Faintness,

Extreme Lassitude, "don't care" and "want to be left alone" feeling, excitability, Irritability, nervousness, sleeplessness, flatulency, melancholy, or the "blues," and backache. These are sure indications of Female Weakness, some derangement of the Uterus, or

Womb Troubles.

The whole story, however, is told in an illustrated book, entitled "Guide to Health," by Mrs. Pinkham. It contains over 90 pages of most important information, which every woman, married or single, should know about herself. Send 2 two-cent stamps for it. For and Backache of either sex the Vegetable Compound is unequaled.

WEATHER INDICATIONS.

For New Jersey: Fair, Except a Thunder Shower This Evening.

EARLY INTELLIGENCE.

—'Twas a glorious day and a noisy one.

—Bids are to be advertised for, for putting electric fixtures into the new fire-department house.

—A stage load of young people from this city enjoyed the Fourth on a picnic to New Providence.

—At the request of captain Grant, $225 has been appropriated to buy new uniforms for the police.

—The ordinance to extend the flagging limits of Central avenue was adopted on final passage Monday night.

—Hereafter Somerville and Bound Brook papers will appear on the tables at the Plainfield Y. M. C. A. rooms.

—The annual report of the public library directors shows receipts of $5,621.55, and a balance of $2,202.39 on hand.

—President Ginna and councilmen Bird, Erickson, Fisk, Millington and Weber attended the common council meeting Monday night.

—John Williams, laying flagging on Eighth street, mashed his toe by dropping a flag on it, this morning, and was cared for at Muhlenberg Hospital.

—At the solicitation of Mr. Ginna's Bethel chapel, Mr. Ginna's common council has authorized the laying of a cross-walk at Fifth and Washington streets.

—The common council will meet again Monday evening, July 17, at 8, to consider such matters as the improvement of Madison avenue and the new fire building.

—To the fire and buildings committee has been referred the application of M. S. Simpson to move a frame building at Fifth and Liberty streets to the rear of the lot.

—Another incendiary attempt was made at Somerville Sunday, when a blaze was started in the Messenger newspaper office. Luckily the flames were subdued in time.

—The application of E. P. Thorn to place an iron drinking trough in front of his place, 125 Park avenue, has been referred to the committee on streets, with power.

—A fire-alarm box is likely to be placed at Liberty and Second streets. Fifty citizens petitioned for it, and the committee on fire and buildings was given power to put it up.

—The Potter Press and Scott Press representatives at the World's Fair all observe Sunday as the Sabbath and keep their exhibits covered and roped in from inspection.

—Grace A. Tingley has been granted permission to move her frame building at 405 West Fourth street to a different location on the same premises, for the purpose of improvement.

—The dance and supper at the Netherwood last night constituted another of the delightful events for which that popular hotel is noted. A large number of Plainfielders attended.

—The first chance this year to enjoy the delights of Asbury Park amid a host of Plainfield friends will be afforded Friday, when the Crescent Avenue people run their annual excursion.

—An ordinance was adopted on second reading and ordered engrossed and advertised, Monday evening, to macadamize North avenue from Richmond street to Berckman, to a width of 40 feet.

—THE PRESS cat is nothing if not patriotic, and she celebrated the great holiday by presenting five Fourth of July kittens to the staff. The little ones are very lively, and maltese Ruth is kept very busy supplying their needs.

—The street committee of the council has been authorized to lay crosswalks at West Ninth street and Madison avenue, West Eighth street and Madison avenue, Madison avenue and West Eighth street, and Elm street and Orange.

—Joel Giddis of Greenbrook road, and John VanFleet, went out driving yesterday and lost control of their horse. They were thrown out, and Giddis had a foot caught in a wheel and was dragged some distance. He is covered with painful bruises.

—A peripatetic fish peddler upset his wagon on North avenue, this afternoon, by turning too short. A little girl in the vehicle was thrown under the horse's feet, but was rescued in time to save her from a worse casualty. The wagon was somewhat bent.

—Police captain Grant says that the police have always been granted a day off when asked for, and he fails to understand why two of them got councilman Weber to move that a day off each month be granted to the regular policemen in addition to the usual vacation. The motion was adopted, and the effect will be to limit the days off to one each month, instead of their being granted at will.

A BLAZE OF BEAUTY AND GLORY.

SUPERB CELEBRATION BY THE PARK AND COUNTRY CLUBS.

The Heavens Adorned With Showers of Colored Fires and Golden Rain—Vast Pleasure to Both Guests and Outsiders Alike.

The evening celebration of the Fourth at the Park club was in every way delightful. The grounds were illuminated by scores of gay Japanese lanterns, and the house was thronged with merry-makers. The charming patronesses received the guests, and ample seats were provided for a good view of the pyrotechnic display on the tennis courts. A large crowd of outsiders thronged the street and bridge and enjoyed the spectacle. Everything went off in perfect order, and the exhibition was one of the most tastefully arranged and pleasing ones within the power of a private club to give. After the fireworks, refreshments were to be had, and all merrily danced the evening hours away. The wealth and fashion of the borough were well represented, and many guests from Plainfield attended. That most handsome, cultured and agreeable of gentlemen, B. A. Hegeman, jr., was given profuse thanks by the delighted throng, for his superb management of the event. He was cleverly assisted by George C. Evans, George P. Dupee, George D. Hallock and Augustus VanDeventer.

The patronesses were:

Mrs. Sam'l Townsend, Mrs. James T. Scott, Mrs. Samuel St. J. Mc-Cutchen, Mrs. Aug. VanDeventer Mrs. B. A. Hegeman, jr., Mrs. Morgan S. Taylor, Mrs. Geo. D. Hallock, Mrs. George P. Dupee, Mrs. Chas. A. Reed, Mrs. George C. Evans, Mrs. Edward S. Hooley, Mrs. Wm. L. Saynders, Miss Ida Musgrave, Mrs. Wm. J. Roome, Mrs. Walter M. McGee, Mrs. Henry A. McGee.

THE COUNTRY CLUB.

At 9 last night fully 500 people had assembled at the Union County Country club-house to witness the display of fireworks that the committee had provided for the club and its guests. The Casino chairs were arranged in rows on the tennis courts, and every seat was filled by 8:45. After those who had been invited by the club had obtained seats, the doors were opened, and all who were watching through the back nets of the tennis courts were admitted to the grounds. The display was one of the finest ever seen in Plainfield, but notwithstanding the fact that the pieces were set up and fired by professionals, two of the most elaborate set pieces failed to go off properly. The rockets and mines, however, were very effective, and called forth rounds of applause. One set piece was particularly appropriate to the occasion. It consisted of a transparency of Washington surrounded by thirteen stars, around which were placed roman candles that threw fiery contents out in a halo around the hero's head. The display lasted until 9:30, when the guests adjourned to the Casino and danced until midnight. The floor was perfect, as it had been scraped under the able superintendence of Charles Fisk, and rubbed down until it was smooth as glass. The piazzas were prettily lighted by Chinese lanterns, and the little groups of young people who, seated under their rosy light, regaled themselves with ices and rested from the fatigues of the dancing room, made a pleasing picture for those who had retired to the rocking chairs on the tennis courts for contemplation and the enjoyment of a cigarette. Supper was served with a promptness usual when Mr. Werts has the arrangements in charge, and everyone was back on the floor in short order, making the most of the dancing. The guests were loath to leave, and the last dance was gone through with as much vigor as those earlier in the evening.

Among those present were:

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Fisk, Mr. and Mrs. Pliny Fisk, Mr. and Mrs Aleck Fisk, Mr. Ritchie of Trenton, Miss Berge of Louisville, Mr. and Mrs. J. Parker Mason, Miss Corlies, Mrs. Virginia B. Hart, Miss Lena Hart, Howard Beebe, Mr. and Mrs. Orville T. Waring, Mr. and Mrs. L. Gouverneur Timpson, Miss May Waring, Miss Florence Waring, Mr. and Mrs. William E. ANOTHER TIE TOURNEY.

Magnificent Tennis Exhibition at the Hillside Club.

On the grounds of the Hillside Tennis club, yesterday, was seen some of the best tennis that has ever been played in Plainfield. The Nahant tournament brought large numbers of people, both morning and afternoon, and by 4 p. m every desirable standpoint was taken. Play was begun at 9 a. m., and many of the less interesting sets were played off in the morning. As the afternoon went on it looked very much as if Albert Simmonds and Carl Walz would win the prettily engraved solid-silver shoehorns that the club had provided as prizes. They had 7 wins to their credit, and no defeats, while H. V. Ryder and Fred Fish, jr., were a good second with 7 wins and 1 defeat. The last match, however, changed the aspect of things, for the West brothers, playing in splendid form, won a match from Simmonds and Walz amidst the vociferous applause of the onlookers. It was an exhibition of the prettiest tennis that has ever been played on these courts. The first set went to Simmonds and Walz, the Wests winning the first two games, their opponents the next 4. The Wests then made it 4 all, and Simmonds and Walz took the next 2, making 4 6. The next set went to the Wests, after a hard fight, 7-5, and in the ensuing and deciding set the Wests outplayed their opponents in every way, beating by a score of 6-2. Sherwood West's terrific smashes from the middle of the court, and Henry West's placing and swift drives, proved entirely too much for their opponents, and the prospects of the tournament were suddenly changed and play was stopped, leaving Simmonds and Walz and Ryder and Fish tied for first place.

Lack of space forbids giving the detailed play of the other sets. The result of the three-day play was as follows:

	Won.	Lost.
Simmonds and Walz	7	1
Ryder and Fish	7	1
West Brothers	5	3
Huntington and Schoonmaker	5	3
Morgan and Abbott	5	3
Walz Brothers	4	4
Wharton and McGee	2	6
Murray and Brandegee	1	7
Jennings and Brown	0	8

The tie between Ryder and Fish and Simmonds and Walz will be played off Thursday at 5:30 p. m.

PARTICULAR MENTION.

N. Carman Dunn, of Philadelphia, spent Sunday with relatives in town.

The Rev. Dr. J. L. Hurlbut and family leave for Chautauqua, N. Y., to-morrow.

Mrs. Prescott, of Brooklyn, has been visiting her brother, A. L. Force, of Duer street.

Miss Ellie Dunn, of West Fourth street, spent the Fourth with relatives near Somerville.

Mrs. C. Crook, of Brooklyn, is visiting her sister, Mrs. Kate Philpott, 457 West Front street.

Miss Maggie Kirch will preside at the organ of the German church on Craig place hereafter.

Mr. and Mrs. Howard Hall, of New York, are visiting Mr. Hall's parents on Plainfield avenue.

Cyrus Moore, of New street, celebrated the Fourth at the home of a charming young miss of Red Bank.

Isaac Harris, of Philadelphia, has returned to his home after a short visit with Plainfield relatives.

The engagement is announced of Miss May Stelle, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. P. Stelle, of Madison avenue, to David Sutphen.

Will Cadmus, the favorite old Plainfield player, gave satisfaction by his fair-minded umpiring on the Crescent Oval yesterday afternoon.

Robert W. Schlereth, of Chatham street, left town to-day for the Thousand Islands, to fit up a cottage for J. W. Jackson and family of Crescent avenue.

S. A. Wallace, of Grove street, is visiting his brother, who is one of Baltimore's leading ship chandlers, and with whom he is associated in business.

The Rev. B. B. Tyler, of New York, pastor of the Disciples' Church of Christ, will preach some Sunday this summer for B. W. Hand in the First Church of Christ.

E. S. Hunt, lately assistant principal in the High school, has gone to his home in Charleston, N. H., and in the fall will enter the junior class in Columbia Law school.

Mr. and Mrs. Nelson Tycoff, of 40 Craig place, North Plainfield, have returned to their home after a week's stay at the World's Fair; they were delighted with their visit.

Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Brower, of Peace street, Broadway, or Watchung avenue, are registered at the Curlew, Asbury Park, for a ten day's rest. Thence they will go to Moscow, Pa.

Russel Maxwell, a member of the Orange Wheelmen, rode home on his "iron steed", yesterday, after enjoying a few days over Plainfield's fine roads, and in the society of the fairer sex.

Miss Robinson, of East Fifth street, accompanied by her brother, Joseph A. Robinson, left Plainfield Monday evening for the World's Fair, Niagara Falls, and Canada. Miss Robinson will remain in Canada during the summer.

Miss R. M. Verdon, of Shady Lawn, accompanied by the Misses Verdon, of Mount Joy Square, Dublin, Ireland, and Mr. Verdon of Montreal, are off for a trip. They take in Washington en route to the Columbian Exhibition, over the Pennsylvania railroad, and will return by way of Niagara.

—Eight Plainfielders went by train to the Monmouth races yesterday.

Only One Fire-Box Call.

The rain of Monday dampened everything against the attacks of Fourth of July gunpowder. The Plainfield department had only one alarm, that of box 12, at 6:22 p. m., to put out a blaze that had started in an awning in front of the store of Powlison & Jones, from a carelessly-thrown cracker. The wooden cornice was slightly burned.

A number of incipient blazes were suppressed without alarm.

Justice Nash's residence got afire, and James Frisbie put out the flames.

No. 2 engine wet down the piles of wood back of Packer's furniture house Monday, but in spite of the precaution a fire started there yesterday. A fire extinguishing brigade headed by Barney Rogers put out the blaze.

Firecrackers burned half an awning at the rear of Rogers's Seafood market yesterday.

Holding Trick Sessions Again.

The board of education is again holding star chamber proceeding. Instead of meeting regularly Monday evening, they without warning met the previous Saturday. They do not seem disposed to keep the newspapers and public informed of what they have a right to know. The only important business transacted was the reappointment of principal Maxson and the selection of Frederick E. Hardon of Mansfield, Mass., for vice-principal, at $1,200 a year, and Charles F. Holck, of Oswego, N. Y., as science teacher, at $900.

—Forty-seven from this city joined the Fourth of July Mauch Chunk excursionists.

Corporation Notice.

Notice is hereby given that the following ordinance has been introduced before the common council, read the second time and ordered engrossed and advertised preparatory to its third reading, and that it is the intention of the common council to adopt the same.

F. W. RUNYON, City Clerk.

Plainfield, N. J., July 3, 1891.

AN ORDINANCE

To amend an ordinance entitled, "An Ordinance relating to the Morals, Peace and Good Order of the City of Plainfield," approved April 23, 1874, amended January 4, 1875, December 7, 1881, September 15, 1883, October 1, 1884, November 3, 1885, and December 8, 1886.

The inhabitants of the City of Plainfield by their Common Council do enact as follows:

Section 1. That section 3 of the amendment approved September 15, 1883 of the ordinance referred to in the title of this ordinance, (general ordinances printed edition of 1883, page 21) be and the same is hereby amended so as to read as follows: "Sec. 3. No person shall cry or openly expose for sale any wares, merchandise, fruits, herbs, meats, fish, goods or chattels, or keep open any shop, store or place of business by him occupied, or cause or permit the same to be open for the sale of said articles or any of them, or openly sell any of said articles on the first day of the week, commonly called Sunday, and any person violating this section shall, upon conviction thereof, be punished by a fine not exceeding twenty dollars, provided however, that this section shall not apply to the sale of milk or medicine, or to cases of necessity, and provided further that no person shall be found guilty under this section who when brought before the City Judge to answer complaint for the violation thereof, shall then and there prove to the satisfaction of said City Judge that he uniformly keeps the seventh day of the week as the Sabbath, and habitually abstains from following his usual occupation or business and devotes the day or a portion thereof to the exercise of religious worship, and that he carries on his business within his premises in such a manner as not to disturb the religious observance of Sunday as the Sabbath. Fees $5.40.

DOUBLE VICTORY FOR PLAINFIELD.

CRESCENTS WIN TWO GOOD HOLIDAY GAMES.

Strong Teams of Both Paterson and Trenton Defeated, by the Coincident Score of 8 to 3—Crowds Entertained by the Excellent Exhibitions.

'Twas old times over again, on the Crescent Oval yesterday, for the games were good, the crowds were large, and Plainfield won. Never was more perfect day for outdoor sport. The sun shone bright and clear, the breeze was cool and steady, and the green mountains made a pretty setting for a pretty picture. The grand-stands and the bleachers were filled with gay crowds of both sexes. The players were in good trim, and gave fine exhibitions.

Turner and Keenan both did nice work in the box, and their support was admirable. Good sharp playing was the feature of the day. Both of the visiting teams came dangerously near scoring additional runs at critical points, and the games were close enough to give considerable excitement. Special admiration burst forth over the splendid one-hand catch of Ryman, who stuck one paw up in air far above his head and with a back-hand movement pulled down and stopped what would have been a three-base hit. Sneden also did a pretty thing, in running with all his might towards second base and picking up a fly just four inches above the ground. The afternoon game was considerably enlivened by the way Eugene Laine was chased around by giant crackers. Go where he would, just as he got comfortably seated there would be a big explosion directly beneath him, driving him to other quarters.

OH, HURRY THOSE SEWERS!

For the North Plainfield Board of Health Is After Plainfield's Sanitary Condition With a Very Sharp Stick.

The Plainfield common council Monday night received the following document and referred it to the committee on water and sewerage:

OFFICE OF BOARD OF HEALTH,
NORTH PLAINFIELD, N. J.

At a meeting of the North Plainfield Board of Health, held June 20, 1893, the following resolution was offered and adopted:

WHEREAS: Numerous complaints have come to us concerning the offensive matter poured into Green Brook by the Peace street sewer, and,

WHEREAS: The noxious odors arising therefrom are not only a constant annoyance to many people, but also a source of sickness and disease, therefore, be it,

Resolved, That the Board of Health of North Plainfield desires herewith most respectfully to enter a protest against the City of Plainfield allowing any foul, fetid, noxious or offensive matter, from any cesspool, water closet or other source to empty into said brook, from the said sewer, and most earnestly request the Common Council of the City of Plainfield to take such measures as in their wisdom they may deem best, to abate the nuisance complained of, especially as the said sewage discharge is detrimental to the public health, and also a direct violation of the state law.

WATCHUNG'S CELEBRATION.

They Danced the German at Midnight, and the Scene Was Like an Oriental Garden.

Pretty Fanwood celebrated the Fourth in true patriotic style, at the entertainment given by the Watchung club.

In the afternoon, beginning at 4, tennis, bowling and other games were indulged in, while for the evening was reserved a beautiful exhibition of fireworks, followed by a lawn party with dancing and refreshments. The grounds were beautifully decorated with hundreds of Japanese lanterns, artistically grouped, so as to give one the impression of an oriental garden. It was by far the most successful entertainment of the kind ever given in Fanwood, and thus the Watchung club bowed its entrance into New Jersey society.

The reception and evening entertainment was under the supervision of the chairman of the entertainment committee, Mrs. Frank Dale Warren, and her assistants, the Misses Smith, of North Andover, Mass., and Mrs. W. E. Gibbs; and to them full praise is due for the success of the celebration. Guests were present from Elizabeth, Cranford, Westfield, Netherwood, Plainfield, Brooklyn and New York. Among those who attended were the following:

Mr. and Mrs. A. D. Beeken, Mr. and Mrs. A. McKown, Mr. and Mrs. B. Urner, Mr. and Mrs. F. D. Warren, Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Beeken, Mr. and Mrs. A. B. Lightowler, Mr. and Mrs. G. H. Renaud, Mr. and Mrs. J. H. L. Todd, Mr. and Mrs. H. Robinson, Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Gibbs, Mr. and Mrs. G. C. Miller, Mr. and Mrs. G. F. Hamlin, Mr. and Mrs. W. S. Force, Mr. and Mrs. C. W. TenBroeck, Mr. and Mrs. George Kyte, the Misses Kyte, Mr. and Mrs. F. W. Quereau, Miss Quereau, Mr. and Mrs. E. C. Kieb, Miss Kieb, Mr. and Mrs. George Bates, Miss Bates, Mrs. C. V. G. Miller, Mrs. John Merrylees, the Misses Boucher, L. S. Ashley, Mr. and Mrs. Cameron, General and Mrs. TenBroeck, Miss TenBroeck, Mr. and Mrs. T. J. Nichol, the Misses Nichol, E. A. Urner, Mr. and Mrs. C. W. Smith, Miss Smith, Mr. and Mrs. W. Edward Pentz, Mr. and Mrs. Wiltsie, Mr. and Mrs. C. K. Moore, Captain and Mrs. F. T. Leigh, Miss Fulton, Mrs. Foster, Ed. Bainbridge, Mrs. Chase, Mr. and Mrs. Williams, Miss Tugden, Mr. Holly, Peter Matthews, Mr. and Mrs. Cooley, Mr. and Mrs. Broadway, Captain Tuzo, Miss Tuzo, Louis Tuzo and Lou Carter.

The german ended the festivities at midnight.

One who is a connoisseur on judging says that among all the belles the most charming and beautiful were Mrs. C. T. Nightingale of Plainfield, Miss Delaney of New York, and Miss Hammond of Brooklyn.

DISFIGURED FOR LIFE.

Andrew Love Injured, and Other Fourth of July Casualties.

Andrew Love, jr., was disfigured for life by the careless handling of a pistol last evening at 7. Ed Dooley stood near him at the Metropolitan stables on North avenue, and attempted to discharge a pistol in the air. The charge hung fire, and as he lowered it it went off and the contents were discharged into Love's face. Luckily the load was a blank, but Love's face was filled with grains of powder and will be disfigured for life. Dr. Carman skillfully extracted the powder that lodged in the eyeballs, and Love's sight is safe.

Fred Lane, age 10, of Brooklyn, was visiting his uncle at Mercer and Sycamore avenues. A firecracker burst in his face, burned the flesh, and injured the left eye. Dr. Carman fixed him up so he went home to-day.

At midnight July 3 Henry Ross, a cake baker for Geo. Voehl, touched off a pound can of powder in Pruden's alley, and had both hands badly burned, and pieces of the tin were imbedded in the flesh. Dr. Adams relieved his sufferings. Ross is laid up for a month at least.

I have been a sufferer from catarrh for twenty years. I found immediate relief in the use of Ely's Cream Balm. Since using it I have not suffered a moment from headache, sore throat or loss of sleep, from which I previously suffered, caused by catarrh. I consider your Balm a valuable remedy. E. G. Vassar, 56 Warren st., New York.

Shiloh's Cough Cure.

This is beyond question the most successful Cough Medicine we have eversold; a few doses invariably cure the worst cases of Cough, Croup and Bronchitis, while its wonderful success in the cure of Consumption is without a parallel in the history of medicine. Since its first discovery it has been sold on a guarantee, a test which no other medicine can stand. If you have a cough we earnestly ask you to try it. Price, 10c. and $1. If your lungs are sore, chest, or back lame, use Shiloh's Porous Plaster. Sold by A. D. Mallinson, 65 North Avenue, opposite railroad station. 5-16-y

AFTER THE SHOPKEEPERS.

Groceries, Dry Goods and Other Sidewalk Obstructions, to Be Cleared Away.

Councilman Fisk called attention Monday evening to the sidewalk obstruction so prevalent about town. He said that the time had come to stop this turning sidewalks into storehouses. On his motion the street commissioner was directed to notify all offenders, whoever they are, to move their goods from the sidewalks and keep them within the building line. The police were directed to assist in securing the reform.

LIGHTNING'S RAVAGES.

A Barn Damaged, and a Second Street Residence Burned.

During the violent electric storm of Monday evening lightning tore shingles from Matthew H. Brandon's barn, Evona, and set the roof ablaze. Policeman Krisey had a key in the nearest fire-alarm box, but an impromptu bucket brigade put out the blaze.

The house of Philip Cottrell, 176 East Second street, was struck by lightning. The bolt burned the cord of a window sash and ran down the wall to the kitchen, tearing plaster away.

SUNDAY SELLING AMENDED.

THE CITY JUDGE ALONE TO DECIDE IF A MAN IS A GENUINE SEVENTH-DAY.

No Jury to Settle This Point—He Who Keeps Open Shop Sunday Must Devote Saturday to Religious Worship—Mayor Gilbert's Strong Message on Men Who Use the Existing Law as a Subterfuge.

The difficulty of securing satisfaction in such cases as that of Lorenzo Paoli who though not openly a Seventh-Day worshiper professed a change of heart in order to close Saturdays and keep open Sundays, has prompted the legislation predicted exclusively in these columns.

At the regular July meeting of the common council, held Monday night, Mayor Gilbert again exhibited his ready and capable grasp of important situations, in presenting the following message:

MAYOR'S OFFICE,
PLAINFIELD, N. J.,
July 3, 1893.

To the Honorable Common Council of the City of Plainfield.

GENTLEMEN:—Herewith I submit for your consideration an ordinance to amend the ordinance relating to the morals, peace and good order of the city of Plainfield. The necessity for this amendment arises from the fact that the ordinance that refers to selling and doing business on Sunday is not as clear and explicit as it should be, and certain of our shopkeepers are violating the law under the impression that the closing of their places of business on Saturday entitles them to sell openly and do business on Sunday.

Unless this impression is removed, it will not be long before the example of the few who are violating the law to-day will be followed by others who may find Sunday a more profitable business day than Saturday.

While I have no desire to interfere with the religious privileges of any, it is my duty to see that the ordinances of the city are not openly violated by men who profess religious convictions merely as a shield to protect themselves from punishment.

Respectfully submitted,
A. GILBERT, Mayor.

The ordinance which he introduced provides a fine of $20 for selling anything except milk or medicine or in case of necessity, on Sunday, with this provisо:

That no person shall be found guilty who when brought before the city judge to answer to complaint for the violation of the ordinance shall then and there prove to the satisfaction of said city judge that he uniformly keeps the seventh day of the week as the Sabbath and habitually abstains from following his usual occupation or business and devotes the day or a portion thereof to the exercise of religious worship, and that he carries on his business within his premises in such a manner as not to disturb the religious observance of Sunday as the Sabbath.

The ordinance was unanimously adopted on second reading and ordered engrossed and advertised preparatory to final passage.

—A. M. Runyon is planning to erect a two-story extension, 14x16 feet, to his house, 420 Madison avenue. The committee on fire and buildings has been given power in the matter.

THE FORD THEATRE DISASTER

What the Government Must Prove Before the Grand Jury.

WASHINGTON, July 5.—It is stated that the government must prove by sufficient evidence in each case that the victims of the Ford's theatre disaster were killed by the collapse of the building, before the grand jury will return indictments against Messrs. Ainsworth, Dant, Cowen and Sasse, charged by the coroner's jury with responsibility for the affair. A witness must be produced that he saw the dead man in the wreck, or brought and placed in the patrol or other vehicle.

Another will give evidence that the deceased was removed to the morgue where the third witness will be called upon to testify that he saw a dead body in the dead house, thus forming a chain of evidence commencing in the ruins of the old theatre building and ending at the morgue.

Canadian Cattlemen Indignant.

MONTREAL, July 5.—Cattlemen in this market are highly indignant over what they term an alleged discovery of pleuro-pneumonia in Canadian cattle landed at Liverpool. If the present restrictions on Canadian cattle are continued, exporters say there is no longer any reason for quarantine measures against American cattle and that the latter should be admitted to Canada without restrictions.

WARD FOUND DEAD

Did the Proprietor of the Defunct Forestville Bank Kill Himself?

FORESTVILLE, N. Y., July 5.—The closing of Ward's bank and the suicide of the proprietor have caused the most intense excitement in this place.

The assets and liabilities of the defunct bank are not exactly known. There were over $70,000 of deposits.

Ward has long been considered one of the strong men of Chautauqua county, and has been connected with the bank here since early in the 70's.

When it became known that the bank had not opened there was a great comotion in the village. At once the wildest rumors about Ward began to be circulated.

It was at first thought he had absconded, but an investigation led to the discovery of his dead body in the rear of his house.

It is supposed he committed suicide, but whether because of an impending failure of the bank or of temporary insanity is only conjectural.

Calvery's Great Performance.

NIAGARA FALLS, N. Y., June 5.—Fully 10,000 people saw Clifford Calvery perform some wonderful feats on his wire stretched across the Niagara gorge yesterday. He beat all time records by running across the wire at full speed in 2 minutes, 32 2-5 seconds, which is one minute faster than the record established last summer by Dickson.

Smith Couldn't Do It.

DENVER, July 5.—"Denver" Ed. Smith attempted to knock out "Reddy" Gallagher in four rounds at Broadway Athletic Park yesterday in the presence of 2,500 people, but the cleverness of Gallagher and his sprinting abilities saved him.

The American Catarrh Cure

Is the result of twenty-six years' study and treatment of the disease. One bottle convinces the most skeptical. It is always ready for use, needing neither douche nor atomizer. It restores the hearing, cures the hawking cough and expectorating, removes the headache and nose bleeding, increases the appetite, produces sound sleep, invigorates the whole system and increases the vitality. Prepared only by W. B. Jones, M. D., No. 1336 South Eighth street, Philadelphia. For sale by L. W. Randolph, 21 West Front street. Price $1.

SUNDAY IN CAMP.

Holy Cross Choir Boys Keep in Health and Are Getting Fat.

DAILY PRESS TENT,
CAMP SAUNDERS,
MERWIN'S POINT, CONN.

JULY 2.—"Who are, who are we, camp Saunders '93!" This cry was given with much force last evening, and closed very appropriately the last day of the week, after which the call for "lights" was given.

To-day being Sunday, life about the camp is very quiet; not even a church bell is heard. The campers are observing the day in good style. Will Holmes was one of the late arrivals last evening. He will stay until Tuesday. John Steiner came Friday night. We expect some more on Monday, and by the 4th we will have a large crowd here.

Mr. Miner took ten of the boys to Naugatuck last night. They will sing in St. Michael's church to-day, and return to-morrow morning.

The weather has been especially favorable for outdoor living. Two or three times it has threatened rain, but eventually the clouds passed away.

While some of the boys were out Saturday evening they were invited to one of the cottages, where they were hospitably entertained.

On Tuesday there will be a game of ball between boys from the camp and those living here; also some athletic games. In the afternoon the choir will give a concert at the Pembroke hotel, and in the evening they will be entertained there.

Mr. Miner has secured a boat for the use of the boys while in camp. It arrived on Saturday in charge of Mr. Beulah of New Haven.

As the boys scatter themselves among the rocks along the shore, their voices can be heard singing familiar songs. These rocks line the whole shore; they are very large and rugged, and extend a long distance into the water. One can scramble a considerable distance from the beach on them.

Everybody is getting plenty to eat, and growing fat. Various good things are often missed from the cook's tent, and of course nobody knows anything about them. Saturday night there was a large bunch of bananas missing, and they never came back.

A very large crowd of people were here to-day from the surrounding places, Ansonia, New Haven, Milford, etc., some in wagons, and some on bicycles. Most of them brought their lunch, and it resembled a picnic very much.

JULY 3—As your correspondent sat in his tent writing this letter, several of the boys came around and offered suggestions, such as "If you put anything in about me, I'll put you through the mill."

To-day promises to be very warm, and no doubt there will be lots of bathing.

Mr. Miner is expected back to camp this morning, and he will probably have some programme for us for the day.

One of our number while at breakfast this morning had to be guarded by one of the boys with a club, so he could finish his meal.

Usually when we wake in the morning we find our water pails and basin jar, far away, and anything we wish to keep has to be watched very closely.

We were all quite tired this morning, and in consequence did not feel like getting out very early.

To-night will be made glorious from the fact of it being the eve of the National celebration. Plans are being made for a lively time.

Mr. Bond is expected to arrive to-day, with several of the boys from Naugatuck.

Everybody continues in good health. The boys all agree that this is the most successful camp ever held.

As I am writing this letter, Mr. Miner and the boys are just coming in the stage, and all are shouting and making themselves heard throughout the camp.

We are now getting ready to have our picture taken. DOBBINS.

Long-Distance Cycling.

Master Brainard, of Swift's meat depot, and Clarence S. Johnson, rode their wheels yesterday to Asbury Park, and back, a distance of 129 miles according to cyclometer. They left Plainfield at 9 a. m., and were home again a little after midnight, and spent over an hour at the Park.

Plainfield High School Boys Win.

S. Clinton Crane won the two-mile bicycle race at Dunellen, and Thomas A. Cuming that at New Market. Crane got a silver flask as first prize, and Cuming a silver medal. Both are members of the Plainfield High School Athletic association.

He Won't Get It.

Charles H. Hand has applied to the council for permission to connect his Watchung avenue buildings with the North avenue sewer. The petition was referred to the committee on water and sewerage.

Fleet-Footed Fred.

Fred Walker, of 313 New street, won in a foot race against a bicycle, at Dunellen, yesterday. He covered the 90 yards in 9 seconds.

—There was great sport at Dunellen and New Market over the old-fashioned celebration of the Fourth. Two hundred Plainfielders attended by train, and many more went by wagon and wheel.

—Harry Bush, an employe of Earl Thorn, was prostrated by sunstroke while tinning the roof on Sandford's barn, West Seventh street, Monday morning. He was taken home in a carriage and attended by Dr. Tomlinson.

Oh, What a Cough!

Will you heed the warning. The signal perhaps of the sure approach of that more terrible disease, Consumption. Ask yourselves if you can afford for the sake of saving 50c., to run the risk and do nothing for it. We know from experience that Shiloh's Cure will cure your cough. It never fails. This explains why more than a Million Bottles were sold the past year. It relieves croup and whooping cough at once. Mothers, do not be without it. For lame back, side or chest, use Shiloh's Porous Plaster. Sold by A. D. Mallinson, 65 North Ave. opposite railroad station. 5-16-y

THE WATER COMPANY OBSTINATE.

CORPORATION COUNSEL ASKED TO PROTECT THE CITY.

Plainfield Can't Get Fire Hydrants Asked for, and Litigation May Result—The Grip of the Monopoly Being Felt at Last.

Councilman Erickson Monday night called attention to difficulties encountered by the city in securing from the Water Supply company what the fire committee considers is the city's just due.

It was the 3d of last April that the city ordered 17 new fire hydrants of the company. A number of them have not yet been placed, and are not likely to be till the company can force the householders of the section where they are wanted to pay such a revenue as the corporation seeks.

Voluminous correspondence has passed between Mr. Erickson and the company, and the upshot is that the company refuses to put in the required hydrants till private subscriptions for water service are secured for the same section. Mr. Erickson disputes the company's right to do this, and also questions the company's demanding higher rates for new four-way hydrants than for the old. He was virtuously indignant at the council meeting and said "I move that the corporation counsel be instructed to act in the matter, to see if we can't get our rights without further trouble". This was done.

Mr. Erickson also said the company had been delinquent in not reporting the erection of 4 hydrants so that the fire department would know they were ready for use.

It may turn out that the company's contract with the city justifies the autocratic attitude of the company. If so, 'twill be a surprise to the committee.

The company has asked the council to rescind the water-works contract of Chas. K. Moore, which it acquired by assignment. That matter also has been referred to the corporation counsel. It is thought the company may be up to some sly move in this direction.

THE NEW REICHSTAG.

President and Vice-Presidents Chosen To-day.

Von Levetzow is the New Presiding Officer—Favorable Comments on the Emperor's Speech of Yesterday.

BERLIN, July 5.—When the Reichstag convened to-day Herr Von Levetzow, Conservative, was elected president; Baron Von Buol-Borenberg, Clerical, first vice-president; and Professor Von Marquardsen, National Liberal, second vice-president.

Most of the newspapers comment favorably on the Emperor's speech in opening the Reichstag. It was much more conservative and pacific than had been anticipated in many quarters. While reading the speech the Emperor was frequently interrupted by applause. He said in part:

Honored Gentlemen:

"Since you have been called in common to work for the Federal Government, I desire to welcome you upon entering on your deliberations. A bill concerning the peace footing of the army, which was submitted to the former Reichstag, to my regret did not find approval. It was the unanimous conviction, shared by all my high confederates, that the Empire no longer could afford to renounce the development of the army system necessary to guarantee the future safety of the Empire. In face of the development of military institutions, the rejection of the Army bill was bound to lead to the resolution to dissolve the Reichstag and order new elections. Since the first introduction of the bill the political situation in Europe has experienced no change. The relations of the Empire with other powers are thoroughly friendly and free from all clouds. The proportion of Germany's organized military strength has, however, changed for the worse during the past year when compared with that of our neighbors. If already Germany's geographical position and historical development lay upon us the duty to maintain a relatively strong army, then a further increase in the military strength of the Empire becomes a forcible necessity to satisfy the duties laid upon me by the constitution. I consider that all the means at our disposal must be utilized in order to establish an effective defence of the Fatherland.

"You will receive immediately a new bill regarding the peace footing of the army, in which there will be taken into account as far as possible certain desires expressed during the discussion of the late bill. Consequently, diminished demands are made upon the personal capacities and tax-bearing power of the people as far as possible without endangering the efficiency of the army. The Empire's interest requires, especially in view of the end of the septennate next spring, that the bill be passed with the utmost dispatch, so that the new recruits calls may be made in the autumn on the new basis. Delay would influence most unfavorably our strength for more than twenty years.

"With a view to enabling you to devote undivided attention to the discussion of the bill the Government will not in the meantime introduce any other measures.

"I and my high confederates remain convinced that the means for the new organization can be procured, without overburdening the country, on the basis of the financial bill introduced in the Reichstag last autumn. At the opening of the winter session a bill will be presented directed to obtaining means according to the capability of the taxpayers. Until then the increased costs will be covered by the federated States through matriculation payments.

"Gentlemen: With great sacrifices Germany has been united in one Empire. The nation honors most those who staked their blood and property on this work, which led the Fatherland to prosperity. To safeguard the glorious achievements with which God has blessed us in our battle for independence is our most sacred duty. This duty we can only fulfil if we make ourselves strong enough to remain surety for Europe's peace.

"I trust you will not fail to give me and my confederates your patriotic sacrifices and willing support in striving for these aims."

The Tageblatt, Radical Unionist, calls the Emperor's speech a special plea for the Army bill.

The Vossische Zeitung, Radical, says the speech confirms the former opinions of Radicals that the reduction of the original demands of the bill was possible. The writer regrets that the Emperor omitted to give the assurance that no new taxes should be imposed on the less wealthy classes. "In this direction," says the writer, "the Reichstag must insist upon more binding pledges."

THE ACCURSED CALF.

Its Mother Nearly Killed the English Premier.

Yesterday the Animal Was Famous, To-Day It Is Almost Forgotten — No One Wants to Buy It—A Sketch of the Ill-Fated Creature.

The evil that cows do lives after them. It was but to be expected that the calf whose mother nearly tossed Mr. Gladstone should go through the world branded with the brand of injurious crime and tainted with the taint of inexpiable heredity. True, for a moment the sun of fortune seemed to shine on the child of sin. The criminal herself was shot and hewn in pieces; her skin and horns and jawbones were strung, if not to city gates and castle-walls, at least to the milder equivalents of a civilized age. So the calf, the last scion of a vitiated race, was visited with the infamy of the deed and therewith with the profit of it. It was to go to Chicago, to be the brightest jewel in the diadem of the World's Columbian exposition; the viking ship and the birthplace of Shakespeare would have been but the foil to this most glittering gem of all. Like the Apis of Sinai it was to stand on its pedestal and drink in the intoxicating homage of the idolatrous. But misfortune ever dogs the child of sin, says the Pall Mall Budget, and the unavoidable bolt has fallen as follows:

KINNERTON HALL, Chester, 1893.

SIR: The calf for sketches at our place of the cow that attacked Mr. Gladstone in Hawarden park we have now on sale. Mr. Thomas, of Denbigh, who intended to take it to the world's fair, failed in his plan, so we have taken it off his hands. Should feel much obliged if you could give me any information what to do with it. Have inclosed stamped envelope. An answer will greatly oblige, yours respectfully,

ROBT. CANNON.

See how the fashion of this world passeth away? But yesterday the tail of this calf might have waved against this world, and now it droops at the mercy of a stamped envelope. Remorseless Nemesis works out her vengeance. The gleam of glory was but transient, and the inherited sin is finding the poor beast out. And it wants little prescience to forecast its miserable future—the mark of Cain between its horns, shunned by all men, the price falling and falling and never a buyer, a solitary death, and a nameless grave. It is a great tragedy and a greater warning.

THE ACCURSED CALF.

We are fortunate in being able to give a portrait of the animal, taken at the date of its mother's shame.

A New Rain Compeller.

Scientists say that the effect of a low temperature on a cloud of vapor will be shown in the precipitation of rain. Acting on this knowledge, a European living in the tropical regions of India has invented a novel rain producer. His apparatus consists of a rocket, capable of rising to a height of a mile, containing a reservoir of ether. In its descent a parachute-like attachment opens out, causing the apparatus to descend slowly. At the same time the ether is thrown out in a fine spray. The absorption of heat by the ether is said to lower the temperature of the surrounding air sufficiently to condense the vapor, and hence cause rain. This being true, a large number of rockets would probably be required to cause a prolonged shower.

Making Cloth Waterproof.

A correspondent asks for a recipe for making cloth waterproof. There is surely no better method than putting half a pound of sugar of lead and half a pound of alum in a pail of soft water, stirring it often until it becomes clear, pouring it off into another pail and putting the cloth or garment into it, to remain there for twenty-four hours. The material should then be hung up to dry without wringing. It is said that garments thus treated will keep the wearer absolutely dry in the heaviest rainstorm; the rain simply hangs in globules upon the cloth. Waterproof cloth is more healthy to wear than rubber goods.

The Mojavan "Spirit Owls."

The Mojaves believe that all who die and are not cremated are turned into owls, and when they hear the dismal screech of one of the above-named creatures of the night they tell you that it is the spirit of some dead Mojave who has returned to advise his people to submit to the ordeal of fire. When one of the tribe dies his relatives and immediate friends do not eat salt or wash themselves for four days. Their heaven is "White Mountain;" they know nothing of hell or any place of punishment except "Bicmia," the place where unincinerated warriors are transformed into owls.

The Rabbit's Foot Superstition.

Few negroes but believe that the left hind foot of a graveyard rabbit is a token of good luck, and the superstition is spreading among the white race. A firm in North Carolina, which makes a specialty of rabbit skins, has received an order for 100,000 of such feet.

Mental Power.

A man's full mental power is not reached before the age of 25, and the development of talent is most marked betwen the ages of 30 and 45 years.

EYE SPECIALISTS

—IN—

PLAINFIELD EVERY THURSDAY,

Dunham's Real Estate Office, 7 East Front St.,

FROM 8.30 A. M. TO 5.30 P. M.

No charge is made to determine if your eyesight may be improved or headache relieved, by wearing properly adjusted glasses. Bear in mind the address, and do not fail to consult our specialist if your eyes trouble you.

MESSRS. QUEEN & CO, are well known throughout the United States as Opticians of the highest experience and skill. Their glasses are worn by tens of thousands in all parts of the world, and their work is acknowledged to be the standard of excellence everywhere. The staff of oculists and opticians engaged at their main store, 1 10 Chestnut Street, Philadelphia, is composed of men whose skill and ability to give relief to defective eyes is of the highest order.

Recognizing the fact that in many populous centres there is no person who understands the measurement of the sight and adjustment of glasses in all the details, they have arranged that one of their Eye Specialists shall come periodically to your city, at the address given above.

Heretofore, in order to obtain anything like reliable care, it has been necessary to obtain a prescription at one office, and then purchase the glasses according to that prescription at some store.

This method not only causes much loss of time, but multiplies the chances of error.

Queen's specialists are men of large experience gained by daily and constant practice, which enables them to correct the most defective vision without the use of drugs of any kind in the eye.

Messrs. Queen & Co. make no boasts of wonderful remedies, nor do they claim any special healing power in the glasses they furnish, as to so often done by those who merely deal in glasses. Queen & Co. guarantee every pair of glasses ordered to be satisfactory, and expect to win your approval by the skillful and accurate manner in which they give you improved and comfortable vision.

CONSPIRATORS IN JAIL

Collapse of the Royalist Dynamite Plot in Honolulu.

SPRECKELS' LIFE THREATENED

Annexationists Form a "Citizens Reserve," Who Have Marked Prominent People for Slaughter in Case of a Royalist Outbreak—Blount to be Killed if He Interferes—More Arrests to be Made.

SAN FRANCISCO, July 6.—The steamer Bolgie brings advices from Honolulu to June 28. The Royalist dynamite conspiracy has collapsed by the arrest of three of the active agents, T. B. Walker, Archibald Sinclair and F. C. Crick.

Twenty others are known to be deeply implicated, among them nine of the numerous ex-Cabinet Ministers.

The conspirators' schemes contemplated the use of dynamite with operations on the Anarchistic line.

The offense is not bailable, and the prisoners have been held in confinement, pending examination. The Government has known something of this conspiracy for three months past, and for several weeks it has possessed much exact information.

A very conservative policy has been pursued and no arrests were made until the evidence was entirely complete against the accused. This evidence was submitted to four legal advisers and pronounced sufficient. Meantime every precaution was taken against a surprise.

Of the arrested persons, Walker is the son-in-law of a leading half-white Royalist, John Cummings, is a mason by trade and a man of active nature; Sinclair is a highly skilled mason, but of irregular habits; Crick is a chemist out of employment. About 20 prominent whites and half castes are more or less implicated by the evidence in the possession of the government.

More arrests are liable to be made at any time, but none without ample evidence to justify such action.

Claus Spreckels found on his gate a few days ago a placard ornamented with skull and crossbones and bearing the inscription "Gold and silver will not stop lead." He put the matter before Minister Blount and the latter forwarded Spreckels' statement to the provisional government.

Six or seven hundred annexationists have formed a "Citizens Reserve." They are armed with rifles and have selected certain prominent supporters of the ex-Queen whose names are known and marked them for slaughter in event of a royalist outbreak.

A member of this organization gives a list of names of those marked for assassination and says that in addition to prominent Hawaiians, it includes Claus Spreckels and Minister Blount in case they interfere in any fight that may occur.

OUTRAGED AND KILLED

Great Excitement Over the Murder of Two Girls at Bardwell, Ky.

PADUCAH, Ky., July 6.—The greatest excitement exists in Bardwell, the scene of yesterday's terrible tragedy, in which two young girls named Ray, aged 16 and 12 years, were brutally murdered, presumably by a tramp.

The girls had left their home in Bardwell to pick blackberries and were followed by an older brother in about two hours. He found them both dead with their throats cut from ear to ear, bruised as if roughly handled, and bearing evidence of having been outraged.

The bodies were 50 feet apart and hid in the brush.

There is no definite clue to the identity of the brute who committed the crime, but the manner of the work points to one man and the use of a razor indicates a negro.

Large posses are scouring the woods and if the culprit is caught there will a lynching.

Corbett Makes a Statement.

CHICAGO, July 6.—Champion James J. Corbett is perturbed over the rather caustic letter that President Newton of the Coney Island Club has sent him. "The Columbian Athletic Club never tried to get me away from the Coney Island Club," said Corbett yesterday. "While I am anxious to live up to the agreement with the Coney Island people, and while I want to fight there in preference to anywhere else, I do not see how it is possible for me to do so unless Judge Newton and his associates can get Mitchell."

Bridgeport Harbor Lines Settled.

WASHINGTON, July 6.—The Secretary of War has settled the Bridgeport, Conn. harbor line controversy by approving the recommendations of the board of officers detailed to examine the matter. The harbor master and city authorities favored the lines reported by the board, and the property owners objected to them. The case has been pending for over a year, and has been the subject of a number of hearings.

An Escaped Convict Caught.

NEW YORK, July 6.—George Ketchum, alias Joe Bennett, who escaped from the Kings County Penitentiary, Brooklyn, by a novel ruse in the fall of 1887, was recognized yesterday in Raymond Street Jail where he was serving a short sentence for drunkenness. He was sent back to the Penitentiary to serve out the balance of a five years' sentence for grand larceny.

A Prussian Noble Kills Himself.

ST JOSEPH, Mo., July 6.—Victor Lungstadt, a Prussian of noble birth, killed himself at the Pacific House by taking morphine. He had been drinking hard for several days. Despondency, ill-health and financial distress caused the act. He has lived here 20 years and was known as "the count."

Gold Excitement in Colorado.

FULFORD, Col., July 6.—There is a large influx of mining men here at present attracted by the discovery of a ledge of gold bearing quartz running from 60 to 150 ounces of gold to the ton, 12 assays averaging $900 to the ton. The mountains in the surrounding country are being overrun by prospectors.

ELOPED FROM BELMAR, N. J.

William Fratmire, of Altoona, Runs Away With Miss Jennie Rash.

BELMAR, N. J., July 6.—William Fratmire, of Altoona, Pa., who has a wife and child living in that city, has eloped with Jennie Rash, daughter of James Rash, of this place. The elopers have been traced to Lancaster, Pa.

Fratmire and Miss Rash became acquainted by meeting one another on their wheels while going to the places where they were employed. Monday night Miss Rash left the house saying that she was going to Asbury Park. She did not return.

An investigation showed that she and Fratmire had left on the same train for New York. By means of their trunks they were traced to Lancaster, Pa. Miss Rash is 17, Fratmire is 22.

He Fired Too Many Guns.

NEW YORK, July 6.—The gunner attached to Governor's Island, who fired a salute of 23 guns on the Battery, Tuesday, instead of 21, has been fined $10 and sentenced to the guard house for 30 days.

MISS DRAKE HAS GONE.

The Daughter of the Millionaire New York Banker Disappears.

Her Mind is Affected—Possibility That She Has Eloped—Mr. Drake Procures a Warrant for Her Arrest.

NEW YORK, July 6.—Miss Edith Drake, 27 years old, daughter of James M. Drake, the millionaire banker, has disappeared mysteriously, and her parents and friends are much alarmed because of it. They have asked the police to help search for her, because they say her mind is somewhat affected.

She was deeply infatuated with Samuel D. McGibney, a builder, who is a year younger than Miss Drake. McGibney is said to have made a trip out of town at a time corresponding with the disappearance of Miss Drake, but as yet there has been no suggestion that they have taken the matter into their own hands and eloped.

Miss Drake and McGibney were engaged to be married about a year ago, but without the consent of her parents. When the subject was broached to Miss Drake's father he doubted the sincerity of McGibney's affection for the girl and forbade the marriage, on account, it is alleged, of her mental condition.

Miss Drake was last seen at one of the uptown hotels on Broadway last Monday night. She appeared to be greatly agitated and told a friend that she and McGibney loved each other, but that her parents opposed their union, and that she had been driven from her home. She was advised to go home, but told the friend that if she returned to her home she would be arrested.

Before she left the hotel, Miss Drake promised to return home, but has not yet appeared there. When she does it is probable that the necessary measures will be taken to place her in a retreat for the insane.

A warrant was issued at the Jefferson Market Police Court by Justice Grady yesterday for the arrest of Miss Drake.

Her father had her apprehended and brought before Justice Grady a month ago. She was then given a private hearing. She promised to obey her father and she was not held. Mr. Drake took her home with him and then sent her to a private sanitarium for mental treatment. She either did not go there at all or she did not remain long, for when her father called at the sanitarium to see her two weeks ago she was gone.

COMMODORE LOCKWOOD DEAD

He Did Good Service in the Civil and Mexican Wars.

NEW YORK, July 6.—Commodore Samuel Lockwood of the United States Navy is dead at Flushing, L. I., in his ninetieth year.

He was born in Connecticut in 1803, and entered the navy when 17 years old. In 1826 he was serving as midshipman in the war sloop Warren which was attempting to stamp out piracy in Grecian waters. He was made a lieutenant in 1828, and in 1847-48 commanded the steamers Petrel and Scourge, assisting in the capture of Vera Cruz, Tuspan and Tobasco.

The rank of commander was conferred upon him in 1850, and seven years later he became a commodore.

In 1861-62 he had charge of the blockades of Wilmington, Beaufort, York River and Newport News. He also assisted in the capture of Fort Macon.

He was retired Oct. 1, 1864.

Machinists, moulders, cigar-makers, musicians, tailors, clerks, building trades workmen, printers and leather-workers at Nashville, Tenn., have formed the Consolidated Beneficiary Order of Organized Tradesmen, to protect themselves against accidents, enforced illness, sickness and give their families $1,000 in case of death.

GREAT DAMAGE DONE

Destruction in Pennsylvania By Last Night's Storm.

GRAIN AND VINEYARDS RUINED

In the Schuylkill Valley the Loss Will Be Heavy—Plants in Hot-Houses Ruined—Believed an Earthquake Shook Followed the Storm at Kingston, N. Y.

READING, Pa., July 6.—The destructiveness of last evening's storm eclipsed that of all previous storms of the kind since 1866. The storm originated about three miles west of Reading and covered a width of about four miles. Shortly before 5 o'clock a black cloud appeared in the western horizon and moved eastward rapidly.

Twenty minutes later the streets of the city were covered with hail and water and the toy sewers became choked, being entirely too small to carry off even one-tenth of the water. Wheat, corn, oats, flower gardens, grapes and other fruits were stripped off like leaves.

The vineyards on Mount Penn are completely ruined and the owners do not expect to obtain more than 5 per cent. of the crop. Many of these vineyards covered acres and there is nothing left but the vines.

South of Reading especially along the Schuylkill Valley the destruction to crops was very great. The wheat, rye and oat crops not yet cut have been leveled to the ground and many of the fields were flooded.

At Birdsboro hail fell to the depth of three inches, and in some places was piled up to a depth of nearly a foot.

The stones were the size of hickory nuts and fell so rapidly that pedestrians in this city were driven from the sidewalks. Street car horses became unmanageable from the pelting hail and the drivers were compelled to stop the cars and seek shelter because of the hail striking them on the hands. In the southern and northeastern part of the city many cellars were flooded, and in some instances the water rushed through buildings, ruining carpets, etc.

The downpour was terrible and nothing of the kind has ever been experienced in the recollection of the oldest inhabitants.

At Royers Ford trains were delayed 20 minutes by the track being flooded. A passenger train got into the storm at Phoenixville and remained in it until it was near Pottstown. The storm is described as terrific and the hail pelting the roofs of the cars caused quite a panic among the passengers. The storm was accompanied by thunder and lightning.

The damage in the Schuylkill Valley will reach many thousands of dollars. The glass of the hot-houses of this city, and in the track of the storm were shattered and thousands of young plants ruined. The beautiful flowers and plants which were just set out by the Reading Company at the Reading station were cut to pieces. The Reading forge, on North Eighth street was flooded to a depth of four feet and the fires had to be drawn and the works shut down.

WAS IT AN EARTHQUAKE?

Kingston, N. Y., Residents Believe They Felt One Last Night.

KINGSTON, N. Y., July 6.—One of the severest electric storms ever known in this section passed over this place last evening. It lasted for more than an hour and during the time telegraph, telephone and electric light wires seemed ablaze with bluish liquid flame. All the electric lights were extinguished. When the storm had finished at about 8:20 o'clock there was a sound like a muffled explosion, houses shook and people rushed to the streets, fearing the buildings were tumbling down. It was the general opinion that the town had been shaken by an earthquake.

Damage at Belmont Park.

PHILADELPHIA, July 6.—Just after the last heat at Belmont Park had been finished yesterday, the hail and windstorm broke over the park in all its fury and in a few minutes about $6,000 damage was done. The grand stand was unroofed, 16 sheds were blown down and sulkies and carriages were demolished.

Killed By Lightning.

DONALDSONVILLE, La., July 6.—During a thunder storm last night, lightning struck the store on the plantation owned by Trejean Brothers and instantly killed Arthur Trejean. Two negroes were badly injured.

COLORADO BANK SUSPENDS

The American National Compelled to Close its Doors.

PUEBLO, Col., July 6.—The American National Bank has suspended. The assets are placed by the bank's officers at $1,250,000 and the liabilities at $635,000.

O. H. P. Baxter, one of the wealthiest men in the State, is president of the bank. It is believed that the bank will be able to resume shortly because its assets are in good shape.

There is no excitement among the depositors of the other banks.

Asbury Park Lawyer Dead.

ASBURY PARK, N. J., July 6.—Henry C. Clayton, a prominent lawyer and graduate of Yale College, died yesterday of typhoid-pneumonia. He was 51 years old, and leaves a widow and eight daughters.

WASHINGTON, D. C., July 6.—For New England: Local rain and thunder storms followed by generally fair weather, winds shifting to westerly with increasing force, probably becoming dangerous off the coast.

For Eastern New York, Eastern Pennsylvania, New Jersey, Delaware and Maryland: Fair, fresh and brisk westerly winds.

For Western New York and Western Pennsylvania: Fair, westerly winds.

READING'S PETITION GRANTED

Its Agreement With the P., P. & B. to Be Dissolved July 31.

PHILADELPHIA, July 6.—The petition of the Reading railroad receivers for leave to dissolve their agreement with the Pennsylvania, Poughkeepsie & Boston railroad has been granted by Judge Dallas in the United States Circuit Court, the dissolution to take place at the end of the present month.

Attorney Dickson stated that the Pennsylvania, Poughkeepsie & Boston railroad is operated by the Reading under agreement with Henry H. Kingston, the receiver appointed by the United States District Court in New Jersey.

The agreement of the receiver with the Reading was entered into with the sanction of the court.

Under the agreement the Reading pays all operating expenses and interest of the receivers' certificates and takes all the earnings. The proviso is made that if the arrangement became unduly burdensome the Reading can be released upon 30 days' notice.

88 BODIES RECOVERED.

Only a Few Men Escaped Death in the Thornhill Mine.

Some of the Corpses Terribly Burned and Disfigured—Several Imprisoned Miners Rescued.

LONDON, July 6.—The work of rescuing the living miners and of recovering the bodies of the dead is being pushed as rapidly as possible in Ingram's colliery, Thornhill, Yorkshire, the scene of Tuesday's disastrous explosion that entombed the day shift of 145 men.

Volunteers for the work of rescue are plenty and the miners are working their way into the farthermost workings of the pit as expeditiously as can be expected in view of the fact that they have removed enormous quantities of debris from the galleries.

Thus far the bodies of 88 dead miners, some of them terribly burned or crushed, have been sent to the surface. Other bodies can be seen in different parts of the mine, but they are pinned down with rocks and timbers and it will require some time and skill to remove them.

The bodies of some of the men do not show a sign of how death was caused. These men escaped the effects of the explosion, but were killed by the choke damp that filled the mine after the explosive gas had taken fire.

Many women and children are lingering about the mouth of the pit, and many distressing scenes are witnessed as the bodies of the dead are brought up and exposed for identification.

Two men were brought up in an unconscious condition, but still breathing. The physicians who had been around the pit's mouth nearly all the time since the accident occurred, at once took them in charge and hopes are entertained that they will recover.

Six men who had sustained no injury whatever, but who had been imprisoned behind a huge mass of debris were dug out last evening. When they appeared at the mouth of the pit they were greeted in a most touching manner by their relatives and friends.

No reason has been given for the explosion, but the conjecture is that it was caused by carelessness on the part of one of the miners in opening his lamp.

MORE RIOTING IN PARIS

The Police and the Mob Have Several Bloody Encounters.

PARIS, July 6.—Rioting was resumed at 9:30 o'clock last night. A mob in the Boulevard St. Michel assumed a threatening attitude and the police charged upon the crowd, driving the rioters down the Rue des Eccles as far as the Place Maubert.

There the mob made a determined stand, showering stones and every kind of missiles on the police. A hand-to-hand fight followed and the struggle continued until the police were reinforced by a large force of Republican guards, when the rioters dispersed.

In the meantime a body of police and Republican guards had driven off the turbulent crowds that had assembled in the vicinity of the Labor Exchange, which is now occupied by troops.

At 11 o'clock there was a sanguinary encounter on the Rue des Eccles. The exact details are wanting, but it is known that the Republican guards charged upon the rioters with drawn swords and that the police opened fire with revolvers upon the mob.

One man was killed on the spot by a cut from a sabre. Others were taken to neighboring drug stores where their wounds were dressed.

Dr. Potter Exonerated.

NEW YORK, July 6.—The committee that has been investigating the charges against the Rev. Dr. D. C. Potter of the Baptist Tabernacle held its final meeting last evening and prepared its report. The report, it is said, exonerates Dr. Potter, and finds all the charges to be utterly without foundation.

Rugnani Gets Nine Years.

CORNING, N. Y., July 6.—Rugnani, the Italian who killed Burton Hughes at Painsburg, Pa., Aug. 5, 1892, and was found guilty of murder in the second degree at the last term of court, was yesterday sentenced to nine years in the Eastern Penitentiary in Philadelphia.

NEW YORK NIHILISTS.

Alleged Plot to Assassinate Siberia's Governor-General.

Superintendent Byrnes Took Measures to Prevent Any Attempt Upon the Life of Gen. Donkhovsky During His Stay.

NEW YORK, July 6.—Soon after the arrival, last Sunday, of General S. M. Donkhovsky, the recently appointed Governor General of Siberia, with a large party bound for the World's Fair, the clerk at the Clarendon Hotel, where the party is staying in this city, received a letter signed "A Victim of Siberia."

The writer says that a certain organization in New York is plotting to kill Donkhovsky; he also says but that for his interference the organization would have made an attempt to destroy the Russian men-of-war that were in the harbor.

The letter was sent to Superintendent Byrnes and it is said that he made preparations to prevent any attempt at assassination.

Coming Around to the Scale.

PITTSBURG, July 6.—While the local manufacturers have not yet signed the scale, the mill owners in the eastern and western districts are one by one agreeing to the Amalgamated Association wages. Yesterday the Locust Point and Iron Steel company of Baltimore, Md., signed the scale.

WEATHER INDICATIONS.

For New Jersey: Fair, Slightly Cooler; Northwest Winds.

EARLY INTELLIGENCE.

—The board of directors of the Y. M. C. A. will meet this evening at the rooms.

—The excursion to-morrow leaves Plainfield at 8 sharp, and returns at 5:30 from the Park.

—Mrs. Adams displays at 107 East Front street all the latest styles in millinery and dressmaking

—The board of trade will meet in the Crescent club-house to-night at 8. A full attendance is desired.

—Leggett is selling 12-soda-water tickets for 50 cents, and everyone knows what superior soda-water it is.

—The public library directors will hereafter hold their regular sessions the first Tuesday in each month.

—Admission, including grand stand seat, to the Crescent ball games, will hereafter be 25 cents. General admission 15 cents.

—Short-stop Jack Farrell and other old Somerville players, are members of the Olympics of Paterson who play the Crescents here Saturday.

—Plainfield Lodge, 44, I. O. O. F., have decided to run an excursion to Lake Hopatcong August 24, stopping at Dunellen, Somerville and White House.

—Sherwin is selling a good many of those ladies' white canvas oxford ties, at his special-sale price of $1.38; but he keeps the sizes right up on them, and you can still get fitted.

—Mrs. Doty, who was put in charge of the police for insanity a few days ago, proved too violent to be taken care of by her daughter, and freeholder Vanderbeek took her to the asylum yesterday.

—There'll be room for all on to-morrow's excursion to the shore. Ample cars will be provided, and there will be no crowding. Remember this is the Crescent Avenue trip. Hope and Warren chapels go later.

—Edsall's great removal sale is attracting considerable attention, and buyers appear to be well pleased with their purchases, and say that it is the best opportunity to secure real good articles at low prices that has ever been offered in Plainfield.

—The "Olympics" of Paterson, who play the Crescents here Saturday, are great rivals of the other Paterson team that defeated the Crescents, 15 to 3, June 3. The former has issued a challenge to play the latter any time for a sum of money.

—At a meeting of the Plainfield Amusement company, last evening, Thomas H. Keller was chosen sole manager of the Crescent ball team. It was thought that one competent man could run the nine with less friction and more satisfactorily to the stockholders and public.

—What THE PRESS has always advocated should be done to popularize baseball in Plainfield, is now to be accomplished—the lowering of the price of admission. Manager Keller has cut it down to 15 cents, and now everyone may go—even the schoolboy with lots of yearning but little cash.

Plainfielders at Bound Brook.

Peter P. Dumont, of this city, visited Bound Brook relatives on the Fourth.

Miss May Stroud, of New Brunswick, has been the guest of Miss Mabel Force, at Bound Brook.

Mr. and Mrs. Theodore Hardy, of Brooklyn, formerly of this city, spent the Fourth with Mrs. Hardy's uncle, mine host Force, of the Mansion House, Bound Brook.

From the number of torpedos on the Jersey Central track at Bound Brook the night of the Fourth it sounded as if the station was being bombarded, someone having put about 50 on at once.

The many Plainfield friends, as well as the members of Mr. Goodrich's church, at Bound Brook, will be glad to learn that he and his bride have taken possession of the pretty cottage belonging to Mr. Fraley for the summer. Mr. Fraley and family having gone to High Bridge.

The people of Bound Brook are more public-spirited than those of her sister city Plainfield, and gave a very fine free display of fireworks on the tennis grounds adjoining "Oak Lawn", the fine residence of mayor Perry. The mayor and his invited guests enjoyed the affair from his palatial porch, which was very prettily decorated, as were the grounds surrounding it. Bartow's band, which was stationed on the lawn, enlivened the affair with music. Among the mayor's guests from out of town were Senator and Mrs. Keys of Somerville, and J. P. Laire and Miss Cora Laire of Plainfield.

P. M. FRENCH PACIFIED.

THE RAILWAY COMPANY SETTLES, AND RAPID TRANSIT LINKS CITY AND BOROUGH.

Citizens were surprised and delighted this morning to find a gang of Italians under the personal direction of superintendent Passmore tearing up Somerset street from Front to the brook for the purpose of laying the balance of the Somerset street extension of the electric railroad.

Inquiry revealed the fact that the company had yielded to P. M. French and granted the concessions he demanded. They agreed that they would not lay the rails above or below the established street grade, nor lay a double track or turnout in front of his place. They also assumed the liability of paying his costs in the lawsuit. Whether or not they paid him a bonus is not stated.

The tracks being completed, the poles and wires will now be put up, and the road will be in complete operation within a few weeks. The work will be pushed as rapidly as possible.

COSTLY LESSON FOR SUYDAM.

He Bucked Against a Plainfield Ordinance and Defied the City Officials.

The case of the city against John P. Suydam for violation of the ordinance forbidding the erection of any wooden building within the prescribed fire limits, came up in judge Coddington's court this morning. Corporation counsel Barret of Bloomfield represented the defendant, while corporation counsel Craig A. Thatch appeared for the city. The property in question is that occupied by Gawett on Front street, and the violation of the ordinance lay in Mr. Suydam's building a wooden elevator shaft on the rear wall of the brick structure. It was put up without asking the consent of council, and fire marshal Doane ordered it torn down, which command Suydam ignored. Mr. Barret said that the defendant, acting under his advice, would plead guilty, but he added that his client had already made such changes in the structure as were necessary to make it comply with the requirements in the ordinance, and that the changes had involved an expense of about $100.

He said in excuse for the delay in reaching a trial that his client was a non-resident and that immediately after the complaint his client had a severe fit of illness. Under these circumstances, Mr. Barret said, he asked for leniency at the discretion of the court.

Mr. Marsh said that he had intended to advise the court to inflict the extreme penalty allowed for the violation of this ordinance; that builders and agents were very apt to disregard the law in cases like this, but as the counsel for the defendant had put the case so well and as he had represented that everything was now as it should be, he would also ask the court to impose only a nominal fine.

Judge Coddington gave a verdict of $10 fine with costs, which Mr. Suydam paid immediately.

A BOUQUET FOR THE PROPHETESS.

John Carney Staggered Under Its Weight, and Delivered a Golden Oration.

A felicitious occasion last evening was the installation of New officers of Iona council, of the feminine department of the Red Men's order. All of the noble squaws and their braves were present, and a most delightful time resulted. The officers, as installed by district deputy sister Rachel Newcomb and staff, were:

Prophetess—Mrs. William A. Westphal.
Pocohontas—Mrs. George Richter.
Wenonah—Mrs. Charles Holstein.
Powhattan—William Klein.
Keeper of Wampum—Mrs. Andrew Stoltz.
Collector of Wampum—Miss Lizzie Delvere.
Keeper of Records—Mrs. Fred. Canfield.

During the "good of the order" portion of the meeting, a mammoth bouquet staggered into the room. From this lovely mass of flowers streamed satin ribbons of the color of the order. Behind it, boosting it up, was the inimitable John Carney, who in his usual happy manner presented the floral tribute to the fair prophetess, Mrs. Wm. A. Westphal. The bouquet was then stood up in the middle of the room, ladders were arranged around it and the gallants helped the dameels up to get a sniff of its lovely perfume. This charming presentation was an entire surprise.

A collation and impromptu programme made the hours till midnight very fleet.

AN INTER-CLUB TOURNAMENT.

Hillside Tennis Players to Meet Out-of-Town Experts.

A regular meeting of the Hillside Tennis club was held last night at the club-house, Watchung avenue. Four new members were elected, and some other business that was before the club was settled. It is proposed to have a series of games with some out-of-town tennis clubs the first games to be played here July 15, and return games to be played at the grounds of the other clubs, the dates to be arranged later. Everyone interested in tennis will look forward to seeing local players matched against some out-of-town experts.

Complimented by His Chief.

Dr. H. K. Carroll of this city has received from superintendent Porter the following compliment:

DEPARTMENT OF THE INTERIOR,
CENSUS OFFICE,
WASHINGTON, D. C., July 1, 1893.

MY DEAR SIR:—I beg to acknowledge the receipt of your letter of the thirtieth ultimo, and to say that I have felt that the inquiry relating to the statistics of church organizations in the United States has been one of the most satisfactory branches of the work. Your bulletins have, I believe, on the whole, attracted more public attention than any other publications of the Census Office, and I feel that you and your efficient assistants are to be congratulated upon the completion of one of the most interesting and important statistical investigations ever made by the Government of the United States. This volume will be a perpetual monument to your ability and industry. I take pleasure in gratulating you on the successful termination of your work.

Very respectfully,
(Signed) ROBERT P. PORTER,
Superintendent of Census.

The Strain on the Back Seat Too Much.

While on their way to Boynton Beach, July 4, Miss Grace Wetherell, Miss Grace Meeker, William Buckley and Elliott Collins met with an accident in the breaking of one of the hind wheels of their carriage. Luckily they had only reached the railroad bridge near Fanwood, and were able to return to Scotch Plains and hire another carriage, after which they pursued their journey and had a pleasant time.

Asked for $2 and Got 30 Days.

Samuel Russell was arrested last night for abusing Wallace Vail on the street. Russell says that Vail owes him $2 and he was trying to get what was due him. Judge Coddington this morning gave Russell his choice of a $10 fine or 30 days in jail. He preferred the latter, and went down to Elizabeth. Judge Charles K. Moore of Fanwood, was Mr. Vail's counsel.

CIVIL SERVICE EXAMINATION.

Here's a Chance for Any of You to Be a Post Office Clerk or Carrier.

In pursuance of the Presidential order of January 5, 1893, extending the Civil Service Law to all free-delivery post-offices, the Civil Service Commission at Washington has ordered that an examination be held in this city on Saturday, August 5, 1893, commencing at 9 o'clock a. m., for the grades of clerk and carrier in the city post-office. Only citizens of the United States can be examined. The age limitations are as follows: For clerk, not under 18 years; for carrier, not under 21 nor over 40; for messenger, stamper, etc., not under 18. No application will be accepted for this examination unless filed with the undersigned, on the proper blank, before 12 o'clock, noon, on July 17, 1893.

The Civil Service Commission takes this opportunity of stating that the examinations are open to all reputable citizens who may desire to enter the postal service, without regard to their political affiliations. All such citizens, whether Democrats or Republicans, or neither, are invited to apply. They shall be examined, graded, and certified with entire impartiality, and wholly without regard to their political views, or to any consideration save their efficiency, as shown by the grades they obtain in the examination. For application blanks, full instructions, and information relative to the duties and salaries of the different positions, apply at the post-office to

G. C. GODOWN,
Sec'y Board of Examiners.

Deer Park and Oakland.

To those contemplating a trip to the mountains in search of health and pleasure, Deer Park, on the crest of the Alleghenies, 3,000 feet above the sea level, offers such varied attractions as a delightful atmosphere during both day and night, pure water, smooth, winding roads through the mountains and valleys, and the most picturesque scenery in the Allegheny range. The hotel is equipped with all adjuncts conducive to the entertainment, pleasure and comfort of its guests.

The surrounding grounds, as well as the hotel, are lighted with electricity. Six miles distant on the same mountain summit is Oakland, the twin resort of Deer Park, and equally as well equipped for the entertainment and accommodation of its guests. Both hotels are upon the main line of the Baltimore and Ohio railroad, have the advantages of its splendid vestibuled limited express trains between the East and West, and are most desirable resting places for World's Fair tourists. Season excursion tickets, good for return passage until October 3, will be placed on sale at greatly reduced rates at all principal ticket offices throughout the country. One way tickets reading from St. Louis, Louisville, Cincinnati, Columbus, Chicago, and any point on B. & O. system to Washington, Baltimore, Philadelphia, or New York, or vice versa, are good to stop off at either Deer Park or Oakland, and the time limit will be extended by agents at either resort upon application.

This season at these popular resorts commences June 15.

For full information as to hotel rates, rooms, etc., address George D. DeShields, manager, Deer Park, or Oakland, Garrett county, Maryland.

A Valuable World's Fair Book.

The passenger department of the Baltimore and Ohio Railroad company has prepared for general distribution a handsome pamphlet descriptive of the scenic and other attractive features of that road from New York to Chicago. This book should prove invaluable to those visiting the World's Fair. In its artistic cover, illustrations and reading matter, it is fully up to the high standard which has been fixed by the B. & O. for publications of this character. The scenery en route, which has gained for the B. & O. the richly deserved sobriquet of "Picturesque", the public buildings at Washington, old Harper's Ferry, Luray Caverns, and other attractive points are faithfully portrayed. The value of the publication is increased by descriptions and illustrations of the principal buildings at the World's Fair. This book can be procured free of charge upon personal application to ticket agents, B. & O. R. R. Co., or you can have it mailed to you by sending name and address with five cents in stamps to Chas. O. Scull, general passenger agent, Baltimore, Md. World's Fair tourists should bear in mind that the B. & O. is selling tickets at very low rates good going via Washington and returning via Niagara Falls.

Bo for the Capitol City.

Three long-distance bicyclists were the center of an admiring group on North avenue this forenoon. They were E. Merz, Tom Cort, jr., and H. Mandervilie, all of the Newark West End club. They left home at 7 a. m. to-day, for Washington, D. C. They had breakfast at Hotel Grenada, and were to stop at Philadelphia for dinner.

GLORIES OF NETHERWOOD.

What the Metropolis Sees to Admire in Plainfield Suburbs.

(From The New York Herald.)

Railways are not agreeable neighbors. To this rule the suburban stations of the Jersey Central are noteworthy exceptions. Graceful stations, surrounded by well shaded parks, are strung along the railway. Among these stations none has more attractive surroundings than Netherwood. The road runs through the wooded valley, the Orange Mountains on one side, with verdant scollops, showing the outlines of the trees which cover it with chenille-like tapestry, and the heights of Netherwood on the other, crowned with castellated outlines of the Hotel Netherwood. Excellent roads radiate from the hotel through a country abounding in beautiful scenery, and from the shaded paths vistas of ever-changing beauty open.

Handsome dwellings adorn the terraces, set in well kept fenceless lawns, each forming a picture with individuality enough to create a distinct remembrance, each perfect in setting and detail. On the heights the central figure in capacious lawns is the Hotel Netherwood, the dominant feature of the scene, its many angled brick walls rising in massive piles, as if many buildings had somehow merged in one. The well modulated roads permit an ascent without weariness, and a view from its broad piazzas is a joy forever. The trees which surround the lawns are backed by masses of evergreen foliage, which make the nearer trees stand out in distinct lines of lighter greens. Over the undulant branches on every side broad views open in panoramic beauty. Plainfield, one mile away on the left; the Orange Mountains in front, and immense stretches of forests, bounded by the horizon, in the other direction, give bird's-eye pictures of one of the prettiest sections of picturesque Jersey.

Mrs. Charles Loeb, of New York, one of the guests at the hotel, possesses a lovely mezzo soprano voice of exquisite culture, and occasionally favors the guests in the rendition of charming selections from favorite composers. A large number of visitors are now sojourning there from New York, Brooklyn and other points, and the outlook for one of the most prosperous and brilliant seasons in the annals of this delightful home resort is assured. There is a delightful sense of restfulness pervading the atmosphere of Netherwood and its surroundings.

It is somewhere written "See Venice and die." Let me respectfully suggest see Netherwood and live to enjoy all the pleasure and happiness surely obtainable at this Arcadia on the heights of fair Netherwood. Mr. Frank E. Miller, owner and proprietor of the Netherwood, with an excellent force of assistants, leaves nothing undone that will contribute to the happiness and comfort of his patrons. From whisperings in the air the amusement list for the season of '93 will be full of delightful surprises. The nearness of the Netherwood to New York—only forty-five minutes by the Central Railroad of New Jersey, with about fifty trains daily each way—renders it a very desirable place for business men and their families, as well as others.

To Visit New Brunswick To-Night.

The Salvation Army celebrated the Fourth by spending the day at the "Straw House" back of the Netherwood farm. They entertained the New Brunswick corps in the afternoon and evening. The afternoon meeting was a "free and easy", conducted by Adjt. Hunter, and Mrs. Adjt. Hunter led the evening meeting at the hall, which closed with a "Hallelujah wind-up". The Plainfield corps will return the visit to New Brunswick to-night.

Not a Bad Beat, Either.

TO THE EDITOR OF THE PRESS:—The masons of Plainfield went to Raritan Tuesday and met with a defeat at a game of base-ball, although no disgrace to the Plainfielders, as they were supposed to play the masons of that place, but upon reaching the grounds found 1 mason and 8 men who do nothing but play base-ball all summer, the score being 4 to 2, the features being the battery work of the Plainfielders, Meeker and Smith.

THE CAPTAIN.

His Personal Experience.

Hon. James W. Husted, while serving his sixth term as Speaker of the Assembly of the State of New York, writes:

"STATE OF N. Y., ASSEMBLY CHAMBER, ALBANY, Jan. 16, 1890.

I desire once more to bear my testimony to the value of ALLCOCK'S POROUS PLASTERS. I have used them for twenty-five years past, and can conscientiously commend them as the best external remedy that I have known. Years ago, when thrown from a carriage and seriously injured, I gave them a thorough trial. In a very short time the pain that I was suffering disappeared, and within a week I was entirely relieved. On another occasion, when suffering from a severe cough, which threatened pulmonary difficulties, which I was recommended to go to Florida to relieve, I determined to test the plasters again. I applied them to my chest and between the shoulder blades, and in less than a fortnight was entirely cured. On still another occasion when suffering from an attack of rheumatism in the shoulder to such an extent that I could scarcely raise my arm, I again resorted to the plasters, and within a very few days the rheumatism entirely disappeared. I have them constantly by me, whether at home or abroad. My family as well as myself have found them to be a sovereign remedy, both for external and internal troubles. I never had but one kidney difficulty in my life, and the application of the plasters cured me in a week. I believe, as I said before, to bear my testimony in a public way to their efficacy, and I know of no better way of doing it than by giving you my personal experience."

Shiloh's Cough Cure.

This is beyond question the most successful Cough Medicine we have eversold; a few doses invariably cure the worst cases of Cough, Croup and Bronchitis, while its wonderful success in the cure of Consumption is without a parallel in the history of medicine. Since its first discovery it has been sold on a guarantee, a test which no other medicine can stand. If you have a cough we earnestly ask you to try it. Price, 50c. and $1. If your lungs are sore, chest, or back lame, use Shiloh's Porous Plaster. Sold by A. D. Mallinson, 65 North Avenue, opposite railroad station. 5-18-7

—"A Bicycle Rider" warns THE PRESS that wheelmen "should beware of a young lady who lives on Front street, Scotch Plains, near a shoe shop, as she sits on the stoop and tries to draw the attention of them by hallooing and laughing at them as they go by."

When the World Falls to Pieces.

The leading English scientists, Jones, Hilton, et al., are figuring on the probabilities of the earth finally collapsing as a result of the modern craze of tapping nature's gas retorts. They argue that the earth is a huge balloon held up, in part at least, by heat and internal gases, and that when nature's great gas main is eventually exhausted the earth's crust may break in and fall into millions of fragments. Ugh! The very thought of such a calamity is startling. They argue that the steady belching forth of millions of feet of gas every hour of the day and night is surely causing a great vacuum somewhere not far beneath the surface, and that sooner or later the thin archway of earth crust will give way. Then will occur the grand climax of all earthly calamities.

The American Catarrh Cure

Is the result of twenty-six years' study and treatment of the disease. One bottle convinces the most skeptical. It is always ready for use, needing neither douche nor atomizer. It restores the hearing, cures the hawking cough and expectorating, removes the headache and nose bleeding, increases the appetite, produces sound sleep, invigorates the whole system and increases the vitality. Prepared only by W. E. Jones, M. D., No. 1336 South Eighth street, Philadelphia. For sale by L. W. Randolph, 21 West Front street. Price $1.

FIVE GREAT MEETINGS

Christian Endeavorers Begin Work at Montreal.

ADDRESSES BY EMINENT DIVINES

The City Crowded With Delegates—Interesting Contest for a Banner, Which the Eastern New York Contingent Stands a Good Chance of Winning.

MONTREAL, July 6.—The twelfth annual convention of the united societies of Christian Endeavor began last night with five great mass meetings at five leading city churches.

The programme last night was as follows:

Meeting No. 1, St. James' Methodist Church, Rev. T. S. McWilliams, Montreal, presiding; prayer service; address, "Receiving the Holy Ghost for Power," Rev. J. Wilbur Chapman, Albany, N. Y.

Meeting No. 2, St. Matthews' Presbyterian Church, Rev. W. R. Cruikshank, Montreal, presiding; prayer service; address, "Some Pressing Needs and How to Study Them," Rev. J. Z. Tyler, Cleveland, Ohio.

Meeting No. 3, Erskine Presbyterian Church, Rev. S. P. Rose, Montreal, presiding; prayer service; address, "The Prayer That Has Power," Rev. Theodore L. Cuyler, Brooklyn, N. Y.

Meeting No. 4, Douglass Methodist Church, Rev. E. M. Hill, Montreal, presiding; prayer service; address, "Conditions of Receiving the Holy Spirit," Rev. W. H. McMillan, Allegheny City, Pa.

Meeting No. 5, American Presbyterian Church, Rev. W. R. Hinson, Montreal, presiding; prayer service; individual consecration.

The returns received by the local press committee indicate that the attendance will fully equal the most sanguine expectations. A banner is to be given to the delegation covering the greatest aggregate number of miles in the trip to Montreal. This is to serve as a stimulant to the delegates.

The actual mileage of the party multiplied by the number in the delegation will be used to determine the result. The Eastern New York delegation made a great gain in this contest by taking a detour in their journey here, going to Clayton and thence down the St. Lawrence. As there are 2,000 delegates coming from Eastern New York every mile counts 2,000 in the banner contest. A low estimate of the Eastern New York delegation's mileage is put at 1,500,000 miles. Western New York will send 2,000 delegates.

California is represented by 150 members, who travel 3,422 miles to Montreal. Illinois is well represented by 500 delegates. Kentucky sends 100; Hon. W. C. P. Breckenridge, M. C., will be the speaker. New Jersey sends 200 by special train. Pennsylvania sends 600 Endeavorers; from Philadelphia 264 are expected. From far off Oklahoma come three delegates at a cost of $100 each. Ohio sends 500 by special train and St. Lawrence river.

Ontario sends 800 out of 3,600 Endeavorers. Quebec will be represented by 1,800 members, including those from Montreal. Washington State sends 25 delegates 3,000 miles, at an individual cost of $175.

The plans to feed the delegates are worthy of note. On the Champs de Mars a large dining hall covering half an acre has been arranged. Several great ranges, water boilers, dish-washing machines, etc., have been planted at one end of the hall to serve as a kitchen.

A score of cooks from New York, with 100 assistants and 400 waitresses, ticket-takers, doorkeepers, cashiers, etc., make up the the equipment of this remarkable dining room.

Meat and vegetables are being gathered at the kitchen doors by the ton. It is convenient to the hall and tent, and the scarcity of eating places in the city leads the caterer to believe that this venture will be profitable.

Many of the small marquises which crowded the "Champs" around the tent and hall with display of trinkets for sale to the Endeavorers were moved by the police. None were suffered to remain but those vouched for by the convention managers. There are enough of these, however, to supply the 20,000 delegates with souvenirs.

Crisp Goes to the Seaside.

NEW YORK, June 6.—Speaker Crisp was somewhat ill this morning at the Hoffman House. In order to recuperate for a few days he has arranged to go down to Long Branch, whence he will leave for Washington.

A Miner Murderer.

BUTTE, Mont., July 6.—Theo. Coombs, a miner, cut his wife's throat yesterday and then committed suicide by taking poison. Their married life had been unhappy.

Young Reagan Surrenders.

PHILADELPHIA, July 6.—Cornelius Reagan, aged 15 years, who caused the death of William H. Lorden, aged 16 years, by hitting him in the head with a brick ten days ago, and who has since been a fugitive, surrendered to the police yesterday. The lad was committed to await the action of the coroner.

Three Killed at a Picnic.

CORBIN, Ky., July 6.—Whisky and pistols got in their deadly work yesterday at a picnic and dance in Knox county, near Woodbine. John Marsee, James Francis and Dempsey Smith were killed. It is thought that Joel Mitchell did the killing. He has not been arrested.

A Well Known Shipmaster Dead.

MACHIAS, Me., July 6.—Frederick A. Small is dead at Machiasport aged 65 years. He was one of the best known shipmasters in the State and had a large acquaintance in New York, Jacksonville and Havana.

LABOR NOTES

Paper-mill employes at Holyoke, Mass., have announced their intention of striking for the abolition of Sunday work on July 9.

At the Nashville Cotton Mills, in Nashville, Tenn., the operatives walked out because their wages had been reduced 25 per cent. all around.

The Ohio Sub-District of the United Mine Workers elected Mark Gulliver, President; Henry Shires, Vice President; E. E. Burley, Secretary-Treasurer; J. Rafferty, Quince Levering, Frank Kessner, Executive Board.

In Ruis, Spain, the striking coopers gained a complete victory for the ten-hour work day. Every one of the bosses had to pay a fine of $25 into the treasury of the union for having caused the strike.

Oh, What a Cough!

Will you heed the warning. The signal perhaps of the sure approach of that more terrible disease, Consumption. Ask yourselves if you can afford for the sake of saving 50c., to run the risk and do nothing for it. We know from experience that Shiloh's Cure will cure your cough. It never fails. This explains why more than a Million Bottles were sold the past year. It relieves croup and whooping cough at once. Mothers, do not be without it. For lame back, side or chest, use Shiloh's Porous Plaster. Sold by A. D. Mallinson, 65 North Ave., opposite railroad station. 5-18-7

HONORED BY CLEVELAND.

Gen. Sternberg, the New Surgeon General of the Army.

He Occupies a High Position Among His Brother Officers and Is Well Known to the Medical Profession of Europe and America.

President Cleveland recently appointed Lieut. Col. George M. Sternberg to succeed Gen. Charles Sutherland as surgeon general of the United States army. The post is the highest one in the medical department of the army, and carries with it the rank of brigadier general. Gen. Sternberg is a native of New York, having been born June 8, 1838. He was appointed assistant surgeon, with the rank of first lieutenant, from New York, May 28, 1861, and assigned to duty with Gen. Sykes' command, Army of the Potomac.

Dr. Sternberg served with Gen. Sykes until August, 1862, distinguishing himself on the field of Bull Run, and gaining the commendation of his commander at the battle of Gaines Mill, the engagement at Turkey Bridge and the conflict at Malvern Hill. After doing hospital duty for a short time at Portsmouth Grove, R. I., he was, says Harper's Weekly, with Gen. Banks' expedition, and assistant to the medical director in the department of the gulf, until January, 1864. He was then stationed at Columbus, O., and later in charge of the United States general hospital at Cleveland. From July, 1865, to April, 1866, he was with the Thirteenth United States infantry at Jefferson Barracks, Mo. He received the rank of captain in May, 1866, and until October, 1867, was post surgeon at Fort Harker, Kan., when he rendered valuable service during the cholera epidemic. Dr. Sternberg was then stationed at Fort Riley, Kan., and during the Indian campaign was in the field from April, 1869, to 1870. A year later, when at Fort Columbus, New York harbor, he did good work during the yellow fever epidemic. After twelve months' service at Fort Warren, Boston harbor, he was ordered to the department of the gulf in July, 1872, and was acting medical director at New Orleans for a short time. He then was assigned to duty as post surgeon at Fort Barrancas, Fla., and served through two epidemics of yellow fever, where he proved to be most efficient and valuable in fighting the scourge. On December 1, 1875, Dr. Sternberg was promoted to be major and surgeon, and, after a short absence from duty on sick-leave, was made attending surgeon at the headquarters of the department of the Columbia, May to September, 1876. From that time until May, 1879, he was post surgeon at Fort Walla Walla, Wash., and saw further duty in the field during the Nez Perces campaign in 1877, when he was mentioned for his "heroic conduct." Dr. Sternberg had previously earned such a reputation as an authority on yellow fever that he was made a member and secretary of the Havana yellow fever commission of the national board of health in 1879, and continued on the national board until 1881. He then went to the department of California, and was post surgeon at Fort Mason, Cal., until May, 1884. Afterwards on duty at Baltimore, Md., and in charge of medical purveying department, San Francisco, to February, 1892, being made lieutenant colonel and deputy surgeon general, January, 1891. Since the early part of 1892 until the present time Dr. Sternberg was attending surgeon at New York city. Last year, during the cholera season, he was appointed consulting bacteriologist to the health officer of the port of New York, in compliance with special request. Previous to that time he was on special duty as delegate from the United States to the international sanitary conference of Rome, and detailed also to make investigations in Brazil, Mexico and Cuba relating to the etiology and prevention of yellow fever. Gen. Sternberg is a member and fellow of many medical and scientific societies in various parts of the world, and has published a number of works and valuable treatises upon medical and scientific subjects. He occupies a high position among his brother officers, and is well known to the medical profession.

A San Francisco Bathhouse.

There is a marvelous structure in process of construction on the cliffs overlooking the bay of San Francisco. It is a bathhouse de luxe of mammoth proportions, having six bathing-tanks filled with water at varying temperatures from a reservoir with a capacity of one million gallons of water. No pumping is necessary, as the building is situated in a horseshoe cove, the conformation of which makes the flow of water from the ocean continuous. In the calmest weather all the tanks can be filled with water in fifty minutes. The interior will be a vast amphitheater under a glass roof, with tiers of seats to accommodate thousands of spectators. Space for four hundred luxurious dressing-rooms on four stories is found beneath the seats. There is an elegant clubroom on every floor, and elevators carry patrons from story to story.

ABYSSINIAN MONKS.

Their Life Seems Enjoyable to an English Traveler.

They Retain Third Century Customs and Have Most Remarkable Relics—The Famous Monastery of Debra Bizen.

Abyssinia is a country of queer customs and a strangely interesting land. The people are, for the most part, dirty and immoral, inferior in many respects to the Kaffirs of South Africa, but they are Christians, and have retained in its ancient simplicity the religion that was taught them in the third century.

Among Abyssinians the man who kills a lion is a popular hero, and is awarded the proud privilege of wearing about his head the name of the beast he has slaughtered, a privilege that is prized as highly as knighthood among Europeans, and makes its possessor a man of mark to the end of his life.

Some interesting, rare and exceedingly valuable relics they are possessed of, too, or think they are. Here is an account of a visit to the monastery of Bizen by J. Theodore Bent, who recently returned from Abyssinia:

"We started off at break of day to visit the monks. It took us three hours to reach the summit, where the monastery of Debra Bizen, or 'The Church of the Vision,' is placed, and truly the name has been well bestowed, for no more lovely vision could be imagined than the one which lay before us. We could easily see Massowah and the Red sea coast line, and the folds of rich blue mountains to the right and left of us as we stood on the pinnacle of the sacred mountain were glorious to behold.

"My wife and I reached the holy precincts unobserved. We were seeking out for ourselves a spot where we could repose, when down came the monks, mute with horror at a woman having approached so near. In vain we expostulated and pleaded fatigue, in vain we said we were English and determined to hold our ground. The monks sat around weeping and exclaiming: 'Better for us to die than to permit a woman to stay here.' Seeing their genuine distress, my wife permitted her objectionable and weary person to be removed about a quarter of a mile away.

"The church is round and built of wood. It has inside two corridors around it where the vulgar may penetrate, but in the square holy of holies not even the king may enter. The mysterious relics kept by Abyssinians in these innermost recesses claim exceedingly bold origins. In one place they profess to have the original ark of the covenant, in another a bag full of wind blown by the Holy Ghost on the day of Pentecost. At Debra Bizen our interpreter told me that they kept the picture of the madonna which Monelek, the son of Solomon by the Queen of Sheba, brought back with him from Jernsalem.

"The life of a monk at Debra Bizen must be enjoyable enough. He wanders about all day long in his white flowing robe and yellow cap, enjoying air of the most perfect freshness. He has his little stone cell or wooden hut beneath the shadow of the rock. He has his refectory, where he meets his fellows twice a day at meal times—that is to say, when there is no fast on, and fasts in the Abyssinian calendar are many and rigorous. On festival days he is very busy chanting and dancing in the church. He never marries. He knows nothing of the world or its vices. His existence is a negative one—he does neither harm nor good to his fellow creatures."

A Chinese Dwarf.

There has arrived in Soochow a microscopic prodigy 20 inches in height, aged 51 years, and sporting a flowing gray beard almost as long as himself. The small man has a "cocky" sort of way about him which is all his own, and is dressed in English fashion—coat, hat, boots and all. He tells the gaping crowd of bumpkins who unceremoniously jostle the city swells in their eagerness to hear him speak that he hails from the dwarf kingdom of the western ocean, and he emphasizes his information by a flourish of a bamboo tobacco pipe which is much taller than himself. But when desired to give a specimen of the language of the country of his nativity he regales his audience with a choice collection of English phrases, squeaked out in an uncertain tone of voice.

ALL ENGLAND REJOICES

Celebrations in Honor of the Royal Marriage.

FESTIVITIES CONTINUING TO-DAY

Many People Injured in the Scramble for Views of the Processions—The Ceremony Which United the Duke of York and Princess Mary of Teck.

LONDON, July 7.—The city is still continuing the celebration begun yesterday in honor of the marriage of Prince George (Duke of York) and the Princess Mary of Teck. The streets are filled with enthusiastic and cheering multitudes, who are evidently determined to make a two days' celebration out of what was intended for one.

The illuminations last evening were magnificent. From Liverpool street westward, far beyond Piccadilly, the city was aglow with colored lights. The splendor of the scene has not been equalled before in London. The uproar in the great thoroughfares was deafening. Men, shouting and cheering below, were answered by women, cheering and waving flags from the windows.

No serious disturbance was reported. In the scrambles for views of the processions seventy persons were slightly injured and two were mortally injured. Two hundred persons, prostrated by heat and excitement, were carried away from the crowds by ambulances, but all recovered without being taken to hospitals.

A man fell last evening from a second story window in Fleet street. He struck on his head and his brains were dashed out. His blood spattered the crowd who were cheering in the street. The street was so densely peopled from wall to wall that it was impossible to keep clear of the body and it was trampled and pushed about until the police removed it in an ambulance.

Despatches from Londonderry say that the Orangemen showed their resentment of the Government's attitude towards Home Rule by refusing to celebrate the royal marriage. The buildings and monuments under their control were left undecorated. Hardly a dozen flags were hoisted by them.

DUCHESS OF YORK.

The wedding was solemnized at the Chapel Royal, St. James' Palace. The marriage took place at 12:30 o'clock. The royal party left Buckingham Palace in four processions, the first conveying the members of the household and distinguished guests. The next procession included the Duke of York and his supporters, the Prince of Wales and the Duke of Edinburgh. The bride came in the third procession, accompanied by her father, the Duke of Teck and her brother, Prince Adolphus of Teck. The last procession was that of the Queen, who accompanied by the Duchess of Teck, her younger sons, and the Grand Duke of Hesse, drove in state to the ceremonial. The marriage ceremony opened with the procession of the clergy into the chapel, lead by the Archbishop of Canterbury. Handel's march from the "Occasional Overture," was played by the organist as the procession came forward. While the Archbishop and clergy were taking their places the music and the march in "Scipio" came from the organ and immediately the front of the second procession, including the royal family and royal guests came in sight, and the members of it were conducted to their seats as they entered. As the Queen's procession, which included the Duchess of Teck and the Grand Duke of Hesse, walked up the aisle, Sir Arthur Sullivan's "Imperial March" was played.

The bride wore the veil which was worn by her mother on the occasion of her own marriage. Her wedding gown was of silver brocade, in perfect harmony with the bridesmaids' toilets of white satin and silver lace. The bridesmaids were the Princesses Victoria and Maud, of Wales; Princesses Victoria Alexandra and Beatrice, of Edinburgh; Princesses Margaret and Victoria Patricia, of Connaught; Princess Victoria, of Schleswig-Holstein, and Princess Eugenie.

The Archbishop of Canterbury, assisted by the other clergy, performed the ceremony, the bride being given away by her father. Dinner was served at Buckingham Palace, the Queen proposing the toast of the "Bride and Bridegroom," and the Lord Steward the toast of "The Queen." After receiving congratulations the Duke and Duchess of York left Buckingham Palace, driving through the Mall to the city, and thence proceeded by the Great Eastern railway from Liverpool street to Sandringham.

Prince George Frederick Ernest Albert, Duke of York, Earl of Inverness and Baron Killarney, K. G., is the only surviving son of the Prince of Wales.

THE HONOLULU CONSPIRACY CASE

Preliminary Examination of Crick, Sinclair and Walker.

HONOLULU, June 29, via SAN FRANCISCO, July 5, per steamer Mariposa.—Last evening's developments in the now famous conspiracy case were quite sensational. The preliminary examination of Crick, Sinclair and Walker went on and as each successive witness was examined the stronger the government's case appeared to be. Walker said he had access to the water mains and also had a battery connected with the Government building and could blow it up. The fact that a list of the conspirators is in the possession of the provisional government has leaked out and there are many uneasy royalists in town.

It is the hope of the government that they will have such a strong case against Crick, Sinclair and Walker that these three men, who are believed to be only tools of more prominent men, seeing that conviction is certain, will turn State's evidence in the hope of getting off themselves. It is not believed that Spreckels entered into the conspiracy, but that Walker used his name in order to influence the soldiers to turn traitors. While the sugar king openly fought against annexation he is believed to be too shrewd to join with men like those on trial. All three of them are men of dissolute habits who were about boasting of what they intended to accomplish and it is no wonder that their plans were discovered by the police.

RETURNING FROM PARIS

Members of the Behring Sea Commission Coming Home.

Hon. J. W. Foster, Justice Harlan and Senator Morgan Will Remain in Paris Until a Verdict is Reached.

WASHINGTON, July 7.—The members of the United States Commission at Paris in connection with the arbitration of the Behring Sea controversy have begun to return home. John T. Coughlin, one of the State Department clerks, has already reached here and Major E. W. Halford, U. S. A. disbursing officer, and J. Stanley Brown, one of the Treasury seal experts, sailed from Southampton last Saturday.

Robert Lansing, assistant counsel, is expected to sail for the United States on the 15th instant. The counsel and other attaches will probably remain until the arguments have been concluded and then start home.

Hon. J. W. Foster, agent for the United States and Justice Harlan and Senator Morgan, the arbitrators on behalf of this Government, will, of course, stay until the finding of the board is reached. By the terms of the treaty the arbitrators are given three months after the close of the arguments to agree upon a verdict.

THEY FAILED FOR HALF A MILLION

Extensive Sheep and Wool Companies Driven to the Wall.

NEW YORK, July 7.—The New Jersey Sheep and Wool Company and the Gansevoort Market Sheep Company, corporations under the laws of the State of New Jersey, doing business at the Central Stock Yards, at the foot of Sixth street, Jersey City, have failed. The announcement has caused some excitement at the Stock Yards, as it is feared that the failure of the firms will involve the failure of many small concerns. The Sheep and Wool Company is backed by ex-Congressman James N. Pidcock and C. N. Pidcock, jr. C. Brand, of Trenton, is president of the company.

The liabilities will exceed $500,000. What the assets are is not known. The offices of the companies are closed. James N. Pidcock, jr., yesterday sold a large tract of land in Harrison for $5,000.

MUST NOT IMPORT CANADIANS

Joseph Gilberte Charged With Violating the Alien Labor Law.

AUGUSTA, Me., July 7.—Joseph Elias Gilberte, employed by the Edwards Manufacturing company, was arrested yesterday charged with violating the alien contract labor law as agent of the company.

He was arraigned before the United States Commissioners and the company furnished bonds for his appearance later. Immigrant Inspector Woodbridge of Newport, Vt., has prepared the lease and it is charged that the company has for years been hiring help in lower Canada, in violation of the law.

An Alleged Smuggler Released.

BUFFALO, July 7.—Lincoln Swain, the Youngstown farmer who was arrested a month ago on suspicion of being connected with the smuggling of 200 pounds of opium which he hauled to this city in two trunks, and which was captured by the authorities, was discharged by Commissioner Fairchild yesterday afternoon. The evidence was not sufficient to hold him for trial.

Nebraska Bank Closed.

OMAHA, Neb., July 7.—The National Bank of Ashland closed yesterday. No statements as to the condition of the bank or the immediate cause of the closing has been received. The bank had a capital of $70,000, and at the last report there was $120,000 in deposits.

ONE HUNDRED KILLED

Several Iowa Towns Devastated by a Cyclone.

POMEROY TOTALLY DESTROYED

Reported That a Hundred Are Dead There and Two Hundred Wounded—Fourteen Killed at Cherokee—Little Definite News of the Disaster.

DES MOINES, Ia., July 7.—A cyclone struck Pomeroy early last evening, swept away about all the buildings in the town and killed and injured a large number of people.

Information is very meager as no communication can be reached with Pomeroy or other near towns.

It is believed that Fonda and Manson also suffered from the storm.

Pomeroy is a town of 1,000 inhabitants located on the Illinois Central Railway in Pocahontas county, in the north central part of the State, about 25 miles west of Dodge.

A special train, bearing physicians, has been sent from Fort Dodge to Pomeroy. The storm came from the northeast and devastated a wide territory.

The operator at Tara, Ia., telegraphs that 100 are dead at Pomeroy and 200 injured. Not a building is left standing in the town.

CHEROKEE, Ia., July 7.—A destructive cyclone passed through the south part of his county last evening cutting a path ranging from a quarter to three miles in width and extending some twelve in the county.

Reports of fourteen deaths and a large number injured have already been brought to this city. The path of the storm is marked by complete desolation.

Houses, barns and fences were completely swept away. Crops are ruined and a large number of farm animals killed.

The course of the storm was eastward, but how far it extended cannot be ascertained as the wires are down a few miles east of this city. Details are very meagre.

Several Killed Near Alta.

ALTA, Ia., July 7.—A terrific tornado, accompanied by thunder and hail, struck four miles south of this place last evening A number of persons were killed.

LEFT DESOLATION IN ITS PATH

A Minnesota Town Partially Wrecked by a Cyclone.

LAKEFIELD, Minn., July 7.—A cyclone struck this place doing a great amount of damage to buildings. The S. Y. Hydge warehouse was blown down and the steeple of the Methodist Church was taken off.

The dwelling of Mr. Thompson, five miles west of here, was carried into the lake and totally wrecked, several members of the family being seriously injured. The dwelling of Andrew K. Ahara, three miles south, was totally wrecked, Mrs. Ahara and one child being fatally injured.

Several lives are reported to have been lost in the country near here, but nothing definite has been learned.

Celebrated in Chicago.

WORLD'S FAIR GROUNDS, CHICAGO, July 7.—The royal wedding in far off England was the occasion of a public demonstration at Jackson Park yesterday. The royal subjects of Her Majesty, and indeed royalty loving people of all nations, assembled at Victoria House, the British headquarters, and celebrated with proper honors the wedding of the Duke of York and Princess May, which was taking place in London. Speeches were made and the band played.

Surveyor Lyon Resigns.

NEW YORK, July 7.—George W. Lyon, appointed Surveyor of the port by President Harrison on Sept. 24, 1889, sent his resignation to President Cleveland yesterday, to take effect on the appointment of his successor. Mr. Lyon has obtained 30 days' leave of absence, and he started last night for his country home on the Connecticut river. Until his resignation is accepted Auditor Samuel D. Blatchford will be acting Surveyor.

A New Electric Road for Buffalo.

BUFFALO, July 7.—Surveys have been completed for a new electric road to be known as the Buffalo, South Shore, and Hamburg Electric Railway, and running to points on the lake shore between this city and Hamburg. Work will be commenced at once.

Carlisle at the Fair.

WORLD'S FAIR GROUNDS, CHICAGO, July 7.—The Secretary of the Treasury and Mrs. J. G. Carlisle, their youngest son, Miss Berry, of Kentucky, and Col. O. G. Staeley were on the grounds yesterday in charge of the Secretary's son, W. K. Carlisle, who is attorney for the exposition.

The Niagara Gives Up Its Dead.

LEWISTON, N. Y., July 7.—The body of a man was found in the Niagara River in front of the American Hotel yesterday. The victim had been in bathing and wore only a bathing suit. His linen, found later, was marked "H. C. Dudley." Nothing is known of him here.

The Bethel Boat's Victims Recovered.

DETROIT, July 7.—The bodies of Mrs. Jennie Peak, matron of the Bethel boat, John Singleton, the engineer, and an unknown man, are at the morgue. Search is being made for other bodies, but it is thought that only three persons suffered death from the fire.

Cochran's Case Postponed.

NEW YORK, July 7.—The hearing of Lieut. J. Watson Cochran, of the Seventh Regiment, upon the charge of embezzling about $5,000 from his employers, Gunther's Sons, has been postponed until Monday next at the request of the prisoner's counsel.

MORE RIOTING IN PARIS.

This Time the Trouble is Caused By a Gang of Rowdies.

The Mob Broke Windows and Set Vehicles Afire—Desperate Encounters Between Rioters and the Police.

PARIS, July 7.—Gangs of rowdies made disturbances last evening in the Rue du Chateau d'Eau, around the Labor Exchange, and in the near-by side streets. By 9 o'clock the rioters had become numerous and belligerent.

They upset and partly smashed five tramcars and broke many windows. The police eventually were able to hold them in check, but not to disperse them.

In the fights between rioters and police several rowdies and two policemen were injured. Few students took part in the riots.

The Students' Association has published an appeal to students to abstain from any further participation in the riots.

A mob took possession of the Boulevard du Temple at 10.30 o'clock and broke windows. The police charged twice before they could force back the rioters. The police used their revolvers and several rioters were shot. The rioters fired back, but wounded only one policeman.

The Figaro says this morning that omnibuses were overturned and set afire by rioters in the Rue St. Maur and Rue Oberkampf. The Republican guards charged the mobs in both streets.

The mobs fought stubbornly, but were routed. Thirty rioters were arrested. Many, who were wounded, were carried off by their friends. The number is estimated at 35 or 40.

It is reported this morning that the Government has decided to dissolve the Municipal Council.

Alonzo J. Whiteman's Arrest.

ST. PAUL, Minn., July 7.—Nothing has so stirred Minnesota political circles in many a day as the announcement of the arrest of Alonzo J. Whiteman at Monmouth Park on the charge of passing a worthless check. Whiteman was one of the leading Democrats of Minnesota, and until recently had a fortune of $500,000.

Guy de Maupassant Dead.

PARIS, July 7.—Guy de Maupassant, the distinguished French romanciste of the naturalistic school, who had been confined in Dr. Maurish's private asylum for the insane for some time, died last evening. He was born August 5, 1850, at Chateau de Miromnesnil, Seine-Inferieure.

The Earl of Derby Returns to Ottawa.

OTTAWA, July 7.—Governor General, the Earl of Derby, has returned from his salmon fishing trip and will remain here until July 15, when he leaves for England. Pending the arrival of Lord Aberdeen, Gen. Moore, British Commander-in-Chief at Halifax, will act as administrator.

The Alva is Destroyed.

CHATHAM, Mass., July 7.—The Government inspector pronounces the work of destroying the Alva complete and the contractors have been discharged. An inspection shows 24 feet over amidships at low water, 26 feet at slack water and 35 to 25 feet over the bow and stern.

Nicaragua Withdraws Her Minister.

WASHINGTON, July 7.—Dr. Gusman, the Nicaraguan Minister, has called upon Secretary Gresham, and presented his letters of recall. He has communicated to the department the news that the Nicaraguan government has abolished its legations here and in Europe.

Killed by a Train.

SUSQUEHANNA, Pa., July 7.—Frederick Yonkers, while walking on the railroad tracks near Brandt, four miles from here, was struck by a train and killed.

NEWS OF THE DAY

San Francisco has secured the Christian Endeavor convention for 1895.

The official report of the fatal accident at the Newport torpedo station has not yet reached the Navy Department.

One hundred and thirty-eight bodies have been recovered from the Tyrnhill mine, Yorkshire, England, in which there was an explosion on Tuesday.

James K. Bush, of Noblesville, Ind., was killed instantly last evening by being thrown from his buggy in a runaway and his wife is thought to be hurt fatally.

Postmaster-General Bissell says that until the President's return from Buzzard's Bay early in August no further appointments of Presidential postmasters will be made.

From figures compiled by the Manufacturers' Record it is estimated that not less than $25,000,000 will be disbursed in interest and dividends by Southern railways, banks and other corporations during this month.

Letters from Madrid state that the beautiful residence of the Duke of Veragua in that city with its entire furniture, many valuable works of art and the entire library were seized by his creditors while he was in Chicago as a guest of honor of the World's Fair.

The American Institute of Christian Philosophy, which has among its membership some of the most eminent public men, clergymen and scientists of the day, began its seventeenth summer session at the auditorium at Prohibition Park, New Brighton, S. I., yesterday.

THE PRESIDENT IS ILL

Confined to His Room By a Rheumatic Attack.

HE CAN RECEIVE NO VISITORS

Mr. Cleveland's Right Shoulder and Left Leg Are Affected—He Has Suffered From the Complaint for Years—No Public Business Will Be Transacted at Buzzard's Bay.

BUZZARD'S BAY, MASS., July 7.—Although the President is confined to his room, his condition is not at all alarming.

Col. D. S. Lamont says Mr. Cleveland has an attack of rheumatism in his foot and knee, a complaint from which he has suffered for many years, and which is no doubt aggravated at this time by the hard work and severe strain on his strength which the President has undergone since March 4.

The trouble has been hanging about him for some weeks, but has now so much increased in severity that he will be compelled to take absolute rest in order that he may be at his post of duty at the special meeting of Congress next month.

It will be necessary for the President to deny himself to visitors for the present, and his friends will, of course, observe his request that he be permitted to get all possible benefit from his vacation.

A similar attack confined him to his house here for a fortnight about this time last year.

Surgeon General Bryant is in attendance on Mr. Cleveland.

The President's trouble is in the right shoulder and left leg.

"While the attack is not serious," said Col. Lamont, "it will keep the President in bed a week or ten days and possibly a fortnight."

When asked if any business would be transacted here the Secretary said:

"You may state emphatically that no appointments will be made nor any public business transacted here."

The report that the President was suffering from a malignant or cancerous growth in the mouth, and that an operation was necessary, is untrue.

WASHINGTON, July 7.—It is stated that President Cleveland's message to the extra session of Congress will be written at Buzzard's Bay and one of the reasons why he sought this vacation was that he might unmolested by the office seekers, prepare the documents upon which he intends to devote a great deal of painstaking care.

The President has not taken with him his stenographer or other clerical assistants, nor has he provided himself with data necessary for an elaborate review of the situation either as to finances or the tariff, but it is assumed if the report of his intention to prepare his message in his summer retreat be true, these adjuncts will follow him later.

THEY OBJECT TO BEING REMOVED

Sheriff Stoltz Shot to Death By Lepers of the Kalalau Valley.

HONOLULU, June 29, via SAN FRANCISCO, July 7.—Word was brought to Honolulu yesterday by one of the island steamers that while attempting to remove 28 lepers from the Kalalau Valley, Kauai, Sheriff Stoltz, acting under orders from the board of health, was shot and killed by lepers. His body was brought to Honolulu. The board of health determined to remove the lepers to the settlement of Molakai for fear they would spread the disease beyond the limits of the valley.

Stoltz was making preliminary arrangements and was accompanied by only two policemen when he entered the valley by the only trail which leads to it. The lepers seized arms from a native resident of the valley and after driving all who opposed their action to the track which cuts off the retreat by the sea returned and attacked and shot Sheriff Stoltz. The two native policemen were not attacked. The lepers have only sworn vengeance against white men who come to remove them. The Board has determined to remove the lepers at all hazards.

WOOD TO BE TRIED IN NEW JERSEY

The Boy Murderer Delivered to the Authorities of That State.

NEW YORK, July 7.—The 11-year-old boy, Louis Wood, who is accused of the murder of Bertie Wagner, aged 3 years, at the residence of his parents, Freehold, N. J., was brought up yesterday in the Superior Court, Brooklyn, before Judge Cullen.

The boy was taken before the Governor, and he decided not to revoke the requisition papers. Wood was delivered up to the custody of Constable Strong and taken to New Jersey for trial.

Saved the Money Up in a Bed.

BOSTON, July 7.—When Arthur Morse, of Cambridge, was arrested on a Montreal train, charged with having stolen $1,200 from his employer, Onselme Mathieu, he said he was no thief, and would make Mathieu suffer for causing his arrest. Since then the police have found $980 of the money sewed in a feather bed at Morse's home, $50 that he gave to his sister as a present, and purchased property, which brings the amount recovered up to $1,100.

Killed on the Lackawanna.

HACKETTSTOWN, N. J., July 7.—The body of an unknown man was found just below the Delaware, Lackawanna & Western railroad station by the side of the track. He was apparently 36 years old, and well dressed. On his person was found the final accounts of the executor of the estate of Anna Winslow, of Allentown, Pa., and this may lead to his identification.

Capt. Bowen Relieved from Duty.

HARTFORD, July 7.—Governor Morris issued orders relieving Capt. W. H. C. Bowen, Fifth Regiment, U. S. Infantry, from duty on his staff as inspector and military instructor of the National Guard. Capt. Bowen has been ordered by the War Department to join his company in Georgia.

The Governor Stopped the Run.

WATERTOWN, N. Y., July 7.—A run was started on the Jefferson County Savings Bank in this city yesterday. Gov. Flower was a witness of the run, and in a speech gave assurance that the bank was entirely safe. The speech had an excellent effect, and the run was soon stopped.

Appley Arrives at Toledo.

TOLEDO, July 7.—After five weeks of sculling over a distance of 1,200 miles F. G. Appley, of the Pawtucket, R. I., Boat Club, has reached Toledo on his way to Chicago, which he will reach by lake.

WEATHER INDICATIONS.

For New Jersey To-Morrow: Local Showers, Followed by Clearing Weather; Winds Shifting to Southerly; Warmer.

EARLY INTELLIGENCE.

—Fifteen cars were required to transport the excursionists from Plainfield to Asbury Park to-day.

—The new song "Hearts" is a favorite seller at F. M. Hulett's. The ladies are enraptured over it.

—Show your appreciation of good baseball by attending to-morrow's game. There's no excuse for staying away; the prices are low enough.

—Train No. 67, leaving New York yesterday afternoon at 3:45, was delayed 40 minutes near Roselle, because the engine blew out its cylinder head.

—George Demarest, the maker of confectionery, caught two elegant bass in Tier's last night. One measured 14 inches, the other 16, in length.

—An adjourned meeting of the Crescent wheelmen will be held at their North avenue club rooms to-night at 8:30, at which time the new uniform letters will be ready for distribution. All members are requested to be present.

—John J. Kenney intends to live high next winter, and is raising his own bacon with that end in view. He paid $2 for the greased pig which somebody won in a Fourth of July race, and spends his spare hours developing the fat and lean streaks.

—Al Donovan saved a colored woman's life this morning. She tried to get aboard the moving excursion train, and was struck on the head by an iron railing of the platform. Mr. Donovan dragged her away just as she was about to fall under the wheels. The train stopped, and she got aboard.

—Plainfielders and other passengers on the 10 o'clock train from New York last night were shaken up at Roselle by the train running over an iron rod that had caught in a frog. The train was stopped long enough to remove the iron. It had been firmly welded to the rail by the ponderous weight.

BASE-BALL BABBLE.

Hofford to Be Released—A Good Game To-Morrow.

The popularizing of base-ball in Plainfield by the reduction of the price of admission to 15 cents, and the fact that a strong team (the Paterson Olympics) are to play the Crescents, should make the attendance large to-morrow. Here is the batting order:

OLYMPICS.	CRESCENTS.
Kinzie, 2b.	Hofford, rf.
Smith, p.	Smith, ss.
Rafferty, c.	Ryman, lf.
Green, lf.	Turner, 2b, p.
Vonderbeck, cf.	Stanhope, 3b.
Eustace, ss.	Sneden, cf.
Hogan, rf.	Fritz, c.
Kennedy, 3b.	Keenan, p, 2b.
Roberts, 1b.	Jones, 1b.

This will be Hofford's farewell game in Plainfield. He is to be granted his release.

Sneden will be retained for his batting qualities. Ryman will take Hofford's place in right field.

McIndoe writes that his arm is considerably swollen, but he hopes to be on hand for next week's game.

The famous Cherry Diamonds are expected here for a week from to-morrow.

Heckman will play with the Englewood Field club to-morrow; and Stanhope, who has just been released by the Binghampton club of the Eastern league, will take his place on the Crescents. The change may be permanent.

All Too Honest to Lift An Umbrella.

Presiding elder B. H. Travis, of the Poughkeepsie M. E. district, thinks Plainfield people must be the most honest on earth. He left Plainfield yesterday at 3:12, after a visit to J. E. Townsend. He was talking with Mr. Townsend at the North avenue station, and left an umbrella hanging by the crook handle on the fence.

Reaching Jersey City, he wrote a postal card to Mr. Townsend about the parachute, and this morning the umbrella was found just where he had left it.

The American Catarrh Cure

Is the result of twenty-six years' study and treatment of the disease. One bottle convinces the most skeptical. It is always ready for use, needing neither douche nor atomizer. It restores the hearing, cures the hawking cough and expectorating, removes the headache and nose bleeding, increases the appetite, produces sound sleep, invigorates the whole system and increases the vitality. Prepared only by W. B. Jones, M. D., No. 1336 South Eighth street, Philadelphia. For sale by I. W. Randolph, 21 West Front street. Price $1.

Ely's Cream Balm is worth its weight in gold as a cure for catarrh. One bottle cured me. E. A. Lovell, Franklin, Pa.

"PID" IN HARD LUCK.

THE EX-CONGRESSMAN SUED BY HIS NEPHEW AND OTHERS.

But Counselor Reed's Father-in-Law Denies that Any Assignment Has Been Made.

Ex-congressman James Nelson Pidcock, of Hunterdon county, North Plainfield, New York and Jersey City, is financially embarrassed, it is said. The lines that are being drawn taut about the money market are squeezing him. Ex-congressman Alvah A. Clark, of Somerville, father of Mrs. Charles A. Reed of North Plainfield, made hot denial yesterday that an assignment had been made to him by Mr. Pidcock, but he admitted Mr. Pidcock was largely involved and his assets were more or less tied up at present.

In spite of friendly assurances news of a less encouraging kind came from several quarters. There were rumors of mortgages made to relatives in Somerville; in Trenton his nephew, J. H. Pidcock, sued him for $9,000, and Alvah A. Clark for $7,500 on promissory notes, and from the Jersey City stockyards came the announcement that the New Jersey Sheep and Wool company and the Gansevoort Sheep Market company in which Mr. Pidcock and his son and namesake are chiefly interested, had suspended operations. The sheep and wool company was a large operator and its suspension must necessarily cause the ex-congressman some anxiety.

Reports, which as far as can be learned are probably exaggerated, place the liabilities of the two companies whose suspension is announced at $500,000. No one of Mr. Pidcock's business friends who are acquainted with his affairs, could say to what extent these two would jeopardize the host of other enterprises in which he is known to be engaged, but they hoped not at all.

Mr. Pidcock has been for years an active operator in many lines of enterprise. He runs at his home, in Hunterdon county, one of the most fertile of truck and dairy farms. He has speculated largely in lumber and even horseflesh. No one but himself knows what sums of money his various lines of activity have kept in circulation, for Mr. Pidcock keeps his affairs to himself; but the amount guessed at is very large.

He is the Democratic "boss" of central Jersey, and in the counties of Hunterdon, Sussex, Somerset, Warren and Morris his word has for years been almost law. A good many years ago he was a State senator, representing Hunterdon county. Then he became a representative and put his arm around the bunch of counties embraced in the Fourth Congress district. If he has not found it always possible to make Governors and Senators to his liking he has always found it easy to defeat those not to his liking.

THE BOARD OF TRADE.

Additional Directors Appointed, and the Constitution Amended.

The board of trade held a languid meeting last night in the Crescent League club-house. At 8 three members had arrived, and by 9 thirteen had strolled in and they decided to call the meeting to order in spite of the fact that according to the by-laws it takes 15 to make a quorum.

Postmaster Pope, who was voted into the chair in place of president Rockfellow who was out of town, said that the by-laws did not hold good until the board was incorporated, so the "boarders" sat down and proceeded to business. Secretary Hallock read a communication from judge John Ulrich, saying that he was called out of town on important business and would not be able to attend the meeting. His letter ended with many good wishes for the success of the board. It was discovered in investigating the laws governing the incorporation of boards of trade in New Jersey that the board of directors should consist of not less than 10 members.

Accordingly it was moved, seconded and carried that two more directors be elected so as to make an odd number in the board.

It was moved, seconded and carried also that the chair nominate two more directors. Mr. Pope nominated J. Augustus Smith, who declined the honor. He then named L. B. Woolston and J. B. Coward as the additional numbers of the board. As there were no objections, these gentlemen were considered elected.

The committee on constitution and by-laws was instructed to revise those documents in all respects in which they were inconsistent with the law and to report at the next meeting.

Secretary Hallock read the act of incorporation prepared by counsel Codington, who was instructed to have it filed as soon as possible.

The board then adjourned to meet again next Thursday.

Another Sample of Its Deception

The Courier boasts for P. M. French of the "complete victory" he has won in "getting the street railway company to agree not to lay switch or turnout on Somerset street between Front street and the brook". The Courier editor either wilfully deceives his readers or else does n't know anything about the proceedings of the council of which he is clerk. The company never had any intention of doing anything else but what they have now agreed to do. They never contemplated laying a double track or a turnout on the short line from Front street to the brook. They never asked for permission except for a single track, and that was all the council granted franchise for.

Shiloh's Cough Cure

This is beyond question the most successful Cough Medicine we have eversold; a few doses invariably cure the worst cases of Cough, Croup and Bronchitis, while its wonderful success in the cure of Consumption is without a parallel in the history of medicine. Since its first discovery it has been sold on a guarantee, a test which no other medicine can stand. If you have a cough we earnestly ask you to try it. Price, 25c. and $1. If your lungs are sore, chest, or back lame, use Shiloh's Porous Plaster. Sold by A. D. Mallinson, 65 North Avenue, opposite railroad station. 5-16-y

WON BY SIMMONDS AND WALZ.

Tame Ending of the Hillside Club's Nahant Tournament.

Lovers of tennis gathered yesterday at the Hillside Tennis club grounds to see the tie played off between Simmonds and Walz and Ryder and Fish, who came out of Tuesday's tournament with equal honors. The play was announced to begin at 5:30, and a few minutes before that hour the two teams stepped on the court and were greeted with a round of applause. Among the people who lined the sides of the court were seen many of the best players in town, who rest on their previously won laurels and do not enter tournaments, but if they expected to see a fine exhibition game they were disappointed, as the play was inferior in every way to that seen in the beginning of the week. Only in the first set was there any show of fight on the part of Ryder and Fish, and that was short-lived. With the exception of a couple of long rallies and some good lobbing, the play was without interest, both sides seeming to be afraid to let themselves out. The first set went to Simmonds and Walz, 6 4. For the second set Ryder and Fish went all to pieces, only winning 9 points in the 7 games played, and their opponents had a walkover at 6-1. The pretty silver shoe-horns were handed over to the winners, who were loudly applauded.

Enthusiasts are now looking forward to the 15th, when the first of the inter-club games will be played, and local players will match their strength with outsiders.

PARTICULAR MENTION.

The family of U. B. Crane, the Front street hatter, are at Asbury Park for the month of July.

The funeral of Stewart W. Milligan will be held from 419 West Fourth street Sunday afternoon at 2.

Leonard Smith, of New York, is enjoying Plainfield's fine scenery and balmy air for the summer months.

Edward M. VanBuren came home last night from a visit to the Reinharts, at their summer home in Manchester, Mass.

The Rev. Dr. E. M. Rodman, of Grace P. E. church, will preach in the Church of the Heavenly Rest, Sunday morning at 11.

Mrs. James Philpott has returned to her home, 457 West Front street, after a two months' visit with relatives in Brooklyn.

Edward Kellogg, of Mount Pleasant, is entertaining a charming niece from Ohio, whose father, Mr. Kellogg's brother, is a missionary in India.

Miss Grace Lewis, of Central avenue, is enjoying the breezes of old ocean, at Noyce's Beach, Watch Hill, the famous Seventh-Day summer resort.

Joe Dunham and John Clark, on bicycle wheels, and George Clark and Boston Smith, on safeties, started from Plainfield for Boynton Beach this morning.

County engineer Dunham, accompanied by his wife and mother, expects to start for Chicago to-morrow. They will make a short visit to relatives in the West, and enjoy the sights of the Fair.

Albert W. Demarest and bride, who were married June 28, are expected home to-night, after an absence of ten days on their wedding trip. They will reside at Mr. Demarest's former home on Craig place.

The remains of Charles S. Wolverton were brought to Plainfield this afternoon from Belmar, and in charge of undertaker W. E. Runyon, of Dunellen, were interred in Hillside cemetery. Mr. Wolverson was aged 60 years, and leaves a wife and two children.

Andrew Love, jr., who was severely burned by powder on the Fourth, is convalescing at the residence of his parents on Duer street, North Plainfield. His eyesight is not injured, and Dr. Darman, the attending physician, will have him out in a few days.

The condition of young Raymond Smith, son of H. C. Smith, of Prospect avenue, is much improved this morning, the fever having left him. Young Smith was badly burned about his face, arms and limbs early on the morning of the Fourth. He accidently dropped several crackers in gunpowder, which he had been warned not to use, and is now regretting his disobedience.

Fred. S. Dunn, gave his Plainfield friends a happy surprise last night by returning from Hot Springs, Va., where for seven weeks he was chief engineer of the electric light plant. His duties kept him busy seven days in the week, which his conscience forbade, so he gave up the excellent position. This creditable and courageous action is a strong recommendation for the competent electrician.

Mrs. John H. Carney, of Craig place, last evening gave a reception to her dear friends, Miss Borst, of Painted Post, and Mrs. Hubel, of Hornellsville, N. Y. The evening was most delightfully spent. Mr. Creigher presided at the piano. Master John Voehl appeared in humorous dialect recitals, and the well-known Dresden trio, Messrs. Norbury, Lewis and Pope, delighted all with their selections. Their sweet melodies wafted to the breeze attracted the attention of many passers-by who could not but stop and listen to their sweet voices.

A. V. D. Honeyman left town to-day on the Royal Blue line, with about sixty more excursionists, on his second World's Fair excursion. From this section go Dr. Hecht, George D. Ehni, Mr. and Mrs. Bohn, Miss Bartolette and E. B. Kinyon, of Raritan; Miss Cawley, of Somerville; Matt. Suydam, jr., and Miss Kate Suydam, of Franklin Park; ex-mayor Whiting and family, of Bound Brook; Raymond A. and Harry A. McGee, and Miss Hattie Bockwell, of Plainfield; L. S. Blackwell and wife, of Wertsville; James Bowman, of South Branch; and Mr. Honeyman's son, Edward Maxwell. The next tour starts August 25, when a large number of people who could not go earlier expect to accompany it.

Evened Things Up.

The Bound Brook Democrat says: "A child was born on the cars between Plainfield and Elizabeth last Thursday, but the same train evened things up by killing an unknown man on the return trip."

NO PLAINFIELD WORK REJECTED.

OUR SCHOOLS' EXHIBIT RANKS FIRST AT CHICAGO.

A PRESS Correspondent Tells of The Success of the Educational Exposition of This State and This City at the World's Fair.

TO THE EDITOR OF THE PRESS:—The educational exhibit at the World's Fair is the most extensive and valuable collection of accomplished work, of its kind, that has ever been brought together. Each State shows the measure of its appreciation of the value of education, by its method of handling its exhibit, and by the use made of the space allowed by the commissioners.

The exhibit includes the whole range of educational methods, from the Kindergarten to the finished work of the Pratt Institute and the Rensselaer Polytechnic.

A notice upon this subject in one of the Chicago daily papers contained the following paragraph: "Notwithstanding that New Jersey is one of the smallest States in the Union, her educational exhibit is among the best, as containing more original ideas both in work and methods of display."

Thus urged, we lost no time in making an examination of New Jersey's department. We found that the praise was justly bestowed. The space allowed is entirely inadequate to show the large amount of excellent work contributed, though some ingenious original devices have been invented by the ex-postmaster of Atlantic City, by which the space is almost indefinitely increased—a space of one square yard being made available for exhibiting twenty square yards of work, and at the same time protecting the copies from dust and handling.

It will be of interest to residents of Plainfield to hear that the work sent from our schools ranks with the best of its kind in the fair. As a proof of this we were told that not a single copy which was sent from Plainfield was rejected, all being included in the exhibit.

It is with great pleasure we record this fact, both as cause for encouragement in future efforts, and as a reward for work well done in the past.

A prominent and interesting feature of educational work, is that accomplished by the Manual Training schools, showing what an interest is taken in the full development of the pupil—eye and hand being trained to see and express the thought in the desired material as well as in fitting language.

In this important department the world is running away from Plainfield and obtaining such a start that we are apt to become only copyists of what others have done instead of taking front rank as leaders in thought and action in this invaluable branch of educational work.

In the Children's building at the World's Fair there is a very interesting department, a school room, fitted up with joiners' benches, where children may be left in charge of the managers upon payment of twenty-five cents per day, and they are instructed in "Sloyd work" which comprises lessons of a practical character and includes drawing and working in wood and clay. The children become earnestly interested in the work and some very good examples of modeling and wood carving, done by the children, are on exhibition. A happier set of children, than can be seen in the "Sloyd Department" of the World's Fair, cannot be found.

It suggests a valuable adjunct to the "Boys' Club", being practical and inexpensive—in fact such a school would be an acquisition in every town and in every district of larger cities, as it enables children who are backward in the use of language to make use of their hands and eyes, saving them from the weariness of idleness and turning mischievous propensities into useful channels.

Deer Park and Oakland.

To those contemplating a trip to the mountains in search of health and pleasure, Deer Park, on the crest of the Alleghany Mountains, 3,000 feet above the sea level, offers such varied attractions as a delightful atmosphere during both day and night, pure water, smooth, winding roads through the mountains and valleys, and the most picturesque scenery in the Allegheny range. The hotel is equipped with all adjuncts conducive to the entertainment, pleasure and comfort of its guests.

The surrounding grounds, as well as the hotel, are lighted with electricity. Six miles distant on the same mountain summit is Oakland, the twin resort of Deer Park, and equally as well equipped for the entertainment and accommodation of its guests. Both hotels are upon the main line of the Baltimore and Ohio railroad, have the advantages of its splendid vestibuled limited express trains between the East and West, and are most desirable resting places for World's Fair tourists. Season excursion tickets, good for return passage until October 3, will be placed on sale at greatly reduced rates at all principal ticket offices throughout the country. One way tickets reading from St. Louis, Louisville, Cincinnati, Columbus, Chicago, and any point on B. & O. system to Washington, Baltimore, Philadelphia, or New York, or vice versa, are good to stop off at either Deer Park or Oakland, and the time limit will be extended by agents at either resort upon application.

This season at these popular resorts commences June 15.

For full information as to hotel rates, rooms, etc., address George D. DeShields, manager, Deer Park, or Oakland, Garrett county, Maryland.

NEWS FROM CAMP SAUNDERS.

Base-Ball Games, Fireworks, and a Dance, Enliven the Fourth.

DAILY PRESS TENT, CAMP SAUNDERS, MERWIN'S POINT, CONN.

JULY 5—This has been the best day we have had; the weather has been fine, and everything has passed off most successfully.

At 9:30 there was a ball game between the Merwin Pointers and a team made up from the camp boys. It was a very exciting contest, and though our team was defeated it was in a well-played game, and only by the score of 6 to 3. The number of visitors was large, and all were very enthusiastic.

After the game, our boys prepared for dinner, which was a model in every respect. No one could wish for better salads or ices. Later in the day the ball players took a refreshing swim, and were joined by a merry crowd from the camp.

At the request of the proprietor of the Pembroke hotel, the choir gave a concert on the veranda. The audience was very large, and much enjoyment was expressed over the following programme:

Chorus—Sweet and Low.
Solo—Orville Waring.
Chorus—Crusaders.
Solo—Fred Tallamy.
Quartette—Love's Old Sweet Song,
Messrs. Miner, Hudson, Holmes and R. Clark
Solo—Out on the Deep.....W. A. Hudson
Chorus—The Watchword.

The singing was excellent, and the people profusely praised the chorus and Mr. Miner's careful training. The boys acquitted themselves with high credit.

The smaller boys of the camp, and the natives, had a ball game during the day which the camp won by 20 to 12.

On the evening of July 3, W. A. Hudson and L. S. Bond arrived, and were received and entertained in royal fashion.

Last night we were all invited to the hotel, where they gave a Fourth of July hop. It was a delightful affair. Previous to the dances, there was a grand display of fireworks along the shore, extending about a mile. The boys went down on the beach and enlivened the patriotic occasion with a few spirited songs.

Mr. Beulah took the Naugautuck boys out for a sail the afternoon of the Fourth, and to-day the Holy Cross boys will take a trip.

A few of the boys will return home to-day, which will give more room for sleeping. We have been quite crowded, there having been two or three fellows in some of the single beds.

The young men of the camp never knew how valuable and delightful a young lady's presence was until they came here. For the first few days the gentler sex were at a premium, and the boys were very shy, but they have made charming acquaintances, and are making up for lost time. But oh, how they long for the dear Plainfield girls!

The Rev. Mr. and Mrs. Ellsworth, of Naugatuck, are spending a few days here, and are greatly enjoying the novelty. We had lots of visitors on the Fourth, and the officer of the day, George Westervelt, was the center of admiration for his gallantry in showing them about the camp.

Batches of THE PRESS are received from time to time, and eagerly welcomed. The boys all scramble to read the news from home.

There is an especial fondness for baseball among the boys, and another contest is now going on between teams from the two choirs.

There has been neither accident nor sickness to any of us.

JULY 6—Yesterday was an eventful one in camp. We had our first rain, and the wind blew very hard. The morning was quite fair, but in the early part of the afternoon the water became exceedingly rough, and later tempestuous. Heavy black clouds covered the sky, and it looked as if we would have a really exciting time. Early in the evening it thundered heavily, and there was considerable vivid lightning, which preceded a heavy shower. The rain did not penetrate the canvas of the tents, however, and everybody kept dry.

Mr. Beulah took the boys out for a sail, and they had no trouble in finding a breeze; in fact there was too much. When they came back it was very difficult to anchor. After landing the boys, he took the boat to a place called Oyster Point, and there fastened it, returning with a rowboat later. The boys were all quite anxious as to his safety, and when he reached camp he was enthusiastically received and presented with a box of cigars.

This morning is clear, the sun is bright, and we all are happy.

The ball game yesterday resulted in a victory for our team, 37 to 15.

There is a place near the camp which is appropriately called the choir boys' retreat. Frequent visits are made. It is not necessary to say that young ladies are the attraction. Recently there were four of our number present, and two of them endeavored to outstay the other two.

An interesting feature of the camp is a young man who sleeps in a hammock. Last night, or this morning, he had hard work in getting in it, as someone had stretched it pretty high. He had to keep his attire on, and it was very convenient, as all he had to do in the morning was to put on his hat and he was ready for another day.

Several games of whist have been played by the campers, and some of them are becoming experts.

Groups of fellows are frequently seen in one or the other of the tents, where interesting stories are told, much to the enjoyment of all.

One of the many obliging young men in camp has a standing contract to carry water for a young lady near the camp, and at intervals during the day he can be seen going back and forth to the well, his countenance glistening with joy.

We have a young man here who has the promise of making a great singer. He practices daily, and the following was heard recently: "Listen to my edicated voice, and observe the tremlo." Mr. Miner watches his progress with interest.

As the time draws near to break up camp there is a feeling of regret that we cannot stay longer. Everybody is well as usual to-day, and everything points to another fine day in camp. DOBBINS.

AT AMHERST 61 YEARS.

COL. TYLER'S FATHER RETIRES FROM HIS POST OF TEACHING.

Many Famous Men Have Been Enrolled in His Greek Classes, and Many Students Throughout the Country Remember His Text Books.

With the close of the present year Amherst college loses the services of her pioneer instructor, Prof. William Seymour Tyler, D.D. LL.D., Williston professor of the Greek language and literature, who is the venerable father of the esteemed Col. Mason W. Tyler of this city.

Intimately connected with the college for 61 years, under the administration of Pres. Hitchcock, Stearns, Seelye and Gates, Prof. Tyler has seen the faculty change and change again, and has witnessed the growth of the college during a period longer than any other member of the faculty can remember.

In the world of letters his name has been made familiar by the numerous volumes he has written and edited and by newspaper and magazine articles published from time to time.

Prof. Tyler was born in Hartford, Penn., Sept. 2, 1810. His father, a farmer, had come from New England.

At an early age he was sent to Hamilton college, where he entered the junior class. He had been there but a short time when the president and one of the prominent professors of the college withdrew and with them the entire junior class, with the exception of two members.

Prof. Tyler entered the senior class of Amherst college and in 1830 he was graduated with second honor.

For two years he studied theology at Andover seminary. From 1832 to 1834 he served as tutor at Amherst. Then, continuing his theological studies, he passed the winter with Dr. Skinner in New York city, being a member of the class from which the Union theological seminary was developed.

Returning to Amherst, he was appointed professor of Greek and Latin, which position he held until 1847, when he became professor of Greek and Hebrew.

In 1857 he received the degree of D D from Harvard and in 1871 the degree of LL D from Amherst. Harvard again honored him at her quarter millennium with LL D.

Prof. Tyler has been president of the board of trustees of Mt. Holyoke seminary, now Mt. Holyoke college, at South Hadley, member of the board of trustees of Williston seminary at East Hampton, of Mapleswod institute at Pittsfield and of Smith college.

He was the founder of the Massachusetts Beta of Phi Beta Kappa and has been president of it since its founding. He is a member of the American oriental society, of the American philological society, of the American archeological society, of the managing committee of the American school at Athens, and of the Greek philological society at Constantinople.

Among his publications are the following: Germania and Agricola of Tacitus, 1847; Histories of Tacitus, 1848; Plato's Apology and Crito, 1859; Plutarch on the Delay of the Deity, 1867, and the last nine books of Homer's Iliad.

Prof. Tyler has seen Amherst college grow from the academy-like institution of 1830 to its present high position. He has had under his instruction such men as Henry Ward Beecher, Dr. Richard S. Storrs, ex-president Seelye, Dr. Charles E. Parkhurst, and hosts of others.

At the alumni dinner Wednesday he was applauded to the echo as he rose to speak. With tears in his eyes he bade farewell to his labors in the college, and gave his parting messages in the form of entreaties that the trustees and faculty should never allow classical studies to be given a secondary place in the curriculum and that the religious standard should never be lowered.

It has always been one of his delights to say to the students who complained of compulsory chapel at 8 a. m., that in his time the chapel services were held at 6 o'clock in the morning.

The tributes paid to the retiring professor are almost without number. His life-long friend, ex-president Seelye, says: "I consider Prof. Tyler one of the heroes of the college."

Prof. Tyler will devote his time to rest and study, and it is hoped by his friends that he may be able to lecture to the advanced Greek classes from time to time.

A Valuable World's Fair Book.

The passenger department of the Baltimore and Ohio Railroad company has prepared for general distribution a handsome pamphlet descriptive of the scenic and other attractive features of that road from New York to Chicago. This book should prove invaluable to those visiting the World's Fair. In its artistic cover, illustrations and reading matter, it is fully up to the high standard which has been fixed by the B. & O. for publications of this character. The scenery en route, which has gained for the B. & O. the richly deserved sobriquet of "Picturesque", the public buildings at Washington, old Harper's Ferry, Luray Caverns, and other attractive points are faithfully portrayed. The value of the publication is increased by descriptions and illustrations of the principal buildings at the World's Fair. This book can be procured free of charge upon personal application to ticket agents, B. & O. R. R. Co., or you can have it mailed to you by sending name and address with five cents in stamps to Chas. O. Scull, general passenger agent, Baltimore, Md. World's Fair tourists should bear in mind that the B. & O. is selling tickets at very low rates good going via Washington and returning via Niagara Falls.

WIPED OUT BY CYCLONE.

Fifty Persons Reported Killed and Two Hundred Injured in Pomeroy—Other Towns Ravaged.

FORT DODGE, Ia., July 7.—Pomeroy, a town of 900 inhabitants, in Calhoun county, was practically wiped out last evening by a cyclone. Between fifty and one hundred were killed, and nearly two hundred were injured, many of whom will die.

The utmost confusion followed the advent of the storm, and it was several hours before the condition of affairs there was known. As soon as the true state of affairs was learned relief trains over the Illinois Central were sent out with a corps of physicians, tents and provisions.

The town was in total darkness, and the streets were filled with the wrecks of homes and business houses. The scenes were appalling, as men with lanterns went about in the debris. In some instances entire families were wiped out, the mangled remains being found in the ruin of their homes.

The cries of the injured were heartrending, and the general confusion was increased by the wailing of the survivors who were separated from friends or who had relatives in the wrecks. The work of rescue was slow, and the train-load of help has made little headway.

The south half of the town was razed. There was no place to care for the injured, and a church, which was just outside the track of the storm, was turned into a hospital. Here the surgeons worked by the aid of lanterns and lamps. Those with broken bones were stretched upon the long pews, while others who needed surgical attendance on less severe injuries were compelled to stand or lie upon the floor and await their turn.

The dead were laid upon the ground in a vacant lot at the edge of the devastated district. Through the narrow aisles left between the dead bodies the survivors passed looking for lost ones.

SIOUX CITY, Iowa, July 7—A Storm Lake (Iowa) special to The Journal says the cyclone reached that place between 5 and 6. Four churches were wrecked and a number of residences literally reduced to splinters.

Fires were started in three localities by lightning. The storm-center appeared to pass four miles west of the town, where for many miles nothing was left standing. Several lives were lost.

OMAHA, Neb., July 7.—A special to the Bee from Rogers, Neb., says a destructive cyclone passed over the central part of this county Wednesday evening.

The storm struck the house of Chris Miller at about 8 p. m., while the family was eating supper, and all were injured except the youngest child. Mr. Miller had three ribs broken and was injured internally.

East and west of this place barns, houses and wind mills were blown down and fruit trees torn up by the roots. It was the most disastrous storm that has ever visited this county.

SIOUX CITY, Ia., July 7.—A telegram from Fonda states that five entire families were blown away at Alta, but a full list of the fatalities cannot be had.

D. T. Miller is known to have been killed. Mrs. Gordon was killed instantly by the wreck of her house, and nothing can be found of the family of seven.

No trace can be found of Ed Sargeant and family of five. They are supposed to be dead. Sam Hersham, wife and two children are missing. Mrs. Hersham was in confinement when the storm broke. All were blown away and are thought to be dead.

TO HANG OR BURN.

The Murderer of Mary and Annie Ray to Be Lynched at Wickliffe.

CAIRO, Ill., July 7—The negro fiend who so brutally assaulted and murdered Mary and Annie Ray, the daughters of John Ray, near Wickliffe, Ky., was yesterday captured at Libestown, Mo., twenty-eight miles from here, and a special train was sent to convey him to the scene of his crime, there to be lynched or burned at the stake, as the infuriated mob should decide.

SMASHED BENEDICT'S WINDOW.

Daring Attempt to Rob the Broadway Jewelry Store.

NEW YORK, July 7—A daring attempt was made to rob Benedict Bros.' jewelry store, at Broadway and Cortlandt street, shortly before noon to-day.

A man smashed the big window on the Cortlandt street side with a paving stone, and attempted to steal valuable watches in the window.

The crash was heard by several policemen, who gave chase to the man.

He was speedily captured, but made a desperate resistance.

He was armed with two big shoemakers' knives, but was unable to use them on his captors.

The man was locked up in the Old Slip police station.

He secured no watches so far as known, but several valuable time-pieces were damaged by the heavy pieces of broken glass.

The window was in front of the repairing department, and several watches fell on the outside.

IN COMMONS

Several Clauses of the Home Rule Bill Forced Through Committee.

LONDON, July 7.—The House of Commons was crowded last night with persons eager to see Clause 5 of the Home Rule bill forced through the committee. The members worked steadily. Only an occasional ebullition of Unionist resentment of bitterness disturbed the proceedings. At 9:40 Mr. Balfour, leader of the Unionists, began speaking.

He was in the middle of a sentence when "Big Ben" struck 10 o'clock. He did not wait to finish it, but resumed his seat amid deafening opposition cheers and cries of "Shame!" and "Gag!"

Almost immediately Chairman Mellor put the question of the last Unionist amendment. He spoke timidly, as if afraid of his own words and his voice was hardly audible in the din. Cheers and counter cheers resounded as Mr. Gladstone and his colleagues trooped out into the division lobby.

Some of the Tories shouted "Gag!" and "Coercion!" They were answered with Irish cheers and the waving of Irish hats. The amendment was lost by a vote of 324 to 286.

As the leaders returned from the lobbies all the members were on their feet to receive them with cheers and waving hats.

Clause 5, which concerns the Irish Executive authority was then passed by a vote of 324 to 289.

Clause 6, which provides for an Irish Parliament, with a legislative council of 48 members, was passed without debate. The vote was 315 to 300.

Chairman Mellor tried to obtain the attention of the House, but his voice was lost in the volume of opposition cheers. Eventually the exhaustion of the Unionists gave him an opportunity to put the question of clause 7, which provides for the constitution of an Irish Legislative Assembly.

Sir James Ferguson, Conservative, for Northeast Manchester, exclaimed: "There are blanks in this clause. We do not know what it means. How can we vote intelligently on it?" "No questions can be raised at this time," replied Chairman Mellor. The clause was then carried by a vote of 325 to 289. The largeness of the majority evoked loud Irish cheers, which were answered by the Unionists.

Clause 9, which contemplates cases of disagreement between the two houses of the Irish Legislature, was carried by 323 to 291. The abatement of the confusion left Mr. Gladstone an opportunity to move the committee to rise and report progress.

The motion was carried before the Conservatives fairly realized what was being done. Mr Gladstone hastily gathered his papers and left the House. The Opposition, after denouncing the Premier for his summary method of cutting off further discussion, agree on a motion to adjourn.

A page and a half of the bill was pushed through committee last evening. This is almost as much space as the House in committee had disposed of in all the previous sittings.

LONDON, July 7.—The Daily Chronicle directs special attention to the fact that 12 Radicals, including Henry Labouchere and Sir Charles Dilke, voted against Clause 6.

The Tobacco Crop Badly Injured.

DANBURY, Conn., July 7.—The thunderstorm which passed over this section yesterday was the most damaging of the year. The loss will fall heavily on tobacco growers, many of whom will lose their entire crop. In this city the lightning struck several houses and did considerable damage.

Increased Attendances Continue.

On Monday evening comedian DeWolf Hopper, Della Fox, Samuel Reed, Edmund Stanley, Anna O'Keefe and other members of his merry company, commenced the third month of his successful season at the Broadway theater, New York city. The second volume of "Panjandrum" has met with great favor, and since its initial performance there has been a very marked increase in the attendance, while the returns, from a box-office standpoint, have, at every performance, shown the most satisfactory results.

The entire performance of "Panjandrum", from the rise until the final fall of the curtain, demonstrates unmistakable evidences of improvement, not only in the numerous changes made in the story, which make it more coherent and logical, but also in the many bright lines and funny situations, which, together with several new musical numbers, have greatly enhanced its value as a diverting entertainment, and with its gorgeous stage pictures, its brilliant costumes and excellent stage effects, in addition to its excellent cast of principals and well trained chorus, the new "Panjandrum" bids fair to take the lead in amusements during the summer season, in spite of the heat, and the opposition of counter attractions.

Wants the Company to Pay.

Expressman L. B. Coddington was hit yesterday by a pike carelessly dropped by one of the workmen raising an electric railway pole on Somerset street. His head was cut open, and he was momentarily stunned. He was carried into Shaw's drug store, and cared for. To-day his head is very sore. He says he will sue the company.

Possible. The grand and beautiful sights are most enchanting, every department faithfully represented as it actually appears at Chicago. The whole described, as the scenes appear, in a carefully prepared lecture. Mr. Tully certainly gives the best idea of the world's accumulated treasures at the Great Columbian Exposition as at Chicago obtainable.

MARY WASHINGTON.

Ladies About to Erect a Monument Over Her Grave.

Model of the Dignified Design Placed on Exhibition at the Columbian Exposition—A Severely Classic Memorial.

The ladies of the National Mary Washington Memorial association have an abiding faith in the country and sincerely believe that the women of America will provide sufficient funds to meet the cost of the monument which is shortly to be erected over the long-neglected grave of George Washington's mother at Fredericksburg, Va.

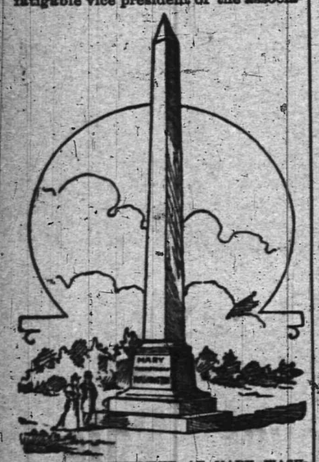
In view of this, says the New York Herald, they have awarded a contract for a beautiful memorial to the firm of John Crawford & Son, of Buffalo, who have prepared a model, which is now on exhibition in the Woman's building of the World's Columbian exposition in Chicago.

The memorial is simple, dignified and severely classic in design. It is a monolith, the most ancient form of a monument, and undoubtedly the most appropriate for the character of the woman over whom it is to be reared. It will be constructed of Vermont granite, the shaft forty feet in height, supported by a base ten feet in height, giving an extreme elevation of fifty feet. As it will rest upon the rising ground it is destined to be the most conspicuous object in the landscape in and about Fredericksburg.

In selecting the memorial the ladies of the association have not been unmindful of the character of Mary Washington. To many of the ladies of the association the severe simplicity of the shaft has been a disappointment. Their fancy and taste had suggested an exquisite structure of pure Italian marble, enriched by elaborate carving of the master sculptors of the country.

Reflection, however, will convince the friends of the association of the wisdom of the selection. A marble monument, with symbolic carving and delicate tracery, was projected for the grave a half century ago. A portion of it was erected, and this is now a mass of chipped and disintegrated stones. Fine works of art in stone require large sums of money, not only for their creation but for their preservation.

As Mrs. Roger A. Pryor, the indefatigable vice president of the association, has pointed out, Mary Washington was a simple Virginia housewife of sterling character. She was conspicuous for simplicity and had an aversion for anything smacking of eulogy, adulation or extravagance. She was a plain woman of the people, strong in her faith and her integrity. These qualities appealed to Lafayette, who said: "In her only of all women lives the Roman matron of modern days."



PROPOSED MONUMENT AT MARY WASHINGTON'S GRAVE.

Respect for her character and opinions influenced the association in selecting the simple form of memorial upon which the Messrs. Crawford are now engaged.

The path of the association has not been one strewn with roses. Unfriendly critics have censured the work; some the simplicity of the memorial, others its cost, while others still have complained of the delay and "desultory fashion" in which they claim the work has been carried forward.

To all such the association returns but one reply, embodying these points: That the fund has been slow of accumulation, and that the simple shaft over the ashes of the mother of Washington is in accordance with her character and the ability of the association. If there has been delay in erecting the monument, was there not also delay in building the great Washington monument, delay over Gen. Grant's tomb, and scores of others?

No cause is dearer to the ladies of the association than the completich of the work in hand. To that end they are devoting whatever they can command of time, thought, energy and patience. They now believe that the exhibition of the model at the world's fair will result in crowning the efforts of years and succeed in securing ample funds for all needs.

Among the methods which the ladies will pursue to secure money will be the establishment of life memberships. The payment of $25 will entitle a person to life membership privileges and a silver medal, while for $35 the association will provide a gold medal. The medal is a five-pointed star with a bas-relief of the head of Mary Washington in the middle, the initials of the association in blue and white enamel on the points of the obverse side, and the Washington coat-of-arms on the reverse.

Noah Left the Ark on April 29.

April 29 is the day marked in all ancient calendars as being the one upon which Noah and his family quitted the ark after having withstood the siege of the great deluge. The day is marked in all ancient calendars, especially British, as egressus Noae de arca; the 17th of March, the day upon which Noah, his family and their great floating collection of natural history specimens, set sail, being designated in the same class of early printed literature as introitus Noae in arca, "the day of Noah's entrance into the ark." Why these days were chosen as the ones upon which the supposed embarkation and debarkation were made are enigmas which the antiquarians have not yet solved.

THE EPWORTH LEAGUE.

Its Beautiful Memorial Church at Cleveland, O.

One of the Handsomest Edifices in the United States—Erected on the Spot Where the League Was Founded in 1889.

Four years ago May 15 in the little side room of the Central M. E. church of Cleveland, O., was founded what has since grown into one of the greatest religious societies of the world. The Epworth league was the crystallization of five feeble societies of the Methodist Episcopal church into one. When organized it had scarcely 1,500 chapters and 60,000 members. To-day its chapters exceed 9,000, its membership approximates 700,000, and in every state and territory of the union as well as in many foreign lands its significant Greek cross is proudly worn.

On the site of the old frame church where the Epworth league was organized May 14-15, 1889, has recently been dedicated the handsomest church structure in northern Ohio and an edifice that is excelled in completeness and perfection of arrangements by few churches in the country. It is to stand as the memorial of the organization of the league and bears the name "Epworth Memorial Methodist Episcopal church."

The church structure departs from many of the traditional lines of American church architecture, being a combination of Byzantine and Romanesque in an original manner, and was designed by Architect S. R. Badgley, of Cleveland. The effect is an admirable arrangement of space for all the numerous departments of modern church work, and a building destined to attract wide attention for architectural beauty. The walls are of gray St. Lawrence marble in rock-faced, irregular ashler blocks, and are surmounted by a magnificent dome 125 feet high. The site is the corner of Prospect street and Willson avenue, in the center of a very choice residence district, and has a frontage of 140 feet on Willson avenue and 115 feet on Prospect street.

The main auditorium is 71 feet square, with the splendid great dome for its ceiling. It is finished in oak, seated with opera chairs and has accommodations for 1,052. The pulpit is in one corner, with a large organ in the rear. The most notable feature of the room is the beautiful Epworth league window in the west end, 16 by 33 feet in size. The design is the Epworth wheel, with emblems of the six departments into which the society work is divided. The upper scene is the Mount of Ascension and represents the spiritual work of the league. Next is the Good Samaritan, emblematic of mercy and help. Christ and the doctors symbolic for the literary, the home at Bethany the social side of the league, John on Patmos the correspondence work and Christ and the tribute money the financial. In the center is the Greek cross and in small circles portraits of John and Susanna Wesley. The workmanship is as finished as the design is elaborate. Few more beautiful and artistic windows can be found in America.

The Sunday school room has a capacity of 1,200, and its twenty class rooms are shut off by sliding doors, which operate by hydraulic rams directed from an electric keyboard. The finish is Georgia pine and the ceiling paneled glass, like an art gallery. The Epworth parlor seats 300 and the ladies' parlor the same number. These can all be thrown together into a vast audience room seating over 2,800. Besides these there are the pastor's office, a library for young men to be open day and evening, and kitchen arrangements for serving refreshments. The ventilation is by means of a great blower in the basement and is the best possible.

The church society has a membership of 800. Rev. B. F. Dimmick has been its pastor during this construction period, and has done much to stimulate and direct the work, of which every lover of fine architecture in Cleveland is proud.

The Old Horse Got Even.

James Deity, of Bethlehem, Pa., has a horse. Three weeks ago Deity whipped the animal. The horse showed plainly a disposition to get even. One morning he attacked Deity in the stable, tore two pieces of flesh from his face, knocked him down, and would have killed him had not another driver rescued him.

A NUMBER OF OFFERS DECLINED

100,000 Ounces Taken at the Rate of $0.72—A Meeting of Arbitration Commissioners Postponed — The Atlanta Ordered Out of Commission—Other News From the Capital.

WASHINGTON, July 8.—The meeting of the Commissioners on the part of Brazil and the Argentine Republic, which was to result in the presentation to the arbitrator—the President of the United States—of the questions involved in the boundary dispute between the two countries, has been postponed for six months from August 11 next.

The Commissioners were originally to have met in Washington within one year from July 2, 1892, which was the date upon which President Harrison accepted the office of arbitrator. But several obstacles were encountered.

First, one of the Brazilian commissioners died and after a long delay the vacancy was filled by the appointment of Senor Rio Brancho. Then the Argentine commissioners were detained for a long time in Europe on their way to America and when they were ready to start Dr. Calvo, the Argentine Minister to France, and one of the commissioners fell ill and died. His place on the commission has just been filled by the appointment of Dr. Estanislao Zeballas, and it was in order to allow him time to reach Washington that the last postponement was had.

The Atlanta Out of Commission.

WASHINGTON, July 8.—An order was issued at the Navy department last evening placing the cruiser Atlanta out of commission and detaching her officers and crew. The Atlanta has just returned from Nicaragua, where she was ordered about the middle of May. She is in a very bad condition and will be docked and thoroughly overhauled at the Norfolk navy yard. Three months, it is said, will be required to repair her.

To Test the Gordon Gun Carriage.

WASHINGTON, July 8.—The Bureau of Ordnance, War Department, has approved the programmes for the test of the Gordon ten-inch disappearing gun carriage and the Brown segmental wire gun. The tests will be made at the Sandy Hook proving ground in the near future, but no date for them is fixed. The Bureau has received reports of the test of the Leonard smokeless powder made at Sandy Hook. The results were good.

Gadsden to Succeed Dr. McDonald.

WASHINGTON, July 8.—Edward M. Gadsden, of Georgia, has been appointed superintendent of the money order service, Post Office department, vice Dr. McDonald, who has resigned to accept the position of Consul at Hamilton, Ont. Dr. McDonald has been in the money order office since its establishment, and to him is largely due the credit of bringing it to its present state of perfection.

The Purchase of Silver Resumed.

WASHINGTON, July 8.—The Treasury department resumed the purchase of silver bullion yesterday, buying 100,000 ounces at $0.72. The offers aggregated 1,278,000 ounces at the same price as that paid; but all offers beyond the 100,000 ounces purchased were declined.

Not Entitled to Mounted Pay.

WASHINGTON, July 8.—Secretary Lamont has decided that officers detailed as Indian agents are not entitled to mounted pay and directs them if their duties require them to be mounted to apply to the Interior Department for mounts.

New Postmasters.

WASHINGTON, July 8.—The total number of fourth-class postmasters appointed to-day was 58, of which 36 were to fill vacancies caused by resignations.

New York—C. H. Humphrey, Pengall; Edward Spain, Blue Mountain Lake; W. H. Jewell, Carmel; S. I. Brown, Elizabethtown; Horatio Crouse, Ephratah; C. C. McNair, Gasport; P. F. Salvationists in the Toils.

BALLSTON, N. Y., July 8.—Captain Joseph Garaped, Ruby Butts, Mattie Gaynor and Annie Ruggilo, members of the Salvation Army, were committed to the county jail here from Saratoga Springs last evening. They are charged with violating the village ordinance by parading on the streets with musical instruments without permission.

Judge Van Valen Retired.

HACKENSACK, N. J., July 8.—Judge James M. Van Valen of the Bergen county Court of Common Pleas of Hackensack and for the past seven years assistant inspector general of rifle practice of the National Guard of New Jersey, has been retired by Governor Werts at his own request with the rank of Brevet Brigadier General.

Will Levy No Tax This Year.

BETHLEHEM, Pa., July 8.—The council of Hellertown, a thrifty borough five miles from here, has decided to levy no tax this year. The revenue from saloons of which there is one from every thirty-three voters will pay the running expenses of the borough government.

A Hotel Burned at Chicago.

CHICAGO, July 8.—The Hotel Lincoln at 6020 Edgerton avenue at the edge of the World's Fair grounds was badly damaged by fire yesterday afternoon and five people were injured, two of whom may die.

THEY FAVOR FREE COINAGE

Result of the Montana Silver Conference at Helena.

HELENA, Mont., July 8.—The Montana silver conference which has just adjourned was attended by 300 delegates representing every business interest of Montana.

Sentiment was unanimous for free coinage and speeches were made by Senator Power, Congressman Hartman, Marcus Daly, Lee Mantle, and others. The conference resulted in the formation of the Montana Free Coinage Association with Marcus Daly as president and ex-Gov. Hauser chairman of the executive committee.

The association will take in hand the work of pushing the cause of free coinage in Congress at the next session.

CLEVELAND IMPROVING.

His Condition Not Considered Very Serious.

Joe Jefferson Calls on the President at Gray Gables and Finds Him Out of Bed and Dressed.

BUZZARD'S BAY, Mass., July 8.—Joseph Jefferson, the veteran actor, called on President Cleveland at Gray Gables, last evening. Mr. Jefferson said later that he had just visited the President and found him much improved in general health and very cheerful.

"Healthiness is not of a serious nature," continued Mr. Jefferson, "nothing but a slight attack of rheumatism from which, with the needed rest, he will recover in a few days."

President Cleveland was up and dressed but he had not been out on the veranda.

Mr. Jefferson is the first and only caller President Cleveland has had since his arrival at Gray Gables.

"Mr. Cleveland did not come to his summer home," said the veteran actor, to continue his public business or to receive visitors, and I know that his friends will allow him his much needed rest."

It has been the custom of President Cleveland and Mr. Jefferson to go on the fishing trips to Mashpee for several seasons past, but the actor stated that he was very busy formulating plans for his new home, and that he thought it was doubtful if he or the President would be able to spare the time necessary for such a trip.

Dr. Bryant and Col. Lamont are still at Gray Gables. Dr. Bryant, it is understood, will return to New York some day next week. Col. Lamont will probably remain for several weeks.

"President Cleveland came here for rest, said Col. Lamont, "and will not receive any callers."

Don't Think His Condition Serious.

WASHINGTON, July 8.—The President's friends and such of his Cabinet officers as remain in the city are quite unwilling to believe that there is anything serious or unusual in the reported indisposition of the President. At the White House Private Secretary Thurber said the President was suffering from no serious trouble when he left Washington.

Called to the President's Home.

OMAHA, July 8.—The departure of Mrs. W. T. Hoyt, of Beatrice, for Buzzard's Bay to see her brother, President Cleveland, has aroused fears that his illness is more serious than is admitted by his physicians. Mrs. Hoyt had just returned home and had no intention of going East until she was called by a despatch from Mrs. Cleveland.

Morrissette Committed to Jail.

BOSTON, July 8.—Alfred Morrissette, arrested at Lowell on the charge of forging Canadian bonds to the value of $18,000, and receiving Canadian bonds valued at $9,700, was brought before Justice Nelson yesterday afternoon in the United States District court, in accordance with the extradition treaty. He was ordered to be committed to jail until next Tuesday, to enable the Canadian representative here to produce evidence to obtain the delivery to him of Morrissette.

WEEKLY TRADE REVIEW

Condition of Business in the United States.

SOME IMPROVEMENT IS SHOWN

The Financial Situation in All Parts of the Country Presents an Easier Appearance—An Advance in the Price of Silver—Many Factories Shut Down.

NEW YORK, July 8.—Bradstreet's review of trade for the week ending July 8 says:

Some improvement in the financial situation at southern cities is noted, and at the west St. Louis and San Francisco make like reports, while east the corresponding change is at New York, where there is a better tone due to completion of July settlements, although, as at Boston, commercial paper remains practically unsalable in the open market, and discount rates are as extreme as from 8 to 10 per cent.

New York banks, however, are providing a little more liberally for regular customers, which is in part offset by a comparative tightening of purse strings at Chicago, due to demands of country banks for rediscounts and the tying up of funds in wheat. Money has been shipped east from New York to provide savings banks with funds against possible withdrawal of deposits, but a slight inflow from the west is reported.

The amount of clearing house loan certificates was increased to over $21,000,000, but a further issue is now improbable, $100,000 of them having been actually redeemed. Stock speculation at New York is dull, though prices tend to improve on a better financial situation. Foreign exchange is firm and higher on demand for bills to result; collections of July income to Europe. Actual business in demand sterling forbids gold imports. Silver has advanced, the New York quotation being above a parity with London. Tenders of silver to the Treasury have been refused this week for this reason, so the market weakened, the movement being re-enforced by the decision of smelters and mines not to shut down. While trade has been restricted by a holiday, in some lines by two holidays, there have been reactions in prices of a number of staples which had been declining.

Wheat has advanced 2 3-4c. on rumors of damage to the crop and continued large exports, and corn is 3-8c. and oats 1-2c. Cotton prices are 1-16c. higher, and coffee is 1-4c. up, higher, while petroleum, tobacco and hogs are in better demand, with an upward tendency of prices. Wool continues most depressed in price of any of the staples except pig iron, necessities of buyers and anxieties of sellers determining prices, while cash purchasers make prices. Fires have been put out in iron, steel, woolen shoe, glass, and other furnaces and factories at prominent centers east and west in excess of the expected shutdown. June bank clearings at 55 cities aggregate $4,524,000,000 or eight per cent. less than last year, a smaller June total than since 1888, except in 1891. Bank clearings at 55 cities for six months aggregate $81,012,000,000, a fraction of one per cent. less than in the first half of 1892, but 15 per cent. more than in 1891, but about four per cent. decrease as compared with the like portion of 1890.

About 90,000,000 bushels of wheat out of farmers' hands were carried over in the United States and Canada, both coasts, on July 1, which is more than 100 per cent. more than we have been in the habit of carrying over at like dates in preceding years. Stocks in Europe and afloat for Europe are about 13,000,000 bushels larger than on July 1 in the preceding year, a gain of 20 per cent. Exports of wheat, flour included, both coasts of the United States and Canada, equal 3,500,000 bushels this week, as compared with 3,677,000 bushels in the preceding week, 2,081,000 bushels in the week a year ago, and 2,225,000 bushels in the week two years ago. Business failures number 319 this week; a year ago the total was 152.

The Caravels at Chicago.

CHICAGO, July 8.—The Spanish caravels finished their long journey late yesterday. As they arrived off the Exposition grounds they were saluted by many cannon and the steam whistles from many craft lying in the lake and the lagoons. Capt. Concas and the escorting party were met by a messenger from the Director-General and escorted into the grounds at 3 o'clock.

Leather Merchants to Meet.

NEW YORK, July 8.—A number of merchants prominent in the leather trade have issued a circular to leather merchants of the country calling for a meeting to be held next Wednesday at the New York Hide and Leather club, this city, when it is proposed to adopt resolutions urging upon Congress the speedy repeal of the Sherman Silver Purchasing Law.

Made No Violent Speeches.

NEW YORK, July 8.—The red flag waves and all existing institutions were denounced at last night's meeting of Anarchists at the Windsor Theatre in celebration of Governor Altgeld's pardon of their three confreres, but it waved feebly and the denunciations were tempered with moderation. The meeting was rather an orderly one, and the police did not have to interfere to preserve order. The speeches were not of a particularly violent nature.

Lawyer Suydam Dies in Prison.

NEW YORK, July 8.—Information was received at the General Sessions last evening that Lawyer Abraham Suydam, who was convicted of grand larceny in the first degree on Nov. 21, 1889, and was sentenced to five years in Sing Sing, died in prison yesterday.

More Banks Close Their Doors.

WASHINGTON, July 8.—Comptroller Eckels is informed that the First National Bank of Hot Springs, S. D., and the Livingston National Bank of Livingston, Montana, have closed their doors to business.

JUSTICE BLATCHFORD DEAD

The Eminent Jurist Passes Quietly Away At Newport.

NEWPORT, R. I., July 8.—Associate Justice Samuel Blatchford passed quietly and peacefully from earth at 7:20 last evening. He retained consciousness until an hour or two before his death. There was no sudden change in his condition, simply the gradual slipping away which has been taking place for the last week.

The arrangements for the funeral are not yet completed, but the body will probably be taken to Washington for interment. For many seasons he has been a quiet visitor in the city during the summer season, residing in his own cottage on Greenough place, and while not greatly given to society followings he was frequently entertained in the first families.

HE MURDERED A WHOLE FAMILY.

A North Dakota Farm Hand Guilty of a Fearful Crime.

DEVILS LAKE, N. D., July 8.—A telegram has been received by Sheriff Barton to arrest Albert Baumburger for murdering D. S. Krider, wife and four children.

Krider was a well-to-do German farmer residing two miles southeast of Cando. Baumburger, the murderer, is a nephew of Krider and had worked for the murdered man since last fall. The murder was committed yesterday. Officers are scouring the country and will probably capture Baumburger.

Mann Bros.' Stock Sold.

NEW YORK, July 8.—The Sheriff has sold out the stock of Mann Bros., Grand street clothing dealers, realizing, it is said, about $35,000.

MORE THAN CONFIRMED.

Further Details of the Western Cyclone.

The Loss of Life Much Greater than First Reported—Only Seven Houses Escape Destruction in Pomeroy.

CHEROKEE, Iowa, July 8.—Later reports of loss of life by the cyclone which passed through this section of Iowa more than confirm first reports. The horror of the situation is increased by the terrible mutilations of the victims.

The headless body of one young lady was found, but the head and one lower limb cannot be found.

The force of the wind was terrific. Rocks weighing several hundred pounds were torn from the ground and hurled long distances and in one instance the pipe of a deep drive-well which projected above the ground only four feet was completely drawn out, something that could hardly be accomplished.

The village of Pomeroy which was struck, was with the exception of seven houses, completely destroyed. The dead, bodies of 40 victims have been already recovered and the work is not yet completed. A very large number are injured and many of these are horribly mangled. An appeal has been made for nurses and food.

The number of killed at the several places where the cyclone struck is now said to be fifty and there are twice that number injured.

Those Killed at Pomeroy.

DES MOINES, Ia., July 8.—Following is a list of those killed at Pomeroy in yesterday's cyclone: Mrs. Marie Adams, Mrs. C. R. George, W. Arnold and wife, Mrs. Mike Quinlan and baby, J. P. Lundgren, Dr. White, Silas Rushton, Mrs. Tillie Johnson, Lena Kiefer, Ollie Frost, Mrs. Gus Dahlgren, Mr. Hullett and wife, Mr. Nettinger and wife, Ben Davey, Ezra Davey, Mrs. D. L. O'Brien and baby, J. M. O'Brien, Mr. Dilmuth, boy named Mudge, Mrs. B. T. Harlowe, A. Fouche.

CAN SUPPORT A LARGE ARMY.

An Explanation from Von Caprivi in the Reichstag.

BERLIN, July 8.—When the new Reichstag met yesterday for the consideration of regular parliamentary business for the first time, nearly all the 397 members were in their places, for it was known that the government would at once introduce the amended Army bill, and general interest was felt as to the concessions, if any, that the government had made on the original bill.

Immediately the formal opening of the House was concluded, Chancellor Von Caprivi ascended the tribune, and in a long speech introduced the amended measure. He stated that the present form of the bill represented the minimum that the government would accept in men or money.

The government's demands were the lowest possible consistent with the safety of the Empire. The previous bill had been before parliament and the country for nine months, and everybody understood what the government wanted. It was, therefore, needless to repeat the arguments that had heretofore been advanced in favor of the measure.

During the delivery of his speech the Chancellor was frequently interrupted by applause and shouts of "quite right, quite true."

The keynote of the speech was that foreign countries, not knowing intimately the German character, had been led to believe that Germany had lost confidence in herself and that the countries composing the German Empire were no longer united. This, the Chancellor declared, was an erroneous impression, which ought to be quickly dispelled by the speedy adoption of the new bill.

In the course of the speech the Chancellor referred to the action of Russia in increasing the peace footing of her army by 24,000 men since 1889, and she had not yet exhausted her resources. Germany, he declared, must increase her peace footing if her voice was to continue to have weight in the European areopagus. The assertion made by the opposition that Germany did have sufficient men to answer the call for recruits was disproved by the fact that 90,000 serviceable men had not been recruited.

His Foot Crushed by an Electric Car.

NEWARK, N. J., July 8.—While attempting to board an electric car at the corner of Washington and Academy streets yesterday, Joseph Haurahan, a letter carrier, 32 years old, fell under the car and had his foot so badly crushed as to render amputation necessary.

SICKNESS IS SIN.

Rev. Father A. Ouellet Speaks for the Public's Benefit.

The question of protection against contagious and infectious diseases has always been of the most vital importance.

Modern medicine lays stress not so much on disinfectants and deodorizers as on fortifying the body against disease germs.

We all encounter every day disease germs enough to kill us; but while the body is robust, we throw them off; it's only when the system is sufficiently weakened and depressed that these deadly germs gain lodgment and the power of doing harm.

Rev. A. Ouellet, an excellent likeness of whom is printed above, is one of the most popular and greatly respected priests in the lower provinces; his parish is in New Brunswick.

Like thousands of others he tried the great modern remedy first prescribed by Prof. Phelps of Dartmouth, the remedy that gives proper nourishment to ill-fed nerves; that procures the sleep that makes brain and nerves play their parts calmly and handsomely; that drives the poison germs of deep-seated disease from the blood; that gives tone to the system and consequent buoyancy of spirit and happiness. He writes:

"Of Paine's celery compound I can speak from experience; I had been laid up with fever and rheumatic gout from January 6 till the middle of June, hence my system was fearfully run down; I was very thin and so feeble that for several weeks I could not move along without help; I then began to take Paine's celery compound according to prescription, and today I am as fleshy and strong as I was 10 years ago.

"I do not say that I am radically cured as yet of my gout, but the attacks are much less frequent, in fact, I have not been one single day prevented from attending to my usual work since that time. I therefore take pleasure in certifying to the wonderful efficacy of that marvellous medicine.

"As a blood purifier it has no equal, and its beneficial influence on the digestive system cannot be questioned; in view of the facts I do not hesitate to advise sick persons to give Paine's celery compound a fair trial in the various ailments for which it is recommended."

Paine's celery compound is unquestionably the greatest remedy of modern times; it is abreast of the most recent medical thought and investigation concerning dyspepsia, biliousness, liver complaint, neuralgia, rheumatism, kidney troubles and nervous diseases.

WEATHER INDICATIONS.

For New Jersey: Showers To-Night and on Sunday Morning; Warmer; Southerly Winds.

EARLY INTELLIGENCE.

—A song service will be held in the W. C. T. U. rooms to-night.

—The Holy Cross campers reached home at 1:59 this afternoon.

—Local firms are estimating for the repainting of the shabby street cars.

—Edgar Gaddis wishes THE PRESS to contradict the statement of another paper that Campbell beat him in the high jump at New Market on the Fourth. Gaddis says he himself won the medal.

—R. M. Shelly, who is to move his "circus roundabout" from Morristown to Plainfield, writes that owing to the death of his little boy he will be unable to come here Monday as anticipated. He hopes to arrive by Wednesday.

—For want of a bolt, a big coal train, drawn by locomotive 395, was stopped, yesterday afternoon, and delayed on the tracks in Plainfield for half an hour, till one could be supplied. The missing bolt was from the reverse lever.

—To the street committee of the borough has been referred the petition of citizens to lay a crosswalk at Grandview and Westervelt avenues and to repair the Grand street and Grandview avenue sidewalk, which is in bad condition.

—The Baptists have arranged for fine weather July 21, and will provide ample cars for all who wish to join in a merry time at the shore. The excursion will leave Plainfield at 8 and stay at the Park till 6, stopping at Long Branch both ways.

—Mrs. Proctor was awarded $37,500 for the alienation of her husband. There is, however, no financial or other relief for the alienation of your eyesight by carelessness; therefore be wise and have your eyes examined at once at Collier's. It will be no expense to you to thus learn how to preserve your vision into old age.

IF ANY MAN CAN, HE CAN.

Bound Brook Natives Spellbound by a Plainfield Pastor's Eloquence.

The Bound Brook Chronicle, in its report of the Fourth of July celebration at Washington's Camp Ground, says:

After music by the band, the Rev. Dr. A. H. Lewis, of Plainfield, was introduced.

"He said that it was the first time he had ever enjoyed a visit to this beautiful and historical spot. He advised our Board of Trade to build a trolley road from the town to the mountain, and to connect old Bound Brook with our new eastern neighbor by a direct road. Then the town would grow as it had never done before.

"Launching out into his oration he held his audience with the closest attention, his remarks being frequently interrupted with applause. We regret that we are not in possession of a verbatim report of the masterly speech, which was characterized by many as the best they ever listened to."

How Plainfield's Adopted Citizens Have Triumphed Over the Obstacle of Their Birthplace.

The Bound Brook Chronicle is anxious to proclaim for its town the honor of turning out some of Plainfield's great men, and says:

"Bound Brook produced noble men not only during the Revolution, as the Rev. Mr. Davis told his hearers, on the Camp Ground, Tuesday, but she keeps right along at the good work. When Plainfield organized its board of trade, a few days ago, the Hon. George Rockfellow was elected president and the Hon. William A. Coddington the first vice-president, both Bound Brook boys. Charles A. Reed, also of Somerset county, was selected for second vice-president."

Getting Their New Rooms Ready.

An adjourned meeting of the Crescent wheelmen took place last night at their club rooms on North avenue. The attendance was small, but some important business was transacted and three new members were elected. It was decided to furnish the rooms and to erect stalls for the wheels. The work will be begun as soon as possible. This enterprising band of bicyclists is not going to be left out in the cold if the mother league has gone by the board.

The American Catarrh Cure

Is the result of twenty-six years' study and treatment of the disease. One bottle convinces the most skeptical. It is always ready for use, needing neither douche nor atomizer. It restores the hearing, cures the hawking cough and expectorating, removes the headache and nose bleeding, increases the appetite, produces sound sleep, invigorates the whole system and increases the vitality. Prepared only by W. B. Jones, M. D., No. 1336 South Eighth street, Philadelphia. For sale by F. W. Randolph, 21 West Front street. Price $1.

THAT BLESSED RAILROAD.

Because of Its Coming Somerset Street Is to Be Greatly Improved.

Acting mayor Neal of the borough told a PRESS reporter last night that when the street railway company got through with its work on Somerset street that thoroughfare would be in better condition than ever before. All hollows—he said—that have been left by the elevating of the rails to a higher grade are to be filled in, and for the entire length of the road a top-dressing of fine stone is to be spread between the rails and eighteen inches each side of the track, and the whole then thoroughly rolled. All this is to be done at the company's own expense. The rails will then be flush with the street surface, and traffic will be free since the rail is of the improved pattern out of which wagon wheels are extricated with ease.

THE MARCH OF MACADAM.

Upper Duer Street Bound to Keep Up With the Neighborhood.

The residents of Duer street from Emily street to Linden avenue want to have things as nice as their neighbors have from Craig place to Emily street, and so asked the borough council for a graded macadam roadway just like theirs is to be. The council last night granted the first petition, for the portion from Craig place to Emily street, and the work of laying crushed stone for a width of 16 feet is to be begun just as soon as the money pledged by the property-owners along the route is paid. The second petition is being considered by the street committee.

NO MORE ROTTEN HOSE.

At Last the Borough Fire Department Is to Have a Drying Tower.

North Plainfield is following her sister's example, and is going to have a tower to dry and preserve fire hose. 'Twill not be as pretentious as Plainfield's but adequately serviceable. Last night the bids for building according to the plans and specifications were opened. A. J. Winckler's figure was $305. D. L. Hulick bid $300, and was unanimously awarded the contract. One-third of the price is to be paid when the frame is up and the roof sheathed.

AUGUST 15.

That's the Date When the Somerset Street Cars Must Be Running.

The borough council last night granted to the Plainfield Street Railway company an extension to August 15 of the time when the Somerset street extension must be in complete operation. The company asked for August 24, thinking that June 25 was the original date; but the council held the contract to expire June 11, and refused to grant more than two months from that date, with four days grace.

Screens to Hold in the Bugs.

Two windows in Spencer's hall were supplied with screens at last night's borough council meeting, while all the rest of the windows were wide open and screenless. The night bugs displayed their perversity by flocking in through the unguarded openings, tormenting the unfortunate mortals within, and then vainly seeking to escape through the two windows with screens.

The Switch Is Placed.

The laying of the switch connecting the Front street line and the Somerset street line of the electric railway was accomplished to-day without any delay to the traffic. The sections of new rail with frogs were placed alongside the old rail, the old rail removed, and the new immediately substituted and spiked.

Had the Excursion in Mind.

Charles Remsen, the express messenger for M. Estil the stationer, witnessed the robbing of the jewelry firm of Benedict Bros., New York city, yesterday. Charley says they told him to "stop the thief", but he being so small decided not to take the risk, as he wants to enjoy one more trip to the seashore with the Trinity people.

Some Day 'Twill Reach the Mountain.

The proposition to repair and improve the Grove street extension is still under consideration of the borough street committee. Borough people would rejoice to see the improvement consummated. Grove street is bound to become a magnificent avenue, and is progressing towards the highlands.

A $10 Home for Wayward Dogs.

Every summer the borough marshal has paid money out of his own pocket for the impounding of dogs. This year the council is generous and appropriates $10 for the rental of a pound where stray and unmuzzled canines will be held, and assassinated if not redeemed.

Could n't Miss Their Annual.

Work was suspended on George W. Cole's new building on West Second street yesterday. Inquiry revealed the fact that the colored men engaged to put up the iron girders were members of the Bethel mission and had gone to Asbury Park on the excursion.

There's Hope for Him Now.

Isaac Lederer has engaged Craig A. Marsh to defend him against Miss Smith's suits, and his friends assure him that he 'll win.

Kid-Gloves at Base-Ball.

The Park club ball players are at Cranford this afternoon in competion with the local team on the Casino grounds.

Shiloh's Cough Cure.

BIG INJUNS GET A RAISE.

From Prophet to Little Brave They Have a Glorious Time.

Deputy Great Sachem Andrew J. Stigiltz and staff raised up the chiefs of Miantonomah tribe, 118, Improved Order of Red Men. The chiefs raised up were:

Prophet—William A. Westphal.
Sachem—John H. Carney.
Sr. Sagamore—Charles Holstein.
Jr. Sagamore—Joseph Wycoff.
First Sannap—Elmer H. Neal.
Second Sannap—David C. Allen.
First Warrior—B. J. Allaban.
Second Warrior—William Klein.
Third Warrior—Nelson Wyckoff.
Fourth Warrior—Louis Alpaugh.
First Brave—G. Houseman.
Second Brave—M. Leahy.
Guard of Wicket—W. C. Kilby.
Guard of Forest—Charles Conover.

After the raising up of the chiefs, Deputy Great Sachem reported the order in a flourishing condition throughout the district, and that in his official visits he had been royally entertained in every tribe that he had visited. Remarks were made by the various officers who had been raised up, after which a most pleasant surprise was found to be in store for the Representative to the Great Councils of the United States. Sachem John H. Carney in behalf of the officers and members of the tribe presented to Past Sachem and Representative Norman C. Mague an elegant sash, composed of stripes of purple and scarlet running lengthwise, and the edge trimmed with gold lace and fringe. On the breast was an Indian shield with the letter "E" and the initials of New Jersey. The sash was of the finest silk, and lined with quilted satin, with elegant embroidery upon the front, consisting of vines and leaves with the American eagle in the center. Representative Mague received the gift and responded in a manner that proved to all that no mistake was made in their selection of a representative, and that New Jersey would hold her own.

Miantonomah is in a flourishing condition, and appreciates the honors conferred on her at the last great council.

PARTICULAR MENTION.

Mrs. J. F. McMurray is enjoying the pleasures of Asbury Park.

Mr. Pease will lead the W. C. T. U. praise service this evening.

Miss Carrie Ayers, of West Third street, has gone to Pennsylvania to stay a month.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Stover, of New York city, are visiting relatives in their old home.

St. Peter's congregation, German Lutherans, will celebrate their first anniversary to-morrow.

Mrs. Voorhees W. Laing and son Edward, of East Front street, are visiting relatives at Hackettstown.

Mrs. James Lynch, of Brooklyn, has been spending a week at the home of her son, Thomas Lynch, 303 Madison avenue.

Charles Heyder, a prominent Tammany Tiger of New York, is visiting his brother-in-law, Wm. W. Springman, of North Plainfield. His wife and daughter accompany him.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Barry, of 110 Jackson avenue, have the deep sympathy of all in the loss of their bright little son Charles, who died at 12:45 p. m. to-day, aged 9 months.

B. Luerssen, formerly of North Plainfield and now of Reading, arrived in town yesterday. Mr. Luerssen is connected with the Reading Hardware company and has just returned from an encampment of five days along the Brandywine, in Delaware, where the employes of his company, numbering 175 persons, spent last week.

Mr. and Mrs. Jack Force and Miss Mabel Force, of Bound Brook, had a very pleasant ride in Jack's new steam yacht, the Nanette, recently, as far as New Brunswick. Jack having joined the New Brunswick Boat club, has decided to keep his boat at that place, where it will be much handier, and afford him a better chance to enjoy it in company with his and his wife's many friends.

Wm. L. Force, who was so badly injured by a kicking horse two weeks ago to-day, is rapidly sinking, and the physicians say that his end is a matter of but a few hours. Another consultation was held last night, and it was found that pneumonia had set in from the effects of the terrible kick over the lungs. Partial paralysis of the nerves also was found to have taken place. Another consultation was held at 3 this afternoon, and the alarm that was felt by the family for his condition could not be relieved, as even the physicians gave up all hope. It is doubtful if Mr. Force can survive the day. The faithful and sorrow-stricken wife who has been so devoted to his care is at his bedside doing all in her power to make his passing away peaceful. The family feel very grateful to Dr. Tomlinson for his unremitting care and watchfulness, and to Dr. Hedges for his valuable service in consultation.

A Double Lock for Borough Valuables.

Councilman Edwards yesterday purchased a big safe for the borough. He found the bargain in New York, and it has both an inside and an outside combination. The price paid was $75. The safe will be shipped Monday.

THE BOROUGH GETS ITS BACK UP.

"YOU SHAN'T PLAY IN OUR YARD, MR. PLAINFIELD COMPANY!"

"Cause You Would n't Let Us Play in Yours"—Vigorous Policy of Protection Against Foreign Competition—Warren Mission Shan't Have the Light It Wants, and the Plainfield Gas and Electric Monopoly Must Clear Out and Leave the Field Free for the Home Concern, Or Else Go to Law About It.

This is a hard week for Plainfield corporations. First the Water Supply company got into a snarl with the city council and Mr. Erickson got in some fine work against it. Next the street Railway company was forced to yield to P. M. French's demand for recompense. And now the big Gas and Electric Light concern is being everlastingly sat on by the fighting bantam borough of North Plainfield.

The trouble started two or three weeks back. When the Crescent Avenue people took control of Warren chapel they of course began improvements. The introduction of electric lights was one of these. Wires and lamps were arranged in the building, in the expectation that the Westinghouse system (that of the Plainfield company) would be used. Two poles were put up by the Plainfield company, and connection was being made.

But the aggressive North Plainfield company popped up with the claim that that was its exclusive territory, and down came the poles.

The Crescent Avenue church people investigated, and found that permission should have been asked of the borough council before the poles went up. Thereupon J. K. VanArsdale for the trustees petitioned the council for the privilege. In that petition, which was received by, and read to the borough council last night, Mr. VanArsdale earnestly pleaded that to change the wiring and fixtures so as to use the Edison (or North Plainfield) system would involve much expense. The council turned a deaf ear to his entreaties.

More potent was the petition of a number of property-holders asking that the poles and wires of the Plainfield Gas and Electric Light company be removed from in front of their places, for councilman Needham presented a resolution with a long list of whereases, intended to knock the Plainfield company out of the borough altogether.

This combination of preamble and resolution provides that inasmuch as the Plainfield company's poles and wires are in the borough solely by the grace and at the pleasure of the council, and as the company violated the borough ordinances, and as the North Plainfield company is supplying light at the same rate as the Plainfield company charges, and as there appears to be no longer any necessity for the Plainfield company's poles and wires, and as property-holders ask that the poles and wires be removed, therefore the Plainfield Gas and Electric Light company is required to remove from North Plainfield all its poles and wires, within 20 days from the service of an order so to do. The resolution provides further that if the company neglects to obey the order, the street commissioner shall then remove the poles and wires; the street commissioner is directed to see that all this is carried into effect; and the corporation counsel is directed to serve the company immediately with an order to take away the poles and wires.

Acting Mayor Neal explained that some years ago some poles were erected in North Plainfield by a Plainfield concern as a matter of experiment, on the condition that they should be removed at any time the council ordered. The present company were the successors of that concern and bound by its liabilities. The poles were therefore in the borough by sufferance, and the company had been culpable in seeking to erect other poles without proper compensation to the borough or recognition of the council.

Councilman Hummer attempted to explain the reason of the Crescent Avenue people for preferring the Plainfield company's service in Warren chapel. In Grace M. E. church—he said—they had had trouble with the North Plainfield lights. The lamps had grown dim, or gone out altogether, and they had had to borrow lamps from the neighborhood. But he hoped the North Plainfield company had passed its experimental stage and that perfect lighting was now assured.

The resolution ordering the Plainfield company's wires and poles removed was finally adopted, by the following vote:

AYE.	NO.
Edwards,	Connolly,
Hummer,	Howell.
Needham.

Mr. Neal's vote was asked for by the clerk, but he as acting-mayor declined to give it, there being no tie to decide. To Mr. Howell afterwards he declared himself in favor of the resolution as a matter of principle.

It is believed that the Plainfield company will not yield its footing in North Plainfield without a struggle, and an interesting bit of litigation may result. The Crescent Avenue people are of course interested in seeing the Plainfield company win, to save the expense of altering to the North Plainfield system. The councilmen say that the North Plainfield users of the Plainfield current are ready and willing to change.

THE LAST DAY.

Holy Cross Campers Part With Regret From Their Happy Tent-Life.

DAILY PRESS TENT,
CAMP SAUNDERS,
MERWIN'S POINT, CONN.

JULY 7:—This is our last day in camp, and everybody is sorry that such is the case, for we have had a glorious time, and it seems as if we had only just come. Yesterday was spent most pleasantly in various ways. Some of us being rather tired, rested considerably during the day, and judging from last night's experience there will be much resting to-day.

A party from New Haven was here last night, and the boys sang for them at the Sandford house, for which they received ice-cream. Everyone seemed to be full of music, for it could be heard in all directions.

The young man I spoke of as sleeping in the hammock has succeeded in borrowing a cot, in return for which he is to carry water. He still retires every night in full attire, even to his Waterbury watch.

Mr. Miner called all of the boys into his tent last night and presented to Mr. Beulah a box of cigars, for his kindness and bravery with the boys while sailing. Beulah made a speech, and we gave three rousing cheers for him.

This morning the boys are taking it easy, lying around and telling interesting stories about one another.

We have visitors daily to the camp, and they are much pleased with our way of living.

Mr. Hudson is still with us, and has enjoyed himself immensely. His singing at the concert Tuesday was a rare treat, and much appreciated.

To-morrow morning we break up camp, leaving here at 7:09, and reaching home in the afternoon.

All join in loud praise of the excellent time we have had. There has been plenty to eat, and the food is well cooked and served. Everyone has been well, and nothing has interfered with our pleasure.

Much credit is due to Mr. Miner for his untiring zeal and energy in planning and giving the boys such a fine outing, for which we will ever be duly thankful. Those who know, are aware that to have charge of an affair of this kind is no small undertaking.

Your correspondent wishes also to thank Mr. Miner for his generous hospitality and kindness, and when another year rolls around may the outing be as successful as this has been! DOBBINS.

Big and Little Sales of Land, in North Plainfield Township.

The following transfers of North Plainfield real estate have just been recorded in the Somerset county clerk's office:

Alexander Trand to Theodosius J. Goth, $1.

Mary E. McLaughlin to George Hummer, $325.

John G. Low to Edward C. Mulford, $1,300.

William M. Stillman to Lucy M. Titsworth, $1,930.

Philipine Solomon to Lewis P. Child, $3,000.

The Mutual Life Insurance company of New York to Jesse M. Emerson, sr., $9,000.

E. E. Got Damages, and Now A. M. Wants Some.

Alexander M. Runyon, and not Theodore M. Runyon, is the Plainfield suitor in the case against the Central Railroad company for $5,000 damages. Some Elizabeth correspondent sent dispatches to the New York papers which were wide of the truth. Craig A. Marsh is counsel for Mr. Runyon, and states that the damages claimed are for the pain and injury suffered by Mr. Runyon and the consequent loss in business including expenses for medical services.

His Personal Experience.

Hon. James W. Husted, while serving his sixth term as Speaker of the Assembly of the State of New York, writes:

"STATE OF N. Y., ASSEMBLY CHAMBER, ALBANY, Jan. 16, 1890.

I desire once more to bear my testimony to the value of ALLCOCK'S POROUS PLASTERS. I have used them for twenty-five years past, and can conscientiously commend them as the best external remedy that I have known. Years ago, when thrown from a carriage and seriously injured, I gave them a thorough trial. In a very short time the pain that I was suffering disappeared, and within a week I was entirely relieved. On another occasion, when suffering from a severe cough, which threatened pulmonary difficulties, which I was recommended to go to Florida to relieve, I determined to test the plasters again. I applied them to my chest and between the shoulder blades, and in less than a fortnight was entirely cured. On still another occasion when suffering from an attack of rheumatism in the shoulder to such an extent that I could scarcely raise my arm, I again resorted to the plasters, and within a very few days the rheumatism entirely disappeared. I have them constantly by me, whether at home or abroad. My family as well as myself have found them to be a sovereign remedy, both for external and internal troubles. I never had but one kidney difficulty in my life, and the application of the plasters cured me in a week. I desire, as I said before, to bear my testimony in a public way to their efficacy, and I know of no better way of doing it than by giving you my personal experience."

MAY BE A FIGHT YET.

THE PEACE STREET TROUBLE TO BE REVIVED.

Frazee Heirs Threaten Suit for Damages Against the City—The Husband Signed Consent for the Widening When the Wife Owned the Property.

Since Peace street lost its name it seems to have lost its nature also. Warfare has again revived over the matter of widening.

The Frazee estate is the present bone of contention.

The heirs have been looking into the matter since Mrs. Frazee died, and claim that the city never had any right to cut down the big shade trees in front of the house or tear up the sidewalk or take any of the land.

They say that the consent the council holds for the estate was merely that of Mr. Frazee, signed before Mrs. Frazee died; that Mrs. Frazee was the sole owner; and that the city shall pay full damages to the estate and stand the expense of relaying the sidewalk.

They have employed counselor McClure to make things hot for the city.

WITH CLUBS AND GUNS

Rioters Again March Through the Streets of Paris.

CHARGED UPON BY THE MILITARY

The Soldiers Received by the Mob With a Storm of Stones and Bullets—A Fierce Battle in the Boulevard Voltaire—Many Rioters Badly Beaten Before Being Driven Back.

PARIS, July 8.—Last evening opened with the police apprehensive of riots in many parts of the Latin quarter. Traffic was stopped in the principal streets. Every open space had been occupied by mounted police and all the side streets were patrolled. The street speakers were compelled to move on whenever they tried to call a crowd. Most of the agitators therefore retired to the cafes where they denounced the police and exhorted their hearers to clear the streets of military. Round the Place de la Republique the signs of trouble were especially numerous.

All the cafes in the Boulevard du Temple and the Boulevard Voltaire were filled at 8 o'clock with workingmen and rowdies, who threatened to follow the chief agitators into the streets and begin the attack on police and military.

Shortly before 9 o'clock the cafes were empty and the mobs were again in the streets. In the Boulevard Voltaire and the Boulevard du Temple the rioters were armed with clubs and revolvers.

They marched, cheering and singing, to the Place de la Republique.

At the corner of the Rue d' Angouleme the rioters in the Boulevard Voltaire were met by a body of dragoons and lancers. They were ordered back, but pressed ahead. The military charged, but, although many rioters were knocked down and trampled, the mob did not yield. The soldiers were received with showers of stones and scattering shots. Several were struck with clubs. The charge was repeated and the mob began retreating slowly. There was no scattering or sign of panic. The men backed off step by step, those in front wielding their clubs right and left and those behind splitting up booths and kiosks into weapons with which to fight later in the front. After six charges the military had forced the mob back to the Boulevard Richard Lenoir where the fighting was suspended.

In their retreat the rioters had set fire to the booths which they did not split into clubs. For five blocks the Boulevard Voltaire is strewn with broken timbers, charred boards and torn and bloody clothing.

Most of the windows were smashed during the conflict. Thirty or forty rioters are known to have been seriously wounded. Many others received slight injuries.

Throughout the evening the police treated brutally the Paris reporters who were sent out to describe the riots. Several newspaper men were assaulted and beaten by the police. All of them have been subjected to as many indignities as the police found opportunity to inflict on them.

MILLER HANGED BY A MOB

He Pays the Penalty for a Fearfully Inhuman Crime.

BARDWELL, Ky., July 8.—In the presence of more than 8,000 excited people, Charles Miller, the murderer of the Ray sisters, was taken from the officers late yesterday afternoon and hanged to a telegraph pole amid a scene of excitement which would fully equal that attending the burning at the stake of the negro murderer at Paris, Texas, last fall.

It was first proposed to torture Miller to death by placing him upon a pile of rubbish prepared for the occasion and burning his body to a crisp, but excitement raised to so high a pitch during the preparation for the hasty execution of the heartless criminal that the crowd could not wait long enough to see him escorted to the place of torture and rushed the poor frightened wretch to the nearest telegraph pole and there wreaked out their vengeance upon him for his frightfully inhuman crime.

Miller, in the face of death denied the crime of which he was charged and said he knew nothing whatever of the murner.

SANGER DEFEATED BY JOHNSON

The Great Bicycle Rider Beaten by a Yard and a Half.

TOLEDO, July 8.—Three thousand people witnessed the first day's racing of the Toledo Cycling club and the opening of the new one-third mile track at the Exposition grounds yesterday afternoon.

The principal event was the mile open race in which Johnson, Sanger, McDuffie and Bliss were the principal riders.

Sanger went off with a big lead, and at the end of the first lap was over 75 yards ahead of the field. In the second lap he slowed up to let Johnson get even with him and then ensued a magnificent race between the two, Johnson winning by a yard and a half in the time of 2.23.

The Troops Not Withdrawn.

WASHINGTON, July 8.—Gen. Schofield to-day sent telegraphic instfuctions to Gen. Miles, commanding the Department of the Missouri, directing that the recent order withdrawing the troops from Antlers, Oklahoma, be revoked.

The Body Identified.

BUFFALO, July 8.—The body taken from the Niagara river at Lewiston Thursday evening, turns out to have been that of Harry C. Dudley, of this city, who is believed to have died by his own hand on the night of June 29.

Conductor Thompson Dead.

OWEGO, N. Y., July 8.—A. D. Thompson, one of the oldest conductors in this country, who ran between Owego and Ithaca in 1844 and on the Erie since 1850 died last evening of consumption.

A Catboat for President Cleveland.

NEW YORK, July 8.—A firm of boat builders at Newark this morning shipped a handsome catboat to President Cleveland at Gray Gables. The boat was ordered by Mr. Cleveland some weeks ago.

A New Shoe Company Chartered.

ALBANY, July 8.—The Jackman Shoe Manufacturing Company, of Nyack, has been incorporated with a capital of $150,000. The directors are Andrew H. Jackman, John J. Jackman, and Charles Joyce, of Nyack.

Chamberlain Asked to Resign.

HARTFORD, July 8.—The new board of State Prison Directors has voted to request General Soma. Chamberlain, the warden now under suspension, to tender his resignation, to take effect August 1st.

Ely's Cream Balm is worth its weight in gold as a cure for catarrh. One bottle cured me. S. A. Lovell, Franklin, Pa.

I have been a sufferer from catarrh for twenty years. I found immediate relief in the use of Ely's Cream Balm. Since using it I have not suffered a moment from headache, sore throat or loss of sleep, from which I previously suffered, caused by catarrh. I consider your Balm a valuable remedy. R. G. Vassar, 56 Warren st., New York.

Read and Reflect.

The great mass of mankind lose their health through inattention to catarrh of the head and throat. This insidious disease was considered incurable until the discovery of the American Catarrh Cure. For sale by L. W. Randolph, 21 West front street. Price $1.00.

For He's a Jolly Good Fellow.

The Evens boys admire and love Mr. and Mrs. William Saurts, and say he's a perfect gentleman and she's the queen of women. The happy couple came home yesterday, and the boys all joined in a hearty serenade. Mrs. Saurts showed her kindly appreciation by sending William out to treat the crowd, and for half an hour the exhilarating soda-water flowed free for all.

And Still They Cry for More.

The gratitude of the Press employes is expressed to C. K. Compton for his generous remembrance of yesterday. With his compliments came some of the most delicious ice-cream that ever congealed the palate; and greatly refreshed were those who feasted on the delicious luxury. They all recommend it for Sunday's dessert.

—Camp meeting will begin in Vail's grove, July 23, by the Rev. T. A. V. Henry, pastor of the Bethel A. M. E. church.

When she was a Child, she cried for Castoria.
When she became Miss, she clung to Castoria.
When she had Children, she gave them Castoria.

Oh, What a Cough!

Will you heed the warning. The signal perhaps of the sure approach of that more terrible disease, Consumption. Ask yourselves if you can afford for the sake of saving 50c., to run the risk and do nothing for it. We know from experience that Shiloh's Cure will cure your cough. It never fails. This explains why more than a Million Bottles were sold the past year. It relieves croup and whooping cough at once. Mothers, do not be without it. For lame back, side or chest, use Shiloh's Porous Plaster. Sold by A. D. Mallinson, 55 North Ave. opposite railroad station. 6-18-7

AN ORDINANCE

To amend an ordinance entitled, "An Ordinance relating to the Morals, Peace and Good Order of the City of Plainfield," approved April 23, 1874, amended January 4, 1875, December 7, 1881, September 15, 1883, October 1, 1884, November 3, 1891, and December 8, 1891.

The inhabitants of the City of Plainfield by their Common Council do enact as follows:

Section 1. That section 3 of the amendment approved September 15, 1883 of the ordinance referred to in the title of this ordinance, (general ordinances printed edition of 1883, page 21) be and the same is hereby amended so as to read as follows: "Sec. 3. No person shall cry or openly expose for sale any wares, merchandise, fruits, herbs, meats, fish, goods or chattels, or keep open any shop, store or place of business by him occupied, or cause or permit the same to be open for the sale of said articles or any of them, or openly sell any of said articles on the first day of the week, commonly called Sunday, and any person violating this section shall, upon conviction thereof, be punished by a fine not exceeding twenty dollars, provided however, that this section shall not apply to the sale of milk or medicine, or to cases of necessity, and provided further that no person shall be found guilty under this section who when brought before the City Judge to answer complaint for the violation thereof, shall then and there prove to the satisfaction of said City Judge that he uniformly keeps the seventh day of the week as the Sabbath, and habitually abstains from following his usual occupation or business and devotes the day or a portion thereof to the exercise of religious worship, and that he carries on his business within his premises in such a manner as not to disturb the religious observance of Sunday as the Sabbath. Fees $5.60.

Corporation Notice.

Notice is hereby given that the following ordinance has been introduced before the common council, read the second time and ordered engrossed and advertised preparatory to its third reading, and that it is the intention of the common council to adopt the same.

F. W. RUNYON, City Clerk.
Plainfield, N. J., July 7, 1893.

AN ORDINANCE

For the repairing and permanent improvement of North avenue from Richmond street to Berckman street.

The inhabitants of the city of Plainfield, by their common council, do enact as follows:

Sec. 1. That the roadbed of North avenue extending from Richmond street to Berckman street be repaired and spread with broken stone for a width of twenty feet on each side of the centre line of said street, and for a depth of six inches, at the general expense of the city, to be paid for, after first applying the direct contributions of property owners, out of the money raised by tax for the improvement of the streets, as provided by the act of the legislature entitled, "An act to authorize cities to make permanent improvements in the road beds of the street at the general expense," approved May 13, 1884.

Sec. 2. That before any work shall be done under this ordinance, the property owners along the line of the proposed improvements shall deposit with the City Treasurer a sum equal to one dollar per linear foot for the entire distance along North avenue covered by this ordinance.

Fees $5.60.

AN ORDINANCE

DOWN IN VIRGINIA.

A Colored Woman Is the Old State's Fine Female Physician.

Sarah G. Jones, M. D., the first woman to be licensed to practice medicine in Virginia, is a daughter of George W. Boyd, the leading colored contractor and builder of Richmond. She was born in Albermarle county, Va., and educated in the public schools of Richmond, being graduated in 1883. She then taught in the schools of Richmond for five years. In 1888 Miss Boyd was married to M. B. Jones, who, at that time, was also a teacher, but now is G. W. A., secretary of the true reformers. Mrs. Jones entered Howard medical college, Washington, D. C., in 1890, and was graduated this year with the degree of M. D. She appeared before the state medical examining board with eighty-four others and received a certificate which entitles her to secure a license to practice her profession. Mrs. Jones received over ninety per cent. on the examination in surgery. Out of the class of eighty-five twenty-one white graduates, representing several colleges, failed to pass. Dr. Jones and her husband are representatives of the best society of colored people in the state and are well-to-do people. When a school-teacher she was known as one of the brightest young colored women in the city. She will practice among her race.

THE NEW LORD DERBY.

He Comes from a Family Noted for Its Love of Humor.

The late Lord Derby had none of the levity of his father, which forbade the greater statesman to take politics too seriously, even when he was prime minister of England, and which levity was often the despair of his more solemn colleagues. His son, who was learned beyond his contemporaries in political lore, gravely wondered whether a great statesman was ever as ignorant as his father. The father returned the compliment by calling his son a "Blue Book in Breeches." Yet, for all these obvious divergencies in character, father and son were alike in possessing a strong sense of humor; but while with the father it showed in public, the late lord kept his humor for his intimates. He was an excellent companion, and loved to laugh and to make laugh. Perhaps no incident in his eventful career could so have touched his feeling for humor as the fact that he—the staid, formal, unromantic, conventional Lor

THE NEW LORD DERBY.

Derby, whom we all thought we knew so well—had once been offered the throne of Greece. His lordship's successor to the title is Lord Stanley, of Preston, better known in politics as Col. Stanley, who, under that name, filled many official posts, and was secretary of state for war and for the colonies. He is at present governor general of Canada.

An Alligator's Nest.

Alligators' nests resemble haycocks more than anything else to which they can be compared. They average about 4 feet in height and about 5 feet in diameter, and are constructed of grasses and herbage. First the mother 'gator deposits one layer of eggs on a mortar-like floor, and having covered this with a stratum of mud and herbage about 8 inches thick lays another set of eggs upon that, and so on to the top, there being commonly from 100 to 200 eggs in the nest. With their tails the parents then beat down the tall grass and weeds to prevent the approach of unseen enemies. The female watches her eggs until they are hatched by the heat of the sun, and then takes her brood under her own care, defending them and providing for their subsistence. Dr. Lutzenburg, of New Orleans, once packed one of these nests for shipment to St. Petersburg, but the young hatched out before they were started on their long journey, and were kept about the doctor's premises, running all over the house, up and down-stairs, whining like young puppies.

HONORED BY CLEVELAND.

Gen. Sternberg, the New Surgeon General of the Army.

He Occupies a High Position Among His Brother Officers and Is Well Known to the Medical Profession of Europe and America.

President Cleveland recently appointed Lieut. Col. George M. Sternberg to succeed Gen. Charles Sutherland as surgeon general of the United States army. The post is the highest one in the medical department of the army, and carries with it the rank of brigadier general. Gen. Sternberg is a native of New York, having been born June 8, 1838. He was appointed assistant surgeon, with the rank of first lieutenant, from New York, May 28, 1861, and assigned to duty with Gen. Sykes' command, Army of the Potomac.

Dr. Sternberg served with Gen. Sykes until August, 1862, distinguishing himself on the field of Bull Run, and gaining the commendation of his commander at the battle of Gaines Mill, the engagement at Turkey Bridge and the conflict at Malvern Hill. After doing hospital duty for a short time at Portsmouth Grove, R. I., he was, says Harper's Weekly, with Gen. Banks' expedition, and assistant to the medical director in the department of the gulf, until January, 1864. He was then stationed at Columbus, O., and later in charge of the United States general hospital at Cleveland. From July, 1865, to April, 1866, he was with the Thirteenth United States infantry at Jefferson Barracks, Mo. He received the rank of captain in May, 1866, and until October, 1867, was post surgeon at Fort Harker, Kan., when he rendered valuable service during the cholera epidemic. Dr. Sternberg was then stationed at Fort Riley, Kan., and during the Indian campaign was in the field from April, 1869, to 1870. A year later, when at Fort Columbus, New York harbor, he did good work during the yellow fever epidemic. After twelve months' service at Fort Warren, Boston harbor, he was ordered to the department of the gulf in July, 1872, and was acting medical director at New Orleans for a short time. He then was assigned to duty as post surgeon at Fort Barrancas, Fla., and served through two epidemics of yellow fever, where he proved to be most efficient and valuable in fighting the scourge. On December 1, 1875, Dr. Sternberg was promoted to be major and surgeon, and, after a short absence from duty on sick-leave, was made attending surgeon at the headquarters of the department of the Columbia, May to September, 1876. From that time until May, 1879, he was post surgeon at Fort Walla Walla, Wash., and saw further duty in the field during the Nez Perces campaign in 1877, when he was mentioned for his "heroic conduct." Dr. Sternberg had previously earned such a reputation as an authority on yellow fever that he was made a member and secretary of the Havana yellow fever commission of the national board of health in 1879, and continued on the national board until 1881. He then went to the department of California, and was post surgeon at Fort Mason, Cal., until May, 1884. Afterwards on duty at Baltimore, Md., and in charge of medical purveying department, San Francisco, to February, 1892, being made lieutenant colonel and deputy surgeon general, January, 1891. Since the early part of 1892 until the present time Dr. Sternberg was attending surgeon at New York city. Last year, during the cholera season, he was appointed consulting bacteriologist to the health officer of the port of New York, in compliance with special request. Previous to that time he was on special duty as delegate from the United States to the international sanitary conference of Rome, and detailed also to make investigations in Brazil, Mexico and Cuba relating to the etiology and prevention of yellow fever. Gen. Sternberg is a member and fellow of many medical and scientific societies in various parts of the world, and has published a number of works and valuable treatises upon medical and scientific subjects. He occupies a high position among his brother officers, and is well known to the medical profession.

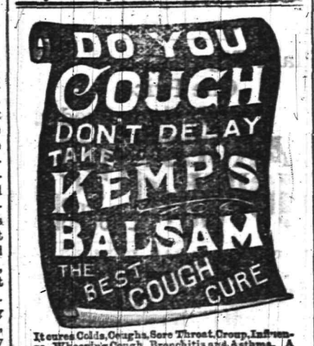
A San Francisco Bathhouse.

There is a marvelous structure in process of construction on the cliffs overlooking the bay of San Francisco. It is a bathhouse de luxe of mammoth proportions, having six bathing-tanks filled with water at varying temperatures from a reservoir with a capacity of one million gallons of water. No pumping is necessary, as the building is situated in a horseshoe cove, the conformation of which makes the flow of water from the ocean continuous. In the calmest weather all the tanks can be filled with water in fifty minutes. The interior will be a vast amphitheater under a glass roof, with tiers of seats to accommodate thousands of spectators. Space for four hundred luxurious dressing-rooms on four stories is found beneath the seats. There is an elegant clubroom on every floor, and elevators carry patrons from story to story



It cures Colds, Coughs, Sore Throat, Croup, Influenza, Whooping Cough, Bronchitis and Asthma. A certain cure for Consumption in first stages, and a sure relief in advanced stages. Use at once. You will see the excellent effect after taking the first dose. Sold by dealers everywhere. Large bottles 50 cents and $1.00.

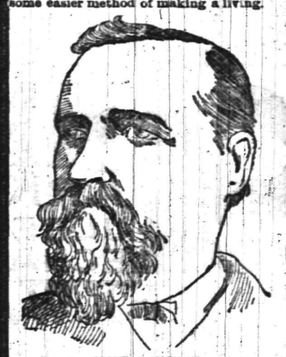
MORGAN SELLS BONDS

On His Undeveloped Salt Deposit in Kansas.

HIS SCHEME IS A VERY NOVEL ONE

Neighbors and Friends of the Kansas Farmer Help Him to Become the Possessor of a Good Healthy Bank Account. His Financial Distress Relieved.

TOPEKA, Kas., July 10.—Having become fully convinced that the Populists either cannot or will not do anything to relieve his financial distress, and being determined not to work, Edmund Morgan, a Rice county farmer, has evolved a scheme which he believes will at least afford him a comfortable living. The idea may have possibly been originated by Jerry Simpson, but the carrying out of the details are his own. All of Central Kansas is underlaid with an immense deposit of salt in a pure state. Mr. Morgan's farm is in this belt and he has determined to make the salt bed his bank. He owns 160 acres, which have heretofore yielded him a comfortable living, but now that his boys have left home to enter business for themselves he feels that he must either work or devise some easier method of making a living.



EDMUND MORGAN.

Being an ordinarily good mathematician as all the Populists are, he has figured out just what he is worth, his wealth being as yet in a crude state. The bed of salt underlying his farm is 260 feet thick. This has been demonstrated by the mine sunk but a few miles from his place. He has computed the number of tons of salt there are under the entire 160 acres, and at a known market value has determined its value.

Knowing just what his salt is worth Mr. Morgan has made it his available assets in a novel banking [illegible] $50,000 in bonds of $5 each, secured by the salt, which he demonstrates by his figures is worth at least $2,000,000.

These bonds he has placed on the market in his immediate neighborhood, and strange to say, has found purchasers. Many of his neighbors, farmers like himself—theoretical farmers—have taken these bonds in lieu of money for such articles as they have to sell, including live stock.

This stock Mr. Morgan sends to Kansas City, where he demands money of the United States in payment, which he deposits to his own credit.

As no interest is paid on the bonds—indeed, none is promised—the banking laws of the State are evaded, and a new medium of exchange has been established that at present seems to be all that is desired in certain localities. Mr. Morgan has met with such success with the first issue that he contemplates a second of $50,000, believing that his neighbors will take it as readily as they did the first. He guarantees that the assets shall never be impaired, and of course they cannot be stolen. Should the time come when redemption of the bonds is demanded, there is the promise on the face of them that mining operations will be begun and the product thrown upon the market, provided that the expenses shall be covered from the sale of an additional issue of bonds.

Some of Mr. Morgan's neighbors, who are not in sympathy with him politically, declare that he has fished for gudgeons and has realized a remarkably clever catch, but these men are deemed envious of the good fortune attending the financial efforts of a man far-seeing enough to give the public assets that can never be pilfered, and which will always have a fixed value, in the meantime. For the first time in his life Mr. Morgan has a comfortable bank account, and his boys now desire to return home and enjoy his good fortune.

A Ministerial Crisis Imminent.

PARIS, July 10.—M. Peytral, Minister of Finance has resigned. A Cabinet Council was held yesterday. Wide differences of opinion as to the proper policy toward the mobs in Paris became apparent at once and a general ministerial crisis is imminent. Mr. Dupuy, Premier, went in the afternoon to Marly-le-Roi to confer with President Carnot. Last evening another cabinet meeting was called.

Killed in a Riot.

NEW YORK, July 10.—A special from Knoxville, Tenn., says: As the result of a drunken fight at Woodbine, Ky., near the Tennessee line, on the 4th of July, there was a riot there Saturday evening, which lasted half an hour. City Marshal Morrissey, Bud Smith and Jim Francis, two desperadoes, were killed. Four others were wounded. No arrests have been made. All is quiet now.

The Duke Will Go to Newport.

NEWPORT, July 10.—The Willings have received a despatch from Bar Harbor from the Russian Grand Duke stating that he will arrive here as their guest on the 15th. The first ball of the summer will be given by Mrs. Herman Oelrichs on July 25. The preparations therefor betoken a brilliant opening of the August round of entertainments.

William Coming to the Fair.

CHICAGO, July 10.—Foreign Commissioners at the Fair declare that Emperor William has decided to accept the invitation of the United States to visit the Exposition. Commissioner Wermuth will sail for Germany on July 20, and, it is said, he will return as the Emperor's escort.

Badly Swindled at an Old Game.

ST. JOSEPH, Mo., July 10.—Meagre particulars have reached here of a duel fought near Tlalnepantla between Evaristo Baranca, a young law student of this city, and Nincento Benavikes, a wealthy young man of Chihuahua. Pistols were used. At the third shot Baranca received a bullet through his heart. The cause of the duel is not known here.

St. Joseph, Mo., July 10.—Martin, a farmer, sold his farm to three men Saturday evening. They put the money, which was in large bills, into a bag and left it with Martin. He gave them $5,000 in small bills, for change. The $25,000 was all counterfeit. The men escaped.

THE MURDERED KREIDER FAMILY

They Were Formerly Residents of Lebanon County, Pa.

HARRISBURG, Pa., July 10.—A despatch from Lebanon received here last evening states that the Kreider family, who were murdered at Caudo, N. D., moved west from that county 15 years ago, and after living in Missouri several years moved to North Dakota. The murdered man is Daniel S. Kreider, and he is a half brother to Editor Joseph Kreider of the Annville Journal and of H. H. Kreider, treasurer of the United Brethren Mutual Aid Society of Pennsylvania. His wife, who was also murdered, is also a native of Lebanon county, her maiden name being Risser. Her parents live near Conewago.

A telegram received by relatives from the oldest daughter, who escaped the murderer, states that father, mother and all the family except herself and two small children were killed—seven victims in all.

Bomberger, the murderer, is a native of Campbellstown, this county, and is but twenty years old. Bombergers, father lives in this city and is greatly prostrated by the news of his sons crime. Young Bomberger left here for the west six years ago.

Bamburger Captured.

FARGO, N. D., July 10.—A bulletin just received from Churches Ferry says that Bamburger, the murderer of the Kreider family at Caudo, was captured at Dominaine, Manitoba, 60 miles from Caudo. There are no particulars. K. Brightbill left Caudo Saturday with the remains of the six murdered people and the four survivors of the Kreider family for Pennsylvania. Caudo business men have offered a reward of $500 for the capture of the murderer.

THE PRESIDENT IS WELL

Only a Slight Swelling in His Knee and Foot.

The Chief Executive Again Almost in Perfect Health—Attorney General Olney Calls at Gray Gables.

BUZZARD'S BAY, Mass., July 10.—The President's condition has so materially improved during the past few days that he is now what might be termed a well man again, and he will, in all probability, be around in a few days.

Hon. Richard Olney, Attorney General, arrived here yesterday afternoon from Boston. He was seen as he alighted from the train, and said that, as he was passing through on his way to Falmouth, where he has a summer residence, he concluded to make a call on the President.

It was a social call, pure and simple, and Mr. Olney hoped to make an engagement with the President for a fishing excursion.

Afterwards, Mr. Olney said that Mr. Cleveland was doing finely, was in good spirits and apparently enjoying excellent health, and that his illness was was all confined to his knee and foot, which was swollen somewhat. Mr. Olney, accompanied by his wife, returned to Falmouth last evening.

Executive Clerk O'Brien spent Sunday with his parents in Abington, and Dr. Bryant may return to New York any day. Nothing of a professional character keeps him here, which shows that the President is not in such a serious condition as some would make him appear.

The President passed a comfortable day yesterday sitting on the broad veranda of Gray Gables. He is now looking forward to a fishing trip about the middle of the week.

This Duel Was Fatal.

CITY OF MEXICO, July 10.—Meagre particulars have reached here of a duel fought near Tlalnepantla between Evaristo Baranca, a young law student of this city, and Nincento Benavikes, a wealthy young man of Chihuahua. Pistols were used. At the third shot Baranca received a bullet through his heart. The cause of the duel is not known here.

Their Demands Refused.

WILKESBARRE, Pa., July 10.—It is rumored here that Vice President Voorhees of the Reading Railroad has written a letter to the chairman of the Grievance Committee refusing to grant the demands of 20,000 employes for less hours of work and more wages. It is known that hasty calls have been sent out for meetings of the various brotherhoods.

Griffin and Smith to Fight To-Night.

CHICAGO, July 10.—Johnny Griffin, "the Brainless" lad and Solly Smith, the Pacific coast champion, will meet to-night in the arena of the Columbian Athletic Club for a purse of $6,000 and the feather-weight championship of the world.

Entries for the Blue Ribbon Races.

DETROIT, Mich., July 10.—Secretary Campbell, of the Detroit Driving Club announces that the entries for the blue ribbon meeting, which begins on July 17 now number 231.

HE KNOCKED MR. REGIN DOWN

Chief Engineer Swartwout Resents an Alleged Insult.

FLATBUSH, L. I., July 10.—Chief Engineer William H. Swartwout of the Fire Department here has been arrested charged with assaulting Thomas Regin, a prominent builder of Windsor Terrace.

There was a false alarm of fire shortly after midnight Saturday, which aroused a large share of the inhabitants of the village. The alarm was from Box 46, on the Coney Island Road, Windsor Terrace.

Chief Swartwout was the first fireman on the scene, and he discovered that Box 46 had been demolished. The Chief said he had his opinion as to who broke the box.

At this juncture Mr. Regin stepped forward and accused the Chief himself of having been the miscreant.

The Chief thereupon promptly knocked Mr. Regin down. Both men are able-bodied, and a fierce fight was anticipated by the spectators, who numbered three or four hundred.

It was, however, a one-sided affair, and Mr. Regin was severely punished.

The Case May Not Be Heard.

ORANGE, N. J., July 10.—The case of the mandamus proceedings against Mayor Lawrence T. Fell, of Orange, to compel him to sign the contract with John O'Rourke, the contractor on the High street improvements, is set down for this afternoon before the Supreme Court at Trenton It is doubtful, however, if the case will be heard.

The Lodi Bleachery Burned.

HACKENSACK, N. J., July 10.—The Lodi Bleachery and Dye works, of Lodi, owned by Byrnes Brothers, of that village, were totally destroyed by fire last evening. The plant was valued at $100,000.

HE WORKED FOR BORDEN

Why Joseph Carpenter Was Suspected of the Murder.

A Claim That Unfriendly Feeling Existed Between Carpenter and the Murdered Man—The Suspicious Letter.

FALL RIVER, Mass., July 10.—Joseph W. Carpenter, jr., (about whom much is now being printed, in connection with the Borden murders because of a suspicious letter supposed to have been addressed to him in New York) formerly worked for the Borden and Almy firm of furniture dealers, of which Andrew J. Borden was the senior member.

It was alleged against Carpenter, at one time, that he falsified the firm's books. Some Sagamore Mill stock was transferred to satisfy the claim, but later the mill became involved and the stock proved valueless.

Suit followed, but when both parties were ready for trial, Carpenter threatened something which several of the parties did not care to face, and the proceedings were quashed.

Andrew Borden was most severe with Carpenter, but the latter never had serious trouble with him. Carpenter left the city shortly afterward and became a salesman for inks, pens and stationery.

He has traveled the most of the time in New York State and generally makes his headquarters in Albany. He married a daughter of Captain Barney, of this city, and was here last in May, 1892.

When the Borden tragedies were heralded about the country last August every man who might have had reason for enmity towards Mr. Borden was hunted down. Among the unfortunate suspects was Carpenter. District Attorney Knowlton felt satisfied from his talk with Mrs. Carpenter and her little girl, here, that her husband had not been in this vicinity since the time of the tragedy nor for some time before it. Nevertheless, at the suggestion of Marshal Hilliard, who was urged on by Mr. Jennings, the now Captain Harrington, was sent out to run down Carpenter and to obtain positive information of his whereabouts during the latter days of July and the early days of August, 1892. Carpenter proved an alibi, by hotel clerks and registers.

Because of Carpenter's family connections he was very much chagrined at being followed by a detective, also at being again troubled by the resurrection of the old story of the falsification of the books.

He has not cared to come this way, although his relations with his wife's family are of the best possible character, so far as the police know.

One fact in connection with the Carpenter matter, caused Miss Borden's lawyers to be persistent in their search for him. It was stated positively by one Peter Driscoll that he had shaved Carpenter in the barber shop at the Wilbur House a day or two before the murders were committed. This story, say the police, was wholly unfounded.

Jealousy Caused Him to Shoot.

HUNTINGDON, Pa., July 10.—Yesterday afternoon George Prickette, aged 53 years, of Mount Union, this county, was shot and instantly killed by Alfred Kline, also a resident of Mount Union. Both men were the head of families and the leading cause to the murder was jealousy.

One More Bank Fails.

FALLS CITY, Neb., July 10.—The State Bank at Shubert, a small town South of here has failed.

NEWS OF THE DAY

F. G. Chamberlain, late auditor of the Atlanta & Danville railroad, has been missing for some days.

The lighthouse keeper a Cape Race, N. F., reports that a large iceberg is aground nine miles southwest of that station.

The Troy, N. Y., Steel and Iron Company shut down its plant this morning. One thousand men are thrown out of employment.

Lewis A. Brown was drowned in the Chenango river about two miles from Binghampton, N. Y., while in swimming. He was 18 years old, and lived in Washington, D. C.

SCENES OF DISORDER

Hoodlums Again Interrupt the Endeavorers.

MANY OF THEIR TENT ROPES CUT

The Chief of Police Thanked For Protecting the Endeavorers Last Evening. The Closing Scenes of the Convention—No Tent Meeting Held.

MONTREAL, July 10.—Consecration services and Mizpah brought the formal proceedings of the Christian Endeavor to a close yesterday afternoon. The opening of the World's Fair on Sundays is a favorite topic of discussion among the Christian Endeavorers. They were at it again all of yesterday afternoon in the Drill Hall and Mr. O. V. Towsley, of the Chicago committee of the World's Fair, afforded the material. He sent a telegram referring to President Palmer's motion for the closing of the gates on Sunday and addressed to Rev. Charles F. Hadredge, one of the delegates. The telegram stated that the motion was to be settled July 11, and if the committee were well represented the rule for Sunday closing would be carried.

Enthusiastic Endeavorers got up in their chairs and hurrahed after the reading of the resolutions for the closing of the World's Fair on Sunday, while the ladies waved their handkerchiefs and used their voices to the general uproar.

After this had subsided the meeting had silent prayer for a minute, and the chairman prayed audibly for those committeemen who are in favor of the closing.

There is a lot of counterfeit American silver being circulated in the city. Large sums have been worked off on the railroad companies and a number of small shopkeepers have been taken in.

Inspector O'Leary of the Dominion Secret Police, arrived in the city yesterday to try and locate the band of counterfeiters.

There was no meeting held in the tent last night the one down on the programme being cancelled by reason of the trouble that occurred Saturday night. When the tent was examined yesterday it was found that 35 of the ropes had been cut by gangs of hoodlums.

Secretary Baer interviewed Chief of Police Hughes. The Chief said: "Mr. Baer, this police force is at your disposal for your meeting and the city is back of the police."

Although thus assured of ample police protection, Secretary Baer thought it better to call the tent meeting off, as it was thought the noise outside would drown the voices of the speakers inside. The programme was carried out in its entirety, however. While Montreal cannot be entirely blamed for the immature riot that took place, it has however, spoiled its chance at a foreign convention.

The closing scenes inside the drill hall last night were characterized by much warmth and hand-shaking, kissing among the women delegates who had formed friendships in the city and the singing of "God be With You Till We Meet Again." It was very impressive. Outside the scene was equally impressive in another way.

Thousands of people were congregated on the Champ de Mars and on Craig street, in front of the hall and for blocks east and west, and great confusion was the result.

Before the convention adjourned the chief of police was tendered a vote of thanks for interesting himself in the Endeavor to the extent of keeping the roughs outside the Drill Hall last night. The disturbance was outside the church but greatly interfered with the proceedings of the convention. The mob numbered fully 15,000 outside the hall.

CUT IN TWO BY A PASSENGER TRAIN

One Boy Killed and Another Fatally Injured on the Pennsylvania.

POTTSVILLE, Pa., July 10.—While a party of boys were crossing the wrestling of the Pennsylvania railroad at the lower end of town last evening they sat down on the tracks to view a coal train passing underneath on the Reading railroad. The noise of the latter drowned the approaching Lehigh passenger train from New York and before the boys were aware of it the train was upon them.

Ira Sallade, 13 years of age, was cut in two and expired instantly.

Fred Suter had both legs badly mangled and was seriously injured about the body and head. He cannot possibly recover.

The other boys in the party were on the down track and escaped injury.

BIG STORM AT CHICAGO

Several Boats Capsized and Four of Their Occupants Drowned.

CHICAGO, July 10.—Chicago was visited at 5:30 yesterday afternoon by the most disastrous storm it has experienced for several years. The wind blew almost a hurricane and the rain fell in torrents. Several boats on the lake were capsized and four of their occupants were drowned. A great deal of damage was done on the grounds and throughout the city.

Car Loads of Human Bones.

PIEDRAS NEGRAS, Mexico, July 10.—Among the large shipments of bones from Mexico to the United States recently made for fertilizing and sugar refining purposes were ten car loads of human, said to have been obtained from ancient mounds in Southern Mexico, but more probably gathered from various old and abandoned cemeteries. As these bones are fragments from different skeletons, 50,000 individuals are represented in the lot.

Thousands of Miners Idle.

ISHPEMING, Mich., July 10.—The Mayor of the city has recommended that the council stop all municipal work other than absolutely necessary, as all the money the city can raise will be needed to support idle miners and their families during the winter. The Winthrop mine has now closed down and over 1,000 miners are now idle in Ishpeming alone, and 30,000 in this district.

The Dive Broke His Spine.

ROCKAWAY BEACH, L. I., July 10.—William Platt, of 238 Nassau avenue, Brooklyn, while bathing this afternoon at Rockaway Park, broke his spine by diving off a bathing pavilion into shallow water. He will probably die. He is 47 years old and married.

The Strike Declared Off.

BUFFALO, July 10.—At the meeting last evening of the Central Labor Union, it was announced that the strike of the Union bakers had been declared off. The strike has been in progress since May 15th.

HE IS IN FAVOR OF A NEW UNION

Master Workman Powderly Talks on the Federation Question.

NEW YORK, July 10.—General Master Workman Powderly was asked last evening what he thought of the new scheme advocated by some labor leaders to organize a new labor central organization to replace the American Federation of Labor and the Knights of Labor, so as to unite the trades unions of the country in a harmonious whole.

He said: "There is a movement in the West to organize a great central labor temple. My idea of the labor organization of the future is to do away with the Federation of Labor and other bodies as they now exist, and to have a central council of labor in which all trades shall be represented. I would include farmers, too, for farming is a trade, as well as any other trade."

Simpson Says It Isn't True.

WASHINGTON, July 10.—Representative Jerry Simpson was shown last night a despatch from Topeka, Kansas, stating that a deal had been made by the Populists of that State whereby he would become a candidate for Governor next year and that Gov. Lewellyn would run for the Senatorship to succeed Senator Martin. He said there was not a scintilla of truth in the story so far as he was concerned, as he doubted the statement regarding Gov. Lewellyn's alleged candidacy.

Small Attendance at the Fair.

CHICAGO, July 10.—The attendance at the World's Fair yesterday was very light, there being only about 30,000 people present.

A CATHOLIC CONGRESS.

The Next Big Event in the World's Fair City.

Delegates to the Congress Will Gather at Memorial Hall on September 4. Mgr. Satolli Will be Present.

CHICAGO, July 10.—The first information made public as to what will be done at the coming big Catholic Congress was given out last night in a statement issued by the Committee on Organization. The congress will assemble in the Memorial Art Palace, Michigan avenue and William St., September 4th at 11 a. m.

Arrangements have also been made for holding in Chicago during the week of the congress, general conventions of the following important organizations, viz:

The Catholic Men's Societies of the United States.
The German Young Men's Guild.
The Societies of St. Vincent de Paul.
Congress of Colored Catholics.
Reunion of the American Louvain Students.

Separate halls and committee rooms will be assigned to each of these various bodies in the Memorial Art Palace.

The week of the Catholic Congress will be the "Catholic" week of the World's, followed the succeeding week by the annual meeting of the Archbishops of the United States, who will assemble in Chicago, under the presidency of His Eminence, Cardinal Gibbons.

PEOPLE HAD WARNING

To Prepare for the Recent Disastrous Storms in the West.

WASHINGTON, July 10.—Government officials have interested themselves in the recent disastrous storm in the West, and with reference to them the following bulletin in which it is claimed that the calamities were foretold 24 hours in advance, and that accordingly the people were warned to prepare for the same.

U. S. DEPARTMENT OF AGRICULTURE,
WEATHER BUREAU,
WASHINGTON, D. C., July 8, 1893.

Special Bulletin—Referring to the occurrence of the recent tornadoes in the West, attention is called to the fact that these destructive storms have been unusually numerous and severe during the present season. During February tornadoes were reported from Mississippi and Louisiana; during March from Alabama, Georgia, and Mississippi, Louisiana, Arkansas, Missouri, Indiana and Kentucky; during April from Ohio, Illinois, New York, West Virginia, Iowa, Arkansas, Indian Territory, Oklahoma, Kansas, Missouri, Nebraska, South Dakota, Texas, Georgia, Alabama, Louisiana, Indiana, Michigan, Wisconsin and Tennessee; during May from North and South Carolina, Georgia, Mississippi, Arkansas, Indiana, Ohio, Iowa, South Dakota, Minnesota, Michigan, Missouri, Tennessee and Kentucky; during June from Missouri, Kansas, Nebraska, Indiana, Georgia and Texas, and during July from Iowa.

It is estimated that about 170 lives have been lost, and probably $1,500,000 worth of property destroyed.

The most destructive of these storms, those entailing the greatest loss of life and property, were those of March 3 in Mississippi; April 11-12 in Missouri, April 25 in Oklahoma and April 25 in Texas, May 23 in Michigan, May 25 in Missouri, June 21 in Kansas and that of July 6 in Iowa. This last storm exceeds all previous tornadoes in the number of lives lost since that of March 27, 1890, at Louisville, Ky.

In the greater number of these cases the weather bureau has given warning from 12 to 24 hours in advance, and in the case of the Iowa tornado messages were sent the preceding night to every weather bureau section in the State stating that several local storms were likely to occur in Iowa on Tuesday the sixth. These warnings were disseminated as widely as possible throughout the State by telephone and telegraph during the day, and people within reach of these agencies were cautioned to be on their guard.

Special attention has been given to the forecasting of tornadoes this year by the Weather Bureau with marked success. It is not to be inferred from the foregoing statement that there is a permanent change in the weather conditions in the direction of the increase of tornadoes, but this is an unusual year for their occurrence, as was also the year 1888. As a matter of precaution, residents of the States in the upper and central Missouri and Mississippi valleys should provide places of safe resort, such as a portion of the cellars in their houses strongly protected.

MARK W. HARRINGTON,
Chief of Weather Bureau.

—A stranded Wild West company has taken possession of the lot at the corner of Plainfield avenue and Fourth afreet, and will give an athletic exhibition to-night.

PARTICULAR MENTION.

Lewis E. Waring and Clifford W. McGee are stopping at Hotel Plymouth, 6 341 Hope avenue, Chicago.

Mrs. Edward White and son, of 403 Park avenue, left Saturday for Somerville, where they will spend the summer.

Mrs. Wm. M. Buckman and son Adrian, of Linden avenue, will spend the summer at Wilkesbarre, Scranton and Harrisburg.

George Ball is to accompany the Mc Cutchens to Lake Placid to take care of their horses during their summer stay there.

The engagement is announced of Miss Lulu Lewis, daughter of the Rev. Dr. A. H. Lewis, to James Kimball of East Fifth street.

The New Brunswick Home News says: "Councilman Elias Bird of Plainfield with his wife rode from that city through Metuchen to New Brunswick and back, the other evening. They are both expert bicyclists."

Captain Doane, of LaGrande avenue, left Saturday for Barrington, Nova Scotia, accompanied by his son, Benjamin H. Doane of the New York court of appeals, to spend the summer. Moose hunting will occupy his attention some of the time.

THIS CANADIAN EDITOR OPENS HIS MIDST TO MR. DEMAREST.

A Brockville Daily Welcomes the New Consulate and Hopes the Old Will Stay in Town.

(From the Brockville, Ont., Daily Times.)

From the Plainfield, N. J., Daily Press, we copy the following reference to J. A. Demarest, who has been appointed to succeed Mr. Ellis as the U. S. Consul at this port. Mr. Demarest is managing editor of the Plainfield Press, and we welcome him amongst us as a member of the fourth estate.

* * * * *

While welcoming Mr. Demarest to our midst, we cannot but express regret that it necessitates the removal of Mr. Ellis, who for over three years has filled the position of U. S. Consul here to the satisfaction of everyone. Mr. Ellis has been a most courteous and gentlemanly official, and by his many excellent qualities of head and heart, has won the respect and esteem of the people of the town of Brockville. His wife and daughter have also won a warm place in the affection of the people. Although Mr. Ellis is retiring from official life, it is the hope of all that he and his estimable family may continue to make their home amongst us, but should they leave, they will carry with them the hearty wishes for future happiness of a wide circle of friends formed during their years of sojourn in the Island City.

A Veteran in the Asylum.

Marshal Pangborn of the borough today removed Henry Brown of Scotch Plains to the insane asylum at Trenton. Brown's delusion is that two men and two boys are always chasing him, hunting for his life, and he used to go through the barn jabbing a pitchfork into the hay in search of the bloodthirsty quartette. Brown is a veteran, and applied for admission to the soldiers' home, but the board of surgeons ruled him out because of his insanity.

OBITUARY.

WILLIAM L. FORCE.

Just as the sun reached its meridian to-day, one who himself had but just attained the meridian of a valued and useful life passed away from earthly scenes forever.

For days the vitality of William L. Force had hung in the balance. Injured in a driving accident Saturday afternoon, June 24, he had ever since been confined to his room in the City Hotel. The best of medical skill was accorded him, and one of the most faithful of wives looked after his every comfort and need; but the internal injuries proved so severe that human skill was unavailing. The patient who was so brave and unflinching under his agonizing pain, and who even in his accident thought first of all of his beloved helpmeet, sank from his fever and delirium into the rest of unconsciousness, and his heart-beats grew weaker and weaker. The gong had sounded the noonday hour; the heat of the day shone on the city; when the last weary sigh was breathed, and the flickering fountain of life gave its final pulsation. A devoted husband, son and brother, a beloved employer, and an honored man, had gone to his eternal rest.

The end was calm and tranquil; there was not the slightest struggle. He died as he had lived—at peace with all the enemy of none.

Fifty-two years ago, the same blessed anniversary which Christian nations celebrate for the birth of our Lord, Wm. L. Force was born. Equipped with a good education, he learned the printer's trade, that art which has aptly been styled preservative of all the arts. He was thrifty and prosperous; and nearly 27 years ago he and his surviving partner started the printing and publishing business which still occupies the same site as originally. The first issue of THE CONSTITUTIONALIST was Jan. 2, 1868, one year after the firm began business, and the heading of that paper has never since been changed, nor has any week missed its publication. Mr. Force's native place was Plainfield, where he spent most of his life. He was born on the old farm by what is now Hyde's millpond.

The success of Mr. Force in the business world made him a valued man throughout the community and county, and at the solicitation of prominent citizens he became identified with politics and a leader in local statesmanship.

The honor and trust of public office was repeatedly conferred on him. GROVER Cleveland himself, on March 18, 1886, wrote that "Reposing special trust and confidence in the intelligence, diligence and discretion of William L. Force", he by and with the advice and consent of the Senate did appoint him postmaster of Plainfield. That office Mr. Force honorably, capably and efficiently filled for the full executive term of four years.

During the administration of Postmaster Force, free delivery service was established in Plainfield through his efforts, and he made the service a success which was appreciated by the public. During his administration also, the business of the office was greatly increased, so that when he retired the revenue was nearly double that when he took possession four years before.

In the brotherhoods of man Mr. Force was a cherished associate. He was a member of Jerusalem Lodge, No. 26, F. and A. M.; of Jerusalem Chapter, No. 24, R. A. M.; of Trinity Commandery, No. 17, K. T.; of Easter Lodge, No. 2542, K. of H.; and of the Exempt Firemen's Association. He was also ex-foreman of Gazelle Engine company, No. 1; for many years a member and secretary of the Plainfield Fire Department Commissioners; Fish Warden of Union county at his death, and for years previous, under the appointment of the Governor of New Jersey; for many years a member and secretary of the Union and Middlesex Gun clubs, and later of the Climax Gun club. He was also secretary for years of the Game and Fish Protective association of New Jersey.

No man loved Nature better than he; no man was more faithful to the care of the creatures whom he had been commissioned to protect. He loved his bereaved wife with all the strength and devotion of his big and generous heart. By all his associates and employes he was respected and esteemed. Everyone in THE PRESS office feels in his death a deep and personal grief.

His venerable mother is among the sorrowing ones mourning to-day the departure of a great and kindly nature. His good wife, who nursed him so tenderly and unceasingly during his fatal illness, was his most cherished earthly idol.

The last sad rites over the body of the departed, will take place Thursday afternoon. The Rev. Dr. D. J. Yerkes will conduct services in the City Hotel at 3, and Masonic honors will be given at the grave. The resting-place will be in North Plainfield cemetery, beside his brother, Joseph Lindley, who sacrificed his life for his nation in the Civil War.

There hangs over the inner door of THE PRESS sanctum a design in blue and silver, which the fingers now lifeless wrought a quarter of a century ago. It is a handsomely set and well printed sign of the firm's business, when Park avenue was Cherry street. Mr. Force was justly proud of it; and it shall hang where he placed it, as long as THE PRESS office stands.

But the pall of mourning to-day darkens the silver letters; the blue of the background is as the eternal heaven veiled in a mist of tears. With reverent hands the shades are lowered; with grief smiting their hearts, the bereaved associates of the dead one place the mourning bands across the paper.

One whom we loved, is gone; the ashes of sorrow choke our eyes, and the hand of death lies heavy on our hearts.

THE WHIRLWIND AT FANWOOD.

Trees Uprooted and Broken Off, Outbuildings Wrecked, and Several Persons Injured.

A windstorm of unusual vigor and violence passed through Fanwood Saturday evening and occasioned considerable damage, besides frightening the inhabitants. A funnel-shaped cloud was seen approaching from the west, and the apex of the funnel seemed to bound from the ground and descend at intervals. This was proved to be true after the windstorm passed, as in its direct track buildings on the ground were wrecked, while others further on were unharmed, but tops of trees were snapped like matches. On the east side of Martine avenue ten trees were broken off close to the ground, one of them a black oak as thick as the body of an ordinary-sized man. The cloud then skipped to the summit of Quality hill, ripped off the flag from the halyards and staff at judge Moore's, demolished the outbuildings on the premises of Wright Babcock, and blew his servant girl off the rear porch, bruising her severely. The outbuildings of Mrs. James Fancher were also wrecked, and one of them, it is reported, was hurled down the railroad bank, knocking over an unknown man who it is presumed clung under the bank for shelter from the wind.

He was picked up unconscious, but later recovered and found to be injured about the head. He would not give his name, but took a train for Plainfield saying he would have his injuries attended there.

L. J. Briggs attempted to withstand the gale, and while endeavoring to protect his property was thrown violently and received severe contusions on his right leg.

No electric lights were in use Saturday night, the wires being down, and the residents depending on that source of supply for lighting their houses found it convenient to borrow oil lamps from neighbors.

RAIDED A GAMBLING DEN.

Police Do Good Work, and the Court Fines the Offenders.

For about two weeks past the police have been watching a suspicious-looking place on East Front street, with the idea that some unlawful proceedings were going on there.

Just two weeks ago yesterday, captain Grant and sergeant Kiely made their way into this place, and found some men playing cards, but as they had been warned of the approach of the police nothing of a compromising nature was found.

Last week a man who said he had lost $20 in the establishment made some complaints to the police so on Saturday night a raid was planned.

The front and back doors were guarded by the police, and other officers went inside and succeeded in arresting the proprietor of the establishment. The brother of the proprietor succeeded in getting away by a side door, but the man who helped him get away, one Sheridan Jones, was apprehended and fared worse than the refugee might have done. The proprietor, Alexander Hooper by name, made some show of fight but was speedily landed on the floor by officer Kiely. At the time of the arrest the place was full of men playing various games of cards and the place has been carrying on a thriving business on the regular gambling house principle of selling chips to the players who "buck" against the bank. David Hooper, the brother of the proprietor, who acted as assistant and dealer, has not been found. Alexander, however, was fined $25, and warned to desist from his evil ways. Sheridan Jones was given his choice of a $25 fine or 60 days, for aiding the escape of the younger Hooper.

NO SUNDAY PEDDLING.

The Ice-Cream Man Who Tried It, Got in Trouble.

Besides the men who were arrested for keeping a gambling house, which is told of elsewhere there were five cases in the city court this morning.

Edmund Scott was drunk and disorderly on Front street Saturday night at the time of Hooper's arrest. He defied the police and called them names. He was promptly arrested, and fined $8 this morning.

Milton Sacks and James Dolton were drunk yesterday in front of Frucht's "cider dive". Sacks got $5, as it was his third offence, and Dolton was let off with $3, as he had never "been there before".

An Italian was arrested for selling ice cream on the streets yesterday. He came from Berkley Heights and has been here several times before. Judge Coddington fined him $5 and warned him not to come again.

Joseph Sullivan was given fifteen minutes to leave town this morning. He was with a gang of tramps near the Berckman street bridge Saturday, but he said he would be good and go home to work, so the judge let him off.

PLAINFIELD VETS WERE THERE.

GETTYSBURG'S FAMILIAR BATTLE-FIELD REVISITED.

Where Once the Brave Soldiers Had Bathed the Town Red in Their Own Blood, They Meet in Time of Peace to Dedicate a Beautiful Monument.

Certainly Plainfield should be represented at the reunion provided for the veteran soldiers of the State of New York. Therefore in the spirit of self-sacrifice and for the honor of our city, Capt. John E. Stewart of the 44th N. Y. Volunteers, Capt. Frank Wells of the Berdans Sharpshooters and your correspondent, supplied themselves with three days' small rations in their haversacks and started for Gettysburg, where, thirty years ago, many of the veterans of Winfield Scott Post and of Major Anderson Post, together with a hundred thousand of their comrades, painted the town of Gettysburg red with their own blood. This time on a less sanguinary expedition the remnants of the organizations then represented moved on Gettysburg for the purpose of dedicating the most singularly beautiful, almost perfect monument that has yet been erected.

The State of New York some years ago by act of legislation provided a fund sufficient to allow to each independent organization fifteen hundred dollars for the purpose of erecting a monument and a further sum sufficient to erect a State monument on the battlefield of Gettysburg. A commission, of which Gen. Daniel E. Sickles was chairman, was appointed to oversee and carry out this patriotic measure. Members of general organizations added materially to the amount allowed by the State, which has resulted in erecting beautiful and in some instances magnificent monuments commemorating the deeds of valor performed on that battlefield. It was a happy thought of this commission which later on had a bill passed by the Legislature of New York, making July 2, 1893, New York State Day, and provided a grant of money sufficient to furnish free transportation to every member from that State who participated in the engagements on this battlefield; thus it happened that on Sunday, July 2, there were assembled together New York veterans from the far West to the seaport coasts: from Wyoming, Kansas, Wisconsin, Illinois, and for aught I know from every other western State.

Printer's ink would fail should I attempt to describe all the happy surprises and reunions, when we again came face to face after an interval of thirty years. While our disposition in the morning was to attend divine service, especially as our host was the Rev. Joel Swartz, D. D., our wicked feet led us with some of our old comrades in arms to the illustrious Cemetery Hill, Ziegler's Grove, and the front line of the second corps. Here on the right of the line is the monument of the 108th New York, a fine regiment from central New York, and one of whose officers, Major T. E. Parsons, was of our post at this time. There was stationed young Lieut. Woodruff of the regular service who fought his battery with valor and distinction throughout, the battle until in the last great assault of Longstreet's holding his fire until the enemy's near approach almost made the whites of their eyes visible; with double shotted canister fired round after round, truly cutting swaths among the advancing columns. Standing in the front of his battery as the enemy approached nearer and nearer, lest his men would not hold their fire, he was shot in the back as he turned to give the order, and dying cried to his men, with true soldierly pride, "Tell them how it was that I was shot in the back". A few rods to the left we come to the monument of the 71st Pennsylvania regiment, upon which is the figure of a soldier with the butt of his musket in the air resisting by brute force the enemy as they rushed toward our lines. This is the famed Bloody Angle. Here Cushing, mortally wounded, fired the last gun of his battles upon the advancing foe. Here my friend Lieut Rorty, of the First New York artillery, was mortally wounded. Sergeant Walter Brogan of this battery, having but one gun left, charged it with five rounds of canister, and fired the last artillery shot into the advancing columns. Here is where the brave Armistead leading his Virginia troops with swords in the air and hat on sword, waving his men forward, penetrated our lines with his magnificent troops, touching the high water mark of rebellion, fell mortally wounded into our lines. Here is where we gathered in prisoners by the thousands, tired, weary, mangled men only too glad to escape from death, colors by the score, and arms by the stack. Further on the left we come to the point where that ever vigilant superb officer, Maj. Gen. W. S. Hancock, fell severely wounded. A few rods beyond is where on the day Wilcox's division, breaking through an unprotected interval, was met by the never to be forgotten charge of the first Minnesota who went into action with 250 officers and men, drove the enemy from their advanced position, leaving over two hundred of the rank and file and all their officers, but the Lieut now Commissioner of Pensions, upon the field. On this spot the State of Minnesota has erected a fine monument mounted by a soldier on the double quick. This is one of the most realistic figures I have ever seen. Out to the front of this on the Emmetsburg road is where Gen. Sickles in defiance of all military science led the Red Diamond, among whom were many of our best Jersey boys, including the brave Gen. McAllister, and scores of men from Union county to their defeat and death. Gen. Humphreys on the right, and General Burney on the left, with their brave chiefs of brigades, did prodigies of valor but they could not repair the error of their chief. Then on the left was rushed in the old red trefoil, through the wheat field and into the Devil's Den, where, thrown brigade after brigade, and on their left the regulars of the Fifth corps these soldiers, than whom there were none better in the army, could not turn the tide of battle. Hundreds and hundreds of the bravest of the brave here paid the penalty of broken law. In the rear of the Excelsior brigade we find the beautiful monument erected and dedicated by that command. Here, in the Devil's Den, is probably the most unique monument on the battlefield. The celtic cross in bronze is mounted on a strong granite base, on the top of which at the foot of the cross lies a full-sized figure of the Irish wolfhound to mark where the Irish brigade fought and suffered. Returning from the field, we formed with others on the Baltimore turnpike and marched to the dedication of our State monument on Cemetry Hill. Here, surrounded by 1,200 of the dead heroes of New York State, in full view of the whole line of battle, we dedicated the most beautiful, majestic, perfect monument of granite and bronze, which our eyes have ever beheld. These impressive ceremonies were presided over by Gen. Daniel E. Sickles, and we then understood for the first time his power over and control of men exercised by him in such a manner that while it was none the less imperative and exacting it obtained a cheerful obedience to his will. Gen. Sickles having recounted the story of the service of the New York troops as well as the services of the commission, Bishop Potter of New York followed with a dedicatory address, and Dewitt C. Sprague with a poem of more than usual merit. A short speech by Gov. Pattison of Pennsylvania, and a speech from the chief magistrate of New York State, Gov. Flower, and a few patriotic songs, ended the dedicatory service. But not so with the soldiers. They must see old Gen. Greene, and not until his usual modesty was overcome did this old hero 93 years of age stand before us, erect, in a general's uniform, and receive our ovation. Thus the day ended. Monday morning we started out to the front, where the brave Buford with his cavalry first met the enemy. Here on the edge of the woods, close by Willoughby Run, the army met with a loss almost irreparable in the death of Gen. Reynolds of Pennsylvania.

Now to Little Round Top, and we will close our story. Here is where the greatest of New York soldiers of the War of the Rebellion, Gen. G. K. Warren, chief engineer on the staff of Gen. Meade, by that quickness of eye for which he was noted, discerned the importance of holding this position at any risk, ordering the signal officers to hold on to the last moment, waving their flag and making every effort to delude the oncoming Texans of Hood's command, he hastened down the hill and detached from the fifth corps, the brigade of Vincent, with Hazlet's battery. He hurried them up the precipitous spur, dragging their artillery by hand where the horses could not go, and reached the top only in time to meet the Texans coming up the other side of the hill. He saved position, which had it been taken by the enemy would have enfiladed our whole line, forcing us out, and giving them a plunge on the retreating army. This Little Round Top was the natural prolongation of Sickles's line, an immensely strong position which he sacrificed for a faulty one on the Emmetsburg road.

On Monday the 44th dedicated their magnificent granite monument which stands very near to the life-sized bronze statue of Gen. Warren. From the top of this monument, upon which a dozen persons can comfortably stand, one can get a fine view of the whole of the second and third days' battle.

In the field below we see the beautiful monument of Sickles's Excelsior brigade. Both of these monuments bear witness to the bravery and patriotism of the rank and file.

The one on Round Top, together with the statue close by, also bears witness to the fact that the brave men who died on this spot so well chosen died not in vain: the one in the low ground beyond also bears witness to the fact that the blood of the brave men so freely offered in vain was a needless sacrifice to a faulty position, and a proof that the inexorable demands of broken law, whether moral or physical, must be met and the penalty paid.

Thus ends our visit to Gettysburg; our rations are consumed; Plainfield's representatives have again fought the battle, and our line retreat is open.

TREFOIL.

HENRY RYDER WINS.

Country Club Tennis in Full Blast When the Storm Descended.

The tennis tournament and tea at the Union County Country club were rudely interrupted Saturday by the sudden storm, but the finals of the gentlemen's singles were played off with the expected result of the victory of Henry Ryder. As has been told in THE PRESS, only three men were left in the tournament after the play of June 24. These were Henry Ryder, who had secured a place in the finals, and Carl Walz and George Schoonmaker, who were contesting for the honor of playing Ryder, and who each had one set out of the match. Walz won from Schoonmaker, and Ryder defeated Walz by the score of 6-5, 6-0, taking the prize of a silver shaving mug.

In the doubles only a few matches were played, and the results were indecisive. The remaining games will be played at a date to be fixed hereafter. The prizes in the gentleman's doubles are briarwood pipes.

When it began to rain, everyone made a dash for the club-house, and the storm-bound guests got home slowly and in small detachments. The telephone wires were down, and the only way cabs could be procured was by hailing each passing vehicle and engaging it for its return trip.

The people were well looked after during their stay, by the reception committee for the day. The ladies receiving were Mrs. J. Parker Mason, Mrs. Corlies, Mrs. Brown, Mrs. Thomas and Mrs. Charles E. Brooks. The young ladies at the tables were Miss Corlies, Miss Clara Finley, Miss Lena Harte, Miss Bessie Ginna, Miss Lillian Erskine and Miss Tracy.

A BIG WIND COMES TO TOWN.

NO BIGGER BLOW REMEMBERED IN PLAINFIELD.

Trees Swept Over on Nearly Every Street—Buildings Damaged, and People Pretty Thoroughly Scared.

Everybody in town said Saturday night "That's the biggest blow I ever saw here". The hurricane which excited this remark began shortly after 5:30. The afternoon had been clear, but suddenly the western sky grew dark. Wicked-looking clouds, in yellow and black masses, boiling and whirling and twisting, sped over the mountains. With a roar and a rush the wind pounced down upon city and borough. In an instant the air was a mass of blinding dust. Hats, handkerchiefs and parcels were thrown about indiscriminately. Trees went bowling over, big branches snapped, signboards lost their fastenings, everything swayed and trembled before the violence. The wind blew fiercely for ten minutes, and then came a drenching rain which cleared the air of the dense swirling clouds of dust and gave people subjected to the dust bath a chance to clear their eyes, noses and mouths of the grit.

Scarcely a street escaped having its shade trees injured. Many noble trees were utterly ruined, others lost big branches. The wind twisted big trunks in twain as easily as saplings.

A party of 21 bicycle riders from Rahway were caught in Plainfield in Saturday's storm. One of them, a cousin of Mrs. T. O. Doane, took the whole party to the house of the genial chief of the fire department and they enjoyed Mrs. Doane's hospitality until nearly 9 o'clock. When they went on their way again they gave three cheers for their kind hostess and another three for Plainfield.

The same party of wheelmen were at Tier's ice-cream pavilion near the lake when the storm broke and stayed there until a tree that grows through the roof of the pavilion was cracked off just above the shingles by the wind and came down with a crash carrying boards and all other movables with it. A tray containing empty dishes was blown into the lake and then the men thought it was about time to leave so they went to Mrs. Doane's house where they spent the rest of the evening.

Dr. Hedges's place fared worse than many of the others as there were three trees badly broken up; one huge elm lost almost its entire top. One of the beautiful willows around the fountain on J. W. Reinhart's place in Netherwood was completely uprooted and lies pitiably on its side. The scuttle on the roof of W. Palmer Smith's residence was blown from its fastenings and dashed, down hitting the piazza roll and breaking a large piece from it. The house of Robert Radford on West Front street had a narrow escape. A huge tree blew down in front of it striking the house and causing some damage. The large stage doors in the rear of Music Hall were blown open and the wind rushing through the house broke the locks on the front door and blew the scenery around on the stage. A bushel basket was blown from the stage up into the gallery and the scuttle is missing from the roof. The skylight in the residence of Seymour G. Smith of Central avenue was blown in and the fire-alarm wires in that street were broken by a tree falling across them in front of Dr. Wells's house. Herbert Chamberlain the lineman who was going over the wires with chief Doane was on a pole with his head in close proximity to a wire just as the lightning struck the wire.

He was shocked for a few moments, but recovered after stimulants were administered. A window in the tower of the Crescent Avenue church blew in but no other damage was done to the building.

A barn belonging to C. M. Raybert on Fourth street was unroofed, but the shingles and beams blew against a brick wall and did no damage. In many sections of the town belated citizens stumbled along in darkness, and only in the business parts of the city were there lights.

George Butche, the driver for J. T. Odam, the slate roofer, narrowly escaped with his life. He was about to drive out of the ball field when one of the huge gates blew off, just missing him.

The closest escape from a serious accident was at a house on West Second street owned by Mr. Markly and occupied by a family named Hargraves. A large tree standing in front of the house blew over striking the building near one corner and straining the framework so that the family who were in the house could open neither the back nor front doors. A neighbor, seeing the peril of the inmates, opened a window and helped the frightened family to escape.

A colored girl was blown around the corner of Park avenue into North. She blew into policeman Kiely's arms and he hurried her into the drug store just as a piece of the roof of THE PRESS building fell in the place in which he had been standing.

The Trip Indefinitely Continued.

The impression has got abroad that "A Trip to Chinatown" closed its run at the Madison Square theater Saturday night. This is not true. Manager McKee announces that the performances of this most successful of Hoyt's farce comedies will be continued indefinitely.

Only Seven Innings Played.

The Crescents were beaten in a seven-inning game, Saturday. The storm suddenly wound up the contest. The score by innings:

Crescents	0	0	0	1	2	0	0—3
Olympics	0	2	0	1	2	3	1—9

The attendance was deservedly large.

A Boy's Bad Fall.

Isaac Staats fell down the trap door leading to the cellar in Dunn's grocery store on Saturday afternoon. He struck his head in the descent and was unconscious for several minutes. To-day he is pronounced to be suffering from concussion of the brain.

Everyone Should Read It.

L. S. Plaut & Co., of Newark, use a good portion of page 3 to make one of their broadside announcements telling of the many advantages Plainfield people can obtain this week by attending their 12th semi-annual bargain sale. These sales as conducted by the Newark Bee-Hive concern have become famous, and THE PRESS has no doubt that this year will see a greater attendance than ever before.

Plainfield Wants It Too.

The Easton city officials visited Scranton Saturday to inspect the workings of Seymour G. Smith's garbage crematory. They were greatly pleased with the remarkable and complete disposition of garbage, and want the system adopted in Easton.

Women Must Sleep.

If they only could sleep eight hours every night and one hour every day:—

Their freshness and beauty would continue to the end:—

Years would be added to their lives.

All derangements of the Uterus or Womb, Ovarian or kidney troubles, uterus tumors, spinal weakness, irregularity, indigestion, exhaustion, or "displacement," drives the nerves wild with excitement, and sleep is impossible.

Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound is the one sure remedy. It has saved thousands, and will save you. It strengthens the womb, removes all pain, and you sleep like a child.

WHITE OF PLAINFIELD.

FARJEON, THE AUTHOR.

The Most Active and Voracious of England's Literary Men.

B. L. Farjeon, the celebrated English novelist, is a tiny man—short of stature, thin of body, dressed after the careless fashion of the literary man, with the tendency to drop into dreamland of the born story teller. But there is such life, such electricity, such quicksilver in his blood that he can't remain still for a moment; and when you think you have pinned him down into a seat and he takes his place on it as though he were going to be glued to it for half an hour—ho presto! he is up again and has taken three laps around the room as though he were competing in a long distance championship match. Everything about the man speaks of his extraordinary vivacity of mind and body. The eyes—small, brown, twinkling—are never really at rest. When he wants to tell you a thing he grabs you by the collar and wags his finger at you as though you were a naughty schoolboy. Every word is illustrated by a gesture; he has an eternal cigar, which alternates every five minutes between his lips and his fingers—as an aid to imagination in the one case, as a convenient pointer to a gesture in the other; and the cigar has a companion in a match box which is constantly opened and shut in the unavailing effort to talk with the rapidity of an Italian improvisatore and to enjoy the tranquil joy of a smoke. And Farjeon's character is pretty much what you gather from this restlessness and vitality, says T. P. O'Connor, who interviewed him recently. Amid all the hard workers there is none who works as he does. One of the first to discover the magnificent possibilities and the miraculous helpfulness of the typewriter, he has a whole storehouse of these "aids to reflection" and composition. "I have in my time," says Mr. O'Connor, "had as many as three typewriters; but Farjeon has five—all within the narrow compass of his house in South Hampstead, while mine have been scattered between my house, my office and the house of commons. I have done some hard work and some long stretches in my time; but this little man, who looks almost as if you could blow him off your hand, not unfrequently sits down at his desk at 10 in the morning and does not rise till 3:30 on the following morning, not even going to the dining-room—for at such stretches he lives on soup and tobacco."

MILITARY HEADGEAR.

Proposed Substitutes for the Caps and Helmets Now in Use.

The war department of the United States now has under consideration a change in the headgear of the soldiers and officers to replace the forage cap and helmet now worn in the service.

INFANTRY CAP. CAVALRY BUSBY.

The Detroit Free Press publishes cuts of the proposed innovation. The forage cap, intended for all branches of the army, is what is known as the German pattern, and it is claimed for it that the visor, being turned down instead of being straight, gives more protection to the eyes. The top is soft and pliable and has the advantage of keeping the head cool. Many officers favor its adoption, while not a few look upon it with disfavor, owing to the fact that it is almost the exact counterpart in shape, but, of course, not in material, of those so frequently met with on the heads of emigrants from the Fatherland.

The other design, known as the busby, is for the cavalry and is exactly similar to that worn by the Eighteenth hussars of the English army. It is made of black astrakhan cloth and will weigh, complete, about ten ounces. It also has a sloping visor, but very small. The cut shown is for officers. For enlisted men it will be the same minus the pompon or top ornament. Every cavalry officer at Fort Leavenworth, Kan., twenty in all, favors its adoption.

Lizard Skins from Mexico.

A warm climate and creeping things go together. According to statistics compiled by the general government of the state of Tabasco, Mexico, 500,000 lizard skins were shipped to the United States from that state last year. This peculiar industry is carried on by hundreds of natives, who capture the wild tropical lizards without difficulty. Thousands of the skins are marketed in Mexico, while large quantities are exported to European countries. It is estimated that fully 5,000,000 lizards were slaughtered for their skins in the state of Tabasco alone last year.

It Depended.

With a view to giving a performance in the evening the manager of the traveling dramatic company was inspecting the building called by the enterprising Arizona proprietor an opera house.

"Yes, it's large enough," he said, "and the lighting arrangements seem to be about right, but it hasn't exits enough. In case of a sudden alarm there would be a crush. Did you ever try to find out how long it takes to empty the hall?"

"You bet I have!" answered the proprietor. "A dog fight on the outside will empty the buildin' in twenty-seven seconds by the watch."—Chicago Tribune.

Where the Goods Went.

Mrs. Kerstyle—I gave you more material to make this dress than I ever used in a garment before and the skirt is hardly full enough to fit a churn. How does that happen?

ABSENCE OF MIND.

They passed just at the crossing's brink.
Said she: "We must turn back, I think."
She eyes the mud. He sees her shrink,
Yet does not falter,
But recollects with fatal tact
That cloak upon his arm—in fact,
Resolves to do the courtly act
Of good Sir Walter.

Why is it that she makes no sound,
Staring aghast as on the ground
He lays the cloak with bow profound?
Her utterance chokes her.
She stands as petrified, until,
Her voice regained, in accents chill
She gasps: "I'll thank you if you will Pick up my cloak, sir!"
—Oliver Herford, in Harper's Magazine.

Too Willing.

Howson Lott—I tell you, you ought to come out and live at Lonesomehurst. It's the healthiest and most beautiful station on the road.

Murray Hill (musingly)—I wonder if I could buy a nice little place out there?

Howson Lott (eagerly)—Yes; I'll sell you mine! Dirt cheap, too!—Puck.

No Competition.

"You say you have no competition in this line," said the traveling agent to the merchant.

"That's what I said."

"But there are two other men selling these goods here."

"I know it. But neither of them advertises."—Washington Star.

It Makes a Difference.

"Boggs must have a poor memory. He has been owing me five dollars for a year."

"On the contrary, I think he has a good memory. I owe him five dollars, and he asks me for it every time he sees me."—Life.

SWALLOWED UP BY THE FLAMES

Many Brave Firemen Cremated at Chicago.

THE ENTIRE CITY IN MOURNING

Appalling Scenes Witnessed at the Burning of the Cold Storage Warehouse at Jackson Park—The Unfortunate Men Forced to Leap to Certain Death—The Frightful Spectacle Causes Strong Men to Weep and Women to Faint—Besides Those Killed Many Are Terribly Bruised and Burned.

CHICAGO, July 11.—The fear that has existed for months in the minds of nearly every citizen in Chicago, a fear that none dared utter to his fellows, but that all felt, found realization yesterday in a frightful holocaust at the World's Fair that claimed nearly two score of victims and for a time threatened the destruction of the entire White City. Yesterday's disaster was all the more dreadful because of its sudden transformation from an innocent flame into a death-dealing catastrophe. Like an animate monster it enticed its victims to the topmost stage of a high pinnacle and then encircling the whole shaft in a sheet of flame, held them in a trap until one by one they fell a sacrifice on the fiery altar that raged beneath them while 30,000 people stood helplessly by.

The structure that burned yesterday afternoon was by comparison, one of the smallest buildings of the Fair. It was the cold storage warehouse and skating rink and was not the property of the Exposition. It was a concession and exhibit of the Hercules Iron Works and Ice and Refrigerating Machine Manufacturers. In addition to the skating rink, there were three 120 ton ice machines and 30 or 40 barrels of linseed oil. The oil no doubt greatly hastened the conflagration and that the fire was not communicated to the other World's Fair buildings was due to the favorable wind.

The scene of horror was witnessed by many thousands of people and strong men wept and women fainted as one life after another was sacrificed within full view of the multitude but beyond the reach of human aid. Within 30 minutes from the time the fire was generally observed, the great loss of life occurred.

At the first signal the firemen rushed up the huge shaft surrounding the smokestack, and when at the summit began preparations to fight the flames which had first appeared at this point.

Before the hose could be coupled a cry of horror from the crowd below caused the firemen to look down and the whole shaft below was found to be encircled in flame.

Instantly every man realized his danger but there were few to find an avenue of escape. One man suddenly grasped a rope or hose, and half sliding, half falling, reached the roof ninety feet below in a bruised and burned condition, but still alive.

By this time the crowd below became wild with excitement, and weeping women and frenzied men rushed hither and thither, wringing their hands in anguish over their inability to render aid.

Suddenly one of the firemen was seen preparing to jump and every eye was turned upward. He gave a quick, spasmodic leap and turned over and over half a dozen times before he struck the roof 90 feet below. To the spectators he seemed a minute falling this distance, and when the body struck the roof with a frightful crash and bounded four feet into the air, a groan of horror went up from the crowd. From this time the bodies rained from the steep but innocent steeple, but in nearly every instance breath and life had fled when the victim was picked up on the roof below. After the first wild leap, one man after another jumped in quick succession as the flames closed in below and the heat became more intense.

In nearly every instance the victim turned over and over again before he touched the roof and in nearly every instance the result of the leap for life was the same—death.

The very horror of death riveted every eye to the scene, and while men and women shouted hysterically and wept below, the guards were almost powerless to keep the crowd away from danger.

The spectacle of death became more terrible as minutes passed, and for the last man on the cupola was reserved the most dreadful fate of all.

After all his companions had leaped to apparent death and as the last man was hesitating, the whole shaft began to tremble violently. The lone fireman understood aright the ominous warning, and gave a quick, wild leap.

He was too late. At the very instant he sprang, the whole structure gave way, and this human being, quivering with life and wildly grasping for support in the anguish of despair, was seen to drop into the flame and fire and finally disappear entirely into the roaring furnace below.

His was a literal death by fire, for the flames caught him while his wits were still keen, his mind still active and all his senses alive to the terrible fate to which he was doomed.

As a firetrap the cold storage warehouse could not have been more perfectly constructed. The structure was two hundred and fifty feet long by one hundred and fifty feet wide, and was constructed entirely of wood covered over with staff.

The main body of the building was five stories high. In the centre of this rose the smokestack in the shape of a cupola to the top of which was almost 200 feet. The base of this cupola was about 30 feet square. About 80 feet from the base of this cupola there was a balcony from which another square tower arose culminating in the mouth of the smokestack where the fire was discovered. The interior of that tower and around the smokestack were the wooden beams and frame work on which the staff covering was laid.

It was at the top of this cupola that the fire was discovered. It is supposed that the frame work around the mouth of the huge chimney caught from a defect in the flue. At first it appeared to be an insignificant affair. But, knowing the inflammable nature of the structure, Fire Marshal Murphy, who had charge of the fire department on the grounds, sent in a call for all the companies to turn out.

With about 40 of his men he climbed the stationary ladders inside the tower to the balcony and from there ropes were lowered to haul up the hose. Only one hose, that of a chemical engine, had been hauled up when a rush of wind caused the flames to break out in an alarming manner about ten feet from the top of the cupola. So sudden and so furious was the outbreak and so terrible was the spectacle that for the moment the crowd stood there transfixed with horror. Strong men wrung their hands in a hysterical manner and scores of women fainted. All alike were powerless to aid the unfortunate men imprisoned on the balcony 150 feet from the ground.

All the ropes save one on the north side of the tower were burned away in an instant. The hose from the chemical engine withstood the heat, however, and springing forward John Davis caught hold of it and slid down to the main roof of the warehouse where he fainted away. His face and hands were terribly burned by the flames which enveloped his body as he came down. He will recover. Two of his fellow firemen attempted to follow him, but before they were half way down the hose gave way and they dropped into the seething mass of fire and were lost.

As the hose parted and the men sank out of sight in the fire the multitude below gave utterance to a groan of sickening horror. Another of the imprisoned men started down the rope on the north side of the tower and had almost reached the roof when it gave way and he fell on his head and was instantly killed.

There now remained, according to the counts of various spectators from 25 to 30 men on the tower. They were hopelessly beyond the reach of help. The longest ladder fell short of reaching them by full 30 feet. Death of the most awful kind was fast approaching. At this terrible moment Marshal Murphy's tall form and white helmet appeared in front of the men who were huddled together on the narrow balcony.

He appeared to be addressing his brave followers. What he said will probably never be known for he alone of all the men around him at that moment escaped alive, and his injuries are such that it is doubtful if he will ever recover consciousness.

As he ceased to speak one of the men crept around the burning balcony to the east and returned a moment later with a rope that had been left there in the excitement. It was hastily fastened to the railing around the balcony and thrown to the roof. The foremast man seized it and started to slide down but ere he was half way the flames rolled up and he was swallowed into the mouth of the awful volcano. Another tried it and met the same fate. One after another five of the men at this moment sprang from the balcony to the roof and were killed by the fall.

The rope was burned off about half way down and it hung apparently useless against a portion of the wall not yet destroyed.

Seeing his men jump to their death the heroic Marshal seized the rope and started down. A ladder had been raised but was almost 20 feet away from the end of the rope.

He dropped and caught on the end of the ladder, but received injuries which proved fatal.

A large quantity of linseed oil was stored on the top floor and when the tower fell it crashed through the roof to this inflammable fuel and then the flames rolled up high in the air.

Seeing that it was a hopeless task to attempt to save the building and as all who escaped alive had left the roof, the firemen now directed their efforts to keep the fire from spreading. The World's Fair stables just south of this big warehouse was burning and the fire had spread to roofs of several hotels across stony Isle avenue just outside the grounds.

With a good deal of effort the hotels were saved but the stables were burned to the ground. In less than two hours from the time the fire started the big cold storage warehouse was leveled to the ground, a smoking ruin.

It is doubtful if any of the bodies will ever be recovered, so furious and terrific was the heat. The building being of wood and added to this the barrels of oil made the fire one of the hottest the department has ever had to fight.

A complete and accurate list of the dead will be difficult to obtain, as many of the bodies were entirely destroyed, and not even the officers of the fire department will know who of their men are gone until after roll call to-day.

JOHNNY GRIFFIN KNOCKED OUT

The Californian Puts Him to Sleep in Just Four Rounds.

ROBY, Ind., July 11.—In the prize fight last night between Johnny Griffin, the "Braintree Lad," and Solly Smith, of California, the former was knocked out in the fourth round by a chance blow. The "mill" was witnessed by fully 7,000 people, and the enthusiasm was high.

Before the fight was commenced Jim Corbett had a little discussion with Parson Davies, Jackson's manager, the outcome of which was that Corbett and Peter Jackson were matched to fight to a finish for $10,000 a side. There was great excitement while talk over this match was being indulged in.

BAD CONVICTS REVOLT

Many of Them Make a Bold Break For Liberty.

KEEPERS MURDEROUSLY ATTACKED

The Ionia, Mich., Reformatory the Scene of a Bloody Battle—Three Convicts Killed and Several of the Prison Officials Dangerously Wounded.

DETROIT, July 11.—A special despatch from Ionia, Mich., says:

Fully 75 convicts at the House of Correction made a break for liberty yesterday afternoon. They were at work in the various shops. The first 10 or 15 left their work and started for the west wall.

The ringleader was convict William Smith, known as 803, a five-year man sent up from Detroit. Smith has lost time before, having made an attempt to escape a year ago last September, and he is a tough character.

Tinsmiths have been at work on shop No. 21 about 10 rods from the west wall repairing conductor pipes. Two long ladders were used and were standing against the building.

Smith started out and was followed by the others who were in the scheme. He quickly clasped the ladder standing against the west wall.

Warden Parcell had discovered that something was brewing over Sunday, and had doubled the guards yesterday morning. Teacher Courley was watching around in the vicinity of this building and when he saw Smith and the gang come out he fired a shot from his revolver into the ground and ordered them back. Smith urged them on, paying no attention to the order. The men on the wall and about the yard quickly assembled at this point and were ordered by Warden Parcell to stop the break. A general fusillade commenced and a hand-to-hand fight followed. The leaders were knocked down but the convicts replaced them, and Oscar Miller, an eight-year man, gained the top of the wall.

The guard shot at him and the ball went clear through his body and he dropped to the ground dead. In the meantime a terrible battle was going on below. Convict Smith struck at Deputy Warden Rowley with a hammer, but the latter dodged and escaped death. Rowley struck convict Charles F. Jones on the head and he dropped. He will doubtless die, as his head is terribly cut. William Yager, sent from Grand Rapids, was badly wounded and his recovery is doubtful. He is serving a 15 year sentence for manslaughter. Smith, another convict, brought into play a long billy made out of sheep skin, loaded with sand. This with three hammers, a large wrench and a round stone were afterwards taken from the leaders in the break. How they got them is a mystery.

Teacher Courley was struck on the head with the stone which was hurled at him. It grazed his skull but did not seriously injure him.

It was only by prompt action that the wholesale liberation of the convicts was averted. Hallmaster Parcell grabbed up the hot irons used by some local tinners and commenced prodding the convicts, who ran back.

Four convicts were injured. Jones has concussion of the brain, and Smith, the leader, was found to have a bad cut on the back of the head.

On seeing the first ten follow Smith out of the shop the rest followed until they were driven back.

Two Men Asphyxiated.

MAHANOY CITY, Pa., July 11.—Harry and Jacob Klein, both bachelors of middle age, living alone in a house in the central portion of town, were missed by their friends and neighbors since Saturday. Last evening, on breaking open their house, which was securely fastened on the inside, both men were found asphyxiated by gas from a stove. Both men were possessors of considerable property.

Ended His Life With Rat Poison.

CHICAGO, July 11.—Oswin Mayo vice president of the T. E. Wells Packing Co., suicided last evening with rat poison. It is supposed that he was temporarily insane. He was a member of the Board of Trade and his death was the third to occur in that body yesterday, a circumstance wholly unprecedented.

Tried to End Her Troubles.

PATERSON, N. J., July 11.—Miss Lizzie Blake, 18 years old, a domestic in the employ of the Rev. F. H. Stone, pastor of the Fourth Baptist Church, attempted suicide last evening by taking a dose of paris green. Family trouble was the cause of the attempt at self destruction.

Cut Down Their Employes' Pay.

TOLEDO, O., July 11.—The Milburn Wagon Company, whose works are the second largest in the world, Studebaker's alone surpassing them, has served notice on its eight hundred employes of a 20 per cent. reduction in wages. A large number of the men at once laid down their tools and walked out, and yesterday afternoon not over a score of them returned to work.

Both Are Charged With Arson.

WORCESTER, Mass., July 11.—Benjamin F. Leatned of Worcester, 19 years of age, was arrested in this city last evening on the charge of setting fire to the Eddy block at Webster, which was burned with over $21,000 loss July 4. Emory Lawrence, aged 27 years, of Webster, has also been arrested, charged with the same offense.

Summoned to Gray Gables.

NEW YORK, July 10.—Ex-Senator John J. Kiernan, of Brooklyn, left here on the the limited train for Boston last evening. It is stated that he has been summoned to Gray Gables by President Cleveland. Mr. Kiernan's application is now on file at Washington for the position of Naval Officer at this port.

NARROWLY ESCAPED LYNCHING

Murderer Bamburger Has a Close Shave for His Life.

MINNEAPOLIS, July 11.—A Cando, N. D., special to the Journal says:

Albert Bamburger, the young murderer who killed Ben Kreidler, his wife and four children on Friday, narrowly escaped lynching here last evening. He had been caught at De Loraine, Manitoba, a few miles from the border, and agreed to come back with Sheriff McCune, of Ramsey County, without extradition papers. The sheriff and his prisoner arrived here yesterday.

A mob of determined men were waiting for him with the fixed plan of hanging the murderer to the nearest telegraph pole.

But Sheriff McCune had been amply warned of the danger and was equally determined to get his prisoner through this (Towne) county, into Ramsey.

He chose a circuitous route and succeeded in eluding the mob.

It is a question, though, whether Bamburger is any safer in Ramsey county than he would have been here, as there is the wildest excitement over his bloody crime.

Dismissed the Bill With Costs.

BOSTON, July 11.—Judge Colt has dismissed with costs the bill in Equity brought by Levy Brothers of New York for an injunction to enjoin Waitt & Bond of this city from using the word, "Blackstone," in selling cigars. The court holds that the complainants failed to prove that they originated and first adopted the word "Blackstone" as a trade mark.

Stock Broker Davidson Goes to the Wall.

PHILADELPHIA, July 11.—The failure of A. Y. Davidson, stock broker, trading as A. Y. Davidson & Co., was announced on the Stock Exchange yesterday afternoon. The announcement had no effect on the market.

NO SILVER PURCHASED.

The Treasury Department Arrayed Against the Brokers.

Only 71 1-2 Cents Per Ounce Offered by the Government for the White Metal. The Offer Not Accepted.

WASHINGTON, July 11.—The Treasury department yesterday again arrayed itself firmly against the silver brokers. It was the customary day for making the proportional purchase of silver, on the July account, and 488,000 ounces were offered. The prices asked ranged from 71 to 75 cents.

They were regarded as too high by Acting Director Preston, who made a counter proposition offering 71 1-2 cents per ounce.

That is one half cent less than the department paid for its silver last week, and apparently the silver men are reluctant to come to these terms, for up to the close of office hours no acceptances were received.

NEW POSTMASTERS APPOINTED

HAD FAIRLY GOOD LUCK

The President Able to Go Fishing Again.

HE TAKES A SAIL DOWN THE BAY

No Further Grounds for Anxiety as to the State of His Health—The Fact That He Went Fishing Better Evidence That He Has Recovered Than the Issuing of Doctors Bulletins.

BUZZARD'S BAY, July 11.—All grounds for anxiety as to President Cleveland's health were dissipated yesterday. He went fishing. Better information as to his condition than doctors bulletins and the assurances of the few intimate friends who have seen the President since his isolation at Gray Gables, can be gathered from his action yesterday in routing his old enemy rheumatism and going out for a day's sport on the water. The day was a perfect one, light fleecy clouds tempered the intensity of the sun's rays during the middle of the day and a good sailing breeze held all the time the party was out.

Mr. Cleveland's yacht Ruth, Capt. Bradford Wright, was put in order for the sail in the morning. Like the rest of Uncle Sam's navy, the Ruth is painted white over all, and like its namesake, baby Ruth, it has a pert clipper look entirely different from other boats of its size and rig. It is only about 25 feet long. It is cat-rigged that is, it has one sail. It is decked over forward, but its cabin will not afford standing room. It is broad of beam and has plenty of room aft for fishing. In place of the blunt bow of the ordinary cat-boat, it has a flared up prow. This gives it a buoyant appearance forward. The start was made at 11:30 a. m. Mr. Cleveland walked down from the cottage to the wharf without even the assistance of a cane. The party did not return until late in the afternoon. The President said he had fairly good luck and caught lots of fish.

LORD SALISBURY'S OPINIONS

He Makes Public His Opposition to Irish Home Rule.

LONDON, July 11.—The Pall Mall Gazette, which with its recent chance of ownership changed its politics, now supporting the Conservative party, is publishing a series of articles from the pen of Lord Salisbury, the Right Hon. A. J. Balfour, Professor Lecky and other well-known opponents of Irish home rule. Last night it printed an article written by Lord Salisbury, in which the former Prime Minister makes out a case against home rule from an intercolonial point of view.

Lord Salisbury says he sees two dangers, the first and most sensible of which is the blow that will be given to India by the granting of home rule to Ireland. India, he declares, is held by the justice of England's rule, though the last resort is always force.

The taste for surrender is contagious. It depends upon the answer given to Ireland what shall be given in response to the similar demand which is sure to be made by India.

The second point of danger is the event of a war between Great Britain and another power. An unfriendly executive in Ireland could, in the event of war, cause untold distress by allowing an enemy to procure coal and provisions in Irish ports and by allowing the coasts to be used as rendezvous for privateers.

In support of this contention Lord Salisbury quotes at considerable length from the work of Captain Mahan, of the United States Navy, on the influence of the sea power of the French during the revolution. Though England was "Mistress of the Seas," privateers had captured an immense number of British merchantmen.

In conclusion Lord Salisbury says he believes that traditional hatred will impel the Irish to fully use against England any advantage they may secure.

THE INSURRECTION AT BAGE.

The Railway Cut and Rebels Invade the City of Rio Grande.

NEW YORK, July 11.—A special despatch from Rio Janeiro says: "The insurrection in Rio Grande do Sul has broken out again at Bage. The railway has been cut and the City of Rio Grande has been invaded by the rebels. Gen. Sarraiva, the insurgent leader, is marshalling his forces at Pelotas.

The steamer Jupiter has been seized by the insurgents. A hundred armed passengers, led by the insurgent Admiral Wandenkolk, boarded the Jupiter at Buenos, and when out at sea overpowered the crew and took the vessel into Rio Grande.

The American Catarrh Cure

Is the result of twenty-six years' study and treatment of the disease. One bottle convinces the most skeptical. It is always ready for use, needing neither douche nor atomizer. It restores the hearing, cures the hawking cough and expectorating, removes the headache and nose bleeding, increases the appetite, produces sound sleep, invigorates the whole system and increases the vitality. Prepared only by W. B. Jones, M. D., No. 1336 South Eighth street, Philadelphia. For sale by J. W. Randolph, 21 West Front street. Price $1.

WHEN THE LIGHTS WERE OUT.

Blessings Appreciated When They Are Taken Away.

The intense darkness of Saturday night, caused by the storm's extinction of the electric light, was very inconvenient to those obliged to stumble about the streets of the unlighted sections. Many were very suspicious of footpads. John W. Murray, jr., ran into a man in the blackness, and involuntarily grabbed him. The man evidently thought he was a robber, for he gave a shrill yell and went tearing down the street as fast as his legs could carry him.

R. J. Shaw was going homeward when he was joined by a big burly fellow who walked beside him ostensibly looking for Richmond street but in the doctor's mind watching a chance to waylay him. Mr. Shaw was very glad to reach his own front door without molestation, and dodged in leaving his unwelcome companion standing there somewhat bewildered.

Miss Percy Emmons, of Plainfield, is the guest of Miss Hester Holmes, of Livingston avenue, New Brunswick.

Miss Lottie M. Smith, formerly chief operator in the central telephone office, has gone to visit friends at Morristown.

John M. Schorb and E. C. Berckman will sail for Hamburg, Germany, Thursday. They will sail on steamer Augusta Victoria.

Mr. and Mrs. Carson, of the "Hands Across the Sea" company, spent Sunday with stage manager W. B. Mattox, of Music Hall.

A young daughter of Philip Schrunk, of Halsey street, died this morning. The mother of the child died at Lutheran, L. I., about two weeks ago.

To Mrs. Bolsterli, who was such a valuable aid in nursing Wm. L. Force through his fatal illness, the bereaved family express their most heartfelt gratitude.

The annual reunion of the 35th Veterans' Association of New Jersey will be held at Asbury Park on the 20th inst. Two of the members, W. H. Ludlow and H. C. Drake, will go from this city.

Harry C. Skiff, formerly agent for the United States Express company here, is now a night messenger on the train arriving in this city at 1:17 from New York. His run is from New York to Philadelphia.

The Warren chapel Sunday-school classes of young misses taught by Miss Sadie Randolph and Mrs. E. R. Taylor are to-day enjoying picnic life in the Mair woods near the mountains. They are a very happy gathering.

T. J. Gillies, of Madison avenue, who has been confined to the house by illness for some time, is gradually growing weaker, and his death may occur at any time. Some of his children from New York, Brooklyn and Philadelphia are expected to-day.

Mrs. Sarah Scofield, a sister of Mrs. Geo. L. VanEmburgh of East Front street, died at her home in Morristown, Sunday evening, after a lingering illness. Her funeral services will be held in the Parsippany Presbyterian church to-morrow afternoon.

The funeral of the late Stewart Milligan, who died Thursday, took place from the house, West Fourth street, Sunday at 2 p. m. The Rev. Dr. D. J. Yerkes officiated. The members of the Masons' and Bricklayers' union were present in a body, and accompanied the remains to Hillside Cemetery.

John P. Munn, O. G. Waring, Howard Huntington and Irving West have returned from a two weeks' vacation spent at Mrs. Munn's place at Otsego Lake, N. Y. Miss Florence Huntington, Miss Kittie Stewart, Miss Jessamy Harte, and Miss Maude VanBoskerck returned last week from a visit to the same place.

A reception was given last evening to Mr. and Mrs. W. F. Richards, at the home of Mrs. Richards's sister, Miss Kate Garey, West Front street. The evening was pleasantly passed in a social way. Those present included Miss Mary Thorn, Miss Annie Kyle, Miss Smith, Miss Annie Angerbauer, Miss Kate Garey, James Flack, Mr. and Mrs. Richards will soon begin housekeeping on North Front street.

The New Brunswick Home News says: "The friends of that most estimable lady, Mrs. Schenflin, of Dunellen, will be pleased to learn that she has almost entirely recovered from her recent serious illness. The beautiful home of the family at Dunellen has been for a long time unusually quiet. It is usually a sort of social center, as Mr. and Mrs. Schenflin's hospitality is known and appreciated all through this section of New Jersey."

The children's health must not be neglected. Cold in the head causes catarrh. Ely's Cream Balm cures at once. It is perfectly safe and is easily applied into the nostrils. The worst cases yielding to it. Price 50c.

One of my children had a very bad discharge from her nose. Two physicians prescribed, but without benefit. We tried Ely's Cream Balm, and much to our surprise, there was a marked improvement. We continued using the Balm and in a short time the discharge was cured.—O. A. Cary, Corning, N. Y.

A LIVELY EVENING.

Two Colored Pugilists, a Dying Woman, a Wife Beater and a Runaway Horse, Cause Varied States of Excitement About Town Just After Sundown.

Last evening was an eventful one in town. Early in the evening at the North avenue station, two colored pugilists came near spoiling one another's face. But one was afraid and the other did n't dare.

While this was going on outside, there was a women in the private apartment of the station, groaning at a great rate, and saying she was going to die.

A PRESS reporter wended his way from the station to Front street where he found a large crowd of people collected, and upon inquiry discovered that Peter Brown, of High street, North Plainfield, had been creating a disturbance with his wife and children, using profane language and attempting to beat the woman. The police took care of him.

At the same time L. M. French was preparing to take a carriage ride. After bringing the horse and wagon out of the barn he went back to fasten the door. The horse took advantage of the situation and started off at a lively trot. When he reached Somerset street he was going so fast that it was impossible to stop him. Turning into Craig place he fell two or three times and was thus finally captured. There was no damage to either horse or wagon.

BASE-BALL BABBLE.

Jack Martin, formerly of the Crescents, has been secured to cover third base permanently in Heckman's place. Martin has been playing good ball for the New York Athletics, and was recommended to Providence by Leo Smith.

Gentle Willie Murphy will hereafter play in one of the outfield positions for the Crescents. If Murphy takes good care of himself he will prove a valuable man, and will be respected by the patrons of the game.

While everyone is sorry that "Chic" Hofford has severed his connection with the Crescents, they are glad that he will be succeeded by a good man. Leo Smith will take his place as captain, and his vast experience should be valuable to the young players.

Pitcher Wilson, of Jersey City, who has been playing with the Manhattan Athletic club, has requested a trial, and will pitch for the Crescents at Middletown on Thursday. This is hardly a fair trial as it is a settled fact that it is hard to beat the umpire at that place.

DIVORCED MRS. SANDFORD.

Frederick of Plainfield Is Legally Separated at Last.

After fighting in the cour for a year and a half, Frederick Sandford, formerly of this city, has won his suit for divorce against his former wife, Ella A. Sandford. He began the suit through Craig A. Marsh as counsel, and was met with a stubborn resistance on every point. Counsel when applied to said that he preferred not to go into details further than to say that despite the opposition of eminent counsel the court vindicated Mr. Sandford, and granted the prayer of his petition for divorce.

Would Not Let Her Teach Prayers.

Rudolph Hering, the engineer recently employed by this city to supervise the construction of the water-works, is reported by the New York Tribune as follows:

A divorce was granted at Sioux Falls, South Dakoto, on July 7, to Rudolph Hering, a civil engineer and sewerage expert, of 277 Pearl street, New York, from Fannie Field Hering, who became insane after the action was begun, and is now a patient in the Butler Hospital for the Insane at Providence, R.I. Hering charged his wife with desertion, ans she made a counter charge of cruel treatment, alleging that he would not permit her to teach her children simple prayers. A Tribune reporter called at Mr. Hering's office yesterday, and was informed that Mr. Hering was in Chicago, and that no person here had any information on the subject.

A Testimonial to "Chic".

At the City Hotel, last evening, Joseph Hofford was presented by his friends with an envelope containing a nice sum of money. He very feelingly accepted, but said if his friends would not be offended he would much prefer that they keep the amount and purchase for him some little gift that he might keep as a souvenir of Plainfield. This is to be done in public on the Crescent grounds a week from Saturday.

Freze Lee Heirs Getting Their Portion.

According to the decision of the courts, a few days ago, Meeker Hetfield, one of the heirs of the Freze Lee estate, is entitled to one-half of the 92-feet frontage of the property on the south side of East Front street between Park and Watchung avenues. By this division Hetfield is entitled to the property now occupied by George Moore and it also takes off some five feet of the building now occupied by John Sayers. The other heirs will divide the unimproved property on the opposite side of the street.

His First Night in Jail.

John Hulett was found last night prostrate with intoxication at the corner of Central avenue and Front street. He passed the night in the station house, and as it was his first offence the judge suspended sentence this morning.

Mrs. Treacy's Tongue Brings Trouble.

Mrs. James Treacy, known to fame as a first-class fighter, was arrested yesterday on complaint of James Donohue for calling improper names. She was fined $3 in the city court this morning.

Smashed Things and Ran Away.

A milkman ran his cart into another vehicle on Park avenue near Front street this morning. He broke the shaft of his own wagon, and disappeared before anyone could discover who he was.

THE INVENTOR A PLAINFIELDER.

AND HIS INVENTION JUST WHAT THIS TOWN NEEDS.

Seymour G. Smith and His Wonderful Crematory—It Disposes of Garbage Without Odor or Smoke, and Converts Disease Germs Into Harmless Ashes.

Seymour G. Smith, ex-president of the Plainfield common council, is to be congratulated for solving the great problem of how to dispose of garbage and disease-breeding refuse matter without danger to health. Millions of dollars have been spent all over the world, in trying to devise some method to accomplish the result he alone has achieved.

It now appears that Mr. Smith, after eight years of experimenting, at the expense of over $300,000, has invented just what every city or large town requires—a crematory that can convert into harmless substance the refuse matter that threatens the health of every citizen who breathes its dangerous gases.

Watering places on the shores of Long Island and New Jersey have for years been annoyed by garbage, dead animals and other filth being washed on their beaches, coming from the millions of loads towed to sea from New York city. All of this can now be avoided at a very small expense by the adoption and use of Mr. Smith's Vivarttas odorless system of cremation. If it is as stated, that there are no odors coming from the furnace of this system, while burning, it is positive proof that the dangerous gases are all consumed inside of the retort, which is the one and only thing required to make such cremation a success.

In Scranton, where Mr. Smith's system has been adopted and has become popular, the papers speak of it as follows:

(From The Scranton Tribune.)

THE CREMATOR TEST.

Prominent City Officials Delighted with Its Work.

NO BAD ODORS ARE DISCOVERED.

The Stack Will Be Raised Twenty-five Feet and the Seventh Ward Will Be Satisfied—All Kinds of Garbage and a Couple of Dead Animals Incinerated.

The Vivarttas crematory recently erected in this city was thoroughly examined yesterday afternoon by members of the board of health and various city officials and citizens. The examination and test was set down for 2 o'clock and by that time there were upward of 100 persons on the grounds. Among the prominent ones were President Rippie, Secretary Edgar, Dr. Paine, Dr. Bently and Mr. Kelly of the board of health, Health Officers Allen and Burke, Captain Moir, chairman common council; Director Gibbons of the poor board, School Controller Jennings, John B. Farr and many others.

Gathered near the door and inside the shed were about fifty barrels of garbage of all kinds and description. The drying cells of the furnace were charged to their utmost capacity with an assortment of stuff that would never burn with an ordinary fire. They dumped in a couple barrels of cabbage, also watermelons and other decayed vegetables, refuse from the numerous markets scattered throughout the city. This was followed by mixed garbage containing about twenty-five per cent of water, and also a couple of dogs. An hour later everything was taken out in a couple of wheelbarrow loads in dry ashes.

NO ODORS TO BE FOUND.

During the process of incineration there were no odors wafted on the air as could be distinguished, and the atmosphere which permeated the building was as pure as that which nature has given us. Everybody pronounced it a success, and even those who have petitioned councils against it acknowledged that there were no disagreeable odors connected with it. The chief complaint of the petitioners is that the smoke stack is not high enough. This will be remedied immediately to satisfy their scruples. Mr. Smith, the representative of the Vivarttas Crematory company, claims that it will do no good, but at the same time says it will do no harm, and if it will satisfy those who have been kicking that he would put it up. Another complaint that reached the board of health was that, although the odors could not be distinguished during the day time that it was impossible to sleep at night owing to the offensive smell with which the air is laden. This is peculiar. At 7 o'clock every morning the fires are started and the furnace begins its work. At 6 o'clock everything is shut down and it is not again put in operation until the following day. Therefore it does not stand to reason that these odors which prevent sleep come from the crematory.

RUNNING EXPENSES SMALL.

One of the things which the company guaranteed was that it would not consume over one ton of coal per day. In this respect they have been agreeably surprised. The crematory has been running just one month Saturday, and during that time it has consumed just nine tons of coal. In this time 5,000 barrels of garbage have been consumed. This easily proves that the running expense will not be as great as was expected. Another feature is that the ashes removed from the furnace will make a good fertilizer, and when sifted will be worth from $10 to $12 per ton. This will also cut down the expenses of running the crematory, and in a few years it will be paying for itself. The maximum capacity of the furnace is 180 cubic yards per day, and the minimum is 125 yards. To do this it takes a half a ton of coal at present, but part of this expense will be done away with as soon as the new boiler is placed in position. The burning of the garbage then will generate the steam in the boiler and create the forced draft produced by a blower.

HOW IT WORKS.

The secret of the entire machine is explained by their company's representative, as lying in the mixing of oxygen and the gases and passing them over the various fires. This is the second one ever erected by them and they are particularly delighted with its unqualified success.

The furnace is built of pressed brick and contains five drying cells. The garbage is dumped into the drying cells and allowed to remain there until perfectly dry, it is then dropped on the hearth below where cross fires soon ignite and consume it. It gradually drops into the ash receiver below and is wheeled out. Each of the cells will hold a cubic yard or about a ton of garbage, with the exception of one which was built twice as large as the others so that the body of a horse or cow could be received. The drying cells are covered with soapstone plates which fit over the apertures very tightly and allow no smoke nor odors to arise this way. No night soil has been burned as yet, owing to a delay in having a large chute made to convey it from the barrels to the mouth of the drying cells.

The crematory is a success and will benefit the city in many ways.

ERECT ONE IN HYDE PARK.

(From the Scranton Courier-Progress.)

The success of the crematory located near Stowers' packing house is best shown by the fact that barrels upon barrels of offensive stuff are quickly burned without an offensive odor being perceptible to those in and around the structure at the time of operation. This was the case on Thursday when tests were made of the efficiency of the crematory, which can consume over 150 cart loads of anything destructible in a working day of ten hours. In June 4,500 barrels of garbage were burned and what is left in the way of ashes, etc., covers a very small space.

The benefit derived from this crematory is the difference in purity that would emanate from these 4,500 barrels of decayed garbage lying about in barrels, scattered in alleys and yards, or along the river, sending forth their offensive odors and disease-breeding germs, and that amount of stuff burned down to a comparative handful of ashes. When the virtues of a crematory are better known one of these health protectors will not be sufficient for this city. There should be three more, one in Hyde Park, one on the South Side and another in Providence. The quantity of disease-breeding material that four crematories can destroy would surprise us, and there is nearly enough for this number to destroy in any city the size of Scranton. After viewing the work of a crematory and what has been consumed by it, it is a matter of wonder that humanity is as long-lived as it is considering the putrid matter that sends its noxious vapors into the atmosphere we breathe.

(From The Scranton Times.)

THERE WAS NO SMELL,

BUT STILL THE PEOPLE OF THE SEVENTH COMPLAIN.

The Investigating Committee at the Crematory Yesterday — They Are Satisfied That It Is All Right and Will So Report.

On an invitation extended by the board of health a large crowd gathered at the crematory yesterday afternoon to inspect it. Every member of the board of health was present with the exception of Mr. H. J. Zeigler. Among others present were the Hon. John R. Farr, Dr. Gates, John Gibbons, C. F. Mattes, president Moir of the common council, members of the sanitary committee of the councils and many of the protesting property holders of the Seventh Ward.

The first test made of the crematory in the afternoon for the benefit of the spectators was the consumption of fifty-seven barrels of ordinary garbage in twenty minutes. The next test was the consumption of twenty-four barrels of garbage, twenty-four kegs of fish and one dog in thirty minutes. During all this time little or no smell could be found around the premises, with the exception when the garbage was being deposited in the kilns.

Nevertheless some of the property holders of the Seventh ward protested against the crematory bitterly and crowds of three and four stood here and there discussing what they termed a nuisance which must be abated. They admitted, however, that no bad odors could be found yesterday afternoon, but claimed the stench is always worst in the evenings.

In an interview with President Moir of the common council, he said he thought the crematory was a success, as did also the members of the board of health and other representative citizens present. One thing is certain though that many improvements can yet be made about the crematory and no doubt will be made by the board of health as soon as convenient. The citizens of the Seventh ward want the stack raised higher thinking it will have a tendency to carry off the foul odors better, which they claim issue from it. This matter will probably be discussed at the special meeting of the board of health this evening and if deemed advisable the stack will be raised to the height they desire.

The crematory has been in operation a little over a month now and during that time something in the neighborhood of 5,000 cubic yards of garbage has been consumed, which required nine tons of coal. The maximum of the consumption of garbage in the crematory is 180 cubic yards in ten hours and the minimum, 125 cubic yards in ten hours.

(From The Scranton Republican.)

THE CREMATORY INSPECTED.

TWO POLITICAL PARTIES IN THE SEVENTH CLASH OVER IT.

Upon invitation of the Vivarttas Crematory Company to the Board of Health, members of councils, representatives of the press and citizens generally to visit and inspect the plant the company has erected in the Seventh ward of the city, many people journeyed in that direction yesterday afternoon.

The officials and people of prominence present were: Colonel Ripple, Drs. Paine and Bentley and M. J. Kelly of the Board of Health; Dr. Allen and Captain Burke, Secretary Edgar, Captain Moir, D. W. Humphrey and many Seventh ward citizens. "Convince a man against his will and he is of the same opinion still." The above quotation seems to apply exactly to the kicking element of the Seventh ward. They admit that there is no offensive smell but persist that the stack should be at least twenty-five feet higher. If this change were made they would be satisfied and consider themselves victorious from a political standpoint.

From a talk yesterday with a number of the residents it would appear that the two political factions in the Seventh ward are at the bottom of the war against the crematory, and the height of the stack will be the making or the breaking of the successful or defeated party.

The meeting at the crematory yesterday only resulted in argument. All the garbage brought was taken care of and consumed in very short time, and it included three dogs, one barrel of watermelons, about a dozen kegs of herring and many barrels of vegetables and refuse.

The manner of delivering garbage in old leaky barrels and unloading the filth on the front platform attracts any amount of flies and the odor is not very pleasant. This fact is recognized by Mr. Smith, and will be remedied as soon as possible, the matter being in the hands of the health authorities. Mr. Smith cannot hurry them along or make any provision against the odor or flies. Inside the crematory everything appears to work satisfactory and if the crematory is not successful the defects must be pretty well covered up.

Robbed Again of $40.

The South Plainfield hotel was entered and robbed of about $40 worth of goods, Monday night. This is the second time the place has been broken into and robbed within the past few weeks.

Shiloh's Cough Cure.

This is beyond question the most successful Cough Medicine we have eversold; a few doses invariably cure the worst cases of Cough, Croup and Bronchitis, while its wonderful success in the cure of Consumption is without a parallel in the history of medicine. Since its first discovery it has been sold on a guarantee, a test which no other medicine can stand. If you have a cough we earnestly ask you to try it. Price, 10c. and $1. If your lungs are sore, chest, or back lame, use Shiloh's Porous Plaster. Sold by A. D. Mallinson, 65 North Avenue, opposite railroad station. 5-16-7

Read and Reflect.

The great mass of mankind lose their health through inattention to catarrh of the head and throat. This insidious disease was considered incurable until the discovery of the American Catarrh Cure. For sale by L. W. Randolph, 21 West front street. Price $1.00.

BENEFACTION ABUSED.

The Friends of Jones Made Up His Fine, Which He Squandered.

Sheridan Jones, who was arrested for aiding one of the Hooper brothers to escape from the gambling house on Front street, Saturday night, during the raid, asked James O'Neil to get the money together to pay his fine. Jones himself had $3, which he gave to O'Neil, and some of his friends contributed some more money amounting to $6, so $16 more was necessary to make up the fine. Jones sent O'Neil to his girl, who is employed by a family on Putnam avenue, for assistance. She appealed to her mistress, and received a check for the $16, which O'Neil took. He succeeded in getting the check cashed, and when he turned up at last he had spent all of the $25 except $10.50, so Jones will rest in jail for a while longer.

Faithful to the End.

A touching incident in the death of Wm. L. Force was the devotion shown by his faithful old employe, Charles S. Cook, who had served him so well for a quarter of a century. Cook was one of the most frequent visitors at the sick man's bedside, and Saturday took his post at the head of the sufferer's bed and cooled his fevered face by fanning him for hours at a time. Cook scarcely left the place for a moment, till the end came.

A BELGIAN STEAMSHIP SEIZED

The Leibnitz Charged With Infraction of the Customs Laws.

NEW YORK, July 11.—The Belgian steamship Leibnitz, which arrived from Santos July 3, and has been detained at Quarantine since owing to the fact that there had been two deaths from fever among the crew during the voyage, was seized by order of Collector Hendricks late yesterday afternoon for an alleged infraction of the customs laws.

When the steamer arrived here Health Officer Jenkins decided not to allow her to come up to her dock. He released the passengers after disinfecting their baggage.

Several days ago the Leibnitz began to discharge her cargo into lighters at Quarantine. As her permit, which was taken out the day the vessel arrived here, only allowed her to discharge at the dock, it is claimed she has violated the customs regulations.

The Leibnitz belongs to the Lamport and Holt line, and Captain Graham is the master of the vessel.

ABRAHAMS AND BENOIT RELEASED

Their Personal Recognizance Affords Them Temporary Liberty.

PITTSFIELD, Mass., July 11.—Charles Abrahams and Joseph Benoit of North Adams, who have been in jail a year charged with murder, were brought before Judge Dewey in the Civil Term yesterday afternoon, and released upon their personal recognizance in $600 each.

This was done under arrangement of their counsel with District Attorney Gardner and Attorney General Pillsbury.

Abrahams was charged with murdering his wife by saturating her clothing with kerosene oil and then setting fire to it.

Benoit was alleged to have been an accessory.

AND MUM WAS THE WORD

Deaf Mutes Warmly Welcomed Harris and Maginn.

The Visitors Quickly Explain in Their Sign Language the Object of Their Visit to This Country.

NEW YORK, July 11.—The deaf mutes of this city and representatives from several other cities gave a silent though hearty welcome last night at St. Ann's Church, to W. Eccles Harris and Francis Maginn, of Belfast Ireland, who arrived in this country on Sunday evening, en route to the conference of deaf and dumb citizens to be held soon in Chicago. The two delegates represent a school and mission in Belfast.

The visitors explained, in their wonderful sign language, the objects of their visit. Replies were made by Rev. T. M. Koehler, Rev. John Chamberlain, Thomas Gallaudet, rector emeritus, and Rev. Dr. Kraus, rector of the church.

As an incident of the trip, the delegates will present everywhere a petition, to be signed by deaf people in America, which will be forwarded to Ambassador Bayard for presentation to Queen Victoria.

The petition says:

"We humbly pray Your Majesty graciously to exercise your imperial influence and authority to establish within your Empire of India a system of education which will afford to the deaf and dumb inhabitants of those vast lands those advantages of education which we gratefully enjoy."

His Personal Experience.

Hon. James W. Husted, while serving his sixth term as Speaker of the Assembly of the State of New York, writes:

"STATE OF N. Y., ASSEMBLY CHAMBER, ALBANY, Jan. 16, 1890.

I desire once more to bear my testimony to the value of ALLCOCK'S POROUS PLASTERS. I have used them for twenty-five years past, and can conscientiously commend them as the best external remedy that I have known. Years ago, when thrown from a carriage and seriously injured, I gave them a thorough trial. In a very short time the pain that I was suffering disappeared, and within a week I was entirely relieved. On another occasion, when suffering from a severe cough, which threatened pulmonary difficulties, which I was recommended to go to Florida to relieve, I determined to test the plasters again. I applied them to my chest and between the shoulder blades, and in less than a fortnight was entirely cured. On still another occasion when suffering from an attack of rheumatism in the shoulder to such an extent that I could scarcely raise my arm, I again resorted to the plasters, and within a very few days the rheumatism entirely disappeared. I have them constantly by me, whether at home or abroad. My family as well as myself have found them to be a sovereign remedy, both for external and internal troubles. I never had but one kidney difficulty in my life, and the application of the plasters cured me in a week. I desire, as I said before, to bear my testimony in a public way to their efficacy, and I know of no better way of doing it than by giving you my personal experience."

Cause for Discharge.

Judge (severely)—Horsewhipping is the only suitable punishment for you and your kind. The idea of a man of your size beating a poor, weak woman like that!

Prisoner—But, your honor, she keeps irritating and irritating me all the time.

Judge—How does she irritate you?

Prisoner—Why, she keeps saying: "Hit me! beat me! Just hit me once, and I'll have you hauled up before that baldheaded old reprobate of a judge, and see what he'll do with you!"

Judge (choking) — Discharged! — Puck.

A Philosopher Born.

An Indiana maiden, 4 years old, was driving along a prairie road with her father and a 6-year-old brother. The brother, who is of an anxious turn of mind, was in great distress at the sight of an ox that was calmly devouring a large pile of seed potatoes in the corner of a field. "O, papa, stop," he said. "We ought to tell the people in the house." "Do sit still, Buddy," put in his philosophic sister. "It 'an't we ox, nor we potatoes."—Chicago Tribune.

An Unjust Suspicion.

A Texas gentleman went out fishing one day. He had a nice lunch fixed up, but upon arriving at the fishing place he discovered that he had lost it, so he retraced his steps until he met a large satisfied-looking negro, who was seated by the roadside under a tree picking his teeth.

"Did you pick up anything in the road?" asked the fisherman.

Why He Was There.

The prisoner before the police court bar had been there before many a time.

"I'd like to know," said the judge, "why you get here so often?"

"It's the only place in town where I can get credit, your honor," was the ambiguous reply.

"Well, you haven't much credit here, I can tell you."

"May be so, your honor, but just the same I'm always charged with something when I come." And the court gave him ten days extra.—Detroit Free Press.

MINISTER TO HOLLAND.

William E. Quinby, of Detroit, Appointed by the President.

President Cleveland has appointed William E. Quinby, of Detroit, Mich., to be envoy extraordinary and minister plenipotentiary of the United States to the Netherlands. Mr. Quinby is a prominent figure in his state, and his appointment met with unqualified approval from his fellow democrats and friends throughout Michigan. Telegrams from all parts of the state were sent to the president as soon as the selection was made public, and Mr.

WILLIAM E. QUINBY.

Quinby was also the recipient of general congratulations from prominent men who recognized his fitness. Mr. Quinby is a man of about sixty years of age, and has never held any public office. His time and energies have been devoted to the Detroit Free Press, of which he is the principal owner and editor-in-chief. He has been connected with that paper for nearly twenty-five years, and instrumental in raising it to its present high position. Mr. Quinby is a married man and has six children. Two of his sons, who hold editorial positions on the Free Press, will represent him during his absence abroad.

Living Over a Volcano.

China is populated so thickly that hundreds of thousands of people live all the year round in house-boats. Japan is not so over-crowded as China, but it is populated so thickly that about 90,000 persons live in the crater of Aso San, a volcano about thirty miles distant from the city of Kumamoto. "Think," says a writer in the Chicago Times, "of walking for miles among fertile farms and prosperous villages, peering into schoolhouse windows and sacred shrines, all within the shell of an old-time crater, whose walls rise 800 feet all about you. It gives one a queer feeling. Hot springs abound everywhere. In one place I saw the brick-red hot water utilized to turn a rice mill. The inner crater is nearly half a mile in diameter, and a steady column of roaring steam pours out of it. The last serious eruption was in 1884, when immense quantities of black ashes and dust were ejected and carried by the wind as far as Kumamoto, where for three days it was so dark that artificial light had to be used."

THE NEW ARMY RIFLE.

American Inventors Fail to Produce a Satisfactory Gun.

The Krag-Jorgensen Magazine Model Adopted After Long Delay—Disappointment in Army Circles—The Weapon Described.

The decision to arm the soldiers of the United States with magazine rifles of the Krag-Jorgensen type is one of considerable importance. It declares in effect, says the Chicago Tribune, that American inventors have not yet made a magazine rifle which can compare with this model of foreign skill. Awaiting only the final approval of the secretary of war, it will settle at last a controversy which has been raging for more than two years in military circles. Under the provisions of an act of congress passed in February last the sum of $400,000 will be spent in the manufacture of these rifles in the national armories, the royalty, of course, going to the foreign inventors. In the exhibit of the war department at Chicago are models of rifles in every stage of development, from the first invented in China, hundreds of years ago, to this same Krag-Jorgensen gun, which is placed at the top of the list as the highest type of modern magazine rifles.

Early in 1891 a special board of army officers was appointed by the war department to investigate and examine models of magazine rifles, and report as to which one seemed best suited to the needs of the United States army. Magazine rifles of every prominent type were submitted to the board for its examination, and its report after two years' work was in favor of the Krag-Jorgensen gun. American inventors and makers of firearms were, however, not satisfied. They argued that it would be only patriotic to buy the arms for the national army of home manufacturers, and they succeeded in passing through congress the following bill, which was approved February 27, 1893:

For manufacture of arms at the national armories, $400,000, provided, that no part of this appropriation shall be expended for the manufacture of magazine rifles of foreign invention until such magazine rifles of American invention as may be presented for test to the war department within the next thirty days shall have been tested by a board of officers to be selected by the secretary of war, which board shall report to the board of ordnance and fortification on or before July 1, 1893. If the decision of said board of officers shall be in favor of any American invention and shall also receive the approval of the board of ordnance and fortification and the secretary of war, then this appropriation, or such part thereof as the secretary may direct, shall be expended in the manufacture of such American arm; provided further that if no such American invention shall be recommended by said board or receive the approval of the secretary of war, this appropriation shall be applicable to the manufacture of magazine arms recommended for trial by the board recently in session and approved by the secretary of war.

The Krag-Jorgensen gun that was accepted was made especially for trial by the American board, and is an improvement over the gun of that name adopted by Norway and Denmark. It is therefore considered that in the new rifle the American army will have the best gun in the world, and will consequently have an advantage in an engagement with the land forces of any foreign power. The magazine is of the fixed type, is placed horizontally below and to the left of the receiver. It holds five cartridges, which are loaded from the right hand. Closing the cover brings the magazine spring in bearing against the cartridges, which are pushed around under the receiver until they enter it in succession through a cut at its left-hand upper surface. A cut-off permits use as a single loader, and the light metal charges for loading the magazine enable it to be replenished quickly. The gun weighs nine pounds eight ounces and is thirty caliber. The barrel is surrounded by an outer metal casing that it may be handled during rapid firing, and has a knife bayonet attached to this casing by an ingenious clasp.

A Washington dispatch says: In army circles the failure of American inventors to present an acceptable gun to the army is deeply regreted. Every facility has been afforded them. Their complaints have been heard, modifications have been made in the original plans, fresh tests have been given, but the superiority of American inventors has not been demonstrated. While this is regretted from a national point of view, nevertheless the army could not afford to arm itself with an inferior gun merely as a matter of patriotism. The Krag-Jorgensen small arm has shown its superiority in the view of the most competent experts, and there was nothing to do but select it.

A Lengthy Operation.

It does not look reasonable that six to twelve months should be needed to make a billiard ball, but a first-class ball cannot be manufactured in less time, owing to the tendency of carved ivory to shrink. If it shrank equally a ball could be cut and polished in a few hours, but it does not, the shrinkage being greater in the direction of the width than of the length of the tusk. A ball must thus be roughly shaped, then kept for a number of months, until the shrinking process has been completed, when the fine cutting and polishing may be done.

Desperation.

Wild-Eyed Man—I want some soothing syrup, quick!

Druggist—What sized bottle?

Wild-Eyed Man—Bottle! I want a keg. It's twins!—N. Y. Weekly.

Her Face Not Her Fortune.

She—They say he married Miss Wrinkles for her money. Has she got much?

He—She must have lots of it. Have you never seen her?—Life.

A Companion for McGinty.

Jones—I'm a near neighbor of yours, now, Mrs. Golightly; I've taken a house on the river.

Mrs. G.—Oh! well, I hope you'll drop in some day.—Yankee Blade.

A Harmonious Effect.

Mrs. Witherby—That chair you are sitting on is a genuine antique.

Miss Elderby—Then perhaps I had better not sit on it.

Mrs. Witherby—Oh, don't get up. It is very becoming to you.—Vogue.

She Was Urged.

Mrs. Cawker (severely)—Daughter, did you not accept a kiss from Mr. Dolley last night?

Miss Cawker (hesitatingly)—Yes, ma'ma, but it was pressed upon me.—Truth.

After the Shower.

Marmaduke—May I go out to play now?

Mamma—What, with those holes in your boots?

Marmaduke—No, with the bulldog next door.—Wasp.

Trying the Impossible.

"Yes, Mr. Robbins made a failure. He tried to do two things at once."

"How's that?"

"He tried to love a woman and be married to her at the same time."—Brooklyn Life.

He Had Kept House Before.

Mrs. Talk (looking over the new house)—What in the world is this vast attic for?

Mr. Talk—It is to hold the things that you buy and can't use.—Boston Globe.

Scriptural.

"Why is it that when a woman loses her husband she becomes so attractive to men?"

"It is the old, old story of the widow's might."—Judge.

By the Wink.

Marie—You can tell a drinking man by his eye.

Justine—Yes; if he is at a soda water fountain in a drug store.—Brooklyn Life.

When Women Get Their Rights.

"So Marigold has applied for a divorce from his wife! On what possible ground?"

"Oh, he accuses her of failure to support him."—Town Topics.

Well Meant, But—

"He conceals his ignorance well, doesn't he?" said Harkins.

"Yes, but not half as well as you do," said the flatterer.—Truth.

Very Likely.

Father (to extravagant son)—Now just suppose for an instant that I at your age had behaved as you do, what would I have been to-day?

Son—Well, you would have been penniless, and I'd have had a chance to become a useful citizen.—Harper's Bazar.

Modern Chivalry.

Mrs. Blossom—Ah, Clarence, men are so cold nowadays! In the age of chivalry you would have told me you would be willing even to die for me.

Mr. Blossom—But, my dear, you forget. Haven't I already expressed my willingness to try to live with you?—Brooklyn Life.

The Chemist.

"How much is the sirup?"

"Fifty cents, madam."

"What extortion!"

"Look at my ledger. The ingredients cost five cents, and general expenses are forty-five cents more!"—Demorest's Magazine.

Two Somebodies.

Mrs. Flyabout—They say poor Mrs. Glaspy was never heard to speak an unkind word about anybody in her life.

Mrs. Gofrequent—Dear me! What a spiritless nobody she must have been!

THE VIKING'S WELCOME

Cannons Boom and the Multitudes Cheer.

CHICAGO DOES HERSELF PROUD

The Arrival of the Ancient Craft at the World's Fair City Greeted With Great Enthusiasm—The Ship Met Off Evanston by a Naval Procession.

CHICAGO, July 13.—Even more hearty than the greeting accorded a week ago to the caravels was the welcome that went out yesterday afternoon to Captain Mangus Anderson and his crew of the Viking ship. When the striped sail of the historic boat, made in the likeness of the Cokstab-Find, Lief Erikson to the western world 500 years before the advent of Columbus, appeared in the harbor, it was amid the booming of cannon and the shouts of a great throng of people that was packed along the lake front on the long stretch from the Art Palace down to the Auditorium Hotel. The trip from Racine was one great ovation to the sturdy Norsemen and their historic craft. The Viking was met off Evanston by a big naval procession. The warship Michigan was at the head, and alongside her the steamer Ivanhoe.

On board the latter were Royal Norwegian Commissioner Rayan, Hon. R. B. Andersen, ex-Minister to Denmark; the members of the Norwegian World's Fair Commission and the principal officers of the World's Fair. Behind these vessels came a complement of graceful yachts, headed by the Zero, the flagship of the yacht clubs of Chicago. On board of her were Congressmen J. F. Aldrich, Lawrence McCann, Julius Goldzier, Allan C. Durborrow and several citizens of prominence.

The starboard column of the fleet was led by the United States steamer Blake and following her came 20 more, steam and sail yachts. Next in line was the big steamer City of Duluth, with Mayor Harrison and the City Council, the steamer Cyclone with the Norwegian Old Settlers' Society, the steamers Chief Justice Waite and Nebraska carrying the Norwegian singing societies and Scandinavians workingmen's associations, and several other big boats with representatives of various organizations.

Every vessel in the procession was draped rainbow fashion, with the flag of Norway and the Stars and Stripes in the ascendancy.

The Viking ship was met by the head of the fleet off Evanston and was greeted by a thunder of guns and music from the bands.

A hearty Norwegian song from the combined singing societies rounded off the welcome, and was responded to with a broadside from the queer cannon on Captain Andersen's craft.

The Captain and his crew were then taken on board the Ivanhoe. Royal Norwegian Commissioner Rayan stood in the stern to receive them and in behalf of his country extended them an earnest welcome.

There was some more speech making and lunch was then served to the Norsemen in the cabin. After this the hearty sailors were rowed back to their ship and the golden dragons head at the prow began to plow its way to Jackson Park.

The course was inside the breakwater and closer to the shore than the caravels sailed. At the various suburban residence points skirting the lake shore, as well as at Lincoln Park and other points within the city limits, crowds of people, mostly women and children, had assembled, and they cheered to the best of their ability and waved their handkerchiefs as the distinguished visitors went by. When the Van Buren street pier had been reached a halt was made and after the crowd in waiting had yelled itself hoarse, Mayor Harrison, from the deck of the City of Duluth bade welcome to the nineteenth century viking in the name of the City of Chicago, dwelling upon the bravery of their ancestors and extending to them the freedom of the city.

From the prow of the Cokstab-Find Captain Anderson made brief response, accepting for his crew the compliments paid by the mayor and expressing the gratification which they all felt in having reached the World's Fair city. After the speech making, there was another salute from the Michigan, and the journey to Jackson Park was resumed. One hour later the Viking ship's long trip was over and she was nestling close to the mighty battle ship Illinois.

The reception at the Fair Grounds was on the same general program observed upon the arrival of the caravels last week. Captain Andersen and his crew were escorted to the stand in the Grand Plaza, where Director General Davis extended a welcome on behalf of the exposition, and several other speeches of congratulation were delivered.

Steamers in Collision.

CHICAGO, July 13.—As the Arthur Orr, the leading steamer of the procession of boats escorting the Viking ship from Evanston to the World's Fair Grounds, was approaching the Van Buren street dock yesterday afternoon she crashed into a Lincoln Park excursion boat driving the craft and its human cargo high up on the landing. Several people were injured. One man had both limbs crushed and several others had feet and legs crushed. There was a panic among the women, who ran in terror in every direction.

Parsons Refuses to Sign.

ALBANY, July 13.—John D. Parsons, of the late firm of Weed, Parsons & Co., has refused to sign the conveyance of the Weed-Parsons printing plant to James H. Manning, as directed by the Supreme Court, and has appealed from the order of the Court directing him to sign such a conveyance. The appeal acts as a stay.

Catholics Elect Officers.

SARATOGA, N. Y., July 13.—The New York State Council of the Catholic Benevolent Legion met yesterday afternoon and chose R. J. Hutchinson, of New York, President; C. J. McCarthy, Syracuse, Vice President. Victor J. Dowling, of New York, was reelected secretary.

Eustace Out of Politics.

ELMIRA, N. Y., July 13.—The Hon. A. C. Eustace, when asked about his resignation from the Democratic State Committee last evening declined to discuss the matter further than to say that he had not time to attend to the duties of the position and he was out of politics.

Kansas May Adopt a New Means of Keeping People Sober.

TOPEKA, KAS., July 13.—In a letter to A. J. Richard, of Fort Scott, Attorney General Little intimates that the State administration has thrown Prohibition overboard and will not use the machinery of State to enforce it.

He says several cities, unable to meet their taxes are asking that saloons be licensed to realize money to meet their indebtedness.

Concluding, Attorney General Little says: "If this community wants peace and harmony, soberness and virtue, they must provide some system other than the present, for not only will saloons run wide open, but crime of every conceivable nature will become rampant."

Turfmen in the Toils at St. Louis.

ST. LOUIS, July 13.—Jacob and George Cochrane and William Morgan, well-known turfmen, have been arrested here on bench warrants issued in New Jersey. The charge is breaking into the stable of Zacharias Eyster at Gloucester, N. J., and taking away the horses Swamp Fox and Argenta which George Cochran had given to Eyster as security for a loan.

THE RAILROADS OBJECT.

Some of Those in Michigan Fight the Inspection Laws.

The Duluth, South Shore and Atlantic the First to Make Resistance—Thousands of Lives Endangered.

LANSING, Mich., July 13.—That the fight now on between the State Board of Health and the Soo railroads will either result in the total annihilation of the present inspection laws and the endangering of the safety of thousands of Michigan lives, or a complete and lasting victory for Dr. Baker, secretary of the State Board of Health, is plain.

Superintendent F. D. Underwood, of the Duluth, South Shore & Atlantic railroad, has sent a letter to Secretary Baker, stating that he cannot consent to furnish cars or labor to disinfect immigrants and baggage that have already been disinfected and pronounced in good sanitary condition by a United States official at the port of entry. He adds that Dr. Baker will be held personally responsible for any damage resulting to the road if he interferes with its business.

NEW POSTMASTERS APPOINTED

Lots of People Will Go to Work for Uncle Sam.

WASHINGTON, July 13.—The total number of fourth-class postmasters appointed yesterday was 127, of which 35 were to fill vacancies caused by resignations and death. Among the appointments were the following:

Will See Great Cities and Great Men.

SAN FRANCISCO, July 13.—President Robert Sacasa of Nicaragua, who arrived here on the steamer Colon says: "I am here to see all the great cities. When I have been some time in San Francisco, I shall go to Chicago, Philadelphia, New York, Boston and leading places. I shall call on ex-President Harrison at Indianapolis and when I get to Washington will see President Cleveland."

Bland on the Sherman Law.

ST. LOUIS, Mo., July 13.—The Chronicle publishes a lengthy letter from Congressman Richard P. Bland, the great apostle of bi-metallism and an uncontrolled currency. The letter is a very lengthy one and in it Mr. Bland dwells at length upon the financial situation and says the unconditional repeal of the Sherman law is an absolute necessity for the safety of the country.

George Werner Makes a Serious Charge Against His Sister-in-Law.

ORANGE, N. J., July 13.—George Werner, a brother of Martin Werner, who it was alleged committed suicide by hanging on May 4, yesterday afternoon called on Dr. Elliott and asserted that his brother had been murdered by his wife and hung up in the barn in a suicidal attitude. The widow's recent remarriage is given as the motive for the act.

After a conference between Dr. Elliott and Prosecutor Crane it was decided to exhume the body and hold an autopsy for traces of poisoning.

Will Run on Shorter Time.

MAYNARD, Mass., July 13.—The Assabet Manufacturing Company, the largest woolen manufactory in the country, employing 1,000 operatives, has issued notices that its mills will be run only five days a week until further notice, shutting down on every Saturday.

India Will Accept Silver.

LONDON, July 13.—The Government of India has agreed to accept the silver of the exchange banks, which will lose insurance, freight and charges, but will save seigniorage.

THE DEATH LIST GROWS.

Another Body Recovered From the Warehouse Ruins.

A Total of 15 Corpses Already Taken from the Debris—Several Persons Still Are Missing.

CHICAGO, July 13.—The list of victims of the World's Fair holocaust still increases. Last evening another body was recovered from the ruins of the cold storage building swelling the death total to 15, with a large area of debris still unexplored.

The last remains recovered were those of Ralph A. Drummond, constructing engineer of the Cold Storage Company. This was the only body unearthed yesterday. The rumors that have been frequent of ghastly finds being usually based on the discovery of piles of wasted meat that had formerly been stored in the refrigerator.

It is known that at least two or three and possibly half a dozen more bodies must be yet in the ruins, as the Michigan brewer, the amateur elevator boy and a Columbian guard are still missing.

It appears probable that the families of the victims will not want for the necessities of life. Up to this morning $12,825 had been subscribed and subscriptions are still rapidly coming in.

It is hoped the total may be swelled to $100,000, as the board of trade promises $10,000 alone, and various large companies have subscription lists well under way. The Phoenix Insurance Company of Brooklyn has sent a check for $250.

More Gates for Street Cars.

ALBANY, July 13.—The State Board of Railroad Commissioners has sent a circular to every street service railway in the State, recommending that every car operated by the electrical trolley system in this State on a double track line be equipped with gates at both ends and that only one gate, that opposite the other track on the rear platform, be open for the ingress and egress of passengers.

Weather Forecast.

WASHINGTON, D. C., July 13.—For New England: Generally fair weather, preceded by light local showers westerly winds, slightly warmer.

For Eastern New York, Eastern Pennsylvania, New Jersey, Delaware and Marriland: Generally fair, preceded by light local showers in northern New York, probably warmer, south westerly winds.

For Western New York and Western Pennsylvania: Fair, except possible light local showers in lake regions, continued warmer, southwesterly winds.

Pugilist Kehoe Insane.

CHICAGO, July 13.—William Kehoe, a well-known California light-weight pugilist, was taken to the Detention Hospital last evening, violently insane. Before being taken into custody he was seized with a violent fit, and nearly killed his room-mate, Carl Edelmuth, another pugilist from the West.

Pugilist Levigne Arrested.

CHICAGO, July 13.—George Levigne, a light-weight prizefighter living in Bay City, Mich., for whom Sheriff Taylor, of La Salle county, Ill., has been looking for the past three weeks, has been arrested in this city. Illegal prize fighting is the charge against him.

Its Depositors Caught Heavily.

GARNETT, Kas., July 13.—The Bank of Garnett, one of the leading institutions of Anderson county, closed its doors, catching some depositors rather heavily and the County Treasurer for $18,000 of the county money.

HERBERT TAKES ACTION

Cases Concerning Navy Yard Command Settled.

THE ACTION OF MUCH IMPORTANCE

Commodore Kirkland to Remain in Command of the Navy Yard at League Island, Pa.—Captain Howison Placed in Command at Mare Island, Cal.

WASHINGTON, July 13.—Secretary Herbert has taken action in two cases of importance concerning navy yard commands. He has decided to make permanent the suspension of the order of Commodore Kirkland to take command of the South Atlantic station and will allow him to remain as commandant of the League Island, Pa., Navy Yard. This will probably result in sending Commodore Stanton to the South Atlantic station. The Secretary has also issued an order making Captain Howison commandant of the Mare Island, Cal., Navy Yard.

The captain has been in temporary command there for some time, and it was fully expected that he would be relieved by a naval officer of the rank of Commodore, in view of the importance of the command and the desirability of the place. But Secretary Herbert was determined by two facts in reaching his conclusion to keep Captain Howison in command.

In the first place the people and the newspapers on the Pacific coast were united in the desire to have him retained; and in the second place the report of the Matthews Naval Board, which made a close examination of the workings of the yard, spoke so highly of the efficiency of the commandant and of Naval Constructor Taylor as to justify what might be regarded as a departure from the precedents in this case.

Chester Arrives at Funchal.

WASHINGTON, July 13.—A cablegram has been received at the Navy Department from Commander Chester, commanding the Constellation, announcing his arrival at Funchal, Madeira. The Constellation left the home station early in June with the naval cadets on board for their annual cruise. From Funchal she will go to the English channel, returning by the way of Madeira, stopping at the Canary Islands if time permits. She will return to Annapolis by the first of September. The despatch received to-day states that all on board are well.

It Will Extend the Harvey Process.

WASHINGTON, July 13.—One important result of armor plate tests Tuesday will be to extend the use of the Harvey process. Secretary Herbert was satisfied with the tests as far they went, but he has reached the conclusion that while the plates were as good as could be expected from plain nickel-steel, they did not show the resisting power of the Harveyized nickel-steel plate. This will mean much to the manufacturers of armor plate.

Exports of Breadstuffs.

WASHINGTON, July 13.—The chief of the bureau of statistics reports that the total values of the exports of domestic breadstuffs from the United States during the month of June was $15,9[illegible]751, and during June, 1892, $16,448,9[illegible] During the 12 months ended June 30, 1893, $188,-981,922, and during the corresponding period of the preceding year $288,[illegible]25,000.

Buckingham Ordered to Washington.

WASHINGTON, July 13.—Commander Buckingham, commanding the Dolphin has been ordered to proceed from New York to Washington. She will reach here by to-morrow and Secretary Herbert will board her Saturday and start on his tour of inspection of navy yards on the Atlantic coast.

An Addition to the Chilian Legation.

WASHINGTON, July 13.—The Chilian Legation here has been reinforced by another attache in the person of Senor Victor Eastman, who was presented at the State Department yesterday as Second Secretary of Legation.

Only One Size of Postal Cards.

WASHINGTON, July 13.—Postmaster General Bissell has decided to abandon the three sizes of postal cards now in use and to substitute one size for both single and reply cards.

The Gold Reserve Increasing.

WASHINGTON, July 13.—The gold reserve yesterday increased $58,893, the total being $97,886,575. The currency balance remains at about the same figure, $27,353,881.

No Conflict in Brazil.

PARIS, July 13.—Senor Penanabra, the Brazilian delegate to Europe, has made public an official telegram from Rio Grande do Sul, Brazil, saying that no conflict had taken place there since the defeated insurgents took refuge in Uruguay.

Indefinitely Shut Down.

HARTFORD, July 13.—The Charles Parker Company, of Meriden, has shut down for an indefinite period. The firm is one of the largest concerns in Meriden, employing about 1,000 hands in the manufacture of lamps, screws, etc.

Three Were Drowned.

CHARLESTON, S. C., July 13.—In a squall yesterday a fisherman's boat containing George Rhodes and John Bornemann, white, and a colored boy named Harry, was capsized off the bar, drowning all three.

Hichborn to Succeed Wilson.

WASHINGTON, July 13.—Secretary Herbert has accepted the resignation of Commodore Wilson as Chief Constructor of the Navy and appointed Naval Constructor Phillip Hitchborn to succeed him.

The Liquor Dealers Adjourn.

CHICAGO, July 13.—The National Retail Liquor Dealers Association adjourned last evening to meet in St. Louis at the call of the executive committee for the next annual convention.

The Body of an Unknown Man Picked Up.

COLLEGE POINT, L. I., July 13.—The body of a well-dressed, middle-aged man was picked up off Point View last evening. It was removed to Johannes' morgue.

Edward J. Phelps in Paris.

LONDON, July 13.—Edward J. Phelps, of counsel for the United States before the Behring Sea Tribunal of Arbitration, in Paris, arrived in this city last night.

Republicans to Meet Oct. 7.

BOSTON, July 13.—At a meeting of the Republican State Committee last evening it was decided to hold the State convention in Music Hall, Oct.

CRUEL JULY!

FEARFUL DEATH RATE THIS MONTH —INFANTS DIE FOR BETTER FOOD.!

Anxiety in Thousands of Homes—Improper Diet Should Be Avoided—Lactated Food the Preventive of Cholera Infantum—The Safest and Best for Little Ones—Pre-Eminently the Most Nourishing and Natural.

Thousands of homes are now thoughtful and anxious for the safety of the little ones during the hot weather.

No one thing is so essential to their health and safety as a wise choice of food.

In the four summer weeks ending July 17, last year, the mortality of infants under a year old in this state amounted to 48.2 per cent., under two years 60 per cent., under 5 years 64 per cent. of the total mortality; this mortality of babies under a year was about equal to the total average mortality of the whole year of all diseases under 10 years.

The cold, cruel, statistical proofs which might be accumulated indefinitely, show only what physicians know too well, that improper diet in the summer destroys baby life in uncommon numbers; and they prove, also, that it is mainly the infants who suffer from the effects of the season, on this account.

The epidemic of bowel affections of children frequently corresponds with the rise in temperature, but the causes always lie in unsuitable diet.

An absolutely pure and reliable infant food had therefore been eagerly sought for years as a substitute for pure mother's milk.

Lactated food solved the problem completely; it stands to-day pre-eminent above all others; infants fed upon it suffer less, and fewer die, it is now well-known, than those fed upon anything else; it is used in the big charitable institutions for children; it has saved the lives of thousands of infants during the hot, dangerous months of summer.

It is indorsed by the best physicians, by nurses, and by happy, grateful mothers in every town and village in the land.

Sugar of milk, the basis of mother's milk, is the basis of lactated food; with it is combined pure barley malt, the finest wheat gluten, and the nutritious elements of the oat; it is thoroughly cooked by high steam heat, and a predigested, nutritious food is made that fulfills every requirement of the growing child; it is by far the safest food a child can eat in the summer; it is a true preventive of cholera infantum.

No home where there is an infant can afford to be without it.

Lactated food saves babies' lives!

Anarchist Neebe Married.

CHICAGO, July 13.—Oscar Neebe, the Anarchist, who was recently released from the penitentiary, was quietly married last evening to Miss Eliza Hepp. The bride is an owner of a flourishing saloon.

The Books Can be Examined.

NEW YORK, July 13.—It can be stated as a positive fact that the Reading reporters did not, in their letter to the chairman of the committee of general mortgage bondholders of Reading, refuse to allow an examination of the company's books.

Striking Boiler Makers Return to Work.

NEW HAVEN, July 13.—The 150 striking boiler makers at the Bigelow works went to work yesterday afternoon. By the terms of the settlement the men are to work nine hours per day after August 14.

The Wool Company's Receiver.

TRENTON, N. J., July 13.—On the application of Tatum, Embry & Co., John Garrick has been appointed receiver for the New Jersey Sheep and Wool Company. Ex-Congressman J. W. Pidcock was a large stockholder in this concern.

Four Hundred Men Made Idle.

SARANAC LAKE, N. Y., July 13.—The Benson mines of magnetic iron ore at the terminal of the Carthage & Adirondack railway, west of Tupper Lake, have closed. Four hundred men are thrown out of employment.

Communication Suspended.

NEW YORK, July 13.—The Western Union Telegraph Company has issued a circular notice to their customers to the effect that all communication via Galveston to Uruguay and Argentina is suspended.

Twelve Buildings Reduced to Ashes.

MAXWELL, Cal., July 13.—A fire supposed to be of incendiary origin started in the business portion of this town yesterday, destroying twelve buildings. The loss is estimated at $100,000. Insurance $35,000.

Death at the Gambling Table.

KANSAS CITY, July 13.—Richard B. Browning and William Mullins, both colored, quarreled over a game of cards. Browning had won Mulling' money and Mullins demanded its return. Mullins drew his revolver, and saying he never produced the weapon except as an extreme measure, put it against Browning's temple and fired. Browning was killed instantly.

THE DAILY PRESS.

W. L. & A. L. FORCE, Publishers and Proprietors.
J. A. DEMAREST, - Managing Editor.

EARLY INTELLIGENCE.

—Because of the funeral this afternoon of the late Wm. L. Force, this edition is put to press at noon.

—Ray Dunn caught a bass weighing 2½ lbs., in Green brook near Hyde's pond, yesterday afternoon.

—A journal in a town like Plainfield is on its last legs when it has to resort to the "coupon" evil to secure the sale of papers among the credulous.

—The Somerset Messenger says that lawyer Harry C. Runyon of Plainfield has sold his house and lot on Second street, Somerville, to Mrs. Hannah Heyman.

—Out of respect to the late secretary, Wm. L. Force, the Climax Gun club has postponed to next week Tuesday the shoot that was to be held yesterday.

—W. T. Kirk, contractor for the Terrill & Cole building on West Second street, says that the iron girders have arrived all right and have been put in position.

—White is running a special sale on ladies' white canvas oxfords, at 98 cents a pair. They are B, C and D widths, are sure to fit, and are said to be worth $2 a pair.

—This is club night at the Watchung club-house, Fanwood. In the midst of the dancing, bowling and card-playing festivities, refreshing ice-cream will be served.

—Elm place has lost its last board walk, for which the populace is grateful. Stone flagging and curbing make the street a delight for pedestrians from end to end.

—How do News advertisers like the idea of having premiums put on New York shopping by the "journalist" to whom they pay good money for booming home trade?

—The Black River Falls Glen will be visited by members and friends of Grace M. E. Sunday-school, July 18. The excursion rate will be $1 for grown people and 75 cents for the younger generation.

—A Park avenue young man is so lacking in modesty that he dresses mornings before an uncurtained window in full view of everyone on the street. The neighbors threaten arrest if he does n't pull down the blinds.

PIGS IN A POKE.

Relief Women Sell Surprise Baskets for Their Piano Fund.

A novel "basket sale" was given by the Women's Relief corps, No. 10, auxiliary to Winfield Scott post, No. 73, G. A. R., last evening in their rooms on East Front street.

For some time past the ladies have been preparing baskets, which were neatly trimmed in various ways, as with ribbons. After decorating them, they filled them with all sorts of articles, such as dust pans, small brooms, needles, thread, fancy work, potatoes, cabbage, pease, dolls, fruit and flowers, and articles useful in the nursery.

Comrade Mattox was the auctioneer, a good one. The audience was large and the bidding was very enthusiastic, several at different times, bidding in opposition on the baskets. Prices ranged from 10 cents to $1.50, and those purchasing did not lose much in their bargains, as they received articles which can be used handily about the house.

One interesting feature was the bidding on a peach basket which was very prettily decorated. On the top was a lovely bouquet of flowers. It was bought for $1.50, and when he opened it the purchaser found some pease, two heads of cabbage, and a quantity of potatoes. Another interesting case was of a new bridegroom buying a basket which contained a nursery outfit. So all through the sale there were continual surprises for all, and some exceedingly laughable.

After the sale the ladies served ice-cream, cake and other refreshments. They will probably realize about $20 profit.

It was a unique affair throughout, and decidedly successful, for the trouble in getting it up was small in comparison to what was made. However, the ladies have put considerable work and time in their undertaking, and they deserve the success which has come to them, and which will still further help to pay off the remaining debt on their recently purchased piano.

They hope to give another entertainment soon.

The American Catarrh Cure

Is the result of twenty-six years' study and treatment of the disease. One bottle convinces the most skeptical. It is always ready for use, needing neither douche nor atomizer. It restores the hearing, cures the hawking cough and expectorating, removes the headache and nose bleeding, increases the appetite, produces sound sleep, invigorates the whole system and increases the vitality. Prepared only by W. B. Jones, M. D., No. 1336 South Eighth street, Philadelphia. For sale by F. W. Randolph, 21 West Front street. Price $1.

Ely's Cream Balm is worth its weight in gold as a cure for catarrh. One bottle cured me. S. A. Lovell, Franklin, Pa.

THE SUIT WITHDRAWN.

Edward C. Mulford Extends His Sympathy and Consolation.

The following letter was sent to this office with the request that it be published to-day:

July 12, 1893.

William M. Stillman, Esq.,
Counselor at Law:

As my attorney in the suit that I have begun against the proprietors of THE DAILY PRESS for libel, I hereby instruct you to discontinue the same.

As an old friend of the late William L. Force, and full of the recollections of his almost lifelong friendship for me, I feel that I cannot let this, the day of his funeral, go by, without thus in a manner expressing my sorrow over his untimely end, and my deep respect for his memory.

To his sorrowing family I would extend my sympathy and consolations in this the hour of their bereavement and trouble.

I am very respectfully,

EDWARD C. MULFORD.

OUR LARGEST LAND-OWNERS.

These Good Citizens Make Their Homes the Pride of Plainfield.

Dennis C. Crane, secretary of the Union county board of agriculture, in his annual report to the State board, contrasts strikingly a number of Plainfield's well-cared-for suburban places with the uncultivated land of the county. He says:

"Chauncey B. Ripley, of Westfield, owns several hundred acres, keeps some sixty head of registered Jerseys, of which 'Pedro Royal Marjoram' is at the head. He underdrains, manures highly, grows heavy crops, especially of clover, timothy, corn and rye, but no weeds are seen. The roads running through his place are lined with fine maple and elm trees. The sidewalks and ditch banks are in grass, and are mowed several times through the summer. The center of the highways (at cost to himself) is macadamized with crushed stone, and a straight edge preserved between the traveled way and the green grass border, giving the farm an altogether park-like appearance.

"South of Plainfield, near Marcoonier station, on the Lehigh Valley railroad, is the Holly Grove farm, owned by General Samuel K. Schwenk. He has a herd of registered Jerseys of fashionable strain, something over fifty head. They have been exhibited at the different fairs in New Jersey and other States, and admired by all who have seen them. He retails the milk in Plainfield to families who are willing to pay one or two cents a quart over the price for common milk. He has extensive outbuildings fitted with all the modern improvements for comfort and convenience—silo cutters, grinders, automatic water troughs, chain ties, manure gratings, etc. Large quantities of beets and mangels are raised annually for feeding to the stock, and vegetables for the Plainfield market. The place gives evidence of thrift and good management.

"In the suburbs of Plainfield, a little north, under the mountain, are the farm and residence of John Taylor Johnston, ex-president of the Central railroad. About one hundred acres are kept in a park; it is adorned with serpentine drives and walks which are covered with crushed stone. Ornamental hedges, shade trees, shrubs and flowers are all kept in order. Back from this and somewhat nearer the mountain are the numerous farm buildings for housing the stock. Mr. Johnston's son keeps the herd of registered Jerseys—about seventy head. The morning's milk is sold in Plainfield at a premium; the evening's milk is made into butter. In connection with the place is a large henery.

"On the road from Plainfield to Springfield are the handsome residences and grounds of the late Dr. Abraham Coles and Warren Ackerman. The most creditable work of Mr. Ackerman is the reclaiming and beautifying of the deserted village of Feltville, now called Glenside, between the First and Second mountains. The dozen or more houses are used in summer for keeping boarders of the better class. In the vicinity are mountains, ravines and streams of water, a good-sized lake, abrupt mountain sides, extensive woods, rocky glens and well-built macadam roads. Mr. Ackerman is the largest land owner in the county.

PARTICULAR MENTION.

B. B. Tyler, of 56th street, New York, will preach in the First Church of Christ Sunday morning and evening.

The Rev. Charles B. Mitchell, Ph.D., formerly pastor of the First M. E. church on Front street, has been made a D. D. by Allegheny College.

Mrs. H. Newton Spencer has received tidings of the death of her uncle, Alexander McKinley, of Michigan. The deceased was a brother of the Republican Gov. McKinley of Ohio, and a stanch Democrat.

No Medicine Spouters Wanted.

A man named DeCamp made quite a disturbance on Front street last night about 6. He said he was a medicine man and wished to address the people. The people were willing to be addressed, but the police objected and ran DeCamp in. He was fined $3 this morning in the city court.

—The police last evening raided a gang of nude swimmers in Green brook at Evona. One of them was captured on this side, and to-day judge Coddington warned him that a repetition of the offense would result in 30 days in jail. A number caught on the North Plainfield side will appear before borough magistrate Crosley this evening.

An Undisputed Test of Merit.

A medicine that has been a household remedy for over fifty years and used in that time by more than 150,000,000 persons must have great merit. Such a medicine is found in BRANDETH'S PILLS. This fact demonstrates the value of these pills better than any statement of the proprietors. It will be observed that the dose required to cure is small. One or two pills taken every night for ten or twenty days will cure dyspepsia, costiveness, rheumatism, liver complaint, biliousness, or any disease arising from an impure state of the blood.

BRANDETH'S PILLS are purely vegetable, absolutely harmless and safe to take at any time.

Sold in every drug and medicine store, either plain or sugar coated.

THOSE MAINS FROM PLAINFIELD.

Editor McBride Likes the Water, But Does n't Favor the Nuisance.

It is already very evident—remarks the Elizabeth Journal—that some positive and radical measures must be taken to protect the county roads.

As was anticipated, the building of these magnificent highways brought the adjacent property into market, and houses are now being built or will soon be built on every lot between Elizabeth and Cranford. These facts are exceedingly gratifying, and it is also a matter of great satisfaction that a large main of the purest water in New Jersey runs by the side of the telford road between Elizabeth and Netherwood, the entire length.

But it is not a matter of satisfaction that the hard, smooth, compacted mass of crushed stone which makes the roadbed is torn up, its entire width, to connect these new houses with the water main.

Complaints not a few in number have come to the Journal with reference to this matter, and they are well-founded. It is not at all necessary that the road-bed should be broken, and it should in no instance be allowed. Many days of steam rolling when the roads were built, and years of all kinds of travel since they were completed have compacted the road metal until it is like a solid rock; and when it is broken it cannot be put down again in as good condition. Either a ridge or a hollow will remain, and the road metal which is removed will not compact with the body of the road as it did before it was disturbed.

In Roselle the authorities will not permit telford pavement to be in any way molested. Those wishing to connect their premises with the water mains must either drive their pipes under the roadway, or else dig through far enough below the surface to perfectly protect the pavement from disturbance.

It can easily be seen that unless some such restriction is enforced, the county roads will be torn up every fifty or one hundred feet, and humps and hollows will take the place of the smooth surfaces which have made Union county roads famous throughout this country.

No investment this county ever made has paid so well as these roads; no other single thing has given such an impetus to improvements and caused the building of so many new houses and the investment of so much new wealth. It is the part of wisdom therefore to take all reasonable care of them, and nothing is more reasonable than to prevent their being broken up.

In the city of Elizabeth are abundant evidences of the unwisdom of allowing pavements to be torn up. Notwithstanding bonds are given that those who tear up the pavements to make connections with sewers and water mains, shall replace them "in as good condition as formerly", they are not so replaced, and in some of the streets a blind man in a carriage can tell from the humps and hummocks where these connections have been made.

In the matter of these county roads, there is no necessity whatever—as proved by Roselle—for tearing up a single foot; and the best way therefore,—concludes the Journal—to prevent damage to them, is to allow no one to tear them up for any cause whatsoever.

Miss Smith's Suit to Be Adjourned.

The case of Miss Smith the milliner, who is suing Isaac Lederer for wages that she says Lederer owes her until July 2, the date of expiration of the alleged contract, will come up before justice Mosher this afternoon at 2.

On account of the funeral of W. L. Force, the counsels, judge W. A. Coddington for Miss Smith, and W. K. McClure for Lederer, will ask for an adjournment, when the justice will allow an adjournment for one week.

The slander case between the same parties will be tried in Elizabeth, and corporation counsel Craig A. Marsh will conduct the defense.

Plainfielders on the County Boards.

Gov. Werts has appointed the county boards of registration for the State. The boards are named upon the recommendation of the respective chairmen of the Democratic and Republican State committees. These boards in turn, upon the recommendation of the county chairmen, name the local boards of registry and election. This will be done within the next few weeks. The boards appointed include the following for this section:

Union—Democrats, James T. Wiley, Elmore D. Moffett of Plainfield. Republicans, Wm. Chamberlain, Edwin C. Woodruff.

Somerset—Democrats, Elisha Corliell, J. H. Mattison of North Plainfield. Republicans, C. H. Bateman, Wm. H. Long.

Contractor Kirk to Build Both Bridges.

The boards of freeholders of Union and Somerset counties, unanimously awarded to William T. Kirk, of this city, contracts to build the new bridges over the brooks at Westervelt avenue and at Tenth street.

The members of the boards expressed themselves as thoroughly satisfied with all of contractor Kirk's work, and with the material and construction. Consequently there was no thought of giving the new contracts to anyone else, and his were the only specifications and estimates considered. The cost of both bridges will be about $2,700.

The Board of Trade Incorporated.

County clerk Gerber has filed articles of incorporation of the Plainfield Board of Trade. The incorporators are G. W. Rockfellow, Charles M. Ulrich, G. A. Hallock, Lemuel B. Woolston, Joseph S. Coward, Elston M. French, J. F. MacDonald, George M. Griffen, William B. Codington, Charles A. Reed, and William A. Coddington.

THAT WIND WAS EVIL.

When Crops Were Progressing Finely, the Storm Wrought Great Injury.

The observers and crop correspondents of the New Jersey Weather Service report for the week ending Monday, July 10, that in the northern, the central and the extreme southern counties the weather conditions have been favorable to all growing crops, and that a marked improvement in their condition is noted. The nights of the week have been warm, and with the gentle local showers all crops, especially corn and potatoes, have made a rapid stride forward. In Atlantic county, especially in the vicinity of Hammonton, crops have suffered much from drought; raspberries, which were so promising early in June, have been greatly shortened, so much so that the yield will not be more than one-half a crop. In other sections this crop is very promising. The shower of Saturday night, July 8, which was quite heavy in portions of Atlantic county, has probably done much toward relieving the crops from the effect of the drought. A destructive hailstorm passed over portions of Camden and Burlington counties on the night of July 5, doing considerable damage to crops. In the vicinity of Camden, the destruction was so great that some farmers are replanting.

The Plainfield observer reports that Saturday evening, July 8, a severe thunder storm passed over that station, doing very great damage; several trees were uprooted and some damage done to growing crops. In all sections the harvesting of grain is progressing under very favorable weather conditions, and the yield, both of grain and straw, will be above the average, except in Hunterdon and Mercer counties, where the "Wheat Head Army Worm" is doing considerable damage, even after the grain is in stack. Director E. W. McGann, of the crop and weather service, advises immediate threshing as the only means of saving the grain from destruction by these pests.

The temperature and sunshine during the week have been about normal, while local showers have visited all sections, greatly reviving and stimulating all crops.

Prof. Smith says that the caterpillar injuring grain in some sections is the "Wheat Head Army Worm", which occasionally, in a favorable season, becomes troublesome. There is no remedy that can be satisfactorily applied at present, and it is recommended that the grain be harvested as soon as possible, and that it be threshed at once and bulked in bins. This will also prevent injury from the grain moth.

Prof. Smith is anxious to get a good supply of specimens of this insect and of the corn web-worm, and will be obliged to any who will send them.

(Official Crop Bulletin.)

UNION COUNTY.

PLAINFIELD—Every thing progressing with the farmer in harvesting the crops. High wind of the 8th did great damage, especially to the fruit trees. Rainfall 0.75 inch.
JOHN NEAGLE.

CLARK TOWNSHIP—The past week has given excellent growing weather. Harvesting well advanced, most of the grain having been cut in good condition. We had a fine shower the evening of the 3d. On Saturday evening, the 8th, a shower with very high wind swept over the township doing much damage to fruit and early tomatoes. EDGAR L. SMITH.

SOUTH PLAINFIELD—A nice shower on the 3d helped all crops, especially corn and garden truck. Haying about finished and grain most all cut. Work is up to the season and all things getting along nicely. Corn and potatoes are looking well. Currants and gooseberries most all in market, and raspberries in season now. Some cucumbers and squashes were pulled on the 7th. P. C. JOHNSON.

SOMERSET COUNTY.

THREE MILE RUN—Wheat is a good crop and is being harvested in good condition. Corn and garden truck making a good growth.
GEORGE HUTCHINSON.

SOMERVILLE—Very favorable week. Average temperature, 74.2 deg. Rainfall, 0.20 inch.
P. HARDCASTLE.

$600 Among Eight Heirs.

The Meridan (Ct.) Daily Journal of July 8 says: "This morning, before judge Flower in the Probate Court, was rendered the account of Richard Gleeson of Meridan, as trustee on the Catherine Flood estate. The heirs were determined and the distribution was ordered, the heirs being: George Hyland and Maria F. Foulds of Stamford, Wm. and P. Hyland of Norwalk, T. Hyland of Plainfield, N. J., Jas. and Eliza Hyland of Raritan, N. J., and Jas. Keating of Froetburg, Md. Six hundred dollars was distributed."

Oh, What a Cough!

Will you heed the warning. The signal perhaps of the sure approach of that more terrible disease, Consumption. Ask yourselves if you can afford for the sake of saving 50c., to run the risk and do nothing for it. We know from experience that Shiloh's Cure will cure your cough. It never fails. This explains why more than a Million Bottles were sold the past year. It relieves croup and whooping cough at once. Mothers, do not be without it. THE COURT'S EYES MOIST.

It Would n't Take a Complaint Against a Starving Little Girl for Till Tapping.

Martha Brunt, a pretty girl, aged 9, was arrested in Rahway yesterday for till tapping and taken before justice Frazee. For some days money has been missed by Jacob Fetter, who keeps a butcher shop; and a watch being set on the till, Martha was caught in the act of taking money from it. When searched $1.30 was found in her pocket. She wept bitterly when arraigned before the justice. She said she stole because her family was starving, and she wanted to buy something to eat. The girl's father is blind, and her mother works hard to support a lot of small children. Justice Frazee shed tears when he heard the prisoner's story. He refused to take a complaint against her, and persuaded Mr. Fetter to let the matter drop.

Flight of the Somerset Fair.

The Elizabeth Journal says: "The Somerset County Agricultural society is likely to furnish an object lesson as to some of the effects of the race-track legislation. Under the infamous laws of last winter all such societies must have licenses to trot horses, and under that license pool-selling and bookmaking are allowed. This society applied to the Bridgewater township committee for the necessary license, and it was refused. Then they applied to the board of freeholders, and that body also refused. Now the society will either have to abandon their fair or go ahead without a license and become liable to indictment. The Somerset county fair is one of the best county fairs in Northern New Jersey, and the directors have, at times, refused to license the sale of any intoxicating drinks on the grounds, and have done other things to make the fair reputable. But the race-track gamblers have now not only got hold of the running tracks, but practically control every fair ground in the State."

LEVYING ON THE ROLLING STOCK

An Ohio Sheriff Taking Possession of the Pennsylvania's Property.

MANSFIELD, O., July 13.—Sheriff Guthrie of Richland county is making it lively around the union depot in this city in levying on rolling stock belonging to the Pennsylvania Company, to satisfy a judgment for $347,100 issued from the Circuit Court in the celebrated Coldwater case.

He has already levied upon seven locomotives and eight freight cars and other property aggregating $75,000, and proposes to continue levies until the entire judgment is satisfied.

Attorneys for the company are here and will resist every step that tends to hamper their business.

Three Held for Murder.

KANSAS CITY, Mo., July 13.—Mrs. Joseph Elder yesterday sent for an undertaker to prepare the remains of her husband for burial. The undertaker found that Elder had died to death and sent for the coroner. The coroner's examination showed that Elder had been shockingly mutilated in a nameless manner, probably sometime Monday night. Mrs. Elder, aged 50 years, and a son by a former husband and his wife are held for the murder.

THE PACKS ARE TESTED.

The Merriam Proves to be by Far the Most Satisfactory.

Soldier Boys in Camp at Peekskill Make the Test—Two Battalions Preparing for Tour Duty.

STATE CAMP, PEEKSKILL, N. Y., July 13.—The Merriam pack had a more thorough test yesterday than ever before. Four men went out under command of Major Lewis Ralch of the Tenth Battalion, who is detailed for the purpose of ascertaining which of the four equipments, the Dodge yoke, blanket roll, Merriam pack and knapsack is the most practicable. The men were employed as skirmishers and fired lying down, kneeling and standing; forded streams and marched through underbrush. Yet the Merriam pack, although being the heaviest of the four equipments, weighing 21 pounds, proved to be by far the most satisfactory. It did not shift once and was the least in the way of any of the packs.

Preparations are being made by the First and Second battalions for their tour of duty here. On the three days will be spent in camp, the last one being given over to the annual inspection and muster. They will spend three days on the march here and two or three days on the return march.

The men will cook all their own meals and pitch their own tents. The Sibley tent will probably be used if a sufficient number of them can be obtained from the arsenal, otherwise the A shelter will be employed.

To-day is visitors' day, and Company D of the Twelfth regiment has a large crowd to entertain.

Shiloh's Cough Cure.

This is beyond question the most successful Cough Medicine we have eversold; a few doses invariably cure the worst cases of Cough, Croup and Bronchitis, while its wonderful success in the cure of Consumption is without a parallel in the history of medicine. Since its first discovery it has been sold on a guarantee, a test which no other medicine can stand. If you have a cough we earnestly ask you to try it. Price, 0c. and $1. If your lungs are sore, chest, or back lame, use Shiloh's Porous Plaster. Sold by A. D. Mallinson, 65 North Avenue, opposite railroad station. 5-16-7

TWO MEN WERE KILLED

Explosion of Gas in a Mine at Wyoming, Pa.

A NAKED LAMP THE CAUSE OF IT

Death and Destruction the Result of the Accumulation of Gas in an Air Current — The Unfortunate Miners Hurled in All Directions.

WILKESBARRE, Pa., July 13.—Two men were killed, two fatally injured, and two badly hurt by an explosion of gas in the Pettebone mine, operated by the Delaware, Lackawanna & Western Company at Wyoming late yesterday afternoon.

The dead are:

WM. KISNER, aged 23, leaves a wife and two children.

ROBERT HUGHES, aged 17, a driver boy.

The fatally injured are:

Wm. May, aged 15 years, violently blown against a door, side crushed and badly bruised.

John Ford, aged 34 years, a miner, burned on head and body. His arms and legs were also broken.

Those seriously hurt are:

Frank Monus, a miner, aged 25 years, cut upon head and bruised about the body.

Peter Sycoski, laborer, aged 20, was burned on hands and face.

The explosion was caused by the gathering of a body of gas in one of the breasts, the air current having been changed by an incompetent door boy leaving one of the doors open. As the gangway is usually free from gas the miners were not on the lookout for it and apparently one of them ventured into the body with a naked lamp under which explosion followed.

The Silver Convention Adjourns.

DENVER, July 13.—The interest in the silver question has not in the least abated and when the convention was called to order yesterday standing room was not to be had. After the appointment of delegates to the St. Louis and Chicago silver conventions and to the "Gold Bug" gathering at St. Paul, resolutions protesting against the proposed appeal of the Silver Purchase law were passed. The convention adjourned sine die at 9 o'clock.

Want the Silver Purchase Law Repealed.

BOSTON, July 13.—A meeting of the Chamber of Commerce last evening was addressed by President Edward Kemble, ex-President Allen Spoare, Messrs. A. W. Beard, J. H. Cressy and H. M. Whitney, and it was unanimously resolved to petition Congress for an immediate and unconditional repeal of the silver purchasing clause of the Sherman Act.

Princeton, Ind., Badly Scorched.

EVANSVILLE, July 13.—Last night a despatch was received from Princeton, Ind., saying a fire was raging there. The whole business portion of the city was threatened for a time. The Western Union office and half a dozen business buildings were burned. Aid was sent from this city. The loss will be upwards of $100,000.

Struck a Rock in the St. Lawrence.

WATERTOWN, N. Y., July 13.—The steamer Bohemian of the Richelieu & Ontario line, running between Toronto and Montreal through the rapids of the St. Lawrence, struck a rock at the head of Cotear Rapids on her way down the river, yesterday, and was considerably damaged. The passengers were safely landed.

The President Stayed at Home.

BUZZARD'S BAY, Mass., July 13.—Yesterday was really a home-like day for the President at Gray Gables. Col. Lamont and Dr. Bryant were on a fishing trip, and the President spent the entire day with his immediate family and sister, Mrs. Hoyt. Mr. Cleveland did not even ride over for his mail.

Judge Kerr Suicides.

FORT SMITH, Ark., July 13.—Judge R. T. Kerr committed suicide last evening by shooting himself through the heart with a shot gun. Judge Kerr was prominent in his profession, but recent illness affected his mind and it is believed the act was committed while mentally unbalanced.

Booksellers Assign.

CRAWFORDSVILLE, Ind., July 13.—Robinson & Wallace, bookdealers, one of the most extensive and oldest firms in this city, has assigned. All of their home creditors are preferred, but it is thought that the assets will nearly equal the liabilities.

The Lumber Dealers Meet.

ASBURY PARK, N. J., July 13.—The annual meeting of the New Jersey and New York Lumbermen's Association was held here yesterday behind closed doors. The election of officers will be held this evening.

Poisoned by Eating Pork.

CHARLESTON, S. C., July 13.—Isaac Mitchell and his entire family consisting of five persons, were poisoned Tuesday by eating pork. Mitchell and his daughter Ada are dead and the others critically ill.

A Victim of Typhus.

NEW YORK, July 13.—Edward B. Foote, an entry clerk at Bellevue hospital, who was stricken with typhus fever on the 5th inst., died yesterday afternoon on North Brother Island.

St. George Delegates Have a Picnic.

BUFFALO, July 13.—Delegates to the State convention of the Sons of St. George, to the number of 200, are enjoying a picnic at Sheenwater, on Niagara river, this afternoon.

Corporation Notice.

Notice is hereby given that the following Ordinance has been introduced before the Common Council, read the second time and ordered engrossed preparatory to its third reading, and that it is the intention of the Council to adopt the same.

F. W. RUNYON, City Clerk.
Plainfield, N. J., July 7, 1893.

AN ORDINANCE

To amend an ordinance entitled, "An Ordinance relating to the Morals, Peace and Good Order of the City of Plainfield," approved April 23, 1874, amended January 4, 1875, December 7, 1881, September 15, 1883, October 7, 1884, November 3, 1891, and December 8, 1891.

The Inhabitants of the City of Plainfield by their Common Council do enact as follows:

Section 1. That section 3 of the amendment approved September 15, 1883 of the ordinance referred to in the title of this ordinance, (general ordinances printed edition of 1883, page 23) be and the same is hereby amended so as to read as follows: "Sec. 3. No person shall cry or openly expose for sale any wares, merchandise, fruits, herbs, meats, fish, goods or chattels, or keep open any shop, store or place of business by him occupied, or cause or permit the same to be open for the sale of said articles or any of them, or openly sell any of said articles on the first day of the week, commonly called Sunday, and any person violating this section shall, upon conviction thereof, be punished by a fine not exceeding twenty dollars, provided however, that this section shall not apply to the sale of milk or medicine, or to cases of necessity, and provided further that no person shall be found guilty under this section who when brought before the City Judge to answer complaint for the violation thereof, shall then and there prove to the satisfaction of said City Judge that he uniformly keeps the seventh day of the week as the Sabbath, and habitually abstains from following his usual occupation or business and devotes the day or a portion thereof to the exercise of religious worship, and that he carries on his business within his premises in such a manner as not to disturb the religious observance of Sunday as the Sabbath. Fees $5.40.

Corporation Notice.

Notice is hereby given that the following ordinance has been introduced before the common council, read the second time and ordered engrossed and advertised preparatory to its third reading, and that it is the intention of the common council to adopt the same.

F. W. RUNYON, City Clerk.
Plainfield, N. J., July 7, 1893.

AN ORDINANCE

For the repairing and permanent improvement of North avenue from Richmond street to Berckman street.

The inhabitants of the city of Plainfield, by their common council, do enact as follows:

Sec. 1. That the roadbed of North avenue extending from Richmond street to Berckman street be repaired and spread with broken stone for a width of twenty feet on each side of the centre line of said street, and for a depth of six inches, at the general expense of the city, to be paid for, after first applying the direct contributions of property owners, out of the money raised by tax for the improvement of the streets, provided by the act of the Legislature entitled, "An act to authorize cities to make permanent improvements in the road beds of the street at the general expense," approved May 13, 1884.

Sec. 2. That before any work shall be done under this ordinance, the property owners along the line of the proposed improvements shall deposit with the City Treasurer a sum equal to one dollar per linear foot for the entire distance along North avenue covered by this ordinance.

Fees $5.80.

AN ORDINANCE

To amend an ordinance entitled, "An ordinance concerning the construction, maintenance and repair of sidewalks," approved October 4, 1887, amended August 1, 1890.

The Inhabitants of the City of Plainfield by their common council do enact as follows:

Sec. 1. That section 2 of said ordinance be and the same is hereby amended so as to include within the territory therein described, both sides of Central avenue from Ninth street to Randolph road.

Adopted by the common council July 3, 1893.
Approved by the Mayor July 6, 1893.

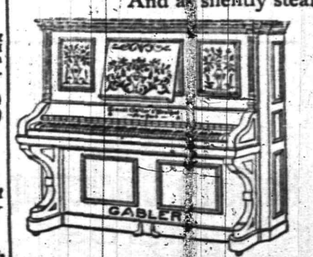
"And the nights shall be filled with music,
And the cares that infest the day
Will fold up their tents like the Arabs,
And as silently steal away."



Longfellow knew the soothing power of music. Melody banishes care—smooths out the wrinkles on one's forehead—gives rest.

A piano in the house is better than medicine—helps more than a vacation.

A Gabler Piano

Doesn't cost any more than a summer trip. It lasts longer. Ten years hence and your piano is as good as new. A piano is furniture, it is entertainment, it is investment. We sell them for cash or easy payments. We also rent, but its better to buy.

STORIES OF TALMAGE.

The Great Preacher Rather Enjoys the Lies Told About Him.

Probably no man in what may be called public life preserves his equanimity so perfectly when stories about him with absolutely no foundation whatever appear in the public prints as does Dr. Talmage. Not long ago a dispatch from Massachusetts announced that the reverend gentleman had purchased a blooded bull pup of most approved fighting qualities, and, although the story was entirely erroneous, no one laughed more heartily at the idea of a clergyman's investing in a canine prize fighter than the pastor of the Tabernacle. Apropos of this story the doctor told of another experience of his which evidently amused him greatly, though some men would have been annoyed by it.

"I remember," he said, "some years ago when I left home for the summer one of the Brooklyn newspapers came out with a long story about how glad the neighbors were to get me out of the way for a few weeks. According to the story I had purchased a cornet, and life had been rendered almost unendurable upon my block by the doleful sounds which I expelled from the instrument, often until late at night. I don't remember," added the doctor, laughing heartily, "that I ever had a cornet in my hand. Certainly it never occurred to me to buy one, or to try to play one."

The doctor's faith in the Bible is of the old school style. "During these twenty-four years," he said, in a recent address to his congregation, "I have tried as far as I could by argument, by illustration and by caricature to fill you with disgust with much of this modern religion which people are trying now to substitute for the religion of Jesus Christ and the religion of the apostles. I have tried to persuade you that the worst of all cant is the cant of skepticism, and instead of your apologizing for Christianity it was high time that those who do not believe in Christianity should apologize to you; and I have tried to show that the biggest villains in the universe are those who would try to rob us of this Bible, and that the grandest mission of the church of Jesus Christ is that of bringing souls to the Lord—a soul-saving church."

SUMMING UP.

Warkle—Ah, me boy, I see you have an addition to your family.

Newpop—Yes, and one to carry.—Judge.

No Worry.

Young Author—What do you think of my new play?

Friend—Hem! You're in luck, old fellow.

"Think so?"

"Yes, indeed. You won't be worried to death by ticket speculators."—N. Y. Weekly.

Not to Be Talked to Death.

Mrs. Quicklippe (furioso)—I have no words to express my indignation at your conduct.

Mr. Quicklippe (with a sigh of relief)—Well, there's one gratifying feature of the situation.—Chicago Record.

Sure Sales in View.

Clerk—I can't get these silks sold at any price.

Dry Goods Merchant—Well, mark 'em up a little and put 'em on the bargain counter.—Chicago Record.

Another Terpa Entirely.

Twynn—I hear you were relieved of five hundred dollars during your stay in Chicago.

Triplett—I never alluded to it as a relief.—Truth.

Another Mystery Solved.

Father (after a long search)—Well, here it is. I wonder why one always finds a thing in the last place one hunts for it?

Bright Boy—I guess it's 'cause after folks find it they stop hunting.—Good News.

The one chance of a lifetime to secure a charming location for a Summer Home is at

MIZZEN PEAK, WATCHUNG MOUNTAIN,

Twenty minutes' drive from Bound Brook station, and one and one-quarter hours from New York via Royal Blue Line. Every one who has visited the spot pronounces it without exception the THE MOST DESIRABLE RESORT OF THE WHOLE RANGE; more natural advantages than at any other point. Do not fail to see it; first buyers can procure lots at very reasonable prices.

Also have other mountain property for sale at various points, viz.: near Washington Rock, 35 acres, house and barn; plots back of Plainfield, west of Somerset st., and on Johnston drive.

THE WEST SHORE WRECK

One of the Worst Accidents on the West Hudson.

REMOVING THE IDENTIFIED DEAD

How the Wreck Occured—Something Threw the Engine from the Track and it Crashed Into a Freight Engine on a Siding—Six Killed Instantly.

NEWBURGH, N. Y., July 14.—The smash up which occurred here yesterday is the worst that has occurred on this side of the river in this vicinity. The bodies of those of the dead that have been identified have been sent to their former homes while the severely injured who are at the hospital here are doing as well as can be expected considering the extremely warm weather.

The train that was wrecked is known as No. 1, and is due here at 12:04 p. m.

The train consisted of locomotive No. 200, a baggage and express car, a smoking car, day coaches Nos. 71 and 49, and the parlor car "Lurline." The engineer was Daniel Shelb and the conductor, Richard Anderson.

The train was a few minutes late at Cornwall, four miles south of here, and was running very fast. When it reached the switch which connects the main line with the West Shore freight yard, a mile south of the station, the engine jicked up, it is supposed, a loose object which caused it to jump upon a frog and leave the track. It ran upon the ties a distance equal to the length of the train and it then crashed into a freight train standing in the yard. The crash was terrific.

The freight train was being made up to start southward and was waiting for the express to pass. The freight train locomotive No. 206, was in charge of F. Holland. The express engine was evidently farther off the track than the remainder of the train and when it struck the freight engine it was thrown to one side and the tender torn from it.

The engineer upon feeling the engine leaving the track, shut off the steam, whistled for breaks, and he and the fireman jumped. The latter, Charles Willis, ruptured a blood vessel and was badly bruised. He was taken to the hospital. The engineer escaped with very slight injuries. Fred Holland, engineer of the freight, had his skull fractured at the base and was cut over the eye. It is thought that he will recover. No one else on the freight train was hurt. There were about a dozen persons in the smoking car and nearly all escaped injury.

Coach No. 7, was filled with passengers, every seat being occupied, and nearly all the casualties occurred in this car. It swayed to one side and struck the projecting end of a box car standing on the side track. The entire side of No. 7 was ripped off and the end nearest to the smoker was smashed. All those who were killed were on that side of that car.

Walter M. Berard, assessor of Highland Falls, was the only passenger in this car who escaped injury. He said he occupied a seat behind three women. Across the aisle were several ladies and children. He noticed little if any shock when the car ran over the switch. The crash came after the train had gone several yards on the side track.

There was a lull for a moment; then everything became a scene of the wildest confusion and the air was filled with the groans and cries of the wounded.

The seat occupied by Mr. Berard was broken into pieces, but he escaped as by a miracle.

The parlor car's trucks were broken, but the passengers, besides being severely shaken up, were not injured.

The railroad men in the neighborhood at once went to the place of the accident and began to pull out the dead and wounded.

The police and physicians of Newburgh were notified and about a dozen of the latter hurried to the scene and began caring for the wounded.

The following were killed:

Mrs. Eliza Klemm, wife of Antoine Klemm, of Highland Falls, N. Y. She was coming to Newburgh to do some shopping. Both her legs were broken and she was internally injured. She was dead when taken from the wreck.

A two-year-old child, daughter of Burnham Elberson, of Setauket, Long Island. Her parents were both injured.

An unknown woman, apparently about 84 years of age, of Hebrew cast of countenance.

Rose Reilly, a cook with a family of the name of Smith at West Park.

Mrs. B. Wright, of No. 80 Lee avenue, Brooklyn, mother of Mrs. Michael, who, with several of her children were injured.

In the confusion articles that might have aided in the identification were separated from the boilers, and not until the coroner makes his inquiry will the names of the unknown dead be positively known.

Two of the injured will probably die.

Twenty one of the wounded were taken to St. Luke's Hospital this city, where the surgical staff afforded all possible relief. The nurses are assisted by a number of ladies and gentlemen of Newburgh. Several who were slightly injured walked away and their names were not obtained.

Coroner John Corwin is holding an inquest to-day.

Knighted by Emperor William.

NEW YORK, July 14.—Mr. William Steinway, has received from Emperor William of Germany the insignia of the Order of the Red Eagle of the third class, carrying with it the honor of knighthood, the first order of the kind ever sent to an American citizen from the fatherland.

BOODY WANTS JUSTICE.

Brooklyn's Mayor Threatens to Bring Libel Suits and Cause Other Trouble.

BROOKLYN, N. Y., July 14.—After a two hours conference with ex-Secretary of the Navy, Benjamin F. Tracy, Mayor Boody has just made the following statement:

"The conference I had with my lawyer was in reference to the publication of the minutes of the proceedings of the grand jury. If Judge Moore grants me a copy of the minutes, I will publish them. The object of my securing the minutes is to bring to justice those witnesses who swore falsely against me. I cannot state exactly what action I will take but I can say that I will work very hard to bring them to account. I will also take action against certain newspapers that have published libels about me. I will bring them all to justice."

More English Failures.

LONDON, July 14.—The stock market is quiet to-day but has improved somewhat over the past two or three days. Three more failures have been reported and more are expected to give up the struggle soon.

To Start the Chess Tournament.

NEW YORK, July 14.—At the last meeting of the Columbian Chess Congress committee it was decided that all possible efforts should be made to start the International Tournament on September 21.

10,000 MEN ARE IDLE.

Every Plate Glass Factory in This Country Shut Down.

The First Time in the History of the Trade That Such a Condition of Affairs Has Existed—Many Workers Destitute.

PITTSBURG, July 14.—For the first time in the history of the trade every plate glass factory in the United States is closed, and that indefinitely. Fully 10,000 men are idle as a result.

The depression is attributed to three elements—over-production, a tight money market, and the arbitrary methods of the plate glass trust.

There are 12 plate glass factories in this country, where a few years ago the entire industry was carried on by two concerns. It has been the custom to operate plate glass factories the year round, notwithstanding the usual summer shutdown of the other glass industries.

Every plant in the country is now stocked with a large surplus, with no orders.

It is the impression that the factories will resume about the middle of September. Many of the glass workers are in straightened circumstances and are entirely dependent upon aid.

MORE NEW POSTMASTERS

Some of the Fourth Class Ones Appointed Yesterday.

WASHINGTON, July 14.—The total number of fourth-class postmasters appointed to-day was 93, of which 29 were to fill vacancies caused by resignations and death. Among the appointments were the following:

Maine—W. A. Vinal, jr., Ashland.
Connecticut—J. J. Post, Andover.
New York—Cyrus Surdam, Biddy's Crossing; C. A. L. Hommedian, Oakdale Station; C. C. Overton, jr., Shinnecock Hills.
New Jersey—H. M. Vliet, Valley; J. W. McClure, Williamston; Jos. Corzatt, Wood Glen.

To Close the Fair on Sundays.

CHICAGO, July 14.—To-day the directors of the World's Fair are talking on the Sunday question, and before the meeting adjourns it is probable that an order will be issued closing the gates on every Sunday until the end of the exposition. The directors have come to the conclusion that in view of the light attendance at the Fair on Sunday it will be a good business move to close the exhibition on that day.

Church Difficulties Left to the Court.

HARRISBURG, Pa., July 14.—It has been agreed between the two factions of the Evangelical Church in this State that the cases in Reading, Easton and Norristown and Williamstown, growing out of controversies over church property shall be argued together before the Supreme Court next spring and the decision shall be accepted as final in all other pending cases in Pennsylvania.

A Salvationist Fined $15.

SARATOGA, N. Y., July 14.—Joseph Garrabed, otherwise known as Joe the converted Turk, was convicted here of violating an ordinance by holding a Salvation Army street meeting. He was fined $15 by Police Justice Swart. He paid his fine and his attorneys, French and Smith, have appealed to the County Court as a test case.

Valuable Stallion Drops Dead.

SAGINAW, Mich., July 14.—Rolfe N., the handsome bay stallion at the head of the Oakland farm, record 2:26, a brother in blood to the famous Nelson, dropped dead on the track at Union Park yesterday. The cause of death was the bursting of a blood vessel. He was worth $10,000.

JUDGE JENKIN'S ARREST

Will Confer With the President About Resigning.

TRUSTED TOO MUCH TO AGENTS

Universal Regret Expressed in Court Circles in Chicago—Attorney Gilchrist Thinks the Charge Against Him Cannot Be Proved.

MILWAUKEE, July 14.—James G. Jenkins, the United States Circuit Court Judge who is under indictment here on the charge of bank wrecking in connection with the directory of the Plankinton bank, said to-day that he had no idea he was to be indicted. Had he received the least intimation of the fact he would have immediately resigned his seat on the Circuit Court bench.

Just what action he will take now he cannot state positively, but he thinks he will have some friend, probably Secretary Gresham, lay his case before the President and after hearing it, if Mr. Cleveland thinks he had best resign, he will do so.

The Judge will leave for Washington in a few days.

WHAT HIS FRIENDS SAY

Confident That the Judge Will Come Out All Right.

CHICAGO, July 14.—All persons about the Government building who are in any way connected officially with Judge Jenkins, express great regret at his arrest in Milwaukee. In all the discussion which takes place not a word of suspicion is heard, the tenor of talk being sympathetic and entirely expressive of the great confidence in which the jurist is held.

Judge Woods, on his arrival in the city, said concerning the reports:

"While we all feel greatly concerned and grieved, we do not imagine that what the whole matter will be cleared up eventually in the judge's favor. From all that can be learned he himself is as much a victim as any one else, for he trusted to others to look after his interests in the Plankington Bank. I am not familiar with the case, and can say nothing of the legality of the proceedings on the evidence submitted."

District Attorney Milchrist, after highly praising the integrity of Judge Jenkins, looked at the case from a legal standpoint.

"I see report has it that the arrest was made on the charge of embezzlement.

"Now, I am satisfied that they will not be able to sustain this charge, because it will be necessary to prove, actual complicity in the crime. The most that can be said is that the Judge was the victim of misplaced confidence.

"He was a bank director who had confidence enough in his confreres to allow them full charge of the bank's affairs. He knew nothing of their investments, and when the crash came it shocked him as well as others.

"It leaves no ground for sustaining the charge of embezzlement."

LEVELLED THE GRAIN

A Cloud Burst Near Somerville, N. J., Does Some Damage.

SOMERVILLE, N. J., July 14.—A cloud burst just over Finderne, one mile east of here, about 7 o'clock last evening. A great amount of water fell in a few minutes. The roads were washed out and fields of grain levelled to the earth.

A passing train was caught in the deluge and the water forced itself into the cars while all the windows and doors were closed.

Not a drop of rain fell here at the time.

Governor Morris Surprises Politicians.

HARTFORD, July 14.—Governor Morris has created a sensation by appointing Representative James Roche, Democratic Judge of the City Court of New Britain, in place of Judge Valentine B. Chamberlain, Republican, deceased, as it was expected that he would appoint a Republican in accordance with the understanding when the Republican house elected Judge Barbour, a Democrat, Judge of the Police Court of Hartford.

Paying Under the New Schedule.

WOONSOCKET, R. I., July 14.—Worcester division employes of the New York, New Haven & Hartford railroad are being paid according to the Providence Division new schedule, which is an advance for all the classes affected except passenger conductors having through runs, who find their pay reduced from $3.90 to $3.50 a day.

Gold Reserve Increases.

WASHINGTON, July 14.—The gold reserve in the treasury has increased $306,000 since Wednesday, and now stands at $98,098,141. But on the other hand, the currency has decreased from $87,353,891 to $26,904,770 in the same time, owing to heavy payments on account of pensions and post offices.

Wanted to Postpone Army Manœuvres

WOULD NOT APOLOGIZE

Rev. Mayham Must Answer to the Charge of Assault.

The Boy Whom He is Said to Have Kicked and Abused Gave Him a Chance to Say He Was Sorry.

RAHWAY, N. J., July 14.—The Rev. Dr. L. C. Mayham has been arrested for assault and battery, on a warrant issued by Police Justice Frazer upon complaint of Thomas Fagan, the 16 year old boy whom the Rev. Mayham is alleged to have kicked and abused on Saturday while the latter was at work in the new Second Methodist Episcopal Church.

The minister appeared before the justice and was put under $100 bail for his appearance before the Grand Jury at Elizabeth during the September term. The bail was furnished.

Mr. Fagan, Sr., when asked why he did not sooner swear out a warrant said that he wanted to give the preacher an opportunity to call and apologize. He failed to do this and the arrest followed.

YOUNG CRIMINALS, THESE

A Six Year-Old Boston Girl Arrested for Stealing.

BOSTON, July 14.—Flossie Schneider, who is scarcely six years of age, was brought into Station 2 yesterday and detained on the charge of obtaining goods under false pretenses of Mrs. M. F. Baily, who conducts a variety store.

Flossie is the youngest sister of Minnie Schneider, who on Tuesday last was sent to the State Primary school at Palmer for burglary.

It is probable that the diminutive offender, together with her seven-year-old brother Otto, and her eldest sister, Emma, will be placed in some institution.

Eastern Roads Should Be Likewise.

CHICAGO, July 14.—On and after July 15, the Big Four will make rates to Chicago of one fare for the round trip from every point on its system. Tickets at this rate will be good every day and on any regular or special passenger train. This was announced late last evening. Every competing line declares that it will meet the rates. This establishes the half rate business from the large eastern and southern territory.

The War in Samoa.

AUCKLAND, July 14.—The last Samoan mail contains reports of the outbreak of hostilities. First blood was shed while Mailetoa was marching on Malipe. He captured a rebel outpost after a short fight. His followers now outnumber the rebels five to one. Many of the rebels have deserted to him. Spain is feverishly excited.

Sea Girt Camp Opens To-day.

SAVE THE LITTLE ONES.

DREAD CHOLERA INFANTUM IS EASILY PREVENTED.

Lactated Food the Best Bill of Fare for Babies in July—Experience of Mothers and Physicians—Diet all Important.

"An infant crying in the night;
An infant crying for the light;
And with no language but a cry."

Now is the time when mothers are filled with apprehension, and start with dread when baby cries; it is July, the month when babies suffer from cholera infantum and inflammation of the bowels.

The greatest care is none too much for baby during June, July and August.

The great question is that of food, and the safest and the one bill of fare for babies and children that is always reliable is a very simple and short one, easily obtainable, nourishing, strengthening, palatable, always pure—lactated food.

Children fed on lactated food grow hardy and strong; the efficacy of the nutritive quality of this perfect substitute for pure human milk has long been acknowledged by the medical profession.

Pure mother's milk is the ideal food for infants, but when this out of the question lactated food, which more closely than anything else resembles healthy human milk, should be used.

The majority of deaths of children under five years is directly traceable to the ignorance and mismanagement of mothers; but it is being better and better known that the dreadful scourge, cholera infantum and similar summer troubles may be prevented by the use of lactated food; in many communities it has reduced the ratio of mortality of infants under 5 years; it has entered the practical working pharmacopeia of thousands of physicians; it cannot be too often said that it has saved thousands of infants' lives and caused as many more to grow plump and active.

The careful mother should not give her child anything the composition of which is not known to her; lactated food is not a secret preparation; it is made in the most careful manner from the nourishing elements of wheat and barley properly combined with the pure sugar of milk; the buildings where it is prepared and put up are famous for their absolute cleanliness; it never spoils.

Mothers the country over have for year been writing grateful letters telling how their children when fed upon lactated food have grown from weak and puny babies to healthy, happy, hearty youngsters, and this experience of other mothers together with the best medical skill is at the service of every mother in the land.

Mr. A. D. Wentworth, Niagara Falls, a picture of whose baby is given above, writes: "Our boy was born in March and his mother died one week after his birth; he was so feeble that we did not think we could raise him, but a friend recommended lactated food to us, after we tried almost everything else, and since then he has thrived like a young rabbit and has never had a sick day; he weighs twenty pounds and is in perfect health."

Mrs. J. F. Whitson from away out in Michigan, writes: "We owe the life of our baby girl to lactated food and we treasure her more than we can express; people that call on me say, 'what a nice, fat baby!' How I wish mine was as fat and healthy. I tell them to feed their baby lactated food and it will be just as fat; I will recommend the lactated food to every mother I meet; we have used it ever since you sent us the sample last spring, and think there is no other like it; no words of mine can fully describe the merits of lactated food."

Took Too Much Chloral.

EVERETT, Mass., July 14.—Dr. Abbot Sanford was found dead in his room yesterday with a partly filled bottle of chloral beside his couch. During a severe attack of the grippe the doctor formed the cocaine habit and had spent some time in the Keeley Institute for treatment.

THE RICHMOND STREET GANG.

They're a Bad Lot, and Need Considerable Police Attention.

Four offenders were in the city court this morning. They were Thomas Gorman, James Motley, Robert Schwak and a man named Pierson. This quartette belongs to what is known as the Richmond street gang. A complaint was made against them by Brook Carson and they were arrested yesterday. Carson said he was going over the Green brook bridge on Richmond street, Tuesday night and that James Motley threw stones at him. He warned him to stop but Motley continued to throw stones and asked Carson if he wanted to fight. Carson's blood was up and he proceed to lay out Motley but was interfered with by the other members who held him while Motley struck him repeatedly. Carson got away and made the complaint and judge Coddington fined Motley $10 and the other three $5 a piece this morning.

AT REST FOREVER.

MASONIC HONORS ATTEND THE OBSEQUIES OF THE LAMENTED WILLIAM L. FORCE.

Over a new-made grave in North Plainfield cemetery, the summer breezes sighed last night, and the skies drenched the fresh green sod with weeping. Beneath the turf of this earthen tomb reposes in silent and eternal rest the body of William L. Force.

The respect and esteem which were felt in the hearts of the people for the departed, were eloquently expressed in the large gathering at the funeral services. The City Hotel was turned into a house of mourning. All the rooms of the entire second story were thrown into one, and camp chairs were arranged so that all should hear the words of the divines who were to speak.

Within a darkened room where all might see, was laid the casket. Its cover was of rich black cloth, relieved by massive silver plate and handles. Masonic emblems of silver adorned the head and the foot. The inscription was the simple chronological record:

Died July 10, 1893,
WILLIAM L. FORCE,
Aged 52 years, 6 months, 16 days.

Grief-stricken relatives and sorrowing friends thronged continually about the coffin. They gazed long and tenderly on the dear dead face. Save for the pallor that death alone can give, he seemed to be peacefully sleeping. His arms were folded in easy repose. The hair that more than half a century of Christmas birthday anniversaries had silvered, was brushed back from the forehead as in life. There was no mark of pain or wrinkle of suffering. But the lurking smile of gentility was gone from the lips, and the eyelids shut in those orbs that once had beamed of overflowing generosity.

The lapel of the coat bore the badge of the Exempt Firemen's association, reverently pinned there by Auguste Saltzman of that order. The background was a drapery of black, a heavy curtain arranged in graceful folds. Against this, above the casket, were heaped up floral tributes of rarest beauty. There was a bunch of wild roses, dainty sweet briers, from some unknown friend who kept his identity concealed. A crescent of white and yellow blossoms bore in red immortelles the expressive word "Exempt", an appropriate tribute from the veteran firemen. The Masonic fraternity contributed a large pillow of yellow and white roses, ruffled with the ever-graceful smilax. On it, the square and compass design representing the Blue Lodge, was pictured in blue immortelles; the cross and crown of the Templars were in yellow, at the center; on the other side was the triangle of Royal Arch Masons, in red. The bereaved widow's affection was expressed in another pillow of white roses and pinks and lilies, with the loving word "Husband" in purple immortelles. Gen. Wm. H. Sterling sent a beautiful maltese cross. From J. S. Anthony came two elegant funeral palms, bound together with sprays of smilax. Mr. and Mrs J. P. Laire contributed a box of white roses and sweet peas. Mrs. Adella H. West gave a sickle, all in white. Nephews and nieces united in one common sympathy in a white wreath bearing the words "Uncle Will" in purple immortelles. Mr. and Mrs. J. A. F. Simpson of Fanwood sent a cross. Annie Clayton of Princeton had tastefully grouped together maidenhair ferns, brakes, roses and pinks. A bunch of water lilies exhaled their perfume. They were from VanOver Cottage, Lake Hopatcong, where, amid the glories of Nature he loved so well, the deceased was wont to spend his summers. From the PRESS employes was a mammoth wreath of white sweet-pea blossoms, English violets and white and spotted Japanese lilies. It was all a most touching picture.

The services in the hotel were simple and impressive. The venerable clergyman, the Rev. Dr. D. J. Yerkes, arose and bowed his head, and brought the people's hearts before the Lord, in prayer. Then he read passages of Scripture appropriate to the sad occasion. Beginning with the selection from Romans, "Wherefore, as by one man sin entered into the world, and death by sin", he went on through the parable of the wise and foolish virgins and the coming of the Bridegroom, to those comforting selections, "Blessed are they who die in the Lord" and "Come ye blessed of my Father". He drew from the precious fountain of Revelations the blessed assurance that there shall be no more death There, for the former things have passed away; and all joined in dependence on the Saviour's staff as he read of the Psalmist walking through the dark valley. He showed how God is our refuge and our strength, and told how to live was Christ, to die was gain. The resurrection hope was offered by the fifteenth chapter of I Corinthians, "forsemuch as ye know that your labor is not in vain in the Lord", and counsel was given to "watch and pray", and "be ye also ready".

In a brief address and sermon Dr. Yerkes dwelt on the great and eloquent lesson to be interpreted by the preacher from the presence of death. The departed had held a place in a great many minds and hearts. He had been a public journalist, and through the peculiar influence of journalism had come into personal contact and association with nearly the entire community. He had been a public officer. His face was familiar to all. And now his friends were gathered to look upon him for the last time. He had gone away from them. It was in such solemn events as this that God spake to men, and showed how truly life was but a brief pilgrimage, of few days, and full of trouble.

The days come and go—said Dr. Yerkes—and are as milestones on the journey through life. Time never stays. Pleasant things touch our hearts, and pleasant places we enjoy, but they are only temporary, for soon we leave them all behind. Joshua might retard the sun, the shadow might go back on the dial of Hezekiah, and the Jordan might roll back its waters, but our lives stayed not in their course, and the end was soon at hand.

I am thinking to-day—continued the preacher—of the frailty of man, who withereth like the grass of the field, or is cut down like the flower or the corn tops. We look on the leaves of the trees, and they are green and full of life. But after awhile they fall, and the winter winds whistle through the lifeless branches. Just as the grass withers and the leaf fades, so is man.

The thought of man's frailty never comes so sensibly home to the human heart as when looking on the face of the dead, and touching the cold and lifeless form. From the clay the life had departed; the eye no longer sparkled: for the man had gone to his long home, and the mourners went about the street.

I am thinking to-day—he added—of the inevitableness of this event; it comes so surely. All forms of life must die. All that throbs with blood is subject to dissolution and decay. Blood, the source of life, is itself the very seat of death. Even though accident and disease be escaped, the infirmity of old age is sure to smite.

I am thinking to-day of the suddenness and unexpectedness of death. Who would have thought a few weeks ago that our friend so soon would go? Little did he dream, little did we think, of it. Yet to-day he is gone from the ranks of the living. We know not what a day may bring forth, and there is but a step between us and death. How good a thing it is to be prepared for the great and stupendous change!

Human life is but the scaffolding around an immortal being. This life is not worth the living—save for the life to come. Brief as it is, it is of infinite value in the work of preparing ourselves for eternity, for the kingdom of God and his righteousness.

In conclusion, Dr. Yerkes spoke of the great sorrow of this bereavement to the mother, wife, sister, brothers, and others; and directed them to the God of the afflicted, who would bestow compassion and comfort on their troubled hearts according to his tender and infinite mercies. He earnestly commended them to the keeping of the Almighty, the Husband of the widow, and the Friend of all who put their trust in His love.

Tender and touching was the prayer then breathed by the Rev Cornelius Schenck. He asked for God's richest blessings on all assembled, and especially petitioned for most gracious compassion on her who had been the partner of the departed in all his joys and sorrows, his pains and afflictions. He prayed that she might be encircled by the everlasting arms of His mercy, and urged that all might live up to the lesson that life was fleeting and death was sure.

With tears dimming their vision, and sorrow choking their throats, all filed past the casket where lay the dead, and took a farewell look at the reposeful features. Strong men were bowed with grief, and old comrades said "Ah, but he's in his glories!"

The casket and the flowers were borne to the hearse, and a large funeral procession formed and went to the cemetery. Park avenue was black with people; during the services in the hotel a large crowd had stood outside unable to find room within the hearing of the clergymen.

Among those gathered at the obsequies were prominent citizens and men from every walk of life. Senator W. J. Keye, who had sent a kind letter of sympathy, was there. James E. Martine, Major J. H. Ackerman of New Providence, and Freeholder Bradford Jones, of the same place, were also present. Ex-Gov. Green sent a letter of sympathy. Editor and Assemblyman Thomas Lane of Summit telegraphed condolences. Ex-county clerk Henry R. Cannon sent a message of sorrow and said that illness detained him.

At the cemetery, the Exempt Firemen's association, headed by chief T. O. Doane, and Jerusalem lodge, headed by Worshipful Master C. H. Rugg, formed a circle about the grave. The Worshipful Master stationed himself at the head of the grave, and the chief mourners at the foot. Pallbearers Wm. A. Coddington, William Sebring, Henry Woodland, John Chandler, John E. Beerbower and and E. P. Thorn (all of Trinity Commandery, Knights Templar) lowered the body to its final resting place. Mr. Rugg conducted the beautiful Masonic service, and chaplain Daniel L. Gulick made a prayer. All joined in the Masonic hymn for the dead, and after the Worshipful Master had placed a lambskin apron on the casket all followed him in depositing emblematic sprigs of evergreen in the grave. They gave the grand honors, indicating how they cherished in their hearts the memory of the departed, committed his body to the dust, and his spirit unto God who gave it. The Worshipful Master committed "dust to dust", and the Rev Dr. Yerkes pronounced the benediction. The large concourse of people turned sadly away.

To-day the grave is a beauty-spot in the city of the dead. The floral tributes of the living adorn the mound, and the songbirds sweetly sing in the neighboring branches.

Only the Carpets Suffered.

A bolt of lightning descended the kitchen chimney of H. Depew's home on Ninth street, last evening, and burst just over the range. The house was filled with smoke and the carpets on the lower floor are so saturated with soot that they are probably ruined. Mrs. Depew saw the bolt which she describes as a ball of blue fire.

Had a Jolly Time Anyhow.

A party of young people had made all arrangements for a stage ride last night but owing to the storm they were unable to go. They were not to be done out of their fun, however, and the entire party remained at Mrs. William E. Lowe's, whence they had intended starting, and spent the evening in dancing.

The American Catarrh Cure

Is the result of twenty-six years' study and treatment of the disease. One bottle convinces the most skeptical. It is always ready for use, needing neither douche nor atomizer. It restores the hearing, cures the hawking cough and expectorating, removes the headache and nose bleeding, increases the appetite, produces sound sleep, invigorates the whole system and increases the vitality. Prepared only by W. B. Jones, M. D., No. 1336 South Eighth street, Philadelphia. For sale by I. W. Randolph, 21 West Front street. Price $1.

Could n't Get Away, with Jerry After Him.

Jerry Moore made a neat capture of a thief this morning. He delivered some goods at F. O. Herring's house just in time to see a young chap run away with a bundle from the barn. He gave chase, nabbed the fellow, and restored some excellent clothing to the coachman. The thief said he was a respectable Baltimorean in hard luck. Mrs. Herring's mother gave him good advice and declined to prosecute.

Plainfield's Shooter Lost.

The shooting match for $100 a side, at 25 live birds each, between Harry Campbell of Plainfield and Aaron Woodruff, yesterday, was won by Woodruff. The score was 23 to 21. The birds were very lively.

One of my children had a very bad discharge from her nose. Two physicians prescribed, but without benefit. We tried Ely's Cream Balm, and much to our surprise, there was a marked improvement. We continued using the Balm and in a short time the discharge was cured.—O. A. Cary, Corning, N. Y.

The children's health must not be neglected. Cold in the head causes catarrh. Ely's Cream Balm cures at once. It is perfectly safe and is easily applied into the nostrils. The worst cases yielding to it. Price 50c.

THE BOARD OF TRADE.

That Excellent New Organization Progressing Finely.

A meeting of the board of trade took place in the board's rooms in the old Crescent League building last night. It was the first real meeting of the association as the act of incorporation was not filed until Tuesday.

After waiting the customary time in the deliberations of this body the meeting was called to order at 8:40 by president Rockfellow. The reading of the minutes of the last meeting was dispensed with as the secretary did not have them in a shape to read. Postmaster Pope, who was chairman of the last meeting owing to the absence of president Rockfellow, told those present last night what business had been transacted.

The constitution and by-laws were read as they had been revised to meet the requirements of the law of incorporation.

The chief change was in the clause providing for a board of directors. This formerly called for 9 members but there must be at least 10 by law and as an odd number is desirable it was decided to have 11. This in turn made it necessary to change the number in the quorum of the board of directors and it was raised at last night's meeting from 5 to 6.

The counsel reported that the articles of incorporation had been duly filed, returned and sent to the Secretary of State. The members present proceeded to sign the constitution. A list of the charter members has already been given in THE PRESS. The meeting than adjourned.

A meeting of the board of directors was held immediately after the adjournment of the meeting of the Board of Trade to discuss the old claims against the Crescent League and put the association on a good footing with the creditors of that organization.

Tried Worker, Good Friend, Noble Fireman.

Engine Co. No. 2 at a meeting last night adopted the following:

WHEREAS, It has pleased our Heavenly Father in His all-wise providence to remove from among us our late ex-fireman and friend, Theodore J. Gillies—

Resolved, That in parting with him we, his old comrades of Engine Co. No. 2, have lost a tried and good worker and friend, as well as a noble fireman.

Resolved, That our communion with him was always fraught with good, and no one ever sought counsel with him without receiving it.

Resolved, That we deeply grieve at being separated from him, and we hereby sympathize with his partner in life, also with his children, who have lost a fond and loving father.

Resolved, That a copy of these resolutions be spread upon the minutes of the company's books and a copy be sent to the family of deceased.

Stole a Boat for His Girl.

(New Market Correspondence Dunellen Call.)

On the night of the Fourth, a young man and his girl from Plainfield, who had come to witness the pyrotechnical exhibition, thinking it would be pleasant and more secluded upon the water, engaged one of Coriell's boats, and after rowing about for some time the young man proposed to go ashore and have some cream, to which the lady readily assented. After refreshments they returned to the shore, but the boat had disappeared, and seeing another one close at hand they broke it loose and rowed away. Upon returning they found the owner very mad, who demanded two dollars as compensation for his boat. The young fellow pulled a one dollar bill from his pocket and said that was all the money he had, but gave his name and address and promised to send the balance by mail. In due time a letter was received begging to be let off, as he had paid pretty well for boating. He was let off. This practice of taking boats that belong to others is annoying, and it is to be regretted that this young man could not find the party who took his.

What's His Name?

The Dunellen Call says: "The board of education, at a meeting held on Thursday evening, July 6, voted to extend the principalship of our public schools to one who had been recommended to them as one who would fill the bill. The gentleman has signified his acceptance and will come to us during this summer. To the patrons of the school we may say that he comes with a record of the last eight years spent in one place as principal of a school employing eight teachers."

Oh, What a Cough!

Will you heed the warning. The signal perhaps of the sure approach of that more terrible disease, Consumption. Ask yourselves if you can afford for the sake of saving 50c., to run the risk and do nothing for it. We know from experience that Shiloh's Cure will cure your cough. It never fails. This explains why more than a Million Bottles were sold the past year. It relieves croup and whooping cough at once. Mothers, do not be without it. BASE-BALL BABBLE.

Good Game at Middletown, and a Greater Coming To-Morrow.

Manager Keller's Plainfield base-ball team went to Middletown yesterday and lost to the Asylum nine in a beautiful game. The diamond is of grass, but, in spite of not being used to it, the Crescents put up an errorless game—one of the greatest fielding exhibitions ever seen. The new man whom manager Keller was trying in the box gave the Asylum nine their lead, they hitting hard and getting bases on balls. Then little Keenan was put in, and with his accustomed coolness held the batsmen down to three hits. Keenan also made a great stop of a hot line hit. Sneden's home-run hit was the longest ever batted on the diamond. Leo Smith by his cute head work made a fine double play. The score:

Asylum	0	0	0	5	2	0	1	2	0	—10
Crescent	0	0	0	2	0	3	0	1	1	—7

You'll miss the game of the season if you stay away from the Crescent grounds to-morrow. The batting order:

The Second Party to Chicago.

The second Honeyman party from Plainfield to the World's Exposition report the same perfect weather and the same delightful accommodations at the hotel as the first party enjoyed. Everyone is doing as he pleases and all are seeing "the most wonderful creation of man", as Charles Dudley Warner describes the Fair. The party speaks in unmeasured terms both of the arrangements made and the sights to be seen. Letters from the members indicate that they will regret to leave next Monday. The next tour will leave Plainfield August 18. Ladies can go on these tours with perfect comfort and without companions.

AN AUGUST ROAD RACE.

Lyceum Wheelmen Bound to Keep Cycling Alive.

That stirring young organization, the Lyceum Wheelmen, last night decided to conduct a road race on the Scotch Plains-Fanwood course August 26. The start will be from Scott's Press Works. The race will be open to all the State, and Capt. Kiely will receive entries. Prizes will be offered by the Lyceum Wheelmen.

A Man of Sterling Qualities.

(Westfield Leader.)

W. L. Force, senior proprietor of the Plainfield Press, died at noon Monday, from the effects of a driving accident received June 24. He was 52 years of age, and was a man of sterling qualities. In 1868 he founded the Constitutionalist, and in 1887 the Press. He was postmaster during the first Cleveland administration, and held other local offices.

He'll Get Success by Deserving It.

The Bound Brook Democrat says: "John D. Kirch, formerly of Warren township, bought property in North Plainfield and moved there a short time ago. He is foreman over a gang of carpenters for builders Kain & Brokaw. John is a good mechanic, and we wish him success in his new position."

Honors From the Press Club.

The Union County Press club held a special meeting Wednesday afternoon, and a committee was appointed to prepare resolutions on the death of William L. Force, late of the Plainfield Daily Press. The president of the club was appointed to be its representative at the funeral services.

Sincere Sympathy.

(Dunellen Weekly Call.)

We see by the Press that W. L. Force has departed this life. The editors of the CALL extends to the bereaved circle in the home and also to the members of the editorial staff their sympathy.

They're All Engaged.

(Westfield Leader.)

The Plainfield Press announces that its office cat has presented the staff with five kittens. There's news for those papers wanting office cats.

Valuable to His Community.

The Bound Brook Democrat, referring to the death of Wm. L. Force, says: 'In all positions he gave valuable service and made many warm friends who sincerely sympathise with his bereaved widow.

Not Quite So Soon, Brother Lowrie.

Our genial editor of The Press—says the Dunellen Call—has received his papers from the government, and will leave for his place in the far northeast about July 20.

Speculating on His Successor.

It is probable that Walter Irving Clarke, now city editor, will succeed Mr. Demarest as editor of the Press.—Westfield Leader.

Read and Reflect.

The great mass of mankind lose their health through inattention to catarrh of the head and throat. This insidious disease was considered incurable until the discovery of the American Catarrh Cure. For sale by L. W. Randolph, 21 West front street. Price $1.00.

Shiloh's Cough Cure.

This is beyond question the most successful Cough Medicine we have ever sold; a few doses invariably cure the worst cases of Cough, Croup and Bronchitis, while its wonderful success in the cure of Consumption is without a parallel in the history of medicine. Since its first discovery it has been sold on a guarantee, a test which no other medicine can stand. If you have a cough we earnestly ask you to try it. Price, 50c. and $1. If your lungs are sore, chest, or back lame, use Shiloh's Porous Plaster. Sold by A. D. Mallinson, 95 North Avenue, opposite railroad station. 5-16-y

STREETS SUBMERGED AGAIN.

Better Surface Drainage Needed in the Too-Easily-Swamped District.

Those who were unfortunate enough to be abroad last evening during and after the thunder storm had ample opportunity to see the results of the present method of surface draining in the streets.

Within one hour of the time that the rain started the streets in the business part of the town were rendered quite impassable to the pedestrian who was not provided with a pair of hip boots or a captain Paul Boynton suit. The gutters were calmly flowing rivers running towards the rapidly rising ponds at the corners of the streets. Under the railroad bridges at Park avenue and Watchung avenue the water was fully 18 inches deep, and under the latter bridge were great pieces of board walk that had floated from adjacent sidewalks. A lone man stood under this bridge on the edge of the lake and looked hopelessly at the other shore, and a cab, coming down the street, splashed through the pond with the water up to the horse's knees. At Washington avenue and Front street a seething torrent covered the sidewalks and an aged Hebrew with a peddler's pack on his back stood on an island rapidly decreasing in size and gave vent to his feelings in loud wails.

The corner of Liberty street and Second was completely submerged and the stream that started there went all the way to Grant avenue.

The wooden bridge over the gutter in front of No. 2's house floated down in front of the City Hotel and was towed back and fastened in place by one of the firemen. That such a state of things should result from a summer thunder storm should certainly make the city government look a little into a better drainage system than the one that now obtains.

PARTICULAR MENTION.

Miss A. O. Marsh is seeing the World's Fair.

Mrs. W. K. McClure is with friends in Montreal.

A. W. Duxbury is spending his vacation days at Plymouth, Mass.

East Stroudsburg, Pa., is exhibiting its summer delights to Seely Edsall.

The Misses Fawcett, 15 Grove street, will spend a month at Ocean Grove.

A. S. Patterson, city accountant, is keeping cool at Mecox Inn, Water Mill, Long Island.

Mrs. G. F. Randolph has been obliged by illness to return home, and is now confined to her bed.

Mrs. James Andrews, of Jersey City Heights, is visiting Mr. and Mrs. Andrew Muir, of West Fourth street.

Mrs. John Gray Foster and Mrs. Deuse M. VanVliet and daughter Ruth and maid left to-day for a visit to Avon-by-the-Sea.

M. Marvin Dunham, who has been so very ill, has so far recovered as to be able this morning to join the Warren Mission excursionists.

The remodeling of the interior of James Clark's home at Seventh street and Central avenue, is making of it one of the handsomest, in many respects, of any in Plainfield. The dining room, especially, is beyond rivalry by a like apartment in this city. The architect is A. L. C. Marsh and the decorators are New York artists. White mahogany is used with charming effect in the reception room, and the combination of quartered oak and dull silver in the dining room is a most delightful novelty. The same rare judgment and taste in both wood work and wall treatment as have already been shown, promise for the parlors something beyond what has yet been seen in Plainfield.

GLADSTONE SCORED BY A LIBERAL

The House Was Crowded to See the Passage of Several Important Clauses—Conservatives Leave the Chamber, But Return Again.

LONDON, July 14.—In the House of Commons yesterday, the debate was marked by an attack on Mr. Gladstone by a member of his own party. Mr. Robert Wallace, (Liberal) member for East Edinburgh, was opposed to the withdrawal of the "in-and-out" sub-section of Clause 9, announcement of which was made by Mr. Gladstone Wednesday, and he spoke at length against the course of the Prime Minister.

He said that the withdrawal of this subsection gave to the Irish members retained in the Imperial Parliament all the rights and privileges held by British members, and that this would deprive Great Britain of home rule by making the Irish members the arbiters of British interests.

Mr. Henry Labouchere, the well-known Radical member, said that he advocated the total exclusion of the Irish from the Imperial Parliament, but, he added, he would take no course that would tend to wreck the bill.

Mr. Joseph Chamberlain, the Liberal Unionist leader, charged Mr. Gladstone with deceiving the country and with breaking his publicly expressed pledge against the retention of the power of the Irish members to discuss all affairs of policy and to vote thereon. The government, Mr. Chamberlain declared, was now unmasked, and he, speaking in behalf of the Liberal Unionists, challenged it to appear before the country on the issue raised.

Mr. Chamberlain's remarks were greeted with cheers by the Opposition.

Between 9 and 10 o'clock the galleries of the House were crowded with people anxious to watch the work of the Government in forcing through the several clauses of the Home Rule bill. The Peers' gallery was filled even earlier.

The closure was applied by a vote of 335 to 298 amid loud opposition.

As Chairman Mellor proceeded to put the question on Clause 10, the first of the financial clauses, the Conservatives, after cheering derisively, left the House in a body.

The votes on Financial Clauses 11 to 17, and 20 to 21 were postponed, and then the Conservatives returned.

In all eleven clauses were passed.

No Lives Lost.

WATERLOO, Ia., July 14.—This place was visited by a cyclonic storm yesterday which did $3,000 damage to buildings, shade trees and sidewalks. As far as known no lives were lost.

Killed a Whale in the St. Lawrence.

QUEBEC, July 14.—The tugboat Beaver, while coming up the river, struck a dead whale off Metis. The whale is supposed to have been struck and killed by a passing steamer.

WILL NOT PAY THE LOSS

The Consolidated Road Says the Fire Was "an Act of God."

NEW HAVEN, July 14.—The management of the Consolidated road have just completed their investigation into the cause of the fires in their freight yard last Saturday night in which some sixty or more cars, most of which were loaded, were destroyed.

The company, after a very careful examination, has come to the conclusion that the fire was due to a stroke of lightning, and that being an "act of God," or the action of the elements over which they have no control, consequently they hold that they are not responsible for the damage done, and will not make good the loss.

It is not improbable, however, that the company's decision may be contested in the courts by some of the heaviest losers.

In reference to the actual amount of damage done by the fire the officials say that in their opinion it will not exceed $100,000 all told.

Big Guns for Battleships.

WASHINGTON, July 14.—The first of the twelve thirteen-inch guns being constructed at the Washington navy yard for the main batteries of the battleships Indiana, Oregon and Massachusetts has been completed, and will be tested at the Indian Head naval proving ground as soon as a proof mount can be built. Seven of the guns are well advanced.

NEW YORK CITY WATER

Now Said to be Entirely Free from Nitrates.

President Wilson States that the Death Rate Shows a Big Decrease—Croton Water, Consequently, Not Deadly.

NEW YORK, July 14.—The last analysis of Croton water, made by Assistant Chemist Beebe of the Sanitary Bureau of the Health Department, indicates an improved condition. No nitrites whatever were discovered, and the Health Department officials now look for a steady improvement.

President Charles Wilson of the Board of Health said in this connection:

"Our records for the week show that there has been an actual decrease of 149 in the number of deaths occurring in this city as compared with the first five days of the corresponding week of last year.

"These statistics certainly prove conclusively the correctness of my claim that the present state of Croton water has not increased the number of deaths in this city. Our records also reveal a large increase over the average number of deaths from typhoid fever in previous years.

So far as our department is concerned we have had no indications whatever that the condition of the water is dangerous to health."

TEN YEARS FOR A SPREE

James Burns Had Been Pardoned by Governor Flower.

ALBANY, July 14.—In May, 1889, Jas. Burns was sentenced for a term of 13 years for robbery in the first degree committed in Herkimer county. On January 10 last Gov. Flower pardoned him on condition that he abstain from the use of intoxicating liquor for five years from that time.

Last week Burns was arrested in Rochester for being in a state of beastly intoxication, and when the attention of the judge was called to the proviso in the Governor's pardon, he sent Burns back to Auburn prison to serve the remaining ten years of his original sentence.

Burns will now have to serve his full term and cannot avail himself of the statutory reduction of sentence for good behavior.

THE "FIRST" ARRESTED

He Sold Beer Openly on Asbury Park's Streets.

ASBURY PARK, N. J., July 14.—Asbury Hurley, who has the distinction of being the first child born in Asbury Park, has been arrested for selling beer openly on the streets and for being drunk and disorderly.

He was fined $20 and costs.

Hurley defied two officers and they are to be disciplined for not arresting him. Hurley was a former protege of James A. Bradley.

Rev. Thomas Sing Indicted.

TACOMA, Wash., July 14.—The grand jury has returned an indictment against Rev. Thomas Sing for violation of the Geary Act in attempting to land 30 Chinese laborers from the Steamer Mogul, on the pretext that they were actors for the World's Fair. Sing claims to be a missionary of the Methodist church, educated in San Francisco.

The President's Rheumatism All Gone.

BUZZARD'S BAY, Mass., July 14.—President Cleveland is enjoying another quiet day at Gray Gables. He had few callers and put in a good day's rest with his family. He has nearly recovered from his attack of rheumatism. There has not been an office-seeker here since he arrived, and all Government business has thus far been kept from him.

Mrs. Kinmouth Left a Fortune.

ASBURY PARK, N. J., July 14.—Mrs. H. S. Kinmouth, wife of Dr. Hugh S. Kinmouth, of this place, was bequeathed $123,000 by her uncle, the late Leland Stansordi the California millionaire. Dr. Kinmouth is the physician who figured prominently in the Carlyle Harris wife-poisoning case.

Squall on Chautauqua Lake.

CHAUTAUQUA, July 14.—A severe storm swept over the lake yesterday afternoon about 4 o'clock. It came up very suddenly, and several boats were capsized, but fortunately without serious results.

SHOOTING OF CORBETT.

A Detective Story, Wrong-End Foremost, by Fielding.

The Difficulty in This Case Was to Find An Innocent Man Who Couldn't Be Convicted with Perfect Ease—A Surplus of Evidence.

[COPYRIGHT, 1893.]

The value of circumstantial evidence is too serious a subject to treat with levity. I would not jest about it for ten dollars a column. Judges at large salaries and jurors at three dollars a day and board may make it ridiculous if they so desire. That is a question between them and their conscience. As for me, I tell the story of the shooting of Dick Corbett because I believe that it will be a valuable contribution to the discussion which recent remarkable criminal trials have evoked. There is no fiction here. I have not altered a single detail. Indeed I was not tempted. The facts are sufficiently absurd to suit my contention that by circumstantial evidence anything except the truth can be proven.

Dick Corbett, at twenty-one, was the editor of the Daily News of Aurora, Ill. Jake Siegmund owned the paper and set the type.

Journalism in Aurora was then in the genial stage. Every man who figured in print, whether he was notable for benevolence or burglary, was described as "the genial" Mr. So-and-So. Meanwhile, scandal was boiling so hard in the town that one could stand twenty miles out on the prairie and hear it sizzle. A trained metropolitan journalist could have gone into Aurora and wrecked a dozen homes the first day. The stories told across back fences, if proven in court, would have filled the jails with genial citizens. These possibilities, however, were studiously overlooked by the editors of the local papers.

THE PLOT THICKENS.

Corbett was a bright young man, but he was not wholly exempt from the errors appropriate to his years. He believed that editors were great men, and his ideas about proprietors were somewhat vague. Therefore, when Siegmund sold out to Willis B. Hawkins, Dick was surprised almost as much as he was grieved to find that his own share in the transaction was represented by the key of the street in a tin box. When, in the course of some days, Dick discovered that, after all, he was only the cube root of himself, he went to Hawkins and asked for a job. Hawkins was editor and Siegmund was still sticking type, so that there didn't seem to be any great demand for Dick, but his entreaties prevailed.

"Your work," said Hawkins, "will be to get me one sensation a week."

For some months this was easy. All the good old yarns that had been ready for so long were spun, and Dick made from one to a dozen deadly enemies every Thursday. That was scandal-day with the News, and it became much more popular than Sunday in Aurora.

But at last the crop was reaped. There came a Wednesday when Dick had no sensation. He announced the fact to Hawkins in the morning.

"What, no sensation?" cried the able editor. "Well, Dick, I'm sorry for you, but—"

"Sorry for me? Why, what do you mean?"

"I thought that you understood our agreement," said Hawkins. "You were to get a sensation every week."

"But there isn't any this week."

"There must be. Your position depends upon it."

The death rattle could be heard in Dick's throat. No man with any trace of pity could view his distress unmoved.

"If there isn't any sensation this week you must make one," said Hawkins, kindly. "Can't you get somebody to assault you?"

"Dimmock, the dentist, has been threatening to shoot me," said Dick, brightening.

"That's good. Go call on him. Tell him you've got another story about him, worse than the last one."

Dick grabbed his hat and ran. In ten minutes he was back again, looking very blue.

"Dimmock's not in his office," he said. "They say he's on a spree and nobody knows where to find him."

Hawkins looked at the young man severely.

"I see that I'll have to manage this affair for you," he said. "Go home and get your silk hat, that one you discarded last week. Bring it here wrapped in a paper."

The hat was brought. When Dick appeared with it, Hawkins drew a revolver from a drawer in his desk, and said: "Come with me."

They went to the outskirts of the town, and, in a deserted gravel pit under the shelter of a high bluff, set the hat on a mullein stalk. Then Hawkins put a bullet through it.

"Now we'll call on Dr. Gilson," said he, in an encouraging tone, to his young assistant, "and get him to cut a hole in your head."

The genial Dr. Gilson was a stern-faced old fellow who liked a joke better than any other man in Aurora.

"Why certainly," said he, when the matter had been explained to him; "sit right down here, Dick, and I'll fix you up so that any doctor in town will swear that you've had a bullet along your scalp."

Dick did not utterly enjoy himself while the doctor was artistically making a bullet wound to match the hole in the hat; but he survived the operation.

In those days all Aurora went to the post office immediately after supper. On the day in question there was the usual crowd about seven o'clock. At that hour Hawkins and Dick walked up the main street, and separated at a corner in full view of the throng. Corbett walked down a cross street which led towards his home. Fifty yards from the main street he came to an alley which was quite dark. He looked all around. Nobody was watching. He took off the light hat with the hole in it, and rubbed the wound in his head to make it bleed, according to the directions from his medical adviser. Then he fired the revolver in the air; flung it as far as he could up the alley, and fell on the sidewalk.

There was a crowd around him in no time. He was tenderly raised from the ground, and borne into a livery stable near by where he was laid upon a bench. Among the first to arrive was Dr. Gilson. Two or three other doctors were in the crowd. They examined the wound and unanimously pronounced it serious. There were indications that the skull had been fractured.

Hawkins stood, meanwhile, at the feet of his wounded assistant. He observed with pleasure that Dick was pale as a ghost. In fact the young man was nearly fainting with excitement.

The air was full of execrations. The hat with a hole in it was passed from hand to hand. It was openly said that the assassin could expect to ornament a lamp-post before morning, if he should be caught. The mayor stood on at the door of the stable and officially offered five hundred dollars reward for evidence leading to conviction.

The News had its sensation on the following day. There had never been such a story in Aurora before. All the theories of the shooting were given, and as everybody had one, and no two were alike, there wasn't much else in the paper. Hawkins offered a reward of one thousand dollars and undying fame to the detective who should solve the puzzle. The news spread in a twinkling, and the size of the reward brought all the amateur detectives within a hundred miles to Aurora. The city was full of mysterious strangers who looked out of the corners of their eyes, and wore slouch hats pulled down over their brows.

And these fellows did more than pose on the street corners; they got evidence. They got more of it than any human being could tell what to do with. The pistol was found in the alley, and the ownership was traced to something like a hundred different people. No end of hardware dealers remembered having sold it to suspiciously shaggy characters whose descriptions they gave. It was an easy way for a dealer to get his name into print. These descriptions never failed to fit one or another of the men whom Dick had "exposed" in the News. In fact it would have been hard to imagine a description which couldn't fit somebody who was known to have a grudge against him.

These early developments Hawkins handled with comparative ease. He set one against another, and succeeded in so scattering suspicion that there was little danger of an arrest. But presently the case took on a more serious aspect. A baker who had a shop on the corner of the alley already mentioned called upon Hawkins and told a perfectly straight story which rather staggered the author of this plot.

The baker said that he had been kneading bread by a window which opened on the alley. He had seen the shot fired and could describe the villain. He did describe him, and that description fitted Dimmock better than his epidermis. The baker, however, did not pretend to have recognized the man. He had seen him run up the alley. It happened that a flight of stairs led directly from Dimmock's office into this alley. His threats against Dick were well known. Here was motive, opportunity and everything else necessary to the needs of an intelligent jury.

I may as well say right here that the baker simply lied. He craved notoriety. He wanted to get his name into the papers. At such times we occasionally forget that our fellow men will lie; but they will. The best witness, the most positive witness, the most convincing witness I ever heard was a man who, to my certain knowledge, had not told the truth in eleven years.

Well, the baker wanted to know what Hawkins was going to do about it. That was just what the able editor wanted to know, but he didn't. However, he persuaded the baker to wait a few days before hanging anybody, and he promised to print a modified version of the story which would be a good enough advertisement for a bakery, but would not quite amount to a conviction of Dimmock.

The next day no less than a dozen detectives called with additional proof against the dentist. There was enough to convict him a dozen times over. Nothing saved him from arrest except the diligence with which Hawkins boomed certain other theories of the crimes, inconsistent with Dimmock's guilt. There were at least twenty other persons who were strongly suspected and who had from one to ten detectives watching them.

The only difficulty was to find an innocent person. Every man in the city who had been a victim of one of Dick's sensations provided himself with the best alibi he could beg or buy, and waited in perspiring suspense for somebody to come and arrest him. Dimmock, being hampered in his search for an alibi by the fact that he could not himself remember where he had been at that time, consoled himself with the flowing bowl, and was popularly supposed to be drowning his remorse.

THE VICTIMS OF A PLOT

Claimed That Dempsey and Beatty Were Innocent.

PATRICK GALLAGHER'S CONFESSION

He Alleges That He and Davidson Were Paid to Swear as They Did on the Trial—The Pinkertons Hatched the Conspiracy—Claimed No Poison Was Administered.

PITTSBURG, July 15.—Within the next few days it is expected that the Homestead poisoning cases will be reopened, and an effort made to prove that Hugh H. Dempsey, ex master workman of the Knights of Labor, who is now serving a seven-year sentence in the Western penitentiary, is innocent of the charge upon which he was found guilty.

Dempsey's friends expect to produce such evidence as will not only prove the innocence of Dempsey, but will also bring to light the exposure of a plot sensational in every respect.

These claims will be embodied in the petition to reopen proceedings in the shape of written confessions made by Patrick Gallagher and James Davidson, both of whom are serving terms at the penitentiary, having been sentenced shortly after Dempsey.

In the confessions of Gallagher and Davidson they say they were paid to swear away the liberty of Hugh F. Dempsey and Robert H. Beatty, each of whom, they now assert, were innocent of the crime for which they were confined. They further state that, so far as they know, there was no poison administered to the men in the Homestead mill.

Gallagher's confession is written by himself and sworn to before Squire S. D. White, of Haysville. Davidson's was given verbally in the presence of witnesses.

Attorney Porter, one of Dempsey's attorneys, has ever since the trial been gathering evidence in Dempsey's favor. Six weeks ago he received a letter from Gallagher, asking him to call at the Penitentiary. Mr. Porter called and in the presence of Warden Wright and Squire White, Gallagher and Davidson told their stories.

Gallagher said the secret was killing him. He had prepared the confession and then made affidavit to it. Davidson's statements were simply a corroboration of Gallagher's. Mr. Porter has given out the substance of the confession, suppressing only the names of the men who Gallagher says were in the plot to send Dempsey to prison.

Mr. Porter also has the affidavit of a person who swears that a certain detective in the affiant's presence told Gallagher why he wanted to send Dempsey to prison. It was because he wanted to strike a blow at the Knights of Labor. The detective also said that the only way to do it was to swear that Dempsey was guilty and stick to it to the end. If he did not swear to it the detective said he would have Gallagher indicted for murder. Similar corroborations of the confessions of the convicts is given by nearly a dozen witnesses whose affidavits Mr. Porter has in his possession.

It will also be shown where detectives tried to get others to do some swearing in the case and where false testimony outside of Gallagher's and Davidson's was given at the trial. Mr. Porter said:

"I do not want any unjust suspicion to be attached to anyone. This work was done entirely by Pinkerton detectives, probably because they wanted to get even for their defeat on July 6, and certainly without any authority."

Mr. Porter thinks the fact that the other persons connected with the case, according to Gallagher's first confession, were not prosecuted is sufficient and conclusive evidence that the whole thing was a plot against Dempsey.

Continuing, Mr. Porter said: "From the first I have been entirely satisfied of Dempsey's innocence, and, more than that, that there was never any poison administered in the Homestead mill. This is the unfortunate result of reputable people of Allegheny county importing thieves and convicts from Chicago and other places, and using them as detectives."

JERSEY BOARD OF PARDONS.

They Refused to Act in the Case of Murderess Libbie Garrabrant.

CAMP WERTS, SEAGIRT, N. J., July 15.—The New Jersey State Court of Pardons convened at the headquarters of Gov. Werts at the State camp here and considered about 100 applications. Most of them were refused.

The court refused to pardon Libbie Garrabrant, the Paterson murderess, who had her death sentence commuted to life imprisonment 21 years ago. Attorney-General John P. Stockton, of this State, made a plea for the woman's pardon. The court's decision was that the murder was unjustifiable. The members of the court present were Governor Werts, Chancellor McGill and Judges Phelps, Krenger, Clements, Bogert, Smith and Brown. Alexander H. Rycker acted as clerk. The court will convene next Friday.

DARING ATTEMPT AT ROBBERY.

A Thief Tries to Steal a Box of Stamps from the Rochester Postoffice.

ROCHESTER, N. Y., July 15.—The Barnum & Bailey show was followed by a large crowd of hoodlums and tramps. Shortly after the parade yesterday a stranger entered the postoffice and engaged Postmaster Greenfield in conversation regarding the registration of a letter.

Meanwhile a confederate entered the back door and snatched a tin box from the safe containing $450 worth of stamps and $50 in money, and started on a run through a back alley.

Mr. Greenfield gave chase and the thief was captured by Officer Twombly and the money recovered. The thief gave the name of George Smith and is supposed to be an old offender.

The party who talked with the postmaster is still at large.

Taken altogether it was the most daring robbery ever attempted in this city.

No Cholera in South Carolina.

A BIG BANK FAILURE.

Excitement Over the Collapse of the Kansas City National.

Said That the Assets Far Exceed the Liabilities and That Depositors Will Lose Nothing—Other Business Troubles.

KANSAS CITY, Mo., July 15.—The failure of the National Bank of Kansas City has caused a tremendous sensation, as it was entirely unexpected.

Just before the closing hour yesterday afternoon a notice was placed in the window stating that the bank had been taken charge of by the Comptroller of Currency.

Its president, J. S. Chick, is one of the best known financiers in the west.

The president of the bank states that the assets will amount somewhere between two and three millions and the liabilities to $1,800,000. The bank was considered as sound as any in the Southwest.

It is thought that the depositors will receive dollar for dollar.

The National Bank of Kansas City was an outgrowth of the bank of Northrup and Chick, which was the pioneer banking establishment of Kansas City. In 1862 the firm removed to New York city where it failed in the panic of 1873, but afterwards paid up in full. The following year Northrup and Chick returned to Kansas City and in 1875 they organized the National Bank of Kansas City.

Business Troubles.

The sheriff has taken charge of the Buckeye Cycle company's affairs at Cincinnati.

Henry Abbott & Co., dealers in jewelry and diamonds, New York, made an assignment yesterday.

A judgment for $10,382 was entered yesterday against Monroe Eckstein, brewer, of West Brighton, Staten Island.

The St. Louis Lumber company made an assignment yesterday. Assets are placed at $40,000 with equal liabilities.

NO DANGER OF CONTAGION.

THEY BLED THE EDITOR

M. Buloz Paid Over 16,000,000 Francs to Blackmailers.

HE HAS FLED THE FRENCH CAPITAL

The Swindlers Threatened to Expose His Wrongdoing to His Family Unless He Paid for Their Silence—The Wife Commences an Action for Divorce.

PARIS, July 15.—The expose of a gang of blackmailers, who for a long time bled M. Charles Buloz, editor of the Revue des Deux Mondes, of an immense sum of money, said by some persons to amount to the enormous sum of 16,250,000 francs, has caused the greatest sensation in literary, social and other circles.

All the details of the scandal have not been made public, but enough is known to state that M. Buloz has been practically ruined by acceding to the demands made upon him for money by the blackmailers.

The plan of the blackmailers was exceedingly simple, and it is thought strange that M. Buloz, who is essentially a man of the world, should have fallen a victim to them.

The blackmailers are said to be men who moved and still move in good society, and it is said that some of the best Parisian families will be greatly shocked when the names of the conspirators are made known. These men had for their accomplices dissolute women who had carried on liaisons with M. Buloz. These women imparted to the men all the secrets of their relations with M. Buloz and such other matters concerning him that came to them. Then the blackmailers would write to M. Buloz threatening to expose him to his family and acquaintances if he did not pay to them certain sums of money. M. Buloz, it appears, was fearful lest some knowledge of his wrongdoing should come to the ears of his wife, and he weakly paid the money demanded of him.

Once in the toils M. Buloz found himself unable to get free from the sharks who were preying upon him and it appears that they had only to demand money to receive it.

Some time ago M. Buloz took a vacation. He left the city and has not since been seen.

The discovery that he had been blackmailed was due to the fact that a note made by M. Buloz for a large sum of money fell into the hands of Madame Buloz, who at once started an investigation that resulted in an expose of the whole case.

Mme. Buloz, who was married to M. Buloz in 1873, is the daughter of Prof. Richet, a member of the Academy of Sciences. She is deeply grieved and angry at the manner in which her husband has treated her and has entered an application for divorce. It is scarcely believed that any defense will be made to this action.

It is reported that among the women implicated in the affair are three who contribute articles to the Revue Des Deux Mondes.

The matter is now in the hands of the police, who are looking for M. Buloz.

Frank Ellison, who recently assaulted Broker Henriques in New York, has been held in $15,000 bail.

The Authors' Congress at the World's Fair closed yesterday with a notably large attendance. George W. Cable presided.

New York State Comptroller Campbell has cancelled the balance of the Niagara reservation bonds, amounting to $300,000.

A telegram was received from Secretary Carlisle this morning announcing that he would return to Washington early next week.

Jules Aldige, one of the wealthiest citizens of New Orleans and largely identified with cotton seed oil mills, died in Paris yesterday.

William J. Cook, a Wales, Mass., farmer, was cut nearly in two by his mowing machine yesterday and died before aid could be summoned.

Charles Brooks, the noted New York thief and house breaker, has been sentenced to 20 years in the State Prison at Trenton, N. J., at hard labor.

Two men were killed by an express train at New Rochelle, N. Y., yesterday. They were fighting on the track and did not see the train approaching.

The Mississippi River Commission has recommended to the Secretary of War that no more money be expended in the improvement of the harbor of Vicksburg for the present.

The tramp steamship Red Sea has been released from quarantine at New York. Before the passengers will be allowed to land they will be thoroughly inspected by Dr. Senner.

IT SAVES BABIES' LIVES.

Thousands Owe Their Happiness To Lactated Food.

"Baby, what a lovely baby!"

Yes, when well fed, kicking and cooing, breaking forth into strangest speeches, fingers and toes all motion and eyes all wonder.

But summer brings grave dangers.

Attention to diet is not imperative; there are diets suited to every age, to every climate; for infants, healthy mother's milk is the ideal food, but when this is out of the question, an infant food must be used that as closely as possible resembles healthy human milk; the experience of years has proven that the best substitute in the world is lactated food.

Its basis is the same as that of mothers milk, that is, sugar of milk; and with it are combined the nutritive qualities of the cereals, wheat, barley and oats, so prepared as to be readily digested and assimilated; the addition of the salts found in mother's milk makes lactated food perfect.

Little Mollie Ward, whose picture is given above, is the charming daughter of Mr. M. P. Ward, of Providence, R. I., who writes:

"It gives me pleasure to advise you that our little Mollie is just four years old to-day, and our youngest little girl, strange to say, is five months to-day, both being born on the third of the month; I think both of my babies owe their good health to lactated food; it is the best food for infants who cannot enjoy mother's milk, that there is on the market.

"Our babies have both thrived on it and when teething had very little trouble.

"I have recommended lactated food hundreds of times."

Mr. Otho L. Paine, 19 Edwin st., Providence, says:

"Our baby was born Jan. 23, 1891, and he has been fed with lactated food according to directions; it has agreed with him perfectly and he has grown like a weed, has not been sick since he was born; he cut all his teeth before he was 18 months old, and to-day he is a perfect picture of health.

"Of course, like all parents, we think there is no baby like ours, but I believe it is through the use of lactated food that he is what he is to-day, and I shall recommend it wherever I have a chance; I am thankful that it was recommended to us and for the results it has accomplished."

Mr. and Mrs. W. H. T. Holz, of Woonsocket, R. I., write:

"Our baby was given up for lost by one of the doctors of this city, when we called in Dr. E. N. Kingsberry; he advised us to use lactated food; we did so; our baby is now 8 months old, weighs 24 1-2 pounds and is in the best of health; we believe that lactated food saved our baby's life."

Mrs. Daniel Brown, of Central Falls, R. I., says: "I have three of the most healthy little children in the state, and I say they owe their health to having been brought up on lactated food, by the advice of one of the leading doctors of Pawtucket."

Mrs. Walter Munroe, 111 Dean street, Providence, says: Lactated food has done wonders for our baby; before using it she was down to death's door and now is fat and rugged; it has saved her life! And we would recommend it to any one who has a baby.

Mr. John Doyle, 98 Richardson street, Providence, says that he tried four other foods and different cows' milk, "all trying to save our oldest baby, but none of the above foods would rest upon her stomach and we were induced to try lactated food; it had the desired effect and she thrived wonderfully; she is now a healthy child.

"The doctor thought our younger baby would die, but lactated food was his best medicine, and he improved and has grown to be a very healthy boy; he cut his teeth in hottest weather."

Mr. C. H. Hopkins, 101 Doyle avenue, Providence, Mrs. Fannie E. Loxley, 109 Stansbury st., Mrs. C. W. Spence, 107 Atlantic ave., Providence; Mrs. William J. Willis, Lonsdale; William B. Burdick, Manatie; Mrs. G. S. Shippee, Auburn; Mrs. George E. Hoxsie, Canonchet; Mrs. Fannie R. Wager, Tiverton; and hundreds of other happy parents in Rhode Island wrote heartfelt unsolicited testimonials after their experience with this food during last summer's heat.

In 1893 no household with a baby in it should be without lactated food. It is inexpensive, pure, incomparable.

THE DAILY PRESS.

THE PRESS' NEWS COLUMNS COVER THE GLOBE

WEATHER INDICATIONS.

For New Jersey: Showers To-Night; Fair and Cool To-Morrow.

EARLY INTELLIGENCE.

—The Cranford Cycling club will visit Plainfield this afternoon.

—A song service will be held in the W. C. T. U. rooms to-night.

—Sebring the clothier is offering some decided bargains in fine cassimere trousers at $2.95.

—The Bethel camp will be in session next Sunday, July 23, in Vail's grove on West Fourth street.

—Those baked beans of which Kip, the North Plainfield baker, is making a specialty, are a favorite dish with Plainfield housewives.

—They say the First Baptist Sunday-school excursions are the best managed and largest that leave Plainfield. This year their date is July 21.

—Borough residents want to know what they are to do with their swill and garbage. They say there is no garbage collector, and the stuff has to stay in their yards and decay.

—The Exempt Firemen's association, through their treasurer Joseph A. Hubbard, contributed $50, according to their custom, towards the funeral expenses of their lamented brother, William L. Force.

—The trainmen on the Central road had their pay raised July 1. The conductors on freight and coal trains will now get $2.75 per day instead of $2.50; brakemen advanced from $1.83 to $2: flagmen from $1.90 to $2.10.

—Plainfielders who like to sleep nights will be glad to learn that new whistles are being put on the Jersey Central railroad locomotives. They are less shrill than the old whistles, and sound not unlike a steamboat whistle.

—The break in the price of silver will make no difference to you. A silver dollar is as good now as ever, and Edward White is willing and anxious to take all he can get of them in exchange for the many good bargains he is offering in his busy store.

—Who does n't enjoy a renewal of the delights afforded at Asbury Park? Remember how long a day the Trinity excursion gives you there, next Wednesday. The cool of the late afternoon is the cream of the day. The train does n't leave the Park till 7.

—Terrill & Cole have been highly complimented on the kindly and efficient manner in which they conducted the funeral arrangements of the late Wm. L. Force. It was the first time hanging-black draperies had been used in Plainfield, and the effect was very satisfactory.

Plainfield Will Send a Contingent.

The Y. M. C. A. camp at Wanamassa will be re-opened July 22. Fitted up with the idea of giving young men a place affording the most possible facility for enjoyment and recuperation, it has been successful to a remarkable degree. Situated on the seashore near Asbury Park, it covers fifteen acres, and contains a six-acre athletic field, with gymnasium, bowling alleys and the finest quarter-mile bicycle track in the State, and this in addition to excellent bathing, boating and fishing. A rain-proof, wood-floored tent, with board, lodging, the use of the gymnasium and athletic field, costs association members only $7 a week, and non-association members only $8; transients are charged $1.50 a day. Boat hire is 25 cents per hour. For further information apply at the Y. M. C. A. rooms.

A Special Sunday Service.

To-morrow evening the Y. P. S. C. E. of the Congregational church will hold its special meeting for July. Miss Spangenberg will have charge. There will also be five-minute talks by members of the society. One of the subjects of these five-minute talks is: "What particular mission work should we as individuals attempt and endeavor to perform?"

The meeting begins at 7:45. An invitation is extended to every one to be present.

Dr. Hedges Has a Fire.

A stupid servant upset an alcohol lamp in one of the apartments at the home of Dr. E. W. Hedges, Thursday, and a brisk fire resulted. Carpets, curtains and furniture were badly damaged before the flames were extinguished. The careless servant was discharged.

The American Catarrh Cure

Is the result of twenty-six years' study and treatment of the disease. One bottle convinces the most skeptical. It is always ready for use, needing neither douche nor atomizer. It restores the hearing, cures the hawking cough and expectorating, removes the headache and nose bleeding, increases the appetite, produces sound sleep, invigorates the whole system and increases the vitality. Prepared only by W. B. Jones, M. D., No. 1336 South Eighth street, Philadelphia. For sale by I. W. Randolph, 21 West Front street. Price $1.

RIVALS USE THEIR TEETH.

One of Them Badly Bitten, and Slashed With a Meat Cleaver.

John Alexander, a waiter in Hotel Grenada, and Edwin King, a helper to the cook in the same establishment, have for some time cast longing glances on the same girl. This condition of things naturally begat jealously in the hearts of both men, but up to yesterday they had confined themselves to casting dark looks at one another.

Last night, however, King, who seems to have had the inside track, came to the conclusion that Alexander was interfering a little too much, and made up his mind to have it out with him.

Accordingly, he began to-day by reproaching his rival, which the latter resented by striking him in the face. King took up a meat cleaver and made a rush for Alexander, who caught his arm and wrenched the cleaver away, but not before an ugly cut had been inflicted over his eye. Being deprived of movable weapons, the men resorted to the use of those provided by nature, and started in a chewing match the like of which has seldom been seen. When the fight had eased up a little, Alexander broke away and ran into the street, where he found policeman Kiely, who promptly arrested both men, as proprietor Miller said they were equally to blame. When they were examined, it was found that Alexander's injuries included a cut over the eye with the cleaver, thumb nearly bitten off, and a large chew out his arm near the shoulder. King's only injury was a bite in the arm in a similar place to that of Alexander's.

The two men are now lodged in separate cells, awaiting the action of judge Coddington.

PARTICULAR MENTION.

H. O. Newman yesterday joined his wife and daughter at Asbury Park, and will stay over Sunday.

Miss C. A. Bagot, of Schermerhorn street, Brooklyn, is visiting relatives on LaGrande avenue and in the borough.

A german will be given in Hotel Netherwood Tuesday evening. It will be a very pretty event, with many novel features.

Mrs. Constantine P. Ralli, and her infant daughter and maid, went yesterday to Bridge Hampton, L. I., where they will spend two weeks.

Mr. and Mrs. E. M. Odam and daughter returned last evening from a week's rest in Hunterdon county. Mr. Odam tells of tall fishing, and wants to return again.

Chief engineer T. O. Doane will to-night attend a meeting of the State executive committee, Firemen's Relief association, of which he is a member, at Long Branch.

The Plainfield Electric Light company can't get along without Fred S. Dunn, the expert electrician and engineer, and he has accepted a position with them to attend to the engine.

A Serious Accusation Against Dunellen's School Board.

TO THE EDITOR OF THE PRESS:—The people of Dunellen are in an uproar because the Board of School Trustees are about to remove Prof. Johnson, a graduate of Johns Hopkins University, from the position of principal, and substitute a Mr. Whitney, late principal of schools at Nutley, a suburb of Newark, and who leaves there because he is not competent to carry the schools to the higher grade which the people demand.

The Dunellen people are quite anxious to raise the grade of their schools so that their graduates will be fitted to enter the Plainfield High school, and are highly incensed at having a capable principal removed to make room for one who cannot raise the schools in a much smaller place.

All Out to See the Racers.

The big century run from Newark to Princeton, and return, by way of Plainfield, to-day, attracted a large crowd to the corner of Park avenue and Front street at 9 a. m., and again this afternoon, to see the racers go by. This morning one of the riders twisted his wheel out of shape on the West Front street car track. He jammed it in shape again and rode on. No Plainfielders were entered in the race.

The order in which the leaders passed through Plainfield, on the return this afternoon, with their time, is as follows:

NO.	NAME.	TIME.
3.	J. W. Linneman, Indpls,	1:45
17.	T. L. Walsh, Atlanta W. C.,	1:52
85	G. H. VanEmburgh, Arlington,	1:53
18.	A. W. W. Evans, N. Y. A. C.,	1:54
136.	J. T. Marshall, A. W.,	1:55
144.	A. Willis, B. C. W.,	2:01
143.	H. A. Bath, Jr., E. A. C.,	2:01
72.	A. Atkinson, N. B. B. C.,	2:02½
49.	P. H. Johnson, A. W.,	2:08

—U. B. Crane, hatter, at 120 West Front street, has just received a large line of broad-brim straw hats bought at reduced prices, and the people will get some rare bargains of U. B.

An Undisputed Test of Merit.

A medicine that has been a household remedy for over fifty years and used in that time by more than 150,000,000 persons must have great merit. Such a medicine is found in BRANDRETH'S PILLS. This fact demonstrates the value of these pills better than any statement of the proprietors. It will be observed that the dose required to cure is small. One or two pills taken every night for ten or twenty days will cure dyspepsia, costiveness, rheumatism, liver complaint, biliousness, or any disease arising from an impure state of the blood.

BRANDRETH'S PILLS are purely vegetable, absolutely harmless and safe to take at any time.

Sold in every drug and medicine store, either plain or sugar coated.

Read and Reflect.

The great mass of mankind lose their health through inattention to catarrh of the head and throat. This insidious disease was considered incurable until the discovery of the American Catarrh Cure. For sale by I. W. Randolph, 21 West Front street. Price $1.00.

One of my children had a very bad discharge from her nose. Two physicians prescribed, but without benefit. We tried Ely's Cream Balm, and much to our surprise, there was a marked improvement. We continued using the Balm and in a short time the discharge was cured.—O. A. Cary, Corning, N. Y.

The children's health must not be neglected. Cold in the head causes catarrh. Ely's Cream Balm cures at once. It is perfectly safe and is easily applied into the nostrils. The worst cases yielding to it. Price 50c.

"CLUB NIGHT" AT THE WATCHUNG.

In Spite of the Storm, the Members and Guests Have a Lovely Time.

Amid the vivid lightning and roaring thunder, the enthusiastic members of the Watchung club, Fanwood, turned out Thursday to the first "club night". Music of a superior quality, furnished by a New York favorite, made the dancing set forget the hot sultry day just ending, and the ball room was brilliant with pretty faces and lovely summer evening dresses, which made the scene a fairy spectacle.

Bowling and cards had their attractions for a few, who were enthusiasts of their favorite games, but dancing and brilliant music fired the heart of the majority.

Considering the rainy night, the attendance was very large, and all voted the return of Watchung's enthusiastic president, John Peters Stevens, a blessing; for to his energetic work and magnificent organization is mainly due the success and life of the reorganized club. Refreshments were served after dancing.

In the bowling tournament, Governor Urner made 201, which is the first score over 200, and is the record of the alleys for the new club.

Among those present were noticed the following: Mrs. G. F. Hamlin, Mrs. Leigh, Mrs. Cameron, Mrs. W. E. Gibbs, Mrs. Bates, Miss M. Louise Bates, Mrs. F. D. Warren, Miss TenBroeck, Miss Kate Stevens, a recent arrival from North Andover, Mass., and sister of president Stevens, Miss Tate and the Misses Boucher. It was noticeable that "The Row" was fully represented. The gentlemen present included Messrs. Baylor, Spring, Urner, Gibbs, Miller, Beeken, Leigh, Robinson, Warren and Ashley.

A RECORD OF PROBITY.

The Career of W. L. Force Full of Instruction and Encouragement.

Under the caption "Death of an Eminent Plainfield Journalist", that excellent local journal, the Metuchen Inquirer says:

About two weeks ago the inhabitants of Plainfield were deeply grieved to learn that one of their most esteemed citizens, Mr. William L. Force, had met with a very severe accident while driving in the neighborhood. His arm, two ribs and breastbone were broken.

On Monday, death put an end to the poignant and protracted sufferings, which he had borne with invincible fortitude. Mr. Force was in his fifty-third year, and, humanly speaking, had a long term of usefulness and happiness before him. "His sun went down while it was yet day."

The career of Mr. Force is full of instruction and encouragement to young men beginning life. In boyhood he manifested the innate possession of sound common sense. When his school days were over he decided to learn the printer's trade. His was an example of an old head on young shoulders. He early realized that abiding success could not be achieved without acquiring habits of daily, drudging, plodding attention.

In his 24th year he ceased being one of the employed and rose to the higher grade of an employer. He formed a partnership with his brother, Mr. A. L. Force, in the printing and publishing business in Plainfield. They issued the first copy of the Constitutionalist on the 2nd day of January, 1868. By unremitting attention to business and acting always with unflinching probity, they gained and retained public confidence. Their business was prosperous.

Mr. Force was a born leader of men and naturally, in due time became a politician. He was a life-long Democrat and labored persistently for his party, believing that in so doing he was best promoting the country's prosperity.

On March 18, 1886, President Cleveland appointed Mr. Force postmaster of Plainfield, the manifold duties of which important office he discharged with marked ability, for the full executive term of four years. He established the free delivery service, and by his judicious supervision made it a great success.

Mr. Force was a valued member of many associations in and around Plainfield.

His nature was eminently social. He was kind and considerate, and was honored and respected by every one in his employment. His now sorrow stricken widow was the idol of his heart and was indeed his true helpmeet. Thursday his remains was laid to rest in North Plainfield cemetery. The funeral was largely attended by residents of Plainfield and surrounding country.

Had Many Friends Everywhere.

[Bound Brook Chronicle.]

William L. Force, of Plainfield, who died Monday, was 52 years of age and was one of the Force Brothers, who published the Constitutionalist and Daily Press. He was postmaster during Cleveland's first term. His brother, James H. Force, is proprietor of the Mansion House, in Bound Brook. "Billy" Force, as he was familiarly called, had many friends here, who sincerely mourn his loss. He leaves a widow, but no children. The funeral, yesterday, was largely attended.

Honored and Esteemed by All.

(Somerset Democrat.)

Mr. Force was a remarkably live man, and was honored and esteemed by all who knew him. The cause of his death was a runaway, in which he had his chest crushed in. THE DEMOCRAT extends sincere sympathy to the bereaved family.

Oh, What a Cough!

Will you heed the warning. The signal perhaps of the sure approach of that more terrible disease, Consumption. Ask yourselves if you can afford for the sake of saving 50c., to run the risk and do nothing for it. We know from experience that Shiloh's Cure will cure your cough. It never fails. This explains why more than a Million Bottles were sold the past year. It relieves croup and whooping cough at once. Mothers, do not be without it. For lame back, side or chest, use Shiloh's Porous Plaster. Sold by A. D. Mallinson, 65 North Ave., opposite railroad station. 5-16-y

Jealous Hatred and Malicious Spite.

In the columns of the Somerset street lottery sheet, Thursday night, appeared the following:

THE DIFFERENCE.

On the Plainfield side the street Commissioner saw that the workmen of the Street Railway Co. made the roadbed in as good a condition as before it was torn up. No extra charge.

In North Plainfield, the street Commissioner several times, acting upon the complaints of Boroughites, saw that the road was fixed right, although he was, by so doing, interfering with another man, appointed for that purpose. Merely an unnecessary expense.

But it's the difference. Political "pulls" ought to have its running gear disarranged in local affairs. The people have enough tax to pay.

A borough official says:

"The above is done out of hatred and spite by Tom Morrison and no one knows better than he the untruthfulness of the same. Now the facts are that the borough street commissioner never did anything on Somerset street during the construction of the Somerset street railway. He was busy macadamizing Greenbrook and the Rock roads all the time that the road was being built and the thanks of the property owners and the traveling public are due the inspector, and he alone, for the replacing of the street in the condition that it is now in. For any sane man to compare the strip beyond the bridge in this city to any part of the street on the borough side is simply idiotic. On Monday afternoon of this week in front of the lottery sheet's head quarters the street laborers were filling in the roadbed with gravel and top dressing, leaving out the foundation stone that are so necessary, in the presence of witnesses. There was more foundation stone carted away from this strip by the contractors than there was in over five times the same distance on the borough side or any part of the road."

LITTLE PROFIT IN MILK.

Farmers Say the Present Selling Price Is Too Low.

In his annual report to the State board of agriculture, secretary Dennis C. Crane of the Union county board writes:

For raising milk for selling to families, the Jersey, Ayreshire and Holstein breeds each have their advocates. One farmer has a herd of Dutch Belted cattle. As there are poor cows in all breeds, so there are good individual cows in all. The feeding and keeping has much to do with the quantity and quality of the milk. For butter and cream, no doubt the Jersey excels, but those who keep the Ayrshires claim that she is more hardy and will live and thrive on poorer pasture in summer and coarser fodder in winter, while, on the same feed, she will give more milk, which has in it the element of her nature, namely, nerve, vigor and vitality. Such milk is especially adapted for small children and those with weak digestion. The Holstein has of late years been sought after for crossing on the best native cows. Not only are they as a rule good milkers, but the calves weigh more.

Our farmers do not see much profit in producing milk at present prices, especially those who have to depend on hired help. The redeeming features, however, are that the cows pasture on waste land and eat much rough fodder grown on the place that must otherwise go to waste, and it affords work for the hired men in winter. Then, too, some money is coming in every day, and the manure pile is increased.

We would like to mention and describe the places of those who farm intelligently and profitably. For the most part they are descendants of the old settlers, inheriting the old homesteads and possessing many of the old-time virtues of industry and frugality, with a practical knowledge of farming. They each own from 30 to 100 acres of land, mostly under cultivation. Their principal efforts are devoted to general farming. They keep, on an average, from ten to forty cows, many of them thoroughbreds, and their grades. Some sell the milk at the door to retailers who pay three cents a quart in summer and four cents a quart in winter. Quite a number retail the milk in the near-by towns and receive six and eight cents a quart. The feed of the cows in summer is largely green rye, clover and fodder corn, with the addition of some corn-meal and bran and fresh beer grains. Through the day they run out in the woods and lowlands to pasture. In the winter the day's ration consists of corn-stalks, hay and three pecks of beer grains, with six quarts of corn-meal and wheat bran. They are housed in warm stables and kept in place with stanchions.

A Genial and Sociable Man.

(From the Rahway Democrat.)

Two weeks ago we referred to a serious accident to ex-Postmaster and senior editor and proprietor of the Plainfield Constitutionalist and Press, Wm. L. Force, by being thrown from a carriage. It is with sorrow that we now have to record his death, which resulted on Monday of this week at noon. Besides the broken arm and other outward injuries he was affected internally, causing pneumonia, which complications were more than he could bear up under. He leaves a widow, but no children. He was in the 53d year of his age, having lived in the vicinity of Plainfield all his life, learning the printing business in the office of the old Plainfield Union, which was succeeded by what is now the Times. In 1868, he, and his brother, Albert L., started the Constitutionalist in that city, which they have successfully published as a Democratic paper, also establishing the Daily Press in connection with it about seven years ago. The deceased was a genial and sociable man, belonging to a number of Masonic and other societies, and took much pleasure in hunting, fishing, etc., being fish warden of the county and an officer of the State association for the protection of game and fish. The funeral occurs Thursday afternoon of this week.

We tender our sincere sympathy to the bereaved wife and other relatives. As the deceased and the writer started in the editorial business in this county at nearly the same time—he three years the later—our relations have always been very friendly, and we join with the family in mourning his departure from among us.

'Twill Be a Good Game.

The New Brunswick's whom the Plainfield Crescents are to play next Wednesday afternoon are as follows:

Rafferty, catcher; Landman, pitcher; Kenny, first; Cramer, second; Gerrity, short; George Francis, third; Cox, left; Egan, center; Greenwald, right.

When Baby was sick, we gave her Castoria.
When she was a Child, she cried for Castoria.
When she became Miss, she clung to Castoria.
When she had Children, she gave them Castoria.

NEGLECTED REAL ESTATE.

Wealthy Sharpers Who Let Weeds Grow to Escape High Assessments.

(From Dennis C. Crane's Annual Report for Union County.)

We might say, in justice to the real estate man, that while he has broken up farming and spoiled the beauty of the landscape, in many places there can be seen redeeming features worthy of praise, as an isolated and fenced-in city lots can be seen quite a number of tasty, modern-built houses, the garden and lawn well kept and made beautiful with flowers and graveled walks. The owners are among our most enterprising and useful citizens, and they join us in demanding that neglected land be better cared for. We want some law that will give our town committee power to tax every building lot or acre one dollar, annually, in addition to the regular tax, to be assessed and collected in the regular way, which should be kept as a fund for encouraging clean cultivation and good farming in the township.

Some of these wealthy sharpers neglect their land on purpose to keep down the valuation by the assessor, claiming it yields them nothing and has only a farm value; but let a buyer go to them, or a railroad be surveyed through it, and see what they will ask. If anyone is to have a reduction, give it to those who live on their places and keep them up, support the church, the school, and whatever is for the public good.

Especially during the past two or three years have speculators been buying eligible farms, and cutting them up into building lots. While we would not discourage the coming of good people among us, nor put anything unnecessary in the way of those engaged in this business, still we think they need regulating. Not only should they be required to keep up a system of cultivation, and fertilizing the land and rotation of crops, that will preserve its appearance and fertility, but the township should be a partner in saying how streets shall be laid out, and the size of the lot. It may look like trampling upon the rights of property and liberties of individuals, still we think the community has rights as well as the individual, and should have a voice in the matter.

Long in the Harness.

(From The Rahway Democrat.)

The death of editor Wm. L. Force, of Plainfield, referred to in another place, has brought to our attention a noteworthy fact in connection with the DEMOCRAT, which is, that it is the only newspaper establishment in the State in which there has been no change of management since the spring of 1865, when the present editor and proprietor took charge, as we find by looking over the annual report of the State association, the Constitutionalist, of which Mr. Force was one of the proprietors, being next in that respect, dating from 1868. And there are only four instances in the State where the publishers in charge in 1865 are still connected with the establishment, as follows: Woodbury Constitution, Augustus S. Barber, 1834, took his son as assistant in 1871; Monmouth Democrat, James S. Yard, 1854, A. C. Hart, assistant editor, 1868, Yard & Son, editors and proprietors, 1890; Morris Jerseyman, A. A. Vance, 1852, Vance & Stiles, 1869; Salem Sunbeam, Robert Gwynne, 1849, son as assistant, 1879.

In this connection it is suggested to our mind that after these many years of continuous toiling we are also prepared for a change, and that a retirement from even a flourishing business to take a desired rest, and thus "break the record" above referred, to, for the benefit of some one else, for a fair remuneration for a first-class printing plant, and for energy expended in establishing one of the most prosperous newspapers in the country, with still better future prospects. Who will be our lucky successor?

A New Market Man's Escape.

(Bound Brook Chronicle.)

It is only mere chance that THE CHRONICLE this week is not called on to record a serious accident at the unguarded Port Reading crossing in this place. The man who narrowly escaped being killed was David Randolph, of New Market.

He was driving a load of hay to South Bound Brook, on Wednesday morning He came up the causeway and a passing Lehigh Valley train diverted his attention from the dangers that ever lurk at the Port Reading crossing. A coal train, running at the rate of probably thirty miles an hour, crept up on him and he only discovered his danger by the shouts of pedestrians on the river bridge. Some of the more timid closed their eyes, expecting to open them and see a mass of mangled flesh. Theirs was a pleasing disappointment, for the man whipped up his horses and was saved by a hair's breadth.

WORK HAS NOT BEEN STOPPED.

Ex-Senator Miller Denies a Report Concerning the Nicaragua Canal Company.

NEW YORK, July 15.—The report that the Nicaragua Canal Construction company had stopped all work on the Nicaragua canal on account of lack of funds is officially denied by ex-Senator Warner Miller, president of the company.

"We have not stopped work entirely," said Mr. Miller, "although, of course, we have been compelled to lessen the amount of work doing. In times of financial stringency everyone has to cut his coat according to his cloth.

"Work is now going on on the breakwater at the entrance to Greytown harbor and also on the harbor. Besides that, we have a large number of men looking after our valuable machinery.

"It is not true that the company's securities are not being bought. Persons have been buying them right along and are doing so yet."

MISS SCHURZ MISSING.

Her Mind Said to Have Been Unbalanced by a Love Affair.

CHICAGO, July 15.—Miss Schurz, the insane niece of Carl Schurz, has mysteriously disappeared. Her Chicago relatives say she has been lost.

A love affair in Germany is mentioned as having caused her mind to become unbalanced.

There is considerable comment here over the strange way in which the unfortunate woman appears to have been sent about.

DID MEYER KILL HER?

One of His "Wives" Died Mysteriously at Newton, Mass.

A MOST REMARKABLE CRIMINAL.

New York Police Officials Are Glad that the Poisoner and His Paramour Are to be Brought to the Metropolis for Trial—The Murder of Baum.

BOSTON, July 15.—The notorious Dr. Henry Meyer lived in Newton about two years ago. He had obscure lodgings on Washington street. The doctor was liberally supplied with money. He spent most of his mornings in Boston and would return at noon with elaborate dinners prepared and packed in a tin case at a Boston hotel.

After the first two weeks the doctor brought a woman with him, who, he said, was his wife. The supposed Mrs. Meyer was a woman of fine presence and was beautifully dressed. She wore a great number of jewels.

After a residence of a few months in this place Mrs. Meyer became ill, and a physician announced that there was no hope of her recovery. On the day before she died Dr. Meyer brought a gentleman and a young lady to the house and took them to the room of the dying woman.

From conversation that was overheard it was inferred that the woman who had been living with Meyer was not his wife, and that he had brought her real husband to visit her on her death bed.

The jewels which the woman wore were given to the visitors. After the death of his companion Dr. Meyer left Newton.

CRIMES OF THE MEYER COUPLE

Evidence to Show that the Husband is a Remarkable Criminal.

NEW YORK, July 15.—The announcement that Dr. and Mrs. Henry C. W. Meyer, the poisoners, will be turned over to the New York authorities has caused rejoicing at police headquarters, as the officials believe they have captured two of the most notorious criminals of the century.

The criminal versatility that Dr. Meyer has displayed in his many poisoning schemes to defraud life insurance companies stamps him as a most remarkable and calculating murderer. His original plan was to poison his wives, but he varied from this when he met his third and last wife, now under arrest with him, an equally shrewd and willing assistant.

When he arrived in Chicago from Prussia, 15 years ago, he studied medicine and received a diploma from a homeopathic college. Soon after his graduation his first wife, a young woman, died, and it is believed that he poisoned her. An intimate acquaintance, a wealthy German grocer, soon afterward died in a similar manner as had Mrs. Meyer, and the young doctor was arrested for poisoning him.

He was acquainted with and married the grocer's widow. Her son died of poison and again Dr. Meyer was arrested, but escaped. The second wife discovered that she was dying of poison and left him.

Five years ago he married the young woman who is now jointly accused with him. Her name was Miss Gressen, and Meyer was soon arrested again, this time for trying to poison her father and collect on a forged insurance policy.

While in the Illinois State prison he met Baum, whose true name is Ludwig Brandt. Killing this man is the charge upon which they are under arrest. Baum was imprisoned for swindling operations, and when both got out they joined forces in the life insurance plot.

Bigamy on the part of Mrs. Meyer is believed to have been resorted to at this point. She was really married to Dr. Meyer, according to the best information, and yet she was also married to Baum, in Chicago, by the Rev. F. Werner, of the Park Street Church. It would seem, however, that Baum must have been kept in ignorance of the previous marriage, and was probably told that the woman had been merely maintained by Meyer.

Naturally Baum was not told that he was to be made a victim of by his two confederates.

The theory is that when he got out the insurance policies in favor of Mrs. Meyer, he was informed that another man, perhaps Wimmers, who boarded with them, would really die, and his body be passed off on the insurance companies as that of Baum, just as the Meyers had done in Toledo with the unknown girl after May Neiss had been insured.

Those who came in contact with Mrs. Meyer are astonished at the evidence, which shows her to be a cold-blooded accomplice in murder and other crimes. They say that she is an unsophisticated appearing young German woman, with blond hair, light complexion and blue eyes. Her husband is a thin, nervous man, 35 years old.

The insurance companies that the Meyers have swindled or attempted to swindle are the Germania, the Ætna, the Washington, the Mutual Life and the Equitable. His arrest is probably more talked about in insurance circles than anywhere else, for he was one of the worst enemies they had to contend against.

THE WOMAN OF FASHION.

The Fan a Dangerous Weapon in the Hands of Lovely Woman.

The Fan as It Was and Is—What a Pretty One Costs—The Popular Styles—The Parasol a Thing of Beauty.

[COPYRIGHT, 1893.]

"The fan of a beauty is the scepter of the world."

So sang Marechal; and we women are not in a position to contradict him. For must we not confess that the dear little weapon has dealt the hearts of men many a telling blow. In the old books on woman's fashions, we find the fan always associated with the parasol and the handkerchief. But we have changed all that. A fan and a pair of beautiful, brilliant eyes are all the armor that is needed for these latter days. A parasol may be made to do very effective work, it is true, and is to be by no means despised; but a parasol's field of usefulness is necessarily limited, as one may bring it forth only in the daytime. Whereas the fan and the eyes are never idle, and are most effective under the soft shades of evening, or in the quiet corner of the brilliant ballroom. Therefore, when the woman goes forth to conquer, she selects her fan with great care. Special attention must be paid to its shade; for it must needs, above all, harmonize with the hue of the cheek it will often lie so lazily against; and it should be in striking contrast to the eye that will so often peep over it; and it must melt into the lap of the gown that will so often receive it.

The value of the fan was fully recognized by the damsels of the good old days; for a chronicler of the eighteenth century tells us that the very commonest of all were made of scented wood, while the finest were of tortoise shell and ivory, incrusted with ivory and precious stones, and painted by artists of great talent. These fans, we are also told, were never used for fanning. So we see that the proper sphere of the fan was recognized even then.

Now we are less extravagant. Even the fashion in these small things is but fleeting, and we therefore content ourselves, as a rule, with a pretty dainty bit of gauze and ribbon and dainty sticks, that costs from five to fifty dollars.

At Newport's first gathering, a fan something like this will flutter and fall, in bewildering fashion. Grenadine, maize-colored, bordered with a coquille of gauze dotted with tufts of forget-me-nots. A windmill bow is at each end, shot with maize and pale blue. The sticks of the pale corn, also, are touched here and there with gold. A maiden daintily perched upon a painted spray stretches across the middle.

Another dainty thing is of mauve grenadine, so sheer that one sees easily through it; the fan is closely painted with pompadour sprays in many colors, and across the sticks are hung scallop after scallop of small beads, matching the shades of the flowers. A loop falls from the end of each row. These sticks are of mauve lacquered wood. The edge of the fan is a fine ruching of point.

A celestial blue of fine gauze, with dainty sticks to match, cut out with gold, is known as the fin de siecle fan. Its lapping sticks are gold-spangled and edged with satin ribbon. The ribbon is slightly gathered in, drawing the gauze into a scallop at the top.

But these were not enough, and I went to the shops, and found that a remarkably pretty fan could be bought for eight dollars. The fan was all painted in clouds and laughing demons of subdued flame shades, and the wings of the demons are set with brilliants.

But I wasn't quite satisfied, and asked for something a little nicer. Fifteen dollars would purchase a beauty all in white, worked closely in fine spangles and gold threads.

But my ambition rose higher. For twenty-five dollars I could have one of those tiny, old-fashioned ones, with their gauze surface almost covered by the deep blue ground-work of the paintings that spread over them. The figures were in the watteau draperies, and the dainty flowers that sprung up about them were after the fine fashion of Louis XIV.

But the big ones, for fifty dollars, on creamy, sheer gauze, were just right. They were closely spangled; the gowns of the quaint damsels portrayed thereon were displayed in soft, pale colors; their bosoms were plentifully bedecked with jewels, and jewels shone in their hair; the sticks were so fragile that one longed to snap them, and the lace that trimmed them was exquisitely fine.

But after the fan, the parasol. Every woman takes a good deal of pride in her parasol, or parasols—when she is fortunate enough to possess them in plurality. First let us consider the sensible ones, the ones that will go with almost any costume, that will wear well, that are reasonable. The fine checked silks belong to this class. Very pretty ones can now be had for two dollars and a half, and in any shade or shades, striped or checked; or you may get the silks with cream or other pale ground, dotted with flower sprays, and edged with pinked ruffle of the same. The bright plaids come under this price, also, and brighten up a traveling or seaside costume; and the polka-dots are not unpopular this season, worn with the light dresses.

But from the common-sense one we must immediately take a jump to the pretty, useless one—useless, in so far as it goes with only one or two particular gowns, as it spots so very easily, and a few drops of summer shower will forever destroy its loveliness.

Never mind—so long as they are fresh they are very satisfying. Take this pretty thing of white chiffon, that is made of tiny puffs half way down; then comes a narrow insertion of open work wrought in the Indian colors; below are more puffs and then a double ruffle of chiffon.

A pure white silk one, edged with a deep flounce of exquisite lace, and with a lacepuff at its tip, is beautiful in its simplicity.

A white satin overlaid with three rows of fine point d' Irlande, is its formidable rival.

A coaching parasol is of a peach-colored brocade, and it is hung with black lace draperies and finished with black lace flounces.

There is also another white satin fantastically run with rows of narrow blue ribbon, run closely and in curved design. The whole is covered by black lace, and edged with it.

There is one, all black lace, brightened by row after row of twisted baby blue ribbon, put on in divisions of five rows apiece.

A black chantilly, combined with Spanish designs and border, has rolls of pale heliotrope chiffon over the ribs. Each roll is finished with a small chou, and the whole, with a deep flounce. These are also pretty in white lace and a pale color.

The accordion-plaited lace ones are also very tempting, particularly when covering light or shot silk.

The handles are often startling. We come out in great flowers—roses with thorny stems; forget-me-nots, growing from slender stalk, in scarcely natural fashion. But we do not stop at flowers; oh, no! we have now come to fruit, and even vegetables, and one of the handles is finished in a shining chestnut. But the fine enamels, the white sticks seem to be the favorite, painted in pretty Louis designs, and set with cameos or gold points.

THE TROUBLE IN BRAZIL

Wandenkolk's Flight From Rio Grande do Sul.

HE DID NOT BOMBARD THE CITY

The Approach of a Government Squadron and the Failure of Land Troops to Co-operate Compelled the Revolutionist Admiral to Raise the Blockade—Nicaragua and Her Latest Insurrection.

NEW YORK, July 17.—Advices from Montevideo confirm the despatches of yesterday that Rear Admiral Wandenkolk had raised the blockade of the city of Rio Grande do Sul and had escaped from the vengeance of the Brazilian government, which sent the cruiser Republica and other warships from Rio Janeiro.

It seems that Admiral Wandenkolk slipped away with the steamer Jupiter before the loyal squadron reached the bar, but that the gunboats Cardoin and Camanea and the steamer Italia were seized by the government forces. The crews made no resistance.

It is believed that Wandenkolk could not get his ships close enough to the city effectively to bombard it, and that the land forces which he hoped would co-operate with him did not appear when he expected to open an attack upon the town.

It seems probable that when he found the enemy coming in large force from Rio he concluded it wiser to sail away and prevent himself or his ship from falling into the hands of the government.

It is now said that he fired no shells into Rio Grande do Sul and that the only damage done to the town was to prevent ships from going out or coming in. On account of the efforts of the government officers to prevent the sending of news, exaggerated stories, founded on rumors, got abroad. This would not have happened had the government permitted the actual facts to be sent out.

Notwithstanding these stories about the flight of Wandenkolk and the failure of the movement by which it was intended to give the revolutionists control of important Atlantic ports, news by the inland telegraph lines indicates that the insurgents are gaining strength. Generals Sorovia, Tavarez and Solgono are reported to be increasing the number of troops in their commands each day.

NICARAGUA'S REVOLUTION.

Zavala and Montiel Selected to Command the Government Forces.

WASHINGTON, July 17.—The latest advices from Managua, Nicaragua, are to the effect that Generals Zavala and Montiel have been selected by the members of the Cabinet jointly to direct the operation of war against the Leon revolutionists. They are organizing their forces and will take the field in a few days.

President A. Machado is still held a prisoner by the insurgents in Leon, and the government has therefore no actual head in the capital.

No confirmation has been received of the report that General Avilez, commander-in-chief of the government army, has escaped from the revolutionists, who made him a prisoner in Leon at the time President Machado was captured.

It is expected that the Alliance, which was ordered by Secretary Herbert to Nicaragua Saturday, will reach Corinto Friday of this week.

Horses Fed by Electricity.

TORRINGTON, Conn., July 17.—John N. Brooks, a well known young man of this place, has rigged up an ingenious electric device for feeding his horses. It consists of a hopper for oats or grain above the head of each horse, electrically connected with a battery so timed that these boxes, having been filled the night before, will open at a given hour in the morning and give the animals their breakfast.

Will Not Succeed Pere Hyacinthe.

WORCESTER, Mass., July 17.—The Rev. Dr. E. R. Knowles, of this city, announces that he has declined a request to take charge of the Gallican church in Paris from which the noted Pere Hyacinthe has retired. As the church is now in the jurisdiction of the Archbishop of Utrecht, Father Hyacinthe cannot longer act as rector, as he married after his ordination to the priesthood.

Shot Brother and Hired Man.

ROCKVILLE, Ind., July 17.—Yesterday Moses Swain, living five miles south of here, shot his brother, Lafayette Swain, badly wounding him, and instantly killed Gabriel Bryant, his brother's hired hand. There has been trouble of long standing between the brothers, both claiming a field of wheat which Lafayette was just starting to cut when the shooting was done.

Aurora Plays Havoc With Wires.

CHICAGO July 17.—Reports from many points in Minnesota, Wisconsin and Northern Michigan and Iowa tell of a beautiful display of aurora borealis. The aurora was preceded by an electrical storm of great violence. This greatly hampered telegraph service, and since the advent of the aurora telegraphic business in many sections has been almost at a standstill.

Canada's Increased Revenue.

OTTAWA, Ont., July 17.—The Department of Finance has issued a statement of the revenue and expenditure for the fiscal year ending June 30 last. The revenue was $37,183,255, an increase of $1,281,000. The expenditure was $36,652,652, a decrease of about $600,000. The nominal surplus is $6,530,603, as against $4,634,807 a year ago.

The President's Quiet Sunday.

BUZZARD'S BAY, Mass., July 17.—President Cleveland passed a very quiet Sunday at Gray Gables. The wind was very fresh in the forenoon, but as it quieted down in the afternoon the weather became extremely hot. The President and family spent pretty much of the whole day on the veranda.

Griffin Challenges the World.

CHICAGO, July 17.—Johnny Griffin, recently defeated by Solly Smith, before the Columbian Athletic club, has deposited $1,000 to meet any featherweight in the world, Solly Smith preferred, for $2,500 a side and any reasonable purse.

Failed Bank's Vice-President Arrested.

MANITOWOC, Wis., July 17.—John W. Barnes, vice-president of the failed State Bank is under arrest on a charge of embezzlement and illegal banking preferred by a depositor. Cashier Burnett was arrested on the same charge.

WANT $100,000 DAMAGES.

New York Underwriters Bring Suit Against Indiana's Insurance Department.

INDIANAPOLIS, July 17.—A suit for $100,000 damages has been filed against State Auditor Henderson and Insurance Commissioner Duke. The suit is brought by 100 underwriters of New York. The State Insurance Department of Indiana blacklisted the Guarantee and Accident Lloyd Insurance company.

State Insurance Commissioner Duke says:

"The managers of the Lloyds company say that it is a copartnership concern not incorporated, and therefore has a legal right to transact business in the State. It will be impossible for them to gain anything by the suit, as I considered their action so palpably fraudulent that I had engaged Prosecutor Holtzman to enter suit against them, which he intends to do."

PURGING THE ROLLS.

Nearly 12,000 Pension Cases Examined by the Board of Revision.

Five Hundred Supposed Recipients of Pensions Found to be Dead—The Suspensions Average Twenty-five a Day.

WASHINGTON, July 17.—The Board of Revision, appointed by Commissioner of Pensions Lochren to examine the pension cases which have come before the bureau since the Disability Pension act went into effect with a view to ascertaining whether fraud has been practiced, has already examined nearly 12,000 claims. About 10,000 of these cases have been sent to the Medical Division for further examination. Nearly 500 supposed recipients of pensions have been found to be dead.

In the new board little attention is paid to strict technicalities that may unjustly take away a pensioner's claim, but all cases are considered with a view of the worthiness of the individual to receive the pension. If two reviewers concur in the opinion of total disability in a case, the latter is not sent to the Medical Division; instead of this action, which is usually taken, the name of the pensioner is permitted to remain undisturbed on the rolls.

Only ten or twelve cases of rebutting evidence permitted to be filed in the 60 days period accorded pensioners to bring such evidence have yet been received. The number, however, will increase daily hereafter, and within a week or a fortnight it is believed that a large amount of this additional evidence will be received.

The purging of the rolls is creating a large amount of extra labor for the clerks in the agency in this city. The number of suspensions now average 25 a day, but involve many details that require time as well as labor. The proportion of those who reside in the city or the district, however is small. This is due to the wide scope of the jurisdiction of the agency.

SECRETARY MORTON INDIGNANT.

He Says that He Has Not Asked Prof. Harrington for His Resignation.

WASHINGTON, July 17.—Secretary Morton expresses both surprise and indignation at the interview with Forecaster E. B. Dunn, of New York, published two days ago. "It is absolutely untrue," he said, "that I have asked Prof. Harrington for his resignation, nor have I any intention of doing so.

"Mr. Dunn's suggestion in regard to a matter of this kind in relation to his chief are quite out of place. When suggestions in regard to the management of the Weather Bureau are wanted from him he will be asked to present them, not to the public, but to his official superiors.

"For his own sake I trust he has been misquoted. Otherwise he has professed knowledge upon a subject of which he knows, seemingly, no more than he does of decent discipline."

Pennsylvania Veterans at Gettysburg.

GETTYSBURG, Pa., July 17.—Camp Rutherford B. Hayes, of the Pennsylvania G. A. R., was very quiet yesterday. In the morning religious services were conducted at the rostrum in the Soldiers' National cemetery by Department Chaplain Sawyers. There were no exercises in the afternoon, and the veterans visited various portions of the battlefield. At 7 o'clock, a dress parade took place at the foot of the hill, and a song service, followed by a concert by the band, concluded the day.

The Countess Detained in the East.

NEW LONDON, Conn., July 17.—The Countess di Brazza Savorgnan, president and representative in America of the committee for the Italian lace exhibit in the Woman's building of the World's Fair, is now at her mother's summer home in Groton, Conn., detained East by the protracted illness of her child and therefore unable for the present to give personal attention to the exhibit in the success of which she has taken such a deep interest.

SUNDAY OPENING AGAIN

The Directors' Action Does Not Settle the Question.

CLINGMAN'S INJUNCTION IN FORCE

His Lawyer Says That the Gates Will Not be Closed Next Sunday Unless His Client Backs Down—Yesterday's Receipts to be Given to the Fund for the Killed Firemen.

CHICAGO, July 17.—By an almost unanimous vote a large majority of the World's Fair Directors decided last Friday that hereafter the gates of the Exposition shall be closed to the public Sunday. But this action, it appears, does not finally settle the question. A temporary injunction obtained several weeks ago by Charles W. Clingman, one of the stockholders in the Exposition company and a tax payer of Chicago, compelling the gates to be kept open, still stands in the way.

Judge Stein, of the Superior Court of Cook county, who granted the decree, said this morning:

"The injunction is still in force, their is no doubt about that. If the Court's attention is officially called to any violation of the order it will, after due consideration, take such action as may appear proper."

Further than this the judge declined to discuss the matter. He said that it would not be becoming in him to anticipate what might be done.

William F. Mason, solicitor for the petitioner, said:

"The gates will not be closed next Sunday unless my client desires to back down."

The entire receipts of yesterday—over $65,000—will be devoted to the fund for the firemen who lost their lives in the cold storage warehouse disaster.

Special attractions had been worked out with reference to the day. All the Exposition bands rendered special music, and in the evening the Iowa State band, which contributed its services, appeared on the plaza in front of the Administration building.

There were also other attractions on the main grounds, including full illumination in the evening.

All the exhibit buildings and most of the State headquarters were open from morning until night, and every one on the grounds in an official capacity worked for the success of the day.

The Midway had a new interest to Sunday visitors, owing to the fact that all or part of the receipts at many of the concessions were also devoted to the relief fund.

The receiver who has been placed in charge of the boats which were under the control of the Columbian Launching Co., has been ordered by Judge Collins to tie up the crafts and notify their owners. The boats were leased by the company to ply between the city and Jackson Park during the World's Fair.

Work is being pushed rapidly again this morning on the ruins of the fire by nearly 300 laborers and teamsters. No more bodies have been found although much of the debris of timber and iron has been removed from around the smokestack and boilers.

The belief is growing now that no more human remains will be unearthed. The ice making machines and engines are being taken out with derricks, but two weeks work is before them yet.

LOMBARD CUT HIS THROAT.

The Manager of the Hero Fruit Jar Company Commits Suicide.

PHILADELPHIA, July 17.—John A. Lombard, 60 years old, manager of the Hero Fruit Jar company, which was involved in the failure of the Spring Garden National Bank, and who was the defendant in suits brought by the receiver of the wrecked institution, was found dead with his throat cut at his home having evidently committed suicide.

He was last seen alive in his room by a servant about 9 o'clock Saturday morning. He did not appear for dinner, but his absence attracted no attention until Mr. Lombard failed to take his accustomed place at the supper table.

At that hour Harry Kennedy, a nephew, went to Mr. Lombard's room and found him dead in bed with his throat cut and a razor by his side.

Negroes Not Allowed in Sandoval, Ill.

CARLYLE, Ill., July 17.—At Sandoval, 18 miles east of here, owing to the scarcity of labor, two strange negroes were engaged by some carpenters to help finish a house. Negroes are not allowed to live in that place, consequently a party of 75 waited upon them, threatening to lynch them if they did not move at once. The men agreed to leave town as soon as the building is finished.

Mrs. Eliza Klemm Buried.

HIGHLAND FALLS, N. Y., July 17.—The funeral services over the remains of Mrs. Eliza Klemm, one of the victims of the Newburgh railroad disaster, took place from the Presbyterian church yesterday afternoon. The church was filled with sympathizing friends and the occasion was one of the saddest that has occurred here for many years.

Fierce Forest Fire.

PLYMOUTH, N. H., July 17.—A forest fire has been raging for the past two days in timber land owned by the Ashland Knitting company, situated on Petlee Hill, Ashland. Over 200 cords of dry wood has been consumed and the fire is not yet under control. The surrounding country is very dry.

Nebraska Gale Swept.

OMAHA, Neb., July 17.—Nebraska was swept last night by a severe gale accompanied by heavy rain. So far as known not a great deal of damage resulted.

Sudden Death of an Editor.

RICHMOND, Va., July 17.—James A. Gentry, of the editorial staff of the State newspaper, died suddenly yesterday.

NIPPED IN THE BUD.

Trouble Among the Navajos Averted by the Timely Arrival of Troops.

ALBUQUERQUE, N. M., July 17.—What threatened to be serious trouble among the Navajos has been nipped in the bud by the prompt arrival of the troops from Fort Wingate last night at Houcks Tank, A. T.

Two Atlantic and Pacific railroad detectives shot a Navajo Indian who resisted arrest on the charge of throwing a switch. The detectives were surrounded by a band of angry Navajos and sought refuge in the store of J. W. Bennett at Houcks Tank.

Bennett volunteered to take a message from the store to the railroad telegraph office asking aid and was seriously shot in the head while attempting to do so.

The Indians held the detectives prisoners within the store until the arrival of the troops on a special train.

MANY FATAL SWIMS.

The Sunday Crop of Drowning Accidents a Large One.

Fatalities at Washington—Mother and Three Children Lose Life in Indiana—Father and Son Drowned at Belle Isle.

WASHINGTON, July 17.—The swimming season has so far been unusually free from fatalities, but yesterday's record almost makes up the average number of deaths.

Mitchell Moran, a soldier at Fort Myer, was drowned while bathing in Little River, an arm of the Potomac in front of the Fort.

Howard M. Quander, a white boy 16 years of age, was drowned in Rock Creek, near the National Zoo.

Joshua Holmes, colored, 12 years old, was drowned while swimming in the Potomac River. All the bodies were recovered.

Father and Son Drowned.

DETROIT, July 17.—A drowning accident occurred last evening at the north end of Belle Isle, which resulted in the death of John Vick, aged 40, and his son Walter, aged 20. Young Vick got beyond his depth, and, being unable to swim, had gone down twice when his father plunged in to rescue him. The latter reached him just as he was going down again, but the boy clasped him around the arms, rendering him helpless, and both were drowned.

Drowned at Sea Girt.

SEA GIRT, N. J., July 17.—Joseph W. Thompson, 20 years old, of No 2050 Reed street, Philadelphia, while bathing here was drowned in the presence of many cottagers and hotel guests. Thompson could not swim and was carried out to sea by the undertow. Several men rushed into the water to rescue him, but were too late. His body was recovered and sent to Philadelphia for interment.

Mother and Three Children Drowned.

MOUNT VERNON, Ind., July 17.—Four persons were drowned in the river here yesterday. Willie Allen and Willie Boyce, aged 8 and 9 respectively, fell into the stream while playing. Mrs. Allen sprang in after them, but found herself helpless in the rushing current. Her 18 year-old daughter Anna went to rescue her mother, and all were drowned.

Seized With Cramps and Drowned.

JAMAICA, N. Y., July 17.—John Teideman, 19 years old, a farmer living at Queens, while bathing yesterday afternoon in Dooley's Creek, South Springfield, was seized with cramps and drowned before assistance could reach him. His body was recovered.

Two Young Men Drowned.

PROVIDENCE, R. I., July 17.—Christopher Keppell, 20, and John Keppell, 18, residing in Central Falls, were drowned in Cranberry pond, North Attleboro, yesterday while bathing. The bodies were recovered.

Drowned at Buzzard's Bay.

BUZZARD'S BAY, Mass., July 17.—Henry Bellows, of New York, was drowned in the bay off Wing's Neck last evening. He was 18 years of age and a son of the late Rev. Dr. Bellows, the eminent Unitarian minister.

GEN. EDWARD JARDINE.

The Funeral Services Will be Held in New York To-morrow.

NEW YORK, July 17.—The funeral of Gen. Edward Jardine, who died in New York yesterday after a long illness, will be held to-morrow morning, under the auspices of the F. and A. M., at Greenwood cemetery.

General Jardine was 67 years old and was a military man since he was old enough to carry a musket. When the Civil war broke out he raised a company at Fort Lee at his own expense and put them into Hawkins' Zouaves. He went to the front as a captain in May, 1861, and his first battle was Big Bethel. Afterward he was in command of the landing forces which attacked Fort Clark and Fort Hatteras. He fought at South Mountain, Antietam, Fredericksburg, Camden, N. C.; Roanoke Island, Elizabeth City, Suffolk and in other hard engagements, and was several times wounded.

He came back from the war a Lieutenant Colonel in 1863 and when the draft riots broke out here he gathered some of the Seventh Regiment war veterans and some members of the Hawkins Zouaves and marched against a mob of 15,000 persons. He received in a skirmish that followed wounds which caused his death, a full charge entering his left knee and thigh. Since then General Jardine has been forced to undergo nine operations on his thigh, the last one being made in October 1892.

The General was for 34 years a weigher in the Custom House.

Quiet in Father Killeen's Church.

BAYONNE, N. J., July 17.—There were no further developments in the troubles at Father Killeen's church yesterday. Father Killeen spoke briefly at all the masses. He said he was not disposed to talk over old matters, especially as he had nothing to complain of in the way of results. He thanked his parishioners for the manly and loyal way in which they had supported him in his contest.

GOSSIP OF THE RING.

Jem Smith, the ex-champion of England, is now an officer on one of the race tracks in England.

Steve O'Donnell, the Australian heavyweight, has consented to train Eddie Pierce for his coming struggle with George Dixon.

It is claimed that Stanton Abbott has made over $2,000 since he came to America by meeting mediocre boxers of New York and Philadelphia.

Denver Smith, Joe Goddard's conqueror, according to James J. Quinn, his backer, will soon fight again. Smith says that he would not mind tackling some of the lesser lights in the heavyweight class.

FROM THE OLD WORLD

Many Jews Killed in a Riot in the Crimea.

THE BOMBARDMENT AT BANGKOK

Admiral Humann, Who Commanded the French, Declares That the Siamese Fired First—The Bogus Blarney Stone at the World's Fair—Other News by Cable.

ST. PETERSBURG, July 17.—The Jews of Valta, in the Crimea, refused to obey the decree to retire within the pale. For several days the clergy exhorted the rest of the population to rise and expel them.

Last week an anti-Jew mob took possession of the streets, broke into houses occupied by Jews, and tried to drive the occupants from the town.

The Jews fought back. Dozens were dragged into the streets and beaten.

Many were killed. The houses owned by Jews were plundered and wrecked.

Troops were called to the town to restore order.

None of the rioters was killed, and but few were injured.

THE BANGKOK INCIDENT.

Rear Admiral Humann Says the Siamese Were the Aggressors.

PARIS, July 17.—Rear Admiral Humann, who was in command when the gunboats Inconstante and Comete crossed the bar at the mouth of the Menam river and proceeded to Bangkok, has made a brief report of the incident to the government. The gunboats did not fire on the forts at the river's mouth, he says, until the forts, without any previous warning or demand, had fired on the gunboats.

M. Pavie, French Minister Resident in Bangkok, has been instructed to protest against the firing from the forts as an indefensible act, constituting a violation of international law, inasmuch as the friendly relations established between France and Siam by the treaty of 1856, had remained unimpaired up to that time.

The Secretary of the Siamese Legation in Paris denies, in an interview, that the Siamese were the aggressors in the affair. The conflict was due, he says, to the fact that the French commanders misunderstood the orders of their government not to cross the bar.

BOGUS BLARNEY STONE.

Colthurst Will Make a Protest to the World's Fair Directors.

LONDON, July 17.—Not satisfied with his forcible declaration that no part of the real Blarney stone has been removed to the World's Fair at Chicago, and that the real stone remains intact and will not be disturbed, it is stated that Sir George Colthurst, the present owner of Blarney castle, proposes to send a delegate across the water for the purpose of placing his protest clearly, fairly and squarely before the Irish residents of that city and the visitors to the Fair.

It is also stated that Sir George Colthurst has addressed a strong letter on the subject to Lady Aberdeen, under whose auspices Blarney castle was erected.

Trouble Ahead for Blowitz.

PARIS, July 17.—La Provost de Launay, deputy for the Cotes-du-Nord, will interpellate the Government this week as to the despatches sent by M. de Blowitz, to the London Times. He will propose that Blowitz be deprived of his French naturalization in view of his statements in the Times concerning French politics and public men.

Valkyrie Wins Again.

BELFAST, July 17.—The feature in the Ulster Club races off Bangor, was the fine form displayed by the Valkyrie. She obtained the lead early and maintained it till the end, finishing almost two minutes ahead of the Britannia. The Calluna was a poor third, and the Satanita was last.

America Again Victorious.

LONDON, July 17.—The American champion swimmer, McCusker, easily defeated the ex-champion English swimmer, Finney, at Blackpool. The match was for $1,000 a side. McCusker has been challenged by the English swimmer, Nuttall, to race one mile for $5,000 a side.

Mme. Buloz Obtains a Divorce.

PARIS, July 17.—Mme. Buloz has obtained a divorce from Charles Buloz, the editor of the Revue Des Deux Mondes. It is reported that M. Brunetiere will edit the magazine for her until her nephew shall reach his majority.

New York Gets the Lagarde Library.

BERLIN, July 17.—The library collected in Gottingen by the Orientalist Lagarde, now dead, has been bought for the University of the City of New York. The library contains many rare volumes.

Gored to Death by a Bull.

MADRID, July 17.—A banderilero named Kobito was gored yesterday in a bull ring at San Fernando, Isla de Leon, and died half an hour afterward.

ON THE WAY TO NEW YORK.

Dr. Meyer, the Poisoner, Taken Charge of by Byrnes' Detectives.

DETROIT, July 17.—Dr. Henry C. W. Meyer, the poisoner, who is wanted in New York for the murder of Ludwig Brandt, left here at 1:30 yesterday afternoon for the East in charge of two detectives.

His wife will be kept at the hospital under the surveillance of two Pinkerton detectives until she is able to be moved, when she will be taken to New York.

Struck by Lightning.

WILKESBARRE, Pa., July 17.—Lightning struck and set fire to Conrad Lee's extensive planing mill here at an early hour yesterday. The entire plant, machinery and contents, were destroyed in less than an hour. Loss $30,000; insurance $5,000.

RALEIGH, N. C., July 17.—During a furious storm, the dwelling house of Sid Green, at Wakefield, was struck by lightning. Mrs. Purnell, who was visiting them, took refuge on a bed and escaped injury. Three others were all struck by lightning.

The Bancroft a Success.

WASHINGTON, July 17.—A telegram has been received at the navy department announcing the return of the Bancroft from her final acceptance trial. It was successful.

Labor unions in Vienna requested the municipal authorities to permit them to hold mass meetings at the new city hall, but they were promptly refused.

PLAINFIELD'S SQUARE SHOOTING.

She Does Creditable Work in the Inter-Club Tourney.

In Saturday's inter-club shooting, C. Smith broke 22 of his singles, and 18 doubles, equaling 40; Thos. Brantingham, 28 singles, 17 doubles, 45; Neaf Apgar, 29 singles, and all of his doubles, a feat that is not likely to be duplicated by only one competing under the conditions; Dan Terry, 26 singles and 14 doubles, 40; E. D. Miller, 25 singles and 16 doubles, 41; team total, 215, out of a possible 250

Each man shot at 30 singles and 10 pairs.

The blue rock targets were thrown hard, and the shooting was difficult, as the rules called that the targets should be thrown at unknown angles.

The club adhered strictly to the rules and if the other clubs competing have acted in the sportsmanlike manner that the Climax boys did, there is a probability of Plainfield getting a place for the honor. 15 different States are competing, and New Jersey is represented by five different teams. Should the score made by the Climax boys proved to be the winner of the State championships, they will then compete with the winning teams from the other Eastern States, to decide who shall represent the East in the sectional contest at Chicago, in September. Charley Smith and E. D. Miller did not shoot quite up to their average, and Terry also fell off a little, but Apgar made a record that he should be proud of.

The Climax's regular monthly shoot will take place to-morrow afternoon.

A Chance for Plainfield Clubs.

The Elizabeth Journal has sent a letter to all Union county bicycle clubs asking them to send one representative apiece to the meeting of the executive committee of the Journal league at Elizabeth, Thursday, July 20, to arrange for the race for the Journal trophy.

BURNED IN HIS ABSENCE.

Count VanNess Returns from the Beach to Find His Home Consumed.

Everybody for miles around was awakened at 11 Saturday night by the combined blowing of both city and borough fire gongs.

A big glare in the direction of Scotch Plains indicated where the house of J. K. VanNess, "count" and lawyer, was in flames.

Charles J. Noel, who had pulled box 18, needlessly sent in a second alarm; and as some ones in the borough, seeing the flames, had started the North Plainfield gong going, both departments turned out entire, and Rahway telephoned over, to know if help was needed.

The house burned like a tinder box, and in a short time was a mass of embers and ashes, level with the ground. The chimney alone was left standing.

Mr. VanNess and his wife, whom he always endearingly speaks of as "Baby", were spending the day at Boynton Beach. On the drive home they were delayed by an accident. From Rahway they saw the fire, and he feared it might be his place. When they reached Plainfield and found their home in ruins the wife fainted, and the "count" was nearly all night restoring her to consciousness.

Mr. VanNess says his loss exceeds his insurance. He had $8,000 on the house, and could n't say what was on the furniture.

The house stood back from Front street, behind an apple orchard, beyond Cole's hill. Sam Allen was the former owner.

VanNess left three farm hands at home, one a Pole, one a Swede, and one a German. He says they were intoxicated when he came home. They indignantly refute a rumor that was afloat that the German had been heard to say "You upset the lamp yourself", and they say that they awoke to find the house filled with suffocating smoke and barely escaped with their lives.

The Scotch Plains department turned out, and though the fire was out of their limit got a line of hose stretched. Through the considerate courtesy of chief Westcott the Plainfield firemen were permitted to use this hose, and the Scotch Plains boys waited patiently to reel it up.

The Scotch Plains chemical engine saved the adjoining outbuildings. The house that was burned was built of the material of an old silk mill that used to be operated here.

PARTICULAR MENTION.

Miss Katharine Runyon is at West New Brighton, S. I.

James Stafford, an employe of G. Q. Packer, is spending the week at Asbury Park.

Charles Black, formerly of this city but now living in Connecticut, is visiting relatives in town.

Edward T. B. Perine, of Clifton, S. I., spend yesterday with Harry L. Maxson, of West Seventh street.

A. B. Beers, of Watchung avenue, has been called to Delaware on account of the severe illness of his mother.

W. H. Miner arrived home Saturday evening from Merwin's point, where he has been spending a few days.

Miss Openger, of East Third street, a faithful member of the Baptist mission on that street, died Saturday evening.

Miss Depew, of 346 Franklin place, left town Saturday for Philadelphia, to join a party of friends en route for Chicago.

J. T. Veglard of North avenue is hobbling about again after a seige of rheumatism. Here's to his quick and complete recovery.

Charles Conover, of Elmwood place, was taken suddenly ill with colic last evening, and suffered intensely for several hours. Dr. Jenkins was called, and gave relief to the patient.

H. P. Bronk, an old resident of this city, but now of South Amboy, is here in the interest of a large public sale of South Amboy land. Mr. Bronk opened up the Washington Park section when it was farm land.

The New York World says that Mrs. Alexander Fisk, who has left the bellehship of Louisville to become a bride and make Plainfield her home, is one of the most popular women here, and before the summer is over will be counted as one of its social leaders.

Mention is made by a New York journal that among the young married women who have taken cottages in Plainfield for the summer is Mrs. James P. McQualde, nee Sidebotham, who reigned in Philadelphia's most exclusive set as one of its belles. Mrs. McQualde entertains a great deal.

Last Choir Concert of the Season.

The choir of the First Baptist church gave a musical service last evening, closing their work for the summer months.

A specially prepared programme was arranged and executed in an exceedingly pleasing manner.

Mr. Fitzhugh, who for some time has had charge of the choir, officiated at the organ, and the effect was striking.

Several anthems were rendered, among which were two selections from "The Redemption", by Gounod.

The solo work by Mrs. Collier, Miss May Grant and B. T. Barnes was excellent, and fully appreciated.

The Rev. Dr. W. R. Richards, pastor of the Crescent Avenue church, gave a very interesting talk, taking his text from Acts xvi: 25-26.

Those who sang in the choir last evening were: Sopranos—Mrs. Collier, Mrs. J. S. Cutter, Miss May Grant, Miss Kittie Glenn; altos—Miss Nancy Randolph, Miss Gussie Runyon, Miss Bertha Needham; tenors—S. St. John McCutchen, W. MacClymont, Mr. Douglas; bassos—B. T. Barnes, W. Holmes, Arthur Serrell, Stacy Reynolds.

C. W. McCutchen was away on his vacation.

Mr. MacClymont deserves credit for his efficient work as organist.

When the choir meets again in the fall, a choice selection of music will be given.

GOOD-BYE FOR THE SUMMER.

No More Park Club Dancing Till Cooler Weather.

Those who love dancing love it at all times and under all circumstances, but the popular verdict is that July and August are months better spent in sitting quietly on piazzas and endeavoring to keep cool than in working one's self to a fever heat in a crowded dancing room.

The Park club follows the popular verdict, and wound up its series of informal dances Saturday night with the most successful of the many delightful ones that they have given this year.

The decorations that were put in the pretty dancing room on the Fourth still remained to brighten the scene, and the recently added promenade over the bowling alleys, ending in a spacious piazza, made a pleasant retreat from the heat of the ball room.

As it was Saturday night, the dance was early if not small, and by 9 nearly all the guests had arrived. They were received by Mrs. S. St. John McCutchen and Mrs. Augustus VanDeventer.

After a little time, however, the numbers on the floor began to thin out, and everyone made for the promenade and piazza, only going in when the notes of a two-step were wafted out through the open doors. The signs of coming rain hastened the departure of many of the guests, and by half-past eleven the numbers had greatly decreased, and by the time the storm broke everyone had reached home safely.

Among those present were:

Mr. and Mrs. S. St. John McCutchen, Mr. and Mrs. McQualde, Mr. and Mrs. Augustus VanDeventer, Mr. and Mrs. Dupee, Mrs. Clapp, Miss Clapp, Mr. and Mrs. B. A. Hegeman, jr., Mr. and Mrs. Roome, Miss Grace Miller, Mrs. Underwood, Miss Florence Underwood, Laura Underwood, Miss Nellie Underwood, Miss Marion Henderson, Mr. and Mrs. Evans, Miss Bessie Evans, Henry Evans, Miss Elizabeth Stewart, Walter Stewart, Miss Maude VanBoskerck, Miss Lizzie VanBoskerck, the Messrs. VanBoskerck, Miss Clarkson, Edward Bloodgood, Miss Waring, Miss Florence Waring, O. G. Waring, Miss Jean Erickson, Jules Erickson, Roger Erickson, Miss Edith Hyde, Miss Pansy Herring, Miss Daisy Shepard, Rud Shepard, Miss Minnie Murray, Miss Grace Cooley, Gifford W. Cooley, Murphy, Clarence Logan Murphy, Miss Maude Chilton, Irving West, Harry West, Sherwood West, James Murray, Walter Murray, Howard Huntington, Percy Sandford, Henry Bushnell, Walter Place, Richard Pease, Eli Long, Charles Faber, Edward Finch, Clarence Davis, Rowland Cox, J. S. Anthony, William Runyon, James Leonard, James Hallock, David Lenox, Henry Lowe, Harry Patent, Arthur Freeman, Dr. Charles R. Thiers, William Thiers, Arthur Strong, Mr. Rushmore, Edward VanBuren and Fred. Walz.

MAYOR GILBERT HOLDS COURT.

Justice Meted Out to Several Local Offenders.

On account of the illness of judge Coddington, mayor Gilbert has doled out justice for the past two days.

On Saturday night court was held, and King and Alexander, the two colored men who had the biting match Saturday morning, were fined respectively $10 and $5.

A man named Bergen, who was arrested for disorderly conduct on Friday night, was fined $5.

Donovan, who was taken in for interfering with the cars and switches on the railroad, pleaded not guilty and his trial was set down for Tuesday.

In this morning's court an Italian who was arrested on Cottage place Saturday for threatening to cut up another of his kind, was discharged.

John Hogan was fined $2 for being drunk and disorderly at Netherwood last night.

Judge Coddington has recovered from his illness, and is at his office to-day.

THE SON LACKS PATRONAGE.

Marx's Restaurant Goes Back to the Father Again.

Ernest Marx, of this city, who keeps a restaurant at 193 Mercer street, New York, has confessed judgment for $14,040 in favor of his father, Felix Marx, of East Front street, on account of the purchase of a restaurant from the latter on June 12, 1890, at 79 Mercer street, for $10,000, and for $2,000 money loaned on February 4, 1892. Felix Marx established the business many years ago, and the son succeeded to it three years ago. The trouble is attributed to stagnation in business and want of patronage. The sheriff has taken possession.

The World's Fair for 25 Cents.

T. DeQuincy Tully, who has won renown by years of experience with illustrated lectures, has at great expense, and with painstaking care prepared the most magnificent and satisfactory presentation of the World's Columbian Exposition possible. The grand and beautiful sights are most enchanting, every department faithfully represented as it actually appears it Chicago. The whole described, as the scenes appear, in a carefully prepared lecture. Mr. Tully certainly gives the best ideas of the World's accumulated treasures at the great Columbian Exposition at Chicago obtainable. Music Hall, two nights, Monday and Tuesday, July 17 and 18. Admission, 25c.; reserved seats, 35c. Course tickets with reserved seat for both nights, 50c.

Oh, What a Cough!

Will you heed the warning. The signal perhaps of the sure approach of that more terrible disease, Consumption. Ask yourselves if you can afford for the sake of saving 50c., to run the risk and do nothing for it. We know from experience that Shiloh's Cure will cure your cough. It never fails. This explains why more than a Million Bottles were sold the past year. It relieves croup and whooping cough at once. Mothers, do not be without it. For lame back, side or chest, use Shiloh's Porous Plaster. Sold by A. D. Mallinson, 65 North Ave. opposite railroad station. 5-16-y

SUN-LIGHT and FRESH AIR are THE BEST DISINFECTANTS, of course; but you can't apply them in every situation. What next? Well, that depends. For damp cellars use Quicklime, plenty of it. For vaults and cesspools use COPPERAS; cheap stuff; we sell it by the pound or hundred-weight—instructions thrown in. For kitchen sinks, for water-closets, for house plumbing, for the sick room, to deodorize discharges, to purify the air and to prevent contagion, use REYNOLDS'S ODORLESS DISINFECTANT. THE VOICE OF THE BOARD.

Pastor Martine Speaks Concerning Dunellen's School Row.

TO THE EDITOR OF THE PRESS:—In your paper edited Saturday, July 15, is found a contribution headed "A Serious Accusation Against Dunellen's School Board". Permit me as a member of that board to correct some statements in that article signed by N. G. M.

First, the undersigned has yet to learn of any uproar among the people of Dunellen; the fact that a few of the people of this village differ from the board does not constitute an uproar.

Second, the board is not about to act in the matter; they began their action in May and finished it July 7; as, early as May 16, they notified O. A. Johnson, (who had been employed to fill out Prof. Roberts's unexpired term, which ended June 27, 1893), that there was a doubt in the mind of the board as to whether he would be retained, at which time he was told by the president of the board, "that if he had an opportunity to secure a position somewhere else he should not allow the possibility of Dunellen's board engaging him to stand in his way"; very significant language, and so understood by O. A. Johnson, who said "why that amounts to a dismissal". On June 6, the board took action in this matter, and this is the action: "That O. A. Johnson be notified that after the close of school term ending June 24, 1893, his services would no longer be required". He was informed of such action on the morning of June 7. This action, which was unanimous, was reaffirmed at a meeting of the board on June 23, which meeting had been called at the request of Mr. Johnson to allow O. A. Johnson another opportunity to meet the board in reference to this matter. Such action, extending over weeks, does not indicate hasty decision on the part of the board; on the contrary, it indicates a desire on their part to do what is right. On July 6 the board met for the purpose of engaging a superintendent of their schools for the coming school year; choice was made of one, and he was engaged by the board, and acknowledged his acceptance, as the minutes of the board will show.

Third, the one who has been engaged by the board, and who will come to us sometime in August (D. V.,) is not so deficient in his department as N. G. M. would have men to believe; if he is, then recommendations by eminent men, a record of 8 years, and commendations given to the writer of this article in person, count for nothing. Now the undersigned is not ready to believe that the several men who wrote concerning the person in question, made statements they could not substantiate, nor is the writer ready to believe that those persons with whom he conversed on this matter, of the ability of Mr. Whitney to teach and the fitness of Mr. Whitney to superintend, deliberately told a pack of lies; and yet all these recommendations and testimonials are the reverse of what N. G. M. writes. N. G. M. may be right, but the writer is not ready to believe him.

Fourth, N. G. M. would have readers of your paper believe that Dunellen has a board of education that can so far forget their obligations as citizens, their duty as officers, as to discharge "a capable principal to make room for one who cannot raise the school" etc.; such a charge, whether made direct, or covered up with words, is as unjust as it is unfair. The members of the board have children of their own to educate, and the writer ventures to assert that they have the interest of the children of Dunellen as much on their heart as any three men of Dunellen that could be chosen. The board does not claim to be infallible; but to assert or even hint that they the members of the board are actuated by other than right motives (motives which spring out of desires to do that which in their judgment will be for the best interest of Dunellen's public school) is, to say the least, an unfair attack upon their personal integrity, and which the writer believes no fair-minded and upright man would make.

Believing that this will place the matter in its true light before your readers, I subscribe myself, yours respectfully,

REV. A. I. MARTINE, D. C.

Of Marked Ability and a Leader.

[Madison Eagle.]

We deeply regret to learn of the death of Bro. W. L. Force, the senior editor of the Plainfield Constitutionalist. He was a man of marked ability, and a citizen whose loss will be deeply felt. He was in the prime of life and was the acknowledged leader of the Democratic forces in Plainfield. In 1886 he was appointed postmaster, and filled his four years of service with ability and credit to himself.

HILLSIDE SHOULD FILL THE BLANK.

That Inter-Club Tennis Pennant Belongs in Plainfield.

The first matches of the inter-club tennis tournament were played on the grounds of the Hillside Tennis club Saturday afternoon, and the usual large crowd of spectators was present. A tea was given in conjunction with the tournament; and Mrs. E. H. Ladd, jr., received, assisted by Mrs. Geo. P. Mellick, Mrs. W. T. Kaufman, Miss Florence Huntington and Miss Bessie Evans.

The first match that was played was between the visiting teams. A. J. Post, jr., and W. E. S. Strong, jr., played for Jersey City, and Sydney Smith and L. D. Ayres represented Bergen Point. The contest resulted in a victory for Jersey City, after three spirited sets, 6–2, 4–6, 6–4.

The Hillside team for the day was composed of Albert Simmonds and Fred Walz, and they suffered defeat at the hands of the Jersey City boys, whom they met in the second match. It can be said, however, that they were not up to their usual form, for notwithstanding some excellent playing, they repeatedly drove the ball out of court, their adversaries' good judgment enabling them to score many points in that way. The Jersey City men played a very effective side line stroke that won them many points.

In the first part of each set, the play was fairly even, but the Hillside team went to pieces in the second halves, and Jersey City won, 6–4, 6–3.

After a short rest the Hillside men came again on the court, and succeeded in defeating Bergen Point easily. Simmonds placed well, and Fred Walz won many points by a gentle side stroke at the net that completely fooled their antagonists. The score was 6 2, 6–4.

The present rating of the teams is therefore as follows:

	WON.	LOST.
Jersey City	2	0
Hillside	1	1
Bergen Point	0	2

The silk banner that is being played for as the trophy was on exhibition at the club Saturday afternoon. It is of deep blue, with gold fringe and lettering, and reads: "Inter-club Tennis League of New Jersey. Won by ———".

The new flag of the Hillside club was everywhere Saturday. A large one floated from the flagstaff, while smaller ones, alternating with American flags, were ranged in rows on top of the back-stops.

It is quite original in design, being a blue trapezoid with white stripes running diagonally across from corner to corner.

The games will be continued on the two ensuing Saturdays, at Bergen Point and at Jersey City respectively. The West Brothers will play next Saturday at Bergen Point.

Among those present were: Major and Mrs. R. L. Burnett, Miss Lawrence, Mr. and Mrs. George P. Mellick, Mrs. Augusta Schuyler, Miss Mellick, Mr. and Mrs. Dewitt Clinton Ivins, Chas. Spencer of Bergen Point, Mrs. Fox, Mr. and Mrs. Clifton Wharton, jr., Miss McKnight, Miss Depew, Mr. and Mrs. G. Harry Squires, C. W. World's Fair Philanthropists.

Messrs. Boddie Bros., wealthy Chicago gentlemen, having the interest of their city at heart, and desiring to disprove the falsity of the statement that only in boarding houses can be found moderate priced accommodations during the World's Fair, remodeled and furnished at great expense one of their famous absolutely fire-proof business structures, located corner of Franklin and Jackson streets, within short walking distance of the Union depots, theaters, post office, board of trade, steam, elevated, cable-roads and steamboats to the World Fair, furnished newly throughout five hundred rooms, superb parlors, elevators, electric lights, exhaust fans to keep cool entire building, named this property The Great Western Hotel, and invited the public to take their choice of rooms for $1 per day, children 5 to 12 fifty cents. Elegant restaurant and dining rooms where fine meals are served at 50 cents, or a la carte at very moderate prices.

There would be less heard or known of extortion and imposition connected with the World's Fair were there more public spirited, fair minded men in Chicago as are the owners and proprietors of The Great Western Hotel. Our readers should write as early as possible to secure rooms, for they are being taken up rapidly.—St. Paul Daily News.

Lost $300,000 in Car Wheels.

Chancellor McGill, at Jersey City Saturday, appointed John C. Paul of this city, receiver of the Garwood steel works. The company was originally a Boston concern, and made steel car wheels. The works are at Garwood, between Westfield and Cranford, and $300,000 has been lost in following a new process.

Steadfast and Best.

In the death of William L. Force the Democratic party loses one of its most steadfast adherents, and the city of Plainfield one of its best citizens.

Shiloh's Cough Cure.

This is beyond question the most successful Cough Medicine we have eversold; a few doses invariably cure the worst cases of Cough, Croup and Bronchitis, while its wonderful success in the cure of Consumption is without a parallel in the history of medicine. Since its first discovery it has been sold on a guarantee, a test which no other medicine can stand. If you have a cough we earnestly ask you to try it. Price, 0c. and $1. If your lungs are sore, chest, or back lame, use Shiloh's Porous Plaster. Sold by A. D. Mallinson, 65 North Avenue, opposite railroad station. 5-16-y

THE YEARS OF A SAINT.

Long Life of T. J. Gillies Held to Be a Special Proof of God's Love.

Funeral services for the late Theodore J. Gillies were held at 3:30 Saturday afternoon, in the Crescent Avenue church. The funeral procession arrived at the church promptly at the hour. The hearse was escorted by about fifty members of the Exempt Firemen's association, of which the deceased was a prominent and honored member. A long train of carriages followed. The pall-bearers were: A. Saltzman, L. E Barkalew, G. Thorn, Thos. MacDonald, Stephen Ryder and Joseph S. Cutter, all exempt firemen.

The floral tributes that accompanied the casket to the church were a cross in roses and smilax, and an anchor with the word "Exempt" in scarlet immortelles from the Exempt Firemen's Association, a sheaf of wheat, a wreath of sweet peas, and one of pansies.

The Rev. Dr. W. R. Richards conducted the services, and read first from the Epistle of Peter. The choir then sang "Come Sleep in Jesus", and Mr. Richards spoke at length of the qualities of the deceased and drew a lesson from his life. He said in brief:

"The Old Testament teaches us to look on the long life of a good man as a special proof of God's love. In that book the valued men, the saints, lived through sickness and accident, to a good old age, and it was through God's special care and love that they did so. The New Testament, however, shows us that death is not a manifestation of God's displeasure. The very foundation of the New Testament shows us that it cannot be so, for did not God take away life from His best beloved Son when He was but 30 years old? So if we look on a long life as a sign of God's pleasure we must not think of death as His displeasure. The life of the deceased is a good example of a useful and good man living to a good old age. He had lived more than the alloted time, over 3 score and 10.

But if we follow out our ideas we can see a reason for this. It is explained by his kindliness, his public spirit, and his general usefulness to the community. But if all we had to think of was what he has been this would indeed be a mournful occasion. The things that have been are only a shadow of the Heavenly life, of God's favor that shall continue forever.

"I was speaking only a few days ago to the deceased"—the pastor continued—"and had been reading to him from the Epistle of Peter that I have read you today, and he agreed most thoroughly that the trial of faith was the most precious experience he ever had." As an example of faith Mr. Richards told how the dead man was unwilling to bid his friends good-bye, saying that it was only for a little while.

The choir rendered "Abide With Me" in a very touching and solemn manner, and Mr. Richards offered a prayer. The funeral party waited until the friends of the deceased had taken a last look at the body, and then went directly to the North Plainfield cemetery, where the interment took place in the family plot. The deceased leaves a widow and a large family of children.

Theodore Jackson Gillies was born in Philadelphia March 15, 1815. While in Philadelphia he belonged to Reliance Engine company, No. 17. He went to New York in the fall of 1839, and moved to Williamsburg in 1849, and there joined Zephyr Hose company, No. 4, which was called the Kid Glove company. In 1853 he began the manufacture of ornamental iron spring furniture and sleighs, on which he had patents. He also invented the metallic sarcophagus coffin and preserving box. He manufactured an ornamental iron spring bedstead for the New York Crystal Palace. It was to be delivered the day before the palace was burned down, but was not delivered, and therefore was saved from destruction. It is still in use at his former place of residence. In the fall of 1858 he moved to Passaic Valley, N. J., after which he came to Plainfield in 1861, when he engaged in the real estate and auction business, and had resided here ever since. He was one of the original 15 members of Gazelle Engine No. 1 to organize No. 2 company, which was started in Guillermo Thorn's studio on Front street. He was first vice-president of the Exempt Firemen's association; was offered the presidency, but declined, and held the position of vice-president continuously; was chief of police, overseer of the poor, and elected justice of the peace. He leaves a wife, 10 children, 31 grandchildren and 4 great-grandchildren. He was married twice—the first wife being Miss Eliza S. Wilson, by whom he had nine children, and the second wife, Miss Mary B. Buchanan, by whom he had five children. Two sisters survive him—Mrs. Charles McGlathery and Miss Emily Gillies, both of Philadelphia. The children by the first wife living are: Janet W. DeLong, Mary C. Hale, John J. Gillies, Agnes M. Palmer, Robt. C. Gillies, Cornelia E. Coffin, James W. Gillies. By the second, of whom are living, Emily Ryder, Theodore J. Gillies, jr., and Mabel Gillies.

Slaughtered With an Axe.

A horse became suddenly ill yesterday and fell down in Totten's yard, Fourth and New streets. The animal seemed in terrible pain, but no one could be found to despatch it until finally somebody secured the services of John Fillmore, who, for a consideration, put the poor horse out of its misery with a few blows from an axe.

Changed to Suit the Pond Men.

The date of the 25-mile road race that the Lyceum Cyclists had set for Aug. 26 has been changed, as the Pond Tool Works excursion takes place on that day, and many Pond men are interested. They have accordingly decided to hold the race on the Saturday previous to the former date, which is Aug. 19.

One of my children had a very bad discharge from her nose. Two physicians prescribed, but without benefit. We tried Ely's Cream Balm and much to our surprise, there was a marked improvement. We continued using the Balm and in a short time the discharge was cured.—O. A. Gary, Corning, N. Y.

The children's health must not be neglected. Cold in the head causes catarrh. Ely's Cream Balm cures at once. It is perfectly safe and is easily applied into the nostrils. The worst cases yielding to it. Price 50c.

WESTFIELD TRIED HARD.

But She Went to Pieces in the Sixth, and Couldn't Rally.

The ball players of Westfield made brave battle against Plainfield, Saturday, but lost through a bad case of rattles in the sixth inning. Plainfield didn't earn a run, while Westfield did. Francis did some good pitching, but was disheartened by the lack of fielding support. The Westfield gang of rooters, headed by lucky Carbonell of Somerville fame, did noble shouting and with silver-tongued Jim Emmons's aid made the game lively. Gentle Murphy slid to bases like a trolley car. Turner and Keenan both did well in the box. The score:

									R	B	H	E
Plainfield	0	0	0	1	0	5	2	0	8	7	2
Westfield	0	1	0	0	0	1	0	1	3	6	8

The Middletown asylum team will play a return game here next Saturday.

Cadmus, whose umpiring has displeased so many, will be replaced by C. J. Daily, a professional of the Eastern and New England leagues.

There's no cooler place in town than the Crescent grand-stand. Don't miss Saturday's great game.

The Fourth ward base-ball team would like to get a Saturday afternoon game with any team in Plainfield whose members are under 18 years old. Address captain Kelly Lyons, 511 South Second street.

In the game Saturday between the West Ends of Somerville and the Cranfords, the latter were unable to make a base hit off Harkins, the old League pitcher. Somerville won, 3 to 0.

The stage for the Plainfield game at New Brunswick, Wednesday, will leave Kenney's kranks' corner at 1:15.

LETTER-CARRIERS CELEBRATE.

Mr. Bauersachs Gives a Pink Tea to His Fellow-Professionals.

Letter-carrier J. W. A. Bauersachs gave a pink tea to his fellow-carriers, Saturday evening, at his home on Manning avenue. It was a grand affair, and the oppression of the warm weather did not daunt in the least the realization of a good time.

During the evening the following interesting programme was given:

Recitation.....Edward VanWinkle
Vocal Solos.....W. Demarest
Harmonica selections.....R. H. Loughlin

The various numbers were heartily received, and had to be repeated.

Those present were: Mr. and Mrs. Edward VanWinkle, Mr. and Mrs. W. Demarest, R. H. Loughlin, Edward Hann and Mr. Townsend.

Mr. Bauersachs provided a most elaborate collation, which all partook of and enjoyed.

It was quite late when the company parted, and before doing so they all agreed that their brother-carrier was a royal good fellow.

CAP. KIRKNER SHOT.

He Was Careless With His Revolver, and His Left Hand Is Laid Up.

Casper Kirkner, son of the Hon. Jacob Kirkner, of West Eighth street, is conductor of a Pullman dining car on the New York Central, and spends every other night in Plainfield. Two or three nights ago while at his father's home he was practicing shooting with a revolver, and said "Here goes the last one! He carelessly held his left hand in front of the right, as he fired, and the ball tore its way through the flesh, fortunately missing the bones.

Changed the Prayer Meeting for the Excursion.

On account of the excursion of Trinity church Sunday-school, Wednesday, July 19, the regular Wednesday evening prayer meeting will be omitted, and a union service with the Y. P. S. C. E. will be held to-night at 8, at which the Rev. Titus Davis, pastor of the Bound Brook Presbyterian church, will tell of the great Christian Endeavor convention at Montreal, to which he was a delegate.

Collision Caused by a Saying Horse.

Two men, named Mowry and Flynn, who were riding captain F. L. C. Martin's tandem bicycle home from the VanNess fire, Saturday night, were run over on Front street near John Taylor Johnston's place by a horse and wagon belonging to Mr. Brower, of New Providence. The wheel was badly bent, but the men escaped unhurt. Brower says that he was on the right side of the road, but that the horse shied into the wheel.

Woman's Mistake.

She tries to do too much.
This applies to all women.
The ambitious girl striving for school honors. The busy house wife, the shop girl, the society woman.
What follows?
Nervous prostration, excitability, fainting spells, dizziness, sleeplessness, backache, and most likely organic diseases of the uterus or womb, causing bearing-down pains and irregularity.
Oh! women, if you must bring upon yourself these troubles, remember that Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound has done more to relieve such suffering than anyotherremedy.
"It cured me, and will you."—

Discreet.

Mrs. Meadow (at city hotel) — Oool There's a fly in this soup.
Mr. Meadow (who has traveled some) —Hush, Miranda, don't speak so loud. No use exposin' our ignorance. This tarnal bill of fare is in French, and mebby we ordered fly soup.—Life.

A Fit Substitute.

"Do you think travel broadens the mind?" asked Barker at the club.
"It depends on the mind," replied Warren. "I think a glove-stretcher would do quite as well for Chappie Bronson's, for instance."—Harper's Bazar.

A Queer Order.

Mother—Johnnie, your father went trouting this morning. Go down to the fish market, and when he arrives there tell him to get a codfish instead of the trout, as to-morrow is Friday, and I expect company.—N. Y. Press.

RUINOUS.

The Housewife—Bridget, I smell gas leaking. Do you suppose it comes from the hall burner?
Bridget (after a sniff)—Lakin', is it? Bad luck to it! It'll be all over the new carpet. (Hastens for the mop.)—Puck.

A FEDERATION FORMED.

Firemen, Trainmen, Switchmen and Conductors Unite at Pittsburg.

PITTSBURG, July 17.—Delegates representing the Brotherhood of Locomotive Firemen, the Brotherhood of Railway Trainmen, Switchmen's Mutual Aid Association and Order of Railway Conductors met in this city yesterday and formed a federation, the object of which is mutual protection and aid.

The Order of Railway Telegraphers was not represented, but they are to be included in the federation at the next meeting, to be held in Pittsburg on Sunday, Aug. 27.

It was determined that the Brotherhood of Locomotive Engineers will not be included in the federation. At the next meeting the organization will be completed and steps taken to prepare a constitution and by-laws.

BLOODSHED IS FEARED.

Alarming State of Affairs in the Kansas Coal Mine Strike.

The Leader of the Malcontents Advises His Followers to Take Life if Necessary to Gain Their Point.

TOPEKA, Kan., July 17.—It will be difficult to prevent trouble in the Southeast Kansas coal mine strike. Strikers march from shaft to shaft denouncing the mine owners and the miners who are at work in the vilest language.

Walters, leader of the strike, openly advises bloodshed if necessary to gain his point. He has incited strikers to seriously beat several men who wanted to work.

Despatches from Pittsburg this morning state that trouble is expected there today.

Capt. O. S. Casad, commanding the militia company at Pittsburg, has received orders to hold his men in readiness for any possible contingency.

DEATH OF REAR ADMIRAL ENGLISH.

He Served Through the Mexican and Civil Wars—Retired Since 1886.

WASHINGTON, July 17.—Rear Admiral Earl English, retired, died at his residence in Washington last night, aged 69 years. He was appointed to the Naval Academy from New Jersey in 1840 and served 46 years, retiring in 1886.

He was at the capture of Mazatlan, Mexico, in 1847, and remained there until the close of the Mexican war. He was made Lieutenant Commander in 1862, and served throughout the Civil war, being employed principally in the Gulf of Mexico and the sounds of North Carolina, commanding at different periods the Somerset, Sagamore and Wyalusing.

He was made Rear Admiral in 1884, at which time he resigned the position of Chief of the Bureau of Equipment and Recruiting, which he had held for six years, and took command of the European station.

Admiral English left a widow and two daughters, both married.

WASHINGTON, July 17.—Brig. Gen. John C. Kelton, retired, is dead at his residence at the Soldier's Home. Gen. Kelton was born in Delaware county, Pa., in June, 1828. He graduated at the military academy and served through the civil war. He is the author of a number of valuable military books, and has patented many improvements in small arms and military equipments.

Yale defeated Amherst Saturday at Chicago by the score of 9 to 0. All the runs were made in the sixth inning. By this game Yale wins the Intercollegiate championship.

World's Fair Commissioner Richard Mansfield White, of New Mexico, has been unseated by the National Commission by a vote of 26 to 24, and his opponent Webster put in his place.

The International Railway Commission, which was one of the outgrowths of the late Pan-American Congress, is now engaged in winding up the work it has been pursuing for the past two years.

From Jan. 1 to July 1 of the present year, 1,025 miles of new railroad track were built, which is 260 miles less than for the same period last year. Pennsylvania built 135 miles; New York 37, and New Jersey 2.

It is stated that General Hebert, who was called to London by the British government ostensibly to arrange for carrying out the proposed strengthening of the fortifications of British Columbia, will not return to Canada.

Twenty Indictments Against Him.

BUFFALO, July 17.—After a close investigation the true amount of Van Brocklin's embezzlement is found to be $57,642.57. This falls somewhat short of the first estimates of his theft, as upon closer examination it was found that he would drop his fictitious names in times of nervousness only to resume them later. The grand jury has finished the investigation of his case and 20 indictments will be reported against him to-day.

Oswego, N. Y., Man Killed in Chicago.

CHICAGO, July 17.—David Lyons of Oswego, N. Y., stepped from a northbound Cottage Grove avenue cable train at Oakwood boulevard directly in front of a southbound train Saturday night, and his right leg was broken. He was taken to the home of his daughter, Mrs. Hillis, where he died Sunday night.

It Depended.

With a view to giving a performance in the evening the manager of the traveling dramatic company was inspecting the building called by the enterprising Arizona proprietor an opera house.

"Yes, it's large enough," he said, "and the lighting arrangements seem to be about right, but it hasn't exits enough. In case of a sudden alarm there would be a crush. Did you ever try to find out how long it takes to empty the hall?"

"You bet I have!" answered the proprietor. "A dog fight on the outside will empty the buildin' in twenty-seven seconds by the watch."—Chicago Tribune.

Where the Goods Went.

Mrs. Kerstyle—I gave you more material to make this dress than I ever used in a garment before and the skirt is hardly full enough to fit a churn. How does that happen?

Dressmaker (shrugging her shoulders)—Madame inseested on having ze sleeves in ze height of ze fashong.—Demorest's Magazine.

ABSENCE OF MIND.

They passed just at the crossing's brink.
Said she: "We must turn back, I think."
She eyes the mud. He sees her shrink,
Yet does not falter,
But recollects with fatal tact
That cloak upon his arm—in fact,
Resolves to do the courtly act
Of good Sir Walter.

Why is it that she makes no sound,
Staring aghast as on the ground
He lays the cloak with bow profound?
Her utterance chokes her.
She stands as petrified, until,
Her voice regained, in accents chill
She gasps: "I'll thank you if you will
Pick up my cloak, sir!"
—Oliver Herford, in Harper's Magazine.

Too Willing.

Howson Lott—I tell you, you ought to come out and live at Lonesomehurst. It's the healthiest and most beautiful station on the road.

Murray Hill (musingly)—I wonder if I could buy a nice little place out there?

Howson Lott (eagerly)—Yes; I'll sell you mine! Dirt cheap, too!—Puck.

No Competition.

"You say you have no competition in this line," said the traveling agent to the merchant.

"That's what I said."

"But there are two other men selling these goods here."

"I know it. But neither of them advertises."—Washington Star.

A Woman's Comparison.

"Did you know Mr. Stoplets was a corset manufacturer?"

"No; but if he makes his stays any thing like as long as those when he calls, it must take a freak to wear them."—Brooklyn Life.

It Depended.

Last Guest (at the dairy lunch counter)—What time do you close?

Tired Waiter Girl—If it takes you as long to finish the pie as it did the sandwich we shan't close for fifteen minutes yet.—Chicago Tribune.

And He Stopped It.

"This thing has gone far enough!" exclaimed the hungry guest, snatching a plate of beefsteak from the waiter who was hurrying past him.—Chicago Tribune.

"LOSING HIS GRIP."

—Life.

Why Gus Kicked.

"I wonder why all my friends treat me so coldly," asked Gus Clamwhooper.

"Well, you see, Gus, you have been living a fast life. You have run through the fortune left you by your father," replied Charlie Knickerbocker.

"Yes, but that's his fault in not leaving me a bigger fortune. I don't think it is right that the sins of the fathers should be visited on the children."—Texas Siftings.

30 CENTS A DAY.

WILL BUY A PIANO or it will buy three cigars; at the end of a given time you still have the Piano; where are the cigars?

The right kind of a Piano lasts a lifetime. It furnishes and beautifies a room; its mellow tones smooth out the cares of a tiresome day. It is not an expense; it is an investment. Come and let us talk it over. We have STEINWAY, GABLER, VOSE and STERLING PIANOS and ESTEY ORGANS.

Cash Installments or Rented.

A SCHEME THAT FAILED

Convicts' Plot to Escape from Clinton Prison Exposed.

PARDON GRANTED THE INFORMER

The Murder of Several of the Guards Was Included in the Plan of the Prisoners—The Attempt Was to Have Been Made Sunday Night.

ALBANY, July 18.—The revelations made to Governor Flower late yesterday afternoon by Walter N. Thayer, warden of Clinton prison, at Dannemora, has caused a great sensation. He related to the Governor a brutal scheme of a number of long term prisoners, confined in his prison, to gain their freedom, which included the cold-blooded murder of several of the prison guards. One of the prisoners who was asked to enter into the murderous attempt to escape refused, and it was through him that the prison authorities became aware of the plot.

The Governor, when he heard the facts, immediately pardoned the prisoner who had the courage and manliness to prevent human slaughter.

At noon Sunday in Clinton Prison, as the prisoners filed through the prison corridor, in lock-step, on their way past principal keeper McKenna to obtain their rations for dinner, one of the prisoners slipped into the hand of the principal keeper a piece of brown wrapping paper, two feet long by a foot wide, which was written upon on both sides in lead pencil.

The writing thereon was as follows:

MR. MCKENNA:

Sir—I hardly know how to begin to pencil what I wish to say to you. I am nearly insane thinking over and worrying over it. Now, sir, there is a scheme gotten up here among several convicts to escape from here to-night, Sunday, the 16th, and the manner in which it is planned is something that I cannot keep a secret on account of the cold premeditated murder that is planned to effect their escape.

I was asked to go into the scheme, but refused to have anything to do with it. These men then told me if the officials got wind of it they would hold me responsible, and that there was some half dozen more men in it that I knew nothing about, but that they knew that I was asked into it, and they took an oath if it failed that they would put me out of the way. So, you see, sir, that I'm taking big chances to save these keepers' lives, so I ask you as a man to make sure and not expose me in any danger.

Now, sir, this is to take place to-night, Sunday, after 12 o'clock when Mr. Long and the other night guard comes on. There are two doors cut already for these men to come out after Mr. Long or the other guard makes the first round. These men will come out when the guard is on the top gallery, close their cell doors and then get into the alleyway. One of them will have a big bar of iron and the other will have a large knife.

After these guards make their first round one of them always makes a second round on the flagging about half an hour afterwards. This is the time fixed for these prisoners to act. When this guard comes in front of the alley they intend to spring upon him, drag him into the alley and murder him. They will take his gun, then sneak down upon the other guard at the office and do him, take his gun also. They then intend opening up five or six cells, letting the men out.

Now, sir, the number of these convicts' cells are—69—4 company, 86—2 company. One man's name is Wright and the other's name is Reace. The rivet next to tongue of the door that the lever rests upon is backed out from the inside of the door, and that bar is out so that the tongue of the door can be pushed out and the door then is opened. They have the rivet plugged up with soap and painted so that it would take close inspection to detect it. The cut bar is hid by the string of the curtain hanging on the door. Both these men's doors are fastened in the same manner.

Now, sir, be sure and make no mistake by coming to see me, or sending for me. I have done right by you, and I hope you will do the same toward me. I remain yours respectfully, (here is signed the prisoner's name with his cell number and company.)

Warden Thayer told the Governor that after the prisoners had finished with dinner, the two prisoners referred to in the above communication were removed from their cells and an examination showed the truth of the prisoner's information. The locks of the two cell doors had been tampered with as described. Hidden in the bed tick in Reace's cell was found a long sharp knife. In the tick in Wright's cell were found a crowbar about 2 1-2 feet long, drills, saws, files and a cold chisel. Thus was the prisoner's information confirmed in every detail.

On account of their associations with Reace and Wright, the warden caused an examination to be made of the cells of two other prisoners named Joyce and Russell, both long term men, serving 20 years. In Joyce's cell were found several pieces of iron in the bottom of his hash can, which were hidden from view with a covering of hash. The warden thinks that these pieces of iron were, in connection with stockings, to be used as slungshots.

Wright's term expires in 1898, while Joyce is a 20-year man. No confessions were necessary from these two men, the preparations they had made for escaping being positive proof.

When Gov. Flower heard this story from Warden Thayer he immediately pardoned the prisoner who wrote the communication to the principal keeper.

Both Gov. Flower and Warden Thayer refuse to divulge, for the present, at least, the name of the prisoner who probably had saved the lives of several prison guards. They thought it might bring trouble upon him, if not from the prisoners whom he gave away, possibly from some of their friends outside the prison.

The President on a Fishing Trip.

BUZZARD'S BAY, Mass., July 18.—President Cleveland has not gone to New York, as was supposed when he sailed on the yacht Oneida, in company with Commodore Benedict and Dr. Bryant. It is authoritatively stated here that the party have gone on a short cruise and fishing excursion, to be gone from here about two days.

Again Reported that He Will be Elevated to the U. S. Supreme Court.

Congressman Magner States that Judge Cullen Has Been Appointed to Fill Vacancy Caused by Mr. Blatchford's Death.

NEW YORK, July 18.—Congressman Thomas F. Magner states that President Cleveland has tendered to Supreme Court Justice Edgar M. Cullen the appointment to the Supreme Court of the United States in the place of the late Justice Blatchford. Mr. Magner says that his information comes from lawyers, and he understands it is correct.

It is a fact that President Cleveland weeks ago offered the collectorship of the port of New York to Judge Cullen, who declined it. The President also offered the collectorship to Joseph C. Hendrix.

Mr. Magner expresses the opinion that Judge Cullen will make the ablest member of the Supreme Court of the United States if he will accept the appointment.

A reporter saw Judge Cullen as he left the Supreme Court, and in answer to a question all he would say was that he had not heard of such an appointment. He repeated that statement when asked if he would accept the appointment if made.

FOREMAN JOHNSON BRINGS SUIT.

He Accuses Cyril Forbes With Divulging Grand Jury Secrets.

PATERSON, N. J., July 18.—John Johnson, foreman of the late grand jury that indicted nearly all of the Passaic county officials, has instructed his lawyers to bring criminal action and a suit for damages against Cyril R. Forbes, a member of the same grand jury for defamation of character and divulging the secrets of the jury.

Will Sue the Insurance Company.

NEW HAVEN, Conn., July 18.—The Mutual Reserve Life Insurance company, of New York, has refused to pay a death claim held against it by Mrs. Martha Ryan, of this city. A policy was issued by the company to Mrs. Ryan's husband in January last, and he died in April of bronchitis, it is alleged. The company claims that the policy was secured by fraud between Ryan and a former agent of the company. Mrs. Ryan will sue.

The Decision Likely to Cause Trouble.

GUTHRIE, O. Is the Treasury Getting Even With the Banks?

THE GOLD PAYMENTS AT NEW YORK

Our Consul at Bangkok Reports that All is Quiet, and that the French Will Make Concessions to the Siamese—Alliance Ordered to Corinto—Other News from the Capital.

WASHINGTON, July 18.—Heavy clearing house payments in New York caused the gold reserve to fall lower than it has been for several days past and $348,886 less than it was on Saturday. The reserve to-day amounts to $98,059,480; currency balance, $26,117,918.

The Star gives publicity to the following statement in regard to the gold payments from the United States sub-Treasury in New York:

"Considerable effort is being made by financial agents here to discover the motive behind these payments. But the department is as close-mouthed as a clam. The explanation got through private sources is that the department is trying to take advantage of the scarcity of small and convenient currency for internal business to pinch the banks as the banks have pinched the government by storing gold.

"The banks are greatly in need of small bills for current business transactions and for use in the agricultural districts. The theory is advanced that, if they cannot get what they need of this sort of currency by any other means they will have to make terms with the Treasury which would involve their exchanging gold for gold certificates in large quantities for notes and certificates of small denomination.

"It is said that the department can afford to pay out gold on the drafts presented by the banks, if, by so doing, they can cut off the source through which the banks would get their small notes and put them to sufficient inconvenience to bring them to terms.

"The banks understand that if they want small notes and certificates they can secure them by buying large quantities and paying for them in gold, and it is the theory of the department if by pinching them pretty close they can be forced to do this.

"It is very probable that the issue of gold certificates will not be resumed if the gold reserve gets above a hundred millions, as it is not clear that the law is mandatory in requiring a renewal of this issue after it has been stopped by reason of the reserve falling below a hundred millions."

TO PROTECT AMERICAN INTERESTS.

The Steamer Alliance Ordered to the Nicaraguan Coast.

WASHINGTON, July 18.—Telegraphic orders have been sent to Commander Whiting, commanding the U. S. S. Alliance, at Callao, Peru, to proceed at once with the vessel to Corinto, the port on the west coast of Nicaragua nearest to Leon, where the latest revolution in that country is at its height.

Commander Whiting is instructed simply to use all possible despatch in getting to Corinto and to protect American interests there. It will take at least a week to make the trip.

The Charleston and the Yorktown, now fitting out for service in the Pacific station, will be ready to start in a few days. It is probable that one of them will be ordered to touch at Greytown on the east coast on the way down in order to inspect the situation with a view to future action.

PEACEFUL SETTLEMENT PROBABLE.

The United States Consul Reports All Quiet at Bangkok.

WASHINGTON, July 18.—News of the latest phase of the Siamese-French trouble has been received at the State Department from Mr. Boyd, United States consul at Bangkok. Mr. Boyd's cable message is as follows:

"Everything quiet. Concessions Siamese. An amicable settlement probable."

"Concessions Siamese" is interpreted to mean that the French have made concessions to the Siamese.

To Visit the Naval Stations.

WASHINGTON, July 18.—Secretary Herbert, accompanied by Miss Herbert and his naval aide, Ensign Wood, on board the President's yacht Dolphin, have started on a visit to the naval stations at New York, Newport, New London, Boston and Portsmouth, N. H. They will also make a visit to Machias, Me., to enable the Secretary to be present at the presentation by the citizens of that place of a silver service to the staunch little gunboat named in its honor. The party will be gone about three weeks.

THE WORLD'S FAIR FIRE.

Not Yet Known How Many Persons Lost Their Lives.

President Skinner's Accusation that the Firemen Were Driven to Their Death Has Caused a Sensation.

WORLD'S FAIR GROUNDS, CHICAGO, July 18.—One week has passed since the World's Fair fire, and still the mystery of the exact number of human lives lost in the cold-storage trap remains unsolved. For three days practically no attempt was made to clear up the ruins and the work that has been done since that time has had only the effect of indicating the large amount of labor still ahead before the investigation is complete.

The cessation of the work yesterday attracted general unfavorable comment, and although a large force is engaged in the ruins to-day the odor arising from the mass, despite the lavish use of disinfectants, indicates that the economy of nature has taken no rest.

The accusation brought by President John B. Skinner and other officers of the cold-storage company that Marshal Murphy drove the firemen up the tower to their death, but did not lead them nor follow them, is creating a great deal of discussion.

Even the dead Captain Fitzpatrick comes in for a share of the accusation made in regard to the ignoring of all warnings and information by the leaders of the firemen. Walter M. Donaldson, office manager of the warehouse, Architect Allsop and A. J. Branch, an office employe, will be called on to testify before the coroner as to the alleged unheeded warnings, advices and information given to Marshal Murphy and Captain Fitzpatrick.

In speaking of the subject this morning President Skinner said:

"There was absolutely no excuse for the loss of a single life. The firemen were informed by our employes that there was fire below before they went up into the tower, and the danger was pointed out when there was plenty of time to order down such as were already up.

"Among those who warned them and who is ready to testify to the fact is Walter M. Donaldson, the office manager of the business part of the storage and ice department. He went into the tower and fully informed himself of the state of the fire before the firemen arrived.

"As soon as the firemen arrived he hunted up Capt. Fitzpatrick and found him on the rink floor with his men, some of whom were armed with axes. He asked the Captain to chop a hole below and turn the hose on the fire in the lower part of the tower. He emphasized and repeated his statement that the bottom was the place to fight the fire. Capt. Fitzpatrick answered with an oath, 'I am running this thing. Fitzpatrick was trying to carry three leads of hose up at once and was not making headway. Notwithstanding his rebuff, Donaldson, appreciating the situation and the necessity for great haste, begged him to get up one at a time. Capt. Fitzpatrick answered he would get three up or none. J. J. Dranch, one of our men, asked Capt. Fitzpatrick to work on the base of the tower and fight the fire which was already there. The captain for an answer fetched him a back-handed blow with the flat of his hand, which knocked him eight or ten feet.

"Mr. Alsip, the architect, was one who also advised the men of the danger and told them the fire was below before they went up and begged them not to ascend. Marshal Murphy stood there, and in spite of this information actually drove his men to their deaths, telling some who hesitated to 'Get up there, you d——d cowards.'

"We are prepared to prove this, and it must all come out at the inquest. As soon as I heard the statement of our men right after the fire I went immediately over to Mr. Higinbotham's office and told him what I state here."

More Arrests at Charleston.

CHARLESTON, S. C., July 18.—Governor Tillman's State constabulary continued their work yesterday of arresting persons charged with violation of the dispensary law. J. F. McCoy and J. J. Danby, of Market street, and F. Kooeman and Philip Theile, of King street, all ex-liquor dealers, were arrested on warrants charging them with having sold liquor in violation of the law.

One Killed, Two Hurt.

MANY KILLED AND HURT

A Street Car in Chicago Run Down by a Train.

LIVES OF FOUR CRUSHED OUT

Several of the Injured May Die—Two of the Dead Unidentified—The Engineer and Fireman of the Train Arrested—The Dead Terribly Mangled.

CHICAGO, July 18.—An incoming passenger train on the Grand Trunk road ran down a crowded street car late last night, killing four people and injuring a number of others.

The dead are:

CHARLES PERKINS.

JOHN DILLON.

TWO UNIDENTIFIED WOMEN.

The injured are:

Wm. Buhlman, left leg broken and internally injured; will die.

Mrs. James Sanderson, head and body bruised.

J. C. Smith, internally injured and skull fractured; may die.

Mrs. Celia Mitchell, bruised about the body.

Mrs. S. A. Lace, bruised about the head and body.

Mrs. Vanderberg, head and body bruised.

Frank Vanderberg, her 3-year-old son, head cut and body bruised.

Jennie Blakely, head and shoulders cut.

The collision occurred at the 49th street crossing, which is a network of tracks and has always been regarded as a dangerous crossing. A long freight train going west had just passed, and the towerman, George Barnett, had raised the gates. This was taken as a signal that the way was clear and driver Statnecker started to drive across the tracks.

The passenger train was rapidly coming from the west, however, and just as the car reached the track it struck it squarely in the centre.

The car was turned entirely around and hurled fully 80 feet from the point where it was struck.

Some of the passengers managed to save themselves by jumping, but the majority were caught.

Perkins and Dillon were frightfully mangled. A piece of timber had been forced into the latter's throat, breaking his jaw.

The two women killed were unknown to any of the passengers on the car, and there was nothing upon them to give a clue to their identity.

The police arrested Engineer Jones, Fireman Campbell, of the passenger train, and a man named Henry Hughes, who was riding in the cab of the engine. The engineer said that he did not see the street car until it was on the track and so close that it was impossible for him to stop the train.

THE DOCTORS WOULD NOT GO.

Williamson and Hetrick Refused to Call Upon Miss Byram.

ASBURY PARK, N. J., July 18.—Dr. J. H. Bryan, the physician who attended Miss Byram, who died of hydrophobia yesterday, says that when young Applegate went out Sunday night to call in physicians for a consultation, Drs. Williamson and Hetrick refused to go.

Of the three other physicians called upon none was at home.

Dr. Bryan belongs to the homeopathic, the others to the allopathic school.

At a meeting of the common council last night, officers were instructed to shoot all unmuzzled dogs at sight.

Ex-Manager Poole Dead.

NEW YORK, July 18.—John F. Poole, formerly manager of the Grand Opera House, this city, and later of Niblo's Garden, is dead of dropsy at his home at Sheepshead Bay.

NEWS OF THE DAY.

The Missouri National Bank of Kansas City, yesterday suspended payment.

Thomas Walsh, president of the Catholic college of Notre Dame, South Bend, Ind., is dead.

Austin Gibbons failed to stop Bull McCarthy in four rounds at Newark, N. J., last night.

The first regular passenger trains over the Saranac Lake & Lake Placid railroad ran yesterday.

The court martial to inquire into the disaster to the British battleship Victoria began at Valetta yesterday.

The legal fraternity of Phi Delta Phi opened its triennial convention in the Masonic Temple at Chicago, yesterday.

Abram Rousseau, 87 years old, said to be the oldest Odd Fellow in New York state, died at his home in West Troy yesterday.

The Canadian Pacific railway's earnings for the week ending July 14, were $429,000. Same period last year, $421,000 increase, $8,000.

The findings of the grand jury as to the responsibility for the Ford's theatre disaster will not be returned until the latter part of the week.

A largely attended reception to Hon. Honore Mercier, ex-Premier of the Province of Quebec, was held in the Hotel Clarendon parlors, Boston, yesterday.

Emperor William, accompanied by the German Empress, has sailed from Kiel on the Imperial yacht Hohenzollern for an extended trip to the north.

Mrs. T. H. Stevens, wife of Rear-Admiral Stevens, retired, died yesterday near Silver Springs, Md., where she was spending the summer for her health.

The engagement is announced of Miss Ellen Windom, daughter of the late Secretary of the Treasury, and Mr. Bentley Warren, a successful Boston lawyer.

Ex-Governor Rodman M. Price, of New Jersey, was taken back to Hackensack jail yesterday, Chancellor McGill refusing to declare the prisoner purged of contempt of court or to reduce the bail.

The President has recognized Charles T. Wilder as consul-general of the provisional government of the Hawaiian Islands for the States of California, Oregon, Nevada and Washington.

The Carrollton Woolen Mill at Madison, Ind., has assigned to H. M. Winslow. Liabilities $75,000. Assets unknown. Stringency of the money market is given as the cause. Sixty-five people are idle.

Judge Cullen of Brooklyn, N. Y., refused to grant the application for a mandamus to compel the supervisors of Kings county to make a second reapportionment of the 18 assembly districts in the county.

The absence of the President and his family at Buzzard's Bay is being taken advantage of to thoroughly renovate the White House and to make some domestic changes in the arrangement of the interior.

WEATHER INDICATIONS.

For New Jersey: Possibly a Light Shower This Evening; Slightly Cooler To-Night and on Wednesday; Winds Becoming Northwesterly.

EARLY INTELLIGENCE.

—From a tin pail to silks, VanEmburgh & Son are offering the bargains.

—Can't you sniff the sea salt in the air? It's a whiff from to-morrow's Plainfield excursion to the shore.

—The great Zimmerman will race at Asbury Park, Friday, July 21, the date of the Baptist excursion.

—Each of the fire department drivers was granted a week's vacation by the common council last night.

—Northup & Connolly, butchers at 331 Watchung avenue, to-day announce the dissolution of their partnership.

—A number can be accommodated in the stage that leaves Keeney's corner for the New Brunswick ball game to-morrow afternoon at 1:15.

—Why not see a good base-ball game to-morrow and enjoy a stage ride to New Brunswick and back? Remember, it's John Harkins's team the Crescents will play.

—The assessor made a mistake and got a double assessment against a Hillside avenue lot (old No. 48). The common council last night cancelled the improper assessment.

—Ground was broken yesterday for a new building at the east corner of Fourth and Washington streets. The building when completed will be occupied by the bottle-stopper company now situated on East Fourth street.

—The Christian Endeavor society of the First Baptist church will hold their consecration service this week in conjunction with the regular Wednesday evening prayer meeting. This is done on account of the excursion on Friday.

—For Friday, when the Baptists run their excursion, Asbury Park offers many attractions: Religious services in the tabernacle; bathing; bicycle races; amusements of all kinds. Make your preparations, and spend an enjoyable day.

—Councilmen Bird, Erickson, Frazee, Fisk, Ginna, Millington and See braved the heat last night and industriously prosecuted the city's business in the council chamber. All that they transacted is told of under appropriate headings.

—During the thunder shower Saturday evening, the lightning burned out the convertor on the Electric Light company's pole at North and Watchung avenues. Some of the stores on North avenue had to be lighted with kerosene lamps the rest of the night.

—When the North Plainfield fire alarm sounded Saturday night, there was no one willing to drive the horses. Finally Edward Terry jumped on the seat and sent the horses through space, going by a roundabout way, but getting there in time to be of some service.

—Jesse Hetfield's trolley car was the means of restoring another child to his home, Sunday. A little chap named Walling was lost and heartbroken. Mr. Hetfield took him aboard, found out that Madison avenue was his locality, and dropped him off there, in sight of his front gate.

—Two young men from this city drove to the Wheatsheaf Hotel, near Roselle, Saturday evening. On the way home, late at night, the buggy was upset, and the occupants were thrown out in a promiscuous heap. The vehicle was a wreck, and one man had to ride the horse home, while the other walked.

—Firemen and others say it was a shame the way Alert's hose horse had to run to the fire, Saturday evening. The animal had been to a cart all day, and the way it had to tear to the VanNess fire, they say, was ample proof that fire department horses should not be used for continuous labor unless it is desired that they be ruined for fire service.

—Wheelman No. 5, of the century race, in passing through Plainfield on the return trip from Princeton, Saturday evening, knocked down a man at Front and Somerset streets, about 10:30. The man was not much injured, but the rider's lamp was wrecked. He was furnished with the necessary requirements to get out of town, and went on his way rejoicing, although some six or seven hours behind the first man.

The American Catarrh Cure

Is the result of twenty-six years' study and treatment of the disease. One bottle convinces the most skeptical. It is always ready for use, needing neither douche nor atomizer. It restores the hearing, cures the hawking cough and expectorating, removes the headache and nose bleeding, increases the appetite, produces sound sleep, invigorates the whole system and increases the vitality. Prepared only by W. B. Jones, M. D., No. 1336 South Eighth street, Philadelphia. For sale by J. W. Randolph, 21 West Front street. Price $1.

GREAT THINGS IN STORE.

Plainfield Amateurs to Grace "As You Like It". With Plainfield's Natural Scenery.

Plainfield is the happy possessor of a number of gifted amateur Thespians whose deeds in the past large audiences have applauded. They have on former occasions attempted difficult plays, and have come forth crowned with laurels by their admiring friends. All this is most pleasing to the Thespians, and gratifying to those who are fond of Plainfield; and it is with expectations of fresh conquests of the difficulties of drama that THE PRESS hears of two new ventures in the theatrical line.

The first is only a possibility; but the second, THE PRESS is assured, is practically an accomplished fact. The company that has delighted local audiences for the past few years at the Casino is thinking seriously of giving "A Scrap of Paper" in the fall. The two leading parts, those of Suzanne and Prosper Couramour, will be taken by the lady who has graced the leading parts in many plays and by a gentleman who lives not far from Netherwood and whom the Casino company has been trying to get as its leading man for a long time.

But the theatrical event of the season will undoubtedly be the production of "As You Like It", on the beautiful grounds of a wealthy resident of Front street. The success of this drama as given first by professionals of no small reputation at the Stephens place in Hoboken, and later in Orange, has naturally made Plainfield ache to do something equally great, and the event will take place in September. Many of the parts have already been given out, and Rosalind and Orlando are to be done by two of Plainfield's younger amateurs, who now will have a chance to show what they can do on the greensward.

No one has as yet been chosen as manager of the show. The position has been offered to one gentleman from out of town, but he declined the honor. All will look forward to this last triumph of Plainfield talent, and will join hands and sing praises when the New York papers ring with the success of Plainfield's production of "As You Like It".

BY THE WAY.

—Last night of the World's Fair!

—Here's the World's Fair right at your door. Don't pass it by.

—Go with Trinity to-morrow and enjoy a perfect day at the beach.

—A five-year-old boy narrowly escaped being struck by the 5:20 train yesterday.

—Sebring's special sale of fine trousers at $2.95 is for this week only. This is a reduction from $5.

—Take a cool seat in Music Hall to-night and comfortably enjoy the second and concluding visit to the great Fair.

—Miller Bros. are putting in city water to run a system of 20 electric fans to keep the Hotel Grenada atmosphere cool. The Grenada is always up to date.

—Mounted letter-carrier Dunn is to be praised for his humanity. These fiercely hot days he keeps a wet sponge on his horse's head to cool the equine brow.

—The Plainfielders who went to the World's Fair as pictured in Music Hall last night were delighted, and their number will be greatly increased this evening.

—The health officials will soon be obliged to do something to remedy the North avenue sewer nuisance. The stench from the outlet into Green brook last night was dreadfully vile.

—At Jersey City Heights, next Friday afternoon, Mr. Hoffman, of German Valley, and Mr. Cannon, of Newark, will shoot a match at live birds. The contest was arranged for in this city yesterday.

—A. C. Vail's two pacers, the bay mare "Dorcas" and bay horse "Bud Onward", had a trial heat on the track of the Gentlemen's Driving Park association, Saturday. C. C. Brower drove, and the time was 2:35.

—It's the Trinity excursion to-morrow you ought to join. You'll be in congenial company, and can stay at the shore till 7 p. m. No hurrying away just at the most delightful hour. This is the cream of them all.

—A handsome monument of Millstone Point granite will soon be erected to Mrs. A. Q. Fine, in Hillside cemetery, by J. E. Townsend, at whose marble and granite works on Somerset street the monument has just been completed.

—One other member by the name of Darby had a degree worked on him by the letter carriers yesterday. He stood the degree all right, by rolling in the gutter, but he wanted to whip high mogul John Neighbour, for working it.

—A tough gang of young men and boys frequent the neighborhood of the merry-go-round every evening and do nothing but cast insulting remarks at respectable persons and make it unpleasant for those who go there to enjoy themselves. The proprietor does his best to find that kind out, and have them removed at once. A policeman is needed around that section to preserve order.

—The large crowd of people who were standing around the merry-go-round on Pearl street, last night, were shocked at the language of a colored dameel by the name of Randolph. It arose from a personal remark made by a colored man, on whom the language was in consequence poured. Someone told the proprietor, who at once ejected her from her horse, much to the satisfaction of those present.

Oh, What a Cough!

Will you heed the warning. The signal perhaps of the sure approach of that more terrible disease, Consumption. Ask yourselves if you can afford for the sake of saving 50c., to run the risk and do nothing for it. We know from experience that Shiloh's Cure will cure your cough. It never fails. This explains why more than a Million Bottles were sold the past year. It relieves croup and whooping cough at once. Mothers, do not be without it. For lame back, side or chest, use Shiloh's Porous Plaster. Sold by A. D. Mallinson, 65 North Ave. opposite railroad station. 5-16-y

PARTICULAR MENTION.

Mrs. John Darling and Miss Mabel are at Asbury Park.

Orson Clark, of Westerly, R. I, is visiting relatives here.

Miss Jennie Voorhees, of Brooklyn, is visiting relatives in the borough.

H. G. Runkle and family are at Hotel Champlain, Clinton county, N. Y.

Ray Dunn, of Philadelphia, is visiting his aunt, Mrs. Phillips, of Park avenue.

Miss Ida A. Williams, of Madison avenue, is enjoying a quiet rest at Asbury Park.

Readington friends are entertaining Miss Ida May Tallamy, of West Sixth street.

P. M. French and family are to-day enjoying their annual trip to Boynton Beach.

Mrs. F. G. Foster, of the borough, is at Berwick Lodge, Avon-by-the-Sea, for the summer.

O. B. Leonard and family, of Madison avenue, are at Chicago, "doing" the World's Fair.

The Misses Mattison, of Somerset street, left to-day for Saranac Lake in the Adirondacks.

B. F. Shaen and family leave Sandford avenue to-morrow for their new home at Lowerre, N. Y.

The family of C. C. Burnett, of Madison avenue, are enjoying the many pleasures of the seashore.

Miss Eva Wilkins, of 133 East Fifth street, is spending a few days at her former home in Orange.

The family of Wm. White, of the borough, are enjoying the breezes of old ocean, at Asbury Park.

Mrs. Lucy Hooley, mother of A. G. Hooley of Central avenue, is at Stroudsburgh, Pa., for the summer.

The Holy Trinity congregation at Spring Lake enjoyed a good sermon from the Rev. Dr. E. M. Rodman Sunday.

E. W. Conklin and family, of 825 First place, have returned from New York, and are again domiciled in their cozy home.

Mrs. John A. F. Simpson, one of Fanwood's most honored women, to-day went to Lake Hopatcong to join her husband.

Gen. Eli Long and family, of Grove street, start to-day for their summer residence at Penn Yan, where the general has a large grape vineyard.

M. C. VanArsdale, formerly of this city, but now of Greenwich, Conn., spent Sunday with his wife at the home of her mother on West Front street.

"Uncle" Peter Wooden and "Aunt" Ann Dickinson, respected "oldest inhabitants", were among the notables on the Black River Falls excursion to-day.

James Laing, who went away from here last April, has been visiting his daughter, Mrs. Edward Garretson, of West Front street. Mr. Laing left for his home at Southhampton yesterday.

William W. Edmondson, of 213 Spooner avenue, died Sunday in his fiftieth year. The funeral will be from his late residence to-morrow morning at 8:30 and from St. Mary's church at 9.

A bevy of young ladies, including Miss Kelly, Miss Carney, Miss Shehan, Miss O'Keefe and Miss Day, went over to the Convent near Morristown, Sunday, in a stage, and spent a pleasant afternoon there.

Civil engineer Alfred B. Nelson, of 104 East Front street, has been chosen engineer of construction of the Passaic, Rutherford and Carlstadt electric railway, and will have a branch office in Passaic.

Charles G. Hedge's new yacht, the Frolic, won the first prize in the ten-mile race on Shinnecock Bay, Long Island, last Saturday. The Frolic led the fleet over the entire course, and was an easy winner by over a mile.

Mrs. C. H. Penfield, of Park avenue and Seventh street, is going on a trip to Independence, Iowa. She will be accompanied by her aunt, Mrs. Voorhis of Raritan River, and they will stop at Chicago to see the World's Fair.

William E. Alpaugh, who has been laid up with rheumatism for some two months past, is able to walk out again with the aid of crutches. Mr. Alpaugh is adjutant of post 73, G. A. R., and he is also a member of the Odd Fellows.

Mrs. E. J. Black, of Charleston, S. C., who with her two children, Tulip and Walter, has been visiting her sister, Mrs. Robert A. Meeker, of East Second street, has returned to her home, in answer to a telegram from her husband.

Three members from this vicinity will attend the 13th Regt. N. J. Volunteers reunion at Antietam August 17. They are George W. Moore, of this city, Captain Airy, of Oak Tree, and Reune Manning, of South Plainfield.

Sergeant Kiely's friends have been deeply concerned for his little boy, who has been dangerously ill with cholera infantum. Thanks to Mrs. Kiely's faithful nursing and the excellent treatment of Drs. Hedges and Tomlinson, the little one is getting better and will recover.

Warren Rice has returned from Pennington school, and a week's outing on a catamaran has given him a first-class coat of tan. In the fall he intends entering the medical department of the University of Pennsylvania at Philadelphia. Thus Plainfield will probably furnish another good doctor of medicine.

Mr. and Mrs. Howard Fleming have the sincere hope of the community that their little one may soon recover from the serious attack of illness now threatening its life. The baby was so ill that it had to be taken to the shore lying on a pillow. The change to sea air was recommended as likely to be highly beneficial, as it has been in so many similar cases.

Frank A. Smith, son of Henry and Mary A., and brother of architect Charles H. Smith of Plainfield, died yesterday in his twenty-sixth year. He had been in failing health for more than a year, and his death, while a shock and sorrow, was not unexpected. He was a trusted and valued attache of Mayor Gilbert's Fulton and Market National bank, and had a bright career before him. The funeral will be from his parents' residence, Kimball avenue, Westfield, to-morrow afternoon at 4. Interment will be made in the Baptist cemetery on Plainfield avenue, this city.

SUN-LIGHT and FRESH AIR are THE BEST DISINFECTANTS, of course; but you can't apply them in every situation. What next? Well, that depends. For damp cellars use Quicklime, plenty of it. For vaults and cesspools use COPPERAS; cheap stuff; we sell it by the pound or hundred-weight—instructions thrown in. For kitchen sinks, for water-closets, for house plumbing, for the sick room, to deodorize discharges, to purify the air and to prevent contagion, use REYNOLDS'S ODORLESS DISINFECTANT. Made and sold for fifteen years at

Reynolds's Pharmacy, Corner Park and North Avenues.

JUST WHAT THE CHIEF WANTS.

National Fire Underwriters Suggest Improvements That He Long Has Advocated.

Improvements in Plainfield's fire department system which chief engineer T. O. Doane has for months been urging, are at last to be brought about, since the national board of fire underwriters has taken a hand in suggesting pointedly that they should be accomplished.

The president of the board has written to Mayor Gilbert a letter which was read to the common council last evening. In it he states that an inspector visited Plainfield recently to examine the fire department outfit and the water supply as a result of the inspector's report, the board suggests:

1. That a chemical engine be purchased and put in service. It is especially needed in sections where water mains and hydrants are lacking, and by its use a considerable per cent. of destruction can be prevented.

2. That the number of mains in service be increased, and that 2,000 feet more of hose be purchased.

3. That the fire-alarm system be arranged in two circuits.

4. That water be extended into the southwest part of the city as soon as possible.

The consummation of these improvements—suggested the board—would tend to help Plainfield's insurance rates and record. A copy of the communication had been sent to the local board of underwriters for cooperation.

The matter was referred to the fire and buildings committee.

Later in the evening the committee was on its own recommendation authorized to divide into four circuits the fire-alarm system, concentrating in the new headquarters building on East Second street, near Watchung avenue, and to put in a switch at Park and North avenues and one at Third and Liberty streets. The object of this is to make it easier to find and remedy breaks in the wires. At present the system is all in one circuit, and a single break throws every box out of service and is hard to locate. The change will not affect the workings of the boxes, which will remain as at present.

The committee recommended new hydrants, and they were ordered put up as follows:

Lee place and South Second street.
Stebbins place and South Second street.
Prescott place and South Second street.
Pond place and South Second street.
Monroe avenue and South Second street.
Munson place and South Second street.
Morris street and South Second street.
Grant avenue and Third street.
East side of Third street, 300 feet northeast of Grant avenue.

All of these, except the last, are to be on the east corners. That at Pond place and South Second street is to be a four-way hydrant; the others are all to be two-way.

The other recommendations of the underwriters are under consideration.

Killing a Contract Already Dead.

In accordance with the request of the Plainfield Water Supply company, and with the approval of the corporation counsel, the common council last night rescinded the original water-works contract of Charles K. Moore. This was virtually dead long ago, but the Water Supply people, to whom it had been assigned, wanted it officially put out of the way.

Thank Heaven For All of This.

Car No. 1, of the electric road, was taken off to-day to be re-painted, so only three cars will run for a day or two. Superintendent Passmore says that his men will begin putting up the trolley wire on Somerset street to-morrow, and that the work will be pushed so as to run cars as soon as possible.

The Good Doctor Likes Reporters.

Dr. Yerkes, in his sermon Sunday morning, paid a handsome tribute to newspaper reporters, when he said that these men would scour the country to get news of truth, and then write it attractively and display it with appropriate headlines.

Killed for Biting a Child.

A dog owned by Harry Robinson of Willow avenue bit a child belonging to John Ryman's family on Harrison street, last night. The dog was shot and buried by marshal Pangborn, and Dr. Carman cauterized the child's wound.

Fraternal Sympathy.

MR. MEEKER GETS CREDIT.

When the Tornado Blockaded Streets He Hustled Them Clear for Sunday.

Street commissioner Robert A. Meeker was given deserved praise last night by Mr. Fisk of the common council. Mr. Fisk reported that the big wind of Saturday night, July 8, had completely blockaded Park avenue, East and West Front streets, East and West Second streets, Broadway, Madison avenue, Sixth street and Fifth street. Fourteen trees had been entirely down, and scores of big branches; and in twenty to twenty-five different places passage was impossible. Great credit, therefore, Mr. Fisk said, should be given to Mr. Meeker for getting his men together and clearing up the debris immediately. The fury of the storm was not over till 6:30, yet by midnight Mr. Meeker and his workers had got every blockaded street open again, leaving only a little work of clearing up loose branches to be done Sunday morning.

PAWNED THE COMPANY'S GOODS.

Agent Linbarger in Trouble With an Installment Concern.

Norman Linbarger was arrested last night by police sergeant Kiely on complaint of a representative of the McMannus Installment company, for which Linbarger has been an agent. Linbarger has been selling things on the installment plan for the company for some time, but lately he has been getting rid of his stock in a rapid manner by pawning about $40 worth at Dreier's pawn shop, and selling the remainder for about one-tenth of its value. Linbarger was taken before justice Nash and released on his own recognizance. He says that he was drunk and did not know what he was doing when he sold the things, and that he will make everything good. His case is to come up to-morrow morning.

Doing Even More Than Required.

Mason Smith's bill for $500, being an installment on the new fire department headquarters building, was ordered paid by the common council last night. In this connection Mr. Erickson of the fire and buildings committee presented a letter from architect Fosgate, which claimed that the brick being used was of inferior quality. Against this he put the expert guarantee of representative architects and builders that the brick was of the best grade and thoroughly satisfactory. Mr. Erickson added that Mr. Smith had even done more than merely fulfil his contract. For instance, the top walls were only to be 8 inches thick, and he to make sure of their durability had made them 12 inches. He had made improvements to benefit the city at a personal expense to him of $75. He had torn down work that did n't thoroughly suit him and had had it done over again.

They Stood on the Bridge to Hear Him.

The Rev. Dr. Tyler, of the Church of Christ, Fifty-sixth street, New York, was at the First Church of Christ Sunday evening; and although the night was exceedingly hot a large congregation greeted the speaker. Many who desired to hear him but could not get in the chapel stood on the bridge, from which point the speaker could be distinctly heard. His subject, "Why I am a Christian", was ably discoursed, and these reasons were given: First, because of who Christ was; second, because of what He has done; third, because of what He is doing; fourth, because of what He will do.

Mr. Tyler held his audience spellbound until twenty minutes after 9, and although very warm many expressed a desire to stay until 10. Mr. Tyler promises to preach in Plainfield soon again. He was very much pleased with the little chapel here, and bespoke large results for its work. He is a deep scholar, and a pulpit orator of no small calibre. His next talk will be on "What are our Christian Endeavor societies doing, and should we have one in the First Church of Christ at Plainfield?"

Nearly $7,000,000 in Plainfield.

The Union county assessors met in Elizabeth yesterday, with J. A. Hubbard representing Plainfield. The following assessments were reported for this section:

Plainfield, real estate, $5,935,435; personal, $1,144,315; liabilities, $229,750; total, $6,850,000; polls, 2,507.

Fanwood, real estate, $560,125; personal $188,487; liabilities, $32,362; total, $716,250; polls, 302.

Westfield, real estate, $1,138,700; personal, $97,850; liabilities, $48,550; total, $1,188,000; polls, 530.

The grand total valuation in the county aggregates $33,655,270. The total amount of taxes to be raised by taxation is $185,000.

A House With a History.

The house of "count" VanNess which was burned Saturday night was built by Ran Cole from the timbers of an old silk mill that once stood at Raymond avenue and Green brook. When Mr. Cole died his sister inherited the place, and at her death she left it with all her property to Sam Allen. Her estate included the old family farm, extending from Front street to the top of the mountain, and over $30,000 in cash. Much of this property, including the burned house, was acquired by the "count" from Allen.

Ought to Be Remedied Now.

The attention of the street commissioner is respectfully but firmly invited to the disreputable condition of the board walk that forms a portion of the west side of Westervelt avenue, near Orange street. The property along there is all improved, and deserves good sidewalks. The owners should be required to flag and curb the sidewalk, without delay. The present condition of the board walk is liable to cause serious injury and result in suit for damages.

Shiloh's Cough Cure.

This is beyond question the most successful Cough Medicine we have eversold; a few doses invariably cure the worst cases of Cough, Croup and Bronchitis, while its wonderful success in the cure of Consumption is without a parallel in the history of medicine. Since its first discovery it has been sold on a guarantee, a test which no other medicine can stand. If you have a cough we earnestly ask you to try it. Price, 10c. and $1. If your lungs are sore, chest, or back lame, use Shiloh's Porous Plaster. Sold by A. D. Mallinson, 65 North Avenue, opposite railroad station. 5-16-7

COOL AND CORRECT.

Councilman Fisk Refreshes the Metropolis, and Sets a New Fashion for Commuters.

The spectacle of a Plainfield commuter flitting about Liberty, Nassau and Wall streets clad in gauzy-looking garments, caused a cold wave in the sizzling city yesterday. Councilman and banker Charles J. Fisk was responsible. Mr. Fisk is always a genial, rotund gentleman, of cherubic proportions and jolly comfortableness; but never is he so genial, or so rotund, or so jolly and comfortable, as when clad in his cupid tennis suit. The heat being so intense yesterday morning, Mr. Fisk very sensibly donned these beautiful white flannel garments, with outing shirt and broad black sash. Being so attired, he was cool as to temperature, and a dazzling radiance to look upon. His fellow-commuters guyed him for daring to go to the city in such a garb, and he was the butt of good-natured jokes in the club car all the way to New York, but he smiled serenely at the chaff, and when he landed the natives were overwhelmed with delight. In the midst of the torridity he was as the north pole come to life, and the frigidity of this animated iceberg was perceptible all along the route. People flocked up to him as to a refrigerator, and many a man was thereby saved from sunstroke. After the toilsome heat of the day Mr. Fisk came home as cool and serene as ever. The other commuters were wilted and steaming and cross. The rotund councilman has set the fashion. Henceforth and forever the correct summer costume for commuters is light and fluffy white flannel suit, with outing shirt and black sash. The very sight revives one like a whiff of sea air.

World's Fair Philanthropists.

Messrs. Boddie Bros., wealthy Chicago gentlemen, having the interest of their city at heart, and desiring to disprove the falsity of the statement that only in boarding houses can be found moderate priced accommodations during the World's Fair, remodeled and furnished at great expense one of their famous absolutely fire-proof business structures, located corner of Franklin and Jackson streets, within short walking distance of the Union depots, theaters, post office, board of trade, steam, elevated, cable roads and steamboats to the World Fair, furnished newly throughout five hundred rooms, superb parlors, elevators, electric lights, exhaust fans to keep cool entire building, named this property The Great Western Hotel, and invited the public to take their choice of rooms for $1 per day, children 5 to 12 fifty cents. Elegant restaurant and dining rooms where fine meals are served at 50 cents, or a la carte at very moderate prices.

There would be less heard or known of extortion and imposition connected with the World's Fair were there more public spirited, fair minded men in Chicago as are the owners and proprietors of The Great Western Hotel. Our readers should write as early as possible to secure rooms, for they are being taken up rapidly.—St. Paul Daily News.

That Crematory Cannot Come Too Soon.

TO THE EDITOR OF THE PRESS:—The writer recently read in your columns an account of a garbage crematory erected at Scranton, Pa., an invention of Seymour G. Smith, of Plainfield, and noted that you said, and well said too, that Plainfield wants one. "You 're just right!" One can't be erected too quick! If for no other purpose than to help prevent the terrible fly nuisance, which can largely be done by cremating the garbage and filth. That garbage is the land of their birth was demonstrated very practically to me some two weeks ago, when a load of swill was dumped near my farm and in a few days the heap seemed a living mass of fly maggots, which have since arrived at maturity and are now more plentiful than the locusts of Egypt, and a heap more troublesome.

And whereas the cremating of this garbage and filth will prevent the hatching of billions of these innocent but horrible flies, to say nothing of all the disease germs likewise destroyed, let up hope the summer of '74 will see Plainfield equipped with such a crematory furnace.

A Pleasing Innovation in the Pledge.

The Rev. Titus Davis, pastor of the Bound Brook Presbyterian church, gave a delightful and edifying talk in Trinity church last night, before the Christian Endeavor gathering, concerning the great Christian Endeavor convention in Montreal, to which he was a delegate. Sixteen of his flock attended the meeting, which was enjoyed by a very large audience. These sixteen gave a very pleasing rendition of the Christian Endeavor pledge, reciting part of it and singing the balance. Bergen Carter, president of the society, presided and introduced the talented clergyman.

Keenan and Turner to Pitch.

The battery for New Brunswick in to-morrow's game is Francis and Rafferty, and Keenan and Fritz for Plainfield. The game should be a fine one. The Plainfield team will have the following batting order: Smith, ss; Martin, 3b; Turner, 2b, and p; Murphy, cf; McIndoe, lf; Sneden, rf; Keenan, p. and 2b; Jones, 1b; Fritz, c. The New Brunswick team will probably bat in the same order as already published.

What Shall Be Done with Garbage?

The question what to do with garbage perplexes many housewives. Men who will take charge and dispose of kitchen refuse seem few and far between, and some districts are entirely neglected. This is an important matter, and needs speedy legislation on the part of the city fathers. What is needed is a regular system of collecting garbage, and a crematory to render it inoffensive.

One of my children had a very bad discharge from her nose. Two physicians prescribed, but without benefit. We tried Ely's Cream Balm, and much to our surprise, there was a marked improvement. We continued using the Balm and in a short time the discharge was cured.—O. A. Cary, Corning, N. Y.

The children's health must not be neglected. Cold in the head causes catarrh. Ely's Cream Balm cures at once. It is perfectly safe and is easily applied into the nostrils. The worst cases yielding to it. Price 50c.

THE HYDROPHOBIA SCARE.

ASBURY PARK, July 18.—In compliance with the new ordinance passed last night by the common council of Asbury Park, the mayor to-day issued a proclamation ordering the killing of all unmuzzled dogs on sight. The police will at once begin to carry out the ordinance. This sudden action of the authorities was brought about by the fate of Lizzie Bryam, who died yesterday of hydrophobia, the result of being bitten by a dog. Matthew Applegate, who was to have married Miss Bryam soon, was scratched on the face by her during her violent struggles. He said that as yet he did not feel or fear any ill effects from the scratch he received.

It Beats the World's Fair.

"The Gallery of America" at the Eden Musee, 55 West Twenty-third street, New York, appeals to every patriotic American. At this popular resort an entire hall has been set aside and dedicated to American history. Beginning with the colonial period every leading event in the history of the grandest government in the whole world is represented in wax lifelike. In visiting this gallery it is like recalling childhood days when seated at the fireside papas and mamas told of the heroic and thrilling deeds of war and how American bravery always won the day. "Washington crossing the Delaware" is a story which will remain fresh in the memory as long as there is a spark of American patriotism left. It is pictured in this gallery in wax as it has never been pictured before. Passing through the early period of the nation this gallery correctly depicts every important event. Then comes the greatest of all wax groups—the late Civil War—a period of to-day. It starts off with a representation of President Lincoln striking off the shackles of slavery and declaring the negro free. "A Morning with Farragut" is a work of art, and it pictures that famous Admiral in all his naval splendor and heroism. A death scene on the battlefield of Gettysburg is a scene which will appeal to every heart, particularly to the old battle-scarred veteran, who stood upon the fields of war and defied the gods of fate. The scene represents a field, and in one corner is a tent where an unfortunate soldier lies, wounded and dying, while his comrades stand around and comfort his last moments. In the distance others are being brought to the tent on stretchers, and the entire scene is a grand panorama of cruel war. The chapter of the late war concludes with a large and picturesque group representing the "Surrender of Gen. Robert E. Lee". "The death of Gen. Custer" is another interesting group, which represents one of the most stirring and tragical incidents in the recent history of the American Army. The story of the bravery of Custer and the terrible slaughter of humanity on that memorable day of June 25, 1876, is familiar to every school boy and to realize this scene as it really occurred would necessitate a visit to the Eden Musee. In the main hall new wax groups have been added picturing many of the latest events of the day. The new cooling apparatus is now in working order and these warm days the palatial like halls of the Musee are as cool and as refreshing as the mountain air. The stage performance is always entertaining and has all the latest novelties. The music is charming. There are afternoon and evening performances every day.

Madison Ave., Aug. 7.

The common council last night directed the city clerk to notify all property-owners concerned that at 8 p. m. Monday, August 7, the matter of widening Madison avenue from Front street to the Jersey Central railroad will be finally considered by the council, and those who want to protest must then be on hand.

Abolishing a Danger Spot.

Fire marshal Doane to-day notified all guilty merchants that they must cease piling up cast-off boxes and other inflammable stuff in the vacant land back of Packer's big furniture house, as the danger from fire there was made very great by the careless practice.

An Undisputed Test of Merit.

A medicine that has been a household remedy for over fifty years and used in that time by more than 150,000,000 persons must have great merit. Such a medicine is found in BEANDETH'S PILLS. This fact demonstrates the value of these pills better than any statement of the proprietors. It will be observed that the dose required to cure is small. One or two pills taken every night for ten or twenty days will cure dyspepsia, costiveness, rheumatism, liver complaint, biliousness, or any disease arising from an impure state of the blood.

BRANDRETH'S PILLS are purely vegetable, absolutely harmless and safe to take at any time.

Sold in every drug and medicine store, either plain or sugar coated.

STILL ANOTHER COMET.

This One is Hidden in the Tail of the Other One.

The Discovery Made at Lick Observatory by Means of a Photograph—A Theory That Is Now a Fact.

SAN JOSE, Cal., July 17.—An important discovery regarding the comet has been made at Lick Observatory. Photographic plates reveal the fact that the celestial visitant is not alone in his glory, but has company.

The second comet is enveloped in the tail of the first one, and shows distinctly as a nebulous like condensation. Its tail also merges into that of the other.

Dr. Holden and the astronomers on the mountain are much elated over the discovery. It was revealed by a photograph of the comet taken Thursday night by Prof. Hussey and cannot be seen through the telescope. It appears to move in the same orbit as the main one, or an orbit exactly parallel and at the same rate of speed.

The discovery makes more certain the theory that the original force which throws out comets sends out more than one at a time. This theory was before thought to be correct, from the fact that more than one comet has been found in the same or nearly the same orbit.

THE VICTORIA DISASTER.

Tryon's Orders to Officers Were to Disobey When Obedience Was Dangerous.

VALETTA, July 18.—It is reported that last January 1, Admiral Tryon issued an order to the effect that when the literal obedience of a signal would cause a collision or any other disaster, the officers in command of the vessels involved should act upon their own responsibility to avoid the danger.

Risks justifiable in war, the Admiral is reported to have said, were not justifiable in peace.

Captain Bourke's testimony yesterday in the court martial called to investigate the Victoria disaster did not add much to what is already known of the wreck.

THE WRONGS OF LABOR.

National Conventions of Trades to Meet in Every Large City.

Political and Social Action—The Men and the Measures to Be Exposed Will Be of a Radical Tendency—Some Noted Leaders.

[COPYRIGHT, 1893.]

The country's various labor unions begin next week a series of gatherings throughout the country that will continue until the end of the year, and culminate in a conclave of the American Federation of Labor at Chicago, on December 12. The table-knife grinders inaugurate these affairs by a national convention, which opens at Wallingford, Conn., on July 6, and, in turn, unions of retail clerks, harness makers, engineers, coopers, plumbers, tailors, machinists and every variety of manual laborers, will successively have a gathering in all the principal cities from Boston to San Francisco. They are so timed as not to interfere with each other, while various measures, social, industrial and even political, will be taken up and disposed of in turn.

PHILIP STRONG.

Strikes will be much discussed by the table-knife grinders when they come together at Wallingford. The delegates, especially those from the district where the Turner's Falls strike raged, are inclined to discountenance any further war on capital, and General Secretary Thomas Pinseglone, who comes from Bay State, Mass., is a very conservative man, when drastic action is proposed.

The retail clerks, salesmen and women, that is, whose national protective union meets in Nashville, Tenn., July 11, have not been generally considered an organizing class. Nevertheless they will send hundreds of delegates to the southern city, and thousands of male and female workers in retail stores, large and small, all over the country will follow the proceedings with a member's interest. President James Morrow thinks the sessions will continue some days and the presence of women will be somewhat of a novelty for a labor gathering. Miss Mary Burke, of Findlay, O., is a member of the union's executive board. One great question will be that of women's labor. The union has striven hard to raise their pay and condition with such success that the female membership has grown enormously, and the second vice president is now a woman, Miss Anna B. Weiss.

MISS ANNA B. WEISS.

The tackmakers have a gathering at Boston on July 15. This country and Canada will be represented by some two hundred and fifty delegates, whose principal business will be the settlement of the eight-hour question and an election of representatives to the December convention of the American Federation of Labor. Eagle hall, where the meetings are to be held, is a roomy structure, but its capacities will probably be "taxed," as the pen suggestive circular of one of the officers says. Craftsmen from all over the country have promised to come.

MISS MARY BURKE.

The dog days at St. Paul will be a week ahead of the Journeymen Tailors' union, which meets in annual convention there on August 7. President Frederick Jansen, who has held office some years now, will doubtless be reelected by the order. The sweating system in large wholesale clothing factories, although much less crying an evil than formerly, will be rigidly investigated and much of the debate at the sessions is to be on that subject. Secretary John B. Lennon, of the union, is also an executive officer of the American Federation of Labor, and the delegates who will go with him to Chicago, in December, are to be chosen by the St. Louis meeting.

JOHN B. LENNON.

The Brotherhood of Brass Workers sends its representatives to New York this year, and the 1st of August is the opening day of the convention Secretary C. C. McGlogan is already on the ground making his plans, and the president anticipates the attendance of two hundred delegates to say nothing of visitors. The brotherhood is only about two years old, but it has now over forty local assemblies in the United States and Canada.

The deliberations are expected to be over in a week. Such well-known labor men as James W. Moloney, Neill McCallum, James J. Gutter and others will be present.

C. C. M'GLOGAN.

The carriage and wagon workers, marshalled by the president of the international union, William F. Stuart, are to assemble at Chicago on August 14, and what with debates over wages, the settlement of strikes and the advisability of arbitration, not to mention the world's fair, the adjournment will not come for many days. This is also a young order, having been organized in 1891, with four hundred and fifty members all told. The numbers now run into the thousands.

The only considerable body of wage workers in the world which is prohibited by its constitution from taking part in strikes or from interfering with or making a standard of wages meets in national convention at Cleveland from September 5 to 9, inclusive, and is the National Association of Stationary Engineers. The association has now some 350 branches in almost every state in the union, and this, the twelfth annual convention, will be by far the largest and most important in the order's history. Should all the delegates, alternates, officers and committeemen elected attend, there will be between 800 and 1,000 persons at the sessions, not counting spectators or visitors.

The Coopers' International union gathers at Milwaukee in September 11, next. These men have an elaborate series of stamps and labels to put on their work, and there will be considerable argument over them among the delegates when they settle down to business. The union issues a label for slack work and a stamp for tight work which are recognized, the first by the millers and the second by the brewers, distillers and others who use tight packages.

GEORGE L. BORN.

The International Machinists' union goes to the world's fair city on September 18. This is one of the new organizations, and its organization is due to the fact, to quote General Secretary N. Morse, "that the national organization already in existence refused to strike out the color line in its constitution and affiliate with the American Federation of Labor."

The delegates will represent about thirty-five local unions and thousands of members. The settlement of the labor difficulty and the adjusting of a uniform wage scale will be the two chief topics before them. Some of the radicals want a change in the apprentice system, and there is talk of prohibiting strikes altogether. Among the more notable men who will figure in the convention besides N. Morse are John A. Smith, William J. Thompson, A. H. Morden, George Heinzerling, Rudolph Stange, Fred Behre, Ernst Kuehne, C. J. Sjostrom, Aug. Waldinger and Martin Hill.

FRED J. ANTHONY.

"The helots among the helots," as Henry Weissman of the Journeymen Bakers and Confectioners' union says his fellow-craftsmen have been considered in all ages and countries, have chosen some three hundred delegates to represent them in national convention at Baltimore beginning September 11.

"We propose to go right along with our work to keep our brothers of toil," is how Grand Master Fred J. Anthony forecasts the proceedings at the coming national convention of Railway Shop Employes at Indianapolis which opens September 24. Here, in the grand master's own words, is the scope of the movement:

"About July 18, 1891, at the New Mexico headquarters of the A. T. & S. F. R. R. a little trouble arose between shop employes and the master mechanic which led to a strike of every man, although there was only one branch of employes organized, which were the machinists, and only half of them belonged to the union. On the morning of the second day, those of the machinists who did not belong to the union began talking of going back to work, and when the other employes who had no organization at all to back them heard of it, there was almost a stampede as to whether they should go to work or not. Just at that time I, who had begun to work in the shops four days prior to the walk out, came around to the boys with a petition and agreement to sign, setting forth that each shop employe who would sign it to ask for a charter and agreed to become a member of what shall be known as the Railway Shop Employes of America. Brother, I had some difficulty at first to get signers to this petition, but I was determined the men should not be beaten if I could help it, and that day at noon I had forty-five signers. I appointed the next day for a meeting to organize them. When the hour of meeting arrived there were mustered 19 out of 45 signers and they were organized.

"We have now nearly thirty lodges and are still growing."

The month of October will witness national conventions of cotton mule spinners at Boston, and of railway trainmen in the same city, and of machine woodworkers in St. Louis. In November the electrical workers will send delegates from all over the country to Cleveland. The journeymen barbers do the same in December, but the representatives assemble in Cincinnati.

Finally on December 11 the annual meeting of the American Federation of Labor at which will appear delegates elected at all these various conventions will assemble in Chicago with Samuel Gompers presiding, and organized labor's work for 1892 will end when it adjourns.

MOHICAN WAS DISABLED

Details of the Fight Received at Port Townsend.

OFFICIALS NOT YET CONVINCED.

The Mohican's Engines Were Rendered Useless for Six Hours by the Shot from the Alexandria—Speculation as to How the Seal Poacher Will be Treated.

WASHINGTON, July 19.—The additional details of the firing on the Mohican have not yet convinced the Navy Department officials that the story is correct. There have been several communications exchanged with the patrol fleet since May 25, the date given as that of the engagement, but no reference was made to any such event.

The utmost that the department will admit as reasonably probable is that if the Alexandria did escape from the Mohican it was solely on account of the fog or superior speed, and not owing to the disablement of the Mohican's machinery by a shot. Indeed, it is said that owing to the location of the machinery, well below the water line, it would scarcely be possible for so small a shot to reach it.

There is a good deal of speculation at the Navy Department as to what fate may be in store for the Alexandria if the story be true. Some officers high in rank think that she may be classed as a pirate and treated accordingly, but the cooler heads hold that as her original offense was not one recognized by international law, and she was under a Hawaiian registry, she could not be taken upon the high seas.

Even if she appears at San Francisco it is a question whether she could be seized except upon evidence (of which there appears to be none) that she had violated the sealing laws.

Further advices have been received here to the effect that a lieutenant from the cutter Richard Rush boarded the schooners Alexander of San Francisco, Captain C. H. Lewes and the St. Paul of Kodiak, on July 1, at a little cove near Okoniak, situated eighty miles southeast of Kodiak. Both vessels said they were only taking wood. The Alexander was examined and passed. When the lieutenant attempted to board the St. Paul he was met with resistance, but finally succeeded in finding six sealskins aboard. This so incensed the St. Paul's skipper that he informed the lieutenant that the Alexander also had sealskins aboard. The lieutenant then paid a second visit to the Alexander and found aboard sixteen sealskins. Both vessels were seized and prize crews placed aboard them. The schooners were sent to Alaska, where they will be held until the next term of the District Court.

DETAILS OF THE ENGAGEMENT.

The Mohican Was Disabled Six Hours from the Alexandria's Shot.

SAN FRANCISCO, July 19.—Details of the disabling of the U. S. man-of-war Mohican by the seal poaching steamer Alexandria have been received at Port Townsend.

The Alexandria sailed from here last April under the Hawaiian flag, ostensibly for a hunting and fishing voyage in the North Pacific Ocean.

The peculiarity of her outfit was that she carried over sixty men, many of them expert seal hunters, and that she had forty Winchester rifles and several small cannon.

She also carried an unusually large amount of salt for preserving skins, as well as many hogsheads in which to pack her catches of skins.

McLeod, her commander, is notorious as having conducted several raids on the Japan coast. One of his vessels was seized by the Russians after a lively fight.

In spite of the fact that her destination was given out as the Japan coast, it was believed that she contemplated raids on Russian or Behring sea seal rookeries, and the American patrolling fleet was warned to look out for her. At daylight on May 25 the Alexandria was observed by the Mohican coming out from the lee of the island where the seals usually congregated in large numbers.

The Mohican, which is the flagship of the squadron and commanded by Capt. Nichol Ludlow, signaled to the Alexandria to heave to, which she disobeyed, and a couple of shots were fired across her bows. The Alexandria put on all steam and returned the fire.

A small six-pound shot struck the Mohican amidships and disabled the engines. The man-of-war sent a couple of shots after the fleeing poacher, but they flew wide of the mark. The Mohican lay to six hours repairing machinery.

Meanwhile the Alexandria escaped in a thick fog which was settling down. The Mohican spent several days searching for the vessel and returned to Ounalaska just as the steamer Crescent City was leaving for Sitka.

The Mohican visited the island where the Alexandria had been and found ample evidence to warrant the assumption that a large number of seals had been killed lately.

Young Woman Bitten by a Copperhead.

DERRY STATION, Pa., July 19.—Yesterday Miss Annie Brant, a daughter of George Brant, who lives at the entrance of Ridgeview Park, two miles east of there, was bitten four times by a copperhead snake. Bandages were applied to her ankles and whiskey given, but all efforts to produce sleep have failed and the young lady struggles violently. It is feared that she cannot recover.

Corner Stone Laying in Philadelphia.

PHILADELPHIA, July 19.—The corner stone of the Odd Fellows Temple, which will cost $1,000,000 was laid yesterday afternoon with impressive ceremonies. Several thousand representatives of the order escorted the members of the Grand Lodge of Pennsylvania and guests to the site. The exercises were witnessed by 10,000 persons.

Girl's Skull Fractured.

PATERSON, N. J., July 19.—Rebecca Rutman, 11 years old, was struck by a smokestack which fell from the roof of the Rogers' Locomotive Works, yesterday, while she was on her way to the shops with her father's dinner. Her scalp was torn off and her skull fractured. The girl will die.

Dr. Fulford Released.

NEW HAVEN, July 19.—Dr. W. H. Fulford, charged with causing the death of Nellie Nesbit, of Ansonia, by a criminal operation, was released yesterday. The superior court reduced the bonds from $10,000 to $5,000.

MANY KILLED AND INJURED.

Two Towns in Piedmont Struck by a Tornado.

ROME, July 19.—A tornado swept down suddenly yesterday on Voghera and Castegio in Piedmont. Hundreds of buildings were wrecked. In one section of Voghera hardly a house was left standing. Not a structure in either town was left intact. Hundreds of persons were injured.

The number of dead is not known, as the bodies are buried in the ruins. Only seven bodies have been recovered. The military have been called out to help in the work of rescue, and ambulance corps have been sent from near by cities.

Voghera is a manufacturing city with some 10,000 inhabitants. Castegio, which is five miles from it, has about 4,000 inhabitants.

Died of Convulsions.

PASSAIC, N. J., July 19.—Julia Gavora, 18 years old, was standing near a loom in the Botany worsted mill yesterday afternoon, when a shuttle flew loose and struck her on the throat. She fell to the floor, and, seized with convulsions, died in a few minutes.

AN ULTIMATUM TO SIAM.

France Makes a Demand and Gives 24 Hours for Reply.

The Siamese Government Admits That the French Have Claims for Indemnity, and Offers to Make Deposit.

PARIS, July 19.—The Soir says: "M. Develle has telegraped M. Pavie, French Minister Resident in Bangkok, the terms of an ultimatum to be presented forthwith to the Siamese government. Twenty-four hours are allowed for the reply to France's demands."

A despatch from Bangkok says the Siamese government admits that the French citizens whose injuries and losses have been the subjects of negotiations and protests are entitled to indemnity and has offered to make a deposit in a bank pending proceedings to determine the amount of damages. Every attempt to get a definite statement of claims, however, is said to have failed.

The Faigon correspondent of the Temps covertly accuses the Bangkok government of mutilating outgoing despatches, in defiance of international law, in order that communication between European representatives and their governments may be hindered.

Comptroller Eckels in New York.

NEW YORK, July 19.—Comptroller of the Currency James H. Eckels was a guest of his predecessor, ex-Comptroller A. B. Hepburn, at dinner at the Union League Club last evening. The affair was stated by the distinguished diners to be a purely social affair, given as a compliment to the new Comptroller and for the purpose of enabling him to meet the New York bankers.

Weekly Crop Report.

WASHINGTON, July 19.—The weekly crop report of the Weather Bureau states that the warm, dry weather has been especially favorable for harvest work and haying, which is well under way as far north as Southern Minnesota. In review of the reported shortage of forage in Europe, it is worthy of special note that the hay crop is excellent in almost all sections.

Trunk Line Association.

NEW YORK, July 19.—The subject of the rates to the World's Fair were discussed yesterday at a meeting of the General Passenger Agents Association in this city, and without arriving at any result, the meeting adjourned until Tuesday next.

The Accounts in Perfect Order.

BUFFALO, July 19.—An examination of the accounts of the mayor's license clerk, which rumor has been busy with for the past few days showed them to be in perfect order and to balance to a cent.

THE PANIC AT DENVER

Situation To-day Appears to be Slightly Improved.

BUSINESS MEN ARE STILL ANXIOUS

Four Banks and Several Other Establishments Went Down in Yesterday's Crash—Failures in Kansas and Ohio—Business Troubles from Many Quarters.

DENVER, July 19.—The business situation here shows little hope for the better. No failures have been reported so far today, but there is a look of anxiety on the face of every business man, and no one knows where the next blow will fall. Many regard it as only the calm before the storm.

The failures of yesterday have spread consternation throughout the city. The long expected panic is believed to have come at last.

President Woodbury is of the opinion that the Union National bank, which suspended yesterday, will reopen and continue business as before. It is one of the oldest banks in Denver and has always been regarded as one of its solid ones.

The failure of the Chamberlin Investment company a few days ago affected the Union National, the company having become indebted to the bank about $50,000. The Commercial National bank, which was the second to fail yesterday, was in bad shape. It has a capital stock of $250,000, and only had $2,000 in cash in the bank.

The failure of the Mercantile bank, a private institution, with a capital stock of $100,000, was caused by the failure of the Union National bank, through which it cleared. C. C. Girda, the city auditor, is president. W. F. Robinson, formerly treasurer of the Republican Publishing company, one of the oldest and most respected individuals in the State, has been made assignee.

The Commercial National bank did not reopen its doors at all, preferring to avoid the inevitable run. This notice was posted: "This bank has gone into liquidation by order of the board of directors."

There was not much excitement. Those who stopped to read the sign chatted quietly about the prospects and all seemed confident of an ultimate settlement in full.

It is believed by financiers that yesterday's run will result in the people having more confidence in the strong banks; that the money withdrawn will at once be redeposited, and a better feeling be established in financial circles, which will make money easier.

The suspended banks expect to resume business in a short time.

The constant strain on the banks by scared depositors is what brought about the crisis. It is stated by bankers that no less than $5,000,000 has been drawn from the banks during the last three months. Of this, $3,000,000 has gone to the east in regular lines of business but there is $5,000,000 hoarded in the city.

The safety deposit vaults are full and there is reason to suppose that the homes of workingmen contain secret places in which their savings are hidden. If one-fifth of that amount was let into circulation, the stringency in Denver would cease.

OTHER DENVER FAILURES.

McNamara Dry-Goods House Closed on Attachments.

DENVER, July 19.—The McNamara Dry-Goods Company's store, one of the largest houses in the West, has been closed on attachments.

Hyman & Co., proprietors of the Bee Hive store; McWhirter & Dipps, dealers in mantels and tiles, and Harris, dry goods, have assigned. No statement is available, but amounts probably not large.

Bank Failure at Ada, O.

TOLEDO, O., July 19.—The Citizens' bank of Ada, O., the most prominent one in Hardin county, failed to open its doors yesterday. Its owner, Peter Ahfield, has controled it for over a quarter of a century, and is one of the wealthiest men in that section. No statement of assets or liabilities, or the cause of failure, can be obtained.

More Kansas Banks Go Up.

TOPEKA, Kan., July 19.—State Bank Examiner Breidental has received notice of the failure of the Citizens' bank of Kansas City, the bank of Richmond and the Farmers and Merchants' bank of Osawatomie. The concerns all did a small business. No statements have as yet been made public.

In the Hands of the Sheriff.

WILLIAMSPORT, Pa., July 19.—The Dent Lumber company, of this city, is in the hands of the sheriff, judgments amounting to $18,000 having been entered yesterday. The principal creditor is W. K. Jones, of Coudersport.

Fort Scott, Kan., Bank Closes.

FORT SCOTT, Kan., July 19.—The First National Bank, of this city, the oldest financial institution in southeastern Kansas, has suspended payment.

Other Business Troubles.

The bank of Anacortes, Wash., failed to open its doors yesterday. Liabilities, $21,000; assets, $73,000. Depositors will be paid in full.

At a meeting of the creditors of F. A. Brown & Co., furniture manufacturers, of Boston, it was decided that Mr. Brown pay 25 per cent. on an indebtedness of $93,000.

Phelps & Lombard, leather dealers, of 75 High street, Boston, owe about $300,000, which includes $133,750 in notes endorsed by Richardson & Deanie, who procured their discount.

George D. Schofield, of Indianapolis, for many years a dealer in horses, mules and buggies, made an assignment yesterday for the benefit of creditors. Assets, $30,000; liabilities, $40,000.

Conrad Betzer, jr., furniture dealer, of Lima, O., made an assignment yesterday.

WILL NOT RESIGN.

Judge Jenkins Decides to Remain on the U. S. Circuit Court Bench.

MILWAUKEE, Wis., July 19.—Judge Jenkins will not resign from the bench of the United States Circuit court in consequence of his indictment by the grand jury as a director of the Plankinton bank.

He has reached this decision since a conference with Chief Justice Fuller, of the United States Supreme Court, and his Circuit court confreres.

The Chief Justice will personally lay Judge Jenkins' case before the President.

A Fine New Music Hall.

NEW YORK, July 19.—Oscar Hammerstein, owner of the Manhattan Opera House on Thirty-fourth street, and Messrs. Koster & Bial, the well known managers, have formed a corporation to be known as Koster, Bial & Co., which takes over the Manhattan Opera House and converts it into what is claimed will be the most georgeous and commodious music hall in existence, far surpassing the famous Empire and Alhambra of London.

DREXEL LAID AT REST.

The Remains of the Banker Interred at Philadelphia To-day.

A Very Quiet Funeral—Burial at Woodlawn Cemetery—The Body Arrived from Europe Yesterday.

PHILADELPHIA, July 19.—The funeral of the late Anthony J. Drexel took place from his late residence, Thirty-ninth and Walnut streets, at 10 o'clock this morning. Only friends and relatives of the family were present.

Rev. Dr. Ecclestn, of Baltimore, and Rev. Dr. Bodine, of Philadelphia, conducted the services.

A number of intimate friends from New York attended the funeral. They came this morning on a special train over the Pennsylvania railroad.

There were no pall bearers. The interment was at Woodlawn cemetery.

The body arrived from Europe yesterday on the steamship Fuerst Bismarck, and was brought here last evening.

Among those present besides the immediate relatives of the deceased, were Geo. W. Childs, J. Pierpont Morgan, J. W. Paul, jr., and John H. Harjes, of Drexel & Harjes, Paris.

CLEVELAND AND THE POPE.

Said that the President Wrote a Letter of Congratulation to the Pontiff.

BALTIMORE, July 19.—The News says: "When Benjamin Harrison passed out of office and Grover Cleveland assumed his place at the helm of the Democratic administration, one of his first acts was to write a letter to Pope Leo congratulating him upon the 50th anniversary of his elevation to the bishopric.

"The fact that President Cleveland did this was carefully guarded, and it was not intended that it should be known until the letter reached the hands of the Holy Father. But the missive is now on its way to Rome, and no longer does the United States stand as the only country that failed to take notice of an event in which so many Americans were interested."

EXPORTS AND IMPORTS OF GOLD

The Former Exceeded the Latter by $87,506,463 for the Fiscal Year.

WASHINGTON, July 19.—The Chief of the Bureau of Statistics in his statement of the exports and imports of gold and silver reports that the exports of gold from the United States during the twelve months ended June 30, 1893, amounted to $108,680,844, and the imports to $21,174,381; excess of exports $87,506,463.

During the corresponding period of the preceding year the exports were $50,195,827, and the imports $49,699,754; excess of exports $495,973.

Decision Reserved.

BOSTON, July 19.—The admiralty suits growing out of the collision of the steamer Simon Dumois and the schooner Charles A. Campbell were heard by Judge Nelson. The owners of the steamer claim $18,000 damage to their vessel, and the consignees of her cargo of bananas claim $1,766 more. The schooner's owners seek $2,500 against the steamer. The court reserved its decision.

A Plea of Not Guilty.

BOSTON, July 19.—Morris McCarty and John Booth, the State prison convicts who assaulted Officer Seaver in an attempt to escape, were arraigned yesterday on indictments charging them with assaulting the officer and attempting to break jail. Each pleaded not guilty. They were remanded to jail to await trial, which will be held when the officer is able to testify.

Branded as False.

BOSTON, July 19.—The story to the effect that Edward E. Rice will control the Park Theatre next season is branded as totally without foundation. At the Park it is said that there is absolutely no truth in the story, and that the theatre will be run in the same interests next season as in past seasons.

Charged to Consider Lotteries.

JERSEY CITY, July 19.—The Hudson county grand jury asked to be discharged yesterday but Judge Lippincott refused to entertain the proposition. He said that he had a special charge to make. He wished to call their attention to lotteries. After the charge the jury again retired.

Paper Mill Burned.

HARTFORD, Conn., July 19.—Clark & Lanas' paper mill at Naubuc, about a mile east of Wells' Corners in Glastonbury, was burned yesterday. The mill was worth about $10,000 and, with contents, will make a loss of about $15,000, which is covered by insurance.

Corbett's Show to be Closed Up.

CHICAGO, July 19.—President Higinbotham has issued an order to Director of Works Burnham to close Jas. J. Corbett's athletic exhibition on the Midway Plaisance. The order was served on the people who are running the show, but so far they have ignored it.

A Justice Indicted for Extortion.

PATERSON, N. J., July 19.—Justice Jas. M. Cocker received notice last night that he was indicted by the grand jury and was summoned to appear in court to-day and give bail. He is accused of extortion in settling a case between two Italians for $40.

Killed Herself in Chicago.

CHICAGO, July 19.—Miss Emma Garrett, of Philadelphia; principal of the deaf mute school at Monument and Ford avenues in that city, committed suicide last night by jumping from the fifth story of the Griggs house.

LITTLE HOME-RULERS.

WATCH THEIR FOOD THROUGH JULY AND AUGUST.

To Prevent Cholera Infantum and Keep Baby Strong—Lactated Food the Most Nourishing and Most Natural Diet.

A man's home is his golden milestone from which he measures every distance.

But however much he may lavish expense and skill, it will only be a house until the baby comes to make it into a home.

"Of course you love your babies," said one of the best physicians America ever had; "then watch them intelligently in June, July and August; look out they do not drink milk exposed to contamination; there are many ways in which reliance upon cow's milk alone becomes a source of danger.

"If a baby in arms is not fed with absolutely healthful mother's milk, the best diet possible is of course, lactated food; sugar of milk is the basis of mother's milk and it is the basis of lactated food; with it is combined pure barley malt, the finest wheat-gluten, and the nutritious elements of the oat; it is thoroughly cooked by high steam heat, and a predigested, nutritious food that fulfills every requirement of the growing child is the result.

"For an infant that has been weaned and is getting teeth, there is nothing half so good as lactated food; it is a better preventive of the much-to-be-dreaded cholera infantum than all the medicine ever discovered; you can get it at any drug store, and it is so inexpensive that every mother can afford it.

"By using lactated food you will avoid the real dangers of summer and free your mind from constant apprehension.

Any practiced physician will tell you that the lactated food is commented upon by his most eminent fellow-practitioners as the best substitute for pure mother's milk, and that it can be absolutely relied on for purity and freedom from any possible source of contamination.

You can rely on lactated food above everything else to carry the weaned baby through the trying days and nights of summer.

If the little one is inclined to be nervous and fretful in the summer heat, lactated food sustains the strength and wards off summer diarrhoea and prevents cholera infantum.

It saves babies' lives.

Here is the experience of the sweet baby boy whose portrait is given above. His mother, Mrs. W. H. P. Caron, who resides at 30 North 1st st., Meriden, Conn., writes:

"I take pleasure in sending you the picture of our little Walter; he was a very sick baby and would not nurse; we tried everything we could, but he never got well until a friend recommended lactated food to us; we gave it to him and he improved rapidly; this is his second summer and is very trying to him, as he is cutting teeth, but in spite of that he is larger than a good many as old as he is, he is very bright and has a lovely complexion, and everybody takes him for a girl; he will eat nothing but lactated food I hope that I may have many chances to recommend it, for I know of nothing else that deserves so much praise as lactated food."

THE OUTLOOK GLOOMY.

Thousands of Iron Workers Are Out of Employment.

The Non-Agreement of the Amalgamated Association and the Manufacturers Makes the Situation Very Critical.

PITTSBURG, July 19.—The failure of the Amalgamated Association and manufacturers' conference to reach a settlement of the wage scale and the ending of all conferences has rendered the situation more than critical. As a result of the disagreement union mills, or at least those that paid union rates in the past, will continue closed or resume operations on a non-union basis.

It is stated that it is not probable that any of the manufacturers will attempt to start their works for at least four and probably six weeks. In the meantime thousands of iron workers will be forced to seek employment elsewhere or remain idle.

The Amalgamated Association will now have its modified scale printed and present it to individual firms for signature.

President Garland said this morning: "The situation does not now assume the aspect of a strike and will not until the mill owners order a resumption on terms of their own making. We do not anticipate that this will be done and believe that the manufacturers will sign our scale as soon as they are ready to resume."

The financial situation together with small collections has had much to do with the failure to reach a settlement at present.

REVISION OF THE CONSTITUTION.

Belgian Chamber of Deputies Discusses Several Proposals and Adopts One.

BRUSSELS, July 19.—The Chamber of Deputies discussed certain proposals for the revision of the constitution, and adopted one providing for the payment to members of the sum of 4,000 francs annually and the granting to them of free passage on the railways.

Heretofore only those Deputies residing outside the town in which the Chamber sits have received any payment. These members were allowed the sum of 423 francs a month during the session.

No member of the Chamber is allowed to receive a pension or to hold any paid office under the government.

He claims that his has the reputation of being the most careful furniture house in the State against fire, and says there is absolutely no danger from the material stored in the yard.

NOT A SUICIDE.

Postmaster Baker Is Very Ill, Says His Partner, But That Is All.

Report was current in this city to-day that postmaster Baker, of the Scotch Plains and Fanwood firm of Baker & Mead, had shot himself in an attempt at suicide. In answer to inquiries of THE PRESS, Mrs. Mead, wife of Mr. Baker's partner, utterly denied the story.

"Mr. Baker is very ill",—she said—"but he has not attempted suicide."

When asked if he had not had an accident, she would only repeat "Mr. Baker is very ill".

Later Mr. Mead favored THE PRESS office with a call and said that Mr. Baker's illness was caused by a sudden attack of brain trouble, following neuralgia. The patient is in a semi-conscious state, and seems to be in a very dangerous condition. THE PRESS sincerely hopes that he may speedily rally and fully recover.

BITTEN BY A PET DOG.

Serious Result of a Boy Going Home to His Mother.

Leon Schwab, twelve years old, of this city, who is temporarily living in Rahway with his mother, was badly bitten last night in the left hip by a pet dog. He was going home with his mother when the dog sprang upon him. Much consternation was created in the community. Dr. Randolph was called in and cauterized the wound. The dog had been chained up for a long time, and broke loose last night and wandered about in the streets.

HARRY WILLIAMS LED.

And Charming Patronesses Dispensed the Pretty Favors.

The subscription german to which the guests of the Hotel Netherwood have been looking forward for some time past took place last night and was a great success in every way. The dancers were especially fortunate in having such a cool night for their festivities.

The large windows of the hotel parlors were thrown open to catch the cool breeze that blew from the hills after the afternoon's storm, and between the figures of the german the piazza was thronged with promenaders. The end of the piazza was crowded by those who preferred to watch the dances through the open windows to participating in them themselves.

Among them, besides the guests of the hotel, were many from Plainfield and Netherwood who had driven or ridden up on bicycles. The dancing began about 9:30 and continued until nearly 2. Harry Williams, who has been a well-known leader in the social events at the Netherwood for the past ten years, led the german with his accustomed grace and snap. The figures were pretty and amusing. One of the most diverting was the old whistling figure, where five men stand at the end of the room and whistle a waltz, to which the remainder of the people danced. The comical attempts of the improvised whistling orchestra brought rounds of applause. The favors were many and handsome, and were selected by Messrs. Balch and Williams in New York. Among them were fans, coffee cups, silver spoons, silver hat markers for the men, and a large assortment of other less useful things. The favor table was graced by Mrs. W. V. R. Smith, Mrs. Sneckner, Mrs. Gondran, Mrs. M. C. Ogden, who handed out the pretty baubles as they were required.

Among those dancing were: Mr. and Mrs. Balch, Mr. and Mrs. F. E. Miller, Mr. and Mrs. F. S. Jordan, Mr. and Mrs. W. B. Ogden, Mr. and Mrs. A. L. Gondran, Mr. and Mrs. F. H. Richardson, Mr. and Mrs. H. W. Williams, Mr. and Mrs. William W. Farmer, Miss Majorie K. Farmer, Miss Fannie Farmer, Miss Fannie Knowles, Mr. and Mrs. Solomon Weatherin, Mr. and Mrs. A. L. Banney, Mr. and Mrs. M. C. Ogden, Mr. and Mrs. W. O. Smith, Mr. and Mrs. William H. Sneckner, Mr. and Mrs. L. Benton, Mr. and Mrs. R. J. Kelley, Mr. and Mrs. White, Miss White, Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Spooner, Miss Annie S. Betts, Mr. and T. J. Frank, Mr. and Mrs. E. J. Hancey, Mr. and Mrs. D. J. McCabe, Miss Berckman, Mr. and Mrs. Bowen, Mrs. Bennett, Miss Bennett, Mrs. Bendit, Mrs. Jacobs, J. Dyson Aspinwall, W. E. Smith, F. W. Jordan, C. A. Smith, Charles Loeb, A. Elliott Banney, N. A. Benner, George Martin, Harry Witherspoon and others.

PARTICULAR MENTION.

Frank Linke's wife and family left yesterday for a vacation at Rockaway Beach.

Acting Mayor Neal's family have returned to their borough home from New York State.

Mr. and Mrs. O. T. Waring will spend the month of August at Pine Lee Cottage, Saunderstown, L. I.

John Bushnell, W. E. Love and H. B. Newhall are to leave in a private car for Lake Placid, Aug. 1.

Mayor Saunders shook hands with Grand Old Man Gladstone, last week, in the House of Parliament.

Miss Daisy Shepard, daughter of A. D. Shepard of Scotch Plains, is visiting Miss Soley at Shinnecock Bay, L. I.

George C. Worth, of Grove street, was confined to his home Sunday and Monday with a slight attack of influenza.

Mrs. Seymour G. Smith and sons George and Seymour are at Richfield Springs, en route for Hartwick, N. Y.

Mr. and Mrs. William O. Worth, of Park place, have returned from Asbury Park, where they spent the last fortnight.

Miss Mabel Voorhees, daughter of William H. Voorhees, formerly proprietor of the city pharmacy of this place, but now of Brooklyn, is visiting the Johnsons of Duer street, North Plainfield.

Aunt Betsy Cole, of Warren street, North Plainfield, will be eighty-nine years of age next September. Her husband was Miller Cole, who died some years ago.

Grandma Spencer, of the borough, was eighty-five years of age, last Monday. She is hale and hearty, and is full of early reminiscences of this section of the country.

Mulford Estil's alert and obliging head clerk, Will F. Williams, begins a week's vacation to-morrow, and will make Van Over Cottage, Lake Hopatcong, his headquarters.

Miss Julia Field and Miss Mamie Brady, accompanied by Miss Muldoon, start to-day for a two-months' trip through the west, spending several weeks at the World's Fair.

Herbert Schutt, of Duer street, who is one of the Holy Cross church choir, is compelled to cease singing for awhile on account of change in his voice. He is still a member of the choir, and will resume singing later.

The Minneapolis Tribune says: "Charles B. Brown, membership secretary of the Y. M. C. A., formerly of Plainfield, will succeed Mr. Elliott as Bible instructor at the association during the latter's absence from the city."

Harry A. Connett, of the freight-house staff, has concluded to attempt the delights of housekeeping, after years of boarding, and he and his estimable wife to-day take possession of their new home at East Fifth street, near Richmond.

H. E. Cramer, mayor of Elizabeth, Pa., and one of the Job Male heirs, returned to Plainfield with his wife and boy this morning, from a visit to the great World's Fair. The genial mayor and his interesting family are stopping at 108 West Second street.

The Rev. Dr. J. P. Taylor, of Park avenue, preaches every Sunday in the Episcopal church at Middletown, Monmouth county, and has removed to that place with his wife and boy for the summer. Middletown is the center of a fine farming country, and is an important shipping-point for local produce.

MARKSMEN'S VARYING LUCK.

Interesting Sweepstakes Shooting on the Climax Gun Club Grounds.

The Climax Gun club sportsmen enjoyed some good shooting on their grounds yesterday afternoon, in spite of the drenching downpour which at one time drove them to shelter and the wind which wrecked a tree. The first event was a handicap sweepstakes, unknown angles, and resulted as follows:

A. Trust, shot at 30 birds, killed 23.
John Darby, shot at 35 birds, killed 23.
C. Smith, shot at 25 birds, killed 22.
J. Robinson, shot at 32 birds, killed 22.

BREAK UP THOSE DENS!

They Are Low Gambling Resorts for the Lowest Class of People.

A fight occurred at Babbitt's pool rooms last night, over a game of cards. This pool room is on Front street, diagonally opposite the post-office, and has borne a bad reputation for some time past. Not long ago another resort in this neighborhood was raided by the police, and two arrests were made. It was well known at the time of the raid that the block on which the resort was situated was a regular "Thompson street", given up to loafing, card playing, and fighting negroes, and the police have at last come to the conclusion that it is time to act. Card playing, drinking and fighting go on night after night, with now and then an arrest, which has little effect on the proceedings. THE PRESS hopes that these disreputable dives may be speedily weeded out, or at least made to carry on their business (ostensibly the playing of pool) in an orderly and seemly manner.

BASE-BALL BABBLE.

Middletown Can't Come, But Phillipsburg Is Substituted.

Manager Keller of the Plainfield Crescents has just received a telegram from the manager of the Asylum team at Middletown, N. Y., stating that it will be impossible to come here Saturday. Mr. Keller will therefore bring the Phillipsburgs here in their stead. The Phillipsburgs are a strong team, and have been beaten only twice this year, and then by the Easton and Johnstown teams of the Pennsylvania State league. They played a 2-1 game with the old-time Somerville, and will make the Crescents hustle.

The Crescents will go to Poughkeepsie next week to play two games there. They are likely to play a game at Fishkill also.

Grace Church to Join the Baptists.

The excursion committee of the First Baptist church is striving to surpass all former efforts to make the excursion of this week Friday the most enjoyable ever given. Special arrangements have been made with the railway officials, and the first section will leave promptly at 8 and the second section not till 8:10. Each section will have a committee in charge to take care of lunch baskets. The masculine sex will have a car where they may enjoy a smoke. Besides the Baptist school and missions, Grace church Sunday-school will join in the holiday trip. The committee gives assurance that the utmost will be done to give an enjoyable day. Already the sale of tickets has begun, and the evidence is that a host of friends will go with the Baptists.

Plainfield's Ordinance Concerned as Well.

The Rahway cyclists are going to fight the ordinance of their town against riding at night without bell and light. The have paid no attention to the ordinance, as some lawyer told them it would not stand in court. But now that two of the wheelmen have been arrested for violation, test trial is to be made. For the sake of the safety of the public it is hoped the cyclists will lose the case and be made to pay their fine.

To Sing in Bulgarian.

The Wednesday evening prayer meeting of the First Presbyterian church will be conducted by the Rev. Lewis Bond of Macedonia, Bulgaria, who has been a missionary there for the past twenty years. He will give an account of his labors in that foreign clime, and his wife will sing in the Bulgarian language. The service will begin at 8 in the chapel.

Peaches from Over the Mountain.

Jeptha A. Wagener of this city is again the first producer in the State to bring peaches to market. Bright and early this morning he brought a quantity of the luscious fruit to town, and after favoring THE PRESS with samples disposed of the balance of his stock at the stores.

The Deadly Handspring.

Eleven-year-old Tony Lusardi, son of the North avenue fruit dealer, broke his left arm in two places in trying to turn a handspring, yesterday afternoon. Dr. Long set the member, after the lad had been etherized.

"Press" Agitation Always Wins.

The reference of THE PRESS to the need of garbage collectors in the borough has secured one man to whom a district has been assigned, and the authorities are looking for others.

SUN-LIGHT and FRESH AIR are THE BEST DISINFECTANTS, of course; but you can't apply them in every situation. What next? Well, that depends. For damp cellars use Quicklime, plenty of it. For vaults and cesspools use COPPERAS; cheap stuff; we sell it by the pound or hundred-weight—instructions thrown in. For kitchen sinks, for water-closets, for house plumbing, for the sick room, to deodorize discharges, to purify the air and to prevent contagion, use REYNOLDS'S ODORLESS DISINFECTANT. Made and sold for fifteen years at

Reynolds's Pharmacy, Corner Park and North Avenues.

Lawyer Runyon Has Two Cases.

Justice Mosher issued summonses this morning in the suit of Edward Peck vs Wm. Craig, for $150 damages alleged to have been done to his property in Dunellen. Craig owned a house in Dunellen, which Peck rented. Peck, it is charged, removed some plumbing from the building, and Craig says that it injured the house $150 worth. The suit will come up July 24.

Another suit before Justice Mosher is that of Carney Bros. vs. Anna Miller, on contract, to come up July 25. Harry C. Runyon has been secured by the defendant in each case, and some lively arguments are expected.

Too Much Wheeling on a Hot Day.

Ten-year-old Theodore Smith, of Richmond street, near Front, wheeled with a party of lads to Boynton Beach, yesterday afternoon, and was overcome by the heat. Mr. and Mrs. B. T. Barnes, who were at the beach for the day, cared for young Smith and brought him home in their buggy.

MIDNIGHT HUNT FOR A BAD MAN.

Plainfield Police Penetrate Where Fanwood Constables Fear to Tread.

Charles K. Moore of Fanwood is beginning to appreciate the hardships of a justice's career. Yesterday he got news that a bad man who was "wanted" in New York for murder had taken refuge in a hut frequented by Italians back of Scotch Plains. He ordered his posse of constables to raid the place. They all refused, and one resigned. Therefore he was forced to come to Plainfield for brave officers. Wm. R. Mattox and Henry C. Corsa without hesitation agreed to accompany him, and the trio thereupon drove to the black and forbidding wilderness that skirts the Springfield road and extends on beyond Feltville. They were compelled to dismount and go afoot three-fourths of a mile, penetrating the lonesome stretch of woodland known as "the Cedars". Here they found the object of their search, a gloomy cabin, securely locked. In response to their summons a swarthy Italian appeared, clutching a big revolver. He smiled sardonically and gave sarcastic reply to their questioning. He said that they were free to search the house, but assured them the bad man was not there; and, satisfied that they could not find him even if they looked through the house, they came away. There was quite a thrill of danger in their experience, and they breathed a sigh of relief when they had left the ugly-looking Italian and his murderous weapon far behind.

"That's a lovely spot for a murder!"—said the judge.

THE BLIND GIRL'S FUNERAL.

Her Dying Words Were a Benediction.

The funeral of Miss Hattie L. Oblinger took place yesterday afternoon in the Third Street mission. A large number of friends of the deceased were present, to pay a last tribute to one whom they had loved. The Rev. Dr. D. J. Yerkes gave an interesting and impressive discourse on the life of the departed. Besides being blind for several years, her life had been full of other trials and tribulations. Yet through it all she had maintained a high standard in Christian living, and any one meeting her would say she was the happiest of persons, for she was continually praising God for His goodness. An impressive incident in her closing days occurred Saturday evening. She was feeling very thankful to her Heavenly Father, when her mother suggested that they offer prayer; at the conclusion she pronounced very distinctly, "In the name of the Father, Son and Holy Ghost, Amen!" These were her last words, and soon afterwards she passed away very quietly, with her trust firm in God.

A choir composed of Miss Annie Angerbauer, Miss Kyle, Miss Mary Thorn, Mrs. Grant, E. W. Randolph, and James Flack, sang several appropriate hymns. Miss Randolph, a sister of E. W. Randolph, assisted at the piano.

The remains were interred in the Baptist cemetery on Plainfield avenue.

WHAT PLAINFIELD HAS TO PAY.

County and School Taxes Specified, But Road Assessment Escaped.

The Union county board of assessors has fixed the following taxes for this section:

County—Fanwood, $3,937.10; Plainfield, $37,653.37; Westfield, $6,530.88.

School—Fanwood, $1,994.59; Plainfield, $19,076.60; Westfield, $3,308.49.

The following amounts were levied to pay interest on county road bonds:

Elizabeth, $8,807; Union, $1,212.36; Springfield, $283.19; New Providence, $108.47; Fanwood, $314.41; Cranford, $300.21; Linden, $527.70; Rahway, $173.73; Clark, $193.38; Westfield $650.05; Summit, $193.82; total, $4,000.

That Society's a Fake.

The New Brunswick Home News says: "Plainfield is progressive, having just organized a 'Boston Society,' the object of which is to discourage treating in hotels or saloons. If a member wants a glass of beverage he takes it, but he is prescribed from offering a drink to any one else. This way of drinking used to be called the Rahway plan." Plainfield drinkers do n't imitate Rahway, and the organization of the alleged society is a Courier joke.

Should Be Underground Where Possible

Morristown people objected to having the streets disfigured by overhead wires and unnecessary telephone and other poles, and the electric conductors are therefore to be put under ground. Plainfield ought to do likewise, where possible, but will not for years to come. In that respect Morristown is ahead of Plainfield.

RECOLLECTIONS OF FELTVILLE.

"Glenside Park" as It Was Forty Years Ago.

[From the Newark Daily Advertiser.]

In the spring of 1852 the writer went to live in Feltville, which was then a manufacturing village. The old mill which stands on the east side of the narrow valley where the brook runs was then a busy place. At 5 o'clock in the morning the bell rang out a peal to arouse everyone, for at 6 another bell summoned the operatives to work. The first row of houses after ascending the long flight of stairs which led from the factory to the plateau above, was occupied by the operatives and the superintendent, whose house was at the further end of the row. The one nearest the stairs was a boarding house for the men, and was called the Eagle. Another was for the girls and was called the Swan. In the next street lived the minister, and the New York bookkeeper for Mr. Felt, who was the proprietor of the village. Mr. Felt carried on business in the city, but when out to Feltville on Saturday, returning on Monday to New York. The next house was occupied by the superintendent of the store, which supplied the needs of the village. In the last house in the row lived the man who had charge of the farm, which consisted of many acres and gave employment to quite a number of men. There were also six or eight other houses occupied by men in Mr. Felt's employ. A milkman brought milk to the door, and ice was supplied from the ice-house on the place.

Over the store a neat hall was fitted up and comfortably furnished for religious service, which was held every Sunday. At a little distance from the store was the school-house, which was presided over in summer by a niece of Mr. Felt, a very lovely woman. During the winter a male teacher was in charge. Mr. Felt himself occupied a large comfortable house with broad piazzas and facing a very large flower garden.

Small as the village was, its inhabitants were of a heterogeneous character, and it was exceedingly interesting to at least one of the smaller members of the community to note the different places from which they had come. The superintendent of the factory had the look and air of a Boston business man, and he was from Boston or that vicinity. The minister was a New England man. The bookkeeper was an Englishman of good education, and had been a teacher before coming to this country. His large family of boys and girls helped to make the place lively. The superintendent of the store was from the breezy hills of Connecticut. He was blessed with a family of children who heavily drained his pocket-book, however they may have brightened his hearth. The farmer was a Scotchman, and his little fairhaired Janet was a typical Scotch lassie. There was also another man who must not be forgotten. He was foreman in one department of work in the factory and also superintendent of the Sunday-school. He was of an exceedingly genial temperament, and from his own house brought a large delegation to the school. The son of the Boston man was librarian, and one of his daughters taught the infant class. Although a variety of religious beliefs were represented by those who met together in the school, a spirit of harmony and peace prevailed.

Doubtless a large proportion of those who were gathered there have gone to that land whence there is no return. The memory of the school, together with the fragrant breath of the cedars with their purple berries, the songs of the unmolested wild birds, and the quiet beauty of the place, still haunt the memory of the writer.

World's Fair Philanthropists.

Messrs. Boddie Bros., wealthy Chicago gentlemen, having the interest of their city at heart; and desiring to disprove the falsity of the statement that only in boarding houses can be found moderate priced accommodations during the World's Fair, remodeled and furnished at great expense one of their famous absolutely fire-proof business structures, located corner of Franklin and Jackson streets, within short walking distance of the Union depots, theaters, post office, board of trade, steam, elevated, cable roads and steamboats to the World Fair, furnished newly throughout five hundred rooms, superb parlors, elevators, electric lights, exhaust fans to keep cool entire building, named this property The Great Western Hotel, and invited the public to take their choice of rooms for $1 per day, children 5 to 12 fifty cents. Elegant restaurant and dining rooms where fine meals are served at 50 cents, or a la carte at very moderate prices.

There would be less heard or known of extortion and imposition connected with the World's Fair were there more public spirited, fair minded men in Chicago as are the owners and proprietors of The Great Western Hotel. Our readers should write as early as possible to secure rooms, for they are being taken up rapidly.—St. Paul Daily News.

TWELVE MEN DROWNED.

Another Lot of Victims of Mayor Saunders's "Iron Gates".

The Iron Gates, in the River Danube, where many lives have been lost, and which mayor W. L. Saunders went to Europe to engineer, claimed twelve more victims yesterday.

For some time past operations have been carried on by means of Mr. Saunders's company's machinery, with the object of taking out of the river the rocks that have given the name of Iron Gates to this part of the river. Twelve workingmen who were in a small boat were caught in the current, which runs with great velocity at this point, and were dashed against a dredger that was moored in the stream.

The boat was smashed and the men were carried down stream by the rushing water before any assistance could reach them.

Caspar Discusses Finances.

Caspar Ebener of the borough says that a lack of confidence is the cause of our financial troubles, and that Congress must repeal the Sherman silver bill when it convenes. This, he says, will permit that body to adopt certain measures that will guarantee the permanent and exchangeable par value of a mixed currency of gold, silver and paper, in volume supply sufficient to serve the business wants of the people, but not to an imprudent and dangerous excess. Have a seegar? Nein; Ich wollen sie stein haben. Gesundheit.

BURNHAM HELD GUILTY

Verdict of Grand Jury in the World's Fair Disaster.

ACCUSED OF CRIMINAL NEGLIGENCE.

Fire Marshal Murphy and the President and Secretary of the Hercules Iron Company Also Held Responsible—What Director of Works Burnham Says.

CHICAGO, July 19.—After its prolonged investigation the coroner's jury investigating the World's Fair cold-storage calamity reached a verdict last evening. The jury held to the grand jury the following persons:

D. H. Burnham, Director of Works, the World's Fair.

Fire Marshal Edward Murphy, of the World's Fair fire department.

J. B. Skinner, president of the Hercules Iron company.

Charles A. McDonald, secretary and treasurer of the Hercules Iron company.

The jury reached its conclusion much more quickly than the time they were out would indicate, as there were 16 deaths, the causes of which they were called to consider, and each represented a separate case.

The verdict was the same in all the cases and read as follows:

"We, the jury, find that the deceased came to their deaths from injuries and burns received at a fire of the cold storage building at the World's Fair grounds on July 10, 1893; and we, the jury, find from the evidence presented that Charles A. McDonald, John B. Skinner, D. H. Burnham and Edward W. Murphy, be held to the grand jury for criminal negligence, and there held until discharged by the course of law."

Director of Works Burnham said this morning:

"This is a great surprise to me. I was never officially notified of the unsafe condition of the cold storage tower and Engineer Shanklin never reported the tower as dangerous."

NEGROES NOT WANTED.

They Are Requested Not to Occupy Seats at Asbury Park.

ASBURY PARK, N. J., July 19.—Founder James Bradley of Asbury Park has at last set his foot down upon the colored people who patronize his board walks and ocean pavilions to the exclusion of the city people who patronize Asbury Park hotels and cottages.

Yesterday Mr. Bradley, who still owns the entire beach front, together with the many pavilions and bath houses, caused to be posted the following sign:

"NOTICE—Colored people are requested not to occupy this pavilion by order of James A. Bradley."

Complaints from summer patrons of Asbury Park, upon whom the hotels and cottages depend for their business, began pouring in upon Mr. Bradley thick and fast this week. He did not want to raise a race war by ordering his police to exclude all of the negroes from the beach, so he instructed his officers to request the colored people not to occupy the choice seats upon the beaches and pavilions.

Mr. Bradley says that he fears no trouble from the colored people, but if they still persist upon pushing themselves where they are not wanted he will have them arrested.

COLUMBIAN CLUB MATCHES.

Dixon to Meet Solly Smith and Griffin to Fight Jeuhson.

CHICAGO, July 19.—The Columbian Athletic Club signed George Dixon, champion of the world in his class, and Solly Smith to fight for the featherweight championship of the world. The contest will be for a purse of $8,000 and a possibility of a side bet of $5,000 each.

Johnny Griffin and George Johnson, the champion 120-pound pugilist of England are also matched for a purse of $5,000 and a side bet of $2,000.

The Smith-Dixon fight will be in September and the Griffin-Johnson affair one month later.

Chancellor von Caprivi Thanked.

BERLIN, July 19.—The Reichsanzeiger publishes a Cabinet order expressing the most sincere thanks of the Emperor and his allies to Chancellor von Caprivi for his services in securing the adoption by the Reichstag of the Army bill. The order also expresses the hope that the Chancellor's services will long be preserved to the Emperor and the Fatherland.

To Provide for the Army Bill Outlay.

BERLIN, July 19.—Dr. Miquel, Minister of Finance of Prussia, and the Finance Ministers of all the other German States will hold a conference at Frankfort-on-the Main on Aug. 6, with the object of discussing the means to be adopted to cover the outlay that will be incurred through the carrying into effect of the provisions of the Army bill.

Recognized as an Old Offender.

BOSTON, July 19.—Walter Dorach, who was arrested for stealing a bundle from a wagon, and who gave an assumed name, has been recognized by the officers as a man who had served at least half a dozen sentences for larceny, mostly from express teams. If convicted on this charge he will receive a 25 years sentence under the habitual criminal act.

Drowned in the Passaic.

BELLEVILLE, N. J., July 19.—Shortly after 1 o'clock yesterday Charles Smith, a carpenter, 19 years of age, was drowned while bathing in the Passaic River, near the Eastwood Manufacturing company's dock. His body has not been recovered. Smith lived with his parents at Woodbell and worked for Peter Atkins at this place.

NIAGARA FALLS, N. Y., July 19.—The Nabob of Rampur and his staff arrived at the Clifton House last night and will spend a few days here.

NEWS OF THE DAY.

Dr. Meyer, the alleged poisoner, will be arraigned in New York to-morrow.

The gold reserve took another downward tumble yesterday from $92,059,480, its amount Monday, to $97,672,832.

The Interior Department announces the death in Oklahoma of William M. Stone, ex-Commissioner of the General Land Office.

Oh, What a Cough!

Will you heed the warning. The signal perhaps of the sure approach of that more terrible disease, Consumption. Ask yourselves if you can afford for the sake of saving 50c., to run the risk and do nothing for it. We know from experience that Shiloh's Cure will cure your cough. It never fails. This explains why more than a Million Bottles were sold the past year. It relieves croup and whooping cough at once. Mothers, do not be without it. For lame back, side or chest, use Shiloh's Porous Plaster. Sold by A. D. Mallinson, 65 North Ave. opposite railroad station. 5-18-7

QUEEN & CO.,

OCULISTS AND OPTICIANS,

OF 1010 CHESTNUT ST., PHILADELPHIA,

Announce that one of their

EYE SPECIALISTS

—IS IN—

PLAINFIELD EVERY THURSDAY,

Dunham's Real Estate Office, 7 East Front St.,

FROM 8.30 A. M. TO 5.30 P. M.

No charge is made to determine if your eyesight may be improved or headache relieved by wearing properly adjusted glasses. Bear in mind the address, and do not fail to consult our specialist if your eyes trouble you.

MESSRS. QUEEN & CO., are well known throughout the United States as Opticians of the highest experience and skill. Their glasses are worn by lems of thousands in all parts of the world, and their work is acknowledged to be the standard of excellence everywhere. The staff of oculists and opticians engaged at their main store, 1010 Chestnut Street, Philadelphia, is composed of men whose skill and ability to give relief to defective eyes is of the highest order.

Recognizing the fact that in many populous centres there is no one versed who understands the measurement of the sight and adjustment of glasses in all the details, they have arranged that one of their Eye Specialists shall come periodically to your city, at the address given above.

Heretofore, in order to obtain anything like reliable care, it has been necessary to obtain a prescription at one office, and then purchase the glasses according to that prescription at some store.

This method not only causes much loss of time, but multiplies the chances of error.

Queen's specialists are men of large experience gained by daily and constant practice, which enables them to correct the most defective vision without the use of drops. Every kind is done so.

Messrs. Queen & Co. make no boasts of wonderful remedies, nor do they claim any special healing power in the glasses they furnish, as is so often done by ignorant persons who meddle in glasses. Queen & Co. guarantee every pair of glasses ordered to be satisfactory, and expect to win your approval by the skillful and accurate manner in which they give you improved and comfortable vision. 4 5 1y-ew

CHRISTIAN HOSTS.

Twenty Thousand of Them Invade Montreal.

The Convention Leaders—Clergy and Laymen Who Will Address the Y. P. S. C. E.—Canadian Hospitality—Marshalling for the Good Fight.

[COPYRIGHT, 1893.]

The twelfth Gubernatorial Christian Endeavor convention is to be held this year at Montreal, opening Wednesday, July 5, and closing Sunday, July 9. The phenomenal growth of the Y. P. S. C. E. since its humble origin twelve years ago in a Maine parsonage has ranked it among the yearly events of national importance to church societies and railroad managements, to thousands of delegates and the public, who wonders and questions concerning the methods and reasons of these annual gatherings. General interest was first excited last summer when 32,000 delegates of societies located in America, Europe, Asia and Africa and an immense following of unofficial visitors flocked to New York. They packed the auditorium of Madison Square garden—the largest audience hall on the continent—and overflowed in groups of a thousand and more into the neighboring churches. The last mass meetings were held simultaneously in Madison Square garden, Carnegie hall, the Metropolitan opera house and eight churches. Hotel managers, boarding house keepers and hospitable Christians were put to it to accommodate an influx of people which astonished even flexible New York, although a canvass had been made for the entertainment of visitors. With this in mind the C. E. managers of the convention in Montreal are already making extensive preparations for the thousands of young men and women expected in July.

The hotels can accommodate but a few of the delegates; a personal house-to-house canvass of private houses is in progress. An authoritative statement gives the rate in boarding houses and private families from seventy-five cents to one dollar and twenty-five cents without meals and from one dollar and fifty cents to two dollars and fifty cents with them.

A hospitable idea is that which provides for the reception of guests by a committee which will send scouts to meet each incoming train and boat one hundred miles from Montreal and escort travelers to the city. The members of the committee will wear white yachting caps to distinguish them in the midst of big crowds.

Meetings will be held in Drill hall, a fireproof building, seating 9,000 people, and in an immense tent pitched across the street, seating 8,000. This does not provide for the overflow meetings; they will be held in various churches simultaneously with the regular programme of the two main halls.

Over 19,000 delegates have planned to come—delegates who pay their own expenses can expect no aid from the general convention, which is unique among conventions in that no names are officially handled. A delegate may accept aid only from his local society, voted him upon his election or subsequently.

Pennsylvania sends 2,000, New York 2,000, Missouri 800, Illinois 700, and New Hampshire but 750 delegates; forty-five states, five territories, seventeen provinces and several foreign countries will be represented by speakers upon the programme, while twenty-five different evangelical denominations will be heard from.

The chairman of the convention is Dr. Francis E. Clark—"Further Endeavor" Clark, as he is known among the members of the society he has founded and fostered. The general secretary is John Willis Baer, a young man who was prominent last year and has identified himself heart and soul with the society. There are numberless conference committees, branch and subcommittees, besides officers and committees to govern the various branches. The leaders include scores of prominent ministers and more laymen than have ever before appeared upon a Christian Endeavor convention programme.

The programme is so elaborate that the endeavorers will be forced to select those parts in which they are most interested to the exclusion of many others. Some of the speakers will discuss the following topics, included in the general programme.

The Wednesday evening meetings will be held in the four largest churches of Montreal. They are called "Preparatory," since the first hour will be devoted to prayer. The meetings will close with simultaneous addresses in the four churches by Rev. Theodore L. Cuyler, D. D., of Brooklyn, on "The Prayer that Has Power;" Rev. J. Wilbur Chapman, D. D., the evangelist, on "Receiving the Holy Ghost for Power," Rt. Rev. M. S. Baldwin, D. D., bishop of Huron, on "Individual Consecration," and Rev. Frank M. Bristol, D. D., of Chicago, on the "Secret of Power."

The exercises Thursday morning will be opened by the usual "early prayer meetings," which are held every day of the convention. Following will be three or four addresses of welcome in Drill hall. The dominion government will be represented by Hon. George E. Foster, minister of finance; the city pastors, by Rev. MacGilvery; the Y. M. C. A., by Secretary Budge, and the Montreal endeavorers by A. A. Ayer, chairman of '93's committee.

Thursday afternoon will be devoted to Junior C. E., under the charge of Mrs. Francis Clark, who has been as active in this work as her husband, Dr. Wayland Hoyt, D. D., of Minneapolis; Miss Katy H. Hales, of St. Louis, and J. W. Cowan, the first pastor to organize a junior C. E. society, will give addresses.

President Clark's annual address and the secretary's report will be given Thursday evening, alternately in Drill hall and the tent. Following these will be the presentation of banners to the state which during the year has made the greatest absolute gain in the number of societies.

Friday's speakers include some of the most brilliant men who attend the convention. Hon. W. E. P. Breckinridge, of Louisville, Ky., will deliver an address on "The Age and Its Possibilities," in lieu of that which he was prevented from giving in New York. The tent speakers will be Bishop Arnett, D. D., of Vicksburg, representative of the African church, on "Christian Steward's Tip," and lastly, Rev. David J. Burrell, D. D., of New York, on "Good Citizenship."

Saturday afternoon will be the time of friendly rivalry in the denominational rallies held in Montreal's churches. The chairman of the denominational conferences will make all the reports.

At Drill hall in the evening, the roll-call of states, provinces and foreign lands fills the first half of the evening, to be followed by an address on "International Fellowship," by Rev. George Wells, D. D., of Minneapolis.

In the tent will be held a most interesting session known as the pastor's hour. Speeches are but one and one-half minutes long. The closing address on "The Christian Endeavor Society a Typical Church Institution," will be delivered by Rev. Kerr B. Tupper, D. D., of Denver, Col. Sunday, the last day of the convention, will be as crowded as the most enthusiastic delegates can desire.

In the morning the Christian Endeavorers will be expected to attend church. The first regular meetings of the convention will begin in Drill hall and the last at 2:30 p. m. "Gospel Temperance" will be discussed by Mrs. Frances Barnes, superintendent of the National Y. W. C. T. U.; "The Religious Press," by Rev. Hooke, editor of the Independent, London, England; "Foes to Society, Church and the State," by Anthony Comstock.

In the Drill hall meeting T. E. Murphy, the temperance evangelist, will also discuss "Gospel Temperance;" Rev. G. Douglass, D. D., LL. D., president of Wesleyan theological college of Montreal, gives an address on "Social Purity," and Mr. A. N. Milbury, of DRILL HALL, MONTREAL.

New York, will talk on "Reaching the Masses."

Then come the great closing mass meetings and the sermons. President Clark will preside and lead the consecration meeting, called the "Mizpah," because the famous phrase is repeated in unison by the thousands present, and Rev. T. H. Lewis, D. D., president of Western Maryland college, will preach the sermon in Drill hall.

In the tent Rev. Fay Mills, the revivalist, will both preach and preside. And, besides these chief meetings will be many others, such as the junior rally, the conference of state officers and the local union and districts secretaries' conferences which are, says the general secretary, equally important.

Cause for Discharge.

Judge (severely)—Horsewhipping is the only suitable punishment for you and your kind. The idea of a man of your size beating a poor, weak woman like that!

Prisoner—But, your honor, she keeps irritating and irritating me all the time.

Judge—How does she irritate you?

Prisoner—Why, she keeps saying: "Hit me! beat me!, Just hit me once, and I'll have you hauled up before that baldheaded old reprobate of a judge, and see what he'll do with you!"

Judge (choking) — Discharged! — Puck.

A Philosopher Born.

An Indiana maiden, 4 years old, was driving along a prairie road with her father and a 6-year-old brother. The brother, who is of an anxious turn of mind, was in great distress at the sight of an ox that was calmly devouring a large pile of seed potatoes in the corner of a field. "O, papa, stop," he said. "We ought to tell the people in the house." "Do sit still, Buddy," put in his philosophic sister. "It isn't we ox, nor we potatoes."—Chicago Tribune.

An Unjust Suspicion.

A Texas gentleman went out fishing one day. He had a nice lunch fixed up, but upon arriving at the fishing place he discovered that he had lost it, so he retraced his steps until he met a large satisfied-looking negro, who was seated by the roadside under a tree picking his teeth.

"Did you pick up anything in the road?" asked the fisherman.

"No, sah, I didn't pick up nuffin'—couldn't a dog hab found it and ate it up?"—Texas Siftings.

"Dear Sister,

"They charge you with being restless, irritable, excitable, and exacting.

"They don't know the horror that oppresses you.

"Every hour pains run rampant through your body. You suffer secretly as long as you can, then go all to pieces and 'don't care' what happens.

"The iron grip of female disease is upon you.

"Dear sister, Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound has cured thousands like you.

"It has cured me, and I want to tell everybody.

"It kills the pain. No more backache, no more 'bearing-down,' no more restless days and sleepless nights. Oh! what a blessing! take it and be well! it's a sin to hesitate."—Mrs. P. A. Quiett, North Hamlin, N. J.

MORE PENSION FRAUDS

Crookedness on an Extensive Scale in New Mexico.

2,000 CASES BEING INVESTIGATED

Over 5,000 Pensioners Suspended Since March 4—Immigration Statistics Show An Increase For Italy, and a Decrease For Other Countries—Notes of the Capital

WASHINGTON, July 20.—The Pension Bureau is now engaged investigating what appears to be an extensive system of pension frauds in New Mexico. The bureau has had reason to suspect for some time the existence of crooked dealings in that territory and instituted an examination of pension affairs there.

An examining board consisting of three medical examiners and seven special examiners was sent to New Mexico, and about the first result of a preliminary investigation was the arrest of a pension attorney at Socorro, named Marcelino, charged with forgery of evidence. He pleaded guilty, was tried at once and has been sentenced to seven years imprisonment in the penitentiary.

It is not known yet how extensive Marcelino's fraudulent operations were, but about 200 cases of his are under examination. Some of these will doubtless prove to be all right, but they are all being closely looked into.

It is said that about 2,000 pension cases in the territory are being investigated by the board now on the ground. No report has yet been received from the board, and the bureau is unable at present to estimate the extent of the frauds which have been perpetrated.

5,000 Pensioners Suspended Since March 4.

WASHINGTON, July 20.—Inquiry at the Pension Office elicits the information that the total number of pensioners dropped from the rolls since March 4, 1893, was 5,000. This number of pensioners suspended since March 4, pending a further investigation of their cases, was 5,090.

STATISTICS OF IMMIGRATION.

Italy Shows an Increase and Other Countries a Decrease.

WASHINGTON, July 20.—The chief of the Bureau of Statistics reports that during the month of June there arrived at the ports of the United States from the principal foreign countries, except the British North American possessions and Mexico, 67,726 immigrants, and in June, 1892, 72,120.

During the 12 months ended June 30, 1893, the number of immigrants was 467,936, and during the preceding year, 619,820.

Of the number arrived during the 12 months ended June 30 last, 96,813 came from Germany, a decrease of 24,300; from Italy 72,405, an increase of 11,459; from Sweden and Norway, 58,872, a decrease of 3,281; from Russia, except Poland, 43,657, a decrease of 40,631, and from the United Kingdom, 108,716, a decrease of 8,332.

Change in Wool Classification.

WASHINGTON, July 20.—An important change has been made by the Treasury Department in the classification of wool that will lower the duty on some grades of the article nearly a hundred per cent. The change follows conclusive evidence offered by wool importers that certain grades of high class wool were practically analogous to grades classified lower in the wool schedule of the McKinley bill.

The Charges Overruled.

WASHINGTON, July 20.—Charges of perjury against a Japanese interpreter employed at the United States Custom house in San Francisco have been overruled by the Treasury Department.

Rear-Admiral English's Funeral.

WASHINGTON, July 20.—The funeral of Rear-Admiral Earl English took place yesterday afternoon from St. John's P. E. church. The interment was at Oak Hill cemetery.

IT WAS A CANARD.

Admitted That There Is No Truth in the Mohican Story.

PORT TOWNSEND, Wash., July 20.—It is now known that the story of the U. S. S. Mohican having been fired at by the sealing poacher Alexandria and being disabled by a return fire is a canard pure and simple.

The story was started by correspondents of Seattle papers, who practically admit that there was no foundation for it.

Opposed to the Reduction.

LONDON, July 20.—Delegates representing 248,000 miners in various parts of the country met in Birmingham yesterday to consider the proposal of the mine owners to reduce wages 25 per cent the cut to go into effect on July 28. After a lengthy and heated debate a resolution was adopted declaring that the conference was opposed to the reduction.

He Will Row John Teemer.

SAN FRANCISCO, July 20.—Henry Peterson, the oarsman, will accept the challenge of John Teemer to row any man in the world, bar Stansbury and Gaudaur, for three miles with a turn, for $2,000 a side. Peterson has put up a deposit here. He says he will try to get Teemer to row in this city in October.

The Men Would Not Quit.

PITTSBURG, Kan., July 20.—W. J. Lanyon's strip pits were visited last evening by about 100 miners who called the workmen out and talked with them in regard to stopping work. The men would not promise to quit and another meeting was decided upon.

Hackensack Cobbler Commits Suicide.

HACKENSACK, N. J., July 20.—Peter Grathwohl, a German cobbler, committed suicide last evening by hanging himself over the parlor door. He quarrelled with his wife, and she threatened to have him arrested. The neighbors say he committed suicide rather than go to jail.

MR. CLEVELAND ENTIRELY WELL.

His Rheumatic Trouble Has Disappeared —An Enjoyable Fishing Trip.

BUZZARD'S BAY, Mass., July 20.—E. C. Benedict's steam yacht Oneida, having on board President Cleveland, Dr. Bryant and the owner, dropped anchor off Monument Neck last evening. A few moments later the little launch was lowered, and the party was soon landed at the wharf at Gray Gables.

The party has been cruising since Monday along Long Island and Narragansett Bay and in the meantime doing more or less fishing.

A call at Gray Gables found the President on the veranda. He expressed himself as having had a most enjoyable cruise, and that he did not contemplate another during his stay here.

In speaking of his physical condition he said that he was in splendid health and the rheumatic trouble had entirely disappeared, for which he was truly thankful. He could not give any definite time when he would be likely to return to Washington.

After Mr. Benedict had concluded his chat with Mr. and Mrs. Cleveland, he boarded the Oneida and before sunset was well down the bay. Dr. Bryant still remains at Gray Gables.

Col. Lamont, who greatly admires the President's home, is expected here to-day.

CHICAGO, July 20.—Two men were mortally wounded and one instantly killed in a pitched battle between tramps and citizens near Sheffield, Ind.

WILL RESORT TO FORCE.

New York Farmers Maddened at the Act of Canadians.

The Latter Are Building a Dam in the St. Lawrence, to the Destruction of Crops On the American Side.

SARANAC LAKE, N. Y., July 20.—The dam being built by the Canadians in the St. Lawrence river opposite Fraser's Landing is causing the overflow of thousands of acres of crops on the American side of the river.

The farmers for miles around are becoming desperate. They have appealed to the State Department at Washington, but as yet no action has been taken in the case.

The farmers say they will resort to force unless the Government comes to their assistance.

GOT THE BEST OF TAURUS.

A 75-Year Old Man Bestrides An Infuriated Bull.

SARANAC LAKE, N. Y., July 20.—James Mullens, of Lake Titus, while in his pasture yesterday saw a ferocious bull belonging to a neighbor coming towards him. Mullens is 75 years old but very quick and wiry. He saw that escape by running was impossible; so he dodged the bull and springing on the animal's back held on firmly for ten minutes, all the time loudly calling for help.

The bull made frantic efforts to throw the old gentleman but he held fast until the owner rescued him by shooting the animal.

A year ago the bull gored a farmer to death at Moira.

DID LAFARGE KILL HIS WIFE?

Crawford, N. Y., Excited Over What Appears to be a Murder.

MIDDLETOWN, N. Y., July 20.—The wife of William Henry Lafarge, of Crawford, Ulster county, about 12 miles from here, was found dead yesterday with several stab wounds in the chest.

Lafarge is 50 years old, his wife 33. Lafarge said that he and his wife had quarrelled, and that she, in a moment of anger, stabbed herself.

The affair has created great excitement in the neighborhood. Lafarge's story is not believed, and he has been arrested.

Mr. Gladstone Shaken Up.

LONDON, July 20.—Closely following upon the shaking up received by the Prince of Wales in St. James street a couple of days ago by the collision of his hansom with another comes a somewhat similar accident to Prime Minister Gladstone. The latter was proceeding to the House of Commons when his brougham collided with a van in Parliament square. Mr. Gladstone, though he received no serious injury, was considerably shaken up.

Republican League Headquarters Closed.

NEW YORK, July 20.—The headquarters of the National Republican League in this city were formally closed yesterday and effects shipped to Chicago, where the future headquarters will be established. Mr. Andrew B. Humphrey, the secretary of the league, has left for Chicago, where he will arrange for the opening of the new headquarters on Aug. 7.

THE HOMESTEAD CASES.

Gallagher and Davidson Before the District Attorney.

The Former's Confession Said to Implicate Not Only Pinkertons, But Prominent Business and Professional Men.

PITTSBURG, July 20.—At the Western Penitentiary yesterday District Attorney Clarence Burleigh, attorneys L. K. Porter and W. J. Brennen, Notary Public C. C. Lee and Stenographer J. Beal met to take the depositions of Gallagher and Davidson, serving time in the Homestead poisoning cases.

Gallagher was before the committee over two hours. The district attorney conducted the examination, but declined to give out anything for publication.

It was learned, however, that Gallagher's confession in regard to Hugh Dempsey and the Homestead poison case is much more sweeping in its details than had been imagined by the general public. A gentleman who has heard the whole story says Gallagher's statement not only implicates Pinkerton detectives, but several men much more prominent in business and professional life.

He stated positively, the gentleman said, that every word he said against Dempsey on the stand was false. He implicates Detective Ford, of the Pinkerton Agency, and gives the names of many others who were instrumental in Dempsey's conviction.

He further states that he never administered poison or croton oil to the men at Homestead and that Dempsey never proposed that he should. He sticks to the story that the $35 Dempsey gave him was a loan to protect his furniture. To substantiate this the defence will show by members of the firm who sold him the furniture that they were pushing him for the money.

Davidson made a statement similar to the Gallagher story, except that he was not in the plot as long as the men who convicted Dempsey. They both seemed willing to make their confession under oath and stand by it even if it means a lengthening of their terms of imprisonment. Dempsey's attorneys have matters so that they will corroborate the confessions by other witnesses.

His Name is Not Correiro.

NEW BEDFORD, Mass., July 20.—Jose Correiro was to have been arraigned in the Superior Court yesterday for the murder of Bertha Manchester, but his counsel entered a plea of misnomer, declaring that the prisoner's name is Jose Correa de Mello and not Jose Correiro, as stated in the indictment, and praying that the said indictment be quashed and abated. The plea was accepted and another session of the grand jury will be held.

One Hundred Are Implicated.

ROME, July 20.—The Tribuna gives a semi-official confirmation of the report that 100 hundred Senators, members of the Chamber of Deputies and journalists are implicated in the Banca Romana scandals.

$575,000 in Gold from Europe.

NEW YORK, July 20.—The steamship Yumuri, which has arrived from Havana, brought $375,000 foreign gold consigned to the Western National Bank. It will be deposited in the United States Assay Office.

NEWS OF THE DAY.

Rev. John Allison, one of the best known Presbyterian preachers in the country, died yesterday at St. Paul, Minn.

The Tucker Men's Furnishing Co., of Denver, made an assignment yesterday; liabilities $8,000; mostly in the east.

Fire yesterday burned out the wholesale hoot and shoe store of J. M. McDonnell, at Troy. The aggregate loss is about $30,000.

Mr. Quinby, the United States Minister to The Hague, has received his final instructions, and will sail for his post on Saturday.

The funeral of Miss Garrett, the deaf mute instructor who committed suicide in Chicago, will take place at her former home, Chester, Pa., on Saturday.

THE DREAD SCOURGE

Cholera Has Made Its Appearance at Naples.

FOUR FATAL CASES REPORTED.

A British Steamship Held in Quarantine at Cardiff With the Plague Aboard. Health Officials in New York Taking Extraordinary Precautions.

WASHINGTON, July 20.—Surgeon-General Wyman has received the following cablegram from Passed Assistant Surgeon G. B. Young at Naples:

"Cholera in Naples. Four fatal cases Sunday and Monday. Widely scattered. Bacillus in all. Origin unraised. No cases since Monday."

CHOLERA ON A BRITISH SHIP.

The Blue Jacket Detained in Quarantine at Cardiff.

CARDIFF, July 20.—The British steamer Blue Jacket, from Marseilles, has arrived here.

She had cholera on board and was ordered in quarantine.

The Blue Jacket sailed from Kertch, in the Crimea, on June 24. She called at Constantinople and proceeded thence to Marseilles, from which port she came direct to Cardiff.

Cholera in Moscow.

LONDON, July 20.—The cholera is rampant among the poorer classes of Moscow. There have been no cases thus far in St. Petersburg. In Podolio and other interior places the death rate has not been lessened.

VIGILANCE IN THE METROPOLIS.

The New York Board of Health Looking Out for Cholera.

NEW YORK, July 20.—"The utmost vigilance is being observed on the part of the Bureau of Contagious Diseases to detect the slightest indication of cholera."

Dr. Doty, the chief of this division of the Health Department, made this statement this morning:

In every case where there appears to be a suspicious indication of the infection, immediate and searching inquiry is instituted, resulting in a bacteriological examination of the case.

The two cases of cholera morbus, Tillie Kruel and Collano Castro, were not reported to the Health Department, and Dr. Doty said that the report to the effect that residents were terrified, apprehending that the patients were afflicted with cholera, was erroneous and needlessly alarming.

The fact remains, though that too much watchfulness on the part of the people of the tenement district, cannot be observed. A physician, who has been long connected with the Bureau of Contagious Diseases, stated that he had made a thorough study of the habits of the people of the East side, and he unhesitatingly said that, should cholera break out in that section of the city, it would be hard to reckon the extent of the disaster which would be sure to follow.

"Let the disease get hold of the poor people who reside in that part of New York, included in Houston street and the Bowery, down to the Bridge, and the ravages of the infection would be frightful."

The physician added, however, that he felt sure that cholera would not reach this city, because of the fact that Health Officer Jenkins and his aides had so much of a reputation at stake, to become careless, and as thorough watchfulness was the means that was very sure to bar the disease out, that function would not suffer neglect.

NORTHERN PACIFIC AFFAIRS.

Rumors that the Road Was to Go Into the Hands of a Receiver Denied.

NEW YORK, July 20.—The story that was current yesterday that the Northern Pacific was in danger of passing into the hands of a receiver is authoritatively denied by President Oakes, who also stated that there is no difficulty with the guarantee syndicate which is to finance the company's new collateral loan for $12,000,000.

Treasurer Baxter and Henry Clews, of the security holders' committee, corroborate President Oakes. It is announced that the company has just gained an important suit, involving the possession of several million acres of timber land along the Columbia River.

The decision was rendered by the United States court at Tacoma, Wash. The case was a test one, involving the question of the priority of a grant of land to the Northern Pacific over a grant to the Oregon & California. The Interior Department sustained the latter, but the courts have decided in favor of the former.

Rev. Russell Changes His Faith.

NEW YORK, July 20.—The Rev. Edwin Benjamin Russell, the well-known rector of the American Chapel in Florence, has abandoned the Protestant Episcopal Church and has been received in the Roman Catholic Church by Archbishop Corrigan. Father Van Rensselaer, of St. Francis Xavier's, who had a great deal to do with the conversion of Father Adams, is a friend of Mr. Russell, and his change of faith is largely due to him.

Retired Banker Accidentally Killed.

FRANKLIN, Pa., July 20.—R. L. Cochran of this city, a wealthy retired banker, was accidentally killed on his farm yesterday by the discharge of a rifle he was carrying. Just how the accident occurred is not known. It was at first reported that he had committed suicide, but the evidence produced before the coroner's jury tended to show that his death was the result of an accident.

Assaulted a Little Child.

AMSTERDAM, N. Y., July 20.—William Kane, a notorious ruffian and jail bird, was arrested yesterday and held by a justice of the peace to await the action of the Montgomery county grand jury on the charge of assaulting a little girl. The child was seriously injured. Kane has been in prison several times for similar offences.

Will Be Sent to an Asylum.

BOSTON, July 20.—Dr. Jelly and other medical experts have arrived at the conclusion that Alice L. Morse, who shot Dr. W. T. Swartswell a few weeks ago, was insane at the time and is now. The case comes up in court to-morrow and it is probable that Morse will be sent to an insane asylum.

Jumped Down a Precipice.

PATERSON, N. J., July 20.—William Wilson, 50 years old, yesterday afternoon by committed suicide jumping from the top of a sandstone quarry to the Valley of the Rocks, a distance of 110 feet. When picked up his body was in a shapeless mass.

MARTYRS TO HEADACHES.

The Experience of Miss Louise Lincoln Tucker, a Boston Saleswoman.

The women who are martyrs to sick headaches are numbered by thousands, and among the victims none suffer more than the employes in stores and shops, says the Lynn Sunday News.

Their work is confining, the hours are long, and the surroundings are often such as to aggravate any tendency to headaches.

The experience of one of the best known clerks in Chandler & Co.'s large store on Winter st., Boston, is worthy the attention of all who are similarly situated.

Miss Louise Lincoln Tucker has been employed in this establishment for the past four years, and during that time, as for years before, she has suffered with sick headaches to such an extent as to compel her many times to leave her business and return to her home in West Roxbury.

So violent have these attacks been that she has often been unable to walk from the store to the depot, and has been compelled to call a carriage.

This succession of tortures continued until last March, when Miss Tucker's attention was attracted by the story of another woman's experience, published in a Boston paper.

She has spent large amounts of money on physicians, who had been unable to relieve her sufferings; she decided to try the merits of the highly extolled Paine's celery compound.

She took it without the knowledge of her family or friends.

But the change in her appearance soon attracted the attention of the members of her family and her business associates, and, thoroughly convinced, she one day told how Paine's celery compound had wrought for her the cure which physicians had been unable to accomplish.

For the first time in the years of her employment she had gone through an entire month without a return of the attacks, and not only a relief but an absolute cure has been effected by the compound.

So grateful is Miss Tucker for the cure in her case, that she is willing to let all who suffer as she did, know of the only remedy she ever found.

ASSAULTED BY A TRAMP.

A Prominent Palmer, Mass., Man Receives Perhaps Fatal Injuries.

PALMER, Mass., July 20.—A cowardly and brutal assault, that may prove a murder and result in the death of one of Palmer's wealthiest and most prominent citizens, was made yesterday afternoon on W. S. Lawrence at a farm about a mile and a half from the village. Mr. Lawrence had recently purchased the farm and was calling on a neighbor when a tramp appeared and asked for work. Mr. Lawrence said he could give him a job unloading hay in his barn and would go and show him where to put it.

While standing on the barn floor giving the fellow directions he was suddenly struck on the back of the head with a stone in the hand of the tramp and nearly knocked down. He recovered his equilibrium, only to receive a fearful blow in the mouth, another on the left eye and more on top of the head.

He ran for the house, followed by his assailant. A young man at the house saw him and ran out with a shotgun, and as the tramp made off, fired at him, wounding him in the leg.

An alarm was at once given, and the neighbors turned out in pursuit of the fellow, who had taken to the woods. The fire bells were rung and a large company joined in the chase, but so far the fellow has eluded his pursuers.

Brazilian Building Dedicated.

CHICAGO, July 20.—The Brazilian building was dedicated yesterday before a cosmopolitan audience, amid much enthusiasm.

MARKHAM ON THE STAND

The Rear Admiral Testifies Concerning the Victoria Disaster.

When He First Saw Tryon's Signal Noticed, He Said That the Manœuvre Was an Impracticable One.

VALETTA, July 20.—The court martial which is trying certain of the officers of the warship Victoria for losing their vessel off Tripoli, Syria, resumed its sittings yesterday.

The first witness called was Rear Admiral Markham, whose flag was flying on the Camperdown at the time she ran into and sank the Victoria. His official despatches to the Admiralty reporting the fact and the details of the disaster were read, and he stated that he had nothing to add to these despatches.

When questioned as to the impression made upon him when the signal of Vice-Admiral Tryon was hoisted on the Victoria ordering that the distance between the two columns be six cable lengths, Rear Admiral Markham replied that when the signal was read he said to his flag lieutenant:

"That is impossible, since it is an impracticable manœuvre."

It afterwards occurred to the witness that he was to put the helm on the Camperdown down and turn her sixteen points to starboard, while the Victoria would ease her helm and circle round on the outside of the division which was being led by the Camperdown.

Rear Admiral Markham further said that he had conferred with his flag lieutenant and captain, and that both concurred in his assumption that the Victoria was to pass round on the outside of the Camperdown.

Had this assumption been founded on fact the manœuvre would have been attended by no danger. When he discovered that his assumption was wrong he watched the Victoria's helm signal with the closest attention.

The rear admiral stated that he was cognizant of Vice-Admiral Tyron's memorandum in regard to discretionary obedience of orders when strict obedience would entail disaster.

The "Highland Park" Land Scheme.

ROME, N. Y., July 20.—Two men from Chattanooga, Tenn., came here yesterday to investigate the value of city lots in "Highland Park," of which they had a printed map. There is no such place in this town. The locality mentioned is worthless. The scheme of selling lots in that locality is an old one and originates from Rochester.

HERE'S A PRETTY MESS.

Another Interesting Tangle Grows Out of the Van Ness Fire Night.

Patrick Haines was arrested yesterday on complaint of James Hennessey, for striking him and calling him names, on East Second street. The story of the cause of the fight as told to judge Coddington in the city court this morning, was so mixed, and the testimony so contradictory, that the case was adjourned until Saturday morning at 9.

It seems that a horse belonging to Hennessy followed another horse belonging to Haines away from home and wandered into "Count" Van Ness's cornfield, where the animal ate corn to his stomach's content. Van Ness claimed damages for the injury to his corn, and settled with Hennessey that he should have the use of the horse for a day and drive him down to Boynton Beach. The horse broke down when on the way home, and Van Ness left him at a farm house, and returned to Plainfield to find his house burned down. Hennessy did not like this, and, it seems, called Haines names, because Haines's horse, he thought, was the cause of his troubles. It will be known which was to blame after the trial Saturday morning.

Accuse Their Ex-Treasurer.

THE DEADLY STOVE.

This Time Kerosene Gets in Its Fine Work.

A kerosene stove in the kitchen of freeholder A. Vanderbeek on Second place caught fire from a leak in the reservoir yesterday afternoon about 4.

Mr. Vanderbeek's daughter, Mrs. John Shotwell, and one of the maid servants, were in the kitchen at the time, and they spent about ten minutes in the vain endeavor to put out the blaze. At the expiration of that time they called for help, and Mr. Peck, who lives near by, and a colored man, responded to the summons. They doused the stove with water, smothered it with a piece of carpet, and then took the whole thing out in the back yard. Through the coolness and presence of mind of all concerned, the fire was put out without any disturbance, and without calling out the apparatus. The only damage was a partly singed carpet.

NOT MOODY AND SANKEY.

But Moody and Norwood, and They Have a Lively Time.

Dennis Moody and John Norwood, two colored waiters at the Hotel Netherwood, had an altercation this morning over an apron. They came to blows, and had it hot and heavy for a few minutes, when Moody broke away and started to go out through the door. Norwood picked up a bottle, and struck the retreating Moody over the head, and laid the scalp open down to the bone. Both men were brought before judge Coddington, who fined Norwood $25 and advised Moody that he could have a State complaint made against him for assault and battery. It is thought that Moody will push such a complaint.

PARTICULAR MENTION.

Seashore pleasures are fascinating Miss Kittie R. Fisher of West Fourth street.

Mrs. Alexander Manning is visiting her sister on Staten Island for a week or two.

Fred B. Schomp, one of Wm. W. Wilson's bright clerks, is spending a week in the country.

The attractions of Ocean Grove are holding George H. Fairchild and family at the shore.

The Rev. William Miller of this city will preach in the Park Avenue Baptist church, Sunday.

District deputy Bowman, of this city, installed the new officers of the Roselle Knights of Pythias last night.

Mrs. Horace Kimball and Miss Lucy H. Everett have gone from George's Mills, N. H., to the Colby House, South Duxbury, Mass.

John Cuthbert, who has a host of warm friends in Plainfield, paid his respects to THE PRESS yesterday. He is living in Titusville, Pa.

It is understood that the production of "As You Like It", of which these columns have spoken, will be on the beautiful grounds of Charles Hyde.

Ramsey Blair of East Second street has greatly beautified his home by painting and making extensive improvements, including all modern appliances.

Mrs. Caroline Vail, an estimable octogenarian of East Second and Washington streets, fell and dislocated her shoulder. It is sincerely hoped the injury will not result seriously.

Senator W. T. Dougan of Gloversville, N. Y., is the guest of judge Charles K. Moore of Fanwood. THE PRESS was pleased this morning to make the acquaintance of the rising young statesman.

Mrs. Ann Naylor, mother of the wife of ex-borough-councilman David R. Weaver, died Saturday noon at her home, White House, Hunterdon county, age 88. She was buried in Rural Hill cemetery, near her late home, Tuesday afternoon, and her funeral was largely attended.

A number of the many friends of Bert Rogers, the genial assistant manager of the City Hotel, were gathered at that place last evening by the rumor of his coming marriage, which was reported to take place at 8:30. He was arrayed for the occasion in a well-fitting evening suit, a new gold watch and diamond ring, but for some reason the ceremony was postponed.

A truly welcome guest in THE PRESS sanctum to-day was Andrew E. Kenney, who left such a successful business career in Plainfield and went west in the interests of the Catholic Benevolent Legion and for the benefit of his health. Mr. Kenney is looking fine, and is in good health and spirits. He will stay in Plainfield two or three weeks and return to his western field. He has done great work for the Legion, and won many warm friends in the cities he has visited.

Good Excursion Showing.

The Trinity excursionists yesterday had a good trip going and coming. There was no accident, and all had a delightful day. The Sunday-school of more than 300 were all taken free. The members and friends of the church patronized the excursion to such an extent that only a small deficiency resulted. Sunday-school excursions are always expected to lose more than did this.

They Lose a Good Officer.

Bergen D. N. Carter, president of the Young People's Society of Christian Endeavor of Trinity Reformed church, has tendered his resignation to the executive committee of the society, and Miss E. C. Benedict, first vice-president, will fill his unexpired term. Mr. Carter intends to leave Plainfield in a few days, hence his resignation.

Everything Serene Again.

Charles K. Moore has withdrawn his water-works suit against the city.

One of my children had a very bad discharge from her nose. Two physicians prescribed, but without benefit. We tried Ely's Cream Balm, and much to our surprise, there was a marked improvement. We continued using the Balm and in a short time the discharge was cured.—D. A. Ozey, Corning, N. Y.

The children's health must not be neglected. Cold in the head causes catarrh. Ely's Cream Balm cures at once. It is perfectly safe and is easily applied into the nostrils. The worst cases yielding to it. Price 50c.

POSTMASTER POPE SAYS NO.

Those Plainfield Poles in the Borough Will Not Come Down in a Hurry.

A PRESS reporter called on postmaster E. R. Pope this morning in regard to the notice that had been served on the Plainfield Electric Light company by the North Plainfield borough council, to remove their poles and wires from all parts of the borough.

Mr. Pope said that he had received the notice but that no action would be taken until H. G. Runkle returned from central New York, where he is taking a short vacation.

"I expect him home daily," said Mr. Pope"—and then we will take action on the matter; but we won't be in any hurry about taking the poles down."

The notice calls for the removal of the poles within twenty days of the serving thereof, and is sent as the result of the action of the borough council at a meeting held July 7.

As was stated in THE PRESS of July 8 the trouble originated when the Warren chapel was taken under the wing of the Crescent Avenue church. Improvements were started, and the chapel was wired for the Westinghouse lights as supplied by the Plainfield company. Then the borough company said that those from this side of the brook had no right to supply the chapel with light, and the matter was put before the borough council, with the results stated.

Mr. Pope's statement that they will not hurry to take the poles down seems to justify the prophecy that was made in THE PRESS at the time the action was taken:

"It is believed that the Plainfield company will not yield its footing in North Plainfield without a struggle, and an interesting bit of litigation may result."

The strongest point in favor of the borough is that they claim that when the Plainfield company first put their poles in the borough it was with the distinct understanding that they should be removed on demand. It is a very pretty case, and THE PRESS and the people will watch the result with interest.

The Warren chapel people have refused to use the light furnished by the North Plainfield company, and it is not improbable that they will claim damages from the borough on account of their being deprived of light for so long a time. The street commissioner has been authorized to cut down the poles if the company does not remove them in the specified time, and the expected litigation will probably be in the character of an injunction to prevent the commissioner's doing so.

PRIESTS WHO ARE BAD.

They Run the Greek Church, and Plainfield Learns All About Them.

The chapel of the First Presbyterian church was filled to its utmost capacity last night with those who were anxious to hear the Rev. Lewis Bond and his wife tell of their missionary work in Bulgaria and Macedonia. Mr. Bond spoke for about half an hour, and Mrs. Bond sang two Bulgarian hymns and afterwards spoke for a few minutes.

Mr. Bond said that with the exception of a few Mohammedans the people in European Turkey are chiefly under the rule of the Greek church. This church as found in the provinces where the missionary work is going on is Christian only in name. There is a Turkish proverb that if you wish to find if a fish is putrid you should smell of the head. This test might be applied to the head of the Greek church, as the whole system was rotten to the core. The priests—continued Mr. Bond—are all liars, and are proud of the fact, and it is a common thing to hear expressions like "lie like a priest", "drink like a priest", "steal like a priest". He told of a funeral that took place when the priest was so drunk that he fell in the grave and the people made sport of him and threw dirt in on top of him, saying that he should be buried too. It has been asked if the Greek church was not good at bottom, if it did not hide its light under a bushel. To this Mr. Bond replied that the light was there in the form of the Scriptures and that the bushel was there, but that the priests sat on the bushel and would not let out the light. In the district over which Mr. Bond has control there are 200 communicants, 6 missionary preachers, 9 preachers from the peasantry that the Protestant church has educated, and 9 graduates from the church schools, who are all working for the same needs. They have besides these, three Christian Endeavor societies. At the close of her husband's talk, Mrs. Bond sang two Bulgarian hymns that sounded very weird. She then told an interesting story of a peasant family that were converted, and of the happiness that came out of it. Mrs. Bond spoke in a charming manner, and did much to show the true state of the family life in the wild countries where she has spent most of her life.

Plainfield Leads the State.

Under the heading "Plainfield the Boss Excursion Town", the Asbury Park Journal of yesterday said:

"To-day Asbury Park will be favored again with an excursion from Plainfield, which has come to be recognized as one of the greatest excursion towns in the State. To-morrow an excursion is due from Newark, and two days later another aggregation of pleasure seekers will come from Plainfield."

He'll Make a Hustler.

Safe, Sure and Speedy.

No external remedy ever yet devised has so fully and unquestionably met these three prime conditions as successfully as ALLCOCK'S POROUS PLASTERS. They are safe because they contain no deleterious drugs and are manufactured upon scientific principles of medicine. They are sure because nothing goes into them except ingredients which are exactly adapted to the purposes for which a plaster is required. They are speedy in their action because their medicinal qualities go right to their work of relieving pain and restoring the natural and healthy performance of the functions of muscles, nerves and skin. Do not be deceived by misrepresentation. Ask for ALLCOCK'S, and let no solicitation or explanation induce you to accept a substitute.

SUN-LIGHT and FRESH AIR are THE BEST DISINFECTANTS, of course; but you can't apply them in every situation. What next? Well, that depends. For damp cellars use Quicklime, plenty of it. For vaults and cesspools use COPPERAS; cheap stuff; we sell it by the pound or hundred-weight—instructions thrown in. For kitchen sinks, for water-closets, for house plumbing, for the sick room, to deodorize discharges, to purify the air and to prevent contagion, use REYNOLDS'S ODORLESS DISINFECTANT. TELLS OF PLAINFIELD'S MERITS.

All the World Now May Read the Stories of New Jersey's Queen of Garden-Spots.

A sumptuous little book entitled "The Central Railroad of New Jersey, Illustrated" has just been issued, and every Plainfielder will scan its pages with interest. The volume pictures the beauty-spots all along the route of the people's favorite railway, and gives faithful description of them. Of the region here and roundabout it says:

"Nineteen miles from New York, 48 minutes by rail, and you reach Westfield. Situated 168 feet above tide water, this town is remarkable for its health. The village is alternately fanned by the cooling breezes of the sea or the gentle zephyrs wafted down from the mountains of the Orange range. One of the older residents of this town tried the experiment of going out into the country to die, but it did n't work, and though this was over twenty years ago, he still prosecutes his business on 'change, as hale and hearty as ever. If you wish to know about Westfield ask him. With its public schools, especially the Lincoln high school, of which any town might be proud, its seven churches, national bank, two club-houses, and the imposing structure of the Standard publishing concern, Westfield can hold her own with any of them. The building of the Westfield Athletic club is certainly worthy of especial mention. A $25,000 club building is not often seen in a town of 3,000 inhabitants, but Westfield is abreast of the times.

"The Scots, in 1684, founded a village right in the shadow of the noble Watchung. To this day it bears the name of Scotch Plains, though the station is called Fanwood. Back in the lap of the mountains nestles the 'Deserted Village', so called because the suspension of operations at the factory there left the village untenanted. The location was too romantic to be thus neglected, and it has become one of the most lovely villages of summer residence to be found anywhere. With its beautiful lake, well-kept drives and easy access from Fanwood station, it deserves its popularity.

"The little gem of railroad architecture now upon your left is the station of a delightful suburb of Plainfield, known to the lovers of beautiful resorts as Netherwood. Here is the far-famed Netherwood hotel. This magnificent pile of brick stands out in charming contrast with its rural surroundings. This is a hotel for those who wish every elegance of the public palace and can afford to pay for it. It is under the management of its owner, F. E. Miller, who has a reputation which ensures the success of his house. Plainfield is a large city of palatial residences. Here is congregated such an abundance of opulence and culture as are seldom met with in the same area. Beautifully laid out with all the improvements of the modern city, the visitor can never tire of wandering about this later paradise, and studying the varied architecture of its homes and the beauties of its landscape gardening. Here you see a veritable old English estate, a French chateau, a Swiss chalet, and then again one of those unnamed architectural structures which are the result of an evolution, wholly American. From the 'Old Colonial' to the 'Queen Anne' is but a step. Perhaps they are side by side, or across the street one from another. It is possible that you are a trifle mixed as to architectural style; if so, do n't 'give it away'; just class the uncertain structure under the head of American composite and you will be safe.

"It is not surprising that Plainfield should have grown to its present proportions as a city of homes, for its location and surroundings are most eminently favorable. Pure water, rapid transit, cheap commutation and congenial society are among its many advantages. Fast express trains carry the commuters, some 1,500 strong, to and from the metropolis without a stop. The beautiful Blue Ridge protects it from the winds of winter and reflects the varied hues of the setting sun in summer, while on the east are the Short Hills of Revolutionary fame standing guard against the nightrack rolling up from the sea. A dry and porous soil adds to the healthfulness of the location for invalids, so that it has come to be spoken of by physicians as the 'Colorado of the East'. No city is complete without a home for the traveling man. If you stop at the Hotel Grenada, close by the station, on your first trip, the genial landlords, George and Wallace W. Miller, are sure of a second visit. The country roads of New Jersey are justly world-famous. The bicycler who desires to visit any of the towns along this line will find the policy of the road liberal toward the wheelman. The horseman or bicycle rider who is not satisfied with the roads of Union county must be fastidious indeed. These roads should be taken advantage of, and there is no danger that they will not. Visitors to Plainfield who have never ridden a wheel before are sure to get the fever, for every one in this part of New Jersey rides. It is but the natural sequence of so much riding that Plainfield should have the best equipped wheelmen's headquarters in the State. Located on the corner of Park avenue and Fourth street, it occupies two large stores and basements in an imposing brick building. These quarters comprise salesroom, offices and reading room in one store, and in the other rental and repair departments, while the basement is devoted to a repository and ware-rooms, with a large enamelling oven in the rear. A visit to this store will give you an opportunity to examine, not only the different styles of the renowned Columbia and Hartford bicycles, but, as well, numerous other leading makes. It is not bicycles alone that the visitor finds here, for the proprietor, Frank L. C. Martin, has an emporium of general sporting goods more complete than is often met with outside of the big cities. The reading room is fully equipped for the comfort of its patrons, who can purchase their "smoke" on their premises, or quench their thirst with ice-cold soda water dispensed from a large and convenient fountain. Mr. Martin, who is one of the best-known wheelmen in the State, organizer of the Great Century, (100 miles), Newark-Philadelphia run, and is also its annual pacemaker, has established a reputation for giving full value for old machines taken in exchange for new ones. If you are in for a trade, correspond with him, either in Plainfield, or the branch store which he has established at New Brunswick. Grant avenue and Evona are suburban stations of Plainfield. At Dunellen, the next stop, was founded the Seventh-Day Baptist congregation, which has since exerted so great an influence in these parts. Back on the mountain from here stands the historic Washington Rock, where the 'Father of his Country' kept his tireless vigil on the movements of the British."

The book quotes verbatim from the columns of THE PRESS a considerable portion of Walter Irving Clarke's description of Mizzen Peak, J. T. Vail's charming site on top of the mountain beyond Washington Rock, and gives a picture of the incomparable view there to be obtained. Pictures are also given of Wetumpka Falls, Sebring's Mills, Hotel Grenada and THE PRESS office, and Fanwood homes. The seashore along the Jersey Central's Long Branch route is similarly treated.

The letter text of the book is in pleasant, chatty narrative style, from the facile pen of Ralph Moreton Hooker, who is also getting up THE PRESS souvenir of Plainfield and Westfield, with pictures of Plainfield's homes and streets. It is an excellent sample of what may be expected in the Plainfield book.

The publication is in the highest style of the engraver's and printer's arts, and is under the copyright of H. P. Baldwin, the gifted and eminently capable general passenger agent of the Jersey Central road. In the book, which will have world-wide circulation, Mr. Baldwin has a good thing for his road and for the towns of its route. But then only good things are to be expected from Mr. Baldwin.

THAT POOR ITALIAN!

Plainfield's Councilmanic Innocence Surprises the Metropolis.

(From the Sabbath Recorder.)

The World's Fair is not alone in the enjoyment of an unusual distinction growing out of the Sunday agitation. Other places seem to catch the inspiration, and while Sunday trains on the great thoroughfares go thundering through country, village, and city; while trolley street cars are built and run on Sunday, hacks, hotels, livery stables, excursions, post office, games, etc., etc., are carried on the same as on other days. But here comes a poor Italian selling peanuts and he must become an example. Over his devoted head the law must be maintained! All the dignity and force of the city administration must be invoked, and even the city ordinance must be amended, not to reach hacks, railways, saloons, livery stables, etc., but the man who sells peanuts or candy or perhaps a necktie and collar!

The New York World devotes over one column to the matter under the large head lines, "Plainfield in a Dilemma", and the next day the New York Tribune speaks out as follows:

There has been a remarkable increase of late in the sect known as Seventh-Day Baptists in Plainfield, N. J. This circumstance would not call for comment were it not that action by the city authorities has become necessary in consequence of this growth. The Seventh-Day Baptists observe Saturday as the Sabbath, and by a special ordinance those of them who keep shops have been permitted to have them open on Sunday. Advantage has been taken of this arrangement by persons who claim to be Seventh-Day Baptists, but who are such for revenue only; that is, in this way they are enabled to carry on business seven days in the week. The surprising thing in the matter is the innocence of the city authorities who supposed that no one would take advantage of the ordinance referred to except those whom it was designed to benefit.

The Usual Way of That Shop.

Mr. Shelley, owner of the steam merry-go-round, is justly incensed at the statement in the Courier last evening that young Lusardi broke his arm by falling off the machine. Mr. Shelley called at the Courier office and demanded that the false statement be contradicted, as it was not true and would injure his business. Correction was refused, and counselor Hetfield was employed to bring suit. In consequence, in the Courier of to-night it will all be contradicted.

Shiloh's Cough Cure.

This is beyond question the most successful Cough Medicine we have eversold; a few doses invariably cure the worst cases of Cough, Croup and Bronchitis, while its wonderful success in the cure of Consumption is without a parallel in the history of medicine. Since its first discovery it has been sold on a guarantee, a test which no other medicine can stand. If you have a cough we earnestly ask you to try it. Price, 10c. and 51. If your lungs are sore, chest, or back lame, use Shiloh's Porous Plaster. Sold by A. D. Mallinson, 65 North Avenue, opposite railroad station. 5-16-y

Children Cry for Pitcher's Castoria.

When Baby was sick, we gave her Castoria.
When she was a Child, she cried for Castoria.
When she became Miss, she clung to Castoria.
When she had Children, she gave them Castoria.

AS WE LIKE IT.

And now I see THE PRESS avers
Our gallant Plainfield amateurs
For fame are going to strike it,
And we shall wake some sunny morn,
To find upon a local lawn
Bill Shakespeare's "As You Like It".

Of course 't will be most ably done,
For many varied talents run
A riot in our players,
And still I pray two things to know,
And trust that out of time will grow
The answers to my prayers.

I want to ask whom we have got,
In our aristocratic lot,
Who has the strength of heart,
To dress himself decollete,
And unreservedly essay
Bold Charles the Wrestler's part?

And what sweet, gentle girl have we,
Possessed of the temerity,
To faithfully portray
Coy Rosalind in this great show,
For Rosalind wears tights, you know,
In Mr. Shakespeare's play!

THE CHUMP.

A CRUSHING DEFEAT.

The Great Francis Pounded All Over the Lot by Plainfield's Heavy Hitters.

That excellent young pitcher, Harry Francis, was batted out of the box by the Plainfield Crescents on the New Brunswick grounds yesterday afternoon. Just look at the day's great record:

World's Fair Philanthropists.

Messrs. Boddie Bros., wealthy Chicago gentlemen, having the interest of their city at heart, and desiring to disprove the falsity of the statement that only in boarding houses can be found moderate priced accommodations during the World's Fair, remodeled and furnished at great expense one of their famous absolutely fire-proof business structures, located corner of Franklin and Jackson streets, within short walking distance of the Union depots, theaters, post office, board of trade, steam, elevated, cable roads and steamboats to the World Fair, furnished newly throughout five hundred rooms, superb parlors, elevators, electric lights, exhaust fans to keep cool entire building, named this property The Great Western Hotel, and invited the public to take their choice of rooms for $1 per day, children 5 to 12 fifty cents. Elegant restaurant and dining rooms where fine meals are served at 50 cents, or a la carte at very moderate prices.

There would be less heard or known of extortion and imposition connected with the World's Fair were there more public spirited, fair minded men in Chicago as are the owners and proprietors of The Great Western Hotel. Our readers should write as early as possible to secure rooms, for they are being taken up rapidly.—St. Paul Daily News.

Young in Heart, Though Old in Years.

WHEREAS, Our Heavenly Father in his infinite wisdom has permitted the last earthly good-bye and transferred from mortality to immortality our beloved brother, Theodore J. Gillies, and

WHEREAS, We, the members of the Exempt Firemen's association, not only conscious of our own loss, but in sympathy with the deep sorrow of his bereaved family, do hereby Resolve, That we extend to those nearest and dearest to our departed brother, our heartfelt sympathy in their greater loss—a loving husband, a tender father, a kind brother—while we mourn the loss of one who was respected in his official capacity, beloved in all his associations, honored for his Christian character and kindly deeds. Our elder brother, honored with length of days, though ever young in heart; now exempted from life's duties, its pleasures and adversities.

Resolved, That in fidelity to his memory, our rooms be draped in mourning for a suitable period, that these resolutions be placed on our records, a copy sent to his family, and further published through the daily papers.

Beloved, Respected and Honored.

WHEREAS: The Supreme Ruler has seen fit in his infinite wisdom to remove from our midst the beloved husband, and our brother, William L. Force; therefore be it

Resolved, That the Exempt Firemen's association has lost a worthy and esteemed member; one who was beloved for his kindly nature, and to a high degree respected and honored by his fellow citizens, and be it further

Resolved, That while offering to the memory of our departed brother our full tribute of love and respect, we extend to his bereaved wife and near relatives our heartfelt sympathy in this their sad hour of affliction.

Resolved, That in further commemoration, our rooms be draped in mourning for thirty days, and that these resolutions be placed upon the minute book of the association. Also

Resolved, That a copy of these resolutions be sent to the afflicted family and published in the daily papers.

TRIED TO BREAK UNCLE SAM.

Banker Fisk of Plainfield Thwarts a Shabby Sheeny Trick.

What was construed as a bear trick to depress the stock market was thwarted by the use of Plainfield gold. On Tuesday, in the board room of the Stock Exchange, broker George W. Stern, acting for A. J. Well & Co., offered $50,000 in Government 4 per cent. bonds at 110 3-4, "payable in currency". The offer was one-quarter below the regular market price, and was promptly accepted by Pliny Fisk of Harvey Fisk & Sons, who suspected a speculative scheme of some sort. Plainfield's Seventh street resident consulted with some bankers and procured $5 and $10 pieces to make the payment of $55,375. A. J. Well appeared in person with the bonds yesterday morning, and when he was offered the gold refused to accept it.

"Currency was stipulated," said Mr. Well.

"Gold is the best kind of currency," replied Mr. Fisk.

"But I won't take gold," said Mr. Well. "I want paper money."

"If you don't deliver the bonds and take this gold before the delivery hour" (2:15 p. m.), said Mr. Fisk, "I shall buy in the bonds on the Stock Exchange."

A. J. Well went away, and Henry G. Well, the "board member" of his firm, who gave the order to broker Stern, appeared later, and, after a conversation similar to the preceding one with Mr. Fisk, took his departure.

At 1:35 p. m. a cab drove up with clerks from Mr. Well's office, who delivered the bonds and carted off the gold, which weighed 215 pounds.

"There was no bear trick," said Mr. Well later. "We sold the bonds for a customer who desired currency—paper money—for them. We were simply put to inconvenience by Mr. Fisk. The customer took the gold".

"I believe", said Mr. Fisk, "that the idea in selling the bonds below the market 'for currency' was to make out that there are not paper notes enough in New York to pay for the best security in the world. I determined to spoil the game. I could get the currency to pay for $5,000,000 of bonds to-morrow. Had the scheme succeeded, I presume it would have been telegraphed through the country and to Europe. It is the first time that the credit or ability of the government has been brought into question on the Stock Exchange".

There was some talk of bringing charges before the Governing Committee against Well & Co. for "conduct detrimental to the best interests of the Exchange".

Mr. Fisk has been highly complimented by the leading bankers of New York for his extraordinary astuteness and the good care he took of the government's interests. The president of the Stock Exchange said that Mr. Fisk should have the full support of the Exchange, and a million in gold if necessary to sustain the Government's credit.

Sharpsville, Pa., Firm Closed Up.

SHARON, Pa., July 20.—Sheriff Burnett, of Mercer, yesterday, at the instance of Attorney Ingersoll, of Cleveland, O., served writs of attachment on the Douglass Furnace company, of Sharpsville, foreclosing a judgment of $100,000 in favor of Corrigan, Ives & Co., of Cleveland; an attachment issued by the Creston Lime company, limited, to the amount of $1,500; one issued by the Exchange National bank, of Chicago, for $25,000, and one by the Wisconsin Marine and Fire Insurance Company bank for $125,000. This aggregates $330,500.

Hutchinson, Kas., Bank Fails.

HUTCHINSON, Kan., July 20.—Owing to financial stringency making it impossible to secure currency sufficient to meet its demands, the Hutchinson National Bank did not open its doors yesterday, but posted notice of suspension of payment. Assets, $351,000; liabilities, $131,000. The bank was in good condition and under ordinary pressure would not have experienced any difficulty.

Nurserymen in Financial Difficulties.

ROCHESTER, N. Y., July 20.—The firm of May Brothers, composed of Fred N. and L. L. May, nurserymen, doing business in Rochester and St. Paul, Minn., is in financial difficulties. Judgments against the members of the firm aggregating $5,000 have been taken by the Union bank and executions levied thereon.

New York Importers Fail.

NEW YORK, July 20.—Adolph Cohen, Gustave Saenger and Isidor Cohen, composing the firm of Cohen & Co., lace importers at No. 117 Prince street, have confessed judgment aggregating $15,481.45. Liabilities $40,000; nominal assets $80,000.

Oklahoma Bank Closes.

OKLAHOMA CITY, July 20.—The Bank of Oklahoma City and the Oklahoma National Bank closed their doors yesterday afternoon. There was a heavy run on the First National, but it withstood it all right.

Two Failures at Greeley, Col.

GREELEY, Col., July 20.—The Union Bank closed its doors yesterday afternoon, and half an hour later the Greeley National pulled down its blinds.

Assignment at Buffalo.

BUFFALO, July 20.—The Meech Brothers of the Academy of Music have made a general assignment. There are no preferred creditors.

Receiver for the Order of Equity.

BOSTON, July 20.—N. Sumner Myrick has been appointed receiver of the Order of Equity, one of the few remaining endowment orders.

Colored Waiter Drowned.

FRONTENAC, N. Y., July 20.—William Allen, a colored waiter at the Frontenac Hotel, Round Island, St. Lawrence River, was drowned before a crowd of people about 100 feet from the dock last evening.

Oh, What a Cough!

Will you heed the warning. The signal perhaps of the sure approach of that more terrible disease, Consumption. Ask yourselves if you can afford for the sake of saving 50c., to run the risk and do nothing for it. We know from experience that Shiloh's Cure will cure your cough. It never fails. This explains why more than a Million Bottles were sold the past year. It relieves croup and whooping cough at once. Mothers, do not be without it. For lame back, side or chest, use Shiloh's Porous Plaster. Sold by A. D. Mallinson, 65 North Ave. opposite railroad station. 5-15-y

LITTLE TOMMY'S TREE.

It Bears All Kinds of Queer and Delicious Fruit.

Tommy had seen men planting trees in the avenue in front of grandpapa's house, so he thought he would like to plant one, too. He thought a good place to plant his tree would be behind the yard gate where the other boys wouldn't see it. So he dug a hole there with his little spade. When it was all ready he began to look around for a tree to put in it. He tried to pull up a young elm in the garden, but it wouldn't come. It was too big. But all the trees were very hard to pull up. At last, just when Tommy was beginning to feel badly, he wandered into the woodshed. There, over in a dark corner, his quick eyes spied the very thing—a dear, dear little tree that he could lift with one hand. To be sure, it was only a baby Christmas tree that had lain here since the winter, and the brown prickly leaves all fell off when Tommy touched them, but he thought that didn't matter, because new green ones would be sure to come out directly. So he chuckled with delight as he lifted the little tree and carried it out in triumph to the hole in the ground behind the yard gate. It was "just a jolly fit," he said to himself as he shoveled back the earth into the hole and stamped it down with his feet to make it firm.

Then he ran into the house to tell grandpapa and grandmama and his aunties about his tree. They all came out to look at it, and said it was lovely; and Tommy felt so pleased that he promised, if apples grew on his tree, to give them one apiece all round.

The next day Tommy went to look at his tree to see if leaves had come out. Not a single one! Grandpapa said he thought it must be because the place was too shady, so Tommy pulled the tree up again and set it in a sunny spot under the kitchen window.

"I think that's better, gran'pa," he said, as he rested from his labor.

Now it happened that for several days after that, the weather being wet, Tommy did not go to his grandfather's. But at last one morning the sun shone out fine and bright, and the little fellow thought he would run around to look at his tree. Without saying a word to anyone he let himself in by the yard gate, and ran straight to the sunny spot under the kitchen window.

"Hurrah! Gran'pa, gran'pa. Come quick, come and see the lovely flowers that's growed on my tree," shouted Tommy, his eyes sparkling as he clapped his hands and fairly danced with joy.

Grandpapa came out smiling, and sure enough he saw that the dry and dusty little Christmas tree was fairly covered with—what do you think?—the most beautiful morning-glories, white and blue and pink, standing out from among their lovely green leaves as if they were saying "Good-morning to you!" It was wonderful! Tommy was as proud and happy as could be. As he was a very polite and thoughtful little boy he plucked one of the prettiest blossoms for grandmama, and carried it carefully into the house.

Tommy's grandmamma and grandpapa, who were very fond of their little boy, were pleased to see him so happy about his tree, and promised, when he was not there, to let no one hurt or interfere with it. But one day, when no one was looking, Pretty, the white kitten, got to playing with the branches, and alas! when she was found out she had destroyed all the sweet flowers and leaves of the morning glories. This was too bad. Tommy felt it very much; but then, do you know, the strangest thing happened. One day, shortly after, grandpapa told him to go and look at his tree, and there on the top branch hung a big ripe yellow banana. This was even better than morning glories.

Tommy plucked the fruit and found it delicious. And, ever since, from time to time, when Tommy visits his tree, he finds the most delicious surprises. Sometimes it is an orange, sometimes an apple, or a bunch of grapes that grows on it in a single night, and though there are never any leaves on the bare dry branches, Tommy doesn't mind, because, being not quite five years old, he still thinks things to eat are nicer than things to to look at. Now wouldn't all the little tots like to have a tree like Tommy's? Perhaps if they do as he did they will meet with the same success.—Once a Week.

A Strange Operation.

A little boy whose father never uses a razor was much amazed and interested on the morning after his arrival at his uncle's house to see that gentleman shaving.

"Why, Uncle Fred!" he exclaimed, after watching the operation for a few moments, "I don't see what makes you wash your face with that little broom, and wipe it off with a knife. Papa doesn't!"

Well Answered.

A little boy and a little girl were left at the table after their elders had departed. The boy took up a piece of pie in his fingers and began to eat it.

"Tut! tut!" said his sister. "Better eat with your fork—not with your fingers."

"Well," said the boy, his mouth full, "fingers were made before knives and forks!"

"Maybe," said the girl, "but I guess yours weren't!"

A Dead Give Away.

"So they discovered him in spite of the fact that he was disguised as a woman," said one detective to another.

"Yes."

"How did they find out he was a man?"

"They got him into a game of cards and he always knew what the trump was."—Washington Star.

A Sad Case.

Mr. Amsterdam married the sister of his deceased wife after he had been a widower about a month. A friend who had been absent some time asked him for whom he was wearing a mourning band on his hat.

"For my poor sister-in-law," replied Amsterdam, swallowing a big lump.—What a Pity.

Doctor (who had been married to a widow)—You see, wifey, dear, I have pulled my patient through, after all; a very critical case, I can tell you.

Wife—Yes, hubby; but, then, you are so clever in your profession. Ah! if I had only known you five years earlier. I feel certain my first husband, my poor Thomas, would have been saved.—Boston Globe.

A Blessing in Disguise.

Carrie Lamode—So we're not going to have crinoline, after all! What a pity we were all so wrought up about it!

May Saver—I don't think it's a pity at all. Papa bought me the material for two new gowns, and now I can have six made out of it.—Puck.

Reason Enough.

"One thing more," said Mrs. McBride to the applicant for a place, after other details had been arranged satisfactorily. "Why did you leave your last place?"

"The woman of the house wanted three evenings out a week," was the satisfactory reply.—Judge.

PUBLIC SALE OF REAL ESTATE.

CITY OF PLAINFIELD.

Notice is hereby given that by virtue of a warrant issued by William A. Coddington, Esq., City Judge of the City of Plainfield, in the County of Union, to make the unpaid taxes assessed on lands, tenements, hereditaments and real estate in the said city of Plainfield in the year eighteen hundred and ninety-one the subscriber, the officer nominated and appointed by the Common Council for that purpose, will on Thursday, the twenty-fourth day of August next, at the hour of two o'clock in the afternoon, at his office, 311 Park avenue, in the city of Plainfield, sell the lands, tenements, hereditaments and real estate hereunder described, at public vendue, for the shortest time for which any person or persons will agree to take the same and pay such taxes, together with the interests thereon, and costs, fees, charges and expenses.

Gallagher Says His "Confession" Was a Yarn.

DEMPSEY AND BEATTY GUILTY.

It Is Supposed That Gallagher Thought the Knights of Labor Could Secure His Pardon—Dempsey's Attorneys Will Not Withdraw Their Application for Pardon.

PITTSBURG, July 21.—The announcement that Patrick Gallagher has retracted his "confession" has created a great deal of excitement and comment.

There is considerable speculation as to why Gallagher made the statement he did Wednesday, but the most plausible reason given is that he thought the Knights of Labor would have enough influence to secure his pardon. However, the story that Davidson went back on Gallagher seems to have settled him, and he decided to reiterate the statement he made on the witness stand at the time Dempsey was convicted.

Since the attorneys for Dempsey have put in their application for pardon they will have to go through with it. If they withdraw it they would have as much trouble in the future to get a re-hearing as if they go through with it now and are refused.

Yesterday afternoon Gallagher requested the presence of Warden Wright at his cell in the penitentiary. The warden responded at once.

Gallagher said: "Warden, I have been in here all night, and wish to say to you now that the confession made by me yesterday was all a hatched-up scheme, and that I was dragged into it. I wish now to retract everything that was said in that confession and wish you would send for the attorneys interested, as I will decline to sign the confession."

Warden Wright immediately notified District-Attorney Burleigh and Attorney Porter by telephone, and they hurried to the penitentiary.

After a three hours' talk with Gallagher District-Attorney Burleigh came out and said that Gallagher had declared under oath that every statement he made Wednesday was absolutely false, and that he, Dempsey, Beatty and Davidson were guilty as indicted. He broke down and cried like a child.

SEVEN SERIOUSLY INJURED.

Carpenters Go Down With a Roof at Hicksville, L. I.

HICKSVILLE, L. I., July 21.—A portion of the roof of a one-story frame building in course of erection in this village fell in yesterday while a number of carpenters were working inside.

The following were found to be seriously injured:

Joel Titus, August Wernberg, Martin Drowden, David Matchett, Rowland Robbins, Joseph Brockman and Jacob Drexhams.

All had arms or legs broken and were otherwise injured.

It is feared that Wernberg and Titus are fatally injured.

The building was owned by Alex & McGuire, pickle manufacturers.

The accident was due to one of the carpenters removing a brace while building a scaffold.

THE GRAND JURY MINUTES.

Lawyers Grout and Gaynor Furnished the Testimony Against Mayor Boody.

NEW YORK, July 21.—Mayor Boody, of Brooklyn, has made public that portion of the minutes of the grand jury, which said it regretted it could not indict him, that relates to himself.

A goodly portion of the testimony was furnished by Lawyers Gaynor and Grout, who are attorneys for the Union Street Railway company, the one which failed to secure franchises.

The testimony upon which the presentment against Mayor Boody was found was furnished chiefly by Messrs. Grout and Gaynor. Gaynor said he regarded the mayor as a particeps criminis.

The last words of Grout to the grand jury were a eulogy of the mayor, in which he said he did not believe the mayor could have been bribed to sign the franchises.

Wandenkolk Shut Up in Santa Cruz.

LONDON, July 21.—A despatch from Rio Janeiro says that the captured rebel ship Jupiter, with Admiral Wandenkolk on board, has been brought into port. Wandenkolk, who deserted from the government naval service to join the rebels, has been shut up in Santa Cruz fortress.

The "First" Leaves Asbury Park.

ASBURY PARK, N. J., July 21.—Asbury Hurley, who is known to fame as the first child born in Asbury Park, was yesterday again before Squire Borden upon the charge of disorderly conduct. In lieu of going to the county jail for 40 days, Hurley promised to leave town and not return.

Jersey Dental Society Officers.

ASBURY PARK, N. J., July 21.—The following officers were elected by the State Dental society for the ensuing year: President, E. M. Beasley, Belvidere; Vice-President, S. W. F. Holbrook, Newark; Secretary, C. A. Meeker, Newark; Treasurer, F. C. Barlow, Jersey City.

Unknown Man's Body Found.

JAMAICA, L. I., July 21.—The body of an unknown man, evidently a German, about 40 years of age, well dressed, was found yesterday in Wyckoff's woods. There was a bullet wound in his head. A 38-calibre pistol with one chamber discharged lay by his side.

Struck by a Bucket and Killed.

WHITE PLAINS, N. Y., July 21.—Daniel Goodwin, a foreman in the employ of Washburn, Schaler & Washburn, the contractors who are building the Titicus dam at Purday's station, was struck by a cement bucket which was being lowered by a derrick and instantly killed.

No Trace of His Assailant.

PALMER, Mass., July 21.—No trace has yet been found of the mulatto who murderously assaulted S. Wilson Lawrence on the outskirts of this village. The victim is still in a precarious condition, and the result of his injuries cannot yet be determined.

COLORED PEOPLE INDIGNANT.

They Resent Mr. Bradley's Rule Prohibiting Them From Enjoying Privileges.

ASBURY PARK, N. J., July 21.—Preparations for the indignation meeting called by the colored people of this place, who own property and pay taxes, is going on at a rapid rate. The committee has secured noted speakers and will resent the attempt of Mr. Bradley to exclude them from the beach.

The colored people claim that they have invested upwards of $150,000 in Asbury Park real estate and when they did so it was with the understanding that they were to have as many privileges here as other persons.

They also claim that by virtue of a law passed by the New Jersey legislature in 1884, the colored man has as much right to a public place of amusement as a white person and that Mr. Bradley is laying himself liable to the law in prohibiting them from all the privileges accorded the whites.

MITCHELL SIGNS THE ARTICLES.

And the Big Mill Will Come Off Before the Columbian Club.

CHICAGO, July 21.—All doubts that the big Corbett-Mitchell fight will be fought under the auspices of the Columbian Athletic club have been removed by the receipt of the following cablegram:

LONDON, July 20.

O'MALLEY, Columbian Club, Chicago.

Mitchell has signed articles which shall forward at once, and will not listen to offers from other clubs. Forfeit in my hands. ATKINSON, Sporting Life.

Never in the history of the prize ring has there been so much interest taken as there has been in this international contest. Never has there been a purse offered, and possibly never will there again, as large as the one hung up by this young club for Charles Mitchell, the champion pugilist of England and James Corbett, the American champion.

THROWN OUT OF WORK.

Thousands in Colorado Unable to Obtain Employment.

Deplorable Condition of Affairs Among the Laboring Classes—Trying to Devise Means of Relief.

DENVER, July 21.—The closing down of many silver mines, smelters and the reduction of the working forces of coal mines, railways and manufactories in this State, because of the reduction in the price of silver, has caused a deplorable condition of affairs among the laboring classes.

It is estimated that to-day there are 10,000 men in Denver unable to secure employment. There are 20,000 in outside towns in the same condition, one-half of whom are making their way to this city, where they will become public charges if conditions do not speedily change.

All the commercial bodies in this city met with representatives of eastern roads last evening, and the latter were asked to make a $5 rate from here to the Missouri River for this class of people.

It is argued that these men are not paupers, and if they can get into the agricultural districts they will be able to secure employment in the harvest fields, where men will soon be in demand.

The typographical union at a meeting last night appropriated $1,000 for the purpose of sending unemployed men to their homes in the East. The railways have been asked to make a $15 rate for the men to any point between here and Chicago.

A conservative estimate of the number of men discharged by railroads, mines, business houses and factories since the silver panic started place the number at from 12,000 to 15,000. It is also estimated that Colorado, Utah, Montana and New Mexico merchants have countermanded orders on New York wholesale houses for goods during this time amounting to over $12,000,000.

Price Thinks His Case Will be Quashed.

HACKENSACK, N., J., July 21.—Ex-Governor Price is still in the custody of Sheriff Bogert of Hackensack. The ex-governor will say nothing about his case and despite the action of Chancellor McGill in demanding new bonds, he thinks the case will eventually be quashed. He is a civil prisoner and enjoys his liberty with Justice Heath.

Accidentally Shot His Father.

ASBURY PARK, N. J., July 21.—Joseph D. Newlin, a hardware merchant of this place, accidentally shot his father, David T. Newlin, a retired merchant, of Philadelphia, yesterday. Physicians fear that Mr. Newlin will not recover. The coroner has taken his ante-mortem statement.

Markham's Statement Confirmed.

VALLETTA, July 21.—In the Victoria court martial yesterday Lieutenant Hamilton and Lieutenant Barr, of the Camperdown, confirmed Rear Admiral Markham's statement as to his doubts of Admiral Tryon's intention.

The regular midsummer meet of the Asbury Park wheelmen to-day and to-morrow promises to be one of the greatest ever held there. Among the crack riders who have entered for both days are: Tyler, Taxis, Mulliken, Grosch, Hess, Kaufmann, Zimmerman and Diver.

Minnesota Town Destroyed by Fire.

DULUTH, Minn., July 21.—A special says that the business portion of the town of Ewen, Mich., 150 miles down the South Shore has been entirely destroyed by fire. It is a village of some 2,000 people and in the whole place only two stores are left standing.

BATTLE AT WEIR CITY.

Strikers Make an Attack on the Strip Pit Miners.

Many Shots Fired, and Several on Both Sides Injured—No One Killed—Fortifying the Mines at Pittsburg.

WEIR CITY, Kan., July 21.—A number of striking miners, together with a number of their wives, attacked the strip pit miners in one of the mines near here yesterday afternoon.

A fierce fight ensued, in which clubs and firearms were used.

About 100 shots were fired, and a number on both sides were injured.

No one was killed.

As a result of the battle the men in the strip were routed by the strikers and were forced to flee for their lives, pursued by the howling mob, which would have lynched them had they been caught.

The owner of the strip, Clements, his son and a man named Big Dick Reed are said to be the ones who did the shooting, and they have given themselves up and were run out of the county for safe keeping.

The excitement was intense after the shooting, and it was feared that matters would become worse, but a prominent striker, George R. Fulton, made the crowd a speech, in which he advised them to keep cool and counseled peace.

KANSAS CITY, Mo., July 21.—A special from Pittsburg says:

A large meeting of miners met here yesterday to discuss the strike situation, but after a short discussion the meeting was postponed until to-day. It is generally expected that if the strip pit men do not join in the strike after to-day's meeting they will be forced to stop.

The strip pit operators openly declare that they will work the mines as long as they can find men who want work.

Stockades are being built around some mines, and when finished will give the appearance of an Indian fort. The work is being done with heavy timber and will give plenty of room for people to live in if they desire when at work, as well as a guard line around the shaft.

Beedleson Beats the Record.

NEW YORK, July 21.—Frank S. Beedleson, the one-legged bicycle rider, arrived at the City Hall last night at 7:45, accompanied by a dozen members of the Riverside club. He beat the time[8] from San Francisco to New York by 20 days, Beedleson's time is 66 days, 9 hours and 45 minutes.

Judge Brown Married.

TO FLEE FROM BANGKOK

The King of Siam Preparing to Leave His Capital.

EXCITEMENT AMONG THE PEOPLE.

Agitation in Favor of France Started in One of the Provinces—French Chamber Sustains the Government in Its Attitude—English Ministry Shows Anxiety.

PARIS, July 21.—A despatch received here from Bangkok states that the Siamese court is greatly agitated. Preparations are apparently under way for the departure of the King and his court from the capital.

Reports of the intention of the King to leave Bangkok have spread among the populace and have caused much excitement.

The despatch adds that it is stated in Bangkok that a popular agitation in favor of France has been started in the province of Battambang, some distance to the southeast of the capital, and that troops have been sent to put down the sedition.

The statement that Russia has signified her intention to support France in her dispute with Siam, and that Russian warships were now on their way to the Gulf of Siam, was published in the Petit Journal, a liberal Republican paper. A similar statement appears in the Nation, a radical newspaper.

The Senate yesterday passed unanimously a resolution approving in every respect the attitude of the Government in the Siamese affair.

Siam's reply to France's ultimatum is not expected to be given before to-morrow night or Sunday. It is thought that in case the reply is unfavorable Rear-Admiral Humann will await the arrival of M. de Villieres, a special commissioner sent by the French government, before taking final action.

GREAT BRITAIN PREPARING.

The Ministry Anxious Over France's Proceedings in Siam.

LONDON, July 21.—A special Cabinet meeting was summoned in Downing street last evening. There was full attendance. France's demands on Siam were discussed at length and eventually instructions for the Marquess of Dufferin, British Ambassador to France, were formulated and approved.

Immediately after the meeting the Earl of Rosebery, Secretary of State for Foreign Affairs, communicated with the Admiralty as regards the disposition of the fleet in Asiatic waters. Special orders were despatched by the Admiralty to Vice Admiral Sir E. R. Fremantle, Commander-in-Chief of the Chinese division of the fleet.

These facts, together with the sudden cancelling of the Marquess of Dufferin's leave of absence are regarded as hardly in harmony with the official predictions of a perfectly amicable settlement with France. The Government is believed to realize that the Siamese affair is fraught with the most serious possibilities, for which immediate preparation must be made by Great Britain.

HELD FOR THE GRAND JURY.

Examination of Switchman Michael Donohue at Newburg, N. Y.

NEWBURG, N. Y., July 21.—The examination of Michael Donohue, of the West Shore switchman at the scene of the disaster here last Thursday, was held here yesterday before Recorder McCreskery.

A member of the section gang that was employed in putting in the new switch on the day of the accident testified that after the train passed into the freight yard he saw Donohue set the switch as it should have been set before the train arrived, that is, closed against the freight yard.

This accounts for the fact that the switch appeared to be all right after the wreck when examined by railroad men.

The Recorder decided that Donohue should be held for the action of the grand jury and Judge Charles F. Brown of the Supreme Court fixed his bail at $3,500, which was furnished.

The charge against Donohue is manslaughter in the second degree.

SAN DIEGO, Cal., July 21.—Rev. Charles A. Briggs, who was deposed by the Presbyterian General Assembly, has declined an offer of a testimonial of $50,000 which Captain Parker of this city wished to raise.

Packing House Burned.

ELMIRA, N. Y., July 21.—The large packing house of S. X. Metzger & Son, dealers in meat, was burned yesterday afternoon. The insurance is $110,000, which will not nearly cover the loss.

Asbury Park Cottage Looted.

ASBURY PARK, N. J., July 21.—The cottage of Mrs. Richard Thompson, of New York, was entered by burglars during the night and looted of all the valuables.

No Mention of Cholera in Naples.

ROME, July 21.—The Naples newspapers contain no mention of cholera in the city, and correspondents profess inability to gain information concerning an epidemic there.

Weather Forecast.

WASHINGTON, D. C., July 22.—For New England: Generally fair, southwesterly winds, slightly warmer.

For Eastern New York, Eastern Pennsylvania, New Jersey, Delaware and Maryland: Fair, variable winds, slightly warmer in central Pennsylvania.

For Western New York: Fair, westerly winds becoming variable, slightly warmer in eastern portion.

For Western Pennsylvania: Generally fair, easterly winds, warmer in northern portion.

BANKER DREXEL'S WILL.

Estimated Value of the Estate Between $25,000,000 and $30,000,000.

PHILADELPHIA, July 21.—The last will and testament of Anthony J. Drexel was admitted to probate yesterday. The executors, who are also the trustees, are George W. Childs, James Lowber Walsh, Richard C. Dale, his sons, John R. Drexel, Anthony J. Drexel and George W. Childs Drexel, and his sons-in-law, James W. Paul, jr., and John R. Fell.

The estimated value of the estate is between $25,000,000 and $30,000,000. The will is dated Dec. 31, 1891, and there are five codicils.

The executors are empowered to make such arrangements for the continuation of the banking business conducted in the name of Drexel & Co. and its associate firms as may in their judgment seem wise and expedient.

One hundred thousand dollars is bequeathed to the German Hospital of Philadelphia.

The executors are directed to transfer $1,000,000 to trustees who will apply the income toward the erection and maintenance of an art gallery, museum or other public institution in the neighborhood of the Drexel Institute of Art, Science and Industry in this city, providing the latter building shall be inadequate. The trustees, however, can apply as much of the income as cannot be judiciously expended for the aforesaid purpose to the establishment of the Drexel Hospital in this city.

Various sums are bequeathed to friends, household servants and clerks.

Three grandchildren get $1,000,000 each.

Mr. Drexel's interest in the Drexel building, New York, is devised in trust to Anthony D. Paul, Mae Fell and Anthony J. Drexel, III.

The residue of the estate is to be held and invested for the benefit of surviving children and their issue.

A FATAL EXPLOSION.

Four Men Killed in a Brooklyn Sweat-Band Factory.

One Fatally Hurt—The Proprietor and His Son Among the Victims—The Building Completely Wrecked.

NEW YORK, July 21.—By the naptha explosion in the sweat-band factory of J. D. Campbell, 211 Walworth street, Brooklyn, yesterday, four persons were killed outright, and one fatally injured.

The dead are:

J. D. CAMPBELL.

SAMUEL K. CAMPBELL, his son.

JOHN WEISS, 25 years old, of 218 Walworth street.

JACOB WEISS, of 218 Walworth street.

Matthew Deering was badly hurt.

The building was completely wrecked. It was a two-story frame structure. There were 12 persons employed in the factory. All excepting the five named were in the basement and escaped without injury.

The noise of the explosion was heard for several blocks away and caused consternation in the neighborhood. The street was littered with the debris. Within ten minutes time the block was swarming with people.

The police were called out and after a half hour's hard work succeeded in clearing the street. The dead were removed and the injured man was taken in an ambulance to a hospital.

AMERICAN VESSEL SEIZED.

Detained Four Hours by a New Foundland Custom Officer.

HALIFAX, N. S., July 21.—Advices from New Foundland state that the American fishing schooner, Horace B. Parker, Captain William Thomas, was seized at Cape Broyle on the 3d instant by customs officer Carew.

The vessel had bait and ice alongside and on board. After being detained four hours the vessel was released, but the captain had to throw the bait away as the ice had melted.

He wired the American Government for protection as he had paid license and light dues at Placentia in American coin.

The Fire of Incendiary Origin.

WASHINGTON, July 21.—While Treasurer Morgan is non-committal on the report that a defalcation exists in the mint at New Orleans it is learned that the Treasury Department discovered a shortage in the mint on June 26, and that a searching investigation has shown that the recent fire there was of incendiary character started for the purpose of covering up robbery.

Urge Repeal of the Sherman Bill.

NEW YORK, July 21.—At a meeting of New York's representative men in the lumber trade yesterday, resolutions were passed spiritedly attacking the silver purchase clause of the Sherman law and urging upon Congress and the country the necessity of its repeal to bring about a restoration of confidence and better times in the world of finance and trade.

Small Bills for the Interior.

NEW YORK, July 21.—The total exchanges of small bills for bills of large denominations at the Sub-Treasury yesterday aggregated $600,000. At least $500,000 of this sum was for shipment to the interior, the greater part being for St. Louis where there is at present a great scarcity of current funds.

Captured the Burglars.

EAST MACHIAS, Me., July 21.—Sheriff Longfellow and County Attorney Campbell returned last night from a successful trip to Lubec in search of the two burglars who, on the night of June 21, 1892, at West Lubec, robbed John Black and his sister ANN Black, of nearly $2,000 in gold.

The Deadlock Broken.

ORANGE, N. J., July 21.—The deadlock in the South Orange board of village trustees over the election of a president to succeed Edward E. Church, who fled to Canada from his creditors, has been broken by the election of Carl E. Billquest his president.

The Damage Will Exceed $100,000.

HARTFORD, July 21.—Further investigation confirms the previously reported condition of the tobacco crop over in East Hartford and the total damage by Tuesday's storm of rain, hail and wind will exceed $100,000.

The Fight Awarded to Craig.

READING, Pa., July 21.—Con Coughlin and Frank Craig, both of New York, met here last night to fight for $300. The police interfered in the first round and Craig was awarded the fight on a foul.

Home Rule Bill Through Committee.

LONDON, July 21.—The last 11 clauses of the Home Rule bill were brought through the committee stage last evening.

WEATHER INDICATIONS.

For New Jersey To-Morrow: Fair, Stationary Temperature.

EARLY INTELLIGENCE.

—George C. Polhemus, the electrician, is doing a large contract at White Plains, New York.

—A valuable horse belonging to councilman V. L. Frazee died yesterday from an attack of colic.

—It took two trains with 21 well-filled cars to convey the First Baptists to the shore this morning.

—"Smokestack" Ed Hoover painted Ed Thorn's roof on Park avenue, this morning, in less than an hour.

—Fred Hui went to the Fishing Banks, yesterday, and caught a flounder. The trip cost him $2.75, but the flounder was worth fully 20 cents.

—One Plainfield sport went to Monmouth Park yesterday, to take in the races. He came home $92 ahead. Another, who had a tip at Brighton, came home $92 behind.

—The Bricklayers' and Masons' Union, No. 14, of this city, paid yesterday, through its treasurer, William Moore, $50 to the widow of Stewart Milligan. That amount is his death benefit.

—The handsome interior of J. H. Leggett's drug store, with its model soda-water fountain, was photographed yesterday. The picture will excite admiration wherever displayed.

—The Postal Telegraph company intends to make another move that will bring its local office here nearer the railroad station. It has rented quarters at 151 North avenue and will leave the Hotel Grenada at once.

—There was a genuine old-fashioned stag party in a Park avenue flat, Wednesday evening. The music consisted of boiled lobster, canned corn, new beets, pickles and beer. Card playing was a feature of the evening's enjoyment.

—A hay wagon on the way from Bound Brook to Newark, became stranded on East Front street last evening. The horses were frightened at the cars and broke the harness. 2,900 pounds was the load, and an hour's time was lost fixing up the broken leather.

—Some of the excursionists from this city to Asbury Park say that when you go in certain places for soda water the clerk sets out two glasses, one large and the other small. All you have to do is to place a finger on the glass you want, indicating whisky or beer. Yet Asbury Park is a temperance town.

Had a Good Time; With Supper.

At the regular meeting of Franklin council, No. 41, Jr. O. U. A. M., held in their rooms last evening, three new members were taken in by card from other councils. After the meeting a very social time was enjoyed by the members present, and a collation was served by the good and welfare committee. Brethren were present from Allentown, Pa., New Market and North Plainfield.

Only One Case and One Dollar in the Police Court.

A lone bicycler from Cranford without a lantern, was arrested by officer Myers at Netherwood, at 9:30 last night. He was the only case in the police court in the last twenty-four hours. He didn't know he was in the city limits, so he was let off for a dollar.

Won an Empty Purse.

The road race yesterday between Fred Miner and Frank Hart, from Bonner's road house to the Netherwood station and return, was won by Miner in 6 minutes and 31 seconds. The race was for a purse, but as it is said no money was put up, Miner is a loser.

Mr. Cuff Stops a Runaway.

Israel Lewis's bay horse left untied on East Front street, this morning, made a sudden turn in the street and ran away. The animal was caught near the post office by a colored man named Cuff, just before it came in collision with a milk wagon.

Executor Shotwell Divides Another Estate.

The personal property of the late Mrs Margaret Sheppard, of North Plainfield, was equally divided among the five heirs to-day, by order of the executor, William H. Shotwell.

The American Catarrh Cure

Is the result of twenty-six years' study and treatment of the disease. One bottle convinces the most skeptical. It is always ready for use, needing neither douche nor atomizer. It restores the hearing, cures the hawking cough and expectorating, removes the headache and nose bleeding, increases the appetite, produces sound sleep, invigorates the whole system and increases the vitality. Prepared only by W. B. Jones, M. D., No. 1336 South Eighth street, Philadelphia. For sale by J. W. Randolph, 21 West Front street. Price $1.

MORE CONDEMNATION OF THE COURIER.

It Publishes Another Lot of Falsehoods Turned In by Its Cheap Reporters.

The people of Scotch Plains can't find words emphatic enough with which to deny the false tale about "Postmaster Baker's attempted suicide", published in yesterday's Courier 24 hours after it was denied in THE PRESS. A few of the most glaring falsehoods dumped into the Courier's columns by its cheap reporters, were:

That "Mrs. Osborne" was passing, when there is no such person in the town.

That "Phil Paff said". There is no "Phil" Paff, and Tom Paff says he did not say there was a pistol found and did not say there was suicide intended.

The Courier also said that the servant at Mr. Baker's house said so and so. There has been no one in the house but Mrs. Baker herself, and she has had no servants more than a year.

Mr. Mead, Mr. Baker's partner, denies emphatically that there has been any attempt at suicide by Mr. Baker, and condemns the Courier for printing such an unfair article after Mr. Mead had called at its office and given them the facts.

Mr. Baker has been ill but is much better to-day. He sat up and attended to business matters yesterday.

A VERY MYSTERIOUS FIRE.

But it Was Discovered in Time and One of Hetfield's Rows Saved Again.

A fire occurred in Hetfield's "brick row" last night at 8:32. The house was rented by Charles Ficke, but nobody was at home at the time.

The origin is a mystery. Ex-foreman Vroom, of the H. and L. company, saw the flames in a room, from his home around the corner on Madison avenue. He climbed the porch roof, raised a window and crawled in. A bed was all ablaze, but there was no lamp in the room and no trace of where the fire came from. He burned his hands throwing the bedding out.

An alarm was sounded from box 41. The box worked all right but the blows were so long because of some friction in the steam valve, that a few people could n't count them satisfactorily. The recall came twenty minutes later as the engines and truck were not needed. Five extinguishers put the fire out.

PARTICULAR MENTION.

Mr. and Mrs. John W. Murray, jr., and family have gone to "The Nemattano", North Lubec, Maine.

Mr. and Mrs. Carl Kaerth, of East Second street, will spend a few days with relatives in Brooklyn.

Morgan Turton, of Washington street, has gone to join his family at Lakewood, for a two-weeks' recreation.

Miss Lizzie Maney, of Jutland, N. J., is spending a few days with her friend, Miss Gavin, on the West End Farm.

Mrs. Charles L. Force and son, Raymond, of Grandview avenue, North Plainfield, are visiting relatives at High Bridge and vicinity.

George C. Mahon, of West Seventh street, is much better to-day from the results of the slight apoplectic stroke he suffered Tuesday evening.

Mrs. Frank Manchester and daughter, of Arlington avenue, accompanied by Miss Dowd, are stopping at the Interlaken House, Ocean Grove.

H. C. Drake, of North avenue, and W. H. Ludlow were the only two veterans of this city who attended the reunion of the survivors of the 35th New Jersey Regt at the Asbury Park auditorium, at noon, yesterday.

Frank Raymond, who has been sick for some days in councilman Marsh's house, Madison avenue, of malaria, is to-day considered in grave danger. Typhoid fever set in this morning. Mrs. Raymond was Miss Lilian Dorman.

Andrew M. McCardel, of the Pond Machine Tool company, is very ill with neuralgia of the brain. A consultation was held with a prominent specialist at his home on West Front street, yesterday. The decision was that his condition is most serious.

J. Hervey Doane has made some very satisfactory photographs of Col. Scott's "Battle of Antietam", the painting ordered by Col. Elliott F. Shepard that is to be presented to the 7th Regiment club of New York, by Chauncey Depew as soon as framed.

Harry Clifford VanEmburgh, for several months resident engineer in charge of a large contract of F. A. Dunham at Sewickley, Pa., returned to Plainfield today on a two weeks' leave of absence, at the end of which time he will go to Hornellsville, N. Y., as Mr. Dunham's representative.

Tuesday evening, the Independent fife and drum corps was entertained at the home of one of the members, S. C. Terry, jr. Among those present were Mr. and Mrs. W. B. Watson, the Misses Ray and Lillie Watson, and Will Bergener, of New York; the Misses Minnie and Lizzie Hustan, Joe Angerbauer, Miss Amy Hyer, Miss Gussie Newman and Miss Jennie Brokaw. Singing and dancing were features of the evening.

Sign Those "Sewer Postals" Now

Acting-mayor Neal of North Plainfield is very anxious that those who have not yet signed and returned to him the "sewer postals", should do so at once that the question may be acted upon at the August meeting.

The Carriers' Anxious Seat Seized.

It is said that the bench in letter carriers' row, owned by the street railway company, was taken away Wednesday night to satisfy a judgment against John Neighbour, against whom Mr. Butts, the last man to take the initiatory degree, brought suit.

I have been a sufferer from catarrh for twenty years. I found immediate relief in the use of Ely's Cream Balm. Since using it I have not suffered a moment from headache, sore throat or loss of sleep, from which I previously suffered, caused by catarrh. I consider your Balm a valuable remedy. R. G. Vanar, 56 Warren st., New York.

A COACHING PARADE TO-MORROW.

The Netherwood's Guests Will Display Their Private Traps Through Plainfield's Streets To-morrow.

JUDGING by the score or more who have already signified their intention of taking part in the coaching party suggested by Clarence Smith, consisting of about twenty-two of the handsome turnouts, owned by the guests of Hotel Netherwood, that will start from there to-morrow afternoon at 5, it will be a fine show. The route has not as yet been determined, but the party will drive through Plainfield and North Plainfield and possibly to Westfield and then return to the hotel. From present indications it will be one of the marked events of the season.

Among those in to-morrow's parade will be seen: Mrs. Benton with her fine horse and cart; Mrs. Farmer will show of her many turnouts, probably a victoria and a road wagon; Mr. McCabe, two horses and runabout; Clarence Smith, stanhope gig; Mr. Ranney, victoria; Mr. Benner, chestnut horse and English side-bar; Mr. White, one horse and runabout, and his coachman will drive two horses to a game cart; M. V. B. Smith, mail phaeton; Mr. Brown, two horses and salon wagon; Mr. Frank, two-horse cart, and Mr. Balen, two horses and park carriage.

A progressive euchre party is bulletined for Monday evening, the 24th inst. The list shows a large number of subscribers for the initial game of the season.

The season of '93 thus far has been one of the most enjoyable ever chronicled by your correspondent. The hotel is well filled with guests from our principal cities, and the outlook for a prosperous season is beyond question. Mr. Miller is untiring in his efforts to make his patrons thoroughly comfortable and happy, and judging from the contentment reigning within his house he has succeeded.

ABOUT PLAINFIELD PLAYERS.

Notes of Interest Concerning Locally Known Ball Tossers.

Daley, the new umpire, will officiate at to-morrow's game.

Ex-captain Hofford will be presented on the ball field, to-morrow, with a handsome diamond ring, from a few of his friends in this city.

Gentle William Murphy will hereafter play with the Paterson team on Sundays. His position is right field, and he says his salary is $5 and expenses.

Both Keenan and Turner will pitch for Plainfield to-morrow. The batting order will be as follows: Smith, ss; Martin, 3b; Turner, p; Murphy, cf; McIndoe, lf; Sneden, rf; Keenan, 2b; Jones, 1b; Fritz, c.

The Phillipsburg team come here to-morrow with a good record and should make it interesting for the home team. Holly, who plays second base for them, played here a few seasons ago and was recognized as an earnest player. Their batting order will be as follows: Holly, 2b; Raub, c; Titus, lf; Dewitt, cf; Ricketts, 3b; Drake, rf; Eldridge, ss; Mutchler, 1b; Myers, p; Ryan, extra.

Turner, who has been approached by several managers of the Eastern league, this season, has received an offer from manager Harry Wright of the Philadelphia team of the National league. Turner has quite an income from his baseball labors, as he is playing on some team almost every day, and consequently does not wish to chance an uncertainty. He has wired to Philadelphia that he will accept if he is assured of a permanent engagement for the season.

NOBLE GRAND, E. H. CLEVELEY.

Delightful Ceremonies Attended the Installation of Odd Fellows' Officers.

District Deputy Grand Master Charles W. Tallman and staff visited Plainfield lodge, No. 44, I. O. O. F., Wednesday evening, and installed the following officers for the ensuing term:

Noble Grand—E. H. Cleveley.
Vice Grand—S. N. Schleif.
Recording Secretary—Rudolf Kersting.
R. S. N. G.—I. C. Kline.
L. S. N. G.—E. R. Pope, jr.
R. S. V. G.—J. Kettenring.
L. S. V. G.—H. C. McVoy.
Outside Guard—J. Sutton.
Inside Guard—Henry Nischwitz.
Conductor—Andrew Carpenter.
Warden—E. L. Boice.
Chaplain—N. C. Pennington.
R. S. S.—William Grannatt.
L. S. L.—Theodore Kurzhals, jr.

Large delegations were present from Westfield lodge, No. 169, Westfield; Nausa lodge, No. 145, Elizabeth, and Lawrence lodge, No. 62, Perth Amboy. After the installation, a bountiful supper was served in the banquet room, which was enjoyed by all present. The visitors left on a late train for their homes, fully satisfied with the few hours they spent with their District Deputy Grand Master and Plainfield lodge, No. 44, I. O. O. F.

Should Organize Here.

Messrs. Woolston & Buckle, the favorite house painter and decorators of North avenue, are both prominent members of the Master House Painters and Decorators Association of New Jersey, and took active part in the recent annual convention of that body, in Jersey City. The organization is a most excellent one. Its object is to benefit the employing master painter and give every member of the craft an active part in eradicating the existing evils in their calling. The association desires the formation of local branches, for the purpose of reforming the methods of competing for work, and wishes to establish a State apprenticeship system. Mutual improvement and elevation of the craft are aimed at, and the association fosters the encouragement of one another in business and the common good of the brotherhood. It is hoped that a Plainfield branch will be formed.

No Shooting Craps at Babbitt's.

James Babbitt claims that his place on East Front street is run on a legitimate system. He says he will not allow card playing for money, and that the police are privileged to come and go at their pleasure.

SUN-LIGHT and FRESH AIR are THE BEST DISINFECTANTS, of course; but you can't apply them in every situation. What next? Well, that depends. For damp cellars use Quicklime, plenty of it. For vaults and cesspools use COPPERAS; cheap stuff; we sell it by the pound or hundred-weight—instructions thrown in. For kitchen sinks, for water-closets, for house plumbing, for the sick room, to deodorize discharges, to purify the air and to prevent contagion, use REYNOLDS'S ODORLESS DISINFECTANT. Made and sold for fifteen years at

Reynolds's Pharmacy, Corner Park and North Avenues.

HOW ABOUT THIS, REV. MARTINE?

A Public Meeting Wanted, Yet the President of the School Board Won't Call It.

TO THE EDITOR OF THE PRESS:—I read with interest the answer of the "Rev. A. I. Martine, D. C.," to my communication of last Saturday, but refrained from answering it until reading The Call to-night. The Rev. A. I. Martine, D. C., presents my letter and his own in to-day's Call and I am now satisfied it is time for me to say more.

Possibly I used the wrong word when I said uproar, for it is not exactly an uproar; but there is a strong feeling of disapproval at the action of the board, and over forty of our leading citizens have signed a petition asking that Prof. Johnson be retained: and also asking for an opportunity to present the same to the board and for a hearing on the subject, but thus far without success. We expected such an opportunity Tuesday evening, but the "Rev. A. I. Martine, D. C.," was out of town, and the president of the board promised that a meeting would be called for to-night. He was visited Wednesday morning before six o'clock by the "Rev. A. I. Martine, D. C." I do not know all that passed between them, but the outcome of the visit was that no meeting was called, and when two citizens waited on the president this morning with their petitions to ask the reason "why" and to request that a call be issued at once for a meeting to-night, he refused to do so, saying that they were under no obligation to give them an audience nor an explanation. Before leaving they secured from him the promise of a meeting at some future time. This movement of the people is the expression of a determination to see justice done both to our village and to Prof. Johnson.

As to the "Rev. A. I. Martine, D. C.'s" "secondly"; it is what the board has done that is making the commotion.

They have told Prof. Johnson (whose competency no one questions) "that his services would no longer be required" and re-employed two lady teachers whom the "Rev. A. I. Martine, D. C." had publicly declared would be dismissed if he should become a member of the board. As soon as the people learned of such action they asked "why?" The answers given were too ridiculous for a sane man to consider for a moment. Your space is too valuable to waste in repeating such nonsense.

In regard to the "Rev. A. I. Martine, D. C.'s" "thirdly", I can say that I have seen two citizens other than he who have waited on the people of Nutley and the members of the Nutley school board and they both confirm what I said in my communication of Saturday of the incompetency of Mr. Whitney as a disciplinarian and organizer, and of his inability to raise the grade of the schools. The "Rev. A. I. Martine, D. C." I know "is not ready to believe" me, but I can bring him proofs of my statement that come closer home than any yet made, if need be.

"Fourthly", neither the "Rev. A. I. Martine, D. C." nor any other member of the board have stated that they were dismissing Prof. Johnson because they believe him incapable, which would be a reasonable reason. That is all the people demand and is what they will insist upon.

It will not do for the "Rev. A. I. Martine, D. C." to say that Prof. Johnson is incompetent to teach our schools and then to recommend him for a higher one, which he has done since this controversy began.

This communication simply contains a few hints from which the "Rev. A. I. Martine, D. C." can draw his own conclusions, and is written to give him an opportunity to right himself before he is waited on by a citizens' committee.

Borough Council "Agin" Monopolists.

The North Plainfield Electric company has agreed upon terms with the Warren chapel authorities, and a contract was signed yesterday for lighting the chapel. The Plainfield company is consequently out entirely, and might as well take its poles down. The present council over the brook is of the wrong composition for this city's monopolists to run up against.

NOVEL RAILROAD FEATURES SHOWN.

The Pennsylvania Company's Exhibit at the World's Fair.

Of more real interest to the average visitor to the World's Fair than all the confusing array of locomotives, cars, ships, wagons, bicycles, and velocipedes in the great Transporation building is the compact yet comprehensive exhibit which the Pennsylvania railroad company makes in its own beautiful little model railway station. What with signal tower, overhead foot-bridge, automatic switches, tracks, ballast, and ditches just outside its doors, and the original "John Bull" locomotive, the oldest in America, with its train of antique cars, and the colossal iron vehicles upon which the huge Krupp guns were conveyed from Baltimore to the Exposition standing in the shadow of its walls, it presents to the passer-by an appearance so distinctly characteristic that a careful inspection of the treasures of the interior is almost inevitable.

Once inside, you enter immediately into a study of transportation history in the United States on the kindergarten or object-lesson basis, and by means of models, ranging from the old Conestoga wagon, through a series of curiously fashioned cars, up to the standard locomotives and passenger coaches of to-day, you secure a most effective idea of railroad progress. Nor do the models here shown have to do with vehicles only. In the cases which line the walls of the cool, white interior are also to be seen models of track of all periods, various systems of signals in use at different times, and even tickets and time-tables, not forgetting conductors' punches and lanterns.

In the way of models, the post of honor is given to a magnificent reproduction of the Pennsylvania railroad company's new double-deck ferry-boat "Washington", which plies between New York and Jersey City, a model complete in every detail, even to the electric lighting and the rubber mats at the doors. Maps, in relief, of a most interesting and instructive character are numerous, not the least important being one four feet wide by twelve feet long, showing at once the old Portage and new Portage, and the present road of the company over the Alleghenies, all arranged to a scale, and giving a better notion of that wonderful feat of engineering, the Horse-shoe Curve, than can even be had by a trip over it.

To furnish a comprehensive idea of the magnitude of the Pennsylvania railroad system no better method could have been adopted than that which is here presented in the shape of a perspective map, 33 feet long, showing the position of each train in motion on the system at 6 p. m. on Columbia Day, Oct. 21, 1892, the passenger trains indicated by tiny gilt locomotives, and the freight trains by similar locomotives colored blue. In addition to all this there is case after case of photographs, posters, letters, bills, and other documents, all more or less interesting, and a number of wax figures, clothed in the uniforms of the Pennsylvania's working staff of employes, from baggage porters to conductors.

FEWER TEACHERS' DARLINGS.

Plainfield Students Advised to Go to College Only on Their Merits.

TO THE EDITOR OF THE PRESS:—I trust that you will not consider it impertinent in me (an old educator) to congratulate Plainfield that this year it is to send fewer young men and women to college on principal's certificates. It has a refreshing sound, I admit, to hear the boast that eminent colleges admit students on the certificates of the principal. It argues well for the school; but it is not to the pupils' advantage. Such pupils enter handicapped. They lack the independence of those who "face the music". So you understand me when I say that I am glad that so few are going in with tied hands. The examinations are big bugbears, and the scholar who is rejected is a rara avis. Go into it, boys, with your eyes open; and you will be all right, and there will be no chance to hear your chums say "Willy Jacky was his teacher's darling, and he got him in!" They always "throw" it, and the throw hurts. Moreover, the Faculty is apt to look on "certified" pupils as weak. (Faculties, you know, look down on pedagogues, and prefer to guage their classes by their own standards!) Good for Plainfield!

ALFRED M. BERNETT.

A Plainfielder Moves Brick Buildings.

Harry S. Jenkins, the expert building moving of this city, has been doing some great work in Bethlehem, Pa., and the Times of that city says:

"Harry S. Jenkins, house mover, has safely completed the delicate and interesting job of moving the large brick stable on the premises of Mrs. Eliza Daniel to the front of Cunow Alley. The building was not regarded as in a good condition for the moving operation, but Mr. Jenkins in his practical way overcame all apparent difficulties and within the prescribed time safely landed the stable at the proper point where the masons, bricklayers, and carpenters will commence the work of transforming the structure into a residence. Mr. Jenkins will leave town in a few days for Lehigh Gap, where he has the contract for moving the large brick hotel of George Strohl 150 feet distant from its present site."

Where the Boys Go Swiming.

The big pond shut in by the hills near the mills in the notch back of Scotch Plains is a great swiming resort for the Plainfield boys. Yesterday a dozen lads rode their wheels and had a fine time in the water. The temperature is pleasant, the depth is sufficient for a long dive, and there is a rubber-covered springboard.

Shiloh's Cough Cure.

This is beyond question the most successful Cough Medicine we have ever sold; a few doses invariably cure the worst cases of Cough, Croup and Bronchitis, while its wonderful success in the cure of Consumption is without a parallel in the history of medicine. Since its first discovery it has been sold on a guarantee, a test which no other medicine can stand. If you have a cough we earnestly ask you to try it. Price, 10c. and $1. If your lungs are sore, chest, or back lame, use Shiloh's Porous Plaster. Sold by A. D. Mallinson, 65 North Avenue, opposite railroad station. 5-18-y

FACTORIES CLOSING UP

Many Concerns Forced to Suspend Operations.

DEPRESSION OF TRADE THE CAUSE.

Manufacturers in All Lines Are Experiencing the Dullest Season They Have Ever Known—Business Outlook in Canada—Better Feeling in Denver—Yesterday's Failures.

NORWALK, Conn., July 21.—Norwalk manufacturers are experiencing the dullest season they have ever known.

Hutchinson, Cole & Co., shirt manufacturers, have been shut down three weeks. Roth & Goldsmith, corset manufacturers, employing nearly 500 operatives, one of the largest concerns of the kind in the country, are idle.

Several hat shops, employing hundreds of men and women, are doing practically nothing, and last night the Norwalk Lock Company laid off 100 men indefinitely, because of dullness in trade.

Better times are looked for, however, in a few weeks, not later than September 1. Business men say that, although they are still selling some goods, collections are deplorably poor.

IRON FOUNDRIES CLOSE.

Two in Northern New York Compelled to Suspend Business.

PLATTSBURG, N. Y., July 21.—The Chateangay Ore and Iron Co., whose mines and iron foundries are located at Lyon Mountain, have closed down as have also the Crown Point Iron Co. mines, and iron makers at Crown Point. The cause given is dullness in the iron trade.

About a thousand men are thrown out of employment.

The principal stockholders of both companies are New Yorkers.

BUSINESS IN THE DOMINION.

Said That the Outlook Was Never Better—How the Situation Here is Regarded.

MONTREAL, July 21.—A local paper has interviewed all of the bank managers in this city on the financial outlook of the United States and on the recent failures, bank crashes, etc. The unanimous expression is that the repeal of the Sherman Silver law will alleviate the troubles which it undoubtedly brought about.

The opinion is given that the failure of Western banks will not affect Canada in any way, and that the Dominion, outside of some losses in the larger cities by stock gamblers and jobbers, was never on a better financial basis.

They state that with the present crop prospects Canada's outlook for the season is very bright.

HOLYOKE MILLS SHUT DOWN.

The Water in the River is Lower Now Than for Nine Years.

SPRINGFIELD, Mass., July 21.—The water in the Connecticut river, at Holyoke, is the lowest at any time since 1884 and three mills have already shut down because of a short supply.

The Linden Paper Company, employing 300 hands, shut down all but two of its rooms and the Parsons Paper Mill, No. 3, also shut down yesterday. The Prentice Wire Mill has shut down throwing 50 hands out of employment.

The Water Power Company has placed restrictions upon all the mills in the use of water, and unless rain comes soon all the mills without steam power will be shut down.

THERE IS JOY IN DENVER.

The Encouraging Telegram of Comptroller Eckels Has Worked Wonders.

DENVER, July 21.—The cheering news from Washington has had a wonderful effect upon Denver. The despatch from Comptroller of the Currency Eckels to the effect that he would give every possible aid to the banks of this city is applauded on every side.

Mr. Eckels' comments on the foolish course of those Denver citizens who had lost confidence in the banks are looked upon in a most righteous light.

The officers of the several closed banks have notified the public that they will be able to pay every cent due to customers.

Knitting Mill Shuts Down.

FONDA, N. Y., July 21.—The only manufacturing establishment at Fonda is a knitting mill, and in consequence of the prevailing depression in business it has shut down until further notice. The Pettengill paper box factory at Pride's Hill is also closed. It is the only manufacturing enterprise in that village.

Denver Firms Attached.

DENVER, July 21.—The Robert's Hardware Company was attached yesterday on a claim of the Colorado National Bank by Frank Bancroft for $13,000. The Adams Manufacturing Company was attached for $18,000. A number of the firms closed yesterday and the day previous will resume soon.

New Hampshire Mills to Close.

MILTON MILLS, N. H., July 21.—The agent of the Waumbeck company has issued orders for closing the mills here for three months, ah soon as the goods now in process of manufacture are finished. The reason assigned for this action is a lack of orders, except at ruinous prices.

The Mills to Shut Down.

PORTLAND, Me., July 21.—At a directors' meeting it was decided to shut down the mills of the Westbrook Manufacturing Company, makers of ginghams, from July 29 until Sept. 4. The monthly pay-roll is $20,000.

Two More Banks Fail.

WASHINGTON, July 21.—Comptroller Eckels has received notice that two more banks had failed, the First National of Antliony, Kansas, and the First National of Canso City, Colorado.

Another Colorado Bank Fails.

COLORADO SPRINGS, Col., July 21.—The banking houses of J. B. Wheeler & Co. at Colorado City and Manitou, whose branch at Aspen closed Wednesday, failed to open their doors yesterday.

Missouri Bank Suspends.

HARRISONVILLE, Mo., July 21.—The First National Bank of Harrisonville suspended payment yesterday and is in the hands of the Comptroller of the Currency.

Corner Stone Laid.

MORRISTOWN, N. J., July 21.—The corner stone of the new First Presbyterian Church was laid with appropriate ceremonies yesterday afternoon.

One of my children had a very bad discharge from her nose. Two physicians prescribed, but without benefit. We tried Ely's Cream Balm, and much to our surprise, there was a marked improvement. We continued using the Balm and in a short time the discharge was cured.—O. A. Gary, Corning, N. Y.

The children's health must not be neglected. Cold in the head causes catarrh. Ely's Cream Balm cures at once. It is perfectly safe and is easily applied into the nostrils. The worst cases yielding to it. Price 50c.

Read and Reflect.

The great mass of mankind lose their health through inattention to catarrh of the head and throat. This insidious disease was considered incurable until the discovery of the American Catarrh Cure. For sale by L. W. Randolph, 21 West Front street. Price $1.00.

MY CHUM, DICK.

Dick isn't quite so brilliant
In intellect as some;
But 'tisn't for his genius
A chap would choose his chum.

He's not so neat as might be,
Regarding hair or dress;
He gets his fingers inky,
He's always in a mess.

His boots are splitting badly,
His hat is minus brim;
If he mislays his hairbrush
It makes no odds to him.

He isn't very punctual,
His watch is never right;
He's late for all his classes,
His school-books are a sight.

You can't say he's a wonder
On the horizontal bar;
He sings in church on Sundays,
But he'll never be a star.

Take one thing with another,
He's an average sort of chap;
If he has a special talent,
'Tis a genius for mishap.

But if it comes to wanting
A thoroughgoing friend,
My chum's the very fellow—
A choice you couldn't mend.

If he should have a hamper,
It's empty in a day;
He keeps perhaps a quarter,
The rest he gives away.

If you're in want of money,
And ask him for a loan,
He lets you treat his pockets
As if they were your own.

Or if some blatant bully
Uplifts his heavy hand
To "lan" you, Dick will fight him
As long as he can stand.

A friend when fun is going,
A friend when troubles come—
That's Dick; and I am lucky
That such a chap's my chum!

—Paul Blake, in Golden Days

A VENERABLE PUZZLE.

Resurrected for the Benefit of Clever Boys and Girls.

The puzzle that we give here has not occupied public attention lately, but it is one of the oldest known, and always furnishes amusement to those who try to solve it. It appears so very easy one expects to have it done at the first trial; but many are the humorous stories told of those who failed after trying—well, we should be afraid to tell how many, many times. Try it! It is only to trace the figure here given, without removing the pencil from the paper or retracing any one of the lines. Try it!

THE BRITISH THRONE.

A Complete List of the Possible Successors to Queen Victoria.

In this country, where little is known of royalty, except by tradition, no one can be expected to know anything about the order of succession, but, under an hereditary monarchy, such matters are of great importance. The London Times, an unimpeachable authority, gives the following list of the succession to the British throne.

The letters S., G.S., G.D. and G.G.D., stand for son, grandson, grand-daughter and the great-granddaughter, and indicate the relation of the person named to her majesty:

	Ages.
1. Prince of Wales, S.	50
2. Prince George of Wales, G.S.	28
3. Duchess of Fife, G.D.	25
4. Lady Alexandra Duff, G.G.D.	1
5. Princess Victoria of Wales, G.D.	22
6. Princess Maud of Wales, G.D.	20
7. Duke of Edinburgh, S.	48
8. Prince Alfred of Edinburgh, G.S.	17
9. Princess Marie of Edinburgh, G.D.	16
10. Princess Victoria of Edinburgh, G.D.	15
11. Princess Alexandra of Edinburgh, G.D.	13
12. Princess Beatrice of Edinburgh, G.D.	7
13. Duke of Connaught, S.	41
14. Prince Arthur of Connaught, G.S.	9
15. Princess Margaret of Connaught, G.D.	10
16. Princess Victoria of Connaught, G.D.	8
17. Duke of Albany, G.S.	7
18. Princess Alice of Albany, G.D.	9

It is pointed out that the present duke of Fife is himself a great-grandson of William IV., and that his children are therefore of royal descent from both father and mother. The duke of Edinburgh stands seventh on the list, as, although he is the second son of the reigning monarch, he comes in the order of succession, not only after his elder brother, but after all his elder brother's children and grandchildren, male and female.

UNINVITED GUESTS.

—Golden Days.

A Hopeless Case.

Willie D. was given the word "gone," which he had missed in spelling, to write fifty times on his slate. Before he had finished doing this his mother was called away. When she returned she found the slate awaiting her, with fifty gones on one side, and on the other: "I have gorn over to Tom's."

A Good Idea.

"Papa," said Fred, "if you will give me a dollar I'll give you a present."

"Well, let's hear what the present is to be?" said his father.

"A cent," said Fred.—Harper's Young People.

Oh, What a Cough!

Will you heed the warning. The signal perhaps of the sure approach of that more terrible disease, Consumption. Ask yourselves if you can afford it, for the sake of saving 50c., to run the risk and do nothing for it. We know from experience that Shiloh's Cure will cure your cough. It never fails. This explains why more than a Million Bottles were sold the past year. It relieves croup and whooping cough at once. Mothers, do not be without it. For lame back, side or chest, use Shiloh's Porous Plaster. Sold by A. D. Mallinson, 65 North Ave. opposite railroad station. 5-18-y

A Bid For Your Silver.

'Tis selling time for many goods that we are going to clear out, and selling prices we have put on them. You buy

Ladies' Muslin Underwear—The want of money compelled a prominent underwear manufacturer to sacrifice his entire stock; we bought it at one-third its value and will sell it the same way. Corset covers, skirts, chemises, drawers, night dresses, etc., at one-third regular price.

Boy's blouse waists that were 50c for 37c.

Gentlemen, is this your size, 16 and 17 in? If so a bargain you get in fine laundried dress shirts; cost to make $1.25; our price 50c.

Towels are always wanted, and those at 10c are well worth your attention.

Housefurnishings—There are many goods to be cleared out in our housefurnishing department, and selling prices have been marked on them. Special sale of granite iron ware.

For seashore wear—Navy serges, nothing better for summer; can't muss them and water won't spot, ought to bring 50c, but they go for 39c.

Matting—There are about 50 pieces, running from 5 to 30 yards in a piece; you buy them for less than they cost us.

Parasols, shady bargains. We are anxious to sell and a look at the prices will convince you that we are going to sell them.

Millinery Dept.—Everything in summer goods have to go and you will find selling and telling prices on everything.

Seasonable goods—Hammocks, porch screens, Mason's quart jars 89c dozen; jelly glasses 35c doz; sprinkling cans, window screens, 23c, preserving kettles, all at quick selling prices.

GEN W. P. CARLIN.

His Long and Distinguished Career in the Army.

The Gallant Soldier Just Appointed Brigadier General by President Cleveland —His Services in the Indian and Civil Wars.

Col. William Passmore Carlin, Fourth infantry, U. S. A., was appointed brigadier general by President Cleveland on May 17, to fill the vacancy which had existed since last March. Col. Carlin, says Harper's Weekly, is a native of Illinois, having been born in Rich Woods, Greene county, on November 24, 1829. He was appointed as a cadet to the United States military academy by Hon. Stephen A. Douglas in 1846, and in July, 1850, graduated from the academy with the rank of brevet second lieutenant of infantry, and was placed on duty at Fort Snelling, Minn., being made second lieutenant a year later. In March, 1855, he received the rank of first lieutenant, and engaged in the Sioux expedition under Gen. Harney, and later, 1857 and 1858 respectively, took part in the Cheyenne and Utah campaigns. Lieut. Carlin was in the march to California in the latter part of 1858, and for two years afterwards on service in different parts of the state. Being promoted to a captaincy in 1861, he was on recruiting duty for a short time in Buffalo, N. Y. In August of the same year, he entered the volunteer service, having obtained leave of absence for that purpose, accepting the appointment of colonel of the Thirty-eighth Illinois volunteers, and two months later was at the defeat of Gen. Zeph Thompson at Fredericktown, Mo., after engaging in other battles and skirmishes. He was then placed in command of the district of southeastern Missouri, assisting later in the pursuit of Beauregard, and many other operations.

Owing to distinguished services at Perryville, Ky., in October, 1862, when he earned the high praise of all his superior officers, Col. Carlin was made brigadier general of volunteers. He took part in many skirmishes and battles that year, and later on was in the Tullahoma campaign and the battles of Chickamauga, Lookout Mountain and Missionary Ridge. In November, 1863, he was brevetted lieutenant colonel for gallant and meritorious services at Chattanooga, and was made major of the Sixteenth United States infantry, February, 1864. He then went with the army into Georgia, seeing almost incessant fighting for some time, and was at the capture and surrender of Atlanta. Commanding a division in the assault on the intrenchments of Jonesboro, Ga., on September 1, 1864, he so distinguished himself that he was made brevet colonel in the regular army. In the famous march to the sea, the surrender of Savannah, and the invasion of the Carolinas, Col. Carlin proved himself so efficient and able an officer that in March, 1865, he was made brevet major general, United States volunteers, and for his services at Bentonville, N. C., that same month, he was further honored by the rank of brevet brigadier general, United States army. At the close of the war, for "gallant and meritorious services in the field during the rebellion," Col. Carlin was brevetted major general of the regular army. Leaving the volunteer service in August, 1865, Col. Carlin held a number of positions on prominent army boards and commanded several posts. While on frontier duty in Dakota in 1872-3 he engaged against the Indian attack at Fort McKean. He was made colonel of the Fourth infantry, April, 1882, which command he has held since that time. In the labor troubles at Cœur d'Alene mining region last year Col. Carlin was particularly commended by Gen. Schofield, commanding the army of the United States, who wrote: "The good judgment and wise discretion exercised by Col. Carlin under trying circumstances and conflicting demands from persons representing opposing interests merited high commendation. It was due to Col. Carlin's discretionary action that no further destruction of life or property occurred, while peace and order and submission to law were restored. This service of Col. Carlin was the culmination of a long and distinguished career."

United States as a Gem Producer.

The United States has entered the field as a gem producer. Turquoise mines are in successful operation in New Mexico, and the stones taken out are in many respects, including color, equal to the best Persian. Rubies and sapphires are being mined in considerable quantity in several places in Montana, and the stones are beautiful, although, according to the Mineral Industry, no true red ruby or true blue sapphire has as yet been found there. Fine fire opals have been discovered near Colfax, in the state of Washington. Mine buildings have been erected, and a settlement called Gem City founded, which it is hoped will prove the center of a paying industry. A surprising fact to the general public will be the pearl fishing of Wisconsin, which for the last few years has been extensively carried on along the Pecatonica and Apple rivers and their tributary creeks. Pearls weighing over fifty grains each and varying in value from $500 to more than $1,000 have been taken.

SPOILING A ROMANCE.

How a Mischievous Chicago Goat Prevented an Elopement.

A certain young lady who lives in the annexed district, says the Chicago Inter Ocean, has had her romance spoiled by the uncalled-for and gratuitous interference of a gluttonously-inclined goat. This young lady had a beau who had proposed to her. Her parents objected to the match and forbade the young man to call on his heart's idol. The young lady was desperate, as eligible beaux are not easy to find in the suburbs. They resolved to elope.

The young lady was to be under his lady love's window at daybreak and signal by means of a cork. It is almost needless to state that one white end of that cord was attached to one of the large members of the maiden's pedal extremities. The goat did not rest easy that night and was wandering around the yard at an unreasonably early hour in the morning. After masticating all the sardine boxes and empty tomato cans, he discovered the pendulous cord and resolved to take it in as a dessert.

When the cord was drawn taut the goat reared up on his hind legs in an effort to follow it up the side of the house. He found that his efforts were unavailing, and he gave a desperate jerk. Then the trouble began. The maid awoke. The goat gave another violent pull that was almost as effective as that exercised by a ward alderman. The maid arose very suddenly from her couch, and heroically smothered a cry of pain. She stooped to detach the cord, and at the same instant the goat gave another jerk. The maid lost her equilibrium and thought she had also lost her toe, but the latter proved to be an erroneous supposition. She crawled on all fours to the window, and cried hoarsely to her supposed lover: "Don't pull so, Augustus, I'll come down."

Then followed another attempt to unfasten the cord. The goat was persistent, however, and did not notice the appeal save by several vicious nods of his head that were each accompanied by a feminine cry of pain from the upper regions.

Crazed by the pain she again called down into the darkness:

"If you don't stop pulling like that, Augustus, I won't come down at all."

Another savage jerk and a wail of bitter anguish burst uncontrolled from her ruby lips. The cry was heard by her mother, who hastened into the room, accompanied by an oil lamp and a look of fright. The maid fainted, the elopement was killed in the bud, the maiden's toe was sore for a month, but the goat escaped and there will be no cards sent out, as the youth and maid will never speak now as they pass by.

Where They Sit.

Mother—Don't you know better than to put your feet on the sofa? Look at the mud. Suppose some one should come in and sit down on it.

Small Son—This is the night Mr. Nicefello comes to see Sis, and they never sit on the sofa. They always sit on the rocking-chair.—Good News.

Not Fully Qualified.

Master (to cook)—You needn't say anything to your mistress, Jane, but have you a policeman for a sweetheart?

Cook (indignantly)—Certainly not, sir.

Master—Then you'll have to get one or else leave. I want some one to eat up the cold mutton.—The Million.

A Heavy Smoker.

Wife—My dear, I'll have to go and see a doctor. I'm afraid I have the tobacco heart, and it's often fatal.

Husband—Good gracious! You don't smoke.

Wife—No; but I live under the same roof with you.—N. Y. Weekly.

Harsh Treatment.

Judge Duffy—You have been up here twenty times for being drunk. I'll have to punish you.

"O, yes, nobody ever offers to reward me for being sober, and I've been sober time and again, but let me get drunk, and then I get it in the neck every time."—Texas Siftings.

Objected to Immigration.

Teacher—Who was the first man?

First Boy—George Washington.

Teacher—Next.

Second Boy—Adam.

First Boy (indignantly)—I didn't know you meant foreigners.—Boston Globe.

Hard to Answer.

Mamma (reviewing Ethel's "composition")—Why, child! That is no way to spell rhinoceros.

Ethel—But if it does not spell it, how did you know what it was?—Demorest's Magazine.

Overheard at a Reception.

Mrs. Clacker—Is that gentleman standing by the door a friend of yours?

Mrs. Whacker—Oh, no, indeed. That's my husband.—Life.

TRIED ON CHICAGO.

Parable of the Ten Virgins Under Salvation Army Management.

A novel show recently enacted for the benefit of the unrighteous citizens of Chicago is thus described by Once a Week: "It consisted of a dramatic representation of the parable of the ten virgins by certain female members of the Salvation Army clad in sheets and carrying small coal oil lamps, five of which burned brightly and the other five burned not at all. The virgins sat down on ten chairs and sang a plaint-

PARADE OF THE VIRGINS.

tive song: 'Trim your lamps and be ready for the midnight call.' The adjutant, like a Greek chorus, explained the scenes of the parable. Afterward a virgin with a guitar sang a solo: 'Hark, 'tis the voice of the Bridegroom calling.' The adjutant again advanced, reading the Bible story until he came to the verse: 'And the foolish said to the wise,' when the foolish virgins arose and began to entreat the wise for oil. Then the wise replied also in song, and as the five virgins went off to buy their own oil the wise five began to sing gayly: 'We believe in being ready when the Bridegroom comes' to the tune of 'Maggie Murphy's Home.'"

The ten maidens also paraded the streets clad in their ghostly garments and attracted much attention.

Cloth from the Paper Tree.

A cloth of very fine texture is made from the bark of the paper tree, a mulberry growing in the South Sea islands.

From the German.

Baroness—To tell the truth, Lieut. Muller, you are the first officer I have ever danced with who did not belong to the nobility.

Lieut. Muller—I can't imagine why my brother officers who belong to the nobility should shun you that way and refuse to dance with you, but perhaps they are too proud and don't care to dance with everybody. It does not make any difference to me whom I dance with.

The Man and the Place.

Superintendent—You want a job driving one of our street sprinklers, eh? Ever have any experience?

Applicant—No, but—

"But what?"

"Everybody tells me I'm so blind that I can't see a street crossing ten feet away and—"

"That'll do. Come 'round in the morning and take out the biggest sprinkler we own."—Buffalo Courier.

The Old Recipe.

"When I go shooting for birds," said Wallie, "I'm not going to use shot to kill 'em with. I'm going to catch 'em alive."

"How are you going to do it, Wallie?" asked his uncle.

"I'm going to load my gun with salt and shoot at their tails," said Wallie.—Our Young People.

Woman's Danger.

No man can ever know the devoted martyrdom of many women.

Unselfishly a woman works and suffers that home and loved ones may be happy.

When it seems as though her back would break, when she grows irregular, faint, irritable, loses all interest in society, gets the "blues," is crushed with that indescribable feeling of "bearing-down," she "drags along," day after day, suffering agonies that would appal a man.

The cause of all her trouble is some derangement of the uterus or womb, perhaps the development of a tumor, or cancerous humor, — anyway, give it instant attention.

Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound is the sure cure. It is recommended by thousands of women. Its cures are unparallelled.

THE STATE OF TRADE

What Bradstreet's Review Says of the Situation.

PROSPECTS BRIGHTER IN THE WEST

The Depression Continues in the East. The Failures for the Week 527, the Largest Number Ever Recorded in a Similar Period—The Money Market.

NEW YORK, July 22.—A bird's-eye view of general trade conditions throughout the country indicates the South Atlantic and Gulf States have suffered no material change in condition, dullness or exceptionally quiet trade being reported from almost all points with slight exceptions, a tendency to improvement being noted at Memphis, New Orleans and Dallas. The Pacific coast reports no further financial or commercial disturbance, and with excellent crop prospects, freer exports of wheat, and more liberal loans by the banks to producers of wheat, particularly in California, prospects there are relatively brighter.

East, however, while there is a tendency to greater ease in money, as at Boston, Baltimore, New York and Pittsburg, that tendency does not include larger or extended loans. At Philadelphia there is relatively less ease in financial circles. Some large manufacturing industries at the East are beginning to acknowledge the effect of the continued depression, one or more large woolen manufactories having closed temporarily, in addition to several cotton factories earlier in the week.

The encouraging feature in iron is continued reduction of stocks, but quoted iron prices in most instances are nominal. The advances in the price of anthracite is followed by a slower movement, while in most lines of staples quotations have been forced lower. There is a disposition West also to curtail the output of manufactured products, and runs on Kansas City and Denver banks, now ended, created for a time renewal of exceptional caution on the part of banks at many Western centers.

A large proportion of the suspended Colorado banks and mercantile institutions will pay in full and resume business, inability to borrow on or sell sample collaterals alone being the cause of Denver banks closing their doors. Bank clearings this week naturally show a decrease, the falling off being not less than 7-5 per cent. as compared with a year ago, and a smaller decrease as compared with the preceding week.

The financial position at New York has been to some extent unfavorably affected by the demands for money at St. Louis and Denver. Nearby manufacturing centers are also calling for currency to meet payrolls, and it is believed that the result will be a loss in cash holdings to an undetermined amount. Few changes have been made in the outstanding New York clearing house loan certificates, which are now nearly $28,000,000. The money market is unaffected by the break in stock values, call loans being at 6 per cent. or less, while time loans and commercial discounts are exceedingly restricted at high rates.

The speculative stock market tends to react again on diminishing foreign purchases and the absence of any revived investment demand. Industrial stocks are attacked on the renewed firmness of the loan market, and the extremely low prices for dividend-paying railroad securities fails to attract a buying power.

Railroad bonds are neglected, and large blocks of choice securities are hanging over the market awaiting the appearance of any demand. Foreign exchange is somewhat firmer on diminished foreign stock purchases.

About $1,000,000 gold came in from Europe and the West Indies, and some $300,000 is in transit from London. Silver is weaker on threatened adverse action by some of the nations of the Latin Union.

The number of failures for the week is the largest ever reported for a like period, 527 against 398 the week before, 179 in the third week of July, 1892, and 252 in 1891.

NEW YORK BANKS.

Comptroller of the Currency Eckels Says They Are in Good Shape.

WASHINGTON, July 22.—The official statement of the condition of National banks of New York city at the close of business on July 12, based on reports furnished the Comptroller of the Currency in response to a call made by him, has been completed. It shows that the reserve held by the banks is 25 30-100 per cent, or only 30-100 more than the legal requirement.

Notwithstanding this apparently slight surplus over the amount to be held in reserve as required by law, Comptroller Eckels states that the New York city banks are in excellent condition and show a remarkable firmness considering the extraordinary demands that have been made upon them.

No Troops Yet for Kansas Mines.

PITTSBURG, Kan., July 22.—The excitement which prevailed here yesterday on account of riot has greatly subsided. The men in Lee's pit are still at work but they expect trouble soon. The most serious trouble is anticipated when the stockades are completed and an effort is made to put men to work.

Hanged Himself With Suspenders.

LANCASTER, Pa., July 22.—Thursday Thomas Anderson, aged 31, an inmate of the County Insane Asylum, asked for a new pair of suspenders and shoestrings and yesterday he was found dead in his cell, having hanged himself with the suspenders to the iron bars of a window.

Governor and Mrs. Flower at Saratoga.

SARATOGA, N. Y., July 22.—Governor and Mrs. Flower and Mrs. Schley arrived here last evening in President Depew's private coach "Traveler" by special train from Watertown via Schenectady. They have cottage No. 11 at the United States Hotel.

Indicted for Playing Poker.

HUNTINGDON, W. Va., July 22.—Prosecuting Attorney George J. McComos, who was elected last fall and who has been attempting to put a stop to gambling in this city, was indicted yesterday for being a party in a poker game a short time ago.

Three Smothered to Death.

SAVANNAH, Ga., July 22.—A colored woman and her two children were smothered to death in a tenement house fire early last evening in the colored quarter of the city.

Running on Half Time.

ALBANY, July 22.—Owing to depression in business S. L. Munson, shirt manufacturer, will run his establishments on half time. He employs about 1,000 hands.

THEIR SENTENCES REMITTED.

Managers of the Clifton Race Track Get Off With Fines.

ASBURY PARK, N. J., July 22.—The New Jersey Board of Pardons met yesterday at the Governor's cottage at Sea Girt. All the members were present.

The most important case brought up was that of the managers of the Clifton Race Track association at Clifton, near Paterson. They were indicted in January, 1892, for keeping a disorderly house because bookmaking was allowed. They were convicted and sentenced to one year imprisonment and to pay $500 fines and costs.

The sentence of imprisonment was remitted but the fines and costs must be paid.

The board pardoned two prisoners confined in the Essex County Penitentiary for small offences and paroled two others.

The board will not meet until November except upon special call of Governor Werts, the president.

Miners Looking for Farm Work.

OMAHA, Neb., July 22.—The first of the miners from Colorado who were forced to seek employment elsewhere arrived in this city on a freight train this morning. They say thousands more will follow them. They are scattering for the harvest fields and the iron mines of the north and for Chicago.

A Shortage of $50,000.

HARTFORD, Conn., July 22.—Carnot O. Spencer, chief clerk of the Connecticut School Fund, who is in Lima, O., investigating the affairs of E. E. Gunn, the missing loan agent, has found a shortage of $50,000 so far.

THE CASE OF DR. MEYER.

He Wrote a Letter to His Wife Telling Her to Kill Herself.

He Promised to Commit Suicide Also. Lawyer Brooks Has Not Decided Whether He Will Defend the Poisoner.

NEW YORK, July 22.—Dr. Henry C. Meyer spends his time in cell 39, second tier, at the Tombs, under the watchful eye of Keeper Eyers, in silent waiting, while the friends and enemies he has made are being revealed by detectives of other cities. Dr. Meyer refused to say this morning whether he knows Carl Muller, alias August Wimmers, and his wife, the mysterious people who were brought from Chicago yesterday afternoon.

Wimmers is lodged in the House of Detention where reporters cannot get at him. Mrs. Wimmers, who was released in the care of her Chicago lawyer, James Kennedy, out of deference to her delicate condition, has been hidden away from the curious, and Daniel G. Gillette, superintendent of the medical revision department at the Mutual Life Insurance company's office declares that the business is in the hands of the district attorney and he knows nothing about it.

Charles W. Brooke said to-day that he had not yet decided whether to take up the case nor would he before Monday.

Assistant District-Attorney John F. McIntyre has been detailed to the prosecution of Dr. Meyer's case and he will devote the next few weeks of his life to the study of this most remarkable case.

District Attorney Nicoll has in his possession a letter written by Dr. Meyer to his wife advising her to commit suicide. In the letter Meyer promised to commit suicide also.

It is believed that Meyer wished to induce his wife to commit suicide so that there would be no possibility of her turning State's evidence against him. The letter will be used at the trial.

That Carl Muller, alias Jacob Wimmers, will turn State's evidence and testify against Dr. Meyer there is thought to be little doubt.

BODIES WASHED ASHORE.

Wreckage Sighted By a Lake Michigan Lighthouse Keeper.

SAULT STE MARIE, Mich., July 22.—Capt. Moore of the steamer City of Windsor, just arrived, says the lighthouse keeper at Big Duck Island reports finding the top of a cabin and part of a pilot house on the south side of Manitoulin Island, 14 miles northeast of Duck Island.

The body of one man was found fastened in the cabin and two other bodies were found on the beach. There was no name to show what vessel had been lost.

The Professors Dismissed.

MORGANTOWN, W. Va., July 22.—As a result of the long continual disputes, charges and counter-charges prompted by jealousy between President Turner and Prof. Ogden, of the West Virginia State University, the Regents have dismissed all the professors.

Two Young Women Drowned.

NEW YORK, July 22.—Miss Elizabeth Walters, 16 years old and Miss Mabel W. Hallett, 19 years old, of this city, were drowned in Jamaica bay, near Rockville Centre, L. I., yesterday.

Childs Offers to Erect a Monument.

SAN FRANCISCO, July 22.—Bishop Nichols of the Episcopal Church has received a letter from Geo. W. Childs, of Philadelphia offering to defray the expenses of erecting a suitable monument near Point Reyes, the place where Sir Francis Drake's chaplain read the Episcopal service in 1579. It is understood the monument will take the form of a memorial chapel.

Charged With Embezzlement.

BELVIDERE, N. J., July 22.—Aurelius J. Swayze, a prominent citizen of this place, was arrested yesterday charged with embezzling $8,000 belonging to Alphonse Lemieux. The money had been given to Swayze, it is alleged to purchase iron ore, but he appropriated it to his own use. He was admitted to bail in the sum of $1,000.

Lieut.-Gov. Sheehan Home.

NEW YORK, July 22.—Lieut.-Gov. Sheehan arrived on the steamship Paris yesterday from his European trip. A party of friends headed by Police Commissioner Sheehan went down the bay to welcome the Lieutenant-Governor on his return and escort him to his quarters at the Hoffman.

New York's New Street Commissioner.

NEW YORK, July 22.—The resignation of Thomas Brennan as street commissioner was accepted yesterday afternoon by Mayor Gilroy, who immediately announced the appointment of W. S. Andrews as commissioner for the unexpired term of Mr. Brennan, (nearly five years).

Pain's Grand Stand Destroyed.

CONEY ISLAND, N. Y., July 22.—The grand stand at Pain's fireworks, West Brighton, where the spectacle of the "Burning of Mount Vesuvius" has been presented nightly this season, was entirely destroyed by fire yesterday. Loss about $15,000.

FOUR SOLDIERS KILLED

And Six Mortally Wounded By the Flemons Gang in Virginia.

PIKEVILLE, Ky., July 22.—Information has been received at this city of a terrible bloody fight in Wise county, Va., last Wednesday. For several months past the Virginia authorities have wanted the Flemons boys very badly. The boys, four in number, are accused of participating in a triple murder some months ago. Doc. Taylor, one of the gang, was captured and hanged for the crime, but the Flemons boys have so far evaded arrest.

Two weeks or more ago the Governor of Virginia sent a company of 60 soldiers to assist the sheriff of Wise county in arresting the outlaws.

On Wednesday the militia overtook the outlaws and a horribly bloody battle occurred. Four soldiers were killed and six mortally wounded. Oliver Flemons was shot also, and is dying.

Died from His Injuries.

ASBURY PARK, N. J., July 22.—David T. Newlin, a retired merchant of Philadelphia, who was accidentally shot Thursday by his son, Joseph D. Newlin, a prominent hardware merchant of this place, died last night. He had been unconscious most of the time since he made an anti-mortem statement to Coroner Van Dyke of Long Branch.

Convict Post Exposed the Plot.

SARANAC LAKE, N. Y., July 22.—The man who exposed the plot of the convicts at Dannemora to murder the guards and escape is, it is said upon good authority, George F. Post, of New York, the friend of "Bunco King" O'Brien.

A PLOT AGAINST SAGE.

Mrs. Mulheron Was Forced to Testify as She Did.

She is a Sister of the Plaintiff—Lawyer Then Marshall Tried in Vain to Bribe Her, Terrified Her.

NEW YORK, July 22.—The mysterious witness who testified before Lawyer Charles A. Buck in the suit of Delia Keegan against Russell Sage for $100,000 for alleged betrayal under promise of marriage 25 years ago, it is disclosed was Mrs. Mary Mulheron, a sister of Delia Keegan, the plaintiff.

Mrs. Mulheron now declares that she had been offered bribes to testify against Mr. Sage and that Lawyer Marshal only succeeded in getting her to testify by making her believe that in case she refused he would send her to prison.

EXHIBITORS NOT THE BOSSES.

Action of Russians at the Fair Meets With Disapproval.

WORLD'S FAIR GROUNDS, July 22.—The action of the Russian exhibitors who, because of alleged insult, closed their exhibits in the Manufacturers' and Liberal Arts building, does not meet with the approbation of the World's Fair officials. Charles H. Schawb, of the Council of Administration, said to-day:

"The exhibitors, foreign and American, must obey the rules of the Exposition and the sooner they come to this conclusion the better it will be for them. If they attempt to close their exhibits permanently we will put a custodian in charge and open it up at their expense. The Fair is to be managed by the authorities in charge and not by the exhibitors."

French Troops Off for Siam.

ALGIERS, July 22.—Five hundred of the Foreign Legion of the French army have sailed from Oran for Marseilles, whence they will be conveyed to Siam.

IN THE FOREIGN WORLD

Great Britain Will Not Assist Siam in Her Trouble.

STORY OF RUSSIAN AID A HOAX.

The Statements in Newspaper to that Effect Unfounded—Ducret and Norton, the Forgers, Held for Trial—No Cholera in Naples.

LONDON, July 22.—Important communication has passed between the Foreign Office and Capt. H. M. Jones, British Minister Resident in Bangkok. Vice-Admiral Fremantle, commander-in-chief of the Chinese division of the fleet, is hastening to Singapore, where dispatches from the Admiralty await him. The greater part of the squadron under his command accompanies him.

Great Britain informed Siam yesterday that she could not recognize any obligation to assist her. It is evident, therefore, that the Siamese government must patch up as best it can most of its differences with France. In the territorial arrangements, however, Great Britain will have a voice.

The exact nature of her demands can not be ascertained before France shall specify more particularly than she has specified in her ultimatum, the boundaries of the territory to be brought under French control. The ultimatum is notably indefinate as regards this point. Even Siam is still in the dark and her efforts to obtain light from M. Pavie bid fair to remain vain for several days.

The vital part of the French demand for territory may include the whole left bank of the Mekong river. This territory Siam will not surrender without a struggle. France has given Siam a month in which to withdraw from the ports on the Lower Mekong.

Siam manifests all willingness to pay France the indemnity demanded for injuries to French citizens and property, although the indemnity specified by France is far in excess of the damages.

The Ultimatum.

LONDON, July 22.—The Bangkok correspondent of the Times says concerning the terms of France's ultimatum:

"Europe, and especially Great Britain should know that this territorial demand represents 95,000 square miles. It includes the province that Burmah ceded to Siam on the condition that it never should be ceded to any other power, and 50,000 miles of northwestern Siam into which the French have never advanced.

"The demand for the evacuation of the left bank of the Mekong river proves that Governor General de Lanessan's statements regarding previous French possession of the tracts claimed are untrue."

THE STATEMENT A HOAX.

Russia Has Not Declared that She Will Aid France in Siam.

PARIS, July 22.—Pains have been taken to discover the truthfulness of the very important statement published in the Petit Journal and the Nation to the effect that Baron Mohrenheim, the Russian Ambassador to France, had assured the French government that Russia would support France on every point in dispute between herself and Siam, and that Russian warships were on their way to the Gulf of Siam to uphold France and protect French citizens.

Baron de Korff, an attache of the English Embassy, says that the statement was a hoax. Baron Morenheim went to Royat on Tuesday last, the day he was alleged to have conveyed to M. Develle, the French Foreign Minister, information as to the intentions of Russia. As a matter of fact sufficient time had not then elapsed for Russia to have conveyed to her representative information as to whether she intended to take any part in the dispute or not.

The Temps' special correspondent in Saigon says:

"The Siamese chief, Priapitcha, commanding at Khong, sent a flag of truce to the French captain, begging him to cease firing, as, according to Priapitcha's advices from Bangkok, a French admiral had arrived there to treat for peace. The captain replied that he was without instructions, but would cease as soon as Siamese forts should be abandoned. The result is unknown to Saigon."

DUCRET AND NORTON COMMITTED

Charged With Forging the Documents That Accused Clemenceau of Treason.

PARIS, July 22.—M. Ducret, editor of the Cocarde, who was arrested on the charge of complicity in the forgery of certain documents alleged to have been stolen from the British Embassy in this city, has been committed for trial.

Norton, the mulatto who furnished M. Ducret with the documents, was committed for trial on the charge of forging them.

It was these documents that M. Millevoye recently read in the Chamber of Deputies to show that certain Frenchmen of prominence, notably M. Clemenceau, were, or had been engaged in treasonable conspiracies against France, and that some of them had betrayed state secrets to Great Britain in return for large sums of money.

Lord Dufferin, the British Ambassador to France, was bitterly assailed by the newspapers of Paris for the part he was alleged to have taken in the matter.

German Ships for Siam.

BERLIN, July 22.—The German government will send several men-of-war to Siam to protect German residents and their interests. This step was taken partly in response to the urgent request of the Hanse cities, which have commercial relations with Siam ports.

To Reinforce the French Garrison.

PARIS, July 22.—A despatch from Saigon to the Temps says that 300 men under the command of a colonel have been sent to reinforce the French garrison on the Island of Khong in the Mekong river.

FOUR FATALLY HURT.

Terrible Explosion in a Mine at Edwardsville, Pa.

A Naked Lamp Came in Contact With a Body of Gas—The Injured Men are All Horribly Burned.

WILKESBARRE, Pa., July 22.—An awful explosion took place in No. 4 shaft of the Kingston Coal Company, at Edwardsville, yesterday afternoon. A gang of men were at work driving a slope when a naked lamp came in contact with a large body of gas.

The shock of the explosion tore away timbers, smashed mine cars and horribly burned three men and one boy, who are not expected to live.

The injured are:

William Jones, miner, aged 43 years, widower with two children.

Martin Brennan, driver boy, aged 16 years.

Benj. Wilson, miner, aged 60, six children.

Patrick Malia, miner, aged 45, married, four children.

A rescuing party in charge of Superintendent Rosser went to the surface. The flesh upon young Brennan and William Jones was literally cooked and presented a sickening sight.

The mine is very gaseous, an explosion having occured in the same place some three weeks ago in which several men were badly burned.

DOES NOT KNOW THATCHER.

Carlisle Has Never Met the Captain from Aspen, Col.

WASHINGTON, July 22.—Secretary Carlisle, accompanied by his family, returned to Washington last evening after an absence of three weeks spent at the World's Fair. The Secretary was much pleased with the Exposition.

When shown the despatch from Denver crediting Captain Thatcher, of Aspen, Col., with saying that after personal talks with the President and Secretary Carlisle, he had been assured by them that they would not try to secure the unconditional repeal of the Sherman law, he said that he had made no such statement to Capt. Thatcher. He did not know him and had never had such a conversation with him.

The President a Great Fisherman.

BUZZARD'S BAY, Mass., July 22.—President Cleveland has a splendid reputation as a fisherman. The local salts hereabouts say he is very successful with the rod and reel, for that he uses, in preference to the ordinary line, as the sport is more exciting.

Evidence Did Not Show the Cause.

JAMESTOWN, N. J., July 22.—After an investigation that has lasted six weeks, as to the cause of the death of Minnie Burch, who it was thought was poisoned, the coroner's jury last night rendered a verdict that the evidence did not show the cause of death.

The Miniature Bancroft.

WASHINGTON, July 22.—The miniature battleship Bancroft has arrived at Annapolis and was transferred to the charge of Superintendent Phythian of the Naval Academy for use in the practical instruction of the cadets in the arts of modern warfare.

Durnan Again Challenges Stephenson.

TORONTO, Ont., July 22.—Ed Durnan has renewed his challenge to C. Stephenson, the New Zealand champion, now in Detroit, to row a three-mile race for $500 a side. Durnan will row at Detroit or any course Stephenson may name.

NEWS OF THE DAY.

The loss by fire in Long Island City yesterday morning is $1,250,000.

The National Jewelers' Association have chosen Cincinnati as the city in which to hold the next convention.

Field Marshal Baron Ferdinand Bauer, Austro-Hungarian Minister of War, was stricken with apoplexy yesterday.

Ten thousand turners arrived in Milwaukee, yesterday, to participate in the exercises of the National Bund and Turnfest.

The annual cruise of the First Naval Battalion of the State of New York, which was to have taken place during the week July 22-29, has been postponed until August 26.

One hundred and fifty miners employed in the Sunday Lake Mine at Wakefield, Mich., controlled by the Schlesinger syndicate, went on strike yesterday because they had not received pay for the last month's work.

In purchasing silver bullion yesterday at 70 cents per ounce the Treasury Department paid a lower price than it has ever paid for the commodity. The highest price paid for silver bullion under the Sherman law was $1.20 per ounce.

There have been some changes in the position of the United States vessels on the Asiatic station. The Alert left Chemulpo, Corea, last night, when the Marion took her place. The Alert is under orders to return to the United States next October.

NOW ON THE ROYAL ROAD

REV. BRUCE IN THE STRAIGHT AND NARROW WAY.

The Way That Leads to Health, Happiness and Long Life—An Amherst Man Who Paid His Own College Expenses.

Happiness is so fragile that one risks the loss of it by talking of it.

It flies from him who deliberately pursues it, and shuns the hand that would seize upon it; yet much unhappiness may be avoided by keeping well.

To the steady brain worker (and all are brain workers) it is important to be able to perceive the indications of the coming storm; Rev. Charles C. Bruce, the well-known pastor, of Somerville, Mass., preaches a very practical sermon to those who, from sickness, are unhappy; he was sick; he took Paine's celery compound.

REV. CHARLES C. BRUCE.

the wonderful remedy that makes people well; he is now on the royal road to health and long life; his own words are:

"I am nearly 38 years of age and weigh normally 158 pounds, and at present my weight is 148½; my sickness took me down to 134½, so you can see that I am getting back to be myself, and, God willing, shall soon be there.

"I have been a very sick man, but owing to the goodness of the supreme powers and to a few good friends I am now on the royal road whose end is perfect health.

"I was born in Peterboro, N. H., and lived there until I was 16 years old; my father, who is a very noble man, sent me to the Appleton academy for three years, then he told me 'if you want any more education you must get it'; so when I was 16 I went to Amherst college and earned every cent that paid my bills there for 4 years and graduated; then I was persuaded to go to Andover seminary, and studied there 3 years, and took my degree as a clergyman in 1778, and went to preaching; I preached 11 or 12 years and then went back to college and studied 2 years for the Ph. D. degree.

"All these 2 years I was studying and supporting my family; this, as you will easily imagine, was excessive labor; at length I was elected to a position in a high school in Boston, but the work told on me, and I grew ill; the illness lasted for about a year and a half; but now I am so that I can see the end, and a more thankful man you never saw; a gentleman who lived near me began to use Paine's celery compound and it built him up; I thought of this and soon I was led to use it, and it has been bringing me out all right.

"I am inclined to think that I will soon be herculean in strength."

Paine's celery compound is to-day prescribed by physicians in every town in the country; it has made thousands of overworked and wornout men and women well and thankful; there is not a profession or calling that has not sent testimonial after testimonial to the value of Paine's celery compound. It makes people well. Try it and be convinced.

DOUBLE MURDER AND SUICIDE.

Richard Shoemaker Kills Two Men and Himself at Metropolis, Ill.

METROPOLIS, Ill., July 22.—The most shocking double murder and suicide that ever occurred in this section took place in this city last evening, when Richard Shoemaker killed Richard Lukens, jr. and Geo. Lukens, seriously wounded their father, Richard, and then committed suicide by sending a bullet into his own body.

All the parties were men of high social standing in this city and were well known throughout Southern Illinois and Kentucky.

Poisoned By Buttermilk.

CLEVELAND, July 22.—A family named Piers of Middleburg, this county, has been entertaining a Mr. and Mrs. Smith and Mr. and Mrs. Rudolph, of Cleveland, for the past few days. Thursday all partook of buttermilk and soon manifested signs of poisoning. Dr. Cope, of Bere, was called. To-day several of the afflicted persons are in a critical condition. The attention of the State Food Commissioner has been called to the case.

Capt. Barrett Denies the Story.

SAN FRANCISCO, July 22.—Capt. Barrett, to whom was attributed the story that the Mohican had been disabled by the Alexandria has arrived here. He denies that he ever made such statement and says he does not believe the reported fight ever occurred. He thinks the seizure of the sealer Alexandra by order of Capt. Sudlow of the Mohican was the foundation for the story.

Cholera Infantum in Buffalo.

BUFFALO, N. Y., July 22.—Cholera infantum is still raging in Buffalo. During the last three days 32 deaths have occurred. The total number of deaths from the disease for the week ended Friday is 91.

New Club House Opened.

ENGLEWOOD, N. J., July 22.—The new club house of the Englewood Field Club was formally opened last evening with a reception, followed by a dance.

WEATHER INDICATIONS.

For New Jersey To-Morrow: Fair, Westerly Winds, Shifting to Northerly, Probably Cooler by Sunday Evening.

EARLY INTELLIGENCE.

—A song service will be held in the W. C. T. U. rooms to-night.

—Everybody wants Chatham street's name changed to Brook avenue.

—Hand & Runyon have sold to A. D. Thompson 20 fine lots at Lorraine.

—Spencer's lima-bean patch is receiving the tenderest kind of attention.

—A borough party is being made up to visit the World's Fair in September.

—Alex Thompson, the expert electrician, is stringing the wires for the street railway.

—George Demarest is proud of a catch of four large black bass hooked in Tier's lake the other day.

—The letter-carriers were photographed in a group, Wednesday, and the proof shows them up in great shape.

—Sam Hedden, Plainfield's pioneer hackman, lives in a modest little cottage on Duer street, North Plainfield.

—The merry-go-round near Tier's dam ran over a dog Thursday night, cutting off a leg and the tail. No inquest was deemed necessary.

—For a few idle hours' occupation take your rod and reel and fly-fish for dace in Green and Stony brooks. They're biting and are of good size.

—Judgment for $15,315 was entered in New York, Thursday, against John I. Holly of this city, in favor of the executors of the estate of Reuben Ross.

—At Sharkey's blacksmith shop on Emily street, North Plainfield, village statesmen talk politics to the music of an anvil chorus and a bellows orchestra.

—Many a tired, jaded horse is refreshed by a cool drink of pure water at L. A. Hummer's pump adjoining his new feed store at Park avenue and the railroad.

—The road leading from Scotch Plains to New Providence is being macadamized at the expense of the county. The road is now dug up so that bicyclists cannot pass over it with safety.

—An organ with only three stops—three times a day for meals—can be heard any time in "Darkest North Plainfield"; (Race street), where the borough's colored population is concentrating.

—THE DAILY PRESS was selected by the Union county board of freeholders as the best medium of this section for advertising proposals for the improvement of the newly adopted county roads.

—Den Sutphen, his stepson Jake Bergen, and his brother-in-law Charley Vandervort, warn all persons that they will not "pay funer'l 'spences nor buy gravestuns" for anyone found dead in their watermelon patch.

—Hammocks are to be placed in Boice's apple orchard by the nearby neighbors, and the boards of health of the city and borough are to be invited to spend an evening there, where the atmosphere is flavored from the Peace street sewer outlet.

—Pete Seader says that if the electric light over the engine-house door was a little nearer the clouds people up over in the mountains would take it for the moon in the early part of the evening because it shines so bright. It's lighted by the North Plainfield current.

—There is one place in town where they never look for any dull season. Edward White, the proprietor, says he believes in doing business all the year round and offering inducements every day in the year. For the coming week there will be a sale of ladies' muslin underwear, bought of a manufacturer who wanted the cash and sold his stock at a sacrifice to get it.

—Joe Gavin, of the West End Dairy, says the quantity of milk used this summer is far in excess of previous years, and that is one reason of its scarcity; besides, he adds, the cows do not give as much this warm weather as they usually do. They prefer to rest under trees and keep their tail brushes at work on the flies rather than mow grass in the hot sun. Then, of course, Joe says, when milk is scarce, people want more of it.

The American Catarrh Cure

JOB MALE'S ESTATE.

AT LAST THE HEIRS RECEIVE THEIR PORTIONS.

$467,400 Divided Among 13 of Them—All But Four, Canadians—Mrs. Fenno, the Housekeeper, Receives $51,933.

The Job Male estate was finally settled yesterday, when the executors apportioned the property among the heirs.

The total value of the estate was fixed at $467,400.

Sarah DeLany of Coburg, Ont., and John DeLany of Orillia, Ont., got one-sixth apiece, or $77,900.

Mrs. Gertrude Fenno of Plainfield, who was housekeeper for the deceased ex-mayor, and Robert Male and Mrs. Strathdee, both of Albany, got one-ninth each, or $51,933.33.

One-eighteenth apiece went to Mrs. Tarbuck of Elizabeth, Pa., and Job Male, Charles Male, Ambrose Male and Mary Brown, all of Coburg, Ont. Each share was $25,966.66.

The remaining one-eighteenth was divided among W. Batty of Coburg, L. Batty of Lakeport, and Anna Latty of Plainville, all of Canada.

GATHERING OF THE TRIBES.

Miantonomah, Rahwack and Poambo Meet Together and Smoke the Peace-Pipe.

The Red Men had a big powwow in the Plainfield wigmam last night. Miantonomah tribe did the honors nobly. Over the chair of sachem John H. Carney hung a beautiful emblem bearing the words

MIANTONOMAH
WELCOME
POAMBO—CHIEFS—RAHWACK.

The letters were of gold, and the surrounding decorations were in the colors of the order. The design was very elaborate, being decorated with fine ferns; and the entire room and officers' chairs were adorned with cedar trees, cat-tails and ferns.

The visiting tribes came by stages. As they entered the room a beautiful bouquet was presented to the presiding sachem, adding many smiles to Mr. Carney's face. His remarks of appreciation and welcome will long be remembered.

The Adoption Degree was conferred on a paleface in the amplified form, and the visitors expressed delight with the good work of the team.

Brothers Odam and York, of Miantonomah, sang, and talks and songs were given by the following:

Rahwack — George Walker, George Munday, Peter Crane, Jacob Tousant, Albert Anderson, Fred Bewing, William Leary, Thomas McDonald, Edward Evans, Martin Murtaugh, W. J. Tillyer and James Donohue.

Poambo—Andrew Peterson, Annie T. Eskerbort, John Jacobson, Christable Sund, Mable Hanson, Joe Miller, A. Mallinson, Hans Gleason, Martin Hansen, Fred Slater.

A most satisfactory supper was served, and all left the wigwam with regret at parting and feeling that the evening had been most delightfully spent.

DELUGED BY MOLTEN IRON.

Dreadful Accident to a Moulder at Pond's.

James Simmons, a moulder at Pond's, was so badly burned on his feet and shoulders yesterday afternoon, that he had to be taken to Muhlenberg hospital. He was at work pouring a ten-ton casting, and while the ladle was over his head it accidentally turned, throwing the molten iron all over him. Simmons made an effort to escape, but slipped and fell, and his feet, left leg and both shoulders were horribly burned.

BY THE WAY.

—Snipe abound down Green brook way.

—John Burke, formerly of Plainfield but now of Pottstown, has been secured to play in the Reading base-ball outfield.

—A Dunellen farmer was severely gored by a cow whose calf he was handling, and had to be patched up by Dr. Brakeley.

—The row between Patrick Haines and James Hennessey, of which these columns have told, resulted in Hennessy's acquittal by judge Coddington to-day. Haines was fined $15.

—The Plainfield cyclers who represented the Crescent Wheelmen in the Asbury Park races yesterday all withdrew after the trial heats. They claim to be in hard luck, but Crescent Wheelmen members censure them for lack of "sand".

—There were two runaways on Somerset street last night. One was a farmer's wagon, and little damage was done; the other was the double team of baker H. A. Voehl, attached to his country-route wagon, which was somewhat damaged without seriously hurting anyone. The horses ran into their stables.

Capt. Martin to Clerk It.

W. J. Kiely represented the Plainfield Lyceum Cyclers and acted as secretary at the executive committee meeting of the Journal trophy Union county championship races, Thursday night. Only two teams, the Elizabeth Athletic club and the Elizabeth Wheelmen, have entered the race. Capt. F. L. C. Martin of Plainfield will act as clerk of course.

Fishermen in Luck.

John Cose, George Firstbrook, Thomas Reid and Fred Lewis, after fishing from 3 a. m. to 12, yesterday, at New Market, caught about 45 pounds of nice fish, including 5 carp, the heaviest weighing 5½ pounds caught by Mr. Reid. John Cose pulled in a turtle weighing nearly 6 pounds.

Real-Estate Hustlers.

J. D. Runyon and Charles H. Hand have bought from A. D. Thompson a lot on Mountain avenue near Albert Runyon's Queen Anne cottage, on which they will build a $2,500 house in the near future. They have also bought several lots at Evona.

PARTICULAR MENTION.

Fred. Smalley is at Ocean Grove.

Frank Blatz is about to spend a week at Asbury Park.

J. D. Runyon has gone to Bloomington, Ill., for ten days.

The Rev. and Mrs. Robert Lowry, of Park avenue, are at Asbury Park.

Mr. and Mrs. A. M. Runyon, of Madison avenue, are enjoying a little rest at Easton.

Postmaster James A. Baker is improving rapidly and will be able to be out in a few days.

Mr. and Mrs. Will Dunn, of Central avenue, contemplate a week's outing and rest in Ocean Grove.

Harold Tomlinson, of East Sixth street, will spend Sunday as the guest of Mr. and Mrs. Siebrecht of New Rochelle.

The Misses Addie and Carrie Dunn, of Philadelphia, are visiting their cousin, Miss Susie Van Winkle, of Park avenue.

Thaddeus Doane, jr., is spending his vacation in the Catskills, Adirondacks and at Saratoga, instead of Poughkeepsie.

The Rev. B. Fay Mills has refused the degree D. D. He says he prefers to be like the Saviour, without title, a plain minister.

Will MacClymont, of Washington avenue, will leave town Monday for Asbury Park, where he will spend the greater part of August.

The Netherwood coach parade has been postponed for a week, on account of four of the party starting off to-day for a drive to Lake Hopatcong.

Manning Hughes, a former resident in this city, and a brother of the late John Hughes of North Plainfield, died at Morris Plains Thursday.

Herbert Ryno, formerly of this city, and now engineer at the Haverstraw electric light station, on the Hudson, is visiting relatives and friends here.

President W. D. Murray, of the Y. M. C. A., returned yesterday from a prolonged trip through the west, taking in the World's Fair at Chicago.

Miss Kittie Manning is enjoying the many attractions of Asbury Park, and in the estimation of the young men has herself become one of the greatest attractions.

Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Chandler, after a pleasant three weeks' visit with Mr. and Mrs. Daniel B. Page, of West Third street, returned to their home at Harrisburgh, Pa., to-day.

Wm. Meeker, John Everly and Charles Burnett went fishing at Townley's Bridge on the Passaic river, Thursday night, and caught more fish than they could conveniently carry home.

P. Hall Packer, of Seabright, brother of Garrett C. Packer, of this city, is mentioned as a candidate for the office of State Vice Councilor, at the next session of the State Council of the Jr. O. U. A. M., to be held in Trenton in October.

The other day when H. P. Bronk was looking about Washington Park, North Plainfield, he was both pleased and surprised at its beauty, and said it was the same old story over again: "One man inaugurated the improvements in that end of the village, and a few others slipped in and got both the glory and money". Mr. Bronk also said: "He was passing life smoothly and was contented with the world". He now resides in South Amboy.

Vladimir de Pachmann, the great pianist, arrived last Saturday, and was seen yesterday by Albert Venino, who after listening awhile to a wonderful rendition of several Chopin numbers, invited the little man out to refresh himself, which Pachmann did to the queen's taste. For nearly five hours Mr. Venino had the pleasure of hearing the pianist give utterance to his ideas of music and musicians. Liszt and Rubinstein came in for the lion share of his admiration, and Paderewski was not entirely forgotten. Mr. Pachmann's first battle was with a big watermelon, which, as he declared, got the best of him and laid him up for several days. On Monday Mr. Venino will see him again to make arrangements for his first Plainfield concert, the date of which will soon be announced. A few subscription cards are at Reynolds's pharmacy for people who have not received any circulars, and who may desire to avail themselves of the opportunity of hearing the greatest series of concerts ever given in Plainfield.

Off for Poughkeepsie Again.

The Crescents will go to Poughkeepsie next Tuesday for two games. The trip will be a pleasant one, and those who intend to go with the team should notify manager Keller, as special rates can be secured. The total expense of the trip from New York, including admission to the games, will not exceed $5. The team leaves New York Tuesday morning, via the Albany day boat.

Old Partners May Re-unite.

L. A. Hummer, of Park avenue, has sold out his grain business to T. R. VanZandt, of Irvington, who will take possession July 31. Mr. Hummer and Andrew Lutkins will probably go into partnership again and engage in the stock business.

Safe, Sure and Speedy.

No external remedy ever yet devised has so fully and unquestionably met these three prime conditions as successfully as ALLCOCK'S POROUS PLASTERS. They are safe because they contain no deleterious drugs and are manufactured upon scientific principles of medicine. They are sure because nothing goes into them except ingredients which are exactly adapted to the purposes for which a plaster is required. They are speedy in their action because their medicinal qualities go right to their work of relieving pain and restoring the natural and healthy performance of the functions of muscles, nerves and skin. Do not be deceived by misrepresentation. Ask for ALLCOCK'S, and let no solicitation or explanation induce you to accept a substitute.

SUN-LIGHT and FRESH AIR are THE BEST DISINFECTANTS, of course; but you can't apply them in every situation. What next? Well, that depends. For damp cellars use Quicklime, plenty of it. For vaults and cesspools use COPPERAS; cheap stuff; we sell it by the pound or hundred-weight—instructions thrown in. For kitchen sinks, for water-closets, for house plumbing, for the sick room, to deodorize discharges, to purify the air and to prevent contagion, use REYNOLDS'S ODORLESS DISINFECTANT. Made and sold for fifteen years at

Reynolds's Pharmacy, Corner Park and North Avenues.

TRIBUTE OF AN OLD COMRADE.

Loving Memorial Penned by One Whose Heart Is Grief-Stricken.

Jacob Pentz of Fanwood contributes to the current issue of Shooting and Fishing the following glowing tribute to his departed friend and comrade, Wm. L. Force:

Last week the grim destroyer carried off after short illness one of my oldest acquaintances, the man named at the head of this. My friendship with him began in the days of the Middlesex Gun Club when Force was its secretary, and the club had made a reputation for itself as a shooting club second to none. When the club's annual tournament drew men from all parts of the country to be present at the shootings. When such men as Budd and Stice and Elliott and Brewer, with a host of lesser lights, sought the shootings for a bit of the prize money or merchandise prizes that were offered for competition, and one of the chief workers for success on these occasions was the sportsman who has just left us.

Billy Force, as he was generally known, was more of an angler than a shooting man, although he loved both sports. His best hobby was fishing, and none knew better than he of the capital sport to be had in Jersey waters, if one but knew where to look, and to Billy Force it was all an open book. It will be now one of the regrets of the balance of my life, that I did not accept an invitation often extended to me by Billy to accompany him on a fishing trip for dace. "Uncle Jake," said he, "I will give you as fine sport as you have ever had in your life. I know where the fish are, and I will show you how to take them. They are gamy, and of a size sufficient to tempt any angler in the land."

"Where is that favored spot?" I queried.

"Never you mind! I'll show you, personally. It is just a pleasant drive from here to where a little, tiny stream empties its clear waters in the muddy flow of the Raritan. I have never taken but one companion there; he died last year. Come, Uncle Jake, you must go."

Alas that I did not. Force told me that a mess of a pound's weight was nothing uncommon, and a half-pound fellow the rule. He assured me that I should have the finest of fishing, and something to talk of the balance of my life.

Force was born within the present limits of Plainfield, New Jersey, a little over fifty years ago. His father owned and ran a milling place on what is now known as Green brook. The lad was never fond of the dust and fumble of the mill. He has often told the writer, that, on every occasion that offered, he would steal away with rod and line, and hunt every stream of the neighborhood to its very source. Continued tramping over field and hill, highland and valley, gave him a knowledge of the country that I do not believe is equalled by any man now living. After rod and reel came dog and gun. Loving shooting as he did, it was but by-play to the ardent affection in which he held the angler's art. There was that something in his nature, that drew him to the purling waters of the brook, or the placid surface of pond and lake. There he was at home, and there he was supremely happy. For years the passion abided with him, and with another old acquaintance of mine, Asa Whitehead of Newark, it has been his custom to spend each year the weeks of the hot term at the shores of Lake Hopatcong. Here those old companions lounged away the summer season. The waters of that lake were as well-known to them both as the stars of the heavens to an astronomer. They knew where to look for the monster black bass, or, later in the season, the lurking-place of that long-jawed marauder of inland waters, the pickerel. Seldom a day passed without finding them en voyage, and seldom a night found them with empty creels. Two more devoted Izaak Waltons never made a cast or reeled in a line. Thus it was that Billy Force carried his age well. His eye was as bright, as keen, sparkled to the well telling of a tale, as if he had been a score of years the younger. His skin bore the healthy tint of out-of-door exercise, and showed the effect in its healthy color of days passed in the open air. Sunburn had no terror for him; there was no fear of tan. Then when winter came what pleasure to recite again the capture of some huge bass or big small-mouth. I often fancied he enjoyed telling full as much as he must have done the original capture. In person, Mr. Force was of medium height, sturdily built, square-shouldered, and with the typical eye of the sportsman peering from a pleasant, kindly face. Its expression showed the intelligence of the man, the quick working of the mind within.

Billy Force led a busy life; he was editor, journalist, printer, sportsman, all in one. He began life as a compositor, following that avocation for years. Then he returned to his native town, and after a short residence started the journal known as the Plainfield Constitutionalist. This was in January, 1868, and the journal proved a success from its very start. Its name has ever been the same, and it has never missed an issue. As his city grew it outgrew the weekly budget of news offered, and demanded a daily journal. The man was equal to the occasion, and from the desire came the Daily Press established by himself and brother. I have said my friend Force was eminently a busy man. That he was a popular one is fully shown by the following clipping from a recent issue of The Press. I grant that in this portion of his life I knew him not as well as I did in the twin paths of shooting and fishing. Here we had common desire and common ends. In addition to the orders and associations mentioned below, he served as postmaster of Plainfield during President Cleveland's first term of office, and proved himself one of the most efficient that ever filled similar position.

In the brotherhoods of man Mr. Force was a cherished associate. He was a member of Jerusalem Lodge, No. 26, F. and A. M.; of Jerusalem chapter, No. 24, R. A. M.; of Trinity Commandery, No. 17, K. T.; of Easter Lodge, No. 8,542, K. of H.; and of the Exempt Firemen's Association. He was also ex-foreman of Gazelle Engine company, No. 1; for many years a member and secretary of the Plainfield Fire Department Commissioners; Fish Warden of Union county at his death, and for years previous, under the appointment of the Governors of New Jersey; for many years a member and secretary of the Union and Middlesex Gun clubs, and later of the Climax Gun club. He was also secretary for years of the Game and Fish Protective Association of New Jersey.

He was buried last Thursday afternoon, and I can, even now, hardly bring myself to believe that he has passed from my sight forever. He was of large heart. So generous a nature that I shall sadly miss him. When one is getting along in years, new friends are not readily found. When one drops away it is like the breaking of a strand in a rope. The breaking is forever. There is no such thing as making it new. The rupture is for all time to the one that remains. And to Billy Force it is with trembling fingers and aching heart your old friend says this good bye!

It may hap be as well to mention the accident that led to Mr. Force's death. He had been out driving with some friends, when the horse for some unknown cause stopped suddenly and began kicking. In a moment's cessation of this work Mr. Force started to get out of the wagon and find the trouble if possible. As he arose in the seat, bending forward, the animal kicked again, striking Mr. Force full in the breast. The blow threw him sideways, and, in falling, he went out of the wagon head first. Striking upon his arm it was fractured in two places. Upon getting home, it was further found that the breast bone was broken. The shock was too great for a man of his years to quickly rally from. The lungs impeded in their action failed to expand properly, and a few days saw as a complication pneumonia set in. From this last he never rallied, but gradually sank until he passed away. He was the most uncomplaining of sufferers, and not a murmur escaped him throughout his illness. I do not believe Billy Force had an enemy in this world. He leaves a widow but no children to mourn his most sudden taking off. His last words of consciousness were words of hope and love to the one who had been his companion through all times of striving, from the very beginning to that of the one that brought comfort and prosperity at the end.

Kindly Sympathy.

Plainfield Council, No. 711, R. A., of which Albert L. Force is a member, has given him the following kindly expression of sympathy and brotherly feeling:

PLAINFIELD COUNCIL, No. 711,
ROYAL ARCANUM,
PLAINFIELD, N. J., July, 18, 1893.

A. L. Force, Esq.,

DEAR SIR AND BROTHER:—At our last regular meeting held July 10, 1893, it was moved and seconded

"That the sympathy of this Council be extended to Bro. Albert L. Force in his deep affliction, this the loss by death of his brother, Wm. L. Force."

Rest assured, Brother, that you have the entire sympathy of your Brothers in the R. A.

I remain
Sincerely yours in V. M. C.,
H. A. THORNE, Sec'y.

Half Rates to the World's Fair by the Pennsylvania Railroad.

In order to afford an opportunity to the public to visit the World's Fair, the Pennsylvania railroad company has decided to run a series of popular excursions from New York, Philadelphia and other eastern cities to Chicago. The round trip from New York will be $20, and a single fare for the round trip will prevail from other stations.

The parties will be carried on special trains composed of the newest and best standard passenger coaches, containing all modern conveniences.

The special trains will leave New York at 9 in the morning, Jersey City 9:13, Newark 9:25, Elizabeth 9:32, Trenton 10:23, Philadelphia 11:50, and arrive in Chicago at 5:20 the next afternoon.

The first excursion is fixed for July 25; others are fixed for July 31, August 12 and 16. Another series to be run at the same rate and under the same conditions will be announced later. The return coupons of these tickets will be good within ten days, and will be accepted for passage only on trains leaving Chicago at 3:15 p. m. and 11:30 p. m.

Shiloh's Cough Cure.

This is beyond question the most successful Cough Medicine we have ever sold; a few doses invariably cure the worst cases of Cough, Croup and Bronchitis, while its wonderful success in the cure of Consumption is without a parallel in the history of medicine. Since its first discovery it has been sold on a guarantee, a test which no other medicine can stand. If you have a cough we earnestly ask you to try it. Price, 10c. and $1. If your lungs are sore, chest, or back lame, use Shiloh's Porous Plaster. Sold by A. D. Mallinson, 65 North Avenue, opposite railroad station. 5-16-y

In the Church of Our Saviour, to-morrow, the Rev. S. P. Simpson, rector, will officiate. There will be Holy Communion at 7:30 a. m., morning prayer and sermon at 11, and evening prayer at 5. Two free stages will run to and from the church, as usual.

Services in the First Presbyterian church to-morrow will be conducted by the pastor, the Rev. Charles E. Herring. Morning service will be at 10:30, and evening service at 7:45. By special request the sermon on "Solomon the Splendid Failure" will be repeated. Sunday-school will meet at 9:30 a. m., and young people's society at 7 p. m.

The Bethel A. M. E. camp will be in session to-morrow in Vail's Grove, West Fourth street. There will be preaching at 10:45 a. m. by the Rev. S. B. Williams, of Flemington. At 3 and 8 p. m. good preaching will be supplied, as able divines will be present. The camp will continue all next week, and will be conducted by the Rev. G. A. V. Henry, pastor.

In the First Methodist Episcopal church to-morrow, Sunday-school will be held at 10 a. m. and there will be preaching by the pastor, the Rev. Dr. C. R. Barnes, D. D., at 11 a. m. and 7:45 p. m. The subject for the morning will be "Religion, a Science and an Art"; for the evening, "The Dull Axe". The Epworth League prayer meeting will be held at 7 p. m.

DUNELLEN'S SCHOOL QUESTION.

Indignant Citizens Protesting Against Mr. Johnson's Removal.

TO THE EDITOR OF THE PRESS:—A number of Dunellen's citizens met last evening and presented a petition containing a large number of names in favor of retaining Mr. Johnson, to the Rev. A. I. Martine, clerk of the board.

Mr. Martine was asked for a reason for dismissing Mr. Johnson. He gave none worthy of consideration, and the Rev. Mr. Kinsey, who was present, plainly told Mr. Martine that he should leave the meeting with that impression.

Mr. Martine's interpretation of a Johns Hopkins University course as applied to public schools was simply ridiculous.

There is another very large petition in favor of Mr. Johnson, it is reported, which will be presented to the board soon. From all that can be learned, no legal complete bargain with Mr. Whitney of Nutley has yet been made. ONLOOKER.

Where that Fine Stone Comes from.

Many of the buildings in Plainfield are made beautiful by the celebrated Martinsville stone. This is obtained from a quarry owned by W. E. Bartels, who has just opened a large stone yard on the land of the Bolce estate, on Park avenue, adjoining the Jersey Central railroad. He has a large force of men at work, both in the quarry and in the stone yard, and is fully equipped to supply this elegant building stone. The surface of the quarry is 30 feet below ground, and the supply is inexhaustible. Mr. Bartels is a most honorable man to deal with, and his yard is in charge of T. L. Abbott, a capable foreman and courteous gentleman.

One of my children had a very bad discharge from her nose. Two physicians prescribed, but without benefit. We tried Ely's Cream Balm, and much to our surprise, there was a marked improvement. We continued using the Balm and in a short time the discharge was cured.—O. A. Cary, Corning, N. Y.

The children's health must not be neglected. Cold in the head causes catarrh. Ely's Cream Balm cures at once. It is perfectly safe and is easily applied into the nostrils. The worst cases yielding to it. Price 50c.

Read and Reflect.

The great mass of mankind lose their health through inattention to catarrh of the head and throat. This insidious disease was considered incurable until the discovery of the American Catarrh Cure. For sale by L. W. Randolph, 21 West Front street. Price $1.00.

Plainfield Brokers Got Hit, Censured.

The Wall Street muss which broker Henry G. Weil caused when banker Pliny Fisk of this city prevented him from attacking Uncle Sam's credit, resulted in Weil's getting severely shaken by broker Rudolph Keppler yesterday. Weil was also up before the Stock Exchange board of governors, and censured for harmful gossip on the testimony of Pliny Fisk and Jacob Kirkner.

Will the Fair Pay?

This question is engaging public attention just now, but it is not of so much interest to you as the question whether it is wise to let your child go on complaining of headaches without learning if the trouble is not due to some disorder of the eye, as a large percentage of such headaches are. An experienced optician will settle this question for you; therefore you should take your child to Collier's at once.

—Michael McCarthy, drunk and disorderly, $3 or 15 days, was Judge Coddington's verdict to-day.

A BLOODY CONFLICT IMMINENT.

Situation in the Mining District Serious. The Commander of the Kansas National Guard Has Gone to Pittsburg to Take Charge of the Militia.

TOPEKA, Kan., July 22.—The openly expressed sympathy of the State administration for the striking coal miners and the fear that it will incite the strikers to lawless acts which will result in great damage to the mines, has induced the mine operators to appeal for protection to the Federal authorities.

All of the mine companies doing business in Southwestern Kansas are incorporated under the laws of Missouri, and are consequently foreign companies. It is proposed to apply to apply to the United States for an injunction restraining every striker from trespassing upon the property of the mine owners or from interfering in any way with men who are at work in the mines.

All of the Federal judges having jurisdiction in Kansas are out of the State, some in Colorado and some in Chicago. The necessary papers have been prepared and despatched in charge of an attorney to Denver, where Judge Rinor is holding court.

The proceedings are similar to those taken by the Missouri Pacific Railroad company in 1886 and by the Toledo & Ann Arbor company recently.

The object of these proceedings is to place the strike district in charge of United States marshals instead of running the risk of entrusting it to State officers in case of emergency.

The situation in the mining district is becoming serious and a bloody conflict between strikers and operators is imminent. The major general of the Kansas National Guard has been sent to Pittsburg to be in readiness to take command of the militia company in case their services should be required.

QUEEN OF THE SEAS.

The Paris Breaks the Record from Southampton to New York.

NEW YORK, July 22.—The steamer Paris of the International Navigation company, arrived at the bar at 6:30 last evening. Time of passage: 6 days, 9 hours and 37 minutes. Day runs: 452, 491, 492, 498, 508, 495, 152. Total distance, 3,652.

Once more the superb ocean greyhound Paris has broken the record and earned her title to Queen of the Seas. She not only breaks the record from Southampton, beating the time of the steamer Furst Bismarck, but still retains her record from Queenstown of 5 days, 14 hours and 14 minutes.

DENIED BY THE RUSSIANS.

They Have Received No Orders to Sail From New York to Siam.

NEW YORK, July 22.—The report published yesterday that the Russian fleet had received orders to move from here in the direction of Siam was denied emphatically by the officers on board the fleet in the North River this morning.

Admiral Kerrakoff declared that no such orders had been received, and that as far as is known at present the original plans for the fleet will be carried out. According to these plans the Russian squadron will spend almost the entire summer in American waters.

Talmage on the Financial Situation.

CHICAGO, July 22.—Rev. T. DeWitt Talmage is at the Auditorium. Speaking of the financial situation he said: "Greater crops will be harvested this year than ever before and this more than anything else will create a condition of placidity. Congress will meet and give the country a bread pill, just as a physician would administer a harmless pill to a patient suffering from imaginary disease. Next winter will, I believe, be a season of great plentifulness and commercial activity, for prosperity always accompanies such a reaction."

HISTORY OF A CRIME.

Interesting Data About the Mountain Meadows Outrage.

Why the People of Arkansas Have No Patience with Mormon Missionaries—Brigham Young and His Angels of Darkness.

[Special Salt Lake (Utah) Letter.]

Occasionally, a short account of the mobbing of a Mormon missionary in Arkansas or in Mississippi is read. The act is attributed to the natural repulsiveness of all decent people to polygamists. But, underneath, is a deep and undying hatred by the people of those states against Mormons. It dates back to the memorable and infamous "Mountain Meadows massacre," of more than a third of a century, and that is why the people of these two states, especially, make no secret of expelling or killing all Mormon missionaries that may come within their boundaries.

At an annual conference one "Apostle," Parley S. Pratt, was sent to Arkansas as a missionary early in 1858. Near Little Rock, he abused the hospitality of a man named McLean by eloping with his wife, although Pratt had several wives at Salt Lake. McLean overtook Pratt and killed him.

When the news reached Salt Lake, Brigham Young, president of the church, and who was also governor of the territory, appointed by the president of the United States, issued an order that no gentiles should pass through the territory of Utah. This was proven at the trial of John D. Lee, one of the leaders of the massacre at Mountain Meadows.

Shortly afterward a caravan of immigrants, numbering 123 people, entered Utah. They were from Arkansas and Mississippi. At Salt Lake City it was the custom for immigrants to camp a few days, purchase provisions, replenish their stock, etc. But the governor of Utah, Brigham Young, ordered them to move on, and as commander of the Utah militia he summoned them to enforce his order. The militia was really the "Nauvoo Legion," which was under the immediate command of "Apostle" George A. Smith, John D. Lee, "Bishop" Dame, and reinforced by "Bill" Hickman, chief of the "Danites," who commanded a special force of Danites, or "Destroying Angels."

A "church council" was called, and an order was issued for the assassination of the immigrants. This was also proved at the trial.

Although the crops had been abundant the immigrants were refused food all along the line from Salt Lake through southern Utah. The order had gone forth that they were "enemies to the church," and no Mormon would sell to them provisions at any price. Their only hope was to find some friendly Indians from whom they could get sufficient food to last them until they should reach southern California.

BRIGHAM YOUNG.

At Parowar, about forty miles from Mountain Meadows, they were met beyond the fortified walls of the town by Bill Hickman and his Danites and told that they must pass to the west of the town. The Mormon militia were then encamped within the walls of Parowar, and awaiting the arrival of the immigrants.

The immigrants were directed to Mountain Meadows, some of the Danites accompanying them. They were told that they could here rest and get provisions.

Mountain Meadows is a beautiful hillock, or mesa, about one mile in length by perhaps half that width. It has an elevation of about two hundred feet, with a gradual slope to a cool spring amid a grove of elder and cottonwood trees. Here was abundant grazing, luxuriant verdure and the most beautiful surroundings—a scene that would seem to shut out all idea of the possibility of the terrible crime that was to follow.

On the morning after their encampment the immigrants were fired upon by what they supposed to be Indians. They made a hollow square of their wagons, in which were placed the women and children, and for three days they resisted the siege. Several were killed and others wounded. One of the enemy who had been killed was found to be a white man, painted as an Indian. On the memorable 8th of September, 1857, a body of white men, bearing a flag of truce, was seen to approach. The flag was borne by John D. Lee. The immigrants naturally thought that aid had arrived. They were told that the "hostile Indians" were not favorable to any white men excepting Mormons and that they had better return to Salt Lake; but it would be policy to appease the Indians by giving to them their guns. Some of the immigrants were distrustful, and all were loath to surrender their only means of defense. But, being promised protection by the Mormons, they yielded.

The immigrants were formed in line, the men in front, women next, and the children in the rear. An armed Mormon marched by the side of each as they filed out of the hollow square. At a short distance from the edge of the meadow, a squad of armed Mormons were concealed. Here the line of immigrants was stopped, and at a signal each Mormon shot the immigrant by his side, whether man, woman or child. With his clubbed musket, he beat the brains out of his dying victim, or, with his bowie knife cut the throat of a crying child whose mother he had shot to death. Simultaneously, the concealed assassins came upon the scene and joined in the slaughter. This feast of demons lasted about an hour, during which outrages more horrible than death were committed upon women and young girls, after which they were murdered by the fiends.

Of the 123 only three were spared—babes, whether by accident or from the surfeit of blood is not known, but it was providential. They were identified in after years by southern relatives, and this identification strengthened the circumstantial evidence whereby convicted Lee and Bishop Dame.

The bodies of the immigrants were stripped of their clothing and left upon the meadows, to rot amid the blood-stained verdure, and to be preyed upon by vultures, wolves and hyenas, no less inhuman than the Mormon murderers. The blood-stained clothing, books and other personal effects of the butchered immigrants were gathered up and taken to the church tithing office, where they were sold at auction. I have been shown people on the streets of Salt Lake who wore some of this clothing. Books, containing the names of murdered immigrants, were also found, and were produced at the trial, and among some of these personal effects of the murdered Mississippians were masonic emblems. The wagons and stock were taken to Salt Lake City and placed in the church tithing office to the credit of the church. This was also proved.

The remains of the butchered immigrants were subsequently gathered together by Maj. Carleton, United States commissioner, and a detachment of soldiers. He described the scene as most horrible to look upon. "Women's hair in detached locks and in masses, clotted with blood, hung to the bushes and was strewn upon the ground. Parts of little children's dresses lay scattered about, and for a mile east and west, there gleamed, bleached white by the elements, the skulls and other bones of the murdered immigrants."

He buried the remains in one common grave, and over them erected a pyramid of stones, surmounted with a cross of red cedar, on which he inscribed: "Vengeance is mine; I will repay, saith the Lord." At the foot of the pyramid a stone monument was erected, on which was engraved:

"Here 120 men, women and children were massacred in cold blood early in September, 1857. They were from Arkansas."

This report was also made to the United States government by Lieut. Carleton. But Brigham Young, as governor of the territory of Utah, made no report to the United States government of this massacre.

Shortly after its erection the cross was torn down, the words obliterated, and in their place was substituted: "Vengeance is mine, and I have had it, saith Brigham Young."

It was charged that this was done by the orders of Brigham Young, but it was never proven. This desecration and infamous boast of a hellish assassination was removed by the soldiers and another cross substituted with the burning Scriptural words: "Vengeance is Mine; I will repay, saith the Lord."

But, Brigham Young was never brought to justice. He sacrificed John D. Lee, who was shot—he selecting that method of death after conviction, which is one of the provisions of the laws of Utah.

In his confessions, while in a military prison, the chief of the Danites,

SCENE OF MOUNTAIN MEADOWS MASSACRE.

"Bill" Hickman, has written, which is on record, that Brigham Young gave a written order to "use up" the immigrants, and states that he saw the order, and that at the "military council" there were also present "Apostles" George A. Smith, Daniel H. Wells, "Richard" Dame and John D. Lee.

FRANCE NOT SATISFIED

Siam's Reply is Not Regarded Favorably.

TERMS OF THE KING'S MESSAGE

Reported that the French Minister Resident at Bangkok is Preparing to Leave the City—French Ministers to Take No Vacations Until After the Elections.

LONDON, July 24.—A despatch from Paris to the Central News says that Siam's reply to France's ultimatum is unsatisfactory to the French Government and that M. Pavie, French Minister Resident in Bangkok, is preparing to leave the city.

Siam's reply was handed to M. Pavie, French Minister Resident in Bangkok, at two o'clock on Saturday afternoon. The 48 hours allowed by France's ultimatum for a reply had not then expired. The text of the communication is as follows:

"M. le Ministre: In reply to the communication, which, by order of your government, you handed to me on Thursday, July 20, at 6:45 in the evening, His Majesty, the King, my august sovereign, charges me to make to you the following declaration:

"His Majesty regrets that no precise definition ever has been given him of what His Majesty is to understand by the expression 'rights of the Empire of Annam and of the Kingdom of Cambodia on the left bank of the Mekong river.' His Majesty has ever been ready to abandon all the territories over which the existence of these rights should have been proved, and five months ago His Majesty proposed to submit all contested points to international arbitration.

Now he submits to the pressure of circumstances in order to restore peace to his people and security to the numerous commercial interests at stake in his country. His Majesty therefore consents to a delimitation of the frontiers between Siam and Cambodia.

"All the territory on the left bank of the Mekong river south of the line drawn from the most northerly of the Siamese military posts, recently occupied by the Franco-Annamite troops, to another point situated in the same latitude, that is, on the 18th degree north latitude, will be regarded as Annamite and Cambodian territory, the river below the point indicated becoming the line of separation between the neighboring States as far as to the point at which the river enters Cambodian territory and the use of the islands in the river being common to the conterminous States. The two Siamese military posts now existing in the above described territory will be evacuated within the next month.

No Vacations Until After Election.

PARIS, July 24.—The French Ministers and high departments officials will take no vacations until after the Parliamentary elections. They are tireless in their activity. They utilize every opportunity to address meetings and promote demonstrations favorable to the government. While stumping the country they are communicating privately to the prefects and other provincial officers instructions as to the conduct of the campaign and are exhorting all official friends of the government to forego their holiday until Autumn.

Money Easy in London.

LONDON, July 24.—The conviction that gold will be in heavy demand during the autumn months, especially for the United States, has stiffened discounts in the last week and the rate has remained steady at 1 1-2 for three months. Money has been plentiful and it has been difficult to find borrowers at 1-2 of 1 per cent. Early last week silver was in good demand in several quarters and inquiries were made on behalf of several Indian princes with a view to increase the native currency.

James Gordon Bennett Better.

LONDON, July 24.—James Gordon Bennett, editor of the New York Herald, who was injured several weeks ago by falling from a coach, is convalescent. He has suffered two relapses, mainly in consequence of weakness caused by loss of blood at the time of the fall and by close confinement to the house ever since. He hopes to go soon on a yachting tour with a view to restoring his health.

Narrow Escape from Collision.

LONDON, July 24.—The passengers on board the Guion line steamer Arizona, Captain Brooks, from New York, which arrived at Queenstown at 4:35 p. m. yesterday, report that that vessel had a narrow escape from a collision with an unknown Red Star line steamer during a thick fog on the 17th inst. The latter steamer crossed the Arizona's bow not fifty yards distant.

Another Revolution in Brazil.

LONDON, July 24.—A despatch from Rio Janeiro says that a revolution has broken out in the State of Santa Catharina, which borders Rio Grande do Sul. Government troops are reported to have joined the revolutionists, whose purpose is to depose the governor of the State. The cruiser Tiradentes has been despatched from this port to suppress the revolutionary movement along the coast.

Emperor William Changes His Plans.

BERLIN, July 24.—Emperor William has changed the plan of his vacation voyage. He will not visit Nergen, Norway, with the fleet as smallpox is epidemic there. On August 7 his and the Empress are expected to disembark at Heligoland.

The Campania to Try For the Record.

LONDON, July 24.—The British steamer Campania, Capt. Haines, from Liverpool, which left Queenstown at 1:02 p. m. yesterday for New York, intends to take the northern course with a view to lowering the record.

Negroes to Take Strikers' Places.

BIRMINGHAM, Ala., July 24.—About 500 negroes were shipped from here last night to leave Leavenworth, Kan. It is proposed to replace strikers with them. Agents of the mine owners will endeavor to secure 1,000 more negroes.

Trust Company Enjoined.

CONCORD, N. H., July 24.—The New Hampshire Trust Company of Manchester, one of the heaviest financial institututions in the State, has been enjoined. Bank Commissioner Lyford has gone to Manchester.

Flour and Feed Store Burned.

READING, Pa., July 24.—The flour and feed store and storage house of Kissinger & Breiner, Eight and Cherry street, was badly damaged by fire and water this evening. The loss may reach $20,000, partially insured.

IT WAS NOT GEORGE POST.

Another Convict Exposed the Plot in Clinton Prison.

PLATTSBURG, N. Y., July 24.—The story current, and published in several New York and Albany papers, that George Post, the celebrated bunco shearer and pal of Tom O'Brien, was the prisoner pardoned by Gov. Flower for his action in making the exposure of the recent attempt of prisoners to escape from Clinton prison is untrue. Post is still in Clinton prison and likely to remain there.

The prisoner who was pardoned was a New York man, who has served several terms in prison and is well known to the New York police. He was presented with a handsome purse by the officers whose lives he saved and the prison officials. He went direct to New York. These facts were given out by an official and are reliable.

BIG BLAZE IN HAGERSTOWN, MD.

A Number of Houses Destroyed—Total Loss, $125,000.

HAGERSTOWN, Md., July 24.—At 11 o'clock yesterday morning fire broke out in the stable of Jones & South. Their wholesale house was completely destroyed together with the adjoining houses of John Emmert and Dr. J. S. Wishard.

The total loss is about $125,000 of which Jones & South lost $100,000.

The hot dry season and a strong wind blowing toward the business part of the city led the mayor to telegraph to Chambersburg and Martinsburg for all the assistance they could send, but the local firemen worked gallantly and the fire was brought under control within an hour.

ENGLAND'S BIG STRIKE.

Many of the Dissatisfied Miners Quit Work To-day.

The Propisition of the Owners to Reduce Wages 25 per Cent is the Cause of the Strike.

LONDON, July 24.—Nothing but the surrender of the mine owners will prevent a great strike of the coal miners of England.

The whole Miners' Federation is involved in the impending trouble. The ramifications of the Federation extend, roughly described, over the midland counties, Yorkshire and Lancashire. Most of the members quit work this morning. The rest will follow as soon as the notices of reduction of their wages mature.

The question in dispute is one of wages solely. Since 1888 the wages of the miners in the territory indicated above have been advanced 80 per cent. The owners now propose a reduction of 25 per cent.

The object of the strikers therefore will be to maintain themselves in better position than other English mihers. In this fact lies the reason for the lukewarmness of the Durham and Northumberland miners for the cause of the strikers.

The chairman of the Coal Owners' Federation says in defense of its course toward the miners that the decrease of business since the beginning of this year is unprecedented in the history of the coal trade, and that consequently the owners must reduce wages or mine coal at a loss. The miners answer that the standard of wages in 1888, toward which the owners are trying to force them, was fixed at the starvation point and that the present wages are the lowest ones from which the men can live and support their families.

The prospects of the success of the strikers are small. The owners are almost indifferent in the matter of suspending work. They have mined coal for many months with little or no profit, and they have accumulated enormous stocks with which to meet the demand for many weeks.

GEN. WILLIAM F. ABBETT DEAD.

The Eldest Son of the Supreme Court Justice Passes Away in Jersey City.

JERSEY CITY, N. J., July 24.—Gen. Wm. F. Abbett, eldest son of Supreme Court Justice Leon Abbett, died at his father's house, this city, yesterday. He was 80 years old, having been born in Hoboken, July 23, 1863. Apoplexy caused his death.

Gen. Abbett was a graduate of the Columbia Law School. He became his father's law partner nine years ago, and since the Governor's elevation to the Supreme Bench had almost entire control of the business of the firm.

A Great Silver Mass Meeting.

GREAT FALLS, July 24.—A great silver mass meeting has been arranged here for to-night to pass resolutions to send to the silver congresses at Chicago. The whole country is aroused by the closing down of the silver mines at Niehart and Barker camps, which are tributary to this city.

A Steamship Ashore.

MONTREAL, July 24.—Word has been received here that the Donaldson line steamship Alcides has run ashore six miles east of Henry Point, Anticosti, and it is feared that she will be a total loss. Her passengers have been safely landed at Heath Point.

Bulox Seen in Montreal.

NEW YORK, July 24.—A special from Montreal says: An evening paper here states that M. Buloz, editor of the Revue Des Deux Mondes, of Paris, who was forced to flee on account of being implicated in some scandal there, has been seen in Montreal.

NEWS OF THE DAY.

The Agricultural Department has just issued a bulletin on the subject of peach yellows, prepared by Special Agent Erwin F. Smith.

After a reception by the Merchants' club at San Francisco, Saturday afternoon, Vice-President Stevenson and party started for Portland and Puget Sound.

Shortly after 12 o'clock last night fire broke out in the King carriage works at Black Rock, N. Y. The loss is about $40,000, with small insurance.

Charles W. Depauw and the New Albany Rail Mill Company of New Albany, Ky., made an assignment Saturday for the benefit of their creditors. The assets are valued at over $1,000,000, and the liabilities are not stated.

Fifty creditors of the Armstrong Co., manufacturers of uniforms and regalia, of Chicago, who failed recently, held a meeting Saturday at which it was decided to reject the firm's offer of 25 per cent to be paid in four, eight and twelve months.

JEFFERSON NEAR DEATH

The Actor Suffering from a Cancerous Growth.

HIS PHYSICIANS ARE BAFFLED.

The Disease, Which is Seated in the Comedian's Neck, Has so Far Defied All Their Skill—Caused by Careless Treatment of a Boil.

NEW YORK, July 24.—Joseph Jefferson, the veteran actor, is near death, and a cancerous affection of the neck is the cause of it. Mr. Jefferson's physicians have been so far steadily baffled by his disease, which is attributed partly to an inherited tendency and partly to carelessness in the treatment of a boil that appeared near his cervical vertebrae some time ago.

However, the general mystery thrown about the malady renders an accurate diagnosis almost impossible to obtain.

JOSEPH JEFFERSON.

Curiously enough, the secret nearly leaked out a week ago and through a misunderstanding the comedian's warm friend, President Cleveland, was credited with cancerous trouble instead of Mr. Jefferson.

Of course a skillful physician may stave off the worst for some time to come, but it can be stated positively that radical measures must speedily be resorted to if America's comedian is not soon to go the way of Edwin Booth.

FIERCE FOREST FIRES.

Great Damage Done in New Hampshire—Railroad Bridges Burned.

CONCORD, N. H., July 24.—Serious forest fires are raging in numerous localities in New Hampshire, and many of them will not be extinguished until rain comes. The fire in the Kilkenny forest, near Lancaster, has already done immense damage. It has extended half way to the summit of Kilkenny mountain and destroyed all the trestle bridges on the Kilkenny railroad in its path.

Another extensive fire is raging in the Waterville woods, and a large gang of men has been sent up from Plymouth to fight it. Passengers on railway trains from the north say that the smoke from the forest fires can be seen in all directions.

EX-GOV. PRICE RELEASED.

Prominent Passaic County Politicians Qualify as His Bondsmen.

HACKENSACK, N. J., July 24.—Ex-Gov. Rodman Price was released from the custody of Sheriff Bogert, of Hackensack, yesterday. He was under bonds of $20,000 to appear before Chancellor McGill of Jersey City, to stand trial for contempt of the New Jersey Court of Chancery. Anderson Price of Sutherford; Congressman Cornelius Cadmus, Senator Hinchliffe, contractor David Henry, and John R. Lee, of Paterso, prominent Passaic county politicians, qualified as boudsmen for the ex-Governor.

Order for interrogatories has been served on ex-Gov. Price, and he must appear before Master in Chancery William M. Johnson, at Hackensack on Friday next. He went to his home near Oakland.

Oklahoma After Statehood.

GUTHRIE, O. T., July 24.—A statehood convention is called to meet at El Reno, on Aug. 8. Every city, town and county in the Territory will be represented and it is proposed to start a movement for the calling of a constitutional convention this fall.

Canadian Crop Report.

HALIFAX, N. S., July 24.—Government crop reports say that hay does not promise much above three-quarters of the average crop; wheat crop nearly up to the average, barley good.

A FORMER EMPLOYE'S WORK.

The Attempt to Wreck an R. W. & O. Train at Watertown.

WATERTOWN, N. Y., July 24.—What seems to have been an attempt to wreck a passenger train on the Rome, Watertown and Ogdensburg Railroad occurred in this city Saturday night. Two switches were opened in the freight yard and the lights put out by some person unknown, between 8:30 and 9 o'clock.

At the latter hour a train was due from from Syracuse and Utica. This train was half an hour late and was running unusually fast to make up time. It had a heavy load of passengers.

The track coming into the city is on a down grade for over two miles. Trains do not usually begin to slow up until they reach the east yard. The engineer, however, missed the lights and fearing danger checked the speed so that when the first switch was reached the locomotive and all of the train except one coach left the track but did not capsize or telescope, and no one was hurt.

The railroad officials are inclined to believe that a former employe, who was recently discharged, sought revenge in this way.

A Millionaire Reporter.

PHILADELPHIA, July 24.—Anthony Drexel Biddle, a grandson of the late A. T. Drexel, who comes into a million dollars under the will of the dead banker, is a reporter on the local staff of the Public Ledger. He entered the employ of the Ledger at the commencement of the year and has reported the Coroner's office and other routine.

THE FAIR DESERTED.

Rigid Enforcement of the Sunday Closing Order.

All the Buildings Shut Up Yesterday. Assistant Secretary Hamlin to Investigate the Trouble with Russian Exhibitors

CHICAGO, July 24.—The White City was deserted yesterday and the warm sun of the peaceful Sabbath shone upon desolate thoroughfares, lonely Columbian guards and a few inhabitants of the Midway Plaisance, who had left that cosmopolitan quarter early in the day to view the "big buildings in the park. The Sunday closing order was rigidly enforced, and any person who entered the Exposition grounds had to prove that his presence there was absolutely necessary.

All buildings were closed and the sign "closed to-day" placed on the doors of the State homes was entirely unnecessary, as there were no persons in the park who cared to do any visiting or sight-seeing.

All the electric and steam launches and gondolas were tied up, no fountain was playing, the ends of booths were bared of wares and their handsome saleswomen, and altogether it was the most complete "closed Sunday" the World's Fair has known. Only two gates were open and these were for pass holders.

There was no grumbling among the employes nor among the exhibitors on account of the enforced day of rest. And the grumbling that was done outside was not loud enough to disturb any one. A number came to the gates as if they expected to be admitted, but finding them closed they left not caring to stand around in the hot sun for nothing.

Although up to this time nearly 6,000,000 persons have paid to see the Fair and have come from all parts of the United States, the World's Fair officials are disappointed in the attendance. At the present rate the record for the first half of the six months of the Fair will reach 6,750,000.

The most sanguine experts on expositions say that under the most favorable conditions the total attendance will not reach 20,000,000. Before the exposition opened, World's Fair officials declared that the attendance would reach a total of 30,000,000.

Secretary Hamlin to Investigate.

WASHINGTON, July 24.—Assistant Secretary Hamlin while he is in Chicago, which he expects to reach by Wednesday, will give personal attention to the trouble with the Russian exhibitors at the Fair. Mr. Hamlin says Secretary Carlisle and he are most desirous to be liberal with exhibitors, but the customs laws must be enforced. It is understood that nothing will be done here by the government until Assistant Secretary Hamlin reaches Chicago.

SECOND RECIPROCITY CONVENTION

It Will Be Held in Duluth, Minn., on October 10.

ST. PAUL, Minn., July 23.—It has been decided to hold the second international reciprocity convention at Duluth on October 10. Letters have received from leaders of the movement both in Canada and the United States expressing the hope that some practical step will be taken for establishing reciprocal relations between Canada and the United States.

It is said that England will have representatives vested with authority at the convention. In this case very important results may be reached.

Ex-Senator Blair at Asbury Park.

ASBURY PARK, N. J., July 24.—Ex-United States Senator Henry W. Blair, of New Hampshire, appointed as Minister to China, who was repudiated by that government, delivered an address at the national service at the Fifth Avenue Auditorium yesterday afternoon before a vast assembly. His theme was "The true relation of our nation to the other great nations of the earth," and he dwelt with particular force on the question of Chinese emigration.

Two Drowned Near Plymouth, Mass.

PLYMOUTH, Mass., July 24.—George Bagnell, aged 71, and his grandson, Melville F. Bagnell, were drowned in Great South pond yesterday afternoon. The dead body of a horse attached to a buggy was found in the water near the spot. It is supposed that they drove into the pond to water the horse and the animal got entangled in the harness or waded beyond his depth, dragging the vehicle after him.

MANY WERE WOUNDED

The Bloody Pole-Hungarian Fight at Priceburg, Pa.

PRISONERS RELEASED FROM JAIL.

The Trouble Began With the Arrest of a Drunken Hungarian, and for Three Hours Terror Reigned in the Town. Three of the Injured Will Die.

PRICEBURG, Pa., July 24.—Over 30 men were injured, three fatally, in the fight here between Poles and Hungarians late Saturday night and early yesterday morning.

Saturday was pay day at the mines at Priceburg and the Huns and Poles of the town, and there are hundreds of them here, began to drink heavily. At 7 o'clock at night a Hun and a Pole engaged in a fight in Bryan Fallon's saloon and their countrymen took sides with them, a free fight resulting. The borough policemen arrested four Hungarians and lodged them in the Priceburg jail.

At 9 o'clock the Hungarians held an indignation meeting and then proceeded in a body to the jail where they overpowered the keeper and liberated the prisoners. This caused the largest riot that has occurred in this region in 16 years.

The Poles took exception, and a race war commenced lasting three hours, during which there was a reign of terror, all the saloons in the town being taken possession of and the officers driven off.

Over 30 were injured, three fatally, and one Pole had his ears torn off.

Many windows were broken in with stones and clubs. After midnight Deputy Sheriff Craig arrived with a well armed posse and over-awed the rioters and restored peace.

Many arrests will follow.

CHARGES AGAINST COL. HUGHES.

He Will be Tried by Court-Martial for Not Obeying Gov. Lewelling's Orders.

TOPEKA, Kan., July 24.—Governor Lewelling has been forced to prefer charges against Col. Hughes, and the latter will be tried by court martial on Aug. 2, for refusing to obey the Governor's orders to remove the lawmakers from their hall during the legislative war last winter.

Hughes declares he was there to enforce the law, not to break it. When relieved of his command he demanded restoration or court martial, both of which were denied until to-day.

The court will be made up of newly appointed colonels and brigadier generals, all but one being from the ranks of the Populists. Hughes has an able military attorney to defend him, and it is not improbable that some of the secrets of the military branch of Lewelling's administration will be brought to light.

SELF-DEFENSE HIS PLEA

That is the Reason Given by the Assailant of Mr. Lawrence.

PALMER, Mass., July 24.—The negro who so brutally assaulted S. Wilson Lawrence on Wednesday was captured last evening at Gilbertville. He gives his name as Charles C. Fields and his residence, no particular place, but lately on the California coast.

He has in his possession a deed for a piece of property in Washington Territory, which he says he bought with his earnings before he started East, last fall. It may be, however, that the paper was stolen by him.

Field says his action on Wednesday was in self-defense.

Mr. Lawrence is improving and hopes are entertained for his recovery. Those who know Mr. Lawrence do not believe that he first assaulted the negro.

THREE DROWNED NEAR SALEM.

Their Sloop Was Upset by the Heavy Squall of Yesterday.

SALEM, Mass., July 24.—A severe squall passed over Salem and vicinity between 2 and 3 o'clock yesterday and did considerable damage to trees and the various electrical lines about the city.

Joseph Ouelette and Alexander Frazer report that while they were out in the harbor they saw a sloop capsized. The sloop was painted white and had jib and mainsail set. Three men were clinging to her.

Before the men could be reached the boat had again rolled over and sunk and no trace of the men was found. A black soft hat and an oar were picked up.

Fastidiousness of "The Bostons."

COLUMBUS, O., July 24.—An organization among the prisoners of the State penitentiary, embracing the shrewdest professionals in the institution, has been discovered by Deputy Warden Playford. They have a complete system of signals, enabling them to communicate even in the presence of a guard. They style themselves "The Bostons," and would not admit a common criminal to their organization.

Two Brothers Drowned.

ALLENTOWN, Pa., July 24.—While three brothers, George Willie and Lewis Schray, aged 13, 11 and 6 years respectively, sons of George A. Schray, were sitting along the bank of the Lehigh river, in this city, yesterday, Willie toppled into the stream. The other brothers in trying to rescue him also fell into the river. Assistance came and Willie was rescued. The two brothers were drowned.

Short in His Accounts.

ST. LOUIS, July 24.—Miles T. Bogart has been found short in his accounts to the extent of $10,000 each with the Western Union Building and Loan Associations Nos. 1 and 2. Directors of each have caused attachments to be sued out against him. Further developments in his relations with the other associations are each expected to-day.

Fatal Quarrel Over Cards.

PLAIN CITY, O., July 24.—Last evening several men became engaged in a fight over a game of cards. Frank Wilson attempted to act as peacemaker when one of the fighters, named Enderly Fitzpatrick, drew a revolver and shot him through the head. Fitzpatrick then fled to the woods, but was overtaken by the marshal and a posse.

Another Reduction in Wages.

ILION, N. Y., July 24.—The Remington Standard Typewriter Company of Ilion has given its employes notice of another reduction in wages, which will take effect Aug. 15. The aligners and $4 per day men are alone affected by the cut.

MEXICAN MONEY AND TRADE.

Evidences of Solid Prosperity—Tariff Revision Expected.

CITY OF MEXICO, July 24.—The business situation here is satisfactory, there having been no failures or suspensions of any importance since the sharp decline in silver. The banks are in excellent condition and making good profits, planters are buying agricultural machinery, and the sales of supplies to the silver mines are unabated, as the mines will continue to be worked at an excellent profit.

Crops promise well, and altogether there is no reason to fear that the silver trouble will harm the interior trade of Mexico. Although high exchange will interfere with the importation of articles of luxury from Europe, it will not prevent the bringing in of United States petroleum, cotton, labor-saving machinery, or railway material. The country will be able to import indispensable articles.

There is much anxiety here among manufacturers over the well-grounded belief that Finance Minister Limantour contemplates announcing, late in the Autumn, the important reductions in tariff duties on cotton textiles and printing paper. He is by tradition and sympathy a low-tariff man and opposed to excessive protective duties. His policy is to move slowly, and gradually readjust the fiscal policy of the Government to changed conditions. He has the cordial support of President Diaz, who holds that consumers have a right to some measure of protection on the part of the Government.

Probably the Government will grant concessions to the manufacturers by a reduction of duties on all raw materials.

CASE OF THE CHOCTAWS.

Can the Condemned Men Now be Legally Executed.

A Legal Point Brought Up Which May Prevent the Carrying Out of the Sentences—The Prisoners Removed.

MCALISTER, I. T., July 24.—The nine condemned Choctaw Indians who were to have been shot July 2, and who were respited to Aug. 4, were removed from the Gaines county jail yesterday to Red Oak, in Sugar Loaf county. They are now confined in a private house there under a strong guard.

It is not known why they were removed, but it is believed the action was taken to checkmate an attempt to rescue them by the Jackson-Locke faction. A large number of Indians have been in town for a number of days, all members of the Jackson crowd, and they are believed to have been in war council planning the rescue of the condemned men.

PARIS, Tex., July 25.—The nine condemned Choctaws will hardly be shot August 4. The Interior Department will hardly save them, nor will their enemies relent, but a legal point has been brought up which may be decided in their favor. When the department intervened in their behalf they had been tried, convicted and sentenced and the court had adjourned to the next regular term."

The executive had no power under their laws to grant reprieves. S. W. Holson, the trial judge, made an order extending the time to August 4. In his letter Gov. Jones says truly:—"There is no law authorizing any such action on the part of the judge. This course will leave a grave question open and will afford the parties an opportunity of escape.

The legal question is this: The day fixed by the judgment of the court for execution having passed can they be legally executed on some other day? At any rate this will be the basis of a fight in the United States Courts to prevent the execution August 4 and if possible at all.

AT THE CONEY ISLAND CLUB.

The Next Fistic Entertainment Fixed for August 7.

NEW YORK, July 24.—The next fistic entertainment to be held before the Coney Island Athletic Club is scheduled for August 7 and will no doubt be one of the most successful held under the auspices of the club. There are two events on the programme. The principal one will be a fight to finish for a purse of $6,500 between George Dixon, the featherweight champion of the world, and Eddie Pierce, a local featherweight, who has but recently entered the professional pugilistic arena.

The preliminary bout of the night will be a ten-round affair between Danny McBride and Tim Murphy, both of New York pugilists of great cleverness. It will be for a purse of $1,000.

Pensions Granted.

WASHINGTON, July 24.—The following pensions have been issued:

New York—Original—Andrew J. Fleming, George I. L. Giebert, John H. Jones, James Daly, Charles A Bennett, Andrew Osborn, James Nichols, John Callahan, Robert Hatchman. Additional—James H. Straigst. Increase—Boardman Peirson, Fayette M. Niles. Original (widows, etc.)—Mary M. Traphagan, Emma H. Rice, Meribah J. Stokes, Mary A Van Buskirk, minors of Michael Bruder, Harriet E. Buckley, Sarah Stokes.

Pennsylvania—Original—Leon D. Matz, John Steckley, George W. Payne, Albert J. Deuell, Alfred Harner, Francis Hoover, George W. Felton. Reissue—William Sweigart. Reissue and increase—Albert Brainard. Original, widows etc.—Susanna Kriner, Lucy M. Rice, Rebecca M. Deuell.

The President's Quiet Sunday.

BUZZARD'S BAY, Mass., July 24.—President Cleveland spent a quiet Sunday at Gray Gables. Charles L. Hamlin, assistant secretary of the treasury, called upon the President in the afternoon and remained until six o'clock. Mr. Hamlin was on his way from Washington to his home in Brooklyn.

Wanted to Lynch the Builder.

ISHPEMING, Mich., July 24.—Reports from Duluth that an incendiary had been lynched at Ewen, Mich., were caused by the desire of some of the people there to hang Leo M. Geismar, who built the defective water works. Mr. Geismar left town in time to avoid the proposed hanging.

Convicts as Road Builers.

SARANAC LAKE, N. Y., July 24.—State Engineer Schenck says the plan of working convicts on the roads is a good one, and that admirable work has been done during the past week. The experiment is under the State Engineer's direction.

No Bank Failure at Vernon, Tex.

WASHINGTON, July 24.—The statement made public yesterday that the First National Bank of Vernon, Tex., had failed, proves to be erroneous. The First National Bank of Russell, Kan., has failed.

THE DAILY PRESS.

W. L. & A. L. FORCE, Publishers and Proprietors.
J. A. DEMAREST, - Managing Editor.

WEATHER INDICATIONS.

For New Jersey: Fair Till Tuesday Night; Slightly Warmer During Tuesday; Northwest Changing to Southwest Winds.

EARLY INTELLIGENCE.

—An excited horse wrecked a wheel of the hack to which he was attached, on Watchung avenue this forenoon.

—Plainfield contractors can get in some fine work on the important bids advertised exclusively in THE PRESS to-day.

—J. H. Manning led the meeting in the Third Street mission last evening, and Joseph Moon had the music in charge.

—Eighteen-year-old Cornelius Barry, whose mother got him out of the Reform School, is ugly again, and was arrested to-day preparatory to being sent back again.

—The District School entertainment given by the Epworth League of Monroe Avenue chapel June 29 netted $42.55, which has been donated to the Ladies' Aid Society of the chapel.

—A woman standing between the curb and an electric car, on Front street, Saturday evening, narrowly escaped being crushed by a frantic horse, which its driver could hardly control.

—City treasurer Alex. Titsworth lost his keys to the store Sunday morning, and he was obliged to hire a rig and send a boy home for them. His Sunday papers were on the sidewalk for an hour or more.

—An Italian, whose name includes nearly all the letters in the alphabet, was struck on the right hand, while blasting at Wilson's quarry, this morning, and had the forefinger of the hand torn off. Dr. Boone dressed the wound.

—A horse drawing one of Tier's ice-cream wagons got beyond the control of driver John Laing, on Park avenue this noon; and Edwin King, a polite and active gentleman of color, grabbed its head and prevented a serious runaway.

—About twenty members of Company H, 3d Regiment, of Somerville, several of whose members live in Plainfield, will be mustered out of service. There will be a street parade, after which dinner will be served. All the State officers will be present, and the boys will have a royal good time.

STILL WAITING FOR THE CHIEF.

When Mr. Runkle Gets Back There May Be Lively Music.

E. B. Pope this morning said that the Plainfield Electric Light Company was still awaiting the arrival of H. G. Runkle to take some definite action concerning the notice served on the company by the North Plainfield council some days ago, in regard to taking down the poles in the borough, as told exclusively in THE PRESS at the time. The 20 days' limit allowed by the borough for removing the poles and wires is going fast, and unless something is done soon North Plainfield may yet hear the ring of the axe wielded by the sturdy minions of the borough street commissioner in cutting out the ostracized system. But Mr. Runkle will probably return before such an emergency.

They Want Him Everywhere.

That skilled electrician, A. D. Phillips, is doing some great work out of town. He is just completing the work of wiring for electric lighting the residence at Ridgefield, Conn., of E. P. Dutton, the New York publisher, and a fine job it is. He is also at work at the West End (Long Branch) property of W. E. Billings & Bro.

The Usual Monday Morning Batch.

Several cases occupied the attention of the city court this morning, the fiery liquid being the chief cause, as usual. Patrick Ahern, for intoxication, was fined $3; Arthur Foster and Edward Dooley, for the same cause, paid $5 each. J. E. Houston, for riding a bicycle without a light, was fined $1.

Hart on the Y. M. C. A. Building.

George Gayle, father of H. E. Gayle, the builder, tore the flesh from the second finger of his left hand, to the bone, a few days ago, while handling the heavy timbers used in constructing the Y. M. C. A. building on East Front street.

The American Catarrh Cure

Is the result of twenty-six years' study and treatment of the disease. One bottle convinces the most skeptical. It is always ready for use, needing neither douche nor atomizer. It restores the hearing, cures the hawking cough and expectorating, removes the headache and nose bleeding, increases the appetite, produces sound sleep, invigorates the whole system and increases the vitality. Prepared only by W. B. Jones, M. D., No. 1336 South Eighth street, Philadelphia. For sale by J. W. Randolph, 21 West Front street. Price $1.

PARTICULAR MENTION.

Herbert Case has gone to Saranac Lake.

Mr. and Mrs. Howard Pope are at Asbury Park.

George P. Dupee and family start for Watch Hill to-morrow.

Charles Lyman and family listen to the ocean's roar at Asbury Park.

Mrs. Daniel Cory, of Warren township, visited friends in the borough last week.

Counselor C. A. Reed and family have come back to Plainfield to enjoy the cool wave.

Mrs. Seymour G. Smith and family are at Hartwick, Otsego county, N. Y., till Sept. 1.

Miss Florence Dodge, of North Plainfield, is having a delightful time in the Catskills. She will remain until September.

Plainfield relatives are enjoying a visit from N. C. Dunn and family, of Philadelphia.

Mr. and Mrs. McNaughton and son, Walter, returned from their vacation, Saturday.

Will Holmes will spend his vacation this year among the beauties of Greenwood Lake.

Mrs. David Angerbauer returned from Saratoga Saturday, after a delightful stay of three weeks.

Miss Ida Lorton returned Saturday from a week with friends at Centreville, Hunterdon county.

James A. Baker, the Scotch Plains postmaster, has almost recovered from his serious illness, and will be out to-day.

Charles Hazeltine, of North Plainfield, returned Saturday from his vacation, which has been spent at Asbury Park.

Among those enjoying the pleasures of Ocean Grove is Miss Minnie Arnold of the borough. She will stay about two weeks.

Miss Stella Yohe, of Scranton, Pa., and Miss Marion Vickery, of Raritan, are visiting Miss Cora Sheppard, of Orchard place.

The vacation delights of Scarsdale, N. Y., are being enjoyed by Mr. and Mrs. Henry C. Adams and family of Sixth street.

Willard Case, who returned from the Thousand Islands last week, will leave for Atlantic Highlands to-morrow to spend a few days with friends.

The New Brunswick Home News says: "John Kenney, of Plainfield, rode on his bicycle the other day from Holly's Corner to New Brunswick in fifty minutes."

Harriet H., widow of the late Joseph M. Osborn, died yesterday. The funeral will be from the Scotch Plains Baptist church Wednesday afternoon at 2:15.

Mr. and Mrs. David Snediker, of Grove street, are home from the great Chicago exhibition. They go to Chatham in a few days for the remainder of the summer.

Charles W. McCutchen returned from Lake Placid Saturday, and took charge of the music in the First Baptist church yesterday. He will return this week to the Adirondacks.

The Rev. C. E. Herring was too ill to preach in his church yesterday morning, and the Rev. Mr. Bond, who has been in the foreign mission field for ten years, took his place.

Messrs. W. H. Miner, Orville Waring, Edward Waring, C. S. Brown and Robert Schoonmaker have returned from a week's outing on the Raritan bay. They report having had a good time.

Martin Wooden, of the Royal Baking Powder company, New York, visited his aged mother yesterday, at her home on Chatham street, North Plainfield. Mrs. Wooden is nearly 86 years old.

S. B. Joseph, superintendent of Mt. Olive Sunday-school, has given up his position temporarily, but will return in September. In the meantime the Rev. Mr. Warnock will officiate in his stead.

Mary, wife of James Forbes, and formerly Mrs. Pizie, died Sunday in her fifty-sixth year. The funeral will be from 307 Elizabeth avenue, Elizabeth, and the interment in the North Plainfield cemetery.

The Rev. C. Schenck preached in the Reformed church of Freehold, yesterday, for the Rev. Dr. Isaac P. Brokaw; and the Rev. A. F. Todd, of Dunellen, occupied Mr. Schenck's pulpit in Trinity Reformed church.

One of the neatest and prettiest designs for a bathing costume entered in the New York Herald prize contest was from Miss Florence B. Patterson of Plainfield, who received high honorable mention for its artistic simplicity.

George Slizer, of New Brunswick, took the place of the tenor Charles W. Crouch in the quartette choir of the First Presbyterian church yesterday, and gave eminent satisfation. Mr. Crouch is taking a two weeks' vacation.

The Rev. Dr. D. J. Yerkes will be chief speaker at the corner-stone-laying of the Livingston Avenue Presbyterian church, New Brunswick, the afternoon of August 7. His subject will be "The Relation of the Church Edifice to the Church and its Work".

Another delightful hop took place in Hotel Netherwood Saturday evening. Among the guests from Plainfield were: Miss Grace Cooley, Miss Marion Dumont, Miss May Waring, Miss Maude VanBoskerck, Miss Lizzie VanBoskerck, Miss Clarkson, Mr. and Mrs. L. G. Timpson, Thomas R. VanBoskerck, George VanBoskerck, Will Runyon, Irving West, Rowland Cox, Gifford Cooley, Orville Waring and John P. Munn.

Everyone who has heard the speeches of George H. Neal, acting mayor of the borough, in the North Plainfield council chamber, is aware of his great gift of logic and eloquence, and his admirers predict for him a most successful and honorable career as a lawyer. He has concluded with credit the course of the New York Law School, and expects to begin practice in Westfield. Mr. Neal is a man of strict integrity and unusual acumen, and he will undoubtedly receive from the people of Westfield that flourishing support which his capabilities merit.

—Warren chapel was lighted by electricity last night by the North Plainfield company. The lights were very satisfactory.

NO HOPE FOR HILLSIDE.

She'll Have to Win All of the Final Matches to Tie with the Other Teams.

Plainfield's representatives fared badly last Saturday afternoon, when the New Jersey Inter-club lawn-tennis league held their second series of matches, on the courts of the Bergen Point Tennis club. The results were as follows:

Post and Strong, Jersey City, defeated the West Bros., Hillside, 0-6, 6-2, 6-0.

Smith and Howard, Bergen Point, defeated Post and Strong, Jersey City, 6-1, 6-2.

Smith and Howard, Bergen Point, defeated the West Bros., Hillside, 6-1, 6-0.

The record:

	Won	Lost
Jersey City	2	1
Bergen Point	2	1
Hillside	1	3

Next Saturday the concluding series of games will be played, on the grounds of the Jersey City club.

ALMOST HIS LAST SMOKE.

A Jersey Central Locomotive Rudely Interrupted Him.

John Harding's habit of smoking got him in serious trouble this morning. John is a valued member of the freight-house staff. He dearly loves his pipe, and when he is not serenely puffing the smoke he is filling the bowl for a fresh whiff. When he sauntered across the tracks near the freight-house this morning he was fondly caressing his favorite pipe, and oblivious to all around him. The drill engine was running, but he escaped that, and unwittingly stepped in front of the passenger train due here at 7:10. The train was slowing to stop, which was a most fortunate circumstance for John. The locomotive struck him and knocked him down, injuring a leg, and making an ugly wound on the head above the eye. Harding was taken home in a hack, and will be laid up several days.

THE SUTTON FAMILY SETTLED.

And These Westervelt Avenue Improvements Are at Last Begun.

The white house that projected out into Westervelt avenue at North Front street has at length reached its new location on Elm place. It was three days in transit, by way of Orange street. During that time the Sutton family who claim it as their abiding-place never forsook its sheltering roof. They may be said to have enjoyed the novelty of sleeping on the streets and yet in a house, for while the building blocked the thoroughfares in transit they still lodged and ate and slept there as unconcernedly as usual. The industrious sons are now busy getting their mother settled amid the new surroundings.

The old site of the Sutton house will be considerably abridged to make a sidewalk past the place, and other land is to be taken to extend the sidewalk clear to the corner. The improvement is heartily welcomed by residents of that street of pretty homes.

UNION COUNTY'S CHAMPIONSHIP.

Plainfield Should Brace Up and Send Her Best Team.

The two-mile team race for the Union county championship is likely to be a hot one. The teams consist of three men, and it is quite possible that the Elizabeth Wheelmen and Elizabeth Athletic club teams will consist of men who ride in the Journal trophy races. Last year the cup was raced for at the Hospital carnival at the Jockey club grounds on Labor Day, the Elizabeth Wheelmen and Plainfield Bicycle club being the only competitors. The Elizabeth Wheelmen won on the heavy track in 6.33. This year there will probably be more contestants and a greater race.

HE LEFT AT MAMIE'S CALL.

After the Albion's New Broom Had Swept the Cash Drawer Clean.

The Hotel Albion's new night clerk, after two evenings' service, left suddenly Sunday morning with all the contents of the money drawer from the desk and the cash box from the safe. Payment on the checks taken was stopped at once by wire and instructions were given to arrest anyone presenting them.

The culprit, who is a young man of education and breeding and most prepossessing manners, was probably driven to the deed by financial difficulty or domestic trouble. He received a telegram on the afternoon he left which said:

Have raised ten. Come at once. Don't tell Mr. Stelle. MAMIE.

THE THIEF CAPTURED.

The New York police have telegraphed to Plainfield that the Albion thief is in their custody and will be sent here on requisition.

His name is said to be E. Morgan.

SMOTHERING THEIR PUFF.

The N. P. Electric Light Company's Neighbors Much Obliged.

The North Plainfield Electric Light company, after considerable expense, have hit upon a plan to do away with the nuisance to residents near the station caused by the rumbling and jarring of the exhaust of engines. They now do their "puffing" into an old well in the ground. The nuisance is entirely abated, and the neighbors are very thankful to the company.

Ahead of the Metropolis.

Saturday's PRESS told of the postponement of the Netherwood coaching parade, yet Sunday's New York Herald gave an account of how its Plainfield representative imagined the parade took place, which proves again that when you read it in other papers you must look in previous issues of THE PRESS to see if it's so.

I feel it my duty to say a few words in regard to Ely's Cream Balm, and I do so entirely without solicitation. I have used it more or less half a year, and have found it to be most admirable. I have suffered from catarrh of the worst kind ever since I was a little boy and I never hoped for cure, but Cream Balm seems to do even that. Many of my acquaintances have used it with excellent results. Oscar Ostrum, 46 Warren ave., Chicago, Ill.

SUN-LIGHT and FRESH AIR are THE BEST DISINFECTANTS, of course; but you can't apply them in every situation. What next? Well, that depends. For damp cellars use Quicklime, plenty of it. For vaults and cesspools use COPPERAS; cheap stuff; we sell it by the pound or hundred-weight—instructions thrown in. For kitchen sinks, for water-closets, for house plumbing, for the sick room, to deodorize discharges, to purify the air and to prevent contagion, use REYNOLDS'S ODORLESS DISINFECTANT. Made and sold for fifteen years at

Reynolds's Pharmacy, Corner Park and North Avenues.

BEAUTIFUL BALL-PLAYING.

Plainfield's Team Gives a Matchless Exhibition.

Livelier base-ball was seldom seen in Plainfield than the game put up by manager Keller's colts Saturday. The Crescents defeated the Phillipsburgs by the score of 15 to 0, and though the score seems one-sided on paper that's characteristic of games under this year's rules. The visitors made a clever showing, but played in hard luck. Two of their three errors were quite excusable. Twice they had the bases full, and then couldn't score, in spite of earnest effort. The Crescents showed the benefit of more than one game a week. They walloped the ball in every direction, no matter who was in the box. They ran the bases beautifully, and fielded faultlessly. Fritz gave the spectators an exhibition of entertaining coaching such as makes glad the heart of the kranks. He shouted in Dutch and English alternately, with telling effect. Umpire John Dailey was a decided accession, and his umpiring was a marked feature of the game. He pleased everyone with his decided manner of announcing decisions, and the way he would point to a player and shout emphatically "That man's out!" tickled the grand-stand and bleachers. Dailey has a stentorian voice that would drown both borough and city fire-gongs simultaneously. Yet veteran Leo Smith said: "That fellow's a dandy! Every year he gets up a great benefit game for himself, and every year I buy a ticket for that game to help raise money to pay his funeral expenses, as he's dying of consumption! Consumption! Look at that amplified form and listen to that fog-horn voice!"

The score:

BASE-BALL BABBLE.

The great Patersons come to Plainfield again next Saturday.

To-morrow morning the Crescents go to Poughkeepsie for two days. This is their second trip there this year.

Gallant manager Keller has decided that henceforth the wire-screened grand-stand shall be free to fair femininity.

The Paterson team, with Murphy and Turner of the Crescents in left and right field, defeated the Baltimores of the National league, yesterday, by the score of 5 to 3.

A remarkable incident of Saturday's game was that up to the sixth inning only 3 men of the visiting team got to the plate in each inning, and were retired in one-two-three order.

The method of alternating Keenan and Turner in the box meets with popular favor. Both are skillful young twirlers, and the public likes to see them both work their tricks during each game.

On the Park avenue grounds, Saturday afternoon, the following resulted from the game between nines of the rival printing-press shops:

Mr. Meeker's Attention Desired.

Spanning the gutter near the Orthodox Friends' meeting-house on East Front street is a small wooden bridge. This has been choked up with tree branches since the big wind, and during and after every heavy rain the water backs up and makes a pond way back beyond Westervelt avenue, often submerging a portion of the sidewalk. A few minutes' work by the street gang will remedy the trouble.

CAMP-MEETING IN BLAST.

This Annual Event Has a Serious and a Funny Side, and Draws Big Crowds.

The annual camp-meeting has arrived, and with it the usual fervor, enthusiasm, and fun.

Yesterday was the time set for the opening in Vail's woods on West Fourth street, near the Monroe avenue turn of the street railway.

The morning service was not largely attended, but in the afternoon the crowds began to arrive, and the cars did a thriving business all the afternoon and evening.

The meetings are in charge of the Rev. A. V. D. Henry, pastor of the A. M. E. church, who officiates at the services.

In opening the afternoon service, he made a few remarks, in which he welcomed everybody, and said he was glad the people were there. He further stated that order would be kept, and hoped there were enough gentlemen present to see that the law was enforced. He hoped no one would be offended at this statement, but order must prevail in any event.

Mr. Henry introduced sister M. E. Holt, of Metuchen, who made a prayer and afterwards sang a hymn, the audience joining in.

Mr. Henry took the floor again, and announced that the Rev. S. B. Williams, of Flemington, formerly of Philadelphia, would preach. This worthy took his text from I Cor. III: 21-23, and gave a powerful discourse which found ready lodging in the hearts of his hearers.

Following this, a musical programme was rendered, which contained hymns of a more or less ancient composition, but full of religious feeling.

All during the singing the good brethren passed the baskets for money, and frequent visits would secure an additional copper or nickel for which they were duly thankful.

It was then given out that the meeting would adjourn until evening, and the closing hymn was sung.

Promptly at 7:45 the evening meeting began with singing by a man whom nobody seemed to know. He sang off the key, but was very earnest. This was followed by a variety of hymns, sung by the choir, they having arrived by this time.

Mr. Henry then appeared and said: "Time has about arrived to open according to publication", after which he gave out a hymn, "Awake my Soul", which he said was "arranged to long measure". This occupied about ten minutes, two lines being rendered at a time, and each two given in the same strain. It was the old fashion of the preacher reading two lines, the people singing them, and two more being announced.

The Rev. Mr. Henry said he thought someone ought to run the camp, and someone ought to do the preaching; he did n't want to do both, but he would try, and announced his text as John III: 6 7.

He became greatly enthused, and the auditors' feelings were considerably wrought up. He dwelt at some length on Nicodemus, and said his occupation was an important one. The speaker said he would prefer to call his discourse a dialogue, as it could be understood much better.

At intervals the breaking of a seat would disturb the quietness, and a poor, innocent dog that had unfortunately chosen a place under one of them was accused of being mad when it came down with an aggregate weight of about 600 pounds, and the dog yelped and ran wildly about. Order was restored, and the preaching proceeded. This finally gave way to singing, which continued to the close, the usual collection being taken in the meantime. A very pretty chant was rendered, and had much effect.

A feature was a woman who had brought a baby, and would pass it to different ones to hold, so as to be relieved herself.

While returning from the grove, the occupants of a car were much amused at a colored woman who was very funny, and who, on discovering that she was be-laughed at, exclaimed: "I 'se no Plainfield gal. Youse need n't laugh at me. I'se from Ny Yoke, I is."

The meetings are a great success, and will be continued every afternoon and evening this week and also next Sunday.

A LIFE LONG AND USEFUL.

Friend Caroline Vail at Rest, After 90 Years of Well-Doing.

Mrs. Caroline H. Vail, widow of the late Hugh W. Vail, died this morning at her late residence, 302 East Second street. Mrs. Vail was one of Plainfield's oldest and most respected inhabitants. She was born in Woodbridge, Middlesex county, in 1804. The early part of her married life was spent in Bahway, whence she moved to Plainfield over 50 years ago. Her husband built the house in which she died, when he first came here. Mrs. Vail was a revered member of the Hicksite Society of Friends, and was noted for her charities and charitable work, modestly performed throughout her life. The funeral will take place Thursday at 2:30, in the Friends' meeting-house. Mrs. Vail leaves no children. Her death is the result of a fall in which she dislocated her shoulder.

Should Be a Record-Maker.

The sporting editor of the Elizabeth Journal says of the 25-mile bicycle race to be ridden over the Fanwood-Scotch Plains course August 26: "This course should allow of fast time. The race, which is open to New Jersey riders, will be held under the auspices of the Plainfield Lyceum Cyclers, and deserves the support of local wheelmen. The entries close August 21 with Capt. W. J. Kiely."

Shiloh's Cough Cure.

This is beyond question the most successful Cough Medicine we have eversold; a few doses invariably cure the worst cases of Cough, Croup and Bronchitis, while its wonderful success in the cure of Consumption is without a parallel in the history of medicine. Since its first discovery it has been sold on a guarantee, a test which no other medicine can stand. If you have a cough we earnestly ask you to try it. Price, 10c. and $1. If your lungs are sore, chest, or back lame, use Shiloh's Porous Plaster. Sold by A. D. Mallinson, 65 North Avenue, opposite railroad station. 5-16-y

DEATH OF GEN. ABBETT.

Seized With a Fit of Coughing, He Expires in His Chair in His Father's House.

Gen. Wm. F. Abbett, the eldest son of ex-Governor Abbett, and Judge Advocate General of the New Jersey National Guards, died suddenly yesterday morning at his father's home in Jersey avenue and Montgomery street, Jersey City. Gen. Abbett had been confined to the house since last May by a severe cold and nervous prostration, but he was recovering, as it was supposed, and he expected to be able to go to the encampment of the First Brigade at Sea Girt. At 8:30 a. m., yesterday, while sitting in an easy chair, he was seized with a fit of coughing and fell back in the chair dead. Dr. McGill says that death was caused by apoplexy.

Gen. Abbett was born in Hoboken thirty years ago yesterday. He studied law in the Columbia Law School in New York city, and, after being admitted to the bar, entered the office of his father. Subsequently he became a member of the firm. Gov. Green appointed him Judge Advocate General about five years ago. The time for the funeral has not been definitely fixed, but it will probably be Wednesday.

The Great Mills Among Them.

A number of Plainfield Y. M. C. A. members anticipate attending the eleventh general conference of Christian workers, which will convene at East Northfield, Mass., Aug. 3 to 13.

Among the promised speakers are: Revs. A. J. Gorden, of Boston; J. Wilbur Chapman, Albany; A. C. Dixon, Brooklyn; Merrill Edwards Gates, Ph. D., L. L. D., President of Amherst College; Maj. D. W. Whittle, Northfield, Mass.; Rev. B. Fay Mills, Providence; Prof. W. W. Moore, of the University of Virginia; Rev. John McNeill, Scotland; Hon. R. Morton, Hamilton, Ontario; and several others from foreign lands who are now assisting Mr. Moody in Chicago. The singing will be under the direction of Messrs. Ira D. Sankey and Geo. C. Stebbins. Further information may be obtained at the Y. M. C. A. rooms, of secretary J. H. Manning.

Young Men Enjoy Papiac's Delights.

A four-horse stage conveyed the Young Men's association of the Monroe Avenue chapel to Papiac, Saturday, and brought them home after a pleasant day. They profusely praise Capt. Boynton's charming resort. The members attending were: Chauncey Burt, treasurer; Blanchard Randolph, Charles Randolph, Vice-president; Samuel Saums, George Saums, Fred Phillips, George Hughes, Clarence Brouard, Robert Storah, Harry Pound, D. P. Hicks, president; Henry Apgar, Geo. Apgar, Burt King, Geo. Blackford, Clifford Manning, Wm. Ackerman and Walter Manning.

He's Honest, Fair and Clever.

Editor G. Elston Lowrie got out a very creditable first anniversary number of his Dunellen Weekly Call last week. The Call is a bright and refreshing relief of the Dunellen and New Market news field. Mr. Lowrie modestly and frankly says:

"We do not claim to be perfect in journalistic work, but we do claim to be honest. We do make pretensions to fairness. We know that we stand ready to rectify mistakes that may be made by us. Further than that we cannot go, and further than that we do not think any reasonable person would ask us to go."

Beware This Swindler.

A strange Negro applied to a number of Plainfield women of charitable disposition, Saturday, asking for money to increase the fund for his education for the ministry. He exhibited a list of alleged contributions, and liberal ones, too, from prominent Plainfielders. Investigation proved the list to be of his own manufacture. He's a humbug.

Why Elizabeth Rejoices.

Editor McBride's great newspaper, the Elizabeth Journal, says:

TOWN TATTLE, which bade this community adieu last week, as an independent publication, bids its former patrons a pleasant au revoir this evening in the columns of the Journal. Editor Wetmore, could n't, as we all knew, totally abandon his constituents with a P. P. C., for he has many pleasant and interesting things which he wants to say to them and which they want to hear. In transferring his remarks and observations from Town Tattle to the columns of the Journal he will renew his literary acquaintance with all his old friends and many new ones.

They'll Be Transported Now.

Patrick Ahern and Albert Rupert, who were arrested and fined this morning for being drunk, were tempted to get full again, and in consequence of their celebration they were once more dragged to jail. One of them was stubborn, lay down under the Park avenue bridge, and declined to go with the officer. But he went jus' the same.

No Cash, But Real Estate Transferred.

The Job Male estate, the division of which was announced exclusively by THE PRESS of Saturday, was handed over to the heirs just as it stood, each receiving his or her share in real estate. None of the property was put on the market by the trustees, but its assessed valuation was taken, and an amount aggregating each share was awarded respectively.

Crashed Through a Window.

While working on an extension in the rear of White's dry goods store, A. C. Rogers walked off the roof and fell through a glass window, cutting his right arm in several places and severing an artery. Dr. Carman was called, and sewed the cut together.

Bad Season for Babies.

Plainfield physicians report a most distressing prevalence of cholera infantum, caused largely by the recent excessive heat. The refreshing cool wave that arrived Saturday night brought great improvement and relief to many.

Read and Reflect.

The great mass of mankind lose their health through inattention to catarrh of the head and throat. This insidious disease was considered incurable until the discovery of the American Catarrh Cure. For sale by L. W. Randolph, 21 West Front street. Price $1.00.

HARD LUCK FOR FARLEY.

All His Crops Destroyed, and a Horse Perished in the Flames.

A barn belonging to Anthony Farley, just beyond Terrill road, caught fire Saturday night at 10. An alarm was sounded from box 16, Plainfield, and both the Plainfield and Fanwood apparatus responded, but could do nothing to stop the flames, as there was no water. Farley succeeded in getting out most of his live stock, but one horse was burned to death, and all his garden tools were destroyed, besides his new crop of hay and grain. The barn was destroyed. The fire is supposed to be of incendiary origin. There was no insurance.

Bound to Get Enough on.

Car No. 1 of the street railway service is still in the car house. It will receive nine coats of paint and varnish, and seventeen days is the time given for the completion of the job.

The Irrepressible John.

John Goodwin was arrested on the charge of fighting and being quarrelsome at the North avenue station. Judge Coddington this morning laid the case over until more evidence could be secured.

Safe, Sure and Speedy.

No external remedy ever yet devised has so fully and unquestionably met these three prime conditions as successfully as ALLCOCK'S POROUS PLASTERS. They are safe because they contain no deleterious drugs and are manufactured upon scientific principles of medicine. They are sure because nothing goes into them except ingredients which are exactly adapted to the purposes for which a plaster is required. They are speedy in their action because their medicinal qualities go right to their work of relieving pain and restoring the natural and healthy performance of the functions of muscles, nerves and skin. Do not be deceived by misrepresentation. Ask for ALLCOCK'S, and let no solicitation or explanation induce you to accept a substitute.

Oh, What a Cough!

Will you heed the warning. The signal perhaps of the sure approach of that more terrible disease, Consumption. Ask yourselves if you can afford for the sake of saving 50c., to run the risk and do nothing for it. We know from experience that Shiloh's Cure will cure your cough. It never fails. This explains why more than a Million Bottles were sold the past year. It relieves croup and whooping cough at once. Mothers, do not be without it. For lame back, side or chest, use Shiloh's Porous Plaster. Sold by A. D. Mallinson, 65 North Ave. opposite railroad station. 5-16-y

KNURR AND SPELL.

An Athletic Game Which Is Popular in Northern England.

A game that requires a rare amount of skill as well as strength, and is also very interesting to the spectator, is played in the northern counties of England, and is called "Knurr and Spell."

Outside of the player, three things enter into the game. First, the knurr, a ball of box-wood, or similar material; second, the spell, a sort of spring trap, with a cup for the placing of the knurr; and third, the stick, which is a slender piece of ash, or like pliable wood, about four feet long, rounded and tapering, from the handle end, from one inch to about half an inch in diameter, the lower, or smaller, end being inserted in a "pommel," which is about six inches long by two and a half across, half round and flat on one face.

The knurr, though a staple article of trade, is generally made by the players themselves when a contest is anticipated. The conditions of such may stipulate the kind of knurr to be used, whether pot, box-wood or otherwise; but, as said, box-wood is the favorite one. A piece of green wood is taken and made solely by hand and the jackknife, and it is remarkable how symmetrically round the knurr-and-spell players can make them. The knurrs, however, contain small dints all over the surface, as a "grip" to the "pommel" when they are hit by the player. They are thoroughly "seasoned," or dried, before using, and trial is made of them before a contest takes place.

The "spell" is a rectangular piece of hard wood, about eighteen inches by six in size, fitted on spikes, one at each corner, for inserting and holding it in the ground, and on its upper side is the "spring," fastened at one end permanently, when in position to throw the knurr in its cup. It is held by a catch at the other end. The cuts herewith show the spell in both positions.

The "stick" is also thoroughly seasoned, and it is used to "tip" the catch of the spring, which, when set free, throws the knurr into a curve in front of the spell, and the player then, swinging the stick, gives the knurr a "belt" with the pommel, and sends it flying through the air horizontally, almost to a distance proportionate to his strength and skill.

A weak man with skill can drive a knurr farther than a strong man without skill can, and a great proficiency can be obtained by continuous practice. For instance, the player, before driving out the knurr, "tries the rise" of the spring. He gently tips the catch with the pommel, holding the stick in one hand. The knurr makes a slight curve in front of the spell, and the player catches it with the other hand. A good player can tell to a point when the rise is all right. A screw regulates it.

Again, some skillful players, instead of catching the knurr by reaching out the left hand, as soon as they release the catch put out the stick, and let the knurr drop on the pommel once, then, drawing in the stick a trifle, let the knurr drop on the pommel a second time, and finally let it drop into the left hand. This requires uncommon skill, and few can attain it. All the same, it gives the true rise of the knurr.

The distance to which the knurr can be driven varies, of course, but 280 to 300 yards is considered championship form, though as far as 400 or more yards have been tallied on occasions. The distance is marked out in spaces of twenty yards, and are called "scores," small pieces of wood, or pickets, being driven into the ground in curves from the spell cup as a center.

A "clear rise" covers the distance in the air, from the cup to the spot where the knurr alights on the ground; but if it "rolls" farther, as in every case it does roll, the distance is counted.

A match consists of alternate playing between the two contestants, and, according to agreement, out of the same spell, or separate ones, and also for twenty or more "rises" each. He whose total scores amount to the most is the winner.

It is a game of strength and skill, as remarked, the exercise on the muscles is not confined to any one point, but spread over the whole body; so it is also a healthy game and a purely athletic one.

A Natural Idea.

Ethel's mamma had made her annual fight on the moths, and had found several garments more or less moth eaten. Ethen had been deeply interested. A day or two later the little girl looked at her father's head carefully and observed: "Mamma, the moths have got into papa's hair too."—Judge.

The Doctor's Advice.

Mother—Now, Violet, can you give me any reason why I shouldn't punish you?

Violet—Es, I tan; ze doctor said 'oo mustn't take any vi'lent ex'cise.—Puck.

Remembrandt the Remnant.

"I saw a painting by an old master to-day in New York," said Mrs. Spriggins.

"What was his name?" asked Spriggins.

"Let me see—Remnant, I think. Yes, I'm sure it was Remnant. He was one of the last of the great painters, I believe."—Harper's Bazar.

Not Much of a Saving.

Old Bachelor—Now that you are married, you don't have to send your garments out any more to be mended, I presume.

Married Friend—N-o, don't have to send them out now. My wife always has the house full of sewing women.—N. Y. Weekly.

ANOTHER LIE NAILED.

—Truth.

What He Forgot.

Little Johnny—Can I have some more pie?

Mamma—Do not say "can;" say, "May I have!"

Little Johnny—I forgot.

Mamma—Forgot what?

Little Johnny—That I have to be particular about grammar w'en I ask for pie.—Good News.

One of the Lucky Smiths.

Jones—Allow me to congratulate you. I hear you have married an actress.

Smith—You are mistaken. It is another Smith.

Jones—It is, eh? Then, sir, allow me to congratulate you all the more at your lucky escape.—Texas Siftings.

Quite the Reverse.

"That's a perfectly true saying, isn't it, that the most interesting things in the world to men and women are men and women?"

"Not at all, it is quite the reverse. The most interesting things in the world to men and women are women and men."—Life.

Ignorance About Bliss.

Tommy—I looked through the keyhole when Sis was in the parlor with her beau last night.

Father—What did you find out, my son?

Tommy—The lamp, sir.—Grenoble Monthly.

Music.

He—Music hath charms to soothe a savage.

She—You wouldn't think so if you had heard papa's remarks the other night after you had been singing.—Detroit Free Press.

Sounds Reasonable.

"You had a narrow escape coming across, I understand."

"Yes, indeed, the coal ran out, and the captain had to split the ship's log to keep the fires going."—N. Y. Press.

"Working Girls,

"Are your cheeks pale?

"Your eyes dull, and step heavy?

"Does your back and side ache sometimes terribly?

"Are you at times faint and dizzy, with pain in the lower part of your stomach?

"Do you watch the clock, and wish the day would end, as you feel ill, and so tired. If so, listen! Standing all day, week in and week out, you have slowly drifted into woman's great enemy, displacement of the womb.

"That or some other derangement of the organ, causing irregularity and other troubles.

"Take warning in time! Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound is the surest and safest remedy in the world for you."—Miss Sallie Palmer, Juniata St., Nicetown, Pa.

NEARING WAR IN SIAM.

The French Minister at Bangkok Notifies the King That He Will Leave the City.

HOLLAND WILL PROTECT THE SUBJECTS OF FRANCE

Notice Given to the Powers By France That She Intends to Establish a Blockade of the Siamese Coast—Military Operations to Be Begun Shortly—Cabinet Councils Held in London and Paris to Discuss the Situation—Germany is Pleased at the Prospect—United States Interests in Siam.

BANGKOK, July 25.—M. Pavie, French Minister Resident, has lowered the flags over his offices and has notified the Siamese government that he will leave the city to go aboard the French warship Inconstante to-morrow.

He has requested the government to provide pilots to conduct the Lutin and Comete down the river.

French subjects in Bangkok will be placed under the protection of the Dutch Consul.

The Siamese warships, which are anchored one mile from the French, are crowded with men ready for action. Their intention is, in case the French commence hostilities, to steam down and ram the French gunboats, attempt to board them in force and attack the crews with fixed bayonets. The German gunboat Wolf has arrived here.

PARIS, July 25.—The Liberte newspaper says that France will seize and hold Battambang and Angkor as guarantee that her demands will be satisfied.

The government has notified the powers that it intends to establish a blockade of the Siamese coast without prejudice to the other measures that may be taken with the object of securing to France the guarantee to which she is entitled.

A council of the Ministers will be held to-day to decide what additional measures shall be taken to ensure the obtaining of the guarantees from Siam.

President Carnot is at Marly-le-Roi, and the Cabinet has gone there for deliberation.

The French government is making arrangements with another government for the protection of French subjects in Siam during the absence from Bangkok of M. Pavie, the French Minister.

The Temps says that the beginning of the blockade will be deferred until Thursday or Friday to enable France to take the steps prescribed by international law. Besides the blockade, military operations will be opened shortly.

The details of these operations are still undetermined. The will be settled at a Cabinet council within a day or two.

Steps will be taken in Indo-China towards serious action immediately after the arrival of the battalion of the Foreign Legion. The second portion of this battalion sailed from Marseilles yesterday.

The native militia will be reorganized, and, together with the imported companies of the Foreign Legion, will co-operate with the force already in active service in the Khong district.

ANXIETY IN LONDON.

A Special Cabinet Meeting Held Last Night to Discuss the Situation.

LONDON, July 25.—The Franco-Siamese complication is the absorbing topic in the lobbies of the House of Commons to-day. The situation is regarded with apprehension by all parties, and latest news from Bangkok and Paris is read with as much anxiety and eagerness.

On all sides regret is expressed that the British warships in Siamese waters were not reinforced a month ago, as the British interests in Siam outnumber the French one hundred to one.

Last evening a council of Ministers was summoned at the instance of Lord Rosebery, Secretary of State for Foreign Affairs, to meet in the Prime Minister's room of the House of Commons. The only subject discussed was the situation at Bangkok.

Germany Would be Pleased.

BERLIN, July 25.—The Tageblatt says that Germany would be pleased should France's overreaching spirit cause serious complications in Asia. Nor would the German government be disturbed, adds the Tageblatt, if the present trouble result in acute rivalry in Eastern Asia between France and Great Britain.

OUR INTERESTS IN SIAM.

A Score of Missionaries Constitute All the American Residents.

WASHINGTON, July 25.—So far as the State Department is informed there are no American citizens residing in Siam except about a score of missionaries. It is not believed to be necessary to take any special measures for their protection.

The United States has no diplomatic representative in Siam and the consul general at Bangkok, Mr. Boyd, is in this country at present, leaving the office in charge of his son, the vice consul.

If the welfare of our missionaries should be threatened, which is thought they can without doubt secure protection upon application to the ministers of some other nation, as will be the case with the French residents.

The commercial interests of the United States in Siam are insignificant, the exports being very few and the imports being made up of teak wood used in ship building and some trifles of oriental and Maylaynesian decorative work.

Two Men Blown to Pieces.

HUNTINGTON, Ind., July 25.—Schaeffer & Schaeffer's powder house exploded yesterday afternoon. Homer Householder and Hugh Harvey were shooting with a rifle, and when a bullet entered a window both men were blown clear across the little river and their bodies torn to pieces. Houses were wrecked all around and several persons were injured.

No Drowning Accident at Bridgeport.

BRIDGEPORT, Conn., July 25.—The rumor that four persons were drowned off this harbor proves untrue. A skiff upset containing three persons, but all were rescued.

Suicide of a Florist.

FLUSHING, L. I., July 25.—Louis Fremer, a florist of Whitestone, committed suicide at his home by blowing his brains out with a revolver. He was 50 years old. Domestic troubles are supposed to have led him to take his life.

ALL ARE RECOVERING.

None of the Soldiers Poisoned at Sea Girt Will Die.

It Required Heroic Measures to Revive Some of Them—An Investigation Ordered by Governor Werts.

ASBURY PARK, N. J., July 25.—Of the 142 members of the First brigade, N. J. N. G., now in camp at Sea Girt, prostrated by a poison stuff, the origin of which is not known, all but 20 are out of danger.

No deaths have occurred and none is feared. It is not known what caused the poison, but it is thought it either occurred from milk or from oxalic acid, which may have gathered in the tin cups which were stored since last summer.

Nearly all of the men were taken sick late Sunday night or early yesterday morning. Many of the men were utterly collapsed and it required heroic measures to revive them.

Most of the men prostrated were members of the Second and Third regiments, Second brigade.

Gov. Werts has ordered a strict investigation to be made.

THE CAMPANIA SIGHTED.

She Was Driving Along at a Twenty-Mile an Hour Gait to Break the Record.

QUEENSTOWN, July 25.—The steamer Bothnia reports meeting the Campania 140 miles west of Queenstown, having covered the distance in six hours and twenty-eight minutes.

It is predicted that the Campania will take a big slice off the record. She has taken the northern course in an attempt to break the western record, and when sighted was driving along at full speed.

Ainsworth and Others Indicted.

WASHINGTON, July 25.—The Grand Jury has found a true bill against Frederick C. Ainsworth, chief of the record and pension division of the War Department; George W. Dant, the contractor employed to make the excavation for the electric light plant; William E. Covert, superintendent and Francis Sasse, engineer of the building, holding them responsible for the old Ford's theatre disaster of June 9th last, in which 23 persons lost their lives and a large number of others were injured.

Another Clause Adopted.

LONDON, July 25.—The House of Commons, sitting as Committee of the Whole on the Home Rule bill, discussed last evening Mr. Gladstone's new financial clause which proposes that Ireland's contribution to the imperial exchequer shall be one third of her total revenue for six years. Shortly before midnight Chairman Mellor applied the closure to the debate and the clause in question was adopted by a vote of 226 to 191.

A Murder Over a Tooth.

COLUMBUS, O., July 25.—Dr. Herman Hirschber, of Goodale street, shot and instantly killed Theodore K. Miesse, a grocer, yesterday. Some days ago the doctor pulled a tooth for Miesse and went to the store to collect the bill. They got into a dispute a and fight followed, during which the doctor drew a revolver and shot Miesse through the stomach.

Tenny in Old Time Form.

LOUISVILLE, July 25.—Dave Pulsifer's Tenny, who has been at the Dixiana farm near Lexington, Ky., since he was retired, it was thought, permanently, about a year ago, was shipped to Sheepshead Bay, N. Y., yesterday. He has recovered his old-time form, and the Dixiana people say he is as good as when he raced Salvator to a head in '90.

De Mello Indicted.

NEW BEDFORD, Mass., July 25.—The grand jury convened yesterday, and after a deliberation of not over five minutes returned an indictment against Jose Correa de Melo for the killing of Bertha Manchester of Fall River on the 30th of May last. De Mello was before indicted under the name of Jose Correiro.

Another Fire at the Fair.

WORLD'S FAIR GROUNDS, CHICAGO, July 25.—Yesterday afternoon fire broke out in the north end of the Transportation building at the Fair. It was extinguished before much damage was done, but for a few minutes the crowds in the building were almost panic-stricken.

A Jockey Killed.

CONEY ISLAND, N. Y., July 25.—Jockey Thomas Flynn was thrown from his mount at the Brighton Beach race track yesterday afternoon and received injuries from which he died soon after. Flynn was 22 years old and rode for James McCormick.

Killed by the Cars.

TROY, N. Y., July 25.—John Fitzpatrick, a railroader, while walking on the railroad track near Williamstown was almost instantly killed by the cars.

Connecticut Editor Dead.

SOUTH NORWALK, Conn., July 25.—Julius M. Ellendorf, editor of the Mechanics Journal and the Fairfield County Anzeiger, is dead here, after a lingering illness.

KANSAS MINE STRIKE

Two Companies Determined to Operate Their Works.

THEY WILL PROTECT THE MINERS

Stockades Nearly Finished—The Companies Will Put Arms in the Hands of Their Men, as They Do Not Rely on the State to Protect Them.

KANSAS CITY, Mo., July 25.—There is no longer doubt that the Central Coal and Coke Co., and the Kansas and Texas Coal Co., intend to bring about a crisis in the strike at their coal mines in southeastern Kansas in the next few days.

The Central Coal and Coke Co. has nearly finished the building of stockades around its mines at Weir City and Scammon and has built houses for workmen within the walls, and this morning President R. H. Keith told a reporter that the mines at both places would be operated before the end of the week.

"What day will you begin work?" he was asked.

"I do not know. That has not been decided definitely."

"Where are the men who will work in them to come from?"

"Some of our old men will be given a chance to work again if they feel so disposed. The others, the men who have given us most of the trouble, we do not want and we won't have. Then there are some men coming from Colorado and some from the South. It is easy enough to get the men."

"Are the men who come from the South negroes?"

"I guess they are. Negroes make good miners and we want men who will dig the coal."

"Will they be furnished with the arms that are stacked at Springfield and elsewhere?"

"We are not going to put men in our mines to be shot down like cattle. There is no use trying to disguise facts. We have no reason to believe that they will be protected by the State. Our experience with the State and county officers has been such that we can expect little from them. We must do something. It would be folly and cruelty on our part to put working men in those mines with no protection. When the miners go inside the stockades they will be prepared to defend themselves against attack."

The Kansas & Texas company is preparing for work too, but neither company will tell when work will begin. Manager Crandall, of the Kansas & Texas company is at the mines and will probably stay there until matters are settled.

It is expected he will take some decided action during the next two or three days.

More World's Fair Trouble.

CHICAGO, July 25.—The World's Fair authorites have been served with a notice by the attorneys for Charles W. Clingman that they will ask Judge Stein for an order compelling the directors to show cause why they are not in contempt of court for violation of the injunction hertofore entered restraining them from closing the gates of Jackson Park on Sundays. The defense will ask that a time be set to hear arguments on the motion.

Indignation Against Sheriff McLendon.

MEMPHIS, Tenn., July 25.—There is a storm of indignation against Sheriff McLendon for his exhibition of weakness Saturday night in turning Lee Walker over to a drunken mob of boodlums, railroad switchmen and boys. Half a dozen men could have defended the jail and run them into the Mississippi river. Judge Scruggs has suspended McLendon pending an investigation.

Currency for the Interior.

NEW YORK, July 25.—The shipments of currency by the banks to the interior yesterday amounted to $1,500,000. Of this sum $400,000 was obtained at the Sub-Treasury in exchange for large bills. Most of the money went to Cincinnati and Indianapolis.

NEWS OF THE DAY.

The United States ship Chicago sailed yesterday from Kingston, Ireland, for Cherbourg, France.

Harry Hitchcock of Baltimore has lived five days with a broken neck. His chances for getting well are not good, however.

William Kemper of Baltimore, aged 60 years, is locked up, charged with enticing little girls into his house for immoral purposes.

The commercial travelers are gathering in force for the days that have been specially set aside for them at the World's Fair.

John H. McAvoy, founder of the McAvoy Brewing Company, and one of the best known citizens of Chicago, died last night aged 63.

A new Anarchist monthly under the name of Die Brandfackel (The Flaming Torch) made its appearance yesterday in New York.

The Grand lodge of the Theatrical Mechanics association of the United States and Canada has begun a three days session in Cleveland.

You hear a great deal about oat-meals as good as H-O. Do you ever hear that H-O is as good as some others?

GAUDAUR AN EASY WINNER.

He Beat Hanlan Yesterday at Orillia by Seven Lengths.

ORILLIA, Ont., July 25.—The Hanlan-Gaudaur championship race here yesterday attracted another large crowd. Both men were in splendid condition. A stiff breeze prevailed all day and made the course rough at the turn. At 5:45 Hanlan said he was satisfied with the condition of the water and was quickly followed by Gaudaur.

The start was made at 6:04. Hanlan shot to the front like a flash and was soon leading by a full boat's length. Both men were rowing about 34 strokes a minute. Hanlan kept in front for the first half mile, where Gaudaur reduced the lead to a half boat length and soon spurted by his opponent. When the turn was reached Gaudaur was leading by a boat length, with Hanlan apparently out of it.

Gaudaur crossed the line an easy winner by seven lengths in 18:53. Hanlan finished 12 seconds behind.

Hanlan has notified the stakeholders not to pay the stake money, claiming that the course was changed, causing his defeat.

To Succeed Gen. Chamberlain.

HARTFORD, Conn., July 25.—Chief of Police Jabez L. Woodbridge, of this city, has been elected Warden of the State prison at Wethersfield, to succeed General Chamberlain, Aug. 1. The position is $2,400 per year salary, board, house rent and everything necessary found. Woodbridge is a Democrat and has been chief of police since last May.

CHOLERA AT NAPLES.

Are the Authorities Holding Back Information as to the Disease?

Gibraltar Declares an Eight-Day Quarantine Against Vessels from the Italian Port—Report of Surgeon Young.

WASHINGTON, July 25.—Assistant Surgeon G. B. Young, of the marine hospital service, stationed at Naples, Italy, has cabled Surgeon-General Wyman that cholera continues at that place, averaging three cases daily.

The marine hospital service also received a cable message through the Department of State from Consul Strickland at Gorce-Dakar, Africa, saying: "Cholera prevails in Senegal."

No statistics as to the number of cases and deaths or other particulars were given. Senegal is a French colonial dependency in West Africa.

LONDON, July 25.—Information having reached this city of the reiterated reports published in the United States as to the presence of cholera in Naples, efforts have been made to ascertain the truth or falsity of the reports. Inquiries have been made of several directions, but nothing was elicited that would justify the statement that cholera had appeared in Naples.

The London newspapers make no mention of the disease in Naples. Naples newspapers on Friday last stated that two cholera deaths had occurred in the city, but the authorities promptly denied that the disease was of the Asiatic type.

Yesterday the authorities at Gibraltar declared an eight days quarantine against vessels arriving from Naples, and this fact suggests that the Italian authorities are holding back information as to the presence of the scourge.

In Encampment at Montrose.

SUSQUEHANNA, Pa., July 25.—The Thirteenth Regiment of the National Guard held its annual encampment at Montrose yesterday. The camp was visited by Gov. Pattison and staff; General Snowden, of Philadelphia, and staff; General Cobin, commanding the Third Brigade, and staff, and Captain Rogers, of the regular army, who has been detailed by the War Department to inspect and report upon the efficiency of the National Guard of Pennsylvania.

Their Identity Established.

SALEM, Mass., July 25.—There is no doubt that the men reported drowned in Salem harbor by the capsizing of a yacht Sunday were Anton Liebsch, about 56 years old, Andria Liebsch, his 16-year-old son, and James E. Dixon, foreman of the Salem Gazette office, about 30. An oar and hat found have been identified as belonging to Liebsch, and they were in a boat answering the description of the one known to have capsized and sunk.

The Navahoe's First Race.

LONDON, July 25.—The first race in which the American yacht Navahoe will take part will be in the regatta of the Royal London Yacht Club, which will take place on July 31, off the Isle of Wight.

An Engineer Fatally Hurt.

PORTSMOUTH, N. H., July 25.—Engineer E. H. Woodsum, of the Portsmouth Shoe Company, was fatally injured yesterday by the bursting of a globe valve on the boiler.

THE BUSINESS SITUATION

To Treasury Officials It Seems to Be Brightening.

CONFIDENCE RESTORED IN THE WEST

Several of the Recently Failed Banks Taking Steps to Resume—A Number of Banks Forced to Suspend Yesterday. The Day's Record of Failures.

WASHINGTON, July 25.—As viewed at the Treasury Department the week has begun with brighter financial prospects. A number of the recently failed banks are taking the necessary steps to resume and Comptroller Eckels is lending them all the aid possible.

He has been notified that the failed First National Bank, of Kendallville, Ind., and the failed Northern National Bank, of Big Rapids, Mich., would probably resume business this week.

The First National Bank of Santa Anna, Cal., which resumed business on Saturday after a short suspension, received in deposits, yesterday, $12,000, while the withdrawals amounted to only $6,000. This is regarded here as an evidence that confidence is being restored on the Pacific coast.

Not in the Hands of a Receiver.

NEW YORK, July 25.—A. P. Cobb, treasurer of the Oxford Iron and Nail Company, at 52 Wall street, says that the company has not gone into the hands of a receiver, as published in the Sunday papers. He says that the closing down of the puddling and rolling mills is only to reduce the stock and await a better condition of trade. The blast furnaces and mines are still in operation.

New York Mines Closed Down.

HIGHLAND FALLS, N. Y., July 25.—The Forest of Dean mines, situated near this village, and owned and operated by the Poughkeepsie Iron Ore Company, have closed down for an indefinite period. One hundred miners are thrown out of work. The mines have been operated without interruption for the past hundred years. No reason is given for the company's closing.

Big Baltimore Firm Assigns.

BALTIMORE, July 25.—The Southern Electric company, one of the big enterprises of this city, has made a voluntary assignment to Morrill N. Packard. Failure to collect overdue accounts made it impossible for the company to meet its obligations. The assets of the concern are estimated at $175,000; liabilities, $100,000. Mr. Packard filed a bond for $35,000.

Chicago Iron Merchants in Trouble.

CHICAGO, July 25.—Parkhurst & Wilkinson, iron merchants, at 148 and 164 Kinzie street, have confessed judgment in the Circuit Court in favor of the National Bank of Chicago for $80,175. The debt is evidenced by judgment notes which the defendant concern was unable to meet at maturity. The firm's assets are estimated at $1,000,000.

A Stir in the Grain Trade.

CHICAGO, July 25.—There was a stirring up of the whole grain trade yesterday. For the first time in three months great bull movements were started in all the pits. Bullish sentiment has been so much suppresed for weeks and the trade was so largely oversold in all the markets that the turn in the tide was of a sensational character.

Tinware Factory Shut Down.

JAMAICA, L. I., July 25.—The Balance & Grosjean agate and tinware factory at Woodhaven, the largest establishment of its kind in the United States, has shut down for two or three weeks throwing out of employment over 1,000 persons, most of them very poor people, wholly dependent upon the wages they received in the factory.

Another Louisville Bank Suspends.

LOUISVILLE, Ky., July 25.—The Louisville City National Bank suspended payments yesterday afternoon. The bank has a capital of $400,000. The announcement that the bank had closed for business was not unexpected. The bank found that it was impossible to realize on its assets owing to the financial stringency.

Carnegie Mills Shut Down.

PITTSBURG, July 25.—The rod, wire and nail mills of the Carnegie Steel company at Beaver Falls, Pa., closed down unexpectedly yesterday. Superintendent Sigley says the plants will resume in a few weeks after the necessary repairs have been made, but the 800 employes are fearful of a long shut down.

Buffalo Builder Assigns.

BUFFALO, N. Y., July 25.—Edmund Vanddenvouver, a real estate agent and builders has assigned. His assets and liabilities are not yet given, but it is stated that after a settlement there should be a surplus of $30,000. The failure was caused by the tight money market.

Struck Against a Reduction.

PATERSON, N. J., July 25.—About 130 weavers in the employ of Messrs. Pelgram and Meyers, silk manufacturers, went on a strike yesterday afternoon against a reduction of ten per cent. in their wages. The strikers left the mill in an orderly manner.

Three Syracuse Firms Assign.

SYRACUSE, N. Y., July 25.—Three Syracuse business houses assigned yesterday. They are H. L. Stevens, cloak dealers; Joeseph M. Hill, picture frames, and Sapery & Muscat, scrap iron dealers. Amount involved, $70,000.

Ohio Bank Resumes.

PORTSMOUTH, O., July 25.—The Citizens' Savings Bank, which suspended about the middle of June, has resumed with new deposits to the amount of $30,000. Confidence in the bank's ability to pay its debts is fully restored.

Manchester, N. H., Bank Enjoined.

MANCHESTER, N. H., July 25.—The Bank of New England, formerly the Granite State Trust Company, has been enjoined from doing business, on the same lines as in the case of the New Hampshire Trust Company.

Indiana Bank Closed.

CONNERSVILLE, Ind., July 25.—The Citizens' Bank, owned by ex-United States Treasurer Huston, failed to open its doors yesterday. Liabilities and assets not yet made known. The depositors will it is said, be paid in full.

The Tacoma National Bank strongest in the northwest yesterday.

THREE DROWNED IN A POND.

Officials of Two Towns Squabbling Over the Recovery of the Bodies.

GREAT BARRINGTON, Mass., July 25.—Augustus Hamlin, aged 28, his wife, Mary, aged, 22, Eugene Peltier, 20 years old, and Louis Victor and Rosa Labbe, went rowing on Harmon's Pond Sunday. The boat leaked. All crowded to one side and Peltier jumped overboard. Mrs. Hamlin jumped out and clasped her arms around Peltier's neck and both sank at once.

Hamlin fell out of the boat and sank like a rock.

The two others were saved by clinging to the boat. Sheffield and Egremont officers disagree as to who shall recover the bodies, part of the pond being in each town, and no official action has been taken as yet.

The Russian Battleship.

NEW YORK, July 25.—The Russian battleship, Nicholas I., which lies at anchor off Fifty-eighth street in the North river, is attracting a great deal of attention. She is the largest war vessel that has ever entered New York harbor, and a more formidable looking craft it would be hard to imagine.

Gallagher Sticks to His Latest.

PITTSBURG, July 25.—Patrick Gallagher, the Homestead poisoner, yesterday reaffirmed his latest confession and affixed his signature to the stenographer's report of that examination. J. M. Davidson also signed his confession.

TWO SLICK SWINDLERS.

How a Chicago Firm of "Bankers" Fleeced the People.

They Distributed Small Safes Which Could Only be Opened at the Bank—They Have Fled With Over $20,000.

CHICAGO, July 25.—Bradford & Church, Dearborn street bankers, have closed their institution without even posting a notice. Their whereabouts seem to be known only to themselves. The deposits are said to aggregate between $20,000 and $30,000.

The firm started banking after a successful land speculation at Tolleston, Ind. The first thing they did after having the bank sign painted, was to distribute several thousand small iron banks among the poor people of Chicago. The banks could be opened only by the Bradfords.

From day to day he who was unfortunate enough to possess one of the little chests dropped in pennies and nickles and when he had it filled he would bring it to the bank where the contents were most carefully removed and credited to the depositor.

At Gray Gables.

BUZZARD'S BAY, Mass., July 25.—Mr. George E. Prichett, of Omaha, Neb., who is summering with his family at Nansasket Beach, called at Gray Gables yesterday, but the President was fishing. Mr. Prichitt was United States District Attorney of Nebraska during Mr. Cleveland's first administration. A rumor is current here that a very important appointment is forthcoming from Washington within a few days, possibly within a few hours. The appointment referred to is said to be that of Collector of the port of Boston.

Master Workman Powderly to Resign.

NEW YORK, July 25.—It was declared on good authority last evening that T. V. Powderly is going to resign as General Master Workman when the general convention of the Knights is held in October. The order is in a bad way, and the per capita tax would not be enough to pay the salaries of the officers if there was no money in the Treasury. Powderly has been studying law for some time, and is in a position to begin practice in the Pennsylvania courts.

Has Proof of Crouse's Marriage.

NEW YORK, July 25.—Mr. Sanford Steele, of Steele & Dickson, attorneys for Dorothea Edgarita Crouse of Syracuse said last night that he had absolute proof of a ceremonial marriage between his client's mother, Mrs. Kosterlitz, and the dead millionaire. Mr. Steele said that he had also found lawyers whom Crouse had at one time consulted with a view to securing a divorce from his wife.

Montana Bank Suspends.

GREAT FALLS, Mont., July 25.—The Merchant's National Bank closed its doors yesterday. A notice signed by the directors states that all the depositors will be paid in full. The bank held $21,000 city funds and $32,000 of the county and $20,000 of State funds but has little or no money on hand.

School Teachers Off for the Fair.

PITTSBURG, July 25.—Last evening the 50 of the most popular school teachers in Pittsburg and vicinity started on a special train of Pullman cars for a ten days stay at the World's Fair. They go as the guests of the Pittsburg Times and were chosen by a popular vote.

Arrested for Arson.

BINGHAMTON, N. Y., July 25.—John W. Gillette and wife, of No. 6 Moore avenue, are under arrest on a charge of arson. The house was found on fire Sunday morning, and Mrs. Gillette's actions were so suspicious that she and her husband were arrested.

In Control of the Cork Syndicate.

LANCASTER, Pa., July 25.—The cork syndicate represented by Armstrong Bros. & Kempe of New York have secured control of the Phoenix, the Dodges and Conestoga Cork works in this city. The latter is the second largest in the country.

Cashier Francis Resigns.

PITTSFIELD, Mass., July 25.—Cashier Edward S. Francis, of the Pittsfield National Bank, who has been the subject of much unpleasant newspaper notoriety of late has tendered his resignation to the directors and it has been accepted.

King Otto Worse.

MUNICH, July 25.—The condition of King Otto of Bavaria is daily becoming worse. The paralysis with which he is afflicted is increasing. His maladies have become so serious that it is the general belief that his end is near.

The Northwestern Miller reports the stock of wheat at private elevators in Minneapolis at 1,205,000 bushels, the same amount as last Monday.

The factories of Samuel Boyd, in Germantown, Pa., were closed on Saturday, and the superintendant told the employes to look for work elsewhere.

Secretary Herbert of the Navy yesterday completed his inspection of the Charlestown Navy Yard. He expressed his gratification with the condition of things.

GOSSIP.

Events of last night constitute an impressive object-lesson pointing two morals. The evil of taking the law into one's own hands is strikingly illustrated in the case of Mr. Parmele. He meant well, but his judgment misdirected him. And then the mob did worse. But the most striking feature of the night's proceedings is the harm that gossip does. Plainfield people yesterday would have deemed it preposterous that so dangerous a mob would gather for so trivial a cause, as that which threatened the property and life of Mr. Parmele. It is a charity for Mrs. Parmele that she was not at home to witness the disgraceful and terrifying riot. And a little gossip was the cause of it all. Young Taylor was not hurt. He needed no medical attendance. When released, he stopped crying and went away. But gossip was abroad in the land, evil tale-bearers spread false stories that inflamed fiery natures, and it is a mercy that a valuable citizen was not lynched as a result of the inflation of bad blood. The moral of it all is: Don't gossip. Don't bear false witness. When you hear bad report, investigate and get the facts. Never say a thing unless you know it's so. When one sifts the story down, Mr. Parmele was n't so culpable as the rioters who made a bad-enough matter many times worse. In any event, it does n't pay to buck against the law. Justice has human representatives who are ready to take charge of all offenders.

Another striking lesson of the evil of gossiping came to light this morning. On absolutely no foundation, an idle tale was set afloat that a Plainfield institution with which confiding people have entrusted many thousands of dollars had closed its doors, or was about to do so. This little bit of gossip, breathed here and there, caused many to forsake their previous confidence, and a disastrous "run" was threatened. Fortunately, the officers of the institution were fully prepared to meet just such emergency. But that trifle of gossip has caused distrust in some quarters that will not be dispelled for days to come.

Above all things, don't gossip.

EARLY INTELLIGENCE.

—The Crescent wheelmen will have a run to-morrow evening at 8, from their club-house, North avenue.

—John C. Cooper, jr., has brought suit in justice Mosher's court against William Peal of Terrill road for $25 debt.

—The stone-cutters' detail sheet of an architect's plans awaits the owner, at THE PRESS office, where the finder left it.

—Yesterday on Summit avenue, North Plainfield, a sand adder was killed, 3 feet long, that had 53 young snakes in her.

—The Third street and Richmond street boys will race to-night for a medal. They will run six times around the block bounded by North avenue, Richmond street, Fifth street and Berckman street.

—Dr. F. C. Herbert went fishing in Manasquan waters, Friday. Besides other fish he caught a 13 lb. fluke, and 9 weakfish varying in weight from three to eight pounds. Eels were numerous, but too heavy to carry home.

—Seven bicyclists started out from Plainfield Sunday morning for a trip over the county roads. Near Rahway one of them came to grief. The cap on his automatic tire gave out, and the rider was forced to walk back to Elizabethport on foot, a distance of about five miles, in order to take a train for home.

Plainfield Advice on Wife Beating.

(From The New York Morning Journal.)

My advice to "Anxious Husband", though a little late in the day, will, I hope, catch his eye, and I trust he will find food for thought in my gentle protest.

Yes, "lick" your wife, you practical realization of the Darwinian theory, and as you mop the moisture from your manly brow and your gaze rests on the broken spirit and ill-used form of her you promised before God to love and cherish, let your mind wander down the dusty channels of your brain and through the dimly lit aisles of your recollection, to that day when you and she knelt side by side and received God's blessing on your union—when to you she was the dearest and fairest woman in the world, when that strong right hand of yours placed the loving emblem of bliss on her finger—that same hand that now would wield a cane to inflict cruel chastisement for some fancied wrong.

Shame! Shame!

When you are enjoying a much needed rest after your many exertions, just remember that you had a mother, for whose sacred memory you should honor and respect every honorable member of her sex. You certainly are a "daisy".

J. H. WATSON.

Plainfield, N. J., July 21.

THE "COUNT'S" FAMILY ALBUM.

WHAT WAS IT DOING UNDER RAYMOND AVE. BRIDGE?

More Mystery About the Burning of the Van Ness House—The Insurance People May Be Interested in the Investigation—Is There Any More Property Hidden Away?

"Count" J. K. Van Ness expressed great astonishment this morning at being told that some of the property had been found which it was supposed had been burned in his house.

It will be remembered that when Van-Ness came back from Paplac Sunday morning, July 16, he found his home in ashes, and said he had lost everything.

Yesterday afternoon boys who were blackberrying pulled apart some bushes at the mouth of the Raymond avenue bridge over Green brook, near the burned house, and saw a big package, neatly wrapped, stowed away in a snug corner of the bank, beneath the timbers.

Hauling the package out, and unwrapping it, they found a photograph album as big as a family Bible.

It was full of pictures, prominent among which were those of the "Count" and "Baby" Van Ness. Astute Borough Marshal Pangborn, to whom the matter was immediately reported, jumped to the conclusion that the album was Van Ness's, and said "He must have been robbed".

The "Count" said the same when Mr. Pangborn saw him, and added that the album was in his house when he left it to go to Paplac the day of the fire.

Just who would be interested in saving an album with all the Van Ness family photographs is not stated. The marshal is prosecuting a search for any other property that may be lying around, and the insurance company will doubtless be interested in the result of his investigation.

Incidentally, it is reported that the company in which Van Ness had the bulk of his $8,000, or more, insurance, was the Home, which is to-day plunged in financial difficulties. So the "Count" may not get his insurance after all.

The album found was covered with red plush, and wrapped in a New York Sun of May 13.

NO BANK TROUBLE HERE.

Plainfield's Institutions Sounder Than Ever Before.

In these days of financial trouble, when bank failures have been of daily occurrance, it is not remarkable that rumors of trouble should be noised about even in regard to such solid institutions as the Plainfield banks. Inquiry among the local bank officials, however, shows that any possible fear as to their solvency would be ungrounded. Each of the three has not only a large cash balance on hand but larger assets in the form of immediately available paper. The Dime Savings Bank may be taken as an example of the condition of the city banks. That institution has between $25,000 and $30,000 cash on hand, and $100,000 immediate assets. So it may be seen that depositors may rest easy without any doubts as to the safety of their money in Plainfield, no matter what crashes occur elsewhere.

A. VENINO'S COSTLY BATH.

While Enjoying the Water, His Watch and Money Vanished.

Albert Venino wishes he had n't gone in bathing Sunday. He was visiting Arthur Friedheim at Bath Beach. They went for a swim, and used Mr. Friedheim's private bath-house. Mr. Venino objected to leaving valuables in his clothes, but Mr. Friedheim said they would be perfectly safe. Mr. Venino stayed in the water just five minutes. When he dressed he found that his watch and chain, $20 in money, and his friend's watch, were gone. The thief seemed to have been scared away, for other money and jewelry were overlooked.

Mr. Friedham offered to make good Mr. Venino's loss, but the musician hopes the New York police will find his watch in some pawnshop.

HUNTING FOR MORGAN.

The Albion Thief Still at Large, But Located.

Policeman Kiely spent considerable portion of last night in New York, looking for E. T. Morgan, the night clerk of Hotel Albion who fled with funds. The New York police did not have him under arrest after all, but have located his home and he is being watched for. Justice Mosher has issued a warrant for his arrest.

Borough Transit Next Month.

Superintendent Passmore of the street railway company says that the work of stringing trolley wires on Somerset street will be begun to-morrow and that the entire system will be in operation by August 15 at the latest.

That's a Scorcher!

(Elizabeth Journal.)

At last the Job Male estate, of Plainfield, has been settled, and the heirs get a great deal of money. So do the lawyers. But the latter earned what they got, and the heirs did n't.

Safe, Sure and Speedy.

No external remedy ever yet devised has so fully and unquestionably met these three prime conditions as successfully as ALLCOCK'S POROUS PLASTERS. They are safe because they contain no deleterious drugs and are manufactured upon scientific principles of medicine. They are sure because nothing goes into them except ingredients which are exactly adapted to the purposes for which a plaster is required. They are speedy in their action because their medicinal qualities go right to their work of relieving pain and restoring the natural and healthy performance of the functions of muscles, nerves and skin. Do not be deceived by misrepresentation. Ask for ALLCOCK'S, and let no solicitation or explanation induce you to accept a substitute.

JAKE AICHER SAVES A LIFE.

A Pullman Porter Had Put a Woman Off the Car When It Was in Motion.

On the arrival of train No. 506 at the North avenue station, Saturday night, a woman intending to go to New York attempted to board the forward end of the sleeper. The train conductor, Jacob Aicher, saw her step upon the lower step leading to the sleeper, and pulled the signal for the train to proceed, but he was greatly surprised when the same woman after the train had started attempted to step on his platform next to the rear, and had it not been for Mr. Aicher's agility in assisting her the woman would have been thrown beneath the wheels.

It is said that the porter sat upon the steps of the sleeper, and prevented the woman boarding the train at that platform. The porter's name is Anderson. Had it not been for Mr. Aicher a serious if not fatal accident would have occurred, as a train was pulling into the station on the westbound track at a high rate of speed.

Mr. Pullman should pull these obsequious porters down for their arbitrary manner in dealing with passengers. Who knows whether the lady in question had the money to pay for a seat extra in "the Pullman"? The train was late and to two observers the porter was apparently asleep, sitting on the step.

PARTICULAR MENTION.

James G. Connolly is at Southampton, L. I., for two months.

Miss Mamie Morehouse, of Orange, is visiting Evva E. Wilkins, of East Fifth street, for a few days.

Mrs. Jacob Kirkner, of Eighth street, is spending the summer pleasantly in Stamford, Delaware county, N. Y.

"Uncle Dan" Roberts paid a visit to friends in Scranton, Pa., over Saturday night and Sunday. He was accompanied by a New York friend.

Mrs. Amelia Sandford and daughters Emily and Laura have left Tarrytown, N. Y., and are now at Watch Hill, R. I., for the balance of the summer.

A musicale will be given at the Watchung club, Fanwood, this evening at 8. The entertainment will be followed by dancing, and ice-cream will be on sale.

Charles Stillwell, superintendent of an electric light plant in Hamilton, Ontario, accompanied by his wife, is visiting Mrs. Stillwell's parents at Central avenue and Second street.

The many friends of genial Andrew McCardell will be pleased to learn that there has been a decided improvement in his condition, and that there is every hope of a speedy recovery.

Stephen Jaroleman, of Whatselke, Ill., is visiting his daughter, Mrs. William Young, of 341 Watchung avenue. Mr. Jaroleman came East to settle the estate of his father, who died in 1871.

Mr. Durand, recently foreman for Walter Scott, will leave Tuesday morning to accept a responsible position with H. Clause, Elkhart, Indiana. He will be succeeded by his predecessor, Mr. Northup.

News from Frank H. Gardner, cashier of the City National Bank, is very discouraging. No hope is now entertained for his recovery, as incurable heart trouble has set in. He is being cared for with solicitude by his family in Asbury Park.

William F. Trust and a friend went to Oceanic, Sunday, and spent a very pleasant day with Mr. Trust's sister, Mrs. G A. Wiedenmayer, and her husband. Mr. Wiedenmayer is a prominent Democratic politician in Monmouth county, and has large real estate interests there.

Mr. and Mrs. George Braun, of 59 Liberty street, Newark, are visiting friends in this city. Mr. Braun was leader of the Saengerbund singing society here, some years ago, and is now engaged in the clothing business in New York city. He is also an active Democratic leader in the Ninth ward of Newark.

Mr. and Mrs. William H. Shotwell and Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Barkalew, of Emily street, North Plainfield, are at Seigletown, Warren county, near Phillipsburg, enjoying the celebration of the one hundredth anniversary of the Seigle family. Mrs. Barkalew and Mrs. Shotwell are daughters of Mrs. Seigle.

The American Catarrh Cure

Is the result of twenty-six years' study and treatment of the disease. One bottle convinces the most skeptical. It is always ready for use, needing neither douche nor atomizer. It restores the hearing, cures the hawking cough and expectorating, removes the headache and nose bleeding, increases the appetite, produces sound sleep, invigorates the whole system and increases the vitality. Prepared only by W. B. Jones, M. D., No. 1336 South Eighth street, Philadelphia. For sale by F. W. Randolph, 21 West Front street. Price $1.

SUN-LIGHT and FRESH AIR are THE BEST DISINFECTANTS, of course; but you can't apply them in every situation. What next? Well, that depends. For damp cellars use Quicklime, plenty of it. For vaults and cesspools use COPPERAS; cheap stuff; we sell it by the pound or hundred-weight—instructions thrown in. For kitchen sinks, for water-closets, for house plumbing, for the sick room, to deodorize discharges, to purify the air and to prevent contagion, use REYNOLDS'S ODORLESS DISINFECTANT. Made and sold for fifteen years at

Reynolds's Pharmacy, Corner Park and North Avenues.

SQUABBLE OVER A BRIDGE.

Freeholders of Two Counties Fighting a Passaic Contractor—Meanwhile, Go Round or Swim.

The bridge over the Passaic river from Morris to Somerset counties, is the cause of a big dilemma. The freeholders refuse to accept it, claiming that it was not built according to the specifications; and Wm. Cooper, jr., the contractor, says he will not change it. The freeholders have paid him about $365 on account, and decline to give him the balance. Isaac Colthar, the bull ier, says that the work was done as ordered. He claims he received only $50 for his work, and he will fill the specifications only by order of the freeholders of both counties.

Freeholder Adams of Warren is inclined to pass the work as done, but freeholder Bullman of Somerset says he does not constitute the board, and that the work must be done as contracted for.

The bridge is much needed, and was to be finished last winter. The old bridge is not safe for teams; the truss is rotted away, and one water beam is rotted almost off the piers.

The other bride of the neighborhood, leading from Morris to Union counties, is still down in the river, so if one wishes to cross the river he has to go two miles around.

GOLD MEDALS FOR THE RACE.

Lyceum Cyclers Complete Arrangements for the Event of August 19.

At the meeting of the Lyceum Cyclers last night, the date of the road race was changed to August 19. The entries will therefore close with W. J. Kiely, August 12. Blanks may be obtained of any bicycle dealers, of J. J. Keeney, or W. J. Kiely. The first prize and time prize will be gold medals, and a long list of minor prizes will be given ranging in value from $12 down to $2. It was decided to ask L. B. Woolston, T. J. Carey and D. C. Adams, to act as judges; Hervey Doane, Caleb Dickinson and A. Trust, timers; R. A. Meeker, starter; F. L. C. Martin, clerk of course; and J. A. Hayues, referee. It is hoped that the Plainfield merchants will contribute prizes to the race.

Ordinary Disorderlies.

Patrick Ahearn and Albert Rubert, who were rearrested for drunkenness after paying a $3 fine apiece, were each fined $5 more to-day. William Miller, drunk, was fined $3. Dennis McCann, same charge, got the same sentence.

—In Justice Mosher's court to-day the case of Carney Bros. against Anna Miller was adjourned to August 2.

THIS MOB MEANT MURDER.

1,500 MEN RIOT ON PLAINFIELD AVENUE.

Little Johnny Taylor Had Pilfered an Apple from Charles L. Parmele's Garden, and Was Bound Fast to the Cellar Steps Till the Cords Bruised Him—Exaggerated Reports Precipitated Attempts at Lynching.

Murder was in the hearts of many Plainfield people last night, and the red flag of riot was waved at the head of a violent mob demanding the lynching of Charles L. Parmele.

Fruit-thievery has long been the pest of householders of the west end, from Liberty street to Evona. Mr. Parmele has been a sufferer like the rest. His home is in the house owned by Lemuel W. Serrell at 134 Plainfield avenue, near the bridge, just back of Mr. Serrell's own home. Mr. Parmele has been especially victimized by what is known as the Boulevard Gang. They have robbed him of fruits, vegetables, eggs, groceries; they have crippled his dog; they have stoned his wife and struck her in the breast. But he could never get hold of the offenders.

Two boys were in an apple tree in his garden when he went home at 5:30 last evening from the Pond Machine Tool Works, where he is draughtsman. At sight of him they fled. He chased after the bigger one, who, after running 200 feet, stumbled and fell.

"I grabbed him by the slack of his blouse"—said Mr. Parmele to a PRESS representative this morning.—"I never touched his flesh, nor hurt him in any way, but immediately he set up a wail, and cried 'Oh let me go this time and I'll never do so no more!'

"But I felt that the time had come to make an example of my persecutors. I escorted him through the kitchen, where I picked up a piece of rope that had been cut from a hammock. Conducting the blubbering lad to the cellar, I passed the rope through his arms at the elbows, across his back, and bound him to the rail-post of the cellar stairway. I was careful not to make the knots tight enough to hurt severely, but just firm enough to hold him securely.

"Leaving him bound and standing there, I went to Mr. Lounsbury's house and asked if they had a telephone, as I wanted to summon a policeman. They had none, and I got Carl Gallup to watch the house and see that no effort at escape was made. Mounting my wheel, I rode to the police station. That was locked, but at the corner of Park and North avenues I found an officer, whom I think was Mr. Lynch. I told him of my capture of the boy, and he sent me to Justice Nash's to see Captain Grant. I told Mr. Grant that I wanted an example made of the boy. He said he thought the matter was outside of his jurisdiction; that it was a State offence. I told him I thought it strange that it was so hard for him to find a law to arrest a thief under, but both he and Mr. Nash advised me to let the boy go.

"Said I: 'Provided you will send a policeman to his parents, and warn them that he must stop his thievery, I will release him.'

"When I reached home, I had not been absent more than 20 minutes. The boy could be heard still crying, and I was astonished to find a great crowd gathered.

"However, I proceeded straight into the house, unfastened the boy, and turned him loose. He walked away.

"The outrageous action of the mob you know about. I remained in the house till some time after midnight, when I was notified by the police that I must give bonds for my appearance in court.

"This is a complete and truthful statement of the facts in the case. I assure you I never intended the boy any bodily injury, and he suffered none. It is true that by his straining at the ropes he did raise slight red ridges on the flesh."

Mr. Parmele grew very indignant as he recounted his wrongs at the hands of the lawless Boulevard Gang. His neighbors corroborated him in the statement that there was absolutely no peaceful living among them, and they said if this boy is vindicated it means that the Gang will over-rule all decent people.

Police Captain George W. Grant says that the mob which gathered at Mr. Parmele's home numbered at least 1,500 people. Plainfield avenue was blockaded. The people surrounded the house and were violent in demand for Mr. Parmele's life. For the story was on every tongue that Mr. Parmele had strung up a lad by the thumbs till the blood gushed from his nose and mouth and till his arms were paralyzed, and doctors were reported as saying that ten minutes more would have ended his life.

The story grew in the telling, and Mr. Parmele was pictured as the most brutal being on earth. Cries of "Bring out the murderer!" were raised. "Lynch him!" was cried. Patrick Lawler waved a red flag and urged the crowd to follow him. "I'll hang him!"—he shouted—"and I'd hang Captain Grant or any other policeman just as quick!"

The entire available police force was on the ground, and attempted to quell the riot. Stones flew through the air and thumped against the house. Loud threats were made, and vile abuse was heaped on the police. Tar and feathers were freely talked of. Inside the house all was dark, but the occasional moving of a second-story shutter indicated where Parmele was watching the mob.

When Lawler defied the authorities, Captain Grant grabbed him and hustled him through the crowd. Friends of Lawler attempted to tear him away. "Keep back"—said Mr. Grant—"or you'll get burnt." His determined manner awed the crowd, and he got Lawler safely away.

One other arrest was made—that of William Haywood by Policeman Lynch. Haywood was violent and abusive as Lawler had been. This morning City Judge Coddington fined Lawler $5; and Frank Coriell, Haywood's employer, gave bonds for Haywood's appearance for trial.

By dint of persuasion and threats of arrest, the police finally succeeded in getting the mob quieted and to disperse. A man named Duffy who had volunteered to fetch Mr. Parmele out of the house was silenced by Captain Grant's cry "Wyckoff, I'll look you up!" He mistook the man. Angry groups hung about till near midnight, and not till after all had gone did the police seek Parmele in the house.

The lad over whom all this fuss had been made was John Taylor, jr., aged 13. His father was frenzied on learning of the treatment the boy had received. He openly threatened Mr. Parmele's life, and was so wrought up that he started out to inflict summary vengeance. One man who essayed to stop him was knocked flat for his pains, and it took several men to overpower Taylor. At last Taylor got a pistol, and is said to be "laying for" Mr. Parmele. Taylor will be put under bonds to keep the peace.

Mr. Parmele's arrest made some time after midnight, was on a complaint charging him with atrocious assault with intent to kill. His landlord, Mr. Serrell, went surety for him, and he was released for a hearing to-day. The original warrant was issued by Justice King, but the case came up before Justice Nash this forenoon. Mr. Parmele claimed and proved legal defects in the complaint as prepared by Justice King, and hearing was delayed until the technicality could be straightened out.

Captain Grant says Mr. Parmele certainly had no right to tie the boy, and adds that he should have merely brought him to town and turned him over to the authorities. Mr. Parmele says had he ventured through the streets with the lad he would have been set upon by his pals, and he still thinks that he did the only thing he could under the circumstances.

Justice Nash, who saw the boy soon after his release from cellar captivity, says that the only marks on him were the red rings where the rope had chafed his arms.

Mr. Parmele vows his determination to procure protection against the vandalism of the Gang, and his long-suffering neighbors promise to back him up to the end.

But Mr. Parmele's neck was in great danger last night, and feeling still runs high among the ringleaders of the rioters. Taylor's home is on Second street. He says he got only one apple.

The senior Taylor insists that the imprisonment of his son was a brutal outrage and that the story as at first reported is absolutely unexaggerated.

UNCLE DAN'S MISSING HORSE.

A Stranger Left It at Annandale, Where It Was Found Safe and Sound.

A man and woman arrived in town yesterday morning about 10, and went to the City Hotel, where they registered as Mr. and Mrs. Smith. They left their order for dinner, saying it might be impossible for them to get back in time, but they would surely be to supper.

The couple afterwards went to Roberts' livery stable, where the names of H. G. Williams and wife were given. A horse and buggy were hired to go to Bound Brook. The man seemed to have a considerable amount of money when paying for the rig, so "Uncle Dan" thought it must be all right.

This is the last seen of the pair in this city. Later a telegram was received by Mr. Roberts, stating that his rig was in Annandale, and that he could have it by sending for it.

Late this afternoon the rig was recovered, one of Roberts's employes bringing it from Annandale.

Bad Eggs, Both of 'Em.

Fred Willibald and James Dunavan were found hiding in Mrs. Burke's haymow on Grant avenue, by Policemen Flanagan and Vanderweg, last night. They were wanted for stealing rides on coal trains, meddling with the railroad signals, and breaking open the oil storage place at Grant avenue. Willibald will pay $15 fine or go to jail for 40 days. Dunavan, who was under arrest before and escaped from jail through a stove-pipe hole, got 60 days.

Good Ball, Saturday.

Paterson can't come to Plainfield Saturday, as manager Ramsey could n't get his team in shape and would not bring a weak team here; but the New Brunswicks, greatly strengthened, will be here, with Landman in the box, prepared to reverse their recent defeat. Landman pitched a winning game for the Olympics against the Crescents.

I feel it my duty to say a few words in regard to Ely's Cream Balm, and I do so entirely without solicitation. I have used it more or less half a year, and have found it to be most admirable. I have suffered from catarrh of the worst kind ever since I was a little boy and I never hoped for cure, but Cream Balm seems to do even that. Many of my acquaintances have used it with excellent results. Oscar Ostrum, 45 Warren ave., Chicago, Ill.

One of my children had a very bad discharge from her nose. Two physicians prescribed, but without benefit. We tried Ely's Cream Balm, and much to our surprise, there was a marked improvement. We continued using the Balm and in a short time the discharge was cured.—O. A. Cary, Corning, N. Y.

The children's health must not be neglected. Cold in the head causes catarrh. Ely's Cream Balm cures at once. It is perfectly safe and is easily applied into the nostrils. The worst cases yielding to it. Price 50c.

Ely's Cream Balm is worth its weight in gold as a cure for catarrh. One bottle cured me. S. A. Lovell, Franklin, Pa.

Read and Reflect.

The great mass of mankind lose their health through inattention to catarrh of the head and throat. This insidious disease was considered incurable until the discovery of the American Catarrh Cure. For sale by L. W. Randolph, 21 West Front street. Price $1.00.

Shiloh's Cough Cure.

This is beyond question the most successful Cough Medicine we have eversold; a few doses invariably cure the worst cases of Cough, Croup and Bronchitis, while its wonderful success in the cure of Consumption is without a parallel in the history of medicine. Since its first discovery it has been sold on a guarantee, a test which no other medicine can stand. If you have a cough we earnestly ask you to try it. Price, 50c. and $1. If your lungs are sore, chest, or back lame, use Shiloh's Porous Plaster. Sold by A. D. Mallinson, 65 North Avenue, opposite railroad station. 5-18-y

WORLD'S FAIR TRAIN WRECKED.

ACCIDENT TO A BALTIMORE AND OHIO EXPRESS IN OHIO.

Excursionists Thrown Over an Embankment—No Lives Lost, But About Thirty Persons Injured.

CLEVELAND, July 25.—A World's Fair excursion train on the Baltimore and Ohio road was wrecked eight miles east of Akron this morning. Three coaches were thrown from the track by the spreading of the rails and pitched over an embankment.

It is reported that many persons have been seriously injured, although none was killed outright.

CUYAHOGA FALLS, O., July 25.—The second section of the Baltimore and Ohio express, west bound, was wrecked one mile east of Munroe Falls at about 4:30 this morning. Spreading of rails caused the wreck at a point where there is a short curve in the track. Five of the coaches, loaded with passengers, most of whom were on their way to Chicago, were thrown down a ten-foot embankment.

Nobody was killed outright, but thirty persons were injured, five of them, it is thought, seriously. All of the maimed were taken to Akron by a special train and sent to the city hospital. About a dozen doctors from Akron went down with them.

Oh, What a Cough!

Will you heed the warning. The signal perhaps of the sure approach of that more terrible disease, Consumption. Ask yourselves if you can afford for the sake of saving 50c., to run the risk and do nothing for it. We know from experience that Shiloh's Cure will cure your cough. It never fails. This explains why more than a Million Bottles were sold the past year. It relieves croup and whooping cough at once. Mothers, do not be without it. THE PUBLIC PRINTER.

He Has to Do a Good Deal of Work for Small Pay.

Origin, Growth and Present Proportions of the Government Print Shop—Four Million Required to Run It for Twelve Months.

[Special Washington Letter.]

"I presume that there comes a time in the life of every lawyer when he entertains an ambition to be a judge," says ex-Senator Moody, of South Dakota. It may probably also be truthfully said that there comes a time in the life of every printer in this country when he entertains a desire or an ambition to secure employment in the government printing office at the national capital.

The public printer is at the head of a great institution which employs over three thousand men and women. The government printing office is a hive of industry, and, because of the fact that the employes in this great printing house are not under the protection of the civil service law, there are applicants for employment on hand in person every day either accompanied by their representatives or senators, or bearing letters from men of standing and influence. The office of the public printer, which is upon the second floor of the building, is the most attractive camping ground in the city for the unemployed.

It costs nearly $4,000,000 to pay the yearly expenses of this institution. Over $2,000,000 are paid out annually to the employes in wages, while the quantities of materials consumed by the government printing office are almost staggering in their volume. Last year 233 printers' reams of paper were used, costing over $600,000. There were also ten tons of printers' ink, twelve tons of glue, six tons of twine, two tons of glycerine, two tons of antimony, one ton of bar tin, one-half ton of plumbago, 800 pounds of pumice stone and 720 pounds of beeswax consumed in the regular business of the government printing office; and there were also 6,000 gallons of oil, 4,500 gallons of benzine, 140 gallons of alcohol, 3,600 packs of gold leaf, 4,000 pieces of book cloth, 3,000 dozen Turkey morocco skins, 280 square feet of calfskin, 4,300 yards of crash, 4,000 dozen sheepskins and 40,000 feet of Russia leather consumed in the regular business. It is claimed by many that the government printing office in Washington is the biggest on the face of the earth. From the expense account epitomized above one would judge that there is some ground for that claim.

It is not generally known, but it is a fact that the big building at the corner of North Capitol and H streets, in which over 3,000 men and women are employed, is a veritable fire trap and a gigantic tinder-box. If a fire should occur in any part of the building a fearful holocaust would result. Three years ago congress appropriated $350,000 for the purchase of a site and the erection of a new building for the government printing office; but real estate dealers in this city have managed, by active and energetic competition, thus far to prevent the selection of any site, and the old death-trap continues in use. In the basement of the building are 75 huge printing presses, while on the floor above there is an immense complement of binding machinery, appliances and fixtures capable of turning out, in phenomenally short time, the greatest jobs of printing that can possibly be projected. In the basement and on the ground floor are the press rooms, paper warerooms safety vaults and machine shops. On the second floor are the administrative offices, the main composition room, the job rooms, the stereotyping and electrotyping departments and proof rooms. On the third floor is the bindery and its warerooms. The fourth story is devoted to the publication of the Congressional Record, patent office specifications, and to the necessary warerooms. In addition to the numerous force of printers, compositors, pressmen, stereotypers and book-binders, there are whole battalions of feeders, computers, helpers, assistants, machinists, engineers, messengers, watchmen and laborers. Most of the computers, feeders and assistants are women and girls, numbering about 1,000 in all, who earn a competence by their labor. In addition to this great central printing office there are five branches under the supervision of the public printer, and they are located for convenience in the treasury, interior, navy, state and war departments for work requiring special secrecy and discretion in those departments.

During the last session of congress a joint committee of both houses undertook to cut down the expenses of the government printing office by recommending the discontinuance of certain publications, but the congress did not act favorably upon the reports of the committee. As a matter of fact the congress is exceedingly extravagant in its orders for printing. One hundred copies of every bill introduced in either house of congress are printed and sent to the secretary and clerk of the senate and house to be placed upon their files. As a matter of fact ten copies would be ample for official use. Thousands of copies of reports of committees are printed from day to day during sessions of congress which should never be put into type. The committees of the senate and the house having before them bills for consideration very frequently make reports favorable or unfavorable for the purpose of satisfying the demands of claimants and lobbyists who make daily personal appeals for action upon their bills. As a matter of fact no reports should be made in any cases unless action can be had by both houses of congress. Then there are thousands of reports of the executive department printed which might as well remain upon the archives of the departments in type-written form, because their publications serve no public good. During the closing days of the last session of congress Representative Stockdale, of Mississippi, advocated the increase of the number of copies of the Congressional Record donated to each representative from twenty-two to forty-four daily. It was shown by the chairman of the committee on printing that the adoption of the proposition would carry with it a $95,000 increase, and the debate upon the subject grew very warm. The proposition, however, was finally rejected. If carried it would have resulted in the practical waste of $95,000 per annum.

The common people of the country are not interested in the excessive publication of the Congressional Record. It is a very fine thing to have, bound and indexed at the public expense for the use of statesman and newspaper men, and it makes a handsome addition to the library of a gentleman. But if five copies were daily given to each member of congress, instead of twenty-two, it would be sufficient for the statesmen; and if they needed more to send to the various people in their districts they could purchase and pay for them out of their own pockets.

The present government printing office was not founded until 1861 when Mr. John D. Defrees, of Indiana, was appointed the public printer by President Lincoln, after congress had worried along with other less convenient and satisfactory systems since the government was established in 1789. For many years the public printing was done on a small scale, the house and senate each paying for their own work out of their "appropriations for contingent expenses." For about twenty years prior to 1846 the senate and house elected public printers who were salaried officials. The duties of these officers were to make economical contracts and audit accounts for such printing only as was absolutely necessary. In that year, 1846, when the annual expense of congressional printing reached the enormous sum of $63,000, it was decided to return to the original contract system. But in 1851 the public printing cost $500,000, and the office of "superintendent of public printing" was created by act of congress, with a salary of $3,000 per annum. Strange as it may now appear, Horace Greeley was an applicant for the position, and so was Henry J. Raymond; both of them destined to become the leading journalists of their day, and one of them a candidate for the presidency of the republic.

The law of 1861, creating the office of public printer, is still in force, and under the system then commenced the government printing office has grown to the present proportions. The salary, which is $4,500, is very small, and no superior man could be induced to accept the office but for the honor of the position. The public printer gives bond in the sum of $100,000 and is obliged to abstain from any connection with or interest in any printing, binding, lithographing or engraving establishment, so that the entire time, attention, ability and energy of the public printer must be given to the government for $4,500 per annum. And yet, the duties and responsibilities of the place require the services of a man who is possessed of as much executive ability as would be required of the incumbent of a cabinet position.

Sounds Reasonable.

TROUBLES OF BUSINESS

New York Bankers on the Financial Situation.

THEIR WORDS NOT ENCOURAGING.

The Milwaukee Bank That Failed Yesterday Had Been Regarded as One of the Strongest Institutions in the Country. Three Louisville Banks Collapse—Almost a Panic On the New York Stock Exchange—The Indianapolis Failure.

NEW YORK, July 26.—The continued reports of failures among Western banks in the opinion of New York bankers shows that the financial situation there is in no way improving. In fact, it is less encouraging than ever.

The feeling is more than confirmed by the suspension of the Wisconsin Marine and Fire Insurance Company's Bank at Milwaukee.

"The Wisconsin Marine and Fire Bank," said President Cannon, of the Chase National, "has always been regarded as one of the strongest and most prosperous institutions in the Northwest, and its failure is certainly the most serious calamity that has yet occurred since the financial depression began to be felt in the West.

"Such an institution going under cannot fail to add to the general distress, and the suspension may be far-reaching in its effects.

"I do not like to make gloomy predictions, for the situation is bad enough as it is, and financial institutions need all the support and encouragement that can be given. Yet it is evident that all these failures can be traced to a common cause, anxiety for the future, lack of confidence and the withdrawal of money from circulation."

President J. Edward Simmons, of the Fourth National Bank, also said that the failure of the Milwaukee Bank was in his opinion the most serious that had occurred in the West, as it was an old and well-established institution with extensive connections and ramifications all over the Northwest. Other institutions would undoubtedly be affected by its collapse.

The New York banks, he said, by associating as closely as they did had formed a mutually protective organization which had enabled them to ride over the difficult situation, and their strength had undoubtedly contributed to reassure financial institutions elsewhere. He did not think that the crisis in the West had passed, but said that if the banks would form associations to protect each other a great deal of the threatened danger would be averted.

ALMOST A PANIC.

A Big Drop in Values on the New York Stock Exchange.

NEW YORK, July 26.—Almost a panic raged on the Stock Exchange yesterday afternoon. Stocks dropped away violently, and some of the lowest prices in years were recorded.

The failure of the Marine & Fire Insurance Bank of Milwaukee started the heavy selling, and later on the failures of two large banks in Louisville added to the excitement.

The Milwaukee Bank is the largest in Wisconsin, and the largest in the West. It was founded by Alexander Mitchell, who also practically built the St. Paul railroad.

There was no talk of any local trouble, and inquiry failed to develop the fact that any was expected, but as the bears pointed out, the troubles are getting to New York all the time.

The failures in the West caused heavy drafts to be made on the New York banks for money, and over $1,000,000 was shipped to Louisville, Milwaukee and Chicago.

The shipments were composed of both currency and gold coin, as the banks have more of the latter than they need. The sub-Treasury paid in at the Clearing House over $500,000 more in gold coin.

None of the New York banks appears to have suffered from the Western failures, but it is feared that owing to the widespread connections of the Milwaukee Bank further trouble may be expected to develop from that source.

The whole list of stocks was weak. Nothing stood up against the outpouring of selling orders. Stocks which have been reported as gilt-edged investments tumbled as badly as the others.

THE INDIANAPOLIS NATIONAL.

Not Much Government Money in the Bank—Causes of the Failure.

INDIANAPOLIS, Ind., July 25.—While the Indianapolis National Bank that failed yesterday was a United States depository but $3,439,96 was tied up. "At our last payment we checked out nearly $200,000 from the Indianapolis National," said Pension Agent Ensley.

Cashier Rexford said the bank statement published at the close of business July 12, would afford the best information as to the status of debits and credits that could be given until the government officer who would take charge should make his report.

Rexford was asked if the withdrawal of funds by county banks was not largely responsible for the suspension.

"The stringency of the times," he replied, "has greatly reduced these balances. At this time in the year they have heretofore been large, the county banks having with us from $400,000 to $500,000. Now that balance is very small. We usually have $300,000 over government money, which is secured by bonds to the amount of $225,000."

Cotton Mills to Shut Down.

WARE, Mass., July 26.—The Otis Company's cotton mills in this town will shut down Saturday for one month, on account of being unable to find a market for their product. The number of hands employed is 1,750 and the pay roll is $50,000 per month.

Findlay, O., Bank Closes.

TOLEDO, O., July 26.—The Farmers' National Bank, of Findlay, has closed its doors. No statement has been given out as yet. No excitement prevails, and the other three banks in the city are prepared for any run that may follow.

Will Not Affect Boston.

BOSTON, July 26.—It is said by officials of National banks in this city that the bank failures in Manchester, N. H., will have no harmful effect upon the financial institutions here.

Oberman Brewing Company Fails.

MILWAUKEE, Wis., July 26.—The J. Oberman Brewing Company has failed. Hermann P. Oberman is the assignee. His bond is for $1,300,000.

MILWAUKEE'S LATEST.

The Marine Bank Was One of the Famous Private Banks of the Country.

MILWAUKEE, Wis., July 26.—The Wisconsin Fire and Marine Bank of Milwaukee, which suspended yesterday, has always been known as Mitchell's Bank, and was one of the half dozen famous private banks of the continent.

It was founded 50 years ago by George Smith and Alexander Mitchell. It was the one bank in "wild cat" days of which the whole country was not afraid.

It has succumbed to the paper of the Schlesinger Iron syndicate, of which it held $750,000.

This paper is all secured by iron receipts, but these could not be used anywhere.

The failure was precipitated by the withdrawal of the funds of the St. Paul railway and of the Northwestern railway. It is stated that depositors will be paid in full.

David Ferguson, the veteran vice-president of the bank was completely prostrated and a little while after the suspension was posted his condition became such that medical attention was considered necessary and Dr. Fox was summoned. Soon afterwards Mr. Ferguson was taken home in Dr. Fox's carriage. Every man in the crowd of bystanders had words of sympathy for the white haired old man who went into the bank with Alexander Mitchell over fifty years ago and has been there ever since.

The city of Milwaukee has $1,600,000 in the bank, and the corporation will probably have to temporarily suspend payment, as did the county when the Commercial Bank closed.

The last statement of the bank, rendered on the first of the month, showed its total resources to be $8,946,344.61; capital, $500,000; undivided profits, $75,840.97; due depositors, $7,870,503.94; due to others, $500,000.

LOUISVILLE'S CRASH.

Three Banks Went Down in the Wreck of Yesterday.

LOUISVILLE, Ky., July 26.—Yesterday was a memorable day in the financial history of Louisville. At 10 o'clock a. m. the Merchants' National bank posted a notice of suspension and half an hour later the failure of the Louisville Deposit Bank was announced.

By this time half a dozen banks in the city were being run by depositors, mostly small ones. They all stood the pressure except one, the Fourth National, which closed its doors in the Board of Trade building at 10 o'clock. At that hour the excitement was running high and every one of half a dozen banks was crowded with depositors, who were in line waiting their turn with the paying teller.

The first failure of the present crisis was that of the Kentucky National Bank Saturday. Then came the Louisville City National Bank Monday after the intervention of a Sunday holiday, and the Merchants' National, the Louisville Deposit and the Fourth National yesterday.

The failure of the Merchants' National was caused by the withdrawls of county banks and country depositors. The Louisville Deposit was the only one in the city not a member of the Clearing House Association and in its time of need none of the bankers would give it any assistance whatever. The suspension of the Fourth National was a result of the panic.

IN RECEIVERS' HANDS.

John King and J. G. McCullogh Placed in Charge of the Erie.

NEW YORK, July 26.—The World says: The Erie Railroad Company has gone into the hands of receivers. Judge Lacombe, of the United States Court, yesterday named John King and J. G. McCullogh. They gave $500,000 bonds, with D. O. Mills and J. Lober Welsh of Philadelphia as sureties.

Within the last few weeks, during the severe money stringency, the floating debt became impossible of renewal, and in order not to sacrifice the best interests of the company it was decided to place the road in a receiver's hands and preserve the system intact.

A Shoe Factory to Shut Down.

LOWELL, Mass., July 26.—Work at Pilling's shoe factory is being finished up preparatory to a temporary shut-down, made necessary by the stringency of the money market and the numerous failures in the West where the greater portion of Pilling's customers are.

Run on Tacoma Banks.

TACOMA, Wash., July 26.—This morning as soon as the banks opened there was a steady stream of depositors to withdraw their money at nearly all the prominent banks. They, however, paid promptly all demands.

New England Exodus to Canada.

MONTREAL, July 26.—The late exodus French-Canadians to New England has been converted to a New England exodus to Canada. They are coming in thousands from Lowell, Lynn, Manchester and other places in Massachusetts and New Hampshire. The mills are closing, times are hard and they can get no work in the Ststes.

Will Probably Be a Total Loss.

MONTREAL, July 26.—The Donaldson liner, Alcides, stands but a small chance of ever getting off the rocks at Antiost and will probably be a total loss.

NEWS OF THE DAY.

The National Cordage Company will probably be reorganized.

August 4 has been set apart for "Scotland's Day" at the World's Fair.

Peter H. Titus, the oldest resident of Long Island City, died at his home late last night. He was in his ninety-second year.

Edward T. McLaughlin, aged 30, professor of English literature at Yale, died yesterday of typhoid fever after a week's illness.

The abstract of the condition of National Banks in Chicago, Illinois, on July 12, last shows the reserve to have been 30.61 per cent. The total loans and discounts were $81,583,000.

F. Davis' grist mill at Rutland, the largest in the State of Vermont, was nearly destroyed by fire. One large storehouse and other buildings were saved. Loss about $40,000.

The total number of pensioners under the act of June 27, 1890, who have been notified since the incoming of the present administration that the payment of their pensions has been suspended, is approximately 5,250.

Notice has been served on the Nebraska State Board of Transportation by the Chicago, Burlington & Union Pacific that they would apply for an injunction to restrain the State from enforcing the maximum rate law. The law becomes operative on August 1.

PAVIE LEAVES BANGKOK

Eastern Division of the French Fleet Sails for Siam.

CHINA EXPRESSES HER INDIGNATION

The Report That France Had Notified the Powers That She Intended to Blockade the Siamese Coast Premature—Latin Union Excludes the 2 1-2 Franc Silver Piece from Circulation—Other News.

BANGKOK, July 26.—M. Pavie, French Minister Resident, started down the river yesterday on the warship Inconstante, accompanied by the warships Latin and Comete. All is quiet in this city.

SAIGON, July 26.—The division of the Far East of the French fleet, which is commanded by Admiral Humann, has sailed for the Gulf of Siam. The merchant vessels lying off Bangkok probably will receive time before the blockade to leave the Menam river and put out to sea.

PARIS, July 26.—At the Cabinet council held at Marley-le-Roi, which President Carnot presided over, the deliberations were entirely devoted to the Siamese question.

After the council rose a semi-official statement of the proceedings was issued. This statement was that, in conformity with the unanimous vote of the Senate and the Chamber of Deputies, the government had taken such measures to safeguard the interests and dignity of France as were considered from Siam's reply to the French ultimatum to have been rendered necessary.

The reports yesterday that the French Government had notified the various powers of its intention to blockade the coast of Siam were premature. No such notification has been officially addressed to the powers.

Lord Dufferin, the British Ambassador, and M. Develle, Minister of Foreign Affairs, will hold another conference personally, on the question of the territorial demands made by France upon Siam.

CHINA INDIGNANT.

The Celestial Government Amazed at France's Demands.

TIEN-TSIN, July 25.—The Chinese government has received the news of France's territorial demands upod Siam with amazement and indignation. That France should lay claim to country up to the 23d parallel is regarded as an intrusion upon the rights of China, for at Pekin the contention is that both banks of the Mekong, to a point well south of the 23d parallel are Chinese possessions.

The Mandarin party, which is bitterly anti-French, is trying to force the government to interfere.

Fatal Dynamite Explosion Near Havre.

PARIS, July 26.—Four explosions shatter the Ablon dynamite factory in Honfleur, near Havre, late yesterday afternoon. All hands were at work when the explosion occurred. Nine men are known to have been killed, twenty men were wounded severely and others were hurt seriously. Several bodies are believed to be under the burning ruins.

Depratis Received Big Bribes.

LONDON, July 26.—A despatch from the Rome correspondent of the Central News says it is reported that the late Augustine Depratis, once Premier and several times Cabinet Minister, received from Signor Fanlonga, the imprisoned ex-manager of the Bank of Rome, more than 3,000,000 francs for political and other purposes.

To Be Elected By Direct Suffrage.

BRUSSELS, July 26.—The Chamber of Deputies, which is just completing its work on the bill for the revision of the constitution, adopted by a large majority a proposal that three-fourths of the senate shall be elected by direct universal suffrage and the other by the communal councils.

THE H-O COMPANY, New York.

THE NEW ROAD ORGANIZED.

McLeod Elected President of the New York, New England & Northern.

NEW YORK, July 26.—The New York, New England & Northern Railway Company has organized by electing A. A. McLeod, President; W. K. Nixon, Vice-President, and H. G. Odenheimer, Secretary. This road is intended to bring the New York & New England Railway in to this city. The new road will run from PRESIDENT M'LEOD.

Leggett's Creek and East River to Brewsters, where it will connect with New England.

President McLeod declined to talk about the new company this morning other than to say that important moves were going on in New England which would not be announced for some time. He said that New England was in an easy position financially.

He would neither affirm nor deny the report from Boston that Ryan and McDonald, railroad contractors, of Baltimore, had secured the contract to build the New York, New England & Northern Railroad.

A MIRACULOUS ESCAPE.

Hundreds Had a Close Call in the Pittsburg & Western Wreck.

Rotten Ties and a Sandy Roadbed Caused the Accident—Thirty People Injured, But None Killed.

KENT, O., July 26.—A sandy roadbed, rotten ties, a heavy loaded train and fast running over a sharp curve, caused the wreck at Devil's Point, four miles west of Hook, early yesterday morning on the Pittsburg & Western railroad.

The ill-fated train was a through excursion from Washington to Chicago, carrying nearly four hundred passengers. Three rear coaches left the track and were precipitated down a ten-foot embankment, seriously injuring 30 people.

Fortunately no one was killed outright but it is expected several will die. Twice the coaches were turned bottom up and that the passengers escaped with their lives seems almost miraculous. Many were pinned fast under the wreck, while others were unconscious from the blows sustained for as much as 30 minutes.

B. & O. OFFICIALS OBJECT.

They Claim that the Pittsburg & Western Should Be Held Responsible.

AKRON, O., July 26.—Baltimore & Ohio officials object to the statement that the Monroe Falls wreck was on their line. The track used by the Baltimore & Ohio from Pittsburg to Arkon is owned by the Pittsburg & Western Company, with whom a traffic agreement has been made by the Baltimore & Ohio.

While it was a regular Baltimore & Ohio train, officials of that road claim that the Pittsburg & Western should be held responsible for any defect in rails or ties.

Suit Against Iron Hall Officers.

BINGHAMTON, N. Y., July 26.—Senator Edmund O'Connor, representing the Binghamton Trust Company, as State receiver of the Iron Hall, has brought suit against the officers of the local branches who have refused to pay over to the trust company the reserve fund in their custody. There are about fifty parties to the action. The amount at stake is about $50,000.

Killed While Raking Hay.

BINGHAMTON, N. Y., July 26.—Isaac Harvey, of Vestal Centre, about eight miles from this city, was killed yesterday while raking hay in the field. The horses attached to the rake became frightened and ran away. Mr. Harvey fell under the wheels and was dragged some distance. Death was almost instantaneous.

Big Fire in a Tennessee Town.

HOLLOW ROCK, Tenn., July 26.—The business portion of the town was destroyed by fire last night. Only the Record office and Lovelace & Bros. store remain standing. The loss will reach $40,000 with small insurance.

To Confer With Voorhees To-morrow.

PHILADELPHIA, July 26.—The Grievance Committee of Lehigh Railroad employes will confer with Vice President Voorhees, of the Reading, in this city to-morrow. A conference was to have been held yesterday, but Mr. Voorhees announced his inability to be present and the date was changed.

Feared the Boys Are Lost.

BRIDGEPORT, Conn., July 26.—Three boys hired a skiff at a local boat house Sunday and have not yet returned. F. H. Nichols, of Park street, is convinced that his son is one of the boys, but who his companions were is not known. It is feared they were lost in Sunday's gale.

Fatally Hurt at Sea Girt.

MANASQUAN, N. J., July 26.—Charles Antonides, a prominent business man of Asbury Park, was struck by the Pennsylvania train at Sea Girt crossing yesterday and fatally injured. His horse was killed and buggy demolished.

ADVICES FROM HAWAII

A Special Commissioner to Washington Appointed.

TO ASSIST IN THE NEGOTIATIONS

Minister Blount Has Concluded His Report on Hawaiian Affairs—Believed in the Islands That Mr. Cleveland Will Resubmit Ex-President Harrison's Treaty to the Senate.

SAN FRANCISCO, July 26.—The Oceanic has arrived from Hong Kong and Yokohama via Honolulu bringing advices from Honolulu to July 18.

On the 17th inst. William D. Alexander was appointed Special Hawaiian Commissioner to Washington to assist in the negotiations for annexation.

Mr. Alexander is the leading historian of Hawaii and widely known in scientific circles abroad. He was Hawaiian Commissioner to the Meridian congress in 1884 at Washington. Mr. Alexander will assist Thurston and both will be left free to yield to the reasonable wishes of the Administration. He will leave for Washington about July 27.

The leper murderer Koolan is still at large, but all the others have been captured. On two occasions recently soldiers attacked Koolan's lair in force with disastrous results, Koolan shooting and killing three of them. Their remains were brought back to Honolulu where a good military funeral was given to them, on the sixteenth. The whole town turned out as spectators. A reward of one thousand dollars has been offered for the apprehension of Koolan.

Minister Blount has concluded his report on Hawaiian affairs, and it was stated he would probably forward it to Washington by the steamer Australia which is to sail July 19. It is reported he has given the provisional government to understand that nothing will be done until he sends back his report, which may be acted upon during the extra session of Congress in August.

The opinion prevails in official circles that after receiving Minister Blount's report, President Cleveland will resubmit ex-President Harrison's treaty of annexation, or some modification thereon to the Senate.

The new treaty mentioned in previous despatches, which was drawn here to be summitted to the United States government, will be withheld awaiting the action on Minister Blount's report. The latest reports concerning the document are that it is a straight treaty of annexation without conditions, in which no reference occurs to the labor question, finance, or the present system of land holdings.

THE CHOLERA AT NAPLES.

Surgeon Young Reports a Sorry State of Affairs at the Italian Port.

WASHINGTON, July 26.—Surgeon-General Wyman has received the following cable despatch from Assistant-Surgeon G. M. Young of the Marine Hospital Service, stationed at Naples:

"Cholera prevails. Condition is worse. A large number of emigrants are preparing for America. Isolation on shore is impossible. Authorities refuse to permit detention on board. Passengers are transfered from train to ship, and isolation on the way imperfect."

To this despatch Dr. Wyman has sent the following answer:

"Refuse bill of health unless all regulations are complied with. Inform companies full time will be imposed without the bill."

So long as cholera or other contagious or infectious epidemic disease prevails in Naples or its vicinity the Marine Hospital Service will not permit emigrants from that port to land in this country unless the companies comply with the regulations for safety issued by the Secretary of the Treasury.

As these regulations require the erection of barracks or houses in which intending emigrants must be maintained for five days prior to sailing and the disinfection of clothing and effects of emigrants it is not probable that the United States will have any immigrants from Naples for some time to come.

Speaking of the matter to-day Dr. Wyman said: "The facilities for carrying out the Treasury regulations do not exist at Naples and the bills of health, therefore cannot be granted, and ships cannot bring immigrants."

Howard Mutchler Elected to Congress.

EASTON, Pa., July 26.—In the special election in the eight Congressional district to fill the vacancy caused by the death of Hon William Mutchler, his son, Howard Mutchler, Democrat was elected over General Frank Reader, Republican, by about 2,800 majority. The vote was less than one half that of last year in the district when it went 6,242 democratic.

A Steamer Ashore.

ROCKLAND, Me., July 26.—Steamer Mayfield, of the Rockland & Friendship line on the down trip yesterday ran on Bar Island near Port Clyde, and will probably be a total loss. The steamer had made a landing at Barnet Island and from some unexplained cause struck on Bar Island. A portion of her cargo is being landed at Port Clyde and wrecking steamers have been sent for.

Knights of Pythias Officers.

ELMIRA, N. Y., July 26.—The Knights of Pythias have elected officers as follows: Grand Chancellor, S. H. Salisbury, of Seneca Falls; Grand Vice-Chancellor, Dr. Charles Ladaw, of Mechanicsville; Grand Prelate, Alonzo Bedell, Haverstraw; Representative to Supreme Lodge, John J. Roberson, of Middletown.

Killed by Lightning.

OTTAWA, Ont., July 26.—At Clarence Creek, lightning yesterday struck the house of J. B. Landry, killing his two daughters, aged 18 and 10 years. Mrs. Landry was also struck but not seriously hurt.

Killed by a Fall from a Window.

NEWARK, N. J., July 26.—Gottlieb Seigle, 30 years old, fell from a third-story window of his home while closing a window, last night, and was killed.

Old Officers Re-elected.

RUTLAND, Vt., July 24.—The annual meeting of the Rutland was held here yesterday, and the old directors and officers were re-elected unanimously.

Secretary Carlisle Unwell.

WASHINGTON, July 26.—Secretary Carlisle has not been well for the past few days. He has contracted a cold.

TALKING WITH ANGELS.

WHEN A BABY SMILES IN SLEEP, THEN SHE'S HAPPY.

How Many Happy Infants If Mothers Only Knew More—A Great Deal of Suffering is Directly Traceable to Ignorance.

In Ireland they have a pretty fancy that when a baby smiles in its sleep it is "talking with angels."

How many more smiling, healthy babies there might be in Plainfield if mothers knew more of their babies' needs.

The only remonstrance to this want of knowledge that is possible to little children, is expressed in the language of suffering and disease.

Stale cow's milk—absolutely fresh milk in the city is a fiction—is not only unpalatable and lacking in nutrition but also harmful; mother's milk is sometimes as bad; improperly prepared substitutes are worse.

But the lactated food prepared in Burlington, Vt., has become a blessing; it is the wonderful result of the great advance that has been made in recent years in the study of infant nutrition.

Probably to the end of time healthful mother's milk will be better than any imitation; but next to this, the most eminent physicians are agreed, and the experience of thousands of parents has proved, that lactated food is the most natural and nourishing diet possible for infants; its use in the summer is especially to be desired.

It is a better preventive of the dreaded

cholera infantum than all the medicine in the world.

It is to be obtained at any drug store, and is not only easy of preparation but is so inexpensive that no family in Plainfield need be without it.

The following letter from Mrs. A. Wandell, 99 Rowe st., Rochester, N. Y., a picture of whose pretty baby is given above, is one of scores that are received every week from happy parents the country over:

"Our baby weighed 4 pounds at birth; when two months old she weighed but 8 pounds with her clothes on; the doctor said she was a very frail child; I commenced feeding her a certain food when she was 14 days old, but she did not gain strength as I knew she ought; when she was 7 months old I changed to lactated food; she commenced to gain at once and to rest well at night; she has not been sick with bowel trouble once through her teething, and she was teething last summer; I consider lactated food has been a great blessing to our little girl; it has made her healthy, strong and the happiest 2-year-old child in Rochester; any mother wishing to address one that has used lactated food will be cheerfully answered at my expense by addressing me."

NOW THEY WANT DAMAGES.

Montreal Boarding-House Keepers After the Christian Endeavor Committee.

MONTREAL, July 26.—The local committee that had charge of the arrangements for the Christian Endeavor convention recently held in this city made contracts with nearly all the boarding houses here to provide accommodations for delegates during the week of the convention, and the boarding-house people made their arrangements accordingly, but in many instances the expected boarders failed to put in an appearance.

Now the boarding-house keepers claim damages amounting to over $17,000. The committee, which has no money to pay these claims, will, however, oppose them in court.

Corn Crop in Danger.

WASHINGTON, July 26.—The weekly crop report of the Weather Bureau states that the rainfall has been deficient throughout the Northern States. There was almost a total absence of rain from Nebraska eastward over the States of the Ohio Valley to Pennsylvania, and while the corn crop is as yet uninjured it is in a threatened condition in Nebraska and Illinois.

Mrs. Grant Again at West Point.

WEST POINT, N. Y., July 26.—Mrs. U. S. Grant arrived here from Salem Centre last evening and will remain during the balance of the season. Her daughter, Mrs. Sartoris, will sail from Europe on Saturday and will join her mother here about August 5.

Kansas Militia in Readiness.

TOPEKA, Kan., July 26.—The strike situation in the Cherokee district is regarded as so serious by Gov. Lewelling and his advisers that eleven companies of militia have been ordered to hold themselves in readiness to move on three hours' notice.

Appeal to Women to Vote.

ROCHESTER, N. Y., July 26.—Mrs. John Brooks Greenleaf, of this city, has issued a strong appeal to women qualified to do so, to vote at the election of school district officers in this State to be held Aug. 22.

WEATHER INDICATIONS.

For New Jersey: Thunder-Showers This Evening or To-Night, Followed During Thursday By Generally Fair Weather and Slightly Lower Temperature; Southwesterly Winds to Northwest.

EARLY INTELLIGENCE.

—The ever-flourishing City National Bank to-day announces a semi-annual dividend of 4 per cent.

—Slight damage to the electric apparatus of street car No. 4, last night at 8, caused it to be laid off till morning.

—Justice Mosher has set Thursday, Aug. 3, for the trial of James H Fosher's suit for $75 against Andrew Seguine, Sr.

—New York reporters, who flooded the town yesterday, took away Parmele apples as keepsakes. The samples were very luscious.

—Women's Relief Corps, No. 10, auxiliary to Winfield Scott Post, No. 73, G. A. R., and their friends, are spending to-day at Boynton Beach.

—The Independent Fife and Drum Corps was out last night practicing for the great parade of the Jr. O. U. A. M., at Asbury Park, August 17.

—Levi Hetfield has given $5 to Ed Vroom, of Truck Company No. 1, for preventing a serious fire in his row on Arlington avenue a few nights ago.

—Manager Keller says it is quite likely the Cuban Giants will play here in the morning and the Paterson team in the afternoon, of Labor Day, September 4.

—Work has been begun on the abutments for the new iron bridge over Green brook at Westervelt avenue. The bridge will be just above the old wooden one.

—Manager Mack, of the Somerville team, wants to arrange a series of three games with the Crescents, and Manager Keller may accommodate him before long.

—You'd better take the chance of Friday July 28, to visit Asbury Park by excursion from Plainfield. That's the date when the First Presbyterian, Park Avenue Baptist and Congregational churches unite in a day's enjoyment at the shore. You'd better go along.

—No delegates from this city attended the meeting of the National Turners' Association held in Newark last Sunday, in spite of the expectation that delegates would do so to prosecute the claims of Washington Rock as a suitable site for the coming festival.

—A special meeting will be held to-morrow night in the Salvation Army hall, conducted by Captain Agnes McKenzie, of New York I corps, assisted by Miss Van-Nordon, daughter of the President of the First National Bank of New York. Do n:t fail to be present.

RAN AWAY FROM HER SISTER.

Poormaster Hand and Judge Moore Investigating Her Story.

Katie Reardon, age about 11, was brought by Poormaster Hezekiah Hand, of Fanwood Township, before Judge Moore, yesterday afternoon. She was in a tattered condition, and nervously said she had no home and had been beaten and otherwise ill-treated by her sister, from whom she had run away.

Judge Moore took the matter properly in hand, and is proceeding under the advice of the Township Counsel, William R. Codington. Meanwhile the girl is being cared for by Poormaster Hand.

TRIAL NEXT WEDNESDAY.

Constable Moffett Re-Arrests C. L. Parmele by Telephone.

Justice Nash made out a new warrant against Charles L. Parmele yesterday afternoon in place of the defective one which he threw out of court. Constable Moffett, of whom the New York papers to-day speak as a benevolent-looking man whom everybody in Plainfield loves, telephoned to Mr. Parmele at Pond's, and had him appear before Judge Nash. Mr. Parmele gave $200 bonds for a hearing next Wednesday. John H. French, the miller, furnished the bail.

Held for Fighting Negroes.

James Day, alias "Buck", who was arrested for participating in the row between whites and negroes, on Park avenue, at the Potter-Scott base-ball game, last Saturday, told Judge Coddington this morning that he was guilty, but claimed that he acted in self defence. The Court appointed Saturday, 9 a. m., for the hearing. It is charged that Day fought the negroes with base-ball bats and stones.

The children's health must not be neglected. Cold in the head causes catarrh. Ely's Cream Balm cures at once. It is perfectly safe and is easily applied into the nostrils. The worst cases yielding to it. Price 50c.

JENNIE MUST BE GOOD.

If she Keeps on Breaking Her Mother's Heart, to the Industrial School She'll Go.

Jennie Parkinson had a crying spell in Judge Coddington's court this morning. Jennie is a plump girl of 15 years, with short curly hair and a bright face. Her father, Tom Parkinson, left ten children as wayward as Jennie for his widow to care for.

"Oh, Jennie," said the careworn woman, as the two stood at the bar this morning—"you'll bring your poor mother to Morris Plains if you don't reform.

"Judge," she continued—"I want you to give her some good advice. She won't keep a place, she won't mind me, she runs the streets, and last night I found her sleeping in Stiger's lane."

"Yes:"—interposed Sergeant Kiely—"and I often see her running around at 2 in the morning."

Jennie denied that she was bad, and said that she had been abused.

"I got her a place at McDonough's,"—said the mother—"which they is n't as to say high-toned, but nice respectable people, and I was willin' to let her stay there. But she run away."

Jennie said that was because the missus scratched her and called her names. She added that last night she was innocently sitting on the bank of Green Brook, "lief alone", watching the merry-go-round, and not associating with anyone.

The Court warned her that she must obey her mother and keep at work and off the streets, or he would see that she was sent to the Industrial School in Trenton.

"What 'll I do?"—queried the girl, nodding her head to the Judge's admonition.

"You 'll go back to Mrs. McDonough's"—said the mother.

"And have her call me names? I guess not."

"Behave yourself,"—sagely remarked the judge—"and she 'll treat you right."

"I've got a trial in every one of my children—sighed the mother, wiping her eyes.—"I love them dearly, and try to bring them up right, but somehow they all turn against me."

PARTICULAR MENTION.

Miss Fawcett's school will re-open Thursday, Sept. 14.

Mrs. Elmore D. Moffett is at Ocean Grove for two months.

Mrs. J. Parker Mason and Miss Corlies have returned from a trip to the World's Fair.

Mrs. D. S. Roberts, of North avenue, is now able to sit up, after a long and tedious illness.

Mr. and Mrs. Daniel McCarthy, of West Third street, have gone to the Catskills for two weeks.

Miss Estella Taylor is ill at her home with Mr. and Mrs. Charles S. Greer, Grandview avenue.

Borough Counsel Chas. A. Reed has been spending a few days at the Riverside House, Forked River.

Mr. and Mrs. I. B. Hill, of Westervelt avenue, will spend the coming two weeks at Boston and Fall River.

Mrs. T. S. Thorn and son, of Orchard place, are visiting Mrs. Thorn's mother at Windsor, Mercer county, for two weeks.

Miss Jennie Sutphen, of Emily street, North Plainfield, left to-day for a two weeks' visit to White House and vicinity.

Dr. and Mrs. King, of this city, leave town this afternoon for Forked River, where they will stop at the Riverside House.

Lewis Bird is building a dwelling house on Summit avenue, North Plainfield, wherein he expects to reside with his family.

Since the ringing of the Sabbath morning bells, a bright little girl has adorned the home of Joseph B. Morrison, 321 East Fifth street.

Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Hyde, of Front street, have gone to the Adirondacks, where they will spend some time at Hotel Ampersand.

A son who easily balanced a 10-lb. weight brought joy to Mr. and Mrs. James H. Southard of East Third street Sunday night.

Beginning August 1, Edmund W. Pack will succeed Bergen D. N. Carter as head clerk for B. D. Newell, the East Front street merchant.

The Misses Ticknor, with their mother, Mrs. Page, have just returned from a charming sojourn at Saratoga Springs and Mt. McGregor.

Andrew and Frank Huff, of Park avenue, will this week begin the erection of a fine residence opposite their new house near Cedar brook.

Proprietor J. H. Leggett of the Central Pharmacy was given a happy wedding anniversary surprise by his wife and friends last night.

Morgan Turton, of Washington street, arrived home from Lakewood, yesterday. Mrs. Turton will spend the coming two weeks at Flushing, L. I.

A letter received from the Plainfield young men camping at Budd's Lake states that they are having a great time and enjoying themselves.

E. B. Day, of Central avenue, is making extensive alterations to his house. He is building a front porch and veranda, besides making improvements on the interior.

Frank Wolff, formerly clerk at the City Hotel, this city, and of the Mansion House, Bound Brook, has opened a first-class resort on Twenty-eighth street, New York.

Wm. Moore of New street is half owner in a tract of 250 acres of land near Stroudsburg, Pa. He is going up in a few days to have the plant surveyed and laid out in good form.

Harvey M. Goodman, of Scotch Plains, and a brother of John Goodman of North Plainfield, is dangerously ill from cancer in the mouth. The attending physician can give no encouragement.

Mr. and Mrs. Horace G. Adams, of Duer street, North Plainfield, are the happy parents of a young daughter, born Monday evening. Mother and child are doing as well as can be expected.

President Rockfellow of the Plainfield Board to-day declined to give any information about last night's meeting. He said it would be unwise to make any statement before three or four days of the action of the Plainfield Board on the North Plainfield Board's communication.

Lellow Wooden, proprietor of the White House Hotel, with his brother, William, who is proprietor of the Califon Hotel near Lake Hopatcong, are in town to-day. Some years ago they were the leading bakers of this town, and kept places on Park avenue and Front street, respectively.

The "Home" Insurance company in which Count VanNess is said to be insured, is not the Home of New York. He holds no policy of theirs. The former is said to be in financial difficulties, with $1,260 surplus. The latter has a surplus of over $3,000,000 and is just paying a dividend of $150,000. William H. Sampson of East Fifth street has been connected with this company for many years.

The upright manhood, firm step and undiminished vigor of the Rev. Dr. D. J. Yerger are the admiration of the populace. The good clergyman is a faithful devotee of Saratoga's waters, whose virtues, he holds, would renew the youth of many whom age has enfeebled. He will spend his vacation at the famous watering-place as usual, this summer, quaffing the products of the springs, and resting from the heavy labors of his large and growing parish.

—In addition to the list of Odd Ladies' officers installed as published last evening, Mrs. E. C. Morse and Mrs. H. C. Drake were installed as right and left assistants.

The American Catarrh Cure

Is the result of twenty-six years' study and treatment of the disease. One bottle convinces the most skeptical. It is always ready for use, needing neither douche nor atomizer. It restores the hearing, cures the hawking cough and expectorating, removes the headache and nose bleeding, increases the appetite, produces sound sleep, invigorates the whole system and increases the vitality. Prepared only by W. B. Jones, M. D., No. 1330 South Eighth street, Philadelphia. For sale by I. W. Randolph, 21 West Front street. Price $1.

SUN-LIGHT and FRESH AIR are THE BEST DISINFECTANTS, of course; but you can't apply them in every situation. What next? Well, that depends. For damp cellars use Quicklime, plenty of it. For vaults and cesspools use COPPERAS; cheap stuff; we sell it by the pound or hundred-weight—instructions thrown in. For kitchen sinks, for water-closets, for house plumbing, for the sick room, to deodorize discharges, to purify the air and to prevent contagion, use REYNOLDS'S ODORLESS DISINFECTANT. Made and sold for fifteen years at

Reynolds's Pharmacy, Corner Park and North Avenues.

HAYWOOD IS SORRY.

With a Contrite Heart He Pays $40 for Inciting Riot.

The night of the Plainfield avenue riot, William Haywood was very bold and belligerent. He waved two flags, cursed the police, and urged on the mob.

Yesterday, after his release on Frank Corlell's parole, he got drunk and roasted about the streets, and Policeman Kiely said he was too dangerous to be at large, so locked him up.

This morning Haywood's boldness had all left him. He stood before the bar of Judge Coddington's court and shook visibly with nervousness and fear.

He acknowledged his guilt, in a low trembling voice, and said he was very sorry.

The Court sternly responded that his riotous conduct might have caused bloodshed and loss of life. All the mob wanted was a leader, and Haywood had set himself up for one.

Haywood was fined $40, which he paid.

The court told him that Frank Corlell, his employer, was the best friend he had, thought a great deal of him, and was much grieved at his misconduct. The prisoner was very penitent, and promised to reform.

Captain Grant advised him to sign the pledge. He said he would, provided he could reserve the right to take one drink at any time. The Court refused such a compromise.

Haywood promised, however, to stop drinking and to behave himself. He is not a bad-looking man, but of sturdy build and intelligent face. He wears his hair closely cropped, and has heavy iron-gray mustache and eyebrows.

RAILROADING SUPERB.

This is the Kind of Care and Forethought Exercised Daily on the Jersey Central.

A pretty piece of quick and good railroad judgment and tact was displayed yesterday by the engineer of conducter Hodge's train, which left Plainfield at 12:06 p. m., eastward bound.

While drawing into the Fanwood station, with all brakes set, the engineer saw Philadelphia flyer No. 511 rounding the curve ahead of him, coming west on the track between his train and the station. Hodge's train had nearly stopped, and the passengers for Fanwood were on the platforms of the cars ready to alight as usual. They were unaware of the approaching Philly, and in a moment would have swung down in a stream from the platforms upon the track directly in front of the flyer, with disastrous results.

The engineer of the local, knowing this, to prevent anyone dismounting instantly threw open his throttle, and pulled the train beyond the station just as the flier passed.

The passengers, although a little shaken by the suddenly increased speed, expressed their gratitude to all of conductor Hodge's crew, who stood on the lower steps of the platforms, and who, understanding the reason of the engineer's action, prevented anyone from stepping down while the train was in motion.

AT IT AGAIN.

The Daring Young Apple Thief Add. Insult to Injury.

Trustworthy neighbors of Charles L. Parmele assert positively that young Johnnie Taylor who was the cause of such a rumpus Monday night was in Mr. Parmele's apple trees again yesterday afternoon, pilfering fruit as merrily as ever. Johnnie is a bad boy, and it is hoped will get his deserts according to law.

In the Midst of Alarms.

Robert Barr, one of the editors of The Idler and of the Detroit Free Press, and whose stories over the signature "Luke Sharp" have delighted two continents, contributes one of his most charming novels "In the Midst of Alarms", complete, to the August number of Lippincott's Magazine. This fascinating tale will alone repay one the investment of a quarter in the current issue of America's best fiction publication, but there is a wealth of other literature in the number, including verse of high merit and prose of many departments, from Julian Hawthorne's "Lady of the Lake" (a World's Fair idyl) to the latest of the Athletic Series, an illustrated article on base-ball, with portraits. When you want the choicest, get Lippincott's.

All Things Well in Farming.

(Official Crop Bulletin.)

SOUTH PLAINFIELD.—It has been a very nice week of showers and sunshine and good growing weather. All things are looking good now and farm work is going along nicely; most all crops are in clear cultivation and all right.

SEWERS MUST COME.

THE EXISTING NUISANCES HAVE GROWN INTOLERABLE.

Foul Smells and Disease-Germs Fill the Air, and Wealthy Men Are Among the Obstructionists — For Plainfield's Sake and for Humanity's Sake Push the Sewering Project!

No more patent argument for the immediate need of a sanitary sewerage system in Plainfield can be had than a visit to the Peace street sewer outlet in Green brook or to the catch basin at the Front street and Park avenue corner. At both points the nostrils are offended by the vilest of odors, and the stomach is nauseated by the disease-germs that fill the air. Go along Green brook, and you will find putrefying excremental matter lodged along the banks at the rear of residences, and floating on the surface in the hot sun down the stream.

"If we do n't have sewers soon"—said a prominent Plainfield physician the other day—"we 'll be visited by such a pestilential epidemic as will blast the town forever."

Yet THE PRESS is informed by a leading city official that wealthy and influential East Front street residents are fighting the sewerage project because they conveniently and as they suppose secretly empty all their sewage through pipes into Green brook.

The North Plainfield Board of Health is far ahead of the Plainfield Board in activity against the evil. It has effectually stopped all known contamination of Green brook on the borough side, and is now investigating Plainfield's guilt. As a result of a portion of its work the following was sent to the Plainfield Board of Health and read at its meeting last night:

To the Board of Health of the City of Plainfield:

GENTLEMEN:—Public attention has been frequently called of late to the practice of using Green brook as a sewer. We have taken great pains to locate and caused to be removed all connections between water closets, sinks, cesspools or house drains and said brook which existed within the borough of North Plainfield and we believe that none now exist.

The offensive and noxious odors arising from Green brook convinced us however that the evil still existed, and for the purpose of satisfying ourselves as to the location of the connections we had an examination made of the underground raceway leading from Somerset street along the rear of the Front street property to Grove street. This raceway is entirely within the limits of the city of Plainfield, but it empties into Green brook at Grove street and matter discharges from it into the brook.

The result of our investigation is shown by a sworn statement of which the following is a true copy:

New Jersey, } ss.
Union County. }

William N. Pangborn being duly sworn on his oath says that on the night of July 5, 1893, he, together with John Gunn, went through and carefully inspected for outlets of drains and private sewers the raceway leading from the mill of Phineas M. French on Somerset street in the city of Plainfield which empties into Green brook just above the Grove street bridge. That he found beginning at the line between the property of Mr. Scheppfin and Mr. Geo. H. Babcock, thirty-one open connections of sewers with said race between said division line and Somerset street. These sewers all empty into said raceway. That some of these thirty-one connections were not apparently in use at the time of said inspection, but that deponent found unmistakable evidence that nineteen of said sewers were at that time of said inspection connected with and used as outlets from water closets. That deponent found in the rear of the new Babcock building at least six new connections or outlets into said raceway, at least one of which was at the time in use. That the stench in said raceway from the matter deposited therein by these sewers, was horrible and almost overpowering. That the sewage matter emptied into said raceway from said sewers is naturally carried by the water flowing through said raceway into Green brook just above the Grove street bridge. That the said raceway from the said division line between the Scheppfin and Babcock property to Somerset street is arched over with brick and stone.

WM. N. PANGBORN.

Sworn and subscribed before me this July 7, 1893. CHAS. A. REED, M. C. C. of N. J.

Argument is unnecessary to show that regard for the public health both of the city and borough demands that prompt and vigorous measures be at once taken to put an effective stop to this intolerable nuisance.

The means are at hand and are easily set in motion and effective in operation. By an act of the Legislature approved March 14, 1893, which will be found on page 261 of the laws of 1893, it is provided that if any person shall connect any water closet with any sewer or other means whereby the contents thereof may be conveyed into any brook which runs through, or along the borders of, any city or borough, such person shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor and on conviction thereof shall be punished by a fine not exceeding one thousand dollars, or by imprisonment not exceeding two years, or both.

It is only necessary that complaint be made before a justice of the peace and warrants will issue for the arrest of offenders.

We call the matter to your attention now in order that you may take such steps as may be proper. The dry season is upon us and low water will greatly increase the danger.

We suppose that you will of course act promptly, and that we will not be obliged to institute the proceedings which a due regard for the health of our citizens demands.

Very respectfully,
W. E. HONEYMAN,
Pres. Board of Health.

Dated July 10, 1893.
By order of the Board of Health of the Borough of North Plainfield. J. H. CARMAN, Secretary.

Fire Bad Enough, But Cows Worse.

John Bremer, of Greenbrook road, North Plainfield, had enough to keep him excited last night. Fire got into the ceiling of his kitchen, and caused some damage and more worry before it was put out. Cows of the neighbors got into his garden and ruined it. He began war on the neighbors this morning, but marshal Pangborn acted as peacemaker and all damages were paid.

Crescents, 11; Poughkeepsie, 10.

The Crescents of Plainfield defeated the Poughkeepsie team yesterday in a brilliantly contested game. The score:

Crescents	0	0	4	2	4	0	1	0	0	—11
Poughkeepsie	2	0	0	1	0	4	2	1	0	—10

I feel it my duty to say a few words in regard to Ely's Cream Balm, and I do so entirely without solicitation. I have used it more or less half a year, and have found it to be most admirable. I have suffered from catarrh of the worst kind ever since I was a little boy and I never hoped for cure, but Cream Balm, seems to do even that. Many of my acquaintances have used it with excellent results. Oscar Ostrum, 45 Warren ave., Chicago, Ill.

How Hotel Netherwood Guests Pass the Summer Evenings.

The guests of Hotel Netherwood are seldom at a loss for something to do, and dances, riding parties and other amusements follow one another in quick succession.

Monday night, a progressive euchre party was given, in the spacious parlor of the hotel, and a large number of people contested for the beautiful prizes that had been provided by the committee in charge. The evening was favorable for indoor amusements, as it was so cool that the parlor atmosphere was not uncomfortable at any time during the play. At 9 sharp, H. L. Balch, acting for Harry Williams, who was suddenly taken ill, opened the game. The play continued for two hours, and everyone spent a most enjoyable evening. The players were:

Mr. and Mrs. B. F. McCabe.
Mr. and Mrs. E. Benton.
Mr. and Mrs. W. B. Ogden.
Mr. and Mrs. H. L. Balch.
Mr. and Mrs. H. C. Ogden.
Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Eaton.
Mr. and Mrs. E. W. Richardson.
Mr. and Mrs. Wm. H. Sneckner.
Mr. and Mrs. J. S. Farlee.
Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Gare Brady.
Mr. and Mrs. E. J. Haney.
Mr. and Mrs. A. L. Gondran.
Mr. and Mrs. James N. Stout.
Mr. and Mrs. H. W. Williams.
Mr. and Mrs. R. J. Kelley.
Mr. and Mrs. W. V. B. Smith.
Mr. and Mrs. J. M. White.
Dr. and Mrs. Banner.
Mr. and Mrs. F. E. Miller.
Mr. and Mrs. W. T. Wardwell.
June M. White and Miss Annie Stuart Betts.
Chas. A. Keller and Miss Carrie White.
Wm. E. Smith and Miss Richardson.
C. A. Smith and Miss Bracher.
C. A. Betts and Miss Annetta Loeb.
A. Raymond and Miss Raymond.

The winners were:
First prize—Mrs. Jas. N. Stout.
Second prize—Miss Annie S. Betts.
Other prizes—Mrs. W. V. B. Smith, Mrs. A. L. Gondran, Mrs. E. J. Haney, A. L. Gondran, C. A. Smith, W. T. R. Smith, W. J. Eaton, Wm. D. Godley.
Consolation winners—Mrs. H. L. Balch and W. B. Ogden.

Last night Prof. Swift, of London, lectured on "The Tower of London, Past and Present". The lecture was accompanied by beautiful stereopticon pictures.

The date of the coaching parade that was put off from last Saturday has not yet been decided on.

August 5, Prof. Newman, the mind-reader, from Berlin, will visit the hotel, and all are looking forward to his visit with interest.

Washingtonville Warblings.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Clark spent Sunday in Newark.

Mrs. Bryant, of Brooklyn, is the guest of Mrs. H. J. Smith.

The Misses Demarest are the guests of Mrs. Joseph Gavett.

Elkanah Drake and family, of Newark, were guests of Aaron Allen, over Sunday.

The excursion of the Sunday-school, thanks to the committee, was in every way a success.

John Gifford, wife and daughter, are visiting at the old homestead of W. F. Spencer, Mrs. Gifford's father.

Emanuel Hughes died in the asylum at Morris Plains last week. He was well known in Plainfield, where he was engaged in horseshoeing.

While the crops of small fruits are very fine, and the peaches promise to be abundant, yet this dry weather is pinching vegetation in the Valley.

The chapel was well filled Sunday evening, to hear the Rev. Mr. Soudder, to whom all gave the closest attention, for his remarks were good, and they hope to hear him again soon.

Half Rate Excursions to the World's Fair via Washington and the B. & O. R. R.

The Baltimore and Ohio R. R. will run a series of special excursions from New York to the World's Fair at rate of $17.00 for the round trip. The trains will consist of first-class day coaches equipped with lavatories and toilet conveniences. The trains will start from Jersey Central station, foot of Liberty street, New York, at 8:30 a. m. August 5, 9 and 15, and reach Chicago at 4:30 p. m. the following day. Tickets will be valid for outward journey only on the special trains, but will be good returning from Chicago in day coaches on any regular train within 10 days, including day of sale. Stops will be made for meals at the dining stations on the line. A tourist agent and a train porter will accompany each train to look after the comfort of passengers. Tickets will also be sold for these trains at the Jersey Central offices in Newark, Elizabeth, Plainfield, Bound Brook and Somerville. New York offices 172, 415 and 1140 Broadway, and station foot of Liberty street. 26-w&s-3w

Angerbauer Made Best Time.

Henry Angerbauer, Willie Keefe, Michael Keefe, Paddy Ryan, Frank Drake and Victor Bowser ran a five-mile foot race last night, circling around the block bounded by Richmond, Front, Washington and Fifth streets. Willie Keefe had a minute start, and came in first. He got a neat silver badge. Henry Angerbauer made the best time, and was awarded a pretty silver medal.

Vic Bowers and Frank Drake each got a booby prize of a mint and a potato.

The race caused much interest and fun in the neighborhood.

Picturesque Route to the Fair.

No other line offers the variety of scenic interest between New York and Chicago that is enjoyed by World's Fair tourists via the Baltimore and Ohio Railroad. Passing through Philadelphia, Baltimore, Washington, the capital of the nation, and by way of Harper's Ferry and the historic Potomac Valley to the Allegheny mountains, which are crossed at an elevation of 3,000 feet above the sea, the traveler sees the arena of the activity of the nation as well as the principal historical features and scenic wonders of the East. Low rates.

Read and Reflect.

The great mass of mankind lose their health through inattention to catarrh of the head and throat. This insidious disease was considered incurable until the discovery of the American Catarrh Cure. For sale by L. W. Randolph, 21 West Front street. Price $1.00.

IN MEMORIAM.

Agnes Waterbury Redman.

Sorrow, toil and pain are over,
Resting now for one brief day,
Ever feeding in green pastures,
In the Saviour's arms she lay.
Looking now far down the valley,
Where once on earth her steps she tread,
Sees her sister mourning yonder,
And with one sweet smile she said:
"Sister, could you now but see me,
In the Land of Light above,
Tears and sighs for me would vanish,
And of me you'd think in love.
Grieve not then for me, my sister,
Count the joys yet left below,
Think, soon we will be together,
Time on earth does not pass slow.
"'Twas hard for me to leave you, sister—
Harder than you think or know;
But now that I have crossed the river,
I would not, could not, come to you.
Try then, dear, to cheer my mother,
Fill my place with one bright ray,
And when to me above you come,
Remember you have come to stay."

The end shall not be yet.—S. Mark, XIII: 7.

Mother, I'm to take a journey,
Heaven is the place I seek,
Why then mother do you cry so,
As a blessing for the meek.
Life is full of sorrow, mother,
Death's dark shades soon turn to light,
You too soon will come my mother,
One brief day I'm out of sight.
Then for my sake, my sake mother,
Cease those tears and smile once more,
While the shades around me gather,
E'er my Saviour close the door.
All is over now my mother:
Thus she spake and passed away,
Now the grave must hold the body
Till the Resurrection Day.
Tenderly 'neath the earth they laid her,
Now in Paradise she rests,
Where no human earthly torture
Can disturb the troubled breasts.
Why should we our loved one look for,
She who to our hearts is dear,
For some day that loved one longed for,
Shall to us be ever near.

EMERSON CLEVELAND HOWARD.

Strengthening Elkwood Hall.

The weight in the upper part of the Elkwood Hall building, where the Salvation Army have headquarters, has caused the ceiling over the barracks to crack and there were fears of its falling and doing injury. In consequence of this, six iron pillars were placed in position this morning, which will relieve the heavy pressure and support the floor above.

TURNED OUT THE LIGHTS.

Disgraceful Scene at the Meeting of the Silver Club.

NEW YORK, July 26.—Two hours of disgraceful uproar kept the guests in a state of alarm at the Fifth Avenue Hotel last night. The noise all proceeded from parlor F, where the meeting under the auspices of the Silver Club had been extensively announced to be held. Loud bursts of shouting followed by peals of derisive laughter occurred at very short intervals, and soon after 9 o'clock the character of the howling showed that some of the participants in the meeting had lost their tempers and their wits.

At half past nine respectable business men began to leave the room in a hurry, but the crowd grew thicker and thicker, and more ill-tempered. At 10 o'clock the management of the hotel ordered the electric lights turned out.

A factor of the disturbance was a handfull of self styled populists who were sore because the meeting was not held under the direct auspices of that party. They did not represent anything but their own individualities. The last straw consisted in the general feeling of derision which vented itself among the majority of the people present.

DESTITUTION IN DENVER.

Fifteen Thousand People in Need of Aid. Scarcity of Relief Funds.

DENVER, July 26.—Up to date 3,700 men have registered as out of employment and the list is steadily increasing. Means are being taken to furnish employment and provide food for the hungry and destitute. Dean Peck and Rev. Thos. Uzzell, who have been foremost in this work, announce that on account of the scarcity of the relief funds they cannot continue to feed the hungry longer than to-morrow.

Meetings are held nightly to provide means for aid in which Denver's most prominent people take part. It is estimated that 15,000 persons, men, women and children are in need of immediate aid. Food is being distributed at the various missions to-day.

It is developed that the destitution is growing.

Commissioner and Guards Fight.

WORLD'S FAIR GROUNDS, July 26.—Col. J. W. St. Clair, Commissioner to the World's Fair from West Virginia, and a member of the Council of Administration had a free fight with a gate-keeper and three Columbian Guards. Both Commissioner St. Clair and his antagonists were badly battered and bruised and covered with blood when they were separated.

DAHOMEY'S CONQUEROR.

His Arrival in France Causes a Decided Sensation.

If He Will It, Gen. Dodds May Become a Second Boulanger—A Majatto of French, English and African Blood.

The advent of a victorious soldier, a "man on horseback," is a matter of serious concern to the conservative republican government of France. The meteoric career of Gen. Boulanger demonstrated that the French people are just as ready as they were in the time of Napoleon Bonaparte to apotheosize the military hero of the day, and the opportunity of such a demonstration, says Leslie's Weekly, is eagerly seized by all the political elements opposed to the existing order of things.

Gen. Dodds has come back to France from the conquest of Dahomey. He has not come exactly on horseback, but he bears the prestige of a substantial military triumph. It chanced that he came by way of the Mediterranean, so that his first greeting in France was a characteristically demonstrative one at the hands of the people of Marseilles, celebrated for their mercurial disposition and patriotic zeal. The Tibet, the vessel in which Gen. Dodds made the seventeen days' voyage from Dahomey, arrived in the port of Marseilles on the morning of the 11th ult. Quite a fleet of yachts and pleasure-craft, all gayly decorated, went out to meet her; and the first person to welcome the general was M. Hanes, representing the government and the ministry of marine. Amidst loud acclamations M. Hanes presented the Dahomey medal, struck in special commemoration of that victorious campaign. Upon disembarking Gen. Dodds was met by various notabilities, and there was a procession, through decorated streets crowded with an enthusiastic populace, to the prefecture, where eulogistic and patriotic speeches were made; and in the evening a grand ball and a military reception in which twelve hundred army officers, including sixteen generals, took part. The soldiers who arrived from Africa on the Tibet also came in for a share of the honors and festivities, and received numerous gifts from the people. All this was in marked contrast to the reception of Gen. Dodds in Paris, a few days later. President Carnot simply invited him to the Elysee mansion en civile. The conference was private, with no assemblage of distinguished people, no display of uniforms, no public demonstration.

Gen. Alfred Amedee Dodds (of whom we present a new portrait, from the photograph recently taken at Marseilles), was born at St. Louis, in Senegal, fifty-two years ago. He is, in fact, a mulatto, of mixed French, English and African blood. He received his military education in France, but returned to Africa in 1871, after serving during the Franco-German war, and was military commander at St. Louis in 1890, with the rank of colonel, when the first campaign against Behanzin, of Dahomey, was undertaken. His experience in African warfare and his knowledge of the character of the native troops were of the greatest service to him in preparing the plan of campaign which later he executed with such brilliant success. A French critic says concerning his military capacity: "If he has not the prompt, comprehensive glance of Gen. de Negrier, or the combative activity of Col. Archinard, Gen. Dodds is endowed, through avatism no doubt, with the imperturbable sang froid of the Anglo-Saxon."

Went to Meet Her Dead Lover.

Dr. Nevins tells a very touching story in his "Disorders of the Brain." A patient of his, a young lady engaged to be married, was often visited by her intended husband by the stage coach which passed within a mile or two of her house. One day she went to meet him, and found instead an old friend who brought the news of his sudden death. She uttered a frightful scream: "He is dead!" and then all consciousness of her misfortune ceased. "Day by day for fifty years did this poor creature, in all seasons, journey to the spot where she had expected to see her lover alight from the coach, and day by day she uttered, in a plaintive tone: 'He is not come yet. I will return tomorrow.'" Could anything be sadder than this romance from a doctor's notebook?

William Penn's Will.

Frank T. Sabin, of Philadelphia, is the proud owner of a relic which "the ransom of a prince would not buy"—the last will and testament of the founder of Pennsylvania. The document is in an excellent state of preservation, being on sheets neatly stitched together with silk thread and sealed with wax bearing the arms of the famous Penn. It is attested by Thomas Lloyd, Thomas Holmes, James Harrison and William Clarke. It was executed and drawn at Philadelphia on June 6, 1684, and after a lapse of 209 years is in perfect condition with the exception of a slight mutilation on one of the margins.

Bicycleiana in Paris.

In Paris the latest fad is to ride a bicycle in the Bois in the morning, and many of the titled French women do it and, of course, do it well. Comte and Comtesse de Talleyrand Perigord and Mlle. Clemenceau are among those who follow this fashion.

Jack Wasn't Guilty.

Her Brother—Father hates artists so! How did you get his consent to marry Jack D'Auber?

"Oh, I just showed him some of Jack's sketches."—Truth.

The Point of View.

Indignant Amateur—They charge me two dollars a day for using my kodak in the world's fair grounds!

Surprised Acquaintance—Is that all!—Chicago Tribune.

Jack's Idea.

"Dear me," said Jacky, as he caught sight of a loaf of brown bread. "Look at the little darky loaf."—Harper's Young People.

A Lesson in Poverty and Luxury.

Little Girl—Was your folks poor when you were a little girl?

Grandma—We thought we were, my dear. We were pioneer farmers and lived in a log cabin; but it was large and comfortable; the floors were warmly carpeted; we had plenty to eat and plenty to wear. But we raised everything ourselves, and made our own cloth. We had no money to go to stores, even if we had been near any; and so we felt very, very poor. There were two things we were all fond of, and, oh, how we longed for them, and how we wished we could afford them; but we couldn't, and it made us feel very miserable to be so poor. Those two things were salt mackerel and store molasses.

Little Girl—Ooo! Why, what did you have to eat, then?

Grandma—Nothing but beef, mutton, chickens, venison, quail, squirrels, wild ducks, brook trout and such things; and as for molasses we hadn't anything but maple sirup.—Good News.

Extreme Courtesy in a Studio.

"Dear me, I have rubbed some of the color off your picture on to my wrap! I don't know whether to feel worse for you or myself," said Mrs. Harkaway to Smeere.

"How much did the wrap cost?" asked the artist.

"A hundred and fifty dollars," said Miss Harkaway.

"Then feel sorry for yourself. This is a $75 picture," said Smeere.—Harper's Bazar.

LYDIA E.

PINKHAM'S VEGETABLE COMPOUND

Is a positive cure for all those painful

Ailments of Women.

It will entirely cure the worst forms of Female Complaints, all Ovarian troubles, Inflammation and Ulceration, Falling and Displacements, of the Womb, and consequent Spinal Weakness, and is peculiarly adapted to the Change of Life. Every time it will cure

Backache.

It has cured more cases of Leucorrhœa than any remedy the world has ever known. It is almost infallible in such cases. It dissolves and expels Tumors from the Uterus in an early stage of development, and checks any tendency to cancerous humors. That

Bearing-down Feeling

causing pain, weight, and backache, is instantly relieved and permanently cured by its use. Under all circumstances it acts in harmony with the laws that govern the female system, and is as harmless as water. It removes

Irregularity,

Suppressed or Painful Menstruations, Weakness of the Stomach, Indigestion, Bloating, Flooding, Nervous Prostration, Headache, General Debility. Also

Dizziness, Faintness,

Extreme Lassitude, "don't care" and "want to be left alone" feeling, excitability, irritability, nervousness, sleeplessness, flatulency, melancholy, or the "blues," and backache. These are sure indications of Female Weakness, some derangement of the Uterus, or

Womb Troubles.

The whole story, however, is told in an illustrated book entitled "Guide to Health," by Mrs. Pinkham. It contains over 90 pages of most important information, which every woman, married or single, should know about herself. Send 2 two-cent stamps for it. For and Backache of either sex the Vegetable Compound is unequaled.

Kidney Complaints

Lydia E. Pinkham's Liver Pills, 25c., cure Biliousness, Constipation, and Torpid Liver. By mail, or of druggists.

All druggists sell the Vegetable Compound, or sent by mail, in form of Pills or Lozenges, on receipt of $1.00. Correspondence freely answered.

PANIC IN THE MARKET

Wild Excitement on the New York Stock Exchange.

ANOTHER BIG DROP IN VALUES.

Two Well-Known Firms Forced to Suspend—No Plans Yet Announced for a Reorganization of the Erie—Yesterday's Story of Disaster in the Financial World

NEW YORK, July 27.—The two failures announced on the Stock Exchange yesterday afternoon, added to the depression which had been felt throughout the day, owing to the troubles of the Erie railroad and the declaration of its insolvency, precipitated a panic in the market.

Stocks went tumbling down again, in consequence of the forced liquidation which followed, and for the remaining hour and a half up to the close of business the board room presented unmistakable signs of a genuine panic.

The first failure was that of H. I. Nicholas & Co., of 11 Wall street, who announced their suspension at 1:30 p. m. The firm consisted of H. I. Nicholas, John S. Nicholas, Walter G. Taylor and Marcus Mayer, the two board members being H. I. Nicholas and W. C. Taylor.

The announcement creat d intense excitement. Mr. Nicholas is a director of the Evansville & Terre Haute railroad company, and one of the largest shareholders. The fact that this stock has declined since Monday last from 127 to 38 will give some indication of the effect of the forced sales which have been made in order to secure money for the use of the firm.

Shortly afterwards it was learned that the firm had made an assignment to Lawyer William Nelson Cromwell, of 45 Wall street, and it was stated that its liabilities would not be less than $1,250,000.

The only other failure, however, was that of John B. Dumont, of 40 Wall street, whose suspension was announced shortly after 2 o'clock. It is said that Mr. Dumont has been interested through customers in many of the stocks in which Mr. Nicholas was interested. In addition to Evansville and Terre Haute, General Electric and Western Union, Mobile and Ohio and St. Paul and Omaha were said to be favorites with Mr. Dumont.

After the panic in the Stock Exchange had been started the utmost excitement prevailed, and a general liquidation followed. The bears were in high feather and the pounding at the prices by the army of room traders had its effect in depressing the market still further.

Heavy blocks of stocks were dropped by holders, and everybody seemed anxious to sell at any prices. Values dropped sometimes two or three points at a time, and this continued up to the close, when there was a slight rally from the lowest prices of the day.

ERIE AFFAIRS.

No Plans of Reorganization Have Been Formulated as Yet.

NEW YORK, July 27.—It is stated at the Erie office that Receiver King has left for Saratoga, and Receiver McCullough for the White Mountains. It was asserted positively that the Executive Committee consisting of Messrs King, Walsh, McCullough and Cook did not decide to put the road into the hands of a receiver until a late hour Tuesday, when it was found that in order to prevent the sacrificing of securities in loans the company had to seek the protection of the Court.

This explanation is given because of a rumor to the effect that the directors had fully determined on the receivership in the last week.

The company's floating debt is about $6,000,000. Considerable of it is held abroad, but the holders are well secured.

The opinion was generally expressed this morning that it was better for all interested in the Erie that the company should go into the hands of friendly receivers rather than have hostile ones forced upon it. It is said that the application for receivers was made also because of the fear that if some of the directors of the company took the matter into their own hands great inconvenience might result from the appointment of various receivers in different States.

It is too early to speak of the reorganization, although it is hinted that the controlling interest will cut down charges to a lower figure and perhaps the second mortgages will not be a direct charge on the company. It remains to be seen whether the bondholders will assent to this proposition.

In the Hands of Receivers.

CLEVELAND, July 27.—The Avery Stamping Works has passed into a receiver's hands, to avoid making an assignment. The concern is perfectly solvent but is unable to get further accommodations from the banks, which already hold $100,000 of its paper. Assets are estimated at $400,000 and liabilities about $300,000. The matter came to a head through the action of the Junction Iron Co., of Steubenville, Ohio, which wanted $37,411.46 due it. The works will be operated on unfinished goods until the stock on hand is exhausted.

Montreal Stock Market Demoralized.

MONTREAL, July 27.—The local stock market is more demoralized in condition than ever in its history, every stock listed reaching its lowest point. Many persons have been actually ruined between here and New York. It is estimated that over $5,000,000 of Montreal money has been lost within the past three months. So far no bank or other failures have resulted from the depression.

More Wisconsin Failures.

MILWAUKEE, July 27.—Specials to the Wisconsin report two small bank failures in the interior of the State, viz: the German Exchange Bank at Portage and John Lienlokken, a private banker at Lacrosse. The Portage bank is capitalized at $25,000. No statement of assets or liabilities is given. Lienlokken's liabilities are placed at $10,000.

In Charge of a Bank Examiner.

MANCHESTER, N. H., July 27.—C. M. Dorr, of Somersworth, a national bank examiner, has taken charge of the suspended National Bank of the Commonwealth. There is no change in the financial situation here. All banks are confident that the worst is over, locally.

Cleveland Firm Assigns.

CLEVELAND, O., July 27.—The large drygoods firm of H. M. Brown & Co. made an assignment yesterday to H. F. Caulton, clerk of the United States District Court. Assets amount to $235,000, and liabilities to $100,000.

TROOPS MAY BE LANDED

It Will Depend on Whether Minister Baker is in Danger or Not.

WASHINGTON, July 27.—The situation of Minister Baker at Managua, Nicaragua, is being closely watched at the State Department. It is not felt that he is in any great personal danger, and if he has made a formal protest to the Revolutionists as reported, against their disregard of the principles of civilized warfare in firing upon a town without warning and endangering the Legation building the matter is one of official record that may hereafter be a subject of diplomatic negotiation.

The United States ship Alliance is now on her way to Corinto from Peru. If it should appear that Mr. Baker's person or the safety of the Legation is in danger through the failure of the Seavilla government or of the revolutionists to afford protection, and to ensure respect to our flag, any emergency of that kind would doubtless be followed by the landing of the United States marines upon the shores of Nicaragua, for the second time during the present disturbances, and this time they would probably not be so promptly withdrawn as they were on the other coast.

ENCOUNTERED A SNOW STORM.

Capt. Ryder of the Steamer Berkshire Tells a Remarkable Tale.

PROVIDENCE, R. I., July 27.—Yesterday off the Long Island coast the steamer Berkshire, of the Providence, Norfolk & Baltimore line, encountered a heavy snow storm. Her decks were covered, and the storm was so thick that she was forced to lay-to until it abated. The steamer arrived here a little late in consequence.

Capt. Ryder says it was one of the most remarkable experiences he has had during his long service in these waters.

SIAM IS ASTONISHED

Because France Considered Her Reply as a Refusal.

The King Desires Peace—French Government Decides to Take Possession of More Islands in the Gulf of Siam.

BANGKOK, July 27.—M. Pavie, the French Minister Resident, prior to his departure had a final interview with Devawongee, the Siamese Foreign Minister, who said that his government was astonished that France considered their reply to the French ultimatum as a refusal to comply with its terms.

It was impossible, he said, to accept definitely an indefinite proposal. France had never defined her rights in Annam and Cambodia; but the King, earnestly desiring peace and a settlement of the whole case, had declared himself ready to abandon to Annam and Cambodia all the posts that had been attacked, as well as the territory near them, including Stungtreng and Khong, although these places were admitted to be Siamese.

SAIGON, July 27.—Captain Villers, who is in command of the French forces at Khong, reports that the capture of Fort Donsan by the French produces an excellent impression. The Governor of the island of Khong was killed during the attack, and his death hastened the retreat of the Siamese. The French flag has been hoisted on the island of Roungsalem, which will be made the basis of future operations. The French government has also decided to take possession of other islands in the Gulf of Siam.

Murderer Taylor's Coolness.

AUBURN, N. Y., July 27.—"Haven't you got that chair ready yet? I'm ready to take it now. What's the use of putting it off any longer?" These were the words addressed to Warden Stout by murderer Taylor upon his morning call at the cell for the condemned. Taylor was smiling and spoke in a pleasant tone, having overcome any ill-feeling he may have harbored for the warden hertofore.

Killed by Lightning.

CONEY ISLAND, N. Y., July 27.—During a terrific thunder storm, last evening, a man was struck by lightning and instantly killed and three other persons were seriously injured. The man who was killed is supposed to be a Mr. Loomis, of Brooklyn, and the injured are J. W. Steele, of Allendale, N. J.; a Mrs. Armes, of Coney Island, and an unknown woman.

Nashville Firms Assign.

NASHVILLE, Tenn., July 27.—B. S. Loventhal & Son and M. J. Levy & Son, wholesale whiskey dealers, and Sulzbacher Bros., proprietors of the Hermitage vinegar factory and large produce dealers, made special assignments yesterday. The failures are directly due to the failure of the Louisville Deposit Bank, which is a large creditor of the assignors.

Rich Gold Strike.

COLORADO SPRINGS, Col., July 27.—The best strike ever made in Cripple Creek is reported by the gold mining company which owns the Rhinoceros and Nil Desperandum mines. A vein 22 inches thick has been uncovered 22 feet beneath the surface, from which a sample mill run gave 22,700 ounces gold to the ton.

Charged With Embezzlement.

PATERSON, N. J., July 27.—Julius Cortig, of this city, was arrested here last night on a warrant issued on complaint of William H. Laforge, a furniture dealer, of Elizabeth, on the charge of embezzlement. Laforge alleges that Agent Cortig disposed of household articles throughout the State and failed to make any return.

Buffalo Hotel Closed.

BUFFALO, July 27.—The Hotel Carlton has been closed, as a result of a judgment for $3,000 obtained in the Municipal Court by Landlord James Cairns against Crawford & Platt, the lessees. The hotel's patronage is largely from the theatrical profession.

Foreclosure Sale Postponed.

BALTIMORE, July 27.—The foreclosure sale of the Georgia Southern & Florida railroad, which was to have taken place at Macon, Ga., yesterday, has been postponed until November, when it will probably be bought and operated by the bondholders.

A Bank President Arrested.

DENVER, July 27.—M. J. Lawrence, president of the suspended People's Savings Bank and also president of the People's National Bank, has been arrested on a charge of grand larceny.

The Mill to Shut Down.

LEWISTON, Me., July 27.—Notices have been posted in the Bates mill stating that the mill will shut down Aug. 5 for five weeks. The mill employs 1,800 people, with a monthly payroll of $120,000.

221 LOST THEIR LIVES

Spanish Steamship San Juan Destroyed by Fire.

TWENTY-NINE PEOPLE RESCUED.

Particulars of the Disaster Wanting—The Massacre of the Swedish Missionaries at Sungpu, China—Mandarins Took No Notice of Their Appeal for Help.

SAN FRANCISCO, July 27.—News has been received at Hong Kong that the Spanish steamship San Juan, loaded with kerosene, and which sailed on June 20 for Amoy and Manila Bon, was destroyed by fire.

Out of 250 people on board only twenty-nine were saved.

Advices received here give full particulars of the barbarous massacre of Swedish missionaries which occurred on the first instant at Sungpu, China. The two Swedish missionaries, Rev. Mr. Wikholm, and Rev. Mr. Johansen arrived in Sungpu in April last and were the only missionaries in that town.

They had their Christian servants living with them, and this little household of five people was the only Christian spot in a large town peopled with most ferocious and bitter enemies of Christianity. The efforts of the missionaries and their continued presence in the town inflamed the passions of the people to the highest pitch and kept them from making converts in the stronghold of paganism.

Two weeks ago the Chinese servants heard that their masters were to be murdered on the 18th of July. They told the two foreigners to lose no time in getting out of the town, but apparently the poor men did not think the danger so very pressing, for the only precaution they took was to write a letter to the local officials telling them what was threatened and asking protection, an appeal of which the mandarins took not the slightest notice.

On the day named, the missionaries were not left long in doubt as to the hostile intentions of the towns-people. Early in the morning the house where they lived was surrounded by a howling mob.

The missionaries came to the door, but were greeted with a shower of stones, and beat a hasty retreat inside the house and patiently awaited events.

Stones continued to be thrown almost without intermission, so that by 2 o'clock in the afternoon the windows were all battered in, and the rooms inside no longer afforded safe shelter from the missiles that were rained in through all the apertures.

The unhappy men then made a desperate but futile attempt to escape. Clambering out of one of the upper windows at the back of the house they reached the roof, but as soon as they made their appearance on the top of the house they became a mark for a perfect hail of stones, some of which struck them, cutting them badly.

The poor men dropped down into the street into the midst of wolves in human shape who were thirsting for their blood.

A huge man smashed in the skull of Mr. Wickholm with an axe, and Mr. Johansen was speedily pounded out of human guise by the shower of stones and blocks with bamboo bars that were rained upon him. The bodies were then stripped naked, subjected to needless and revolting mutilation and left lying in the street a prey to the dogs, while the mob went off to complete their work, some to loot and burn the house occupied by the two poor missionaries and others to catch and maltreat the three Christian servants. Happily, however, these men escaped with their lives, and were spared to bring the tragic story to Hankow.

$10,000 Blaze at Perth Amboy.

PERTH AMBOY, N. J., July 27.—William J. Cutter's sawmill and timber yard in this city was entirely destroyed by fire yesterday. The building was set on fire by an employe, who had some difficulty with a cutter in a settlement of wages. The loss will amount to $10,000; no insurance.

Killed by an Electric Car.

SCRANTON, Pa., July 27.—John Edmunds, employed at the Carbondale Traction Company's plant at Mayfield, in attempting to jump upon a moving electric car at Jermyn, was thrown under the wheels and cut to pieces.

Over 50 Registered Letters Stolen Between Portland and New York.

Supposed that the Pouch Was Tampered With by Some One in the Railway Mail Service—No Clue.

NEW YORK, July 27.—The postoffice inspectors of New York State, with the assistance of those along the entire line between this city and Portland, Ore., are working on a most mysterious and extensive mail robbery. Over fifty registered letters were stolen from a pouch sent from the Portland postoffice to New York city.

At the local postoffice very little could be learned of the robbery. Postmaster Dayton is out of town, and First Assistant Postmaster Gilette said that he knew none of the details of the robbery. He only knew that the pouch had been cut between the Pacific coast and this city and that inspectors were looking for the thief or thieves. Supt. James, of the Postoffice Inspectors, is in charge of the case.

The mail is supposed to have been tampered with by some one connected with the railway mail service, for had it been done by an outsider the postoffice people think that less discrimination would have been shown in the selection of the letters.

The pouch was in perfect order and properly sealed when placed in the mail car at Portland, Ore., on the 13th. inst. It contained several hundred registered letters. It arrived at the Grand Central Depot here aboard the fast mail train, and the robbery was not discovered until the pouch was delivered at the postoffice. The value of the contents of the missing letters is not known.

Russia Will Not Take Part.

PARIS, July 27.—The Russian Embassy, in this city denies the reports that Russia intends to despatch cruisers to Toulon to take part in the French naval evolutions that will be held there shortly.

Senator Erwin Withdraws.

WATERTOWN, N. Y., July 27.—An authoritative announcement is made here today of the withdrawal of Senator George Z. Erwin, of Potsdam, as a candidate for the Republican nomination for the Senatorship in the new 22d district, which comprises Jefferson, St. Lawrence and Oswego counties. This practically leaves a clear field for Senator Joseph Mullin, of this city. Senator Erwin's decision is rendered necessary on account of continued ill health.

Jersey City Butcher Fails.

JERSEY CITY, July 27.—John C. Drew, wholesale butcher at Newark avenue and Erie street, who had the contracts for supplying all the Pullman Car restaurants running out of this city has failed. His liabilities are $15,000 and his assets $5,000. He made an assignment to Joseph E. Moore, who will sell all his real and personal property and divide the proceeds among the creditors, who are mostly New York marketmen.

Strikers Return to Work.

NEW HAVEN, July 27.—The striking molders of Sargent & Company returned to work yesterday on a truce. The company would not talk to the men so long as they were not their employes. Mayor Sargent says that business is dull, and that the company would close the department before agreeing to some of the demands of the union.

Switchman and Engineer Dismissed.

BUFFALO, July 27.—The investigation into the causes which led to the wreck of the excursion train at East Aurora a week ago has been concluded and the blame fixed upon the switchman at the turntable and the engineer of the excursion train. Both have been dismissed from the company's employ.

Going Back to Italy.

NEW YORK, July 27.—Steamship agents are at a loss to understand the sudden increase in the number of Italians sailing from this port for Italy. For two weeks past more men of this nationality have sought transportation to their native land than the steamship companies could accommodate.

CLAUS SPRECKLES TALKS

Says the Hawaiian Provisional Government is Doomed.

THE QUEEN MUST BE RESTORED.

Should the United States Refuse to Annex the Islands Trouble Will Ensue, According to the Sugar King—Proposed Treaty of the Provisional Government.

SAN FRANCISCO, July 27.—Claus Spreckles, who arrived from Honolulu yesterday says the Provisional government of Hawaii is doomed. Not a quarter of the people are with them and the concensus of opinion is that the Queen must be restored. The question of government will eventually be put to a popular vote and Liliuokalani will win.

The government does not want a vote taken and is doing everything possible to prevent it. Ex-Minister Stevens and a few missionaries were responsible for the uprising, according to Spreckels and had it not been for them there would have been no trouble.

He thinks Minister Blount is of the opinion that President Cleveland would be doing only what was right by putting Liliuokalani back on the throne. The Queen is in Honolulu and is under no restraint. She is mistress of the situation, should the United States refuse to annex trouble will ensue.

PROPOSED NEW TREATY.

The Provisional Government Have One of Their Own to Submit.

HONOLULU, July 19, via SAN FRANCISCO, July 27.—To-day it is learned positively that the Provisional government's policy and position regarding future treaty relations with the United States are and will continue to be, in brief, as follows:

The treaty matter has been fully discussed in special sessions of the Council lately and the draft of a new treaty has within a few days been returned from the committee, which has been endorsed by the goverment and councils unofficially. The document contains five articles, which are briefly as follows:

Article 1 cedes from the date of the exchange of the ratifications of the treaty, without reserve, all rights of sovereignty in and over the Hawaiian Islands and dependencies to the United States to become an integral part thereof.

Article 2 cedes and transfers the absolute fee of all government and crown lands, public buildings, ports, and harbors, fortifications, military and naval equipments, and all other public property.

Article 3 provides that the existing government of the Hawaiian Islands and the laws relating to their internal policy are to be continued for five years, the same to be executed and carried out under the direction of a United States commissioner appointed by the President and Senate, said commissioner to reside in the Hawaiian Islands, with power to veto within 10 days any act passed by the local government, which shall thereupon become void unless afterwards approved by the President of the United States.

Article 4 prohibits the immigration of Chinese laborers into the Hawaiian Islands until such time as Congress shall provide further legislation.

Article 5 provides that the public debt shall be assumed by the United States, but the Hawaiian Islands shall continue to pay the interest thereon, Congress to provide the future currency of the realm.

The government has decided to include the substance of this new treaty draft in instructions to Commissioner Alexander and Minister Thurston, who will bring the matter before the United States government in the form of suggestions, in case President Cleveland decides to finally withdraw the Harrison treaty of annexation and determines to submit therefor a new treaty or some modification of the old. Prof. W. D. Alexander will carry these instructions with him to Washington on the 25th or 27th inst.

Called Him a Thief.

BUFFALO, July 27.—Fire Commissioner, G. F. Zellor is about to begin proceedings against Henry Breitweiser, a prominent tobacco merchant, for defamation of character. Damages are placed at $100,000. Mr. Zeller alleges that Breitweiser spoke of him as a "thief," and charged that Zeller, while an alderman, had profited by a transaction in connection with a new reservoir.

Protesting Against Net Fishing.

ASBURY PARK, N. J., July 27.—The summer cottagers and hotel guests who find much amusement in hook and line fishing along the New Jersey coast resorts south of Sandy Hook have protested against the innumerable nets that are employed along the coast. A memorial is to be sent to the Fish and Game Commissioners praying them to offer some relief.

Funeral of Gen. William F. Abbett.

JERSEY CITY, July 27.—The funeral of General William F. Abbett was held yesterday afternoon from the house of his father, ex-Governor Abbett. The Rev. George F. Bennett, of Grace Protestant Episcopal church, officiated. Beyond the reading of the Episcopal service for the dead, there was no ceremony, and no eulogy was pronounced.

Cutting Down the Force.

DUNKIRK, N. Y., July 27.—During the past ten days a number of employes of the Brooks Locomotive Works have been laid off because of a lack of work and matters are now assuming serious proportions. During the present week, it is said, between thirty and forty more will be laid off in the blacksmith shops and a proportionate number in other departments.

Death of Charles B. Jordan.

JERSEY CITY, N. J., July 27.—Charles B. Jordan, brother of Assistant United States Treasurer Conrad Jordan, died at his home in this city yesterday from Bright's disease. He was a member of the Jordan Stationery Company of Wall street, New York. He was 45 years old, and leaves a family.

Boy Killed by the Cars.

A Postoffice Burglarized.

NANTASKET, Mass., July 27.—The postoffice at Nantasket was broken into last night, the safe blown open, and between $700 and $800 in money, and stamps stolen, besides some valuable papers.

ON THE CHARGE OF FORGERY.

The Trial of Norton and Ducret Set Down for Aug. 5.

PARIS, July 27.—The trial of M. Norton, charged with forging the documents that were alleged to have been stolen from the British embassy, and of M. Ducret, editor of Cocarde, on the charge of complicity in the forgeries, will take place on Aug. 5.

The documents in question purported to show that certain Frenchmen, high in official and political life, had betrayed to England secrets of state in return for money.

M. Clemenceau was particularly mentioned as one of the offenders.

The documents were recently read in the Chamber of Deputies by M. Millevoye, a Boulanglst, and created an uproar. An investigation soon revealed that the papers were forgeries, and the arrest of Norton and Ducret followed, it being known to everyone interested that they had furnished the documents for use in the Chamber of Deputies.

CHOLERA INFANTUM IN BUFFALO.

The Epidemic Continues to Spread at an Alarming Rate.

BUFFALO, July 27.—The cholera infantum epidemic is spreading in Buffalo to an alarming extent. This morning the health department gave out the statement that 84 deaths were reported from that cause last week.

It still continues to spread in the Polish district on the east side, but physicians say that it is by no means confined to that quarter.

During the week ending July 21 there were 186 deaths from all causes reported. This is an increase of 87 over the corresponding period last year.

FIVE MEN WERE KILLED

Fatal Wreck on the Norfolk and Western Railroad.

Rear End Collision Between a Freight and Passenger Train—A Brakeman and Four Unknown Men the Victims.

WELCH, W. Va., July 27.—Late last night there was a rear end collision between a freight and passenger train on the Norfolk & Western railroad about a mile from this city at a sharp curev in the road.

John Frankman, a brakeman on the passenger train, was under the passenger car when the freight struck it, and he was killed.

Four unknown men, who were beating their way in the first car back of the tender, were also killed.

FED BY THE MISSIONS.

Relieving the Destitution in Denver. Sending Men Eastward.

DENVER, Col., July 27. — Thirty-five hundred hungry people were fed with bread, meat and milk this morning by the Missions. The list of idle men is increasing as the miners come in from the camps.

It had been planned by the unemployed men that one thousand would march to the Governor's office yesterday and demand free transportation East, but they were dissuaded from doing so by the efforts of Revs. Myron Reed and Thomas Uzzel.

A train load of men was shipped Eastward last night.

Storm Damage at Hartford.

HARTFORD, Conn., July 27.—The violent wind and rain storm yesterday demolished a frame dwelling house on Spring street in process of erection. Several barns in West Hartford were blown down and a cow belonging to W. L. Andrews of Elmwood was killed by a stroke of lightning. Trees were uprooted in all parts of the city and vicinity but no one was injured.

Sent to Chicago for Exhibition.

MIDDLETOWN, Conn., July 27.—The big search light made at the Schuyler Electric company's factory here has been shipped to Chicago for exhibition. The light is the largest in the world. The tests made with this light, which is of many million candle power, attracted general attention last week.

Militia Company Celebrates.

SOMERVILLE, N. J., July 27.—The members of Company H, Third Regiment, N. G. S. N. J., celebrated the anniversary of their five years' service for the State last night by a street parade in full dress uniform and a banquet at the Brick hotel.

EARLY INTELLIGENCE.

—Go on the excursion to-morrow and enjoy a great day.

—A great base-ball game will be that of New Brunswick against the Crescents, on the North Plainfield grounds, Saturday.

—A son of pastor Koechli fainted during the meeting in the German Reformed church last night and had to be taken home.

—John Taylor, of Second street, has retained Lawyer DeMeza as counsel in his case against Mr. Parmele, for cruelty to his boy, which comes up August 2.

—Great bargains in second-hand bicycles are to be found at Rogers's, 42 Central avenue. He offers prices and terms to suit all, and is doing a hustling business.

—The will case of J. B. Maynard, which came up at Elizabeth yesterday, was adjourned till September 14. George DeMeza is counsel for Maynard the contestant.

—The members of Company H, 3d Regiment, presented Capt. Cook with a gold-mounted sword yesterday afternoon. About twenty members were mustered out of service.

—Captain Agnes McKenzie, assisted by Miss VanNordon, daughter of the President of the First National Bank of New York, will conduct a special meeting of the Salvation Army to-night. Don't fail to attend.

—At the corner of Plainfield avenue and Fourth street, the Fourth Ward boys will have a 100-yard race, August 3, at 3 p. m. A prize will be offered for whoever wins. Boys under 16 years of age can enter. The entries are free.

—The First Baptists broke two records on their recent excursion. They took the largest number of persons ever conveyed on a Plainfield excursion, and made the quickest time, returning from the Park in an hour and 25 minutes, without a mishap.

—The new model restaurant in Hotel Grenada is already accorded liberal patronage. Miller Bros. have established a restaurant tastefully furnished and fully equipped for the finest service. Choice table d'hote dinner is served at 35 cents, and in the Grenada restaurant your meals will be served in comfort and style.

—The Equitable Life Assurance Society, through their messenger, J. S. Murden, yesterday sent to the widow a check for $1,500 insurance on the life of William L. Force. The insurance was placed through John C. Eisele, Manager, of Newark, and he and the company are to be commended for their speedy and full settlement of the claim.

—Now that old Peace street has been widened, the crosswalks are being relaid to conform to the new sidewalk line, and a new crosswalk spans new Watchung avenue from Love's corner of North avenue. A culvert is being laid from the east side of the avenue at Second street to convey the water from that side to the catch basin of the sewer on the opposite corner.

Mason and Architect at Odds.

The following cases will come up before Judge Coddington, Saturday morning at 9:

John Lynch and John Goodwin for fighting at the North avenue station.

William Smith vs. Blanchard Fosgate, on the charge of using indecent language. This is the result of a quarrel between mason and architect over the question of the quality of brick used in the new fire department headquarters.

"Buck" Day, on complaint of chasing negroes, throwing stones and general disorder.

Saved from Drowning at Papiac.

Mrs. Emma Cox, who went to Papiac, yesterday, with the Women's Relief Corps, narrowly escaped being drowned. She went in bathing, and was suddenly seized with cramps and chills. It took the combined strength of three men to bring her to shore, and it was some time before she recovered sufficiently to walk about.

Successful and Satisfactory.

(From The New Brunswick Home News.)

We are glad to learn that the Chicago tours personally conducted by Mr. Honeyman, formerly of the Somerville Unionist-Gazette, have been very successful and have given the greatest satisfaction to those fortunate enough to have been of the parties. The next tours are announced for August 14 and September 18, and besides excellent company the best of accommodations are promised. Full particulars of these trips may be learned upon application to Mr. A. V. D. Honeyman, Plainfield, N. J.

ARREST OF A SWINDLER.

Turned Out of The Albion, He Forges Orders on D. Appleton & Co., From Jacob Kirkner and Mrs. O. T. Waring.

Robert Pierrot, thirty-two, a well-dressed Frenchman, who has been staying at The Albion, and canvassing Plainfield with a $500 art work, was arraigned in the Tombs Court, New York, yesterday morning, and held by Justice Martin in $500 for trial on a charge of larceny.

Robert D. Baker, manager of D. Appleton & Co., informed the police two days ago that Pierrot had obtained $90 from him by showing an order for a book which sold at $150. The order purported to be signed by Jacob Kirkner, a stock broker, of Eighth street, this city. When the firm's inspector called on Mr. Kirkner he found that the signature was a forgery. The detectives were out on the case Tuesday morning and arrested Pierrot on Broadway near Houston street yesterday afternoon. They identified him by a cloth cap which he wore.

In court he pleaded guilty to petit larceny and Mr. Kirkner will not press the charge of forgery. The prisoner will be tried at Special Sessions on Friday next.

Pierrot was expelled from The Albion and his goods seized, last Friday, for an unpaid board bill. He then disappeared. Tuesday of this week Mrs. O. T. Waring was surprised by a visit from one of Appleton & Co.'s delivery men who unloaded a lot of pictures at her house and demanded the money for them. He showed as his authority an order signed by her. She says it is a forgery.

PLAINFIELD FLOWERS IN THE SLUMS

How a Charitable Girl's Gifts Are Appreciated.

Miss Emma, daughter of Major W. D. W. Miller, of this city, is a very charitable young woman, and sends flowers into the city to be distributed among the poor. Here is a sample of the letters she receives from her good friends in the metropolis:

AUXILARY DEPARTMENT.
THE SALVATION ARMY.
111 READE STREET, NEW YORK CITY.
July 20, 1893.

My Dear Emma:

I am afraid you think I do not mean to thank you for the lovely flowers that came to me. You see I am very busy now, Ensign Marshall is away, and this week my stenographer is sick, so I am trying to do the work of three people.

I wish you could see how delighted our slum workers are to get the flowers. The first ones that came I gave to Captain Turpin. She had finished her house to house visiting for the day, and so as the children were going home from the day nursery she gave them each a bunch. She says she wishes I could have heard the squeals of delight when they saw them. I suppose very few of them ever saw a flower growing. They love them so that they will sometimes keep them for days after they have faded.

To-day I had hardly taken the flowers out of the box and put them into water, when there was a tap at my door. It was Captain Turpin, and she had come to see if I might have some flowers. A little child in an attic room in one of the alleys had died, and the poor mother was grieving that she had n't a flower to put on the tiny coffin. So some of your flowers went to cheer that mother's heart. The rest Captain Purdy, another one of our slum workers, took. She said "They were just what she wanted to take to some sick people whom she was going to visit".

No, I did not forget Mr. Bjorksten. He was at Headquarters when they came, and I told him he was to take his choice, and he took a bunch of pansies. He wanted me to be sure and thank you for them when I wrote.

I must not write any more to-night as it is growing late. Please remember me to all the family, and tell your sister how much we all enjoy the papers she sends from time to time. After we have all here read them, then we mail them to some young people who live away back in the country where they have hardly any reading matter.

May God bless you dear Emma, and help you day by day to continue to do the things that are pleasing to Him.

Very sincerely, your friend,
JENNIE C. NEWCOMB.

THE SISTER FOUND GUILTY.

Katie Reardon Well Avenged for Her Kinswoman's Cruelty.

Johanna Walpole was arrested yesterday afternoon by Constable Mattox on the charge of cruelly beating Katie Reardon, her sister, whose story of abuse was told in these columns yesterday. The hearing of the case occupied three hours of Judge Moore's time last night. Twelve witnesses testified to the woman's abuse of the girl, and the Court adjudged her guilty. Judge Moore said he would pronounce sentence this noon.

The sentence inflicted was $50 fine and costs, or 60 days in jail.

Judge Moore was congratulated on all sides for his admirable handling of the case.

Take Away This Carcass!

For the past few days the neighborhood of Dennis Kilbride's barn on West Fourth street has been made obnoxious by the presence of a dead horse whose carcass has been festering in the hot air and spreading poisonous gases through the atmosphere. The horse belongs to Mathew Kilpatrick, who boarded the animal with Kilbride. The health authorities should certainly interfere and see that the body is removed immediately.

Not Tramps, But Looking for Work.

Policeman Saunders brought three Germans to the station-house last night charged with being tramps. They could not speak English, but finally made the policemen understand that they were looking for work. They were released this morning.

Twenty Years' Experience.

C. D. Fredricks, the well-known photographer, 770 Broadway, New York, says: "I have been using ALLCOCK'S POROUS PLASTERS for 20 years, and found them one of the best of family medicines. Briefly summing up my experience, I say that when placed on the small of the back ALLCOCK'S PLASTERS fill the body with nerve us energy, and thus cure fatigue, brain exhaustion, debility and kidney difficulties. For women and children I have found them invaluable. They never irritate the skin or cause the slightest pain, but cure sore throat, coughs, colds, pains in side, back or chest, indigestion and bowel complaint."

PARTICULAR MENTION.

The Courier says that "Miss Clara M. Harris and son" are visiting here.

Chatham, Mass., is to be the scene of George T. Rogers's August vacation.

Miss Ingram and Miss Ackerman, of North Plainfield, are spending two weeks in Orange.

John F. Wilson has gone to the famous Mountain House, Cresson, Pa., to remain till Sept. 15.

Will Calimus will spend Friday and Saturday angling for the finny tribe in the waters about Hibernia, Morris county.

J. A. Smith, who has been fishing in the waters of Lake Hopatcong, returned this morning. He reports a large catch.

A subscription list has been opened at Hotel Netherwood for a progressive euchre party to be given Monday, July 31.

Mr. Morse, of Newton, Sussex county, spent a few hours with his friend J. V. Berkaw, of West Front street, this morning.

Linn Bleak, only son of Plainfield's leading dry goods merchant, leaves town to-night for two weeks at the World's Fair.

Cornelius Buckley, of Rosendale, N. Y., is visiting his daughter, Mrs. Calvin Sutton, of West Fourth street, for a few weeks.

Miss Lane, of Jersey City, who has been visiting relatives on West Sixth street, returned home yesterday afternoon.

Base-ball kranks welcomed Chic Hofford back to town to-day on a social visit. Hofford intends to open a market in Philadelphia.

John J. Coard and family are enjoying the mountain breezes of Pocono. They make the Mt. Pleasant House their headquarters.

Mrs. M. D. Barnes and Miss Fanny Barnes, of Eighty-fourth street, New York, are visiting Mrs. B. T. Barnes of Norwood avenue.

Warren Stewart is a very happy grandpa. A sturdy young Democrat came to gladden the home of his son George, of Duer street, a few evenings ago. All is prospering in the Stewart household.

Some effort is being made among the guests at Hotel Netherwood to form a riding club and use the rink certain evenings in the week. Several names have already been handed in by those who wish to join.

M. M. Dunham, who is recovering from a long spell of sickness, goes out every day, but does not feel well enough to assume charge of his business at the office. His daughter, Miss Ida Dunham, makes an efficient clerk for him.

The Rev. Mr. Richards and H. B. Newhall will take their families in a chartered car to Lake Placid for a few weeks. Mr. and Mrs. Garigue, of Grace Court, are already there, and Dr. and Mrs. T. S. Davis and children go Saturday.

Last Monday morning the little eleven-year-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Hummel, of Dunellen, died of cholera infantum, and was buried yesterday in the Presbyterian cemetery in North Plainfield. The many friends of the bereaved parents in this city will heartily sympathize with them in their affliction.

George Woodbridge Randolph, ("Pid"), the accommodating and obliging assistant at Maynard's sea-foam shampoo parlors, has just returned from a visit to Saratoga. "Pid" went up via the Troy boat, and had a stateroom which contained electric bells and other luxuries. The trip beat anything "Pid" had ever experienced, and he says he does n't care whether his insurance is not paid this month or the next, either.

The Mother Defends the Boy.

John Edward Taylor, who is the most talked of boy in town, looks just like his mother, and in her has a most valiant defender. Mrs. Taylor emphatically denies that her boy stole more apples Tuesday from the Parmele trees. She says that at the invitation of the New York reporters he went with them to show just where he was tied, and just where he climbed the tree. But she insists that Johnnie is a good and honest boy and never out at night. She says she keeps a straight watch over him, and that he has a father just as good. She adds that Father Smyth and the Sisters of St. Mary's will give him a recommendation at any time for honesty and obedience.

Mrs. Taylor says that had Mr. Parmele brought Johnnie to her, Monday evening, she would have administered proper correction.

Warrants for Both Boys.

Charles L. Parmele has sworn out complaints against John Taylor and William Motley, the two boys whom he detected in his apple tree Monday night. Justice Nash issued warrants, and Constable Amos Moffett visited the parents, who promised to have the boys on hand before Justice Nash at 7:30 this evening.

Found the Hook with His Toe.

John Gallagher, of Dunellen, went fishing yesterday in Green brook. While there he lost a fish hook, and in looking for it stepped on the hook, which penetrated the great toe of his left foot, causing him much pain and some fear of lockjaw. Dr. Nelson, of New Market, extracted the hook from the toe.

Fell from a Roof.

Ernest Wilcox fell from the roof of a new house on Summit avenue yesterday afternoon and was badly bruised. He was taken to Muhlenberg Hospital. He is very sore but in no danger.

Attorney DeMeza Winning.

At Summit yesterday the suit of the Society for the Prevention of Cruelty to Animals vs. Wm. Conklin came up before Judge Kelly, Attorney DeMeza, for the defendant, applied for a non-suit, which was granted.

Read and Reflect.

The great mass of mankind lose their health through inattention to catarrh of the head and throat. This insidious disease was considered incurable until the discovery of the American Catarrh Cure. For sale by L. W. Randolph, 21 West Front street. Price $1.00.

SUN-LIGHT and FRESH AIR are THE BEST DISINFECTANTS, of course; but you can't apply them in every situation. What next? Well, that depends. For damp cellars use Quicklime, plenty of it. For vaults and cesspools use COPPERAS; cheap stuff; we sell it by the pound or hundred-weight—instructions thrown in. For kitchen sinks, for water-closets, for house plumbing, for the sick room, to deodorize discharges, to purify the air and to prevent contagion, use REYNOLDS'S ODORLESS DISINFECTANT. Made and sold for fifteen years at

Reynolds's Pharmacy, Corner Park and North Avenues.

UNTHINKING MOBS.

An Honored Citizen Moralizes on the Disorder of Monday Night.

Are we savages, or are we civilized? If we are savages, let every man take the law into his own hands and depend on the strength of his arm and the deadliness of his aim. If we are civilized, then the good name of our fair city is being trailed in the dust by the proceedings of Monday night.

Every civilized American will say that stealing must be stopped, even if it be but a few unripe apples, and that every person must be protected, even if he be a criminal, against inhuman treatment.

An unthinking mob may cry, Hang him! Crucify him! Lynch him! But justice and an intelligent public sentiment uproot all such lawlessness.

It may be of questionable propriety for a man to tie a thief to a post while going for a policeman, but to seek to put a man's throat for so doing, or to hang him, savors only of savage lawlessness. If we are a civilized people it should be known that a thief by breaking the law exposes himself to punishment, not by the person that catches him, but by the law, and also that no person is justified in taking the law into his own hands except in self-protection.

Suppose savage instincts had prevailed and the threat of cutting a man's throat for tying up a thief had been carried out and murder had resulted from taking a few sour apples: would it not have been a lasting disgrace on our community? Two families of innocent children would have been left without a father's care to the sympathies of a cold world!

Anarchy and disorder stop the wheels of business, throw the laborer out of employment, degrade men lower than the brute, leave children fatherless and mothers widows, array one section or class against another, turn happiness into misery, and fill the world with fear and gloom.

The graveyard stillness of Tuesday night at the scene of Monday's disorder shows that one good lesson has been learned by our citizens, and that every man, woman and child realizes that justice is doing its work and that lawlessness of all kinds must and will be punished.

LEMUEL W. SERRELL.

AS JERSEY PAPERS SEE IT.

Some of Them Don't Understand the Facts, Or They'd Be More Kindly Tempered.

The Parmele case continues to excite the public mind, as evidenced by the following editorials published in out-of-town newspapers:

[From The Elizabeth Herald.

It is to be hoped that Mr. Parmele of Plainfield will be made to pay the penalty of his inhuman barbarity to that little boy whose greatest crime was trespassing on the Parmele grounds. The wretch must have been taking lessons in torturing from the old histories of Torquemada, the Spanish buccaneers, Oliver Cromwell, the Pilgrim Fathers, or the Pennsylvania National Guard officers. It is a pity that (if convicted) his sentence cannot be made to include hanging him up by the thumbs for a few hours. Like might possibly cure like.

[From The Newark Advertiser.

The Plainfield brute who tortured a small boy who had been caught stealing apples almost had a taste of lynch law from the citizens of that intelligent community. The brute tied the boy by his wrists to a beam in the cellar so that the lad's toes just touched the floor. For almost half an hour the boy hung in this perilous and painful position. Then when the news of the outrage spread through the town, a mob collected, and if the brute had been captured he would have suffered some of the cruel torments he devised for the boy. The case will go to the courts and no doubt adequate punishment will be visited upon this fiend who has earned the contempt of all his neighbors.

[From The Newark Evening News.]

There once was a kitty with the refrain of "And they'll hang you for a cherry down in New Jersee-e-e," which became more or less popular, especially outside the limits of the State at which its sarcasm was aimed. This was several years ago, but its memory was revived by the action of an irascible Massachusetts man named Parmley, who at present is a resident of Plainfield, N.J. He seems to have imbibed the sentiment of the ballad, but in his case an apple was substituted for the cherry. The twelve-year-old culprit, Johnnie Taylor, is too young to appreciate the merits of the cherry episode, but is likely to prove excellent authority in the matter of apples, as his experience in being hung up for the larceny of one of Parmley's pippins is likely to remain a green spot in his memory. This self-constituted policeman, judge and executioner narrowly escaped being treated to a dose of Western justice, but to the credit of the Plainfield authorities Judge Lynch was prevented holding a session of his lawless court within the quiet precincts of that pretty town. While the action of the mob was inexcusable, so also was Parmley's treatment of the boy who purloined the apples held so sacred by this descendant of the Puritan Fathers. Even though he had been annoyed by the youngsters who showed such a decided preference for the products of his orepard he had the full protection of the law.

I feel it my duty to say a few words in regard to Ely's Cream Balm, and I do so entirely without solicitation. I have used it more or less half a year, and have found it to be most admirable. I have suffered from catarrh of the worst kind ever since I was a little boy and I never hoped for cure, but Cream Balm seems to do even that. Many of my acquaintances have used it with excellent results. Oscar Ostrum, 45 Warren ave., Chicago, Ill.

J. B. DUMONT'S SUSPENSION.

Universal Regret in His Business and Social World.

The suspension of John B. Dumont, ex-President of the Plainfield Common Council, and an esteemed resident of East Seventh street, was a great surprise to his fellow brokers, as his conservatism was well-know. It appears, however, that he was carrying some Evansville and Terre Haute stock for a client who failed to respond to calls for margin, and when the price broke in consequence of the failure of H. I. Nicholas & Co., he was compelled to suspend. Mr. Dumont has been engaged in business in Wall street for many years. For a long time he was a member of the firm of Jessup, Paton & Co., and after that he was Vice-President of the Chicago, Milwaukee and St. Paul Railroad. He is a member of the Stock Exchange of long standing and active in its management, being one of its Governors. His suspension caused as deep regret as that of H. I. Nicholas & Co. He made an assignment to Mason W. Tyler, of Park avenue, Plainfield. No securities were closed out for his account at the Stock Exchange, and it is believed that he has very few contracts outstanding.

Mr. Dumont was a stock broker at 40 Wall street. He was carrying the same line of stocks and a number of his customers were the same as Nicholas & Co's, who failed just previously. Heman Clark, who resigned as a director of the Evansville and Terre Haute, formerly had a desk in his office. Mr. Clark is of the firm of O'Brien & Clark, the aqueduct contractors who have a big suit for extra work against the city of New York.

Mr. Dumont is now a member of the Governing Committee of the Stock Exchange, and has been a member of the Exchange since May 1, 1879. His liabilities are estimated at $250,000, and his assets are nominally valued at about the same amount. His assignee said that he could not obtain money and did not make up his mind to suspend until an hour before notice was sent to the Stock Exchange. Mr. Dumont made no preferences except $100 for office salaries.

GUESSING AGAIN.

Although Mr. Martine Says He Won't Run for Sheriff, Republican Papers Speculate on His Candidacy—Here's One Admits He'd Be a Strong One.

(Elizabeth Journal.)

Although it is early in the season, and the hot wave is present, the Democratic political leaders are not idle. It may not, perhaps, be said that they have fixed up the whole Democratic slate, but on the other hand it may be said that the most important places on it have been filled.

Unless the slate is broken Senator Marsh will be renominated for Senator, and Mr. James E. Martine of Plainfield will be named for Sheriff.

This condition of affairs may be said to have been brought about, if current reports are correct, by Mr. Martine. It will be remembered that the Plainfield gentleman was a very strong candidate before the Congressional convention which nominated Hon. John T. Dunn. After that convention Mr. Martine made as earnest a fight for Mr. Dunn's election as if he had himself been the candidate, and thus earned the respect and consideration of his party. Since then efforts have been made to obtain Mr. Martine's consent to head the Democratic ticket as candidate for State Senator, but it is not the office he desires and he has emphatically and, apparently, conclusively decided that under no conditions would he accept that nomination.

The general opinion has been that Mr. Martine desired, as the height of his political ambition, to occupy a seat in Congress, and that he would accept nothing short of that. But it seems likely now that a legitimate opportunity to run for this high office is, according to Democratic party usages, a remote honor, or Mr. Dunn will be entitled to a second nomination, and possibly a third if he shall prove a successful Congressman and increases his popularity with his party.

Mr. Martine, therefore, seems to have decided not to let intervening time pass without harvesting political honors, and, what is quite as essential, a few American shekels at the same time. None of the offices which have heretofore been offered Mr. Martine has been at all remunerative. But the sheriff's office is a good paying one, and its emoluments would be acceptable to Mr. Martine, as indeed they would to any honorable gentleman in this county. Mr. Martine has, therefore, if reports are correct, declared himself as a candidate for this office.

It was announced recently, in an editorial in a Democratic exchange, that Mr. Martine would be a strong candidate for Senator because he had neither fought for nor against the race tracks. It may be possible that this will be his attitude if he shall receive the Democratic nomination. At all events there is likely to be abundant opportunity for a warm but not vindictive struggle should Mr. Martine be the Democratic candidate, and the Republicans will need to put up a strong, clean candidate.

Picturesque Route to the Fair.

No other line offers the variety of scenic interest between New York and Chicago that is enjoyed by World's Fair tourists via the Baltimore and Ohio Railroad. Passing through Philadelphia, Baltimore, Washington, the capital of the nation, and by way of Harper's Ferry and the historic Potomac Valley to the Allegheny mountains, which are crossed at an elevation of 3,000 feet above the sea, the traveler sees the arena of the activity of the nation as well as the principal historical features and scenic wonders of the East. Low rates. 26-w & s-3w

I have been a sufferer from catarrh for twenty years. I found immediate relief in the use of Ely's Cream Balm. Since using it I have not suffered a moment from headache, sore throat or loss of sleep, from which I previously suffered, caused by catarrh. I consider your Balm a valuable remedy. E. G. Vassar, 56 Warren st., New York.

Ely's Cream Balm is worth its weight in gold as a cure for catarrh. One bottle cured me. S. A. Lovell, Franklin, Pa.

POINTS ABOUT YACHTS.

The Prince of Wales' Britannia Not a Success.

Although Built at Great Expense and with Remarkable Care the Valkyrie Beat Her Easily — The Yachts Compared.

It rather looks as if the prince of Wales' yacht will not do. Dunraven's Valkyrie is certainly her superior, and the Valkyrie is not allowed by the critics to have any too good an American's cup chance.

The Britannia's appearance under canvas was rather imposing, her bold fore body suggesting considerable power, while her long after end gave quite a graceful appearance to the hull. She floats to submerge about four feet of her counter, which fact accounts for the supposition that she was the shorter load water-line boat. Both her main boom and her load line are eighteen inches to two feet in excess of the Valkyrie, and the Fairlie designed boat will come in between them, but on account of her smaller sail plan will rate lower down a bit and have an allowance.

A Scottish critic says of the new yachts: "The Valkyrie without doubt is the most out and out thoroughbred racing craft of the new Scotch creations. I cannot say that I fancy it for appearance as much as I do the Calluna, but, taking it all in all, it is the vessel of the three which strikes one of that combination of power, speed and rakishness which suggests the successful racing cutter. It has a finely-drawn-out forebody, terminating in an overhang which looks like a cross between the Calluna and the Britannia. It has a lower side than the latter, and especially abaft the mast its freeboard gets beautifully less and terminates in a counter where there will be no more weight carried than is necessary for getting an after overhaul sufficient for immersion. It is not sawed off, of course, but the counter is near the water and is a nice study, a sort of V-shaped stern.

"Fair on, and looking at the Valkyrie from aft, she is at once recognizable as the narrowest and deepest of the three boats. She is more in accord with her own type of boat than the other two, and in consequence, to the eye, seems more in touch with what we have hitherto recognized as the proper sort of thing. Popular public opinion, however, still favors the Fairlie boat.

"I must, however, state that in the Valkyrie America has a good boat, a clever skipper and a strong combination to meet. It was thought on this side that the Valkyrie would hold back in the initial races, but both Capt. Cranfield and those in authority have assured me that their desire is to try hard edge right off with the other boats on the Thames, and this accounts for his towing all the way to the south.

"Like the Britannia, the Valkyrie has her head sails set in the ordinary Scotch fashion, without any Americanism in the way of standing sharp so far as the jib is concerned. The forestay of both vessels leads down to about the bitts, and a good deal of boat protrudes it. Unlike the Britannia, the Valkyrie, on account of her smaller beam, has channels, which supply the necessary spread for the shrouds, and these latter are of the skeleton order. The main shrouds are the same in both boats."

The Thirteen Superstition.

It is said this strange superstition extends away back to the time of King Arthur. When the good British king founded the famous Round Table he requested Merlin, the enchanter, to arrange the seats. Merlin arranged one set of seats to represent the apostles; twelve were for the faithful adherents of Jesus Christ and the thirteenth for the traitor Judas. The first were never occupied save by the knights distinguished for their achievements, and when a death occurred among them the seat remained vacant until a knight surpassing him in heroic and warlike attainments should be considered worthy to fill the place. If an unworthy knight sought the vacant chair he was repelled by some magic power. The thirteenth seat was never occupied but once. The story goes that a haughty and insolent Saracen knight sat down upon it and was immediately swallowed up by the earth. Ever after it was known as the "perilous seat," and, brave as the celebrated knights of the Round Table are said to have been, not one ever had the courage to sit on the thirteenth chair, and the superstition against it still survives.

A Kentucky Girl's Ideal.

Here is a Kentucky girl's picture of the ideal man who would make a good husband: "If I wished to marry—which of course I do not—I would desire a man too noble to commit a mean act, but generous enough to forgive one. A man as gentle as a woman, as manly as a man; one who does not talk scandal nor tells disagreeable truths; a man whose name I would be proud to bear, to whom I would carry my doubts and perplexities, and with whom I would find sympathy and joy."

When Baby was sick, we gave her Castoria.
When she was a Child, she cried for Castoria.
When she became Miss, she clung to Castoria.
When she had Children, she gave them Castoria.

One of my children had a very bad discharge from her nose. Two physicians prescribed, but without benefit. We tried Ely's Cream Balm, and much to our surprise, there was a marked improvement. We continued using the Balm and in a short time the discharge was cured.—O. A. Cary, Corning, N. Y.

THE DUKE OF ARGYLL.

His Grace Has a Good Opinion of His Own Accomplishments.

His grace of Argyll is a wit among dukes in the old-fashioned sense of a degraded word. He is the only duke who can write, and except the duke of Devonshire the only duke who can speak. He never forgets that he is a duke, nor, indeed, do any of his natural or acquired advantages ever for a moment escape from the range of his conscious admiration, says a British critic. It was his ancestor that Burns described as "My lord, their god, his grace." It was to him that Lord Rosebery applied the phrase, "the portentous political pedagogue." Highly blessed and endowed as he is, the duke lacks one thing. He has not the most elementary sense of humor, and that is perhaps the only characteristic which he has succeeded in bequeathing to the marquis of Lorne. As an article the duke of Argyll despises states men and men of science, such as Mr Darwin and Mr. Gladstone. As a man of science and letters he despises the illiterate aristocracy. His self-admiration is undisturbed by the shadow of a doubt in his own absolute infallibility. He has lately told the world that he always hated the whigs, although he condescended to accept office from Lord Palmerston. His political ideal is the younger Pitt. Pitt entered public life as a whig, and never disclaimed the title of a party whose principles he claimed to represent better than Fox. But the duke of Argyll thinks little more favorably of the free traders than of the whigs. He regards himself as almost the only consistent free trader who ever lived, while Cobden and Bright and Charles Villiers were only plausible impostors. Ricardo knew no more about political economy than Darwin knew about natural history, and Mr. Gladstone's conceptions of politics are fundamentally erroneous.

THE DUKE OF ARGYLL.

QUEEN MARGHERITA.

No Longer Young, But a Handsome Woman Nevertheless.

Here is the latest portrait of Queen Margherita, of Italy, one which is a little more faithful to its original as she is to-day than the other portraits published within the past month of her silver wedding. It may be as well to acknowledge that the good queen is no longer a young beauty; but she remains a handsome woman, with an expression of intelligence and kindliness which more than makes up for the loss of youthful bloom.

No sovereign in Europe is more beloved by her subjects. When she drives along the Corso, her carriage drawn by richly caparisoned horses and accompanied by picturesque outriders, the geniality of her presence is communicated to the crowd; you will find a cordial expression on the face of every one, from the flower girl to the lounger before the Cafe Nazionale, as they join in a respectful salutation. It is a matter of regret that the popular affection is not so universally extended to the king. The majority is with him, and could not well be otherwise with the ever-growing antagonism to the idea of a papacy with temporal power. In the cafes the allusions to him made by singers are enthusiastically greeted, and he is welcomed when he, too, appears on the streets in his carriage. But it must be added that he rarely rides with his wife. Political animosities smoulder, but are not easily quenched, and a recent visitor to Rome was informed that the cause of the queen's habit of riding without the king was the latter's fear that some fanatic's attempt upon his life might include her in its possibly disastrous results.

The Greatest Gold Finds.

Australia has yielded much larger masses of gold than any other country. A commissioner of the Denver Mining exposition of 1882 states that the largest piece of gold ever obtained was Byer & Haltman's nugget, which was taken from a depth of 250 feet at Hill End, New South Wales, on May 10, 1872. It weighed 640 pounds, was 4½ feet in height and was valued at $148,000. Welcome Stranger nugget was found on Mount Mollegel, February 9, 1858, weighed 190 pounds and was worth $45,600. Welcome nugget, found at Bakery Hill June 9, 1858, weighed 1845 pounds and was worth $44,356; and Oates & Delson nugget, taken from Donnelly gold field in 1880, weighed 189 pounds and sold for $50,000. A considerable number of other nuggets exceeded in size the largest recorded from California.

The American Catarrh Cure

is the result of twenty-six years' study and treatment of the disease. One bottle convinces the most skeptical. It is always ready for use, needing neither douche nor atomizer. It restores the hearing, cures the hawking cough and expectorating, removes the headache and nose bleeding, increases the appetite, produces sound sleep, invigorates the whole system and increases the vitality. Prepared only by W. B. Jones, M. D., No. 1336 South Eighth street, Philadelphia. For sale by J. W. Randolph, 21 West Front street. Price 25.

The children's health must not be neglected. Cold in the head causes catarrh. Ely's Cream Balm cures at once. It is perfectly safe and is easily applied into the nostrils. The worst cases yielding to it. Price 50c.

The Mote in the Eye.

"I never knew a man so set against anything as he is against cigarettes."

"Who is?"

"Melton. He can't see a man smoking one without making some insulting remark. He says they are disgusting."

"Melton Melton? O, yes, I think I recall him now. He is a big, fat fellow, isn't he?"

"Yes."

"Chews tobacco, smells of onions, and eats with his knife?"

"That's the man."—Life.

An Unnecessary Coinage.

Washington society last winter knew a very self-sufficient bachelor who was a congressman. In certain lines he was smart enough, but generally speaking he needed about twice as much sense as he usually displayed. One evening he was talking to a sharp girl.

"I tell you what it is," he said, "I shall introduce a bill for the coinage of half-cents."

"Why are you going to do it?" she asked, innocently. "That's what you have already."—Detroit Free Press.

Too Honest to Get Married.

A story is told of a young man who was recently married to the daughter of a wealthy merchant. The groom didn't have a penny, but he was honest. He was so honest that he wouldn't even prevaricate in the marriage ceremony.

"With all my world's goods I thee endow," read the minister.

"With all thy worldly goods I me endow," repeated the groom.

A Misunderstanding.

"Confound it!" exclaimed Jackson. "What a stupid fellow that jeweler is!"

"How so?" inquired his friend.

"Why, I told him the other day that I wanted engraved in the engagement ring the letters 'From A to Z—from Arthur to Zenobia, you know—and the idiot went to work and put in the whole alphabet!"—Harper's Bazar.

Enterprise.

Dentist—Will you take gas, sir?

Patient—I think I'd better.

Dentist (to clerk)—Henry, make out a life and accident policy for this gentleman—no extra charge, sir—you see, competition is keen these days—what's the name, please—and we have to offer extra inducements to hold our trade; all ready now, sir.—Puck.

A Left-Hander.

Little Miss De Style—I think you is real—real thoughtful and considerate.

Little Miss De Fashion—Does you? Why?

Little Miss De Style—'Cause you didn't invite me to your party. I s'pose you knew we was awful exclusive.

PUBLIC SALE OF REAL ESTATE.

HAD A SLUGGING BEE

Wild Scenes Last Night in the House of Commons

CHAMBERLAIN TERMED A "JUDAS"

The Conservatives Would Not Quit the House For a Division Until the Epithet Had Been Taken Back, and this Precipitated a Free Fight—Peace and Good Humor Finally Restored, and the Home Rule Bill Passed the Committee Stage.

LONDON, July 28.—On the Government programme 10 o'clock last evening was the hour set for the closure of the debate in committee on the Home Rule bill. The parts of the bill left over for the discussions of the last week and for divisions last evening were the new financial clauses, the schedules and the preamble. The galleries of the House were filled with persons expectant of an exciting scene at the close of the committee's labors.

The debate was without incident until 9:45, or just fifteen minutes before the closure was to be applied.

HON. JOSEPH CHAMBERLAIN.

Then Joseph Chamberlain rose to deliver the final broadside of the opposition. He was still smarting under the lash which Mr. Gladstone swung on Tuesday evening, and spoke with corresponding bitterness. After a few sorcastic and biting words as to the conduct of the Ministers, he began giving his opinion of the closure as applied by the government.

He said the members were about to witness the last scene in a discreditable farce. The debate on the financial clauses had been a mere sham. The bill had been changed in its most vital features; still no debate was regard as necessary, since, whatever was altered, the bill was always found perfect by the adherents of the prime minister.

Jeers from the Irish, cheers from the Unionists and counter-cheers from the Liberals interrupted Mr. Chamberlain at this point. He waited two or three minutes before the confusion abated sufficiently for him to speak without effort. He then proceeded thus:

"The prime minister calls 'black,' and his adherent say it is good. The prime minister calls 'white,' and they say it is better. (Unionist laughter.) It is always the voice of Gods. Never since the time of Herod has there been ——".

Mr. Chamberlain got no further. Immediately after resuming his speech he had been warned from the Irish benches that a storm was gathering. He could hardly have expected the suddenness with which it broke, for with his half-finished reference to Herod, there came from the Nationalists such a roar of indignation as has not been heard in the House since the days of Parnell.

Mr. Chamberlain was plainly startled, but he tried to talk on. His voice was inaudible to the members on the next bench. He turned towards the Nationalists and shrill yells of execration rose above the uproar. T. P. O'Connor sprang to his feet, and, leaning toward Mr. Chamberlain, shouted "Judas" so loudly that the epithet could be heard throughout the House.

The rest of the Irishmen took up the cry, and for half a minute shouted "Judas" in chorus. Meantime the clock struck 10.

Chairman Mellor tried to put the closure, but his voice could not be heard amid the shouts of the Irish and the Unionists.

Then came a scene unprecedented in parliamentary history. Mr. Mellor gave in a weak voice the customary directions to clear the House for a division. As the disorder subsided preparations were made to execute these directions. The Conservatives flatly refused to quit the House. Vicary Gibbs, Gibson Bowles and William Hanbury shouted to the Chairman that he must first call Mr. O'Connor to order for having called Mr. Chamberlain names. Mr. Mellor protested that he had not heard the epithets in question. Nobody told him what Mr. O'Connor had said, so he sat helpless and unenlightened before the House. Gibbs, Bowles and Hanbury got together, and, to make themselves heard, shouted in chorus at Mr. Mellor: "will you direct that those words be taken down?"

Lord Randolph Churchill and Sir Edward Clarke got hold of Mr. Gibbs and started him for the front bench that he might elucidate the cause of the row to Mr. Mellor, who was making strenuous but vain efforts to learn what the grievance of the Tory trio was.

Mr. Gibbs tried to go forward, but in the general jostling and shouting he was pushed about and so confused that he gave up his purpose and Mr. Mellor remained uninformed.

Somebody smashed Tim Healy's high hat down over his eyes. Healy tore off the hat and sprang into the aisle in full fighting posture.

A free fight then broke out at the top of the gangway. The centre of it was William Redmond, Parnellite, who had taken advantage of the general license to push over Col. Saunderson, the champion of the men of Ulster. Saunderson was rescued and led an attack on the Parnellites.

Blows were struck right and left. Members fell and were picked up by their friends to fight again. The whole space between the front benches was filled with a struggling, cursing mass of members, striking, clawing and upsetting each other.

Both sergeants-at-arms forced their way through the thick of the fight, but as fast as one group was pacified another came to blows. Eventually Mr. Gladstone begged Edward Marjoribanks, a sturdy Liberal, to do something to stop the fighting. Mr. Marjoribanks dug his way through the tangled mass of belligerents and by repeated appeals in the name of the Premier succeeded in stemming the conflict.

After explanations Mr. O'Connor humbly apologized to the Speaker "if any words of his had contributed to bring about this most regrettable state of affairs." The Speaker said the apology was most ample, that the House could expect no more.

Mr. Mellor then resumed the chair and the new clause was adopted by a vote of 312 to 291.

As another clause, which had not been discussed, was to be put to vote, somebody challenged Mr. Balfour to read it. In an undertone Mr. Balfour said "No, no, don't have it read." The clause was carried by a vote of 321 to 288. The two other financial clauses were carried without divisions.

The motion that the first schedule stand a part of the bill was carried by a vote of 310 to 279. The second schedule was carried by 290 to 278 amid loud opposition cheers. The rest of the schedules were adopted without noteworthy incidents.

When the committee rose and Chairman Mellor reported to Speaker Peel, presiding over the House, the Home Rule bill as amended in committee, cheer after cheer was given, and hats were waved for Mr. Gladstone by the Liberals and Irish, who were answered by the Unionists with counter cheers. The report stage was fixed for August 7.

A STRING OF FAILURES.

Several Banks in the West Forced to Suspend Yesterday.

Many Other Institutions Go Down—A Summary of Bank Failures Shows that 301 Suspended From May 1 to July 22.

BALTIMORE, July 28.—A summary of the bank failures from May 1 to July 22 inclusive shows that 301 banking institutions with a capital of $38,951,033 suspended.

The Manufacturers' Record publishes a complete list of the closed banks by States, also a table which shows that five-sixths of the failures and four-fifths of the capital involved were in the Western and Pacific States, while 10 per cent. of the failures and 11 per cent. of the capital involved were in the South.

In Colorado alone the capital involved was nearly $2,000,000 greater than the aggregate capital of all the banks that failed in the South.

The number of failures in the Southern States was 37, involving $4,392,000; in the Western and Pacific States the number was 251, involving $31,258,933; and in the Eastern and Northern States 13, with $12,600,000 capital.

Tube Company Suspends.

HARRISBURG, Pa., July 28.—The American Tube and Iron Company, located at Middletown, has gone into the hands of a receiver. The Company has no mortgages, judgments or bonded indebtedness against it, but could not raise funds owing to the stringency of the money market. It is one of the largest concerns of the kind in the country.

Cotton Mills Shut Down.

CINCINNATI, July 28.—The Deer Creek cotton mills on Fifth street and Eggleston avenue, and a belting factory at Linn and Canal streets, controlled by the Henry Pearce Sons' Company, have shut down indefinitely, throwing 500 hands out of employment. Dull trade is the cause given.

Receiver for a Dental Company.

WILMINGTON, Del., July 28.—A receiver has been appointed for the Wilmington Dental Manufacturing Company of this city. The company is perfectly solvent. Its liabilities are about $200,000, and its assets $615,000.

Philadelphia Lumberman Assigns.

PHILADELPHIA, July 28.—S. H. Morrison, an extensive lumber merchant, has suspended business and asked for an extension of time from his creditors. His liabilities are said to be $100,000.

Rolling Mills Shut Down.

HAMMOND, Ind., July 28. — The East Chicago Rolling mill has shut down, and in consequence of this a large force of men and boys are thrown out of employment. Reports of failure cannot be verified.

Leslie & Co., of Cincinnati Fail.

CINCINNATI, July 28.—Robert Leslie & Co., real estate dealers, assigned yesterday. The assets are $120,000; liabilities $68,000. Lack of ready capital is the cause.

Portage Wis., Bank Suspends.

PORTAGE, Wis., July 28.—The City Bank closed its doors yesterday. The suspension is due to the condition of the money market.

The new Farmers' bank of Mount Sterling, Ky., closed its doors yesterday.

Two banks failed yesterday in Helena, Mont., two in Spokane, Wash., and two in Portland, Ore.

The American Waltham Watch company, of Waltham, Mass., will start up Aug. 7, with but half of its usual force.

Noted Ecclesiastic Dead.

SOUTH BEND, Ind., July 28.—The very Rev. Alzis Granger, First Vice President of Notre Dame University, died Wednesday night, aged 76. Father Granger was connected with Notre Dame University for fifty years and for many years he was the Provincial General of the Order of the Holy Cross in America.

Narrow Escape from the Flames.

NEW YORK, July 28.—A fire started in the basement of the five-story brick tenement house, No. 183 Clinton street yesterday afternoon and burned out the interior of the house before it could be subdued. Several stories of narrow escapes from being hemmed in by smoke and flames were related.

New Hampshire Farm Crops.

CONCORD, N. H., July 28.—Hon. N. J. Batchelder, secretary of the State Board of Agriculture, in a bulletin, says that the condition of the farm crops in New Hampshire, on the whole, is satisfactory and they promise to equal, if not exceed, those of previous years.

FRANCE GIVES NOTICE

The Blockade of the Siamese Coast Begins To-morrow.

WARNING TO OUTGOING VESSELS

Believed that the French Will Attack Bangkok Early in August—Last Effort of the Siamese Government in the Interests of Peace.

BANGKOK, July 28.—Notice has been given of the blockade by the French fleet and outgoing vessels have been warned that they must clear from Bangkok and Koh-si-Chang before to-morrow or submit to detention. The blockade will extend along the entire north coast of the Gulf of Siam.

The French fleet with M. Pavie, French Minister Resident, have gone to Koh-si-Chang.

The general expectation is that early in August the French fleet will attack Bangkok and land some 5,000 men. There is little doubt here that France's purpose is to make Siam a French colony.

The Siamese government is exceedingly anxious to avoid open warfare. When the gunboat Lutin was at the Menam bar yesterday the Foreign Minister sent to M. Pavie a note to the effect that the King and his advisers were most anxious to maintain peace. All such efforts, however, are believed by the English residents to be vain.

Unless England intervene to assist in a settlement of the dispute there can be little expectation or even hope that France will refrain from extreme measures.

China Will Interfere.

LONDON, July 28.—The Pekin correspondent of the Standard says: "Whilst China is not likely to attempt to enforce her suzerain rights so long as the scene of conflict shall be limited to the Menam and the lower Mekong, I can state positively on the highest authority that she is fully determined to uphold her dominion on the upper Mekong. If France encroaches above latitude 21 degrees she will find China in her path."

Have They Compromised?

LONDON July 28.—The Standard's Paris correspondent says: "I gather that M. Develle and Lord Dufferin have agreed to a compromise on the frontier question. The newspapers have no inkling of this and are as aggressive as ever."

KILLED BY NITRO GLYCERINE.

Man, Horses and Wagon Blown Into Fragments.

PITTSBURG, July 28.—M. S. Van Buren and two brothers yesterday went to their magazine near Samples Station on the Pittsburg & Western Railway to get a load of nitro glycerine for the purpose of shooting an oil well. The dangerous fluid was being transferred to a wagon to which three horses were attached.

A considerable quantity had been placed on the wagon when in some manner which will probably never be explained, the glycerine exploded. The terrific concussion shook the surrounding buildings violently. People near the scene were thrown about in every direction.

The only portion of M. S. Van Buren's body yet found is part of a leg. Small shreds of flesh were scattered all about. The three horses were also blown to fragments, while only a few small pieces of the wagon remain.

Van Buren was 22 years of age and unmarried. The escape of his brothers, who was near by, was miraculous.

A BORDEN SENSATION.

Lizzie Visits the Jail, and a Story Spreads That She Had Surrendered.

TAUNTON, Mass., July 28.—The story was given out from the Taunton Evening Gazette office yesterday that Lizzie Borden was in Taunton jail, where she had come and voluntarily surrendered herself to Sheriff Wright.

Much excitement was occasioned by the report.

It was subsequently ascertained that Lizzie was in the jail, sure enough, but that she was there merely to make a friendly call on Mrs. Wright, wife of the sheriff, who was very kind to her during her imprisonment.

Always Something.

Mamma—What are you fuming over now, Herbert?

Herbert—This jack-knife.

Mamma—You annoyed me almost to death to buy it for you, and, now that you have it, you still worry me with it. What's the matter with it, anyhow?

Herbert—Nothing; only I can't open it.—Harper's Young People.

AN ITALIAN TRAGEDY.

Marie Spozzoto Fatally Shoots Her Traducer at Orange, N. J.

ORANGE, N. J., July 27.—Marie Spozzoto, a young married Italian woman yesterday fatally shot Nicolaus Serranati, a workman employed on a sewer. Serranati had been paying his attentions to Mrs. Spozzoto, and the latter's husband, hearing of it, had beaten his wife.

Mrs. Spozzoto learned that Serranati had boasted of his intimacy with her. She took a revolver and proceeded to the sewer where Serranati was working. To her demand for an explanation he returned an evasive answer and the woman, drawing her revolver, fired, the ball striking Serranati in the left side below the rib and passing nearly through the abdominal region.

Mrs. Spozzoto attempted to fire again, but the pistol was knocked out of her hand by another laborer. She was then arrested.

Serranati is still alive, but the physicians say his death is only a question of a few hours. Mrs. Spozzoto was committed to the county jail without bail. She is 22 years old and the mother of a child. Serranati was 30 years of age.

In Favor of Cigarette Dealers.

CINCINNATI, July 20.—Judge Wilson has issued an order, the effect of which is that cigarette dealers may continue selling their wares after Aug. 1 without putting up the special tax, until further order of the court. The wholesale and retail dealers combined to test the law.

Ice Houses Burned.

WALTHAM, Mass., July 28.—The Swift Beef Company's ice houses on the Charles river at Roberts were burned yesterday. Loss, $6,000. Cause, probably incendiary.

THE CASE REOPENED.

Justice Fuller's Decision in Sunday Fair Opening Cause.

The Decree of the Lower Court Reversed and the Case Remanded for Further Proceedings.

CHICAGO, July 28.—Chief Justice Fuller has decided the case of the World's Columbian Exposition against the United States of America, in the Circuit Court of Appeals, by reversing the decree of the lower court and remanding the cause for further proceedings.

In the United States Circuit Court Judges Woods and Jenkins had granted a preliminary injunction closing the Fair on Sundays. Judge Grosscup, dissenting, delivered an opinion favoring the opening of the Fair.

The order leaves both sides free from any legal ties. Application can now be made by the government to the Circuit Court for a permanent injunction and a final hearing can be had.

From the decision then rendered another appeal could be taken. These proceedings would occupy considerable time, and it is probable that the Fair would be closed long before the end was reached.

SUICIDE OF A CASHIER.

E. S. Francis, of the Pittsfield National Bank, Kills Himself.

PITTSFIELD, Mass., July 28.—Cashier E. S. Francis shot himself in his room at the Maplewood hotel yesterday at 10:30 a. m. He used a 38-calibre revolver, the muzzle of which he placed directly in front of his right ear, and the bullet passed through the brain in an upward diagonal direction, coming out on the other side and lodging in a music stand near by.

In his capacity as cashier of the Pittsfield National Bank, Mr. Francis did many things which provoked the directors. Two weeks ago last Sunday the directors held a private meeting and the cashier was called in and forced to answer a good many questions. The directors met at the bank the following morning and unanimously voted to take the management of the bank from Mr. Francis' hands and put affairs in charge of President Andrew J. Waterman.

The three following days the bank was subjected to a rigid examination by the directors, assisted by State Examiner Gatchell, and on Thursday everything was pronounced in good condition.

Francis had domestic troubles and a legal separation was recently arranged between himself and wife.

ROME, July 27.—Premier Giolotti said in a newspaper interview yesterday: "None of the States in the Latin Union has expressed any intention to leave the union and I do not believe any of them will do so."

Lloyd Aspinwall Discharged.

NEW YORK, July 28.—The complaint of forgery against Lloyd Aspinwall was dismissed by Justice Koch at the Yorkville Police Court yesterday, and Aspinwall was discharged from custody.

Family Ties.

A foreign exchange brings us the story of a rather vulgar personage, only a few months a marquis, who managed to get himself invited to a court ball. The new-fledged marquis could not contain himself for joy, and exhaled proud satisfaction at every pore.

Casting an Olympian glance around the room he chanced to spy among the ladies the tall, angular figure of an elderly matron with pressed lips as though afraid of wasting her breath, and as lean as a lath.

"Who is that nanny-goat?" said the noble lord to a gentleman standing beside him.

With a knowing smile came the reply:

"That nanny-goat is the ambassadress of S——, the mother of the kid who is giving her his arm, and the wife of the old buck who has the honor of speaking with your excellency."

THE AUBURN BUNGLE

What Electrician Davis Says of the Taylor Execution.

SAYS THE STATE IS AT FAULT

The Dynamos Are Too Small, and Are Subjected to Too Great a Strain—The Doctors Agreed that Taylor Was Insensible to Pain After the First Contact.

AUBURN, N. Y., July 28.—Now since the electrocution of Kemmler, three years ago, has any execution of the death penalty caused such widespread sensation as the double electrocution of William G. Taylor, in the death chamber of Auburn prison yesterday. When the witnesses had been liberated after two hours enforced confinement they began relating the harrowing scenes they had observed and soon the entire city was discussing the failure of the State's executioner.

Just as the current of 1,700 volts was turned on, the foot rest of the chair broke and the dynamo gave out so that a second current could not be applied. The murderer was not dead from the first contact and soon began breathing heavily. He was unstrapped and taken from the chair and placed on a cot and conveyed back to his corridor where he continued breathing and groaning with pulse growing stronger. It was soon decided to obtain power from the city's electric plant and then to replace the poor wretch in the chair and electrocute him.

Physicians say he was unconscious after the first contact of over 1,700 volts. His condition was analogous to that of a man stricken with apoplexy. Morphine was freely administered, and while the prison officials were hurrying around to get the connection made with the city electric wires, the doctors were laboring with the unconscious man. They had a peculiar task before them; this was to keep the wretch alive until the chair was again ready for him and to keep him from regaining consciousness.

The connection was soon made with the city electric light dynamo, and Taylor, limp and helpless and breathing heavily, was carried to the chair and soon the current from the city dynamos was shot through his body. The second attempt proved successful.

The first electrocution took place at 12:46 and the second at 1:53. The autopsy followed at 3:30 and was conducted by Drs. Brown, Wright and Mooney. The body was not marked and did not differ in appearance from any of the other victims of the chair who had suffered but a single electrocution.

The physicians' certificate stated that Taylor's muscular development was very marked. There was an absence of rigor mortis. Brain, heart, lungs and kidneys normal. Upon being asked the question all of the physicians agreed that Taylor was insensible to pain after the first contact.

Electrician Davis was asked to explain the failure of the dynamo. He replied that it was simply the burning out of the armature, something that could not be foreseen and yet was likely to happen to any dynamo. He would say however, that all of the State's dynamos were crowded beyond their capacity at electrocutions. They were small dynamos not intended to generate more than a thousand volts ordinarily but they were repeatedly run up to nearly twice the voltage.

Before the execution 1,720 volts were attained and nearly that number was registered when the chair broke. "Why didn't it kill him outright?" was the next question. He thought the giving way of the foot rest might have impaired the contact with the electrode on the head and Taylor could not have received the full force of the current for more than an instant. In some cases two or three shocks are given before death ensued. He considered it very fortunate that the officials emerged from the difficulty as well as they did.

Warden Stout is considerably disturbed by the mishap. He did not feel that he was blameworthy in the least for the failure of the electrical appliances for they were in exclusive charge of the State's electrician, who had pronounced everything all right.

Taylor's remains were buried in the prison graveyard last evening, first receiving a covering of quicklime as provided by law.

Taylor's Crime.

Taylor's victim was Solomon Johnson, and both were second term men in Auburn prison, Taylor serving a term for burglary and Johnson for assault. On the afternoon of September 20, 1892, Taylor told one of the keepers that he had killed a man in the broom factory and that his body would be found there.

This was the first intimation that the prison people had of any trouble. When Johnson's body was discovered it was found that his throat had been cut, his head being nearly severed from his body. When Taylor was asked his motive he replied: "I've got tired of staying in prison all the time, and I'd rather take a dose of electricity and end it."

Receiver for Endowment Orders.

BOSTON, July 28.—Justice Barker has appointed Henry A. Wyman receiver of the following named endowment orders: American Friendly Society, American Mutual Relief Association, National Fraternal and Beneficial Union, and the Order of Franklin. James Milligan of Everett was appointed receiver for the Abraham Lincoln Benefit Association at the request of the certificate holders.

Cholera Morbus, Not Cholera.

PHILADELPHIA, July 28.—Dr. Benjamin Lee, Secretary of the State Board of Health, sent Medical Inspector Atkinson to Chester to investigate the death of the Austrian workman, who died there Wednesday from what was reported to be cholera. Dr. Atkinson made a thorough investigation of the cause and found that the man died from aggravated cholera morbus.

Death of Major Horace Strong.

NEW HAVEN, Conn., July 28.—Major Horace H. Strong, one of the best known residents of this city, died at his home in Fair Havre yesterday, at the age of 61. He was senior member of the firm of Strong, Barnes & Bart, wholesale meat dealers, and was for several years commandant of the Second Company, Governor's Horse Guards.

Excitement Over the Denver Lynching.

DENVER, Col., July 28.—The city is still in a high state of excitement as a result of Wednesday's lynching. Mayor Vanhorn has issued a proclamation asking people not to congregate in the streets and to participate in no acts tending to create excitement.

ALL ARE ACQUITTED.

Verdict of Court Martial to Inquire Into the Victoria Disaster.

The Court Sorry That Markham Obeyed the Fatal Order, Yet Decides That He Cannot Be Blamed.

VALETTA, Malta, July 28.—The verdict of the court martial to inquire into the Victoria disaster is that the accident was entirely due to the order given by Vice-Admiral Tryon. Not only Capt. Bourke, but all the other survivors were acquitted of all blame.

Capt. Bourke's sword was returned to him by Vice-Admiral Sir Michael Culme-Seymore, commander-in-chief of the Mediterranean Squadron and president of the court, amid general congratulations.

The court expressed regret that Rear-Admiral Markham, who on the day of the disaster was on the Camperdown in command of the port column, did not carry out his original intention and ignore the signal displayed by the Victoria, in attempting to obey which the Camperdown rammed and sank the Victoria.

The court added, however, that it would be fatal to the best interests of the service to say that he was to blame for carrying out the directions of the commander-in-chief, who was present in person.

Yesterday Capt. Bourke began to read his defense. He reviewed the evidence in detail, paying most particular attention to the testimony that had been given in regard to the responsibility for the disaster.

He said that the question was whether he, with Vice-Admiral Tryon beside him on the chart house of the Victoria, ought to have acted independently. The court alone could answer this question.

He could not say what he should have done if Vice-Admiral Tryon had not been there, but his feeling was that he should have taken more strenuous action at an earlier period of the manœuvre without the sanction of the vice-admiral, and informed him of what he had done.

Capt. Bourke paid a most eloquent tribute to the behavior of everybody on the Victoria, especially to the young officers who had been cut off at the opening of their careers. He concluded by expressing the deep grief of all the survivors at the loss of Vice-Admiral Tryon.

Special Agent Swinsfore's Report.

GUTHRIE, O. T., July 28.—Special Agent Swinsfore has gone to Washington to report on the Cherokee Strip. He will recommend that the four western counties that have been laid off be combined into two, as about half the land in the western end of the Strip is wholly unfit for human habitation and in the extreme western county there is not enough agricultural lands to support a hundred people. The eastern half he reports as the finest of farming land. His work is all done now and there is nothing to prevent the land being opened August 20 or thereabouts.

Dr. Meyer to be Tried Soon.

NEW YORK, July 28.—When Dr. Meyer, the alleged poisoner of Ludwig Baum, entered his plea last Thursday on the charge of murder brought against him, he was given one week in which to file a demurrer or withdraw the plea. The time has expired, and as Meyer was not brought into court his plea stands and the preparations for the trial will go on.

To Be Confirmed as Judges.

WORLD'S FAIR GROUNDS, July 28.—At the National Commission meeting yesterday the board of lady managers sent in the following to be confirmed as judges: Mrs. R. S. Wallace, Oregon, horticulture; Mrs. A. M. Edwards, Nebraska, agriculture.

NEWS OF THE DAY.

The Maharajah of Kapurthala and his suite are in Boston.

Secretary of War Daniel S. Lamont arrived at Sorrento, Me., yesterday.

The annual reunion of the Nourse Monument association was held yesterday at Danvers, Mass.

Dr. George Fischer, of Rochester, N. Y., committed suicide yesterday by drinking an ounce of hydrate of chloral.

Rev. O. D. Taylor, manager of the Interstate Investment company at The Dalles, Ore., has been arrested on the charge of embezzlement.

The coroner has decided that Maud Mc. Kibben, aged 17, of St. Louis, was responsible for the death by poisoning of her father and sister, and she will be arrested.

The grand lodge of the Knights of Pythias at yesterday's session in Elmira, N. Y., voted to create four new districts in the State making 66 in all with the same number of deputies.

Two more suits were begun yesterday in the United States Circuit Court at New York by the Edison Electric Illuminating Company, of New York, for infringement of the Edison incandescent lamp patent.

The gentleman of leisure came around this morning dressed in his best and took the joke good naturedly. He does n't drink, but his recollection is not of the best.

FANWOOD FIREMEN TEST.

One of the Residents Dissatisfied with Chief Stevens's Refusal.

The Fanwood Fire Department was out last night for a drill and to test the hydrants. Water was found at all points, but in limited quantity. On Quality Hill, about 300 feet east of Mr. Briggs's residence, a trial was made through fifty feet of hose and an inch and three-eighths nozzle. The stream thrown, as estimated by Frank Guereau, was sixty feet. The foreman, J. P. Stevens, was asked to extend the hose to test its practicability in case of a fire at Mr. Briggs's, or a distance equivalent to it from the hydrant. The foreman refused, stating that he thought water delivered through that length of pipe would be thrown nearly as far as through a fifty-foot length. "Very funny," remarked one of the residents, who immediately arranged to increase his insurance.

The Kind of Promises He Makes.

About ten days ago the editor of the Courier, according to the race officials, said he would give a silver water pitcher as a prize for the bicycle race of August 19. One having the race in charge went to the editor recently to see about it, and was met with absolute refusal. The editor said that he would give a year's subscription to his paper instead, which was declined.

One Boy Too Small, the Other Held.

The two boys whom C. L. Parmele caught stealing apples were up before Justice Nash last evening. Young Motley, who is only about 6 years old, was discharged on account of his youth. He was the boy who got away when Mr. Parmele approached. The other boy, John Taylor, who was tied up in the cellar, was held in $50 bail for appearance before the Grand Jury in October.

The children's health must not be neglected. Cold in the head causes catarrh. Ely's Cream Balm cures at once. It is perfectly safe and is easily applied into the nostrils. The worst cases yielding to it. Price 50c.

FELL WHILE HANGING CLOTHES.

Minnie Kiely's Leg Fractured by a Fall of 15 Feet.

Minnie Kiely, a young woman in the employ of J. A. Blatz, at his hotel on Somerset street, was standing on a rear extension of the house this morning, hanging clothes on a line which was fastened to the house and thence to a pole in the yard.

Wishing to tighten the line, she began to pull, standing as she was near the edge of the roof, with her back turned toward the ground.

At an unexpected moment, while pulling the line, it broke, throwing her to the ground, a distance of about fifteen feet. In some manner she came down on her feet, with full force. The result was a fracture of her left leg near the ankle.

She was taken into the house by one of Mr. Blatz's men, and Dr. Carman, who was called, set the broken member.

It was a most painful accident, and Miss Kiely suffers intensely and will be crippled for weeks.

PARTICULAR MENTION.

Daniel Nolan, of Yonkers, is in Plainfield to-day.

Miss E. C. Smith, formerly milliner for Lederer, has gone to Saratoga for a visit.

Miss Minnie Ammerman, of Madison, is visiting Mr. and Mrs. David King, on Craig place.

Mrs. Edward Schenck, of Grandview avenue, is visiting her father, Dr. Bibbie, at Harlingen.

Miss S. Louise Wood has returned from four weeks of pleasure at the Carlton House, Belmar.

Miss Ethel King, of Craig place, North Plainfield, returned home yesterday, after a visit to Madison.

Miss Minnie Wyckoff, of 678 West Front street, is visiting friends in Flemington and Three Bridges.

Misses May and Mattie Rourke, of Brooklyn, are visiting their cousins, the Misses Jacot, of Somerset street.

Joseph Angerbauer, jr., accompanied by his sister, Frances, has gone to spend a few days with relatives at Maspeth, L. I.

Mr. and Mrs. Wilbur Chamberlain, Miss Grace Chamberlain, and George Chamberlain, all of Jersey City, are visiting Constable Amos Moffett.

Counselor W. K. McClure counts his vacation from to-day till Sept. 1. The first part will be spent on the St. Lawrence in the neighborhood of Montreal, fishing.

Consul James A. Demarest and Mrs. Demarest left to-day for his post at Brockville, Ont. They were accompanied by Mrs. F. A. Pope and son, who will spend August there.

C. Lyons, A. Lyons, A. Smalley, W. Heideloff and I. Lyons have returned from a few days outing at Lake Hopatcong. They had great fishing, and W. Heideloff caught a bass weighing 6 lbs.

Dr. C. B. Barnes, pastor of the First M. E. church, has joined the procession. Two weeks ago he knew nothing about cycling, but now is an expert wheelman. He will buy cycles for his daughters also.

Collector H. N. Spencer of the borough is spending the day on his brother-in-law's farm in Washington Valley. He is watching the Canada thistles grow, and is also looking about for gray squirrels' nests.

The last games in the inter-club tournament will be played in Jersey City to-morrow afternoon. The Hillside Club will be represented by Albert Simmonds and Fred Walz. The Jersey City courts are on the corner of Highland and Glenwood avenue, and are reached by the electric cars from the Pennsylvania station. A large delegation of tennis enthusiasts will follow the team to-morrow.

No Bridge, So They Swam.

Dr. Herbert took a trip yesterday the other side of the Passaic river, to get a horse for Lewis Coddington. He had some trouble in finding the animal, and in returning was obliged to ford the river horseback. When half way across, the animal became fast in the mud, and it was sometime before horse and rider got out of their predicament. The doctor, meanwhile, got thoroughly soaked.

Ho for the Carnival.

The Crescent Wheelmen will take a run to-morrow night, starting from their rooms on North avenue. They will go to Cranford, and "take in" the water carnival that is to be given on the lake.

A number of the Crescent bicyclists went to Cranford, Wednesday, under the impression that the carnival was to take place that night. They had a fine run, however, and will turn out in full force to-morrow night.

Of Course It Wasn't the Lyceum Captain.

W. J. Kiely, formerly a clerk in Harper's store on Park avenue, wishes it understood that he is not the one accused of theft by the Plainfield Athletic Club.

The man in question works elsewhere, and his initials are W. E.

Mr. Kiely has received several letters from persons asking if he was the one accused, and in justice to himself wishes this statement made.

The Shoe on the Other Foot.

In yesterday's issue it was made to appear under the city court notes, that Blanchard Fosgate was a defendant in that court, on complaint of William Smith, for using indecent language. It transpires that Mr. Fosgate is not the defendant, but the complainant, who charges Mr. Smith with using indecent and abusive language.

The Delights of Paplac.

It is a pleasant drive to Boynton Beach. To-morrow you can hear the famous colored University Singers that delighted you last season. Sunday afternoon Mr. and Mrs. Yoder will render sacred music, vocal and instrumental, in the pavilion.

One of my children had a very bad discharge from her nose. Two physicians prescribed, but without benefit. We tried Ely's Cream Balm, and much to our surprise, there was a marked improvement. We continued using the Balm and in a short time the discharge was cured.—O. A. Cary, Corning, N. Y.

MUSICALE AT THE WATCHUNG CLUB

Its Success Encourages Fanwood's Swells to Have a Minstrel Show and Circus.

Tuesday evening last was the occasion of the first Musicale given by the members. All the talent was supplied by the residents of Fanwood and other friends. The following artists volunteered their services: Miss TenBroeck and Miss Nicoll, pianists; Mr. Whitaker, tenor; Miss Cameron, soprano; Mr. Cameron, basso; G. Herbert Potter, violinist, and Miss Searles, Miss Dixon and Mrs. Cameron, accompanists.

The Musicale was a tremendous success, all the artists being compelled to respond to encores. Mr. Cameron's superb songs were more than heartily received and the musical rendition of all the members was of a high class of art.

The success of this adventure into classical fields was a complete surprise, and a repetition or reproduction of the Musicale is expected at an early date. The hall was well filled, every available seat being occupied. Among those present were noticed the following: Mrs Gibbs, Mrs. E. D. Warren, Mrs. G. C. Miller, Mrs. G. F. Hamlin, Mrs. F. I. Perry, Mrs. Darke, Mrs. L. J. Briggs, Mrs. Leigh, Mrs. George Bates, Miss Bates, Miss Tuzo, the Misses Kyte, Mrs. Cameron, Mrs. Douglas, the Misses Boucher, Miss Lazell, Miss Stevens, Mrs. Nicoll, Mrs. Kleb, Mrs. McKown, Mrs. Ellis, Mrs. Hoffman, and the following gentlemen: Messrs. Warren, Gibbs, Urner, Miller, Stevens, Kyte, Briggs, Lightowler, Holly, Beeken, Darke, Ellis, McKown, Nicoll, Tuzo, Cameron, Hamlin, Leigh and Robinson.

Dancing and supper followed. These entertainments of the Watchung club are meeting with great success, and it is proposed at an early date to give a dramatic entertainment, and that is to be followed by a minstrel show and circus. Fanwood indeed is leading in all these novel enterprises and bids fair soon to eclipse its neighboring boroughs.

SALVATION ARMY GLORIES.

Eloquent Appeal for the Sinner to Forsake His Ways.

The Plainfield Salvation Army Corps had a grand rest last night. They were visited by the famous specials, Capt. McKenzie and Miss Van Norden, whom all Salvationists and friends know and love. Miss VanNorden is the daughter of the President of the First National Bank of New York. It was march night, and Miss VanNorden joined in it and was glad of the privilege, and the curiosity of many was gratified when they saw her in the march in uniform. The meeting was well attended. Spiritually all had a good time, and financial matters were not overlooked, for quite a good collection resulted. Capt McKenzie took charge, and said she wished sharp-shooting testimonies, and some were given. The Captain was full of Salvation Army fire, and her earnest and tender words brought tears to many eyes, and especially when attending to the sufferings and trials she had passed through for the Saviour she loved. The Captain appealed with much earnestness to the sinner "to accept the blessed Saviour, but found it hard to reach Gospel-hardened and self-righteous Plainfield". The Captain and Miss VanNorden were listened to with rapt attention. The people seemed eager to catch every word that fell from their lips. The seed has been sown, and it will not "return to them void". May God bless these dear ones, workers in the Master's vineyard, and in the day of final account may they find that last night's efforts were not in vain.

AUXILIARY MEMBER.

CAROLINE VAIL AT REST.

The Living Learn Lessons from the Uprightness of Her Righteous Life.

The funeral of Mrs. Caroline H. Vail, widow of the late Hugh W. Vail, took place at the Hicksite Friends' meeting-house on Watchung avenue yesterday afternoon at 2:30. The quaint old building was filled with friends of the deceased, and all listened reverently to the words of praise and exhortation that were uttered by those who were moved to speak. John Spotwell, of Asbury Park, dwelt on the importance of following the promptings of one's conscience in all things and the inevitable consequences of doing what was wrong. Friend Elizabeth Thistlethwaite also spoke in exhortation, and the friends went by the casket for the last time and out into the graveyard, where the body of the good old Quakeress whom so many loved was laid at rest.

KILLED BY LIGHTNING.

The Coney Island Victim Proves to Be Fred Green's Brother-in-Law.

Fred Green of this city called at Coney Island police headquarters yesterday and said that the man killed by lightning while dressing at Gebhard's bathing pavilion in Wednesday's storm was Edward Loomis, his brother-in-law, who lived at 19 Canton street, Brooklyn. He will take charge of the funeral. The two men who were injured were J. W. Steele of Allendale, N. J., and Charles Ames, who are clerks in the Appraisers' Stores, New York.

The Doctress Will Speak.

Dr. Ella P. Swiney, who has been at the head of the Seventh-Day Baptist medical missions, including an excellent hospital, for the past ten years, will speak in the Seventh-Day Baptist church in this city at 10:30 to-morrow morning. All persons interested in foreign missionary work, and especially in medical work, and its advantages in reaching Chinese families of the higher classes, are cordially invited to hear the speaker. She has treated many thousands of patients, and is able to speak from extended personal experience.

Read and Reflect.

The great mass of mankind lose their health through inattention to catarrh of the head and throat. This insidious disease was considered incurable until the discovery of the American Catarrh Cure. For sale by L. W. Randolph, 21 West Front street. Price $1.00.

SUN-LIGHT and FRESH AIR are THE BEST DISINFECTANTS, of course; but you can't apply them in every situation. What next? Well, that depends. For damp cellars use Quicklime, plenty of it. For vaults and cesspools use COPPERAS; cheap stuff; we sell it by the pound or hundred-weight—instructions thrown in. For kitchen sinks, for water-closets, for house plumbing, for the sick room, to deodorize discharges, to purify the air and to prevent contagion, use REYNOLDS'S ODORLESS DISINFECTANT. Made and sold for fifteen years at Reynolds' Pharmacy, Corner Park and North Avenues.

Just What The Press said.

[From The Dunellen Gall.]

The folly of tale bearing and listening to tales unsupported, was demonstrated in Plainfield on Monday, when a body of men 1,500 strong became inflamed and incited to riot over a story that had been told concerning a man's attempt to defend his own property. If matters not whether the man acted unwisely or not in the matter, his intentions being to see that the law was enforced. The point of this article is the supreme folly of men in listening to a one-sided story as started by one person, boy or man, and allowing themselves to be led into saying or doing things that in their calmer moments they will be ashamed of.

WESTFIELD WARBLINGS.

The Lively Little Town Wants a Fire-Alarm System Like Plainfield's.

Committeeman Wells will not return from his vacation until August 15. During that time Mr. Conant will look after the road work in his district.

The funeral of Adolph Gauswick was held yesterday afternoon and was largely attended by members of the Royal Arcanum, of which he was a member. The funeral of Samuel Elliott, who was a member of Fireside Council, will be held to-day.

John J. Collins and Miss Grace Gabrielle were married Tuesday evening by the Rev. Mr. Parvin at the residence of the bride's parents, at Rahway. The wedding was private. Mr. and Mrs. Collins will spend the honeymoon at Asbury Park and then take up their permanent residence in Westfield.

A representative of the National Light and Construction Company appeared before the Westfield Town Committee at their last meeting and explained the nature of the franchise they wished. John J. Lane, of Summit, explained the merits of the Gamewell fire-alarm system. Several complaints concerning the condition of sidewalks were received and filed. At their next meeting the Town Counsel is to present an opinion as to the right of the Union Water Company to open streets in extending the mains from Netherwood. The matter of police patrol was brought up, and as there was an unexpended balance from last year, no appropriation was made. Judge Collins was directed to order patrolling when he deemed it necessary.

FANWOOD NOTES.

Interesting News of Our Suburban Friends.

The fire on Saturday evening in Fanwood is causing much talk as to its origin.

Wright Babcock and family have returned from their two weeks' outing in the mountains.

Mr. and Mrs. Simpson have returned to their handsome home from a month's vacation at Hopatcong.

Every Saturday afternoon is Ladies' day at Watchung Club. Tennis, bowling, quoits, base-ball and ice-cream find ready devotees.

Harry Robinson is making for himself a splendid reputation in the way he is backing up the newly-elected foreman of the fire company.

Will Cameron, the celebrated banjo singer of Brooklyn, is stopping at the "Homestead" and is a leading spirit in all outdoor sports.

Among the incorporators of the new Box Manufacturing Company of the T. B. Clark Company are noted the names of the following residents of Fanwood: Geo. C. Miller and A. D. Beeken.

Mr. Bayler and his friend Mr. Spring spend most of their time driving to Summit and Morristown. Both being single gentlemen, the knowing ones are looking for surprises at an early date.

Why don't the Board of Engineers of the Fire Department formulate some rules for its government? It is two years since they even attempted or thought of doing it. Jersey methods are sometimes slow.

Circus Lemonade for the Hay-Field Hands.

S. D. Winter completed Dr. Ripley's haying Friday, in the short time of three weeks, working from 3 a. m. to 9 p. m., with half Westfield's laborers to help him, and cutting nearly 150 acres.

The Doctor appreciated it—says the Westfield Leader—and he had the whole force to lunch under the black walnut,—Italians, Danes, Irishmen, George Clark, the colored orator, of Spring street, and all.

There was a big cedar tub full of lemonade, Frankfurts, black bread, cake and fruits,—and they all ate well.

N. E. Day presided at the tub. He is the turtle man, and, by the way, he has found another turtle, which J. E. Baker marked in 1840. Turtles live to a great age, and so does Day. He will have his pets at the Centennial next year, and when he tells all about them he may narrate that at the Haying Fete he had the Baker critter in his pocket.

The Clever Landman to Pitch.

The batting order of the New Brunswicks for to-morrow's game will be as follows: Creamer, 2b; Francis, c; Eagan, 3b; Landman, p; Cox, lf; Gerrity, ss; Kinney, 1b; Howley, rf; Greenwald, cf.

I feel it my duty to say a few words in regard to Ely's Cream Balm, and I do so entirely without solicitation. I have used it more or less half a year, and have found it to be most admirable. I have suffered from catarrh of the worst kind, ever since I was a little boy and I never hoped for cure; but Cream Balm seems to do even that. Many of my acquaintances have used it with excellent results. Oscar Ostrum, 45 Warren Ave., Chicago, Ill.

THE SHOOT AT BENNER'S.

Mr. Morfey Blushed When He Missed His Third Bird.

Yesterday afternoon a series of matches at live birds took place at John Benner's road-house, Fanwood.

The first team match resulted in Capt. Apgar's team winning by the score of 61 out of a possible 75, against the team captained by "Dutchy" Smith scoring 58.

The last was a sweepstakes, free for all, five birds each. Mr. Morfey announced that he would kill five birds straight, and was in great glee over his previous successes. When he missed his third bird the men on the benches, as one man, started in on the refrain "We've all been there before, many a time" and Mr. Morfey blushed.

"Uncle" Jacob Pentz did nobly as referee, and held the stakes in all matches, and as usual not a question was raised as to his decisions, the winners quietly pocketing the stakes, while the losers smiled grimly.

Those present were: John Rothacker, of Philadelphia; Dan Terry, Neif Apgar and Charles Smith, of Plainfield; James Force and John D. Voorhees, of Bound Brook; Al. Heritage, of Jersey City; Thos. W. Morfey, of Paterson; Aaron Woodruff, of Elizabeth; Capt. A. W. Money, of the American E. C. Powder Co., Oakland; Henry Schultz and Wm. Laire, of Brooklyn; Gus. Frecke, of Newark; and Milton F. Lindsley, representing the American Wood Powder Co., of Hoboken.

Major J. M. Taylor, of The American Field, acted as scorer, and Jacob Pentz as referee, and were assisted by Thos. Brantingham, puller, and Warren Squire attendant, and trap boys Sidney Frazee and Oscar Smith.

A clam-bake prepared by Henry Benner materially assisted the participants in the shooting, but more particularly was it enjoyed by their guests until sundown, when all dispersed after voting Benner a good host and exhausting his entire rookery.

GOING FOR THAT MOB.

Editor McBride Stamps It an Outrageous Proceeding.

(Elizabeth Journal.)

Is a mob ever right? No: for every mob is unlawful. Is it ever on the right side of any question? Very, very, very rarely. A mob is not raised for the purpose of discovering what is right; its object and purpose is revenge for some wrong, real or fancied. The mob in Plainfield a few nights since, is in point. A lot of hot-headed, indiscreet men were inflamed by a story of brutality. They did n't seek to learn if the story was true; they probably did n't care whether it was true or false after they had swallowed whatever was told them and had allowed themselves to become inflamed and bloodthirsty. They plunged, headforemost, toward an infinitely worse wrong than the one they sought to avenge. A street Arab, one of those pestiferous young thieves that infest every city, had been caught stealing fruit from a man's garden. The man had tied him safely in his cellar while he went for an officer. The boy naturally yelled and made a great ado, and the story went abroad that the boy had been hung up by his arms or thumbs till his feet could scarcely touch the floor, and that he was nearly dead from the agony. The mob did n't wait to see if this was true, they were going to hang the man, and possibly they would have been to-day guilty of murder if they had had their own way. The boy was n't even hurt; he was n't treated any more harshly than such young and pestiferous thieves richly deserve. But the mob, as usual, believed what pleased them and cared not a rap for the truth. This, at least, is the way the whole matter appears at this distance.

YOU CAN'T KEEP RIPLEY DOWN.

Here He Is Bobbing up Serenely for Supreme Court Justice.

(Westfield Leader.)

In its last issue the Summit Record says:—"Since the death of Justice Bradley, New Jersey has had no representative in the Supreme Court of the United States.

"If the President desires to secure a successor to the late Justice Blatchford who will reflect credit on the bench, as well as on the President by whom he is appointed, Union County can supply such a jurist."

This is very true, and the man is a Westfield citizen, Dr. Chauncey B. Ripley. His is a name which, when mentioned as a candidate for Governor in the last campaign, was warmly received. Eminent in legal profession, prominent in social progress, Democratic in his taste, public spirited in act and endeavor, and a man of mark as a citizen, a scholar, and a Democrat, he stands for all that is demanded as a Justice of the Supreme Court, and will magnify the place. If Mr. Cleveland seeks a man who will please the people of the Union, let him nominate one who will please the people of New Jersey.

Ticked When Washington Was Here.

Wm. Fitz Randolph—says the Dunellen Call—is the owner of a clock which formerly was the property of his great-grandfather, Edward Fitz Randolph (of whom it is recorded that he was Washington's guide on his first trip to Washington Rock). Edward F. Randolph had the clock made by a clockmaker who lived in what is known now as Westfield. It was made more than a century ago and is a good timekeeper and apparently in as good condition as ever it has been. The present owner has been offered large sums for it by lovers of antique things but hitherto has refused all such offers.

Westfield Follows Fanwood.

The following from the N. Y. World shows the appreciation of the reform inaugurated by the Fanwood Township Committee to suppress the tramp nuisance:

WESTFIELD DOES N'T WANT TRAMPS.

The township authorities of Westfield have issued orders to arrest all tramps found within the township limits. They have become a nuisance in Westfield, and in several instances have terrorized the inhabitants. They have been driven out of Fanwood by a proclamation posted in the village.

HOW THE GAMES WERE WON.

Plainfield Ball Players Made a Brilliant Record Along the Hudson.

The Poughkeepsie papers speak in high terms of the Plainfield Crescents for their two victories in that town this week, and give the following scores:

The Poughkeepsie News-Press says:

The Crescents are a gentlemanly team of ball players, and the jolly, good humor that prevailed throughout the game is far preferable to the ungentlemanly remarks made by the Cuban Giants. They will undoubtedly play here again next month, when they will have a chance to try hard luck.

The Crescents concluded their Hudson River games yesterday by beating Fishkill 20 to 10.

BYEN COLORED CHAMPION.

He Was First Man In, and Made Best Actual Time.

The colored wheelmen are still talking about their great 25-mile handicap road race held yesterday afternoon. The starting point was Scott's Press Works, and the course was up South avenue through Fanwood and Scotch Plains, down Front street to Richmond street, to South avenue again. The colored population was out in full force, to cheer the favorite riders and join in the frolic.

There were ten entries, as follows: J. Venable, L. Jones, B. Harvey, J. Scott, J. Boldin and Charles Vanderveer, of Plainfield; H. Byen and C. Jackson, of Newark; M. Hooper, of Franklin Park, N. J., and L. W. Tallman, of Rahway.

The prizes were three silver medals, one to the first man in, one for the best time made, and one for the second man in.

Below will be found the official schedule of the men who finished, and their order:

	Handicap Minutes	Start	Finish	Actual Time
1.—H. Byen		2:33 1-2	4:16 3-4	1:23 1-4
2.—J. Scott		2:54 1-2	4:22 1-2	1:28
3.—C. Vanderveer	scratch	2:50 1-2	4:23 3-4	1:24 1-4
4.—J. Bolden		2:54 1-2	4:25 2-3	1:31 1-6
5.—I. Jones		2:53 1-2	4:27 1-2	1:34
6.—C. Jackson		2:54 1-2	4:28 3-4	1:34 1-4

It will be seen by this table that Byen gets two medals and J. Scott one.

All during the race considerable excitement prevailed. People ran over one another in the crowd, women got their toes trampled upon, bicycles were damaged, and one or two of the contestants took several headers, recovered themselves, and continued their journey.

There is some talk of contesting the race, as it is claimed the winner had a pacemaker.

Nathan Titsworth had charge of the affair, Dick Stevens was timer, and William Kiely served as both judge and scorer.

I have been a sufferer from catarrh for twenty years. I found immediate relief in the use of Ely's Cream Balm. Since using it I have not suffered a moment from headache, sore throat or loss of sleep, from which I previously suffered, caused by catarrh. I consider your Balm a valuable remedy. R. G. CITIZENS AROUSED.

Dunellen's School Board Accused of Star Chamber Methods.

TO THE EDITOR OF THE PRESS:—A number of the citizens of Dunellen have endeavored to have the Trustees of the Public School meet in order that a petition very numerously signed by leading citizens for the retention of Mr. Johnson as principal might be presented to the Board. After some difficulty and delay, a meeting was finally announced for Thursday evening of last week. The Rev. A. I. Martine, who is Clerk of the Board, interviewed the President before 6 o'clock on the following morning, though he had to walk a long way to do it, and for some reason unknown to the public the meeting for Thursday evening was set aside indefinitely. This caused dissatisfaction, augmented by the fact that a meeting duly announced for the previous Tuesday evening did not take place. Consequently, a citizens' meeting was called, and the Rev. A. I. Martine being the only member of the Board present, the petition was publicly handed to him, which he accepted after a vain attempt at genuine bulldozing on his part, certainly very unbecoming a minister. A meeting of the Board was again asked for, to have the petition considered, and to present another part of this same petition which was not then at hand. Later a meeting was announced for Tuesday evening of this week, to be held in the Call office at 8:30 p. m. The meeting was called at just about 8:05 p. m., and adjourned at 8:30 p. m., the very time announced for it to begin. Persons who wished to be present, and whom it certainly was expected by the Board would be present, arrived as early as 8:33 p. m., but the office was not lighted, and no Trustee was about. Much indignation was felt, and freely expressed since; as the citizens have been practically ignored. They expect to have this matter adjusted. If the Rev. A. I. Martine has a propensity for dictating to the Board and for thwarting the wishes of the people, would it not be for the interests of the people and greatly for his own good to resign his trusteeship?

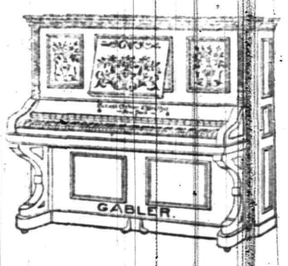
As We Were Saying



The purchase of a musical instrument is an important step. You don't buy a Piano for to-morrow, or day after, but for a long term of years. Saving on the price at the expense of the quality is about as foolish a thing as can well be thought of. We have sifted through the world of Pianos; those we have kept we know to be the best; Steinway, Gabler, Vose, Sterling and Brau-Muller. We are so sure of our judgment that we give a written guarantee with every instrument we sell.

A HAWAIIAN SCHOOL.

Some Interesting Information from an American Teacher.

Honolulu, the island capital, is on the south side of Oahu. In the northwestern part of the island is the village of Waialua, surrounded by cane fields and taro patches. Its front is the blue Pacific, and for a background it has high green mountains, densely clothed with tropical verdure.

From these mysterious heights there comes a river which flows into the sea at Waialua. Hence the name, which signifies "two waters." This place was once a missionary station, and the old stone church is still standing, much too large for the dwindled congregation of the present.

Formerly it had a boarding school for native girls, and here, some years ago, it was my fortune to act as schoolma'am. There were between thirty and forty girls and three teachers. The girls had to be taught many things besides the lessons in their school books. At home they slept on mats on the floor, ate poi out of calabashes with their fingers and wore only a loose garment called the holoku. Here they were required to eat at table, with knife and fork and spoon, to sleep in beds and to adopt the manners and customs of civilization.

The dwelling house was two stories and a half high, with a basement, and was surrounded by wide verandas.

The basement served for kitchen, dining-room, study-room, and for a laundry on ironing days. On the first floor were the smaller girls' room, sewing-room, parlor and library, which was also music-room, and the principal's sleeping apartment. The two upper stories were dormitories for the larger girls.

A couple of rods away was the schoolhouse, a two-story frame structure, painted white. Both were shaded by tall trees; the tamarind, pride of India, and kukui or candle-nut trees mingling their foliage.

The routine of the schoolroom from nine to twelve in the forenoon, and from one till four in the afternoon, was that of any ordinary school, except that the girls who prepared the meals were excused earlier than the others. One day in the week was devoted to washing and ironing; much of this work was done on the river bank in the shade of the tamarind trees.

The girls were required to talk English until the four-o'clock bell sounded in the afternoon. From that until supper-time they were allowed to talk Hawaiian, and their tongues ran fast.

Wednesday afternoons the girls went to bathe in the river, and Saturday afternoons to bathe in the sea. It usually fell to my lot to accompany them.

The river, a few rods back of the house, had steep banks ten or fifteen feet high, and a deep, still current. The girls would start to run and would race with each other as soon as they left the house, and leap from the bank into the river.

Presently their heads would appear above water, and, shaking the drops from their faces, they would swim across the river. The older girls could dive and swim under water for some distance. They were always glad when the time came to go swimming in the sea, for they were fond of a green moss which grew on the reef, and they would all sit on rocks picking and eating it, while the spray dashed over them. They sometimes caught little silver fish in their dress skirts; these they ate raw. One girl told me that her father could dive and bring up a fish in each hand and one in his mouth.—Louise Coffin Jones, in Wide Awake.

Looking Forward.

Little Emily had been very naughty because her mamma would not let her go out with a party of friends, with whom they were staying, and she screamed so that every one in the house was distressed and worried. Her mamma had to lock her up in a room and tell her she should not come out till she said she would be good and promised not to cry any more. Every now and then her mamma would go and ask her to promise, but she only screamed the louder. At last a silence fell upon the house, and when poor mamma opened the door, there, stretched upon the floor, lay the pretty, weary little form, and when the dear mother drew her to her and asked the oft-repeated question: "Will you be good and promise not to cry any more?" the pretty eyes looked up, still full of tears, and the little girl said: "Yes, mamma, I'll be good, and promise not to never, never cry any more till some of my dear relatives die."—Harper's Young People.

All One to Cabby.

It must be trying to a great personage to have his claims to distinction all unknown; but, however trying the situation, he had best be cautious about attempting to set it right. A Scottish gentleman learned this by experience.

He had a dispute with a London cabman over an eighteenpenny fare. He had offered a shilling only, and the cabman had remonstrated with him.

Drawing himself up with dignity, he said:

"Eh, mon, but I think ye dinna ken whom ye're speaking to! I'm the MacIntosh!"

The cockney was not properly impressed; he retorted sharply:

"I don't care if you're the Humberella; I mean to have that sixpence!"

CHARLES W. DAYTON.

Sketch of the Newly-Made Postmaster of New York City.

Charles Willoughby Dayton was born in New York city on October 3, 1846, and was educated in the New York public schools. His grandfather was born in Stratford, Conn., and came to the city of New York to engage in commercial enterprises. Mr. Dayton's father, Abraham Child Dayton, was educated in Europe, and was a man of literary tastes and a contributor to the periodicals of the day.

Mr. Dayton studied law, and after graduation from Columbia college law school in 1868 was admitted to practice at the bar. He has an office at No. 3 Broadway, and has for over twenty years lived in Flushing. Mr. Dayton has been active in politics for fifteen years, and during most of that time has taken an active part as an anti-Tammany democrat. He was prominent in the campaign of 1880 and 1884, when William R. Grace was successful in his contests for mayor, and has been regarded as one of the ex-mayor's most ardent friends. He was a member of the legislature of 1881, and was a candidate for United States district attorney when Cleveland became president in 1885. He did not receive the appointment, but when Mayor Grace constituted his excise board a year later Mr. Dayton was selected for counsel to the board and held this office for three years. He was conspicuous in all the battles of the county democracy, and when the People's Municipal league was organized in 1890 he was one of the inner circles of trusted advisers. He supported Francis M. Scott and the fusion city ticket that year and made many speeches against Tammany hall. In 1891, with many other county democrats of the Twenty-third district, to which he belonged, he joined the wigwam. In the February "snap convention" held at Albany to declare the choice of the New York democracy for president and to elect delegates to the national democratic convention, Mr. Dayton represented the Twenty-third assembly district as a Tammany man. When the big committees were formed Mr. Dayton was placed at the head of the committee on permanent organization. He lifted up his voice with the rest of the snappers for Hill's nomination for president.

His first official appointment under Tammany hall was made last year, when Mayor Grant selected him as a member of the Park avenue commission for supervising the building of the railroad viaduct.

Another Letter to Women.

May 25, '92, Syracuse, N. Y.

"Dear Madam:

"I want to tell you what your Vegetable Compound and Sanative Wash have done for me.

"I was so bad with falling of the womb and Leucorrhœa that I could not stand.

"I had doctored so much without benefit I was entirely discouraged. I expected to die.

"One evening I read in the 'Herald' about your medicine. I got some, and took 2 bottles of the Compound, and used one of the Sanative Wash.

"I am now well and strong, am never troubled with either of the complaints. If more women would use your Compound, there would be less suffering in the world."—Mrs. Ida Casler, 126 Olive St.

THE STATE OF TRADE

What Bradstreet's Says of the Financial Situation.

NO IMPROVEMENT IN BUSINESS

The Refusal of Manufacturers to File up Stock Results in the Closing of Many Factories—Failures of the Week—The Money Market.

NEW YORK, July 29.—Bradstreet's Review of Trade says to-day:

The volume of general trade has been further restricted, and there is no reason to report an improvement in business as a whole. Nearly 20 banks at Indianapolis, Louisville, Milwaukee, Helena, Spokane and Portland, Ore., have been compelled to suspend payment, not counting smaller institutions as smaller centres.

The condition of interior trade is characterized in our Chicago trade despatch, which says business there is quiet in all lines; wholesale houses are not sending out all their travelers and those sent out are not pushing sales. Few orders are received for fall and winter delivery and the volume of trade at that centre is admitted much smaller than at a like period last year. Orders given early this season in leading staple lines are being canceled and lake freights are so low many vessels have laid up.

In contrast, the mild but welcome improvement at Baltimore, New Orleans, Minneapolis and San Francisco, is worth noting.

Throughout the Eastern and Middle states the unwillingness of manufacturers of iron, steel, wool, cotton, shoe and other staples to pile up stock is resulting in many factories working on part time or closing on completion of orders. The same money stringency in leading markets appears. There is no demand for mercantile paper, and banks continue to accommodate customers, in many instances even more conservatively than heretofore.

Mercantile failures throughout the United States this week continue heavy, numbering 489, as compared with 527 last week, 153 in the fourth week of July, 1892, 200 in that week of 1891, 131 in 1890, and 213 in 1889. A portion of these apparent failures after settlement will not be actual failures.

Bank clearings throughout aggregate another exceptionally small total, $889,000,000, a decrease of 9 per cent. from the total the week before and 11 per cent. from the total in the like week of 1892.

Factories on part time or closing (in several lines are features of the industrial situation in Boston, Philadelphia, Pittsburg and other Eastern centers. The Eastern iron and steel wages scale is unsettled. Two firms have accepted part of the reductions they asked for; remaining mills are idle. Pittsburg and other manufacturers are indisposed to push a settlement, owing to the financial disturbance, inability to realize on contracts and scarcity of orders. Prices of all staples have declined.

The financial position at New York has been unfavorably affected by the renewed demand for currency at the interior and the disturbance of the stock market. Shipments of currency to the interior are estimated at $7,000,000 for the week, the banks meeting the situation by an increase of some $3,000,000 in the issue of clearing-house loan certificates.

All classes of loans are very much restricted, and the scarcity of small bills is a serious inconvenience to many business houses. Call money commanded 1-8 per cent. during the week, and is now irregular at a lower level. Foreign exchange is depressed by foreign stock purchases, the rate for demand sterling falling as low as 4.82, and $1,290,000 gold has been engaged in London for shipment here. More gold engagements were restricted by the high rates which money commands.

The stock market steadied after the break of Wednesday, foreign and investment buying and bear covering aiding the recovery, but went off again late Friday. The state of the money market checks further improvement, although London shows confidence in Americans. Bond values have suffered.

Colleges Win Their Point.

NEW YORK, July 29.—Surrogate Ransom denied the motions of the executors of Daniel B. Fayerweather for a distribution of the residue of the estate, nearly $3,000,000, according to the will and the deed of gift of the executors. The motion was opposed by the five colleges which are seeking to get at this fund in another proceeding by establishing a trust under the will, and by the executors of Mrs. Fayerweather and two of the heirs.

Entertained by Secretary Lamont.

SORRENTO, Me., July 29.—The United States dispatch boat, Dolphin, anchored in Frenchman's Bay, just outside Sorrento Point yesterday. Secretary of the Navy Herbert and his daughter, and Assistant Secretary of the Treasury, C. S. Hamlin came ashore and were entertained by Col. and Mrs. Daniel Lamont. The Lamonts gave a dinner to the distinguished guests at the Hotel Sorrento.

Smallpox in a Postoffice.

WORCESTER, Mass., July 29.—Robert Howe, a small son of Mrs. E. A. Howe, postmistress of Auburn, has developed a case of smallpox. The postoffice is in one room of the house which the family occupy and the mother is taking care of the boy besides attending to her official duties. The Worcester Board of Health has ordered the Worcester postmaster to refuse mail from Auburn.

Satinet Mills to Shut Down.

WORCESTER, Mass., July 29.—The corporation known as E. W. Chapin & Co., manufacturers of satinets at Northboro, has assigned to the bookeeper. Mr. Chapin failed two years ago and then incorporated. Capital $50,000; paid in $400. The mill employs 200 or 300 hands. It will now be shut down for a time. No statement has been obtained from Mr Chapin.

Mrs. Korn Found Not Guilty.

NEW YORK, July 29.—Mrs. Fannie Korn was found not guilty by a jury in the Court of General Sessions yesterday on the charge of murder for poisoning her little daughter. The acquittal was on the ground of insanity. The jury was out less than a minute. The charges of assault and attempted suicide against her were dismissed.

Ex-Senator McNaughton Ill.

WORLD'S FAIR GROUNDS, July 29.—Ex-State Senator Donald McNaughton, of Rochester, N. Y., the executive officer for New York state at the World's Fair, is lying in his room at the State building seriously ill.

GENEARL ELECTRIC SUOND.

Enough Money in the Company's Treasury to Pay Off its Floating Debt.

NEW YORK, July 29.—After four hours session yesterday the directors of the General Electric Company gave out this statement:

"The directors have decided to offer to the stockholders securities now in the treasury sufficient to pay the entire $4,000,000. Of the amount necessary to underwrite the above, about 70 per cent. has already been subscribed."

The directors also stated that the regular quarterly dividend of 2 per cent. would be paid in cash on Tuesday.

This settles the reports of a receivership or a reorganization which were current in the street.

D. O. Mills, one of the directors, said that there was no talk of either of these happenings at the directors' meeting and that so far as he knew the company was in a position to take care of itself and its business.

Dr. Meyer Has Secured Counsel.

NEW YORK, July 29.—Dr. Henry C. Meyer, at present in the Tombs on an indictment charging him with poisoning Gustav H. M. Joseph Baum, has at last secured counsel. The law firm of Brooke, O'Sullivan & Brooke will defend the alleged poisoner.

Dr. James C. Batchellor Dead.

WASHINGTON, July 29.—Dr. James Cunningham Batchellor, the eminent Free Mason, who succeeded General Albert Pike as Grand Commander of the Supreme Council of the Scottish Rite, died in this city yesterday.

THE MEN DISSATISFIED.

Big Mass Meeting of Iron Workers at Youngstown, O., To-day.

Officers of the Amalgamated Association to Be Called to Account for Consenting to Reductions in the Scale.

PITTSBURG, Pa., July 29.—The dissatisfaction of the Youngstown and Mahoning Valley iron and steel workers over the Amalgamated Association scale has assumed such proportions that President M. M. Garland, who has been in the West, was sent for and he and Secretary Kilgallon went to Youngstown to-day to pacify the workers.

Youngstown is the center of unionism in the iron trade, as all the mills in that vicinity work under the Amalgamated Association agreement. Notwithstanding this, there is so much discontent among the men over the reductions offered by their conference committee, and which have been incorporated in the scale that open secession is threatened.

The meeting this afternoon will be an open one to all the members, and it is expected that from 5,000 to 10,000 people will be present to demand an explanation from the national lodge officers as to why they consented to such sweeping reductions.

Open threats have been made by many leaders there that they may withdraw from the Amalgamated Association and form a Mahoning and Shenango Valley union.

FIVE MEN BURNED.

Peculiar Accident on Board the New York in Cramps' Ship Yard.

PHILADELPHIA, July 29. — A peculiar accident by which five men were burned, two of them badly occurred yesterday afternoon at Cramps' shipyard on board the cruiser New York.

Five ship carpenters named Charlie Lamont, Thomas McGovern, William Cox, Joseph Tesse and David Hedmond, had finished their day's work on the cruiser and were cleaning their tools with benezine.

The rapid friction of one of the men's hands over the tools caused the benezine to explode, at the same time exploding a can of the fluid that was on the floor of the deck and scattering all over the men.

Lamont and McGovern were seriously burned and the other three painfully burned by the explosion.

Senator Beckwith Will Resign.

DENVER, Col., July 29.—A Cheyenne, Wyo., special to the Republican says it is authoritatively stated that Senator Beckwith will hand in his resignation to the Governor next Monday, and that Collector A. L. New, who was a prominent candidate before the Legislature last winter will be appointed to the vacancy.

The Colorado Exodus.

ST. LOUIS, July 29.—The advance guard of the Colorado miners who are tramping eastward have entered Missouri and every railroad track leading towards the Mississippi river is black with humanity. The trainmen have given up all attempts to keep them off the trains and are now permitting them to ride unmolested.

The President's Quiet Day.

BUZZARD'S BAY, Mass., July 29.—This is another quiet day at Gray Gables. The President spent the entire morning at home, with the exception of driving up to the village for his mail. Mr. Cleveland is undoubtedly spending his remaining days here in completing his message to Congress.

Mr. Jewett Makes Denial.

BUFFALO, July 29.—Mr. Henry C. Jewett, who arrived home from Chicago last evening, says the stories that have been circulated during the past few days to the effect that the Jewett farm stables of trotters and pacers has been permanently withdrawn are without foundation whatever.

Cloudburst in Colorado.

PUEBLO, Col., July 29.—Meagre news from the country 15 miles northwest of town tells of a cloudburst which fell there. It was 100 yards wide and 25 feet in height. Scores of ranch houses, barns, fences and hundreds of cattle were washed away. It will probably ruin 100 farmers.

South Carolina Murderess Hanged.

CHARLESTON, S. C., July 29.—Ada Hiers, a negress, was hanged at Walterboro yesterday for the murder of her half brother, last June. She confessed on the scaffold that her aged father, who was also convicted, but respited by Gov. Tillman, had nothing to do with the crime.

Bicycle Races at Asbury Park.

ASBURY PARK, N. J., July 28.—The second annual bicycle tournament will take place at the Asbury Park Athletic grounds to-day. There will be eight races, all for valuable prizes and upwards of 100 entries have been received.

The American Tube and Iron Company failure caused a sensation at Youngstown. The works will continue in operation.

BRITISH SHIPS WARNED.

Those on the New Foundland Coast Instructed to be Alert.

Two French Cruisers Are There, and Hostilities Are Declared There Will Probably be an Immediate Engagement.

ST. JOHNS, N. F., July 29.—Rumors here are to the effect that the British warships on this coast are instructed to be prepared in case of possible outbreak of hostilities between Engl and and France, owing to the Siamese trouble.

Conditions are peculiar in this island. The vexed French shore question is the cause of continual irritation, and the recent action of the French Admiral in insulting Governor O'Brien and leaving here abruptly, is not calculated to improve the friendly feelings.

At the present moment two French and two English cruisers are on the French shore. A third English ship is guarding the port.

Numerous cipher telegrams are passing between the British vessels. The officers are non-communicative, but admit that they are deeply interested in the course of events.

Back Bone of the Strike Broken.

KANSAS CITY, July 29.—The operators are now confident that the backbone of the miner's strike in southwestern Kansas is broken. The first shipments of coal from Weir City for over two months were made yesterday and several strikers returned to work.

Another Kentucky Bank Falls.

MT. STERLING, Ky., July 29. — The Traders' Deposit bank has suspended payment owing to a heavy run made on the bank yesterday, which was caused by the suspension of the Farmers' bank.

NEWS OF THE DAY.

The paid admissions at the World's Fair yesterday were 77,606.

The extensive coal mines of the Minerva Colliery Company, in Webb county, Texas, have closed down.

The Queen & Crescent route has authorized a $28 round trip excursion from New Orleans to Chicago and return.

Siam Continues Efforts in Behalf of Peace.

GREAT BRITAIN MAKES NO SIGN

The Situation is Creating Great Anxiety in British Government Circles—Comments on the Parliamentary Slugging Match—A Russian Ukase.

BANGKOK, July 29.—The Siamese government continues making every effort to maintain peace with France and is encouraged by the events of the last 24 hours to believe that an understanding will be reached shortly.

The French flag has been hoisted at Koh-si-Chang.

The prompt enforcement of the blockade, which virtually damages only Great Britain, has seemingly convinced the Siamese that the assumed friendly attempt at intervention by Great Britain in Paris has not availed to modify the hard conditions of the ultimatum. Siam therefore will probably concede immediately the last difference remaining between her and France by accepting the ultimatum, pure and simple. Siam has not received the slightest official support from Great Britain throughout the difficulty.

THE ENGLISH ARE ANXIOUS.

Government Circles Agitated by France's Proceedings with Siam.

LONDON, July 29.—There is somewhat serious anxiety in political and government circles anent Siamese affairs. Mr. Gladstone has cancelled his intended visit to Stuart Rendel, M. P., at Hatchlands Place, near Guildford. Lord Rosebery is deeply engaged in the Foreign Office morning and night.

Official telegrams are exchanged constantly and special messengers are traveling uninterruptedly between Paris and London.

General Robarts, recently commander-in-chief of the army in India, received the freedom of Glasgow yesterday afternoon and intended thence to make a tour through the Highlands. Now in response to a special request he is returning to London.

The Central News suggests that he has been called back to confer with Lord Rosebery as to the Siamese affair.

It is rumored here that there are dissensions in the French Cabinet growing out of the trouble with Siam. It is said that some of the Ministers are dissatisfied because the blockade was not effected with more promptness, and that they reproach their colleagues for recalling the French gunboats from Bangkok.

The conciliatory attitude of Lord Rosebery, British Foreign Minister, is ascribed to his knowledge of French Cabinet dissensions and to the assurances he has received from the French Ministers who are in favor of using moderation in the treatment of Siam.

THE PARLIAMENTARY "MILL."

What the London Journals Say of the Affray in the Commons.

LONDON, July 29.—Much space on the editorial pages of London dailies is devoted to comment on the fight in the House of Commons.

The Times says: "Mr. Gladstone must feel some qualms when he looks upon the working of his latest achievement. The suppression of free debate by the tyrranical vote of the majority is worthier of the French Revolutionary convention than of the English House of Commons.

"We regret that the opposition took notice of the disgraceful insults with which Mr. Chamberlain was assailed. The political manners of the pothouse might have been left to serve as an example of what would occur in the Irish Legislature should Mr. Gladstone succeed in establishing that preposterous body."

The Standard says:

"The episode must have been unspeakably painful to Mr. Gladstone. His bitterest opponent must allow that he has sought to maintain a high standard of courtesy and dignity in Parliament. But Mr. Gladstone must be aware that the ignoble scene was closely connected by the chain of cause and effect with the discredit which he has brought on the House of Commons."

The Daily News, Gladstonian, opposes to the opinions of the two Tory organs this view of the trouble:

"When the public learn how the disturbance arose there will be a universal feeling of indignation and regret that the most illustrious statesman of the age was exposed to such insults as those flung by Mr. Chamberlain."

The Pall Mall Gazette, Conservative, says under the caption "Mother of Free Fights."

"Every Englishman must feel the shame and disgrace. Nevertheless it cannot be said that the scene was out of keeping with the whole story of the Home Rule bill. When Parliament has been violently ravished of its freedom, it is idle to complain overmuch because its petticoats are soiled. Mr. Gladstone muzzled the House and rabies set in."

The St. James Gazette and several other Tory sheets contend that Mr. Chamberlain's reference to Herod was to be applied rather to Mr. Gladstone's flatterers than to the Prime Minister himself. "Mr. Gladstone has turned the House of Commons into a burlesque of Parliament," says the Gazette. "How then can he expect the members to act with dignity and self-control?"

Annual English Manoeuvres.

LONDON, July 29.—The annual manoeuvres between the red and blue squadrons began with the declaration of war at 10 o'clock Thursday night. The red fleets, under Vice-Admiral H. Fairfax, consist of 31 men-of-war and about a dozen torpedo boats. The blue fleets, under command of Rear-Admiral Fitzroy, are of approximately similar strength. The objects of the manoeuvres are on the one side, to obtain command of the Irish sea; on the other side to prevent this.

THE STOVE POLISH EXPLODED.

Two Dead and Three Fatally Burned in Pittsburg.

PITTSBURG, Pa., July 29.—Two persons are dead and several others fatally injured as the result of a fire on the south side yesterday afternoon.

The dead are:

MAGGIE WITCHELL, aged 18 years.

FRED HUSSEL, 25 years.

Injured: Charles McDonald, probably fatally burned; unknown Polish girl, probably fatally burned, unknown peddler, fatally burned.

The fire was caused by an explosion of stove polish, which the peddler was using on the stove. The liquid exploded and scattered the burning contents all over the room. Maggie Witchell was burned to death and the others it is thought cannot recover.

Charles McDonald in trying to rescue a woman was burned.

Joe Hussell lived on 8th street and dropped dead while running to the fire. The fire spread rapidly to the adjoining rooms and in less than thirty minutes the building was in ruins. The building was occupied by Frederick Wilson as a saloon.

THE GREAT STRIKE ON.

Two Hundred and Fifty Thousand English Miners Go Out.

LONDON, July 29.—In accordance with the decision of the Miners' Federation, the great strike of the English coal miners was inaugurated yesterday at a majority of the pits.

No disorder has been reported from any quarter. Something like 250,000 men are directly affected by the strike.

THEY MOURN THE DUKE.

Veragua Forgot to Settle With Creditors Before Leaving Chicago.

The Victims Are Now Trying to Shove the Bills on the Government Entertainment Fund.

CHICAGO, July 29.—It leaks out that the Duke of Veragua forgot to settle a number of his private bills before leaving Chicago, and his creditors are trying to foist them on the government entertainment fund.

Many of these bills, it is said, the auditor has disallowed. Liverymen, men's furnishings dealers and others are the victims. The bill for the great farewell dinner given by the Duke before leaving Chicago is still unpaid.

MORE NEW YORK CABLE ROADS.

Extensions and Connections Planned on an Extensive Scale.

NEW YORK, July 29.—The Metropolitan Traction Company will apply to the Commissioner of Public Works in a few days for permission to begin opening streets for the purpose of extending its cable system.

The proposed extensions and connections are planned on a huge scale and will materially change the conditions of transit in this city. When fully completed over 20 miles of new road will have been added to the roads now owned by the company, and the city will be crossed east and west, north and south by cable roads which will girdle Central Park completely.

International Yacht Races.

NEW YORK, July 29.—The important announcement is made for the first time that the date for the international yacht races for the America's cup has been officially and positively set for October 5. Considerable uncertainty had heretofore existed as to the exact date of these races, and it was a matter of doubt in the minds of the Cup Committee whether to inaugurate the races Sept. 23 or 25 or Oct. 5.

Tried to Break Jail.

MOUNT HOLLY, N. J. July 29.—An unsuccessful attempt to break jail was made by Richard Martin and Harry Daly, who are awaiting trial on a charge of burglary. They sandbagged the keeper, William H. Reeves, and would have killed him, but he used his revolver promptly and finally drove them back into their cells.

Dr. Rylance Better.

LONG BRANCH, N. J., July 29.—The Rev. Dr. Joseph H. Rylance, rector of St. Mark's Protestant Episcopal Church, New York, who had an operation performed Saturday last, is much improved. Dr. Smith said that should no unforseen complications arise Dr. Rylance would pull through in a week or two.

The L. A. W. Refuses.

NEW YORK, July 29.—The League of American Wheelmen has decided to refuse a sanction to any colleges, members of the Intercollegiate A. A. A. wishing to run bicycle races. This decision is due to the action taken by the Intercollegiate Association at the last games, when they refused to apply for a sanction.

C. A. Horr, a grocer of Carthage, N. Y., has made an assignment. The liabilities are about $3,500 and assets $2,500.

Everything at Weir City, Kas., is quiet, and over 100 miners are at work, many of whom had hitherto refused to enter the shafts.

Jim Courney was hung yesterday at Waycross, Ga., for killing his roommate, Jake Smith, last April, over a game of cards.

Director Preston of the Mint purchased 100,000 ounces of silver yesterday at 0.7080 cents per ounce in response to his counter offer at that figure.

The excursion rate between Indianapolis and Chicago has been reduced to $2 from $4, and the indications are that a 50-cent rate will soon be reached.

The 800 machinists of the Westinghouse Air-brake Company at Wilmerding, Pa., have been notified of a reduction of wages of from 15 to 20 per cent.

The business portion of Fifield, Wis., a town of 800 inhabitants, has been destroyed by fire. In all 34 buildings were consumed causing a loss of about $200,000.

At a meeting of the directors of the Tremont and Suffolk mills at Lowell, Mass., yesterday it was voted to operate the mills on half time, beginning Monday next.

All the Cordage interests of the United States have received a call for a meeting to be held in New York city on Aug. 9, at which time reorganization and other vital subjects will be discussed.

The abstract of the reports of the condition of National banks in San Francisco on the date of the last call shows that their reserve held was 28.22 per cent.

It has been decided by the Supreme Court of Tennessee that firemen and engineers on colliding trains in accidents caused by the negligence of the conductor in charge of the train are not fellow-servants, and are entitled to recover damages from railroad companies.

READY FOR CHOLERA.

CLEAR UP THE RUBBISH BEFORE DISEASE APPEARS.

Experience of a Physician With a Dyspepsia Patient—All Danger Over in Less Than Ten Days—A Simple Treatment.

"Clear up the rubbish from back yards and sweeten cellars with broom, scrubbing brushes and disinfectant; now's the time to get ready for cholera," says the Boston Globe.

Clean streets and alleys diminish the chances of epidemic, but it is of more vital importance that the natural gates and alleys of the body be swept and clean.

The only way to secure this healthy condition of the blood vessels is through the nerves; blushing and sudden pallor show how absolutely the nerves regulate the blood supply; sound nerves make healthy blood possible, and lassitude, irritability, dyspepsia, liver complaint and nervous weakness cannot exist where nerves and blood are vigorous and in harmony.

A case in point comes from Rushmore, O., where Dr. A. Page, one of the most prominent physicians in the state resides. He writes:

"About three months ago I secured for the first time two bottles of Paine's celery compound; I carelessly laid them to one side, until I found one of my patients I was treating for dyspepsia gradually growing worse and that remedies I had previously been successful with would not have any effect on him; I then thought of the Paine's celery compound and as an experiment I gave him one of them, telling him to take it according to directions on the bottle; imagine my surprise when, 10 days later, he walked into my office and said, 'Doctor, I believe I am cured of my dyspepsia.'

"Now, after having taken the second bottle, he, as also myself, considers himself a sound and well man, being entirely free from any disagreeable sensations after eating; since first commencing the use of Paine's celery compound he has gained 35 pounds, and is the very picture of health.

"I shall cheerfully answer any communications I may receive in regard to the compound, and hope that my experience may be of benefit to some professional brother who is not too narrow minded to be liberal professionally."

COL. AINSWORTH ARRAIGNED.

Will Be Tried in October for His Connection With the Ford's Theatre Disaster.

WASHINGTON, July 28.—In Criminal Court No. 1, before Judge Cole, Col. Frederick C. Ainsworth, in charge of the Record and Pension Office, War Department; George W. Dant, contractor; William E. Covert, superintendent, and Francis Sasse, engineer, were arraigned upon the indictment recently returned by the Grand Jury holding them responsible for the fatal disaster at Ford's old theatre building on the morning of June 9 last, and charging each of them with manslaughter.

The defendants pleaded not guilty, with the stipulation, which was agreed to by the district attorney, that they might on or before the 15th of September next, withdraw that plea and enter any other plea or motion they might see fit.

It is understood that the defendants, under this stipulation, will, when the case is again called, either demur to the indictment or move to quash it.

After the several pleas had been entered District Attorney Birney gave notice that the several cases would be called for trial at the beginning of the term in October.

NEW POSTMASTERS NAMED.

One Hundred and Sixteen of the Fourth Class Order Appointed Yesterday.

WASHINGTON, July 29.—The total number of fourth-class postmasters appointed yesterday was 116, of which 41 were to fill vacancies caused by death and resignations. Among the appointments were the following:

Maine—G. H. Hanna, East Sullivan; Perry Grant, West Leeds.

New York—Nicholos Diehl, Fosterdale; William Hilliard, Maplewood; E. B. Lake, Meredith Hollow; F. A. Moore, Morrisonville; D. V. Case, Oakland Valley; Edward McKenzie, Glen Spay; William Bullevant, Tusten.

Pennsylvania.—Miss D. J. Barrett, Berrytown; J. T. Henry, Cottage; T. J. Boyles, Cranberry; Isaac Emerick, Dalmatia; W. B. Howard, Dunkard; J. A. Heffner, James Creek; John Vandwander, McConnellstown; S. A. Cresswell, Petersburg; W. C. Swan, Shade Gap.

Caught on the Fly.

He (musingly)—I should think a bridal tour to the world's fair would be an event to be pleasantly remembered in after life.

She (enthusiastically)—Oh, it would! But, John, this is so sudden.—N. Y. Press.

At His Trade.

Mrs. Grumm—Go about your business. We don't want any beggars round here.

THE DAILY PRESS.

W. L. & A. L. FORCE, Publishers and Proprietors.
WALTER IRVING CLARKE, Managing Editor.

WEATHER INDICATIONS.

For New Jersey: Clearing Weather This Evening; Fair, Slightly Cooler on Sunday; Southwest Changing to Northwest Winds.

TO READERS OF THE DAILY PRESS.

With the departure of James A. Demarest for his consulate at Brockville, Ont., THE PRESS loses the services of one who has been of most material aid in shaping and developing the fortunes of the paper. For nearly fourteen years he had been in the continuous employ of the publishers, and would have completed the fourteenth year next October. The value of so long and useful a connection as his is fully appreciated; and the esteem in which he is held, both for his professional and personal qualities, makes the parting one of sincerest regret. THE PRESS feels justly proud in having one of its staff selected by the Chief Executive for so honorable a public office. It is a mark of special trust. In bidding Mr. Demarest godspeed, THE PRESS is confident that he will fulfil his new duties with the utmost credit to himself and to the fullest satisfaction of the Government. Mr. Demarest will be succeeded as managing editor of THE PRESS by Walter Irving Clarke, who has been three years his associate editor, and who has had an experience of nine successive years in newspaper work.

EARLY INTELLIGENCE.

—A song service will be held in the W. C. T. U. rooms to-night.

—Work is soon to be begun on the macadamizing of Duer street.

—The winter supply of coal is being put in the various school buildings.

—Dog-catcher Frisbie was obliged to shoot a dog belonging to Henry VanMiddlesworth, yesterday afternoon.

—James Day, accused of fighting negroes, was to-day discharged by Judge Codding, after hearing the evidence in the case.

—George L. Henry is suffering from injury to his left eye, caused by its being struck by a chip of steel on which he was working.

—The charge against John Goodman for fighting was heard to-day by Judge Coddington, who reserved decision till Tuesday.

—The building at the corner of Park avenue and Second street, owned by Martin Bros., is being beautified by the painter's brush.

—The Catholic Young Men's Lyceum, which always makes a success of everything it undertakes, will run an excursion to Highland Beach, Thursday, August 3.

—Wm. F. Trust has presented E. P. Thorn with a handsome white cat, weighing twelve pounds. The new owner highly prizes the intelligent and beautiful feline.

—Policeman Lynch has a body-guard every night in the shape of a little black mongrel dog. The animal is continually at his heels, and is almost as vigilant as the officer.

—A stage load of Odd Fellows, headed by District Deputy Grand Master C. W. Tallman and staff, visited Rahway last night and had a jolly time installing the new officers of Essex Lodge, No. 27, I. O. O. F.

—In their new quarters opposite the North avenue station the Postal Telegraph Company have provided double the facilities they had before, and are equipped to do the best service. Messages by the Postal go quick and sure.

—The borough electric light service was crippled, and many of the lights were out, last night, because the company did n't succeed in completing the work of re-connecting the wires with the new "junction pole" erected at Somerset and Race streets.

—In order to reduce stock prior to removal to their store in the new Babcock building, Doane & Edsall have reduced the price on about 250 styles of footwear to the cost of manufacture or below. THE PRESS would suggest to its readers that this is a great chance to get good reliable goods at way-down prices, as the goods of this firm are noted for fit and durability.

A PAINTER'S TERRIBLE FALL.

He Landed on a Pile of Stones, Clear from the Second Story.

Hiram Voorhees, of Duer st., an employe of Marsh, Ayers & Co., has been working on a new house being erected by William D. Murray, on Ninth street, between Madison and Arlington avenues.

This noon as he was getting ready to stop work he remembered he had to see a carpenter on the second floor, about some work.

He went up to the second floor, and was obliged to walk across some narrow boards. In doing so, he caught hold of a beam which was not securely fastened, and it gave way, throwing him backwards, through a hatchway, to the cellar.

He came down on a pile of stone, with considerable force, fracturing his collar-bone and cutting an artery in his head, besides inflicting other injuries.

He was taken to the Muhlenberg Hospital, where he is being well cared for by the doctors and matron, who hope to bring him around all right.

A Paper-Hanger's Fall.

Robert Rushton, of LaGrande avenue, an employe of Woolston & Buckle, was standing on a trestle, about eight feet high, erected in the Crescent League clubhouse, papering the ceiling, this morning, reaching upwards, when he became dazed and fell to the floor, cutting his face considerably.

TO DEVELOP THE MOUNTAINS.

PLAINFIELD'S DREAM TO BE REALIZED AT LAST.

Such Energetic Men as A. D. Thompson, Who Makes a Success of Everything He Touches, Are in This New Railway Scheme.

A syndicate of New York, Philadelphia and New Jersey capitalists is reported by the Newark Evening News to be preparing to build an electric railway between Paterson and New Brunswick, passing through or near Montclair, Orange, South Orange, Bloomfield, Plainfield and Metuchen, skirting the Orange Mountains for thirty miles, and connecting the Pennsylvania Railroad with the New Jersey Central, Delaware, Lackawanna and Western, Morris and Essex, New York and Greenwood Lake, and New York, Lake Erie and Western, and with the street car systems and railroads to Newark.

The line will be about forty miles in length. It will open a large area of fine suburban residence property.

The most improved electric system will be employed, and if the storage battery is sufficiently developed to be practicable it will be utilized, it is said.

The road, according to report, will be practically a north and south line and will connect with the present electric systems in Paterson, Orange, Newark and Plainfield.

The company will be capitalized at a high figure. The New Jersey Improvement Company has been organized under the laws of New Jersey to build the road and handle land along the line.

The men mentioned as officers and directors of the concern are as follows:

President and General Manager, Jacob L. Stadelman, of Bala, Pa.; Secretary, John N. Bethel, of Philadelphia, Pa.; Treasurer, Charles E. W. Smith, Morristown, N. J.; Directors, Lewis C. Mans, of Philadelphia, Pa., Rowland F. Hill, New York, William N. Mills, Boston, Mass., and A. D. Thompson, Plainfield, N. J.

The proposed line is being surveyed for the purpose of location by Major John Runk, of Philadelphia, chief engineer of the company. The new company will work in harmony with existing lines, and it is the expressed intention to benefit rather than interfere with their traffic.

One purpose of the company is to make the elegant mountain sites back of Plainfield accessible to home-seekers. The railway will skirt the mountains at the base.

The Lawyer Got Adjournment.

The case of Architect Fosgate against Mason Smith was to-day adjourned by Judge Coddington to Tuesday morning. Ex-Judge Ulrich appeared as counsel for Mr. Smith, and stated that he had been consulted only last night and had n't had time to prepare for trial. The adjournment was at his request.

What the Comet Teaches.

The comet is 35,000,000 miles away. So is the tramp spectacle-man when you want to exchange that misfit pair you bought of him. Collier's is a permanency: goods bought or repaired there are guaranteed, and if the need ever arises you always know where to find the guarantor.

Another Bridge for Contractor Kirk.

William T. Kirk, of West Seventh street, was yesterday awarded the contract for the iron work for a new bridge near Springfield. The bridge will be built with iron girders, with a 20-foot span. The total cost is $1,500.

The Italian Paid.

Frank Carrano, one of the Italians looked for by Policemen Mattox and Corsa as reported in THE PRESS at the time, went quietly to Judge Moore's office at Fanwood last night and paid the costs as adjudged.

Colored Cyclists to Race Again.

The colored bicycle race of Thursday is to be repeated, over the 25-mile course, September 15. James Babbitt, Wm. Kline and Bert Harvey are arranging the race, and three more medals will be put up for competition.

The Only Bass He Knows Is Ale.

A Somerset street pool-room keeper yesterday purchased an eight-pound German carp under the illusion that it was a black bass, and paid fifty cents for it. By this time he doubtless thinks bass a flat, tasteless fish.

Mounted Police for the Boulevard.

George W. Moore, of East Front street, says there will be a resurrection in the City Council, next year, and that the Fourth ward will have either a mounted police squad, or bicycles for the officers now on duty there.

A Sage Statesman's Wisdom.

Ex-Assemblyman D. D. Smalley, the tall sycamore of the Passaic, says that the nomination for Senator in Somerset county belongs to any man who can convince the leaders that they do not own the nomination.

A Lively and Flourishing Parish.

An entertainment in behalf of St. Joseph's Roman Catholic church is soon to be given. The committeemen are bound to make it a grand success.

Must Pay Their Taxes.

Internal Revenue Collector J. Pruden, of Elizabeth, was in Fanwood and Plainfield yesterday, and made a tour among the delinquent tobacco and liquor sellers. He gave them until Monday to settle up.

This Horse Got Homesick.

A horse owned by a New Market milkman ran away on Liberty street, Thursday, and it was subsequently found in the barn at home. No serious damage was done.

It's a Valuable Property.

J. B. Coward, executor, is making extensive improvements to the property owned by the Bolce estate on Elm place.

PARTICULAR MENTION.

F. C. Langhorne and family are at The Atalanta, Asbury Park.

Mrs. A. M. Gillem, of North Plainfield, is visiting friends at Bedminster.

Miss Marion Vickery, of Raritan, has been visiting Miss Cora Sheppard.

Mrs. W. C. Ayers, of West Third street, is spending a month at Pottsville, Pa.,

H. Deike, of Grove street, will entertain a party of friends at his home to-morrow.

Miss Clara Staats, of Somerville, has been visiting her Plainfield uncle W. J. Burnett.

The Misses Doran, of Jersey City, are visiting at the home of M. Powers, Somerset street.

Frederick Walker leaves town to-day for Readington, where he will remain until Monday.

Mrs. C. Hillenbrand, of Eighty-fifth street, New York, visited friends in the borough yesterday.

Peter Flynn, of West Third street, has arrived home from a visit with relatives at Johnstown, Pa.

S. C. Terry, of Richmond street, has taken a two weeks' vacation to visit his brother near Oak Tree.

The Rev. C. E. Dunn, of Albany, is visiting his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Solomon Dunn, on Park avenue.

George VanNest, an employe of A. M. Griffen, will spend the next ten days in the suburbs of Bound Brook.

Alexander Gibby Spencer, of Rahway, eldest son of Collector H. N. Spencer of the borough, is visiting his parents.

Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Lynch and baby Helen, of 303 Madison avenue, will spend a portion of August in the Catskills.

Mrs. P. A. Emmons and children Grace and Will left to-day to spend August at the Grand Central Hotel, Asbury Park.

Bert Rogers, Proprietor Beerbower's chief executive at the City Hotel, was taken ill yesterday, but to-day is much better.

J. Somersetstreet Powlison has been absent from his place of business the past week, and is growing young again up in York State.

Miss Casey, one of Edward White's efficient clerks, returns to-day from Whitestone, L. I., where she has been enjoying her vacation.

Mrs. C. Wharton, jr., daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Jackson, of this city, started for the Thousand Islands yesterday afternoon.

Freeman Pangborn has rented a cottage at Asbury Park for the season, and his family are enjoying life at the popular seashore resort.

Cyrus Moore and E. M. Tomlinson attended a lawn party given on the lawn at the Whiting farm near Bound Brook, Thursday evening.

Senator W. J. Keys is making extensive alterations to the old Ross property in East Somerville. It will make an ideal home when completed.

The family of W. E. Lowe, of Park avenue, will spend August amid the beauties of Saranac Lake, for which place they started yesterday.

Mrs. Edwin Chamberlin, formerly Miss Addie Gillette, and son, of San Antonio, Texas, have been visiting Miss May Tomlinson of LaGrande avenue.

J. Ran Dunn, son of Mounted Letter-Carrier E. T. Dunn of West Fourth street, left this morning for the Adirondacks, hoping to regain lost health.

Mrs. David King, of Craig place, is at Ocean Grove, assisting in the care of Cashier F. H. Gardner, whose dangerous illness is causing so much concern.

John Weaver, brother of ex-Councilman David Weaver of the borough, and Izra Hall of Raritan, were in town yesterday on a visit to some of their G. A. R. comrades.

Andrew Lane, a Somerset county Democrat of some note, whose home is in Neshanic, Hillsborough township, was a welcome visitor in North Plainfield yesterday.

Mrs. Wm. Fulmer and daughter Kate, who have been visiting Mrs. J. A. Clark of 502 West Front street, for the last two weeks, will return to their home in Easton, Monday.

A sociable was given in Grace M. E. church, North Plainfield, last evening, under the auspices of the Epworth League. It was a successful affair, and all had a lovely time.

Mrs. Blanchard Fosgate and son, of Park avenue, are home from three delightful weeks at Newport, which they spent in the company of Mrs. James Moore, wife of Col. Moore, of Elizabeth.

The Rev. Dr. Cornelius Brett, a bright speaker, learned scholar, and pastor of the Bergen Reformed church of Jersey City Heights, will preach in Trinity Reformed church to-morrow morning and evening.

U. B. Crane and Geo. H. Cook rode their wheels from here to Asbury Park Wednesday in 5½ hours. Cook rode back by wheel part of the way and by train the balance, and left Crane there for a day or two recreation.

Mr. and Mrs. Richard A. Boyce, of the Somerset House, have just returned from a pleasure trip to the Thousand Islands and the Province of Ontario, Canada. They had an excellent time, and enjoyed the trip immensely.

The Rev. Mark Smalley, who until recently has been preaching in Texas, is at the home of his father, John Smalley, North Plainfield, in a very precarious condition. He was taken ill while in the West, and came home thinking the change would do him good.

$15 FOR THE CRIPPLE.

Commendable Charity of a Trio of Tender-Hearted Maidens.

The lawn at the home of Mr. and Mrs. E. P. Williams was gay yesterday afternoon with the fair held by the eleven-year-old maidens, Misses Eleanor Williams, Annie Littell and Carrie Lawson. It was a most enjoyable event. The neighbors turned out in force and joined heartily in support of the affair. The profit was $15, which was forwarded to-day to a most worthy person, Miss Carrie Dickinson, who has been a bedridden sufferer for 10 years and who is supported solely by such charitable enterprises.

SUN-LIGHT and FRESH AIR are THE BEST DISINFECTANTS, of course; but you can't apply them in every situation. What next? Well, that depends. For damp cellars use Quicklime, plenty of it. For vaults and cesspools use COPPERAS; cheap stuff; we sell it by the pound or hundred-weight—instructions thrown in. For kitchen sinks, for water-closets, for house plumbing, for the sick room, to deodorize discharges, to purify the air and to prevent contagion, use REYNOLDS'S ODORLESS DISINFECTANT. Made and sold for fifteen years at

Reynolds's Pharmacy, Corner Park and North Avenues.

Billy Lee's Good Work.

The Washington, Warren county, baseball team was defeated recently by Somerville, yet The Star, Washington's newspaper, has only praise to say of the umpire:

Mr. Lee, formerly third baseman for the Crescents, of Plainfield, umpired at Somerville Saturday, and his work was very satisfactory to both teams. He thoroughly understood the game, and in every instance rendered honest and final decisions. These two good qualities which he possessed, formed what is now getting to be almost unknown—a capable umpire.

THAT "ROT" FROM PLAINFIELD.

FOUNDER BRADLEY HAS BEEN GROSSLY MISREPRESENTED.

No Negroes Have Been Ordered from the Asbury Park Board Walk, and Plainfield's Irate Colored Man Would Better Draw in His Horns.

The Asbury Park Daily Journal is very emphatic on the Negro question at that resort, and has had its ire aroused by the sensation which a Plainfield Negro and a Plainfield space-writer for New York morning papers have striven to build up for their own vainglory and profit. The Journal stamps as crackbrained the authors of the Plainfield attempt at sensation, heedless of the fact that the space-writer whom it includes in this scathing category is the chap who in his Plainfield paper is continually criticizing the work of New York correspondents and must therefore himself be guiltless of all error and all fake-work. The Journal says:

A fine specimen of the rot being scattered over the country by crack-brained people, pretending to be acting in the interests of the colored population at Asbury Park, is the subjoined telegram from Plainfield, which appeared in yesterday's Sun. It is exceedingly ludicrous. The State League of Colored Republicans will burn their fingers in trying to make political capital over the matter:

There is every indication that the action of Mr. Bradley in expelling colored people from the boardwalk at Asbury Park is likely to play an important part in politics this fall.

William A. Kline, Secretary of the State League of Colored Republicans, who lives at Plainfield, told your correspondent that the League have taken the matter up, and that at a meeting to be held Friday, August 4, a series of resolutions, which have been already prepared, will be adopted in which a demand will be made for equal rights for the colored people.

If Mr. Bradley refuses to reconsider his action, then some plan will be formulated to bring to bear the pressure of those high in authority in the Republican party to have the obnoxious order rescinded. Colored people all over the state, he says, feel very bitterly about the matter, and he is inclined to predict serious political trouble unless the matter is straightened out.

For the information of Mr. Kline and his League it may be stated that Mr. Bradley has expelled no colored people from the boardwalk, neither has he any intention of doing so unless they are disorderly and disturb the peace. Colored people still have the unrestricted freedom of the boardwalk, and the only rule they must obey is the following, which is posted up in three or four places:

COLORED PEOPLE ARE REQUESTED NOT TO OCCUPY THE SEATS IN THE PAVILION
JAMES A. BRADLEY, Prop.

That is all; and Mr. Bradley has explained that it was only after long and serious consideration that he made up his mind to do this. Complaints from summer cottagers and hotel guests became so numerous about the colored people crowding into the best seats in the pavilions that something had to be done.

The League should adopt the course pursued by Lawyer Cowan, of New York, who came here last Sunday expecting to see the colored people confined in pens, like Andersonville and Libby. Mr. Cowan had read the reports about the oppression and ostracism of his race. He had seen them in the papers, and of course supposed they were true; but he had the good sense to make personal inquiries, and after viewing the situation thoroughly he went home believing that he and others had been stuffed with a woolly canard.

Secretary Kline and the League should not shoot wildly in the air. Let them do as Lawyer Cowan did. Colored people, despite numerous protests to the contrary, are in clover when they reach Asbury Park.

Half Rate Excursions to the World's Fair via Washington and the B. & O. R. R.

The Baltimore and Ohio R. R. will run a series of special excursions from New York to the World's Fair at rate of $17.00 for the round trip. The trains will consist of first-class day coaches equipped with lavatories and toilet conveniences. The trains will start from Jersey Central station, foot of Liberty street, New York, at 8:30 a. m., August 5, 9 and 16, and reach Chicago at 4:30 p. m. the following day. Tickets will be valid for outward journey only on the special trains, but will be good returning from Chicago in day coaches on any regular train within 10 days, including day of sale. Stops will be made for meals at the dining stations on the line. A tourist agent and a train porter will accompany each train to look after the comfort of passengers. Tickets will also be sold for these trains at the Jersey Central offices in Newark, Elizabeth, Plainfield, Bound Brook and Somerville. New York offices 172, 415 and 1,140 Broadway, and station foot of Liberty street. 26-w&s-3w

Doubled Its Assets Since December.

The New Jersey Building Loan and Investment Company, of Trenton, which has a flourishing branch in this city, has just issued its semi-annual statement, which shows it to be in a most prosperous condition, with assets of $104,182.48, which is double the assets of Dec. 31, 1892. A quarterly dividend of 4 per cent. is declared. Information of this excellent concern may be obtained of the secretary of the Plainfield division, H. O. Newman, at the office of Boice, Runyon & Co.

This Should Be Stopped.

The residents of Plainfield avenue and West Front street insist that they do not have proper police protection. They say that on Sunday afternoons especially, crowds, of young men and boys congregate in that vicinity, and make insulting remarks to women who pass by.

I feel it my duty to say a few words in regard to Ely's Cream Balm, and I do so entirely without solicitation. I have used it more or less half a year, and have found it to be most admirable. I have suffered from catarrh of the worst kind ever since I was a little boy and I never hoped for cure, but Cream Balm seems to do even that. Many of my acquaintances have used it with excellent results. Oscar Ostrum, 48 Warren ave., Chicago, Ill.

MR. WATSON SERMONIZES.

While Not Defending Johnny Taylor, He Does Censure Mr. Parmele.

TO THE EDITOR OF THE PRESS:—Lemuel W. Serrell puts the question: "Are we savages, or are we civilized?" Does the gentleman mistake his own identity? Is he passionless? Is he not aware that there is no wild beast of the jungle so savage, so bloodthirsty, so cruel, and so devoid of pity, as human beings driven to desperation by the beastly acts of their kind? Would he remain passive as an inanimate piece of stone and see his children abused? If so, he is a different being from any who inhabit this world.

It is all very well to preach "Abide by the law" of the land. It sounds well. And it would be right, if that law was impartial: but is it so? Ask the universe, and it will answer "No!" The rich are protected, and the poor must pay compound interest to balance the scales of justice.

And here we have an outburst of eloquence in behalf of a big, strong man who binds a little boy to a stairway while he goes for a policeman, for the sake of a few sour apples, to try to scare a thirteen-year-old boy with the "majesty of the law". Where does the civilization come in there? Would it not have been better and more in accord with the teachings of the God he professes to worship, to have quietly advised that boy, to point out the error of his way, to appeal to his sense of right and wrong? To use such harsh measures with an infant may have been the result of civilization, but it was not the kind that our Lord died on the cross to perpetuate.

In the eyes of the law the mob was wrong; but let that law be just, and the people will have confidence in it to avenge their wrongs, and they will never seek to take it into their own hands.

I will illustrate by an incident that occurred in a town where I lived to prove that the law does not do its duty.

In a large paper mill it was the custom at certain hours of the night for some of the men to rest for an hour or so. One night a young man about 22 years old lay down on a heap of broken paper to have a rest till his turn on duty came. He went to sleep, and directly over his head a line of shafting was running at a high rate of speed, quite close to the wall. Two middle-aged men were passing through, and, seeing the boy asleep, thought they would be funny. One of them tied a rope around his feet, and then threw the other end of it around the revolving shaft. The idea was to catch the end of the rope in their hands, and pull his feet up, and so scare him; but to their horror the rope lapped around the shaft, and wound the boy up. In less than a moment he was a mischapen mass of flesh and bones, smashed to a pulp. And nothing was done to those men; they were not even discharged from the mill. What kind of law is that to be able by? It is right to have law, but let it be dealt out to its fullest extent, to rich and poor alike; let the people once have confidence in that law, and no such scenes will be enacted in the streets of Plainfield, or any other town, to drag its name to the dust. J. H. WATSON.

THE DIFFERENCE THEN AND NOW.

This Foolish German Threw Away the Chance of a Lifetime to Make a Fortune.

About forty years ago a newly-arrived German purchased a twenty-six acre tract of land on top of the mountain and built a cottage thereon, spending in all about $900 for building, stock, etc. He was then working for the late Thomas Stillman, and Mr. Stillman did all in his power to persuade the German to purchase that tract of land extending from present Park to present Watchung avenue, and comprising about twenty acres, but could not do so. A trifle over $500 was all that was required. The mountain property his children still own, and it has not yet advanced one cent's worth, while the Crescent Avenue church and many of the elegant residences that the eastern end of the city now contains occupy the land that the German could not be prevailed on to purchase and pay for as he pleased for a few paltry dollars.

A TALK ABOUT CHINA.

Plainfield Ahead of Shanghai in the Matter of Street Cars.

Dr. Ella F. Swiney, who has been laboring as a medical missionary in China for the past ten years, gave a very interesting talk this morning in the Seventh-Day Baptist church, telling of her experiences in that empire among the higher and lower classes of the race. The speaker said that Shanghai stood ahead of America's largest cities in its world-wide connections; it had everything in the way of improvements, excepting street cars. Her medical knowledge—she said—had opened to her many doors that would otherwise be closed, thereby giving her the opportunity of reaching the natives spiritually. The evils of the Chinese nation were enumerated, and the difficulties which hindered the work were depicted, but she said she was fast getting the sympathy of the people, and glorious results were sure to follow.

Twenty Years' Experience.

C. D. Fredricks, the well-known photographer, 770 Broadway, New York, says: "I have been using ALLCOCK'S POROUS PLASTERS for 20 years, and found them one of the best of family medicines. Briefly summing up my experience, I say that when placed on the small of the back ALLCOCK'S PLASTERS fill the body with nervous energy, and thus cure fatigue, brain exhaustion, debility and kidney difficulties. For women and children I have found them invaluable. They never irritate the skin or cause the slightest pain, but cure sore throat, coughs, colds, pains in side, back or chest, indigestion and bowel complaint."

SIAM GIVES UP ALL.

YIELDS IN FULL TO THE DEMANDS IN THE FRENCH ULTIMATUM.

Will Evacuate Forts and Pay Indemnities as Set Forth, and Recognize the Rights of Annam and Cambodia on the Mekong.

BANGKOK, July 29.—The Siamese Government has accepted the full terms of the French ultimatum.

The substance of the French ultimatum, sent out July 19, was as follows:

1. A recognition of the rights of Annam and Cambodia on the left or eastern bank of the Mekong River as far north as the twenty-third parallel of latitude.

2. The evacuation within a month of the forts held by the Siamese on the east bank of the river.

3. Full satisfaction for various Siamese aggressions against French ships and French sailors on the Menam River.

4. The punishment of the culprits and provision for the pecuniary immunity of the victims.

5. An indemnity of 2,000,000 francs for various damages sustained by French subjects.

6. The immediate deposit of 3,000,000 francs to guarantee the payment of the fourth and fifth claims, or the assignment of the taxes in certain districts in lieu of the deposit of 3,000,000 francs.

FRANCE BACKS OUT.

She Excepts English Ships from the Blockade—England Threatened War.

LONDON, July 29.—Great Britain yesterday notified France that she refused to recognize the blockade of Siam, and would construe any interference with British commerce as an act of hostility against the British flag. France replied to this ultimatum to-day by withdrawing all restrictions upon British commerce in Siam.

The Lighting Company to Double Its Producing Capacity of Gas and Electricity.

An immense plant is to be made of the Plainfield electric light station. The power-house is to be extended till the building will be double the present size. The dwelling-house at the corner of Second street and Madison avenue is to be removed, and the power-house will be extended part if not all the way to Second street, as well as extended on the Alex. Titsworth property. The capacity will be doubled, two new engines being put in, and additional dynamos. The increase is necessary to meet the growing demand. The present capacity is overtaxed.

The capacity of the gas works is also to be doubled by the huge new tank to be constructed.

Picturesque Route to the Fair.

No other line offers the variety of scenic interest between New York and Chicago that is enjoyed by World's Fair tourists via the Baltimore and Ohio Railroad. Passing through Philadelphia, Baltimore, Washington, the capital of the nation, and by way of Harper's Ferry and the historic Potomac Valley to the Allegheny mountains, which are crossed at an elevation of 3,000 feet above the sea, the traveler sees the arena of the activity of the nation as well as the principal historical features and scenic wonders of the East. He Never Got the Germs in Plainfield.

The Bound Brook Chronicle says:

City Judge Wm. A. Coddington, of Plainfield, spent a couple of days this week in Bound Brook. He has been suffering with chills and fever for some time, but by frequent visits to this place he is gradually eliminating the germs from his system.

Base libel, brother Mason! What's curing the Judge is good Dr. Adams's medicine, and he'd been well long ago had he kept away from the Bound Brook marshes.

The French Ape Salesman Gets 90 Days.

Robert Pierrat, the Frenchman who was obliged to leave Hotel Albion, as told in these columns, and who was arrested in New York for forging Jacob Kirkner's and Mrs. O. T. To Succeed Mr. Kyte of Fanwood.

(From The Elizabeth Journal.)

Mr. Codding, of Westfield, is named as a possible candidate for Assembly in the Third district. An honorable and capable gentleman and a strong candidate, Westfield has sent such excellent legislative timber to Trenton in former years that her claims are well worthy of proper consideration. But Rahway has also an excellent candidate to present in the person of Editor Rollinson of the Advocate. An able man, a thorough Republican, and a man well posted as to the needs of Union county, Rahway, too, has heretofore sent excellent men to the Legislature, and is entitled to consideration. The Third district is rich in men who would honor the State and the party in the halls of legislation.

BETTER COME BACK TO BULL-FROG.

Kennedy Falls Into the Hands of the Philistines Away from Home.

Joseph Natale, a saloon-keeper of 166 Eighth avenue, Newark, was arrested yesterday charged with atrocious assault and battery. Natale was formerly a special police officer, but of late has devoted himself to the saloon business.

Yesterday morning Edward Kennedy, who is known in Plainfield as "first Mayor of Bull-Frog City", and whose son is a hackman here, went into the saloon and ordered a drink. Trouble arose between him and Natale and the latter, it is charged, struck him over the head with some blunt weapon, felling him to the floor.

Kennedy lay there in a half conscious condition, and the saloon-keeper, evidently fearing he had injured the man seriously, became alarmed and was anxious to get him out of the place. He was unable to carry him, so he caught hold of his feet and dragged him out of the door down three stone steps to the sidewalk and then pushed him down the basement steps, where he left him.

People in the neighborhood who witnessed Natale's brutal conduct informed Officer Cochran of what had taken place. The officer found Kennedy just as the saloon-keeper had left him. He was only partially conscious, and it was with difficulty that his name and address could be learned. He was bleeding profusely from the nose and mouth, and also had a gash on the head where he said Natale had hit him.

Cochran then placed the Italian under arrest and sent for the patrol wagon, in which Kennedy was taken to St. Michael's Hospital.

Natale when taken to the station-house denied having struck Kennedy and insisted that the man had fallen down the steps. At the hospital it was impossible to learn the extent of Kennedy's injuries, although it is not believed that his skull was fractured as was at first feared.

Natale will be held until the nature of Kennedy's wounds is clearly determined.

THAT YOU NEED EVERY DAY IN THE YEAR.

Leave Plainfield and you hear of dull times. Funny you don't hear of that around here. Only reason is we are out after the business and if we can't sell goods for profit, will sell for fun.

Have you heard of our sale of 25c Muslin Underwear for Ladies? There are Night Dresses, Skirts, Chemise, Drawers and Corset Covers; never made for a quarter, but that is all we ask for them.

And then our 50c line is something great. There are Hamburg-trimmed Night Dresses, Skirts and Drawers that the manufacturer wanted more for, but he wanted cash and we bought them at our own price.

A Hosiery Bargain—And only for a few days we will sell a Hermsdorf dye stocking for ladies that cost to import $3 per doz., for 23c. pair.

Gentlemen, here's one for you—an extra fine half-hose in tans, best ever made, and the price, 23c., is a low one.

Table Linen and Towels—We picked up a lot of Table Linen at a price that will sell them as quick as we bought them. One lot at 25c., one at 37c. and one at 44c.

Granite Ironware Sale—If you are a housekeeper you will be interested in this sale. No better ware made and the prices are just what you pay for tinware. There are many other bargains in this department that we are anxious to sell and they go for little money.

A BIG SHOE BARGAIN!

We have picked up a lot of

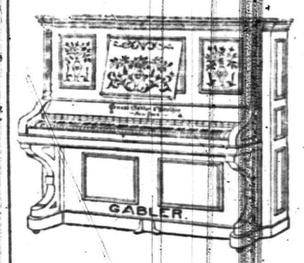
As We Were Saying



The purchase of a musical instrument is an important step. You don't buy a Piano for to-morrow, or day after, but for a long term of years. Saving on the price at the expense of the quality is about as foolish a thing as can well be thought of. We have sifted through the world of Pianos; those we have kept we know to be the best; Steinway, Gabler, Vose, Sterling and Brau-Muller. We are so sure of our judgment that we give a written guarantee with every instrument we sell.

HOW THE BLIND READ.

The Sense of Vision Superseded by That of Touch.

Something About the Invention of Embossed Printing — The First English Book in English Raised Letters— The "Point" System of To-Day.

[Special Letter.]

In this nineteenth century, that teems with the visible evidences of wonderful progress in all the arts and sciences, when the products of the best genius and civilization of the world will be exhibited at the great Columbian exposition, the grandeur and ornate magnificence of which the brightest human eye is inadequate to perceive, it is pitiful to contemplate the fact that there are thousands of human beings who are bereft of the priceless boon of seeing and must be content with the mental transports that come through communion with those who are permitted to see this revelation of the centuries. The sun of nature never shines for them. They are in perpetual darkness. They go in and out and hold communication, with varied forms and invisible speech, by the way of the velvet road of feeling or along the sounding strand of hearing, but the crystal gates are closed. With the eyes of the understanding they come down to the avenues of entrance into the world of light, but there they stand and wait and feel and listen.

The genius of man has been slow to grapple with the problem of devising practical methods for the successful instruction of the blind.

Manifestly the first consideration in devising a scheme that will enable the blind to acquire knowledge is the contrivance of a system of printing and writing that will enable them to read and write without the sense of sight. The sense of vision is a pre-requisite to an adequate conception of the nature and relationship of our environments. It is the sense most frequently brought into requisition by the human mind, and contributes more largely than any other to our happiness.

A close study of the natural laws that govern the operation of the perceptive faculties will reveal the fact that the loss of this important sense of sight sharpens and accelerates the mental processes to a phenomenal degree.

Bereft of the sense of vision the human mind is forced to depend upon that other most important function, closely allied to it in our physiological economy, the sense of touch. It is a beautiful and provident dispensation of the all-wise Father that the sense of touch in his slightest children should have been endowed with susceptibilities of a high order. To the person that is born blind the idea of something external to ourselves rests almost entirely upon the sense of touch. The seat of this sense is the cutaneous surface of the body, which consists of concentric rows of small, conical elevations known as papillae, in which the nerve fibers terminate, and which, when developed to a condition of acute sensibility, transmit to the brain the nature of the object with which they come in contact with the certainty and velocity of the electric current. On the palmer surface of the hand, particularly at the tips of the fingers, these papillae are more sensitive than at any other point on the surface of the body, except at the tip of the tongue.

It was a natural sequence of these facts that the earliest efforts of the educators of the blind were directed toward the invention of a system of raised, or embossed, letters, that would enable the blind to read easily and quickly by the sense of touch.

The earliest recorded instances of reading by the sense of touch are found in the history of some South American tribes who read by a system of strings tied with numerous knots of different sizes and at various distances apart, all of which had some alphabetical significance. When the Spaniards invaded Peru they found these masses of woolen strings and knots securely stored away in substantially-constructed boxes.

Instructors of the blind who have made a study of the advancement made in systems of printing and writing are pretty generally united in according to the French people the honor of being foremost in the work of embossed printing. The ingenious French had brought this art to a remarkable degree of perfection almost a half century before work of this kind was done in England and at least a quarter of a century before any was done in Germany. The French schools for the blind are the oldest and among the best in the world.

The growth and gradual perfection of a successful system of embossed printing and writing precipitated a never-ending controversy in regard to the relative merits of various alphabets. Naturally the first thought was to construct a series of raised letters that should be similar in form to the letters of the English alphabet but with certain modifications that should simplify them and adapt them more readily to the sense of touch.

A brief reference to a few of the more important efforts in the line of embossed alphabets will suffice for the purposes of this paper. The honor of doing the first embossed printing is usually ascribed to Valentine Haney, founder of the first school for the blind a b c d e f g h i j k l m n o

p q r s t u v w x y z

HANEY'S PARISIAN TYPE.

in the world at Paris, in 1874. The date of his successful work in embossed printing is that of 1786. For the printing of embossed characters he had made a number of wooden types which he locked in a wooden frame and from which he printed a small work entitled "Essai sur l'education des Avengles." The publication of the book excited much wonder and interest, and it was subsequently translated into English and German. The style of type used by Haney was Roman italic.

The distinction of having printed the first book in English raised letters is generally accredited to Mr. James Gall, of Edinburg, who performed this feat in 1827. Mr. Gall had seen specimens of printing in French and German, and, being a practical publisher and printer, he at once devoted himself to the task of devising a series of raised letters that would in his judgment be better adapted to the uses of both the children and the adult blind. He also cherished the ambition to simplify the work of printing for the blind so that it could be done in any printing office. It was conceded that his type was an improvement over the Parisian system; nevertheless there were many blind persons who could not read it all, and it was evident from the start that type that was destined to become universal must be more tangible, and this led to the construction of the serrated type, which were made of a series of points or punctures, arranged in the form of letters; and thus was laid the foundation of the "point system," which has proved to be such an inestimable boon to the blind.

Among the early workers in America the name of Samuel G. Howe stands preeminently first. His services in behalf of the blind in this country have been of inestimable value. His name is inseparably linked with the education of the blind, and to him modern educators of the blind ascribe great honor. From the time of his return from Greece in 1832 to his death in 1876 he was indefatigable and unrelenting in his studious and painstaking devotion to the cause of the sightless unfortunates. After a tour among the best institutions for the blind in Europe he began in 1834 to print books in what was once a popular system in this country, the "Boston type." In the invention of this type Mr. Howe ignored capital letters and devised a system of slightly modified lower case letters.

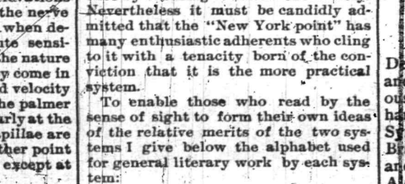
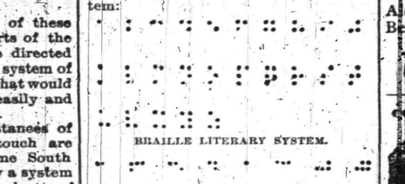
These various systems of line type, however, have become obsolete in nearly all the leading institutions of the world, the "point system" having superseded it because of its more perfect adaptation to the sense of touch and by reason of its easy adjustability to all forms of writing, including musical notation and the expression of mathematical calculations. There are two forms of "poiat" systems now in general use, the "Braille" and the "New York point." Between the advocates of these systems there has been constant and at times bitter contention. It is not the purpose of this paper to enter into this controversy or to discuss in any way the relative merits of the two systems. Suffice it to say that there appears at this time to be a preponderance of "evidence" in favor of the Braille system, although it is a fact that for the past twelve years most of the embossed printing done in this country has been done by the American printing house for the blind, at Louisville, which receives an annual subsidy of $10,000 from congress and which uses the "New York point." It is a fact, however, that a large proportion of the educators of the blind in our leading state institutions express a decided preference for the Braille and emphasize their preference by teaching it almost exclusively. Nevertheless it must be candidly admitted that the "New York point" has many enthusiastic adherents who cling to it with a tenacity born of the conviction that it is the more practical system.

To enable those who read by the sense of sight to form their own ideas of the relative merits of the two systems I give below the alphabet used for general literary work by each system:



BRAILLE LITERARY SYSTEM.



NEW YORK POINT.

The Braille system takes its name from its inventor, Louis Braille, a blind teacher in the school at Paris. He was not the inventor of a point system, however. Charles Barbier, an officer in the French army, devised the first point system. The cell, as we term it, contained twelve points, in two rows of six each. The letters being six dots long, the finger could not cover them all at a single touch. No practical use was ever made of the system, but it gave the talented Braille the idea upon which he founded the system that bears his name, and through which so much has been done for the advancement of the blind.

THE BUSINESS CLOUD

An Interesting Mixture of Good and Bad News.

DEPRESSION REACHES HOMESTEAD

Big Iron Concerns Discharge Employes to Reduce Expenses—American Tube Company to Resume—Minor Enterprises Meet With Difficulties.

CHICAGO, July 31.—The Dairy Kitchen and hotel and restaurant, State and Madison streets, was closed by the sheriff yesterday afternoon. As a result 150 employes are turned out with considerable back pay owing them, and many of them without the price of a meal on hand. Up to a late hour the employes thronged about the barred doors and it was only when informed by the receiver that they would all be paid to-day that the angry crowd disbanded. The liabilities of the concern are $35,000 and the assets, which consist only of a short time lease on the building and some paid furnishings, are $8,000. George D. Smith, proprietor of the place, came from New York last June and rented the building at $250 a day. He fitted rooms with bunks four and six in a room, which he proposed to rent at $3 each. About half the employes had rooms in the hotel and the proprietor told them that they must vacate them. Smith has two places in New York, one called the Columbia, on Fourteenth street, and the Union Square on Broadway. Both were attached on judgments entered last week in New York.

Nothing Alarming.

PITTSBURG, July 31.—No protracted stoppages of any of the Carnegie Steel Company's big plants have been ordered and none are immediately probable. Secretary Lovejoy was visited yesterday, and, in view of the recent reports which have been sent out from Braddock about the Edgar Thomson Steel Works, consented to a short interview.

He would not speak of the company's intentions further than to say the various works would be run while there were orders to be supplied, but there will be no piling up of stock. He, however, denied most of the rumors which pretend to tell what the company will do.

As regards to the Edgar Thomson, there is no general suspension likely to be made soon.

The running of the plate mill at Homestead is nothing unusual. It has happened often before, and is in fact an ordinary method of operators when orders get scarce.

The mill will probably be started on double turn again next week.

Shoe Business Slack.

SOUTH FRAMINGHAM, Mass., July 31.—The dullness in the boot and shoe manufacturing business has at last been felt in South Framingham to a slight extent. Gregoroy, Shaw & Company the large local concern which ordinarily runs fifty weeks in the year, has laid off some twenty-five or more of its thirty-two cutters for a week and possibly longer. The concern has quite a large amount of stock cut ahead so that the departments will not be immediately affected by this cut down, and may not be at all. The company has very few time orders to work upon at present. Sample shoes for next season's trade already been made up.

Dull Time at Homestead.

PITTSBURG, July 31.—The trouble among the Iron mills resulting from the unsettled trade conditions has at last come to effect the steel works of the Carnegie company at Homestead. Commencing tonight, the night turns will not run in the plate mill. This is rated as especially significant because this particular department has never been slack in orders before. It has been running three turns, and under the new arrangement, the men in each turn will work every third week. The announcement causes general comment and speculation.

Westinghouse Reduces.

PITTSBURG, Pa., July 31.—The working force of the Westinghouse Airbrake company at Wilmerding, will, it is stated, be further reduced by the temporary discharge of between 200 and 300 men. Those who remain at work will suffer a reduction of from 15 to 20 per cent. in wages. Two weeks ago 400 men were discharged. Such reduction has not been offered to workmen in mills in the western part of the State for many years. It is not thought that the workmen will make any remonstrance.

He Didn't Mind a Million.

PORTLAND, Ore., July 31.—President Julius Lowenberg, of the Merchants' National bank of Portland, in order to meet the demands made upon his bank for money, put up as security to one of the large trust institutions, property valued at a million dollars, and obtained more than sufficient to meet all demands that may be made.

Securities Missing.

CONCORD, N. H., July 31.—It is understood that securities for a large amount are missing from the assets of the People's Fire Insurance Company, of Manchester, of which Merrill, the absconding bank cashier, was treasurer.

To Resume Business.

HARRISBURG, Pa., July 31.—It is learned from a semi-official source that the American Tube and Iron Works at Middletown will resume operations this week.

Royal Yachting.

LONDON, July 30.—The measurements of Royal Phelps Carroll's Navahoe have not yet been received at Cowes from the Yacht Racing Association. She may now race without being measured. Many yachtsmen at Cowes find the Navahoe similar to the Satanita. Of all the large tonners she has the heaviest rating. Emperor William has some hopes of winning the Queen's Cup in to-morrow's race, and many Germans have gone down to Cowes to see what his Meteor can do. The Valkyrie, with Lord Dunraven aboard, is already in the Roads. All the hotels and boarding houses at Cowes are full.

Bicycle Manufacturers Meet.

CHICAGO, July 31.—The manufacturers of bicycles announce that they will withdraw their exhibits from competition, giving as a reason that Irving Miller, who was appointed as juror of awards, is employed by a rival concern.

THE STANDARD'S MIGHTY HAND.

A Colorado Oil Company Being Pushed to the Wall.

DENVER, July 31.—The Rocky Mountain Oil Company, which eighteen months ago established a large petroleum plant near Pueblo for the purpose of disputing the trade of the Rocky Mountain region with the Standard and Continental oil companies, has been forced to make certain concessions which it is believed will lead to its ultimate absorption by its formidable rivals.

Under the new arrangement the Rocky Mountain Company's plant is to be kept busy as heretofore, but the refined oils and and manufactured products are to be marked wholly by the Continental Company. As a result the prices of illuminating oils, which have ranged from five to seven cents per gallon, will be advanced materially. The Continental Oil Company is but a feeder for the Standard. It is believed that such further pressure will be brought to bear as will result in the dissolution of the new corporation.

Mayor John Coon, one of the petrolum experts of the United States, who has occupied the position of president and general manager of the company from its organization, has tendered his resignation.

JUST TO ACCOMMODATE.

How Bank Clerks Made Notes for Col. Robinson.

They Say They Signed Their Names Because the Colonel Asked Them to Do So, and Thought No More About the Matter.

NEW YORK, July 31.—The Herald tells an interesting story in connection with the failure of the Elmira National Bank of Elmira, N. Y. After the failure three notes, aggregating $54,000, turned up among the assets. All of them bore a New York date and all were made on the same day. One was for $17,000, made payable on demand to the order of the Elmira National Bank, signed by George B. Israel, and others, made in the same form, were signed, the first, for $19,000 by H. S. Roll, and the second, for $18,000 by F. M. Mollenhauer. These notes, it is stated, were deposited in the Elmira National Bank by Col. D. C. Robinson, Mayor of that city and a son of the late ex-Governor Lucius Robinson, and discounted by Cashier Bush. Col. Robinson was a large stockholder in the bank.

The first reference to these notes was made by United State Bank Examiner Gutchell in a complaint he made against Cashier Bush. The lattter is now under $20,000 bonds, awaiting action by the grand jury on several charges growing out of the bank failure, one of them being that he had altered the books to show that the notes had been deposited two days before they were placed in the bank.

The identity of the signers of the three notes was a matter of the deepest mystery. Bank officials came to New York to learn who they were and the extent of their financial responsibility, but their names could not be located in New York or Brooklyn directories or in the ratings of commercial agencies, nor were they known about the stock exchange. At last their identity has transpired. They are clerks in the banking house of Isaac N. Newcomb & Co., in the United Trust building at No. 43 Wall street. Not a single one of them has a dollar outside of a clercial salary. They did it on their own responsibility and to accommodate the Colonel, whom they believed to be a millionaire. They never expected to pay the notes and they probably never will. Young Israel in an interview with a reporter said:

"Col. Robinson was an old customer of the house," said he. "I knew his family connections and official standing, and thought he was worth several millions. One day while Mr. Newcombe was in the Bermudas, and his partner, Mr. Camille Weldenfeld, was at home sick, Col. Robinson came to Mr. Roll, Mr. Mollenhauer and myself here in the office and asked us to sign the notes.

"We thought it would be all right if we could accommodate him and so signed the notes. I don't remember that he explained why he wanted the notes, and I didn't even charge my mind with the matter until reminded of it by the failure."

Israel admits his inability to meet his note, but does not fear the consequence. He is sorry now, however, and says he was "foolish."

Mr. Weidenfeld corroborated Israel's story, and said he thought that the young men had made a serious mistake in signing the notes, but that Col. Robinson had evidently presumed upon former business transactions with the house. Roll and Mollenhauer could not be seen. It is probable all three of the clerks will have to appear before the grand jury when it begins its investigation of the bank failure.

SILVER MEN AND POPULISTS.

Opposition to Any Inflammatory Harangues.

CHICAGO, July 31.—About 100 delegates to the National Silver Convention had registered at the headquarters in the Montauk block up to yesterday afternoon according to advices received by the committee on arrangements.

Senator Wolcott, of Colorado, and Congressman Boen, of Minnesota, were among the arrivals at the Grand Pacific. They tarried long enough only to remove the dust of travel and take dinner and then continued their journey to Washington. In conversation with some of the local silver men who were anxious that he should remain for the convention, Senator Wolcott said that he felt that he could be of more service to the party at the National Capital in view of the fact that the make-up of committees and other important matters would command consideration during the coming week. Congressman John H. Reagan, of Texas, also arrived at the Grand Pacific.

The National Executive Committee of the people's party has established itself in the same hotel. Only H. G. Taubeneck, Treasurer Balkin of Terre Haute and George J. Washburn, of Massachusetts, chairman of the eastern division of the people's party have so far put in an appearance.

It is understood that the Populists in the convention will vigorously resist any attempt to form any new party on the ground that the Omaha platform concedes everything that is demanded by the silverites and as a consequence the latter could not do better than to come into the Populist fold in a body.

The leading silverites already on the ground, however, are strongly opposed to any inflammatory or demagogic harangues under the cover of the convention. They want it, they say, to be a sober, calm and deliberative body and if Governor Waite or any others should undertake to repeat their recent wild utterances they will speedily be called down and sent to the rear.

NO MISSIONARY SAFE.

Americans Attacked and Robbed by Turks.

The Presbyterian Board of Foreign Missions Ask the Government to Take Decisive Action.

NEW YORK, July 31.—The Presbyterian Board of Foreign Missions have sent a letter to Secretary of State Gresham requesting that immediate and decisive action be taken by the Government in regard to the outrage on Miss Anna Melton, the missionary of the Board who was assaulted by unknown persons on June 14, while temporarily staying in the Nestorian village of Duree, in the heart of the Koordish mountains in Asiatic Turkey.

In their memorial to the State Department, the members of the board urge in the strongest manner that no stone shall be left unturned to compel the Turkish government to punish the offenders and to make ample address for the outrage. The letter cites many instances in which Americans have been attacked and robbed by the inhabitants of Turkey witho it vigorous protest on the part of the United States. It is urged that unless some decided action is taken forthwith the life of no American missionary will be safe within the domains of the Sultan.

From advices just received from the Rev. E. W. McDowell, in charge of the party to which Miss Melton belonged, it would appear that the attack upon the woman was not made by a wandering band of robbers, is was at first believed, but by soldiers who were instigated to the deed by the authorities of Amadia, a city a few miles distant from the scene of the assault. There is evidence, according to Mr. McDowell, that the brother of the Governor of Amadia, was implicated in the matter. Miss Melton is reported as having practically recovered from the effects of the beating which came near being a murder.

A HUGE SWINDLE.

Banks Lend $1,500,000 on Forged Elevator Certificates.

NEW YORK, July 31.—The World's Boston special says that a hugh conspiracy has been unearthed, whereby seventy-three banks and banking institutions in New England were victimized. The story is to the effect that certain employes of the Northern Pacific Elevator Company of Minnesota, issued $1,500,000 worth of forged duplicate certificates for grain on storage in the country elevators owned by the concern, where the inspection is not so strict as at the terminal elevators. These forged certificates were deposited with Eastern banks as collateral. About $800,000 was secured in New England and the balance in New York. Some of the eastern holders of the paper became suspicious and on an invrstigation being made the true state of affairs came to light. The stockholders of the elevators were dumfounded when the facts came to their notice and offers of settlement with the banks were at once made and terms of compromise offered. The company was then reorganized as the Lake Superior Elevator Company, with George Cooksey, of David Dows & Co., New York, as President.

The terms offered to the banks were 60 per cent. cash, the remainder to be paid in five annual payments. A committee of bankers whose institutions sold big blocks of the elevator certificates was appointed to consider this proposition.

It is impossible to say exactly what course the bankers will pursue, as they are very loth to talk, and in fact they have done all in their power to keep the whole affair from the public. The few who do say anything, and they are very few, admit that they have been swindled, and declare that the swindlers ought to be sent to prison. At the same time they say that good business policy, under present conditions, forbids such severe action, especially as the stockholders of the elevator company are ready to make a compromise settlement.

The Northern Pacific Elevator Company is now in the hands of a receiver and the frauds of its employes have wiped out its existence.

Among the New England banks swindled are nearly all the State street institutions at Boston, which were hit heavily, banks at Portland, Me., and various banks in the towns about Boston.

WHAT CONGRESS MAY DO

The Advance Guard of the Special Session.

SILVER THE ABSORBING TOPIC.

General Opinion that the Sherman Act Will Be Repealed, but All Sorts of Ideas About What Action Will Follow—What Prominent Congressmen Have to Say.

WASHINGTON, July 31.—The advance guard of members of the 53rd Congress, coming to attend the special session, which will begin a week from to day, are at the Capital. There are not many of them, and the probabilities are that but few Congressman will be in the city before next Saturday. Among those who have arrived the opinion seems to be unanimous that the Sherman law will and must be repealed, or at least the silver purchasing clause, but what shall follow is an unknown quantity. One of the early arrivals is Representative Geary of California, known in connection with the Chinese Exclusion and Registration Act, which bears his name. He said:

"I am opposed to the so-called Sherman Act. I have always been. It is vicious and time does not improve it. The sooner it is repealed the better for the whole country. Of course some subsequent legislation will be necessary, but I am not prepared to say what it will be, because at this time I do not know. I am satisfied, however, that the Sherman law will go and that in its stead we will have something of benefit instead of harm. I could not tell you how my colleagues individually stand, for I have had no very extended talks with them on the subject. In place of the present tariff law, the chances are that we will have one that is new from top to bottom. There will be very radical changes in the schedule. The country expects this. The declarations of the Democartic platform are so plain that there is no chance to misunderstand them. I do not think that action upon the silver question or the tariff will be so long delayed as some papers and persons seem to have imagined.

"The session will naturally be lengthy, as we have many other things to do. The Democracy will come out all right, I guess. It has a fair working majority and I think that both sides—the silver men and single standard men—are disposed to be reasonable."

Another equally as interesting and important Congressional character is Senator Quay, of Pennsylvania, who said in reply to a question on the prevailing topic:

"I think the silver purchasing clause of the Sherman act should be repealed. That seems to be the concensus of opinion from those who know most about the financial situation. I would be satisfied to have Congress adjourn after having done that until the regular time of meeting."

CHICAGO, July 31.—Senator E. O. Wolcott, of Colorado, is here on his way to Washington. Though desiring to be present at the silver convention the senator said he was compelled to go to Washington where the real battle must be fought. He has no doubt that free coinage will triumph at the special session. He said the deplorable condition of affairs all through the mining region of the West has strengthened the determination of the silver people and it may become a battle for the preservation of the financial and commercial interests of the West. The effect of the crisis is becoming apparent in the East and only the establishment of free coinage can relieve the nation from a financial ruin worse than any it has ever experienced. The Sherman bill will not be repealed without an adequate satisfactory substitute. The battle in Congress will not be over the repeal of the Sherman law but over the character of a substitute and that seems to narrow down to the ratio to be established between gold and silver.

INDIANAPOLIS, July 31.—Congressman W. D. Bynum, who is returned home from Washington, takes a rather gloomy view of the financial situation. He says: "I have not talked with members of Congress sufficiently to form an idea as to what action may be taken. I am not a believer in either free silver or gold, but am an out-and-out bimetalist. It is clearly apparent to me that the financial stringency does not depend on the amount of money in circulation, but rather on the influences that control circulation. I anticipate lively times when Congress convenes, as the session will be one in which every member will say something as well as vote."

CHICAGO, July 31.—Congressman Cannon, of Danville, will leave for Washington this evening to be on hand at the opening of the special session of Congress. He declined to say how he will vote on the repeal of the Sherman Silver act. "I am in favor," he said, "of keeping all currency at a parity and having every dollar issued by the Government as good as the best dollar ever made. The seed for the present condition was sown in November when the Democratic party was victorious on a platform demanding the repeal of the Sherman act, the repeal of the tax on State bank circulation, and a tariff for revenue only. Mr. Cleveland can apply a remedy in less than 20 minutes, if he chooses to, by writing to the Secretary of the Treasury telling him to issue bonds as necessary, and at the same time telling the country that he considers it his duty to veto all financial bills that will come before him during his administration. If that were done confidence would be restored and corresponding prosperity would follow."

Winks—Let him design a new postage stamp.—Life.

THE SILVER QUESTION.

What the Denver Committee Want Congress to Do.

DENVER, July 31.—The Committee of the Chamber of Commerce and Board of Trade appointed to prepare a memorial to Congress in favor of an increase of the circulating medium of the country by the free coinage of the silver produced from the mines of the United States, and to demand a paying-out of the money hoarded in the vaults of the Treasury, has made its report through its chairman, ex-Governor John Evans.

The report is addressed to the members of the Senate and House of Representatives. Among other things it prays Congress to require the Secretary of the Treasury to pay out on the debts of the Government, including pensions, contracts and appropriations, all of the legal tender silver coin now in the Treasury; to require the Secretary of the Treasury to coin into legal tender money and pay out in like manner on the debts of the Government all of the silver bullion now, or which may hereafter be, in the Treasury; and to put into circulation the reserve of $100,000,000 of gold in the Treasury.

CROP PROSPECTS WEST.

Corn and Wheat Fully Equal to Last Year.

Money Scarce and Farmers Keep What They Have in Their Pockets Leaving the Banks None to Lend.

CHICAGO, July 31.—A review of the crop situation shows that the country has gone through trying weather during the week just closed. At this stage of the growing season and with everything in the future in doubt it is simply impossible to say what extent of injury the corn crop has sustained.

Iowa reports that corn now is as far advanced as in an average season at this time. The prospects, provided rain comes soon, are good for a full crop, as compared with last year. A free movement of old corn during August and September is looked for and to a certain extent much holding cribbed corn will let it go. Farmers are absorbing a great amount of corn in the country which will reduce shipments materially. Oats are reported generally as poorly filled and rust has prematurely ripened them.

Nebraska reports that corn has tasseled out generally at an average height. One more good rain and the prospects point to an average yield.

Missouri has not suffered much for rain at any time during the present season and the general prospects of the crop are fully as good as last year. In Central Kansas the outlook for corn is good. The early corn is just beginning to tassel and will need rain all through August to make a crop. In Eastern Kansas, along the border, some of the early corn is damaged by the recent hot winds. Texas reports it is almost impossible to get money to carry wheat on at this date. Corn will be 20 per cent. below last year's crop. In Central Tennessee threshing is finished and the yield to the acre is 20 to 25 per cent. less than last season. The prospects for corn in some districts are very poor and in others good. Kentucky is also winding up her threshing, having on the whole a fair average crop. Corn is needing rain, and at present is in a critical state.

In Southern Kansas three-fourths of the wheat has been stacked. The tendency to hold wheat until late in the season will dealers find great difficulty in getting money to move the crop. Every one who has any money puts it into his pocket and leaves the banks nothing to lend. Northern Kansas reports that wheat is turning out worse than was expected. Northern Missouri reports that farmers are making slow progress threshing winter wheat. The yield of the crop is from five to twelve bushels to the acre.

In Central Michigan threshing has been done in a few places, but farmers are not inclined to sell at present prices. So far the average is 20 per cent. short of last year, but the quality is good. Farmers are talking of reducing their acreage 50 per cent. this fall. Southern Michigan reports wheat nearly all stacked, but no threshing done yet. Money is hard to get. Ohio reports but little threshing so far. The price is so extremely low that the majority of farmers are stacking their wheat. The quality of the crop is generally good, and the yield probably the best of any of the winter wheat States. Northern Indiana reports very little wheat marketed. Southern Indiana shows fair progress in threshing with a light demand from millers.

Benzine Worse Than Bedbugs.

PATERSON, N. J., July 31.—William Gardner, a jeweler, his wife and four-months-old baby were frightfully burned at their home, 241 Straight street, by an explosion of benzine. The couple had been troubled by bedbugs for the past few weeks and decided to exterminate the pests. They began their work in a bedroom in the rear of the store by saturating the cracks and the crevices in the bedstead with benzine. Mrs. Gardner lighted a match to see what effect the benzine had on the bugs and drooped it into the can containing the liquid. A terrific explosion followed, filling the room with flames. The jeweler was badly burned on the face and hands. The flesh on Mrs. Gardner's wrists and fingers was burned almost to the bone. The baby was lying in one corner of the room. Scarcely a spot on its body escaped the burning fluid. The family was removed to St. Joseph's hospital. Gardner and his wife will recover, but the baby will die.

Train Wrecking for Fun.

CONEY ISLAND, N. Y., July 31.—The 8:31 train from Bay Ridge over the Sea Beach railroad to Coney Island came near being wrecked yesterday morning and 300 passengers had a narrow escape from death or injury. Three Brooklyn men were arrested for placing a handcar across the track. They were H. E. Stone, George Springer and Edward Hilen. They left the handcar at King's Highway just as the train was rounding the curve. Fortunately Morris K. Moses, of Gravesend, saw the car on the track and signalled the train in time to prevent a serious accident. The three men were sent to jail till Wednesday when they will be arraigned for trial. They said they were only fooling and meant no harm.

WAR BARELY AVERTED

France Backs Down Before England.

SIAM YIELDS ALL TO FRANCE.

Lord Dufferin Again Distinguishes Himself as a Diplomat—Great Britain Will Not Tolerate a Blockade—Lengthy Negotiations Expected.

LONDON, July 31.—Beyond question the Siamese affair brought France and Great Britain much nearer hostilities than the public have realized. The Earl of Rosebery, British Foreign Secretary, has had virtually a free hand in the negotiations with France, and has found an able supporter in the Marquis of Dufferin, British Ambassador in Paris. Each has maintained a dignified attitude far removed from bluster, but firm beyond any misunderstanding. Together they impressed on the French official mind unmistakably their intention not to let anybody ride roughshod over British interests in the East.

Great Britain's protest that the blockade of the Siamese coast was illegal and her suggestion that interference with British commerce would not be tolerated, were made with such unqualified plainess that the French Ministers were sobered at once and conceded the justice of the British govenment's contention. There now is little doubt that a pacific settlement of the dispute will be accomplished shortly. That such is the case is attributable no less to Great Britain's attitude than to Siam's surrender.

The Siamese Legation in this city has received a despatch from Bangkok stating in effect that the Siamese Government, learning that France regards its reply to the ultimatum as a refusal to grant the French demands, and being most desirous of maintaining peace, has telegraphed instructions to the Siamese Minister at Paris to inform M. Develle, the French Foreign Minister, that Siam accepts the ultimatum in its entirety. The despatch adds that the Siamese Government hopes that the blockade will cease, and that diplomatic negotiations will be resumed.

Although Siam now agrees to give up territory which both England and China claim, the interest in the final settlement of the question will probably be a subject of long negotiations between the three powers. As a matter of fact France will probably get no more than Siam conceded in the first reply to the French ultimatum. France asserts that she is now at liberty to make fresh terms with Siam on such a basis as suits her. It is hardly probable that she will increase her demands.

It is believed that France, nominally in graciousness to Siam, but really out of respect for British intervention, will leave to Siam the territory north of the eighteenth parallel. The principal burden of the compromise will be found by the French Government in persuading the French voters at the near election that the Ministry of Dupuy has achieved a glorious victory. Their success must depend largely upon the result of the present Cabinet dissensions. Rumors thicken that Ministerial resignations and a general Cabinet crisis are imminent. The candidates for the Chamber are already submitting their declarations to their constituents.

The meeting of the Ministers to consider Siam's unreserved acceptance of France's ultimatum was held at the Elysee between 5 and 7 o'clock last evening. President Carnot came from Marly-le-Roy to preside. After deciding to accept Siam's concession of the French demands the Ministers deferred further action until measures should have been taken to guarantee Siam's fulfilment of the French demands. They took steps, however, to inform M. Favie, French Minister Resident, now at Koh-Si-Chang, of Siam's acceptance of the ultimatum and the consequent action of yesterday's Council.

The conference of the Ministers was prolonged by a discussion of the steps which might be necessary in settling the boundary question between France and Great Britain. A certain amount of difficulty is expected to embarrass this part of the negotiations. Another Cabinet meeting will be held to-morrow, when an effort will be made to have all the Ministers present.

BANGKOK, July 31.—While the government of Siam accepted without reservations France's ultimatum, it received previously the assurance that the kingdom would not be dismembered until after the consideration by all powers concerned of France's demand for the territory between the eighteenth and twenty-third parallels. It is somewhat remarkable that before Prince Vadhana, Siamese Minister in Paris, could have received his instructions to accept the ultimatum, Great Britain's refusal to recognize the blockade had become known in this city.

The blockade is still maintained. The British government mail has been allowed to pass, but mercantile correspondence with Siamese firms has been cut off. An effort is making, therefore, to render efficient an overland postal service via Tavoy and Rangoon

An Old Teller Goes Wrong.

PATERSON, N. J., July 31.—A defalcation of $10,650 has been discovered in the cash of the First National Bank of this city. The money has been abstracted since July 1. The loss was discovered by United States Bank Examiner George W. Stone in an official examination. He informed the officers of the bank and went before Alfred Vanhovengers, commissioner of the Circuit Court of New Jersey, and made a complaint against Abram Fardon, the paying teller. He was arrested and committed to the county jail. The money was taken from four packages containing $5,000 each. Ten dollars bills were abstracted from them and replaced with one dollar bills. The bank is insured with the Fidelity Casualty Company, of New York, for $10,000, leaving a loss to the bank of only $650 which was on Saturday charged to profit and loss by the directors. The defaulting teller is fifty years old and unmarried. He has been connected with the bank for twenty-five years, and some years ago was cashier of it. The prisoner admitted that he was responsible for the loss of the money and asked that he be committed to prison.

Said to be Satisfied.

EASTON, Pa., July 31.—At the meeting of the five allied organizations of employes of the Lehigh Valley division of the Reading road yesterday afternoon, reports were received from the Grievance Committee, which has been in Philadelphia during the past week. No action was taken. Railroad men present say the employes are satisfied with the progress made.

Jockey MacDonald has been fined $100 and set down two weeks for careless riding at Gloucester.

Why the Girls Flock to the Shore.

A handsome figure on the famous boardwalk at Asbury Park, recent evenings, has been William Thiers, son of the Somerset street dental surgeon. The doctor and his beautiful young wife are justly proud of the son, for he has developed into a remarkably fine young man, and in his cadet uniform he makes so stalwart and dashing an appearance that the gay Summer belles of the Park flock in numbers about him, delighted to promenade under his escort or to sit beside him on the sand in the moonlight and listen to the romance of the sea waves' song.

An Attractive House Is The Arlington.

Henry Windham, a popular young man in this city, who was recently a partner in the Central Hotel management, has gone in business for himself. He has purchased the Arlington Hotel on Somerset street at the corner of Greenbrook road, and has the place fitted up in first-class style. Besides all the modern conveniences for summer boarders, he is in shape to accommodate transients. He has a bar and bowling alley attached, together with a pool room.

Sunday Base-Ball.

The Ivy Leaf Association of West Third street played a great game of ball yesterday, against the Neverweets at New Market. The New Markets won by the score of 2 to 1. The features of the game were the superior batting of the Ivy Leafs, and the absence of the police.

He Tells The Press About His Trip, and Talks Interestingly of the Great Work He Went to Superintend—His Machinery Succeeds Where the Great Old Romans Failed—Ready Now for North Plainfield's Business Again—What He Thinks of the North Avenue Sewer Matter.

Mayor William L. Saunders returned home Saturday on the steamship Campania, after an extended visit to Europe. A representative of The Press called on Mr. Saunders soon after he reached home, and found him suffering with a sty on his eyelid, and endeavoring to keep cool with the mercury out of sight. In spite of his discomfort, he talked freely on subjects of general and local interest, and told The Press about the colossal engineering work, in the interest of which he went abroad, that is going on at the "Iron Gates" of the Danube, where the river forces its way through the Carpathian mountains in Hungary near Servia.

"I spent two weeks in London and one in Paris,"—said Mr. Saunders—"but most of my time was in the East, investigating the work going on in the Danube. The present work has been in progress since 1856, and much has already been accomplished. The money for the undertaking has been supplied in a great measure by Hungary and Servia, which for a long time past have imposed a toll on all vessels passing their borders.

"The river flowing down through Austria from its source near that of the Rhine, swelled in volume and breadth by the numerous tributaries, is, at the point where it passes through the Carpathian mountains near the town of Orsovo, confined between two huge cliffs not 200 feet apart at the surface of the river and towering up on either side to the immense height of 400 metres (over 1,200 feet). The peculiar formation of the limestone rocks which lie in strata at every possible angle and jut out in great masses, has caused the name of The Castle to be given to this pass. The river, being suddenly confined in this small space, rushes through with great speed and force, so that it makes navigation up stream nearly impossible. This difficulty is being overcome by blasting out the whole side of the cliff and widening the river so that it will flow peacefully where it had rushed for centuries. Just below The Castle the river widens and suddenly changes into a rapid shallow stream. This forms the so-called Iron Gates that render this part of the river impassable except to very small craft that are able to run the rapids. One side of this open space in the river has been dammed, the water pumped out, and a channel cut out of the rock 250 feet wide and nearly a mile long and lined throughout with masonry. This work is nearly completed, and nine months more will suffice to finish it. When it is completed, the water will be let in, and the Danube will be passable to all craft from its mouth to a point beyond Vienna."

The special machinery used in drilling and dredging the hard rock under water is the part of the work most interesting to Mr. Saunders, as he was the first to introduce its use in this country as well as abroad, and it is through his efforts that the work has gone on so satisfactorily. A number of boats are fitted with this machinery, and employed in dredging out a channel in various parts of the river near the works.

Mr. Saunders told much more that was of interest, but lack of space forbids its insertion. One interesting thing about the work is that the Romans endeavored to accomplish the same thing by building a canal around the rapids, and the remains of the attempt may still be seen. The Emperor Trajan in the First Century built a road of timbers along the cliff where the river goes through the mountains, and the holes in the rock that held the supports may still be seen. Having no explosives, the engineers of the Emperor were obliged to chisel holes into the surface of the rock in which the supporting timbers were placed, braced underneath by more timbers set at an angle, and on those projecting beams the road was built.

From his work on the river in the Far East, the subject of conversation turned into a much smaller stream but one which may just at present have a greater interest for Plainfielders.

When Mayor Saunders was told of the condition of Green brook because of the sewage, and of the opposition to a public sanitary sewage system of some of the wealthy men who use the brook to empty their drains into, he expressed his astonishment that anyone who had the welfare of Plainfield in the least at heart should do anything that would for a moment hinder in any way the building of a system of sewers that would not only improve the sanitary condition of the town but would also give it a much better reputation as a place of residence.

"It is not for North Plainfield to inaugurate a sewerage system"—said the Mayor.—"Plainfield is larger and richer, and we have signified our desire to cooperate with her in building a system that will be effective for both sides of the brook. To my mind there is no doubt whatever, First, that such a system is needed; and Second, that the investigations which were made revealed the system best adapted to the needs of both city and borough; and it seems to me little short of a crime for anyone to stand willfully in the way of its earliest possible completion. We do not want to force an issue,"—continued Mr. Saunders—"but we would be allowed by law, if no action is taken in the matter, to make it very unpleasant for all those connected with the North avenue sewer. It might make the sanitary condition worse, however, instead of better, until sewers are put in, for if the connections with the sewer were cut off there would be no place at all to deposit the waste matter, as there is absolutely no place in the neighborhood for cesspools."

When asked if he intended to send any advices or instructions to the Borough Council before the next meeting, which takes place this week Friday, he laughed and said that he felt quite strange here, and should have to ask questions himself.

PARTICULAR MENTION.

Miss Emma Sutphen is spending a week among the hills of Hunterdon.

Miss Carrie Greene is visiting Mrs. David Rogers, of West Second street.

Miss Alice MacDonald, of Jersey City, is visiting Miss Mabel Force at Bound Brook.

The Misses Livezey, of Park avenue, have returned from a pleasant visit to Philadelphia.

Miss Mabel Wilson, one of Edsall's efficient helpers, will spend her summer vacation at Belmar.

All will rejoice to learn that a message from Asbury Park reports Cashier Gardner a trifle better.

Morris VanArsdale and family spent Sunday in town with Mrs. VanArsdale's sister, Mrs. W. H. Brokaw.

Miss Irene Epner has given up her position as typewriter in M. M. Dunham's office, for another position.

Miss Lizzie Dunn, of West Fourth street, is spending a week with relatives at Neshanic and Clover Hill.

Mrs. O. T. Waring and family, of Park avenue, will spend August at one of Rhode Island's summer resorts.

Mrs. Andrew Lutkins and Master Louis M. Hummer left Saturday for a stay of two or more weeks at Westwood.

J. O. Powers, one of H. P. Reynolds's trustworthy clerks, is drinking in the salt air at Asbury Park this week.

J. M. Messersmith and family have returned from White Lake, Sullivan county, N. Y., where they had been since June 30.

Barney Kelly, formerly of this city, but now on the Brooklyn police force, has been spending a few days with friends here.

The restful quiet of old Manasquan, on the Jersey coast, is giving enjoyment to Mrs. E. P. Thorn, of 352 East Front street.

W. J. Woodruff and family, of Union avenue, left Saturday to spend the remainder of the summer at shore and mountain.

Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Martin and their young daughter will spend the week with Mrs. Martin's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Radford, West Front street.

Mr. and Mrs. Carman Dunn, of West Philadelphia, have returned home after a pleasant sojourn among their many Plainfield friends and relatives.

Mrs. J. Hervey Doane and Miss May and Master Clyde will spend a portion of the month of August on the Rockview farm, under Washington Rock.

A despatch received from Mrs. F. A. Pope to-day states that all are well in her party and that they are proceeding to Alexandria Bay to spend a week or two there.

Street Commissioner Robt. A. Meeker and wife yesterday entertained the Rev. Cornelius Brett, D. D., of Jersey City, who preached in the Trinity Reformed church.

F. Treudlman, from the Auditor's office in Port Jervis, will begin his duties as Cashier in the Plainfield U. S. Express office to-morrow. He will make Plainfield his home.

Mrs. Wilkins and daughter Eva, of East Fifth street, have gone to Greenwich, Conn., to spend the month of August with Mrs. M. C. VanArsdale, who is a sister of Mrs. Wilkins.

Mrs. A. Hummer, of Annandale, with her granddaughter Miss Florence Hummer, is spending a few weeks with her sons, Louis A. and Charles Hummer of Somerset street, North Plainfield.

Mrs. J. A. Blatz, who had been ill for some time past, was prostrated again by seeing her laundress fall from the building at Somerset and Chatham streets last week. She is recovering gradually.

Mr. and Mrs. Wm. H. N. Cadmus, of Brooklyn, spent Sunday at the home of Mr. and Mrs. L. E. Cole, 78 Duer street, teaching their lovely grandchild Helen to walk and call them grandpa and grandma.

The congregation and members of Trinity Reformed church were warm in their praises of the two eloquent sermons delivered yesterday morning and evening by the Rev. Cornelius Brett, D. D., of Jersey City.

Mr. and Mrs. E. B. Ryder and family, accompanied by Mrs. T. J. Gillies and daughter Mabel, left at noon to-day for two weeks' rustication at Good Ground, L. I. The Springville House will be their headquarters.

William Wright, recent proprietor of the Arlington Hotel, North Plainfield, will start in a few days for the Adirondacks and Saratoga. Mrs. Wright's health is not good, and the change is made for the purpose of benefiting it.

All First Presbyterians were glad to have pastor C. E. Herring preach again yesterday. His recent illness, it transpires, was caused in a peculiar way. He rode 40 miles on his wheel, took a Russian bath, and broke out with a rash that threatened erysipelas.

Judge and Mrs. Wm. A. Coddington, Boniface John Beerbower and wife, and J. E. McClintock, of East Second street, who is Superintendent of the Oil City Boiler Works, will start for Budd's Lake Wednesday to spend 10 days at that quiet and delightful resort.

The Rev. Cornelius Schenck is at Weston, Somerset county. He will return to attend the consistory meeting of his church officers to-morrow evening, and the latter part of the week he and his family will seek complete rest and quiet during the month of August in the mountains, probably in New York State.

The funeral of the Rev. Marcus Ward Smalley, who came back from the West very ill and died Friday at the home of his father, John C. Smalley, will be held at 11 Maple avenue, North Plainfield, tomorrow afternoon at 2. Mr. Smalley was not yet 27 years of age, and in his death the ministry loses an earnest and promising preacher.

T. R. VanZandt, who has bought the grain and produce business of L. A. Hummer, at 304 Park avenue, will make 418 East Sixth street his home, and is domiciling his wife and family at that address. To make his acquaintance, is a pleasure, and he will undoubtedly become one of Plainfield's most honored and successful business men.

SUN-LIGHT and FRESH AIR are THE BEST DISINFECTANTS, of course; but you can't apply them in every situation. What next? Well, that depends. For damp cellars use Quicklime, plenty of it. For vaults and cesspools use COPPERAS; cheap stuff; we sell it by the pound or hundred-weight—instructions thrown in. For kitchen sinks, for water-closets, for house plumbing, for the sick room, to deodorize discharges, to purify the air and to prevent contagion, use REYNOLDS'S ODORLESS DISINFECTANT. Made and sold for fifteen years at

Reynolds's Pharmacy, Corner Park and North Avenues.

Must Have Cut Off the County Road.

Ex-Councilman and Mrs. Fred Slater of North Plainfield were among the many Plainfielders who rode their wheels to Cranford, Saturday evening, to witness the great carnival on the Cranford river. On the way home, they struck a spot of soft ground and sand, and had to dismount and walk for some distance. They reached home about midnight, much fatigued.

DEATHS.

SMALLEY—In North Plainfield, July 29, Rev. Marcus Ward Smalley, aged 26 years, 9 months and 4 days.

Relatives and friends are very respectfully invited to attend the funeral service at the residence of his father, Mr. John C. Smalley, sr., No. 11 Maple avenue, North Plainfield, N. J., on Tuesday afternoon, August 1, at 2 o'clock.

Notice to the Public.

I take this method of informing my friends and the public in general that I have sold out my City Produce business to Mr. T. R. VanZandt, and I ask for him the patronage of my friends and the public generally. All accounts due me can be settled at the old stand, where the books will be found. Respectfully

THE BUSY BUSINESS MAN

ALWAYS FINDS TIME TO READ THE DAILY PRESS

THE WHEELMEN'S EXPRESS.

Bicycles Being Developed into Baggage Wagons and Furniture Vans.

Shortly before 2 yesterday afternoon a flying wheelman appeared for a few seconds on Fifth street near Madison avenue, turned up Central avenue towards Sixth street, and in three vibrations of a butterfly's wing was lost to sight. Not, however, before the camera of at least one pair of eyes had obtained a snap shot of him and his burden. Of this latter, more anon. The result of the shot hangs now, a picture on memory's wall forever.

Distinguished from his fellows, yet unheralded, he came and went like a meteor—this maker of history, this marker of an epoch in the evolution and revolution of the wheel.

Talk not to the fin de siecle of the banner of this strange device, nor yet that scaler of virgin heights who bore it. He was very well indeed, for our forefathers, and in the old time before them ere yet our pioneer was in embryo, but where oh, where is that ornate standard-bearer now?

In the expressive, if familiar parlance of the day "He is out of sight".

No high-sounding scroll carried the record-breaker whom we celebrate, but mounted on a slender framework in front of him were two goodly specimens of the modern traveler's trunk, zinc-covered, iron-bound, brass-studded, and of fair proportions.

Old men and infants, young men and maidens, lunch-baskets, books, parcels, shawls, coats, ribbons, flowers, handkerchiefs, lemons, sponges, rocking chairs, etc., have flown by your reporter's coign of vantage; but never, never, never before, have these eyes taken a mental photograph of two trunks, with but a single head, on wheels! What next?

SNAP SHOT.

THAT RAILROAD COMING SURE.

Encouraging Reports by the Engineering Corps—Four Million Capital Back of It.

The great electric railway scheme which, as announced in these columns Saturday, is to connect Plainfield with a number of other New Jersey towns, and which is purposed to open up the First mountain as a magnificent site for homes, is well backed financially. The undertaking, it is believed, will be an assured success. The Newark Evening News says that there is at least $4,000,000 back of it, and the men who are to handle the big undertaking have been in the business of railroad conduction before, and all are well posted. A. D. Thompson of this city is one of the most active and enthusiastic of the projectors.

The engineer, who is at present going over the proposed route, is expected to render a report within a fortnight, and the company will then be able to give out more definite information as to what course the road will take to make proper connections with various railroads.

"Everything in connection with the enterprise will be as complete as money can make it"—said one of the interested capitalists. "The work of the engineer so far has been very encouraging to the company."

IN BORROWED PLUMES.

A Plainfield Darkey Girl of Topsy Proclivities Gets in Trouble.

Tillie Hicks, a young colored woman of 19 years, shuffled her feet nervously on the floor of the station-house court room this morning, and "fessed" to the temporary theft of garments of her employer, Mrs. Ross, of Plainfield avenue. Tillie is very fond of finery, and has been in the habit of wearing the fine gowns and jewelry of both Mrs. Ross and her daughter. The women were shocked and mortified at discovering this, and had Tillie arrested. The girl pleaded guilty, and said if she were released she'd go straight to her home in Brooklyn and never bother Plainfield again. Judge Coddington suspended sentence and gave her an hour to leave town.

Plainfield at the Park.

[From The Bradleyville Journal.]

Plainfield forever! Again she sent fourteen coaches loaded with pleasure seekers to Asbury Park. They knew the ropes and had something out out for every minute of their stay. They were early birds, and departed for the "Colorado of the East" at 5:30.

One Plainfield boy had a high old time to relate when he got back. He went sailing on the Emma B., got seasick, lost his hat, had an involuntary bath, and arrived at the station half an hour after his train had gone. His hat was chalked through by a regular.

I feel it my duty to say a few words in regard to Ely's Cream Balm, and I do so entirely without solicitation. I have used it more or less half a year, and have found it to be most admirable. I have suffered from catarrh of the worst kind ever since I was a little boy and I never hoped for cure, but Cream Balm seems to do even that. Many of my acquaintances have used it with excellent results. Oscar Ostrum, 45 Warren ave., Chicago, Ill.

The children's health must not be neglected. Cold in the head causes catarrh. Ely's Cream Balm cures at once. It is perfectly safe and is easily applied into the nostrils. The worst cases yielding to it. Price 50c.

PLAINFIELD'S UNFORTUNATES.

A QUARTETTE OF BAD ACCIDENTS IN TWO DAYS.

Painter Hiram Voorhees Is Dying of His Fall—William Crawford, and William Wilson Crushed by Jersey Central Trains, But Likely to Recover—Robt. Rushton Much Better.

Hiram Voorhees, the painter who fell from the second story to the cellar of W. D. Murray's new house on Ninth street, Saturday, and received severe internal injuries, besides breaking his collar-bone, is dying in Muhlenberg Hospital.

Two men are at the hospital undergoing treatment who were hurt by trains Saturday and Sunday.

William Crawford was found beside the track near Plainfield avenue at 8:45 Saturday night. His leg was badly crushed, and it was found necessary to amputate the limb, but thanks to the tender care of matron and surgeons the patient is doing well. It is not known by what train he was injured.

William Wilson, while intoxicated at the North avenue station, Sunday morning, about 10, attempted to board a passing coal train. He slipped, and his foot was crushed. He was removed to his home near the street-car house and afterward to the Muhlenberg Hospital, where the physicians are awaiting developments to know whether or not it will be necessary to amputate the limb. Wilson lost his other leg by the cars some time ago.

The recovery of both men is expected.

Robert Rushton, the man who was hurt Saturday morning in the Board of Trade building by falling from a trestle while hanging paper for Woolston & Buckle, the North avenue decorators, is about again to-day attending to his work. His injuries amounted to only a few bruises and slight cuts.

At 3 this afternoon Voorhees was reported still alive and Crawford doing well. Wilson's foot is worse, and will probably have to be amputated.

WONDERFUL MRS. BAKER.

Though Nearing 104, She Spends Every Birthday Anniversary with Relatives in Plainfield.

A. D. Hope writes to the Elizabeth Journal that James Clark of this city gave him, about a year ago, an account of a woman living within a short distance of Westfield, Mr. Clark's birthplace, who was in her 103d year, and said if he called on his sister, Miss Mary Clark, she would go with him to see the remarkable woman and introduce him. "Yesterday afternoon, therefore,"—writes Mr. Hope—"I called on Miss Clark, and we visited Mrs. Nancy Baker at her home, about halfway from Westfield to Springfield. She was born March 10, 1790, at Springfield, and has lived 68 years upon her farm, her present home. Her first husband was Stewart Mills, by whom she had six children, of whom four are still living. Her second husband, William Baker, died some twelve years ago. Mrs. Baker has always enjoyed good health; her faculties are still unimpaired, with the exception of a slight failure in seeing and hearing. She is very bright and cheery; her face fair and without wrinkles. She still takes an interest in her farm, but complains that they do not keep up the fences now as formerly. It was a great pleasure to see and talk with her. She said she was waiting patiently for her Saviour to call her home. Westfield has a remarkable list of aged persons who have lived there, but none, however, attained the age of Mrs. Nancy Baker."

Mrs. Baker is a great-great-grandmother in the George A. Moore family, and visits them once a year.

That's the Kind of an Officer He Is!

Street Commissioner Robert A. Meeker has of his own accord brought about another public benefit. The Press merely asked him to clear away the branches that obstructed the flow of water past the Orthodox Friends' meeting-house on East Front street. He has not only done this, but has persuaded the good Friends to let him remove the little bridge that was responsible for this choking up of the gutter. There'll be no more cause for complaint from that quarter.

Music for the Masses.

A movement is on foot to have a series of open-air concerts, the same as last season. Proprietor John E. Beerbower of the City Hotel lost money by the project in '92, but he is always willing to help in a good cause, and has proffered his first veranda to the band under the same conditions as last year.

'T WAS NEVER BETTER.

Base-Ball in Plainfield Now at the Height of Its Beauty and Glory—Good Games Past and to Come.

New Brunswick came to Plainfield Saturday and was conquered. As an exhibition of base-ball 't was very pretty on both sides. The fielding was superb, for both the home team and the visitors. The difference lay in the hitting. Keenan and Turner alike were a puzzle to the Raritan river boys, while the lot was hardly big enough for the stalwart Crescent batsmen. The only chap who did absolutely nothing for Plainfield was Murphy. With that exception the entire team showed the benefit of playing two or three extra games a week. Ice-box Keenan struck out the entire side in the ninth inning.

The score:

Johnny Ward of the New Yorks has at last opened his mouth about his surrendering the Crescente' old pet player to Brooklyn.

"The reason I released Keeler", said Ward, in substance, "was because I needed the $800 offered for his release by the Brooklyn Club to purchase the release of Petty, the Southern League pitcher. I need another pitcher, and, to tell the truth, I had n't much use for Keeler. He's a nice boy and a good player, I think, and was anxious to get into some club where he could play steadily. If a player is kept upon the bench for a season he is practically dead to the base-ball world, and liking Keeler I released him to the Brooklyns when they made an offer. I don't want to hurt Keeler in any way, but these left-handed third basemen seem to be too much handicapped to suit me. I gave Keeler three chances on this Western trip, and, to tell the truth, he had much to do with losing the three games he was in. Of course I might have kept him for an outfielder, but I am pretty well fixed that way."

"Is there any truth that Harry Wright offered $1,500 for Keeler's release?"

"None whatever. The best offer I have received is Brooklyn's $800, and that I accepted for reasons I have explained."

"There is some adverse talk about you releasing Keeler in view of the rivalry between the teams."

"Well," said John, slowly, "they wanted him badly, and I laid my personal feeling in the matter aside. I did n't want to act the dog-in-the-manger part, because the cities are pretty close."

Keeler, by the way, has started in on the Brooklyns in great shape. He's making more and longer hits than any other man on the team, and is a favorite among all. That's to expected of Manager Keller's graduates. The New York papers speak highly of his base-running, also.

The base-ball lovers who stay away from next Saturday's game on the Crescent field don't deserve the name of kranks. The great Woodbridge team is coming, and though the impression may obtain that Woodbridge is n't much of a town do n't let that idea fool you about its base-ball team. This team is made up largely of crack college players, who play ball with all the earnestness and devotion of their brain and brawn combined, and the great and only Brown brothers also are on this team. 'Twill be just like bucking against the doughty Princeton nine. College boys always put life and ginger into a game, and the Brown boys are a circus in themselves. If the Plainfield players succeed in defeating Woodbridge 'twill be a famous victory.

It is rumored that Fritz is about to ask for his release, to go to Scranton. In case he goes, why not secure Rafferty, who is anxious to join the Crescents and whom all the kranks would like to see here?

Westfield walloped Somerville, Saturday, by the score of 9 to 1. Harkins was hammered for 12 hits, and 5 of Westfield's runs were earned.

The New York Sun speaks of Mullins as the star shortstop because he accepted 9 chances on a perfect field. Plainfield's Leo Smith has made only 1 error in 27 chances, in the last five games, playing on all sorts of grounds.

SUICIDE OF A DOCTOR.

A. I. Burton, a Young Physician, Kills Himself.

NEW YORK, July 31.—Dr. Augustus I. Burton, a young physician well known in this city, committed suicide some time during last night or early this morning by taking chloral. He was found dead in bed at 7:30 this morning by his father, Dr. Reuben B. Burton.

The Burtons, father and son, lived at 223 East Forty-eighth street.

The elder Burton is one of the oldest and best known physicians in that part of the city, and has a large practice. He was assisted by his son when the latter was sober, which it seems was not often of recent years.

The young doctor's habits have been bad for some time. He once before took an overdose of chloral which came near killing him.

ROBBERY OF A POST-OFFICE.

The Safe Blown Open, and Valuable Papers Secured.

BALDWIN, L. I., July 31.—When Postmaster T. D. Smith opened the Post-office this morning he found that burglers had entered during the night and blown open the safe. The thieves secured valuable papers, but very little cash.

Saturday evening Postmaster Smith noticed two suspicious-looking men near the Post-office. Before he closed the Post-office for the night he took the precaution to remove nearly all the cash and stamps from the safe and take them to his house. The burglars broke into the Post-office some time between midnight and daylight this morning.

GOOD RIDDANCE, THE HOODOO.

May the Board of Trade Luck Be Better Than the Crescent League's!

Members of the House Committee of the Board of Trade state that the house will not be ready for occupancy until later in the week, in spite of the statement made by another paper that it would be opened to-night. Woolston & Buckle are doing the decorating in their usual excellent manner, and the job will be one to be proud of when finished. The stone which bore the name of the Crescent League on the front wall has been removed, and a new one put in place informing the passers-by that the building is the home of the Board of Trade. The trim tablet is the gift of William C. Smith to the Board. The change of the stone will remind readers of The Press of the fact that was exclusively told in these columns at the time, that the old Crescent League tablet was made from an old gravestone and the name was cut on the back. To that fact many of the members of the League attributed the constant misfortune attending that organization. The Press sincerely hopes that with the removal of the alleged Hoodoo all traces of its accompanying bad luck will disappear.

THIS TRICK GETTING COMMON.

It Was Worked Successfully on Uncle Dan Roberts Only a Few Days Before.

Two young men, one described as slim and the other rather stout with dark mustache, went to the Railroad House, Somerville, Thursday, pretending to be drummers for a wholesale house in New York. Saturday they hired a rig from C. R. Prall, the liveryman, and drove to this city. They put up at Boice's Hotel in North Plainfield, and had the horse fed, stating that they were going to call on some customers who would not be home until dusk. Mr. Boice had the horse cared for, and kept it until late at night, when a man came down from Somerville in response to a telegram received by the owner from the alleged drummers, dated New York. Mr. Prall was glad to get his rig, but the expenses go to the loss side of the ledger.

Doing Like Other Good Banks.

The Plainfield Dime Savings Institution has deemed it advisable and to the best interests of itself and its depositors to follow the example of the New York and Brooklyn banks and take advantage of its legal right to require its depositors to give a notice of 30 or 60 days, according to the amount, before withdrawing any deposits. The Savings Institution has always held the interest of its depositors first in its consideration, and is entitled to every confidence.

HILLSIDE DEFEATED.

Bergen Point Carries Off the Silkon Banner that Walz and Simmonds Strove for.

The last hope of the Hillside Tennis Club, that of winning both matches Saturday at Jersey City and tieing all the teams, proved a vain one. Although the team did good work in the second match, the first was played loosely and lost easily. In spite of the heavy rains in the morning, the courts between Highland and Glenwood avenues, Jersey City Heights, were in excellent condition, and a small crowd of people turned out to see the play.

Lemonade, cake and iced tea were served under a huge Japanese umbrella, and the spectators hugged the little spots of shade on the courts trying to keep out of the sun. The results of the play were as follows, Simmonds and Walz winning their match against Jersey City by accurate lobbing and good net play?

FIRST SERIES.

Howard and Smith, Bergen Point, beat Walz and Simmonds, Plainfield, 6—4, 4—6, 6—1.

Howard and Smith, Bergen Point, beat Post and Strong, Jersey City, 6—3, 6—2.

Walz and Simmonds, Plainfield, beat Post and Strong, Jersey City, 7—5, 10—8.

The score in matches:

Bergen Point won 4, lost 2; Jersey City won 3, lost 3; Plainfield won 2, lost 4.

After the play, the teams dined with Mr. Post at Jersey City and passed a most enjoyable evening.

More Red Tape About Drawing Pensions.

Bona-fide pensioners in this city have received from Pension Agent Loveland a copy of the following order:

The pensioner must exhibit his certificate every time he or she executes a voucher. If certificate has been lost, a permit must be had from the Commissioner of Pensions, and that must be attached to the voucher and mailed to him; otherwise no payment can be made.

EACH TEAM SHOOTS AT 100.

Lively Contest in Progress Between Local and Foreign Marksmen.

A selected few sportsmen are in attendance to-day at the Climax Gun Club ground to witness a pigeon match between Charles Smith of this city and John Rothaker of Philadelphia, against Capt. A. W. Morey of Oakland and M. F. Lindsley of Hoboken. The terms of the match are 50 live birds per man, or 100 birds a side, the losers to pay the expenses of the shoot.

THE GREAT PANTALOON SALE.

The Rush for Bargains Increases Daily.

If you look in any of Watson's Broad and Market street windows you will see what makes the rush inside, as all the "broken lots" of $5, $6, and $7 Pantaloons are shown there at $3 a pair, for any kind, style or pattern you may select; and it is a poor buyer who cannot pick out a couple of pair cut from surplus custom patterns in better shape and more perfect fitting form than any merchant tailor can get them up. Of course the first buyers get the finest goods and handsomest patterns, and many find a whole suit of a handsome Dress Coat and Vest cheap enough to lay away for future use, as Watson & Co. make no reserve of the choicest garments in their immense stock. Tell your friends about this great Pantaloon Sale.—Newark Item.

As We Were Saying

The purchase of a musical instrument is an important step. You don't buy a Piano for to-morrow, or day after, but for a long term of years. Saving on the price at the expense of the quality is about as foolish a thing as can well be thought of. We have sifted through the world of Pianos; those we have kept we know to be the best; Steinway, Gabler, Vose, Sterling and Brau-Muller. We are so sure of our judgment that we give a written guarantee with every instrument we sell.

INTELLIGENT SPIDERS.

How One of the Bright Creatures Saved Itself from Drowning.

I think spiders are the brightest creatures of the insect world. What other insects roam on land, travel through the air, walk and sail on the water, and even make diving-bells for themselves, so as to live under water?

Look at the feats they accomplish as engineers and architects. They are both house-builders and bridge-builders who can build anywhere. When difficulties present themselves, the spider usually overcomes them in so masterful a manner as to win admiration from human beings.

If, in making a bridge from one tree to another, the branches interfere with the free passage of their lines, they lower themselves—in a cradle made for this purpose—until the way is clear. Then the line is spun out and the wind kindly carries it across for them. The wind and the spider are in partnership when a bridge is to be built. The spider furnishes from his own body the silken strand and fastens his end of it; the wind takes the other end and carries it across a stream, perhaps across a road, thirty or forty feet wide.

If by chance a spider falls into the water far from land, it is sure to find some clever way of reaching shore. The spider may walk on the water, or, if there is a breeze, he may sail ashore. If he happens to find something floating, he will make a lifeboat of it. It does not take long to cover the floating straw, or seed, or whatever it may be, with net, and thereby make of it a beautiful silken raft.

I send you a drawing showing a spider which was dropped into the water, near the silken ball of a cocoon. The spider at once threw strands across the ball and attached herself to it. Lazily and gently the silken buoy bobbed across the surface of the water, and, with the wind's help, cocoon and spider were soon safe ashore.—Meredith Nugent, in St. Nicholas.

TREES IN RELIGION.

Curious Beliefs Existing in Different Parts of the World.

According to the Edda, all mankind are descended from the ash and elm, into which was breathed the spirit of life by Odin and his brothers when journeying over the earth. According to an old and widespread legend current in India, Brahma came forth from the verdant stem of the lotus—a plant even yet held in the utmost veneration among the natives of Asiatic countries.

This notion of our tree descent is of very great antiquity; we all know that Homer and Virgil, Juvenal and Euripides, with other great writers of the past, refer to it in their works. The Buddhists of Thibet regard the peepul tree as the bridge of safety, across which mortals wend their way into the unseen world.

Among the Jews and the Persians the pomegranate was held in the highest reverence, from an old tradition which imagined it to have been the forbidden fruit of which our first parents partook in the Garden of Eden.

The late Gen. Gordon firmly believed the Coco de Mer to be the forbidden fruit, and the Seychelles islands to be the site of the Garden of Eden. This idea was so firmly fixed in his mind that he caused soundings to be taken of the surrounding sea, for the purpose of tracing the courses of the four rivers, and the results confirmed him in his belief.

The Siamese always offer libations to trees before cutting them down. The natives of Sumatra pay special honor to certain trees supposed to embody the wood spirits, while the inhabitants of the Society islands pay similar respect to some plants.

The Wallachians believe that flowers are possessed of souls, and the Westphalian peasantry consider it necessary to inform the nearest oak tree of any death which has taken place in a family.

He Talked Too Much.

Fiddleback—Well, Miss Spooner, I must be going. By Jove! where is my hat?

Little Bobbie Spooner (from the head of the stairs)—You can't have that hat until I see you kiss my sister.

Miss Spooner—Oh, Bobbie, you bad boy, do you know what you are saying?

Bobbie—You bet. Make it a half a dollar, Sis, and I'll get him to do it twice.—Life.

A Mother's Duty.

"Watch your daughter's physical development.

"Nature has provided a time for purification, and if the channels are obstructed, the entire system is poisoned, and misery comes.

"Irregularities from any cause, at any age, are sure indications of organic trouble.

MRS. CHAS. HINES

"With irregularities come disturbances of the stomach and kidneys, violent headaches, shooting pains, extreme lassitude, and irritability.

"Remove the trouble at once, or a whole life will be sacrificed.

"Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound will accomplish the work speedily.

"It is the most effective remedy for irregular or suspended action known to the world."—Mrs. Chas. Hines, Box 212, Duncannon, Pa.

Any Time is the right time for everybody to drink Hires' Root Beer

A temperance drink.
A home-made drink.
A health-giving drink.
A thirst-quenching drink.
A drink that is popular everywhere.
Delicious, Sparkling, Effervescent.

A 25 cent package makes 5 gallons of delicious beverage. Don't be deceived into buying for the sake of larger profit, tells you some other kind is "just as good"—'tis false. No imitation is as good as the genuine Hires.
